11 THE BIBLE and Holy Scriptvres conteyned in the Olde and Newe Testament. Translated according to the Ebrue and Greke and conferred vvith the best translations in diuers langages, etc. Device on title, a few woodcuts, Roman Letter. 4°. At Geneva, Printed by Iohn Crispin, 1570, 68, 69.

D. & M. 94. This is the second edition of the Genevan version in 4°. The book has three titles with Crespin's device, O.T. dated (?) 1570 (last figure torn away), N.T. 1568, and The Whole Booke of Psalmes, collected into Englishe metre by T. Sternhod [sic], I. Hopkins and others [with musical notation], dated 1569. At the end of the Psalms are certain prayers which should be followed by Calvin's catechism, which is wanting. This copy also wants (or never had) the Calender Historical (8 leaves) and the greater part of OOO.i. (in the Psalms in metre), 4 of the folding maps and part of the fifth; the folding table in Leviticus is supplied in facsimile; the first title is slightly defective, the last figure of date and part of one letter being torn away; several leaves have been mended, and the marginal notes on one are slightly defective. Many leaves are slightly soiled There are some neat old MS. notes.

This copy possibly belonged to Henry Cheke, son of the great Sir John Cheke and nephew of Lord Burghley, and himself a famous man. His second wife was Frances Constable, whom he married in 1585. On a blank leaf after the Table is written 'ffrauncis Cheeke,' and in a more formed hand 'ffrances Cheeke Wid. 1626, her Booke Amen.' (I cannot find out when the wife of H. Cheke died, but the date 1626 seems a little late). On the back of the N.T. title 'henry' is written twice. The name Alexander Cheeke occurs several times. Not long after 1626 the book appears to have been bound for Alexander Cheeke, possibly at Cambridge; the binding is of calf, with a gilt stamp in the centre of each cover, with the initials A and C on either side of it; the binding is worn. On two blank pages after the O.T. are 3 impressions of a small stamp with the Royal Arms and the initials C. R. This is probably the library stamp of Charles I. or II. £2/15/-

EX BIBLIOTHECA GENEVENSI

TO THE MOSTE VERTVOVS AND NOBLE QVENE ELISABET, QVENE OF England, France, and Ireland, &c. Your humble subiects of the English Churche at Geneua, vvish grace and peace from God the Father through Christ Iesus our Lord.

HOw hard a thing it is, and what great impedimentes let, to enterprise any worthie act, not onely dailie experience sufficiently sheweth (moste noble & vertuous Quene) but also that notable prouerbe doeth cõfirme, the same, which admonisheth vs, that all things are hard which are faire & excellẽt. And what enterprise can there be of greater importance, & more acceptable vnto God, or more worthie of singuler cõcommendation, then the building of the Lords || Tẽple, the || house of God, the || Church of Christ, whereof the || Sonne of God is the head and perfection? 1. Cor. 3. 17. 1. Tim. 3. 14. Ephes. 1. 22. Ebr. 3. 6.

When Zerubbabel went about to builde ỹ material Tẽple, according to ỹ commãdemẽt of ỹ Lord, what difficulties & stayes || daily arose to hinder his worthy indeuours, ỹ bookes of Ezra & Esdras playnely witnesse: how ỹ not only he & ỹ people of God were sore molested ẅ || forẽyn aduersaries, (whereof some maliciously || warred against thẽ, & corrupted ỹ Kings officers: & others craftely practised vnder || pretence of religiõ) but also at home ẅ domestical enemies, as || false Prophetes, || craftie worldings, faint hearted soldiers, & || oppressors of their brethren, who aswel by false doctrine & lyes, as by subtil counsel, cowardies, & extortion, discouraged the heartes almoste of all: so that the Lords worke was not only interrupted and left of for || a long tyme, but scarcely at the length with great labour and danger after a || sort brought to passe. 1. Esdr. 2. 16. Ezra 4. 7. Ezara 4. 2. Nehem. 6. 10. Nehem. 6. 16 Nehem. 5. 1. Iohn. 2. 20. Ezra 3. 12.

Which thing when we weigh aright, & consider earnestly how muche greater charge God hath laid vpon you in making you a builder of his spiritual Temple, we cã not but partely feare, || knowing ỹ craft and force of Satan our spiritual enemie, & ỹ weakenes & vnabilitie of this our nature: & partely be feruent in our prayers toward God that he wolde bring to perfection this noble worke ẅ he hath begon by you: & therefore we indeuour our selues by all meanes to ayde, & to bestowe our whole force vnder your graces stãdard, whome God hath made as our Zerubbabel for the erecting of this moste excellent Temple, & to plant and maynteyn his holy worde to the aduãcement of his glorie, for your owne honour and saluatiõ of your soule, & for the singuler cõfort of that great flocke which Christ Iesus the || great shepherd hath boght with his || precious blood, & committed vnto your charge to be fed both in body and soule. 2. Cor. 2. 15.

Considering therefore how many enemies there are, ẅ by one meanes or other, as the || aduersaries of Iudah & Beniamin went about to stay the building of ỹ Temple, so labour to hinder ỹ course of this building (whereof some are Papistes, who vnder prete̅ce of fauoring Gods worde, traiterously seke to erect idolatrie & to destroy your maiestie: some are worldlings, who as || Demas haue forsakẽ Christ for ỹ loue of this worlde: others are ambicious prelats, who as || Amasiah & || Diotrephes cã abide none but thẽ selues: & as || Demetrius many practise sedition to maynteyne their errors) we persuaded our selues that there was no way so expedient & necessarie for the preseruation of the one, & destructiõ of ỹ other, as to present vnto your Maiestie the holy Scriptures faithfully & playnely translated according to ỹ langages wherein thei were first written by ỹ holy Ghost. For ỹ worde of Gods is an euidẽt token of Gods || loue & our assurãce of his defence, whereso euer it is obediẽtly receyued: it is the trial of ỹ || spirits: & as ỹ Prophet saieth || It is as a fyre & hammer to breake ỹ stonie heartes of thẽ that resist Gods mercies offred by ỹ preachin̅g of ỹ same. Yea it is || sharper thẽ any two edged sworde to examine ỹ very thoghtes & to iudge ỹ affectiõs of the heart, & to discouer whatsoeuer lyeth hid vnder hypocrisie & wolde be secret frõ the face of God and his Churche. So that this must be ỹ first fundacion & ground worke, according whereunto ỹ good stones of this building must be framed, and the euil tried out and reiected. Ebr. 13. 20. 1. Pet. 1. 19. The enemies ẅ labour to stay religion. Ezra 4. 1. 2. Tim. 4. 10. Amo. 7. 12. 3. Iohn 9. Act. 19. 26. The necessitie of gods worde for ỹ reforming of religion. Iohn 14. 14. 1. Iohn. 4. 1. Ier. 23 29. Ebr. 4. 12. The grounde of true religion.

Now a he that goeth about to lay a fundaciõ surely, first taketh away suche impedimentes, as might iustely ether hurt, let or disforme the worke, so is it necessarie that All impedimentes must be taken away.

Isa.32 2. The maner of building is as God hathe prescribed by his worde.

Isa.55 8. Exod.25 4. act.7 44. chr. 8.5.

your graces zeale appeare herein, ỹ nether ỹ craftie persuasiō of man,nether worldly pōlicie,or natural feare dissuade you to roote out,cut downe & destroy these wedes & impedimētes ẅ do not onlly deface your building,but vtterly indeuour,yea & threatē the ruine thereof.For when ỹ noble‖Iosias entrepriséd ỹ like kinde of worke,among other notable & many things he destroyed,not only ẅ vtter cōfusion the idoles ẅ their apperrinances,but also burnt(in signe of detestatiō)ỹ idolatrous priests bones vpō their altars, & put to‖ death the falle prophetes & sorcerers, to performe‖ ỹ wordes of the Lawe of God: and therefore the Lord gaue him good succesſe and blessed him wonderfully, so long as he made‖Gods worde his line and rule to followe, & enterprised nothing before he had inquired at the mouth of the Lord.

And if these zealous begynnings seme dāgerous & to brede disquietnes in your dominions,yet by ỹ storie of King‖ Asa it is manifest, ỹ the quietnes &‖peace of kingdomes stādeth in ỹ vtter abolishing of idolatrie,& in aduācing of true religion: for in his dayes Iudah lyued in rest & quietnes for ỹ space of fyue & thirtie yere, til at lēgth he began to be colde in ỹ zeale of ỹ Lord,feared ỹ power of mā,imprisoned ỹ Prophet of God,& oppressed the people:then ỹ Lord sent him warres,& at lēgth toke him away by death.

Wherefore great wisdome, not worldelie, but heauēly is here required,ẅ your grace must earnestly craue of the Lord,as did‖ Salomō,to whome God gaue an vnderstanding heart to iudge his people aright,& to discerne betwene good & bad. For if God for the furnishing of the olde tēple gaue ỹ Spirit of wisdome & vnderstanding to thē ỹ shulde be ỹ workemen thereof,as to‖ Bezaleel, Aholiab,&‖ Hiram:how muche more wil he indewe your grace & other godly princes & chefe gouernours with a principal Spirit,that you may procure and commande things necessarie for this moste holy Temple, foresee and take hede of things that might hinder it, and abolish and destroy whatsoeuer might impere and ouerthrowe the same?

Moreouer the maruelous diligēce & zeale of Iehoshaphat,Iosiah,& Hezekiah are by the singuler prouidēce of God left as an exāple to all godly rulers to reforme their coūtreys & to establish ỹ worde of God ẅ all spede, lest the‖ wrath of ỹ Lord fall vpon thē for the neglecting thereof. For these excellēt Kings did not onely imbrace the worde promptely & ioyfully,but also procured earnestly & cōmanded the same to be taught, preached & maynteyned through all their countreys & dominions,‖ bynding thē and all their subiectes bothe great & smale ẅ solēne protestatiōs & couenātes before God to obey the worde,and to walke after the waies of ỹ Lord.Yea & in the daies of Gyng ‖Asa it was enacted ỹ whosoeuer wolde not seke the Lord God of Israel,shulde be slayne,whether he were smale or great,man or womā.And for ỹ establishing hereof & performance of this soléne oth,aswel‖ Priests as Iudges were appointed & placed through all the cities of Iudah to instruct the people in the true knowledge and feare of God, & to ministre iustice according to the worde, knowing that, except God by his worde dyd reigne in‖ ỹ heartes & soules,all mās diligence & indeuors were of none effect,for without this worde we can not discerne betwene iustice,& iniurie,protectiō & oppression,wisdome and foolishnes,knoweledge & ignorance, good and euil. Therefore the Lord,who is ỹ chefe gouernour of his Church,willeth ỹ nothing be attēpted before we haue inquired thereof at his mouth,For seing he is our God,of duetie we must giue him this preeminence,ỹ of our selues we entrepriſe nothing,but that ẅ he hath appointed, who only knoweth all things,and gouerneth thē as may best serue to his glorie & our saluation. We ought not therefore to preuēt him,or do any thing without his worde, ‖but assone as he hath reueiled his wil immediately to put it in execution.

Now as concerning the maner of this building,it is not according to mā,nor after ỹ wisdome of ỹ flesh,but of ỹ Spirit,& according to the worde of God, whose‖waies are diuers from mās waies.For if it was not lawful for Moses to builde ỹ material Tabernacle after any other sorte thē God had shewed him by a‖patern, nether to prescribe any other ceremonies & lawes then suche as ỹ Lord had expresly cōmanded: how can it be lawful to procede in this spiritual building any other waies,thē Iesus Christ the Sonne of God,who is bothe ỹ fundatiō, head & chief corner stone thereof,hath cōmanded by his worde?And for asmuche as he hath established & leaft an order in his Churche for the building vp of his body,‖appointing some to be Apostles,some Prophetes,others Euāgelistis, geliſtis,ſome paſtors,and teachers, he ſignifieth ỹ euery one according as he is placed in this body ẅ is ỹ Church, ought to inquire of his miniſters cõcerning ỹ wil of ỹ Lord, ẅ is reueiled in his worde.For thei are,ſaieth‖ Ieremiah, as ỹ mouth of ỹ Lord:yea he‖ promiſeth to be ẅ their mouth,& ỹ their‖lippes ſhal kepe knoweledge,& ỹ they ſeke ỹ trueth & ỹ law ſhalbe in their mouth.For it is their office chefely to vnderſtãd ỹ Scriptures & teache thẽ.For this cauſe ỹ people of Iſrael in matters of difficultie vſed to‖aſke ỹ Lord ether by ỹ‖ Prophetes,or by ỹ meanes of ỹ high‖Prieſt, who bare Vrim & Thũmim,ẅ were tokes of light & knowledge, of holines & perfectiõ ẅ ſhulde be in ỹ high Prieſt. Therefore whẽ Iehoſhaphat toke this order in ỹ Church of Iſrael,he appointed Amariah to be ỹ chief cõcerning ỹ worde of God,becauſe he was moſte expert in ỹ law of ỹ Lord, & colde gyue coũſel & gouerne according vnto ỹ ſame.Els there is no degre or office ẅ may haue ỹ autoritie & priuiledge to decide concerning Gods worde,except withall hit hath ỹ ſpirit of God,& ſufficiẽt knoweledge & iudgemẽt to define according thereũto. And as euery one is indued of God ẅ greater giftes,ſo ought he to be herein chefely heard,or at leaſt ỹ without ỹ expreſſe worde none be heard:for he ỹ hathe not ỹ worde‖ſpeaketh not by ỹ mouth of ỹ Lord.Agayne,what dãger it is to do any thing, ſeme it neuer ſo godly or neceſſarie,without conſulting ẅ Gods mouth,ỹ exãples of ỹ Iſraelites,‖deceiued hereby through ỹ Gibeonites,& of‖Saul,whoſe intẽtion ſemed good & neceſſarie:& of‖ Ioſiah alſo who for great conſiderations was moued for ỹ defence of true religiõ & his people,to fight againſt Pharaoh Necho King of Egypt,may ſufficiẽtly admoniſh vs. ¶ Laſt of all(moſte gracious Quene)for the aduancemẽt of this building & reaiing vp of ỹ worke, two things are neceſſarie, Firſt, ỹ we haue a lyuely and ſtedfaſt faith in Chriſt Ieſus,who muſt‖dwel in our heartes,as ỹ only meanes & aſſurãce of our ſaluation: for he is ỹ‖ladder ỹ reacheth from ỹ earth to heauẽ: he lifteth vp his Churche & ſetteth it in ỹ heauẽly places:he maketh vs‖lyuely ſtones & buildeth vs vpõ him ſelfe:he ioyneth vs to him ſelfe as ỹ mẽbres & body to ỹ head:yea he maketh him ſelfe & his Churche one‖Chriſt. The next is,ỹ our faith bring forthe good fruites, ſo ỹ our godly cõuerſation may ſerue vs as a witnes to‖ confirme our election, & be an exãple to all others to‖walke as apperteyneth to ỹ vocation whereũto thei are called: leſt the worde of God be‖euil ſpokẽ of, & this building be ſtayed to growe vp to a iuſt height,ẅ cã not be without ỹ great prouocatiõ of Gods iuſte vengeãce & diſcouraging of many thouſandes through all ỹ worlde,if thei ſhulde ſe ỹ our life were not holy and agreable to our profeſsion.For ỹ eyes of all ỹ feare God in all places beholde your countreyes as an‖exãple to all ỹ beleue,& ỹ prayers of all ỹ godly at all tymes are directed to God for ỹ preſeruation of your maieſtie.For cõſidering Gods wonderful mercies toward you at all ſeaſons,who hath pulled you out of ỹ mouthe of the lyons,and how ỹ from your‖youth you haue bene broght vp in ỹ holy Scriptures,ỹ hope of all mẽ is ſo increaſed,ỹ thei cã not but looke ỹ God ſhulde bring to paſſe ſome wõderful worke by your grace to ỹ vniuerſal cõfort of his Churche,Therefore euẽ aboue ſtrẽgth you muſt ſhewe your ſelfe ſtrong & bolde in Gods matters: & though Satã lay all his power and craft together to hurt & hinder ỹ Lordes building: yet be you aſſured ỹ God wil fight from heauẽ againſt this great‖dragon,ỹ ancient ſerpent, ẅ is called ỹ deuil & Satan, til he haue accõpliſhed ỹ whole worke & made his Churche‖glorious to him ſelfe, without ſpot or wrincle.For albeit all other kingdomes & monarchies , as the Babylonians, Perſiãs,Grecians & Romaines haue fallẽ & taken end:yet ỹ Churche of Chriſt euẽ vnder ỹ Croſſe hath frõ the begynning of ỹ worlde bene victorious,& ſhalbe euerlaſtingly.Trueth it is,that ſometyme it ſemeth to be ſhadowed ẅ a cloude,or driuen ẅ a ſtormie perſecutiõ,yet ſuddẽly ỹ beames of Chriſt ỹ ſunne of iuſtice ſhine & bring it to light & libertie.If for a tyme it lie couered ẅ aſhes yet it is quickely kindeled agayne by ỹ wynde of Gods Spirit:though it ſeme drowned in ỹ ſea,or parched and pyned in ỹ wildernes,yet God giueth euer good ſucceſſe.for he puniſheth the enemies,and deliuereth his,nouriſheth thẽ & ſtil preſerueth thẽ vnder his wyngs. This Lord of lordes & King of kings who hath euer defended his,ſtrengthẽ, cõfort & preſerue your maieſtie,ỹ you may be able to builde vp the ruines of Gods houſe to his glorie,the diſcharge of your conſcience & to the comfort of all thẽ ỹ loue the comming of Chriſt Ieſus our Lord.

THE BRETHREN OF ENGLAND,

Scotland, Ireland, &c. Grace, mercie and peace, through Christ Iesus.

BEsides the manifolde and continual benefites which almightie God bestoweth vpon vs, bothe corporal and spiritual, we are especially bounde (deare brethren) to giue him thankes without ceasing for his great grace and vnspeakable mercies, in that it hath pleased him to call vs vnto this meruelous light of his Gospel, & mercifully to regarde vs after so horrible backesliding and falling away from Christ to Antichrist, from light to darcknes, from the liuing God to dumme and dead idoles: & that after so cruel murther of Gods Saintes, as alas, hathe bene among vs, we are not altogether cast of, as were the Israelites, and many others for the like, or not so manifest wickednes, but receyued agayne to grace with moste euident signes & tokens of Gods especial loue and fauour. To the intent therefore that we may not be vnmyndeful of these great mercies, but seke by all meanes (according to our duetie) to be thankeful for the same, it behoueth vs so to walke in his feare and loue, that all the daies of our life we may procure the glorie of his holy name. Now forasmuche as this thing chefely is attayned by the knowledge and practising of the worde of God (which is the light to our paths, the keye of the kingdome of heauen, our comfort in affliction, our shielde & sworde against Satan, the schoole of all wisdome, the glasse wherein we beholde Gods face, the testimonie of his fauour, and the only foode and nourishment of our soules) we thoght that we colde bestowe our labours & studie in nothing which coulde be more acceptable to God & cōfortable to his Churche then in the translating of the holy Scriptures into our natiue tongue: the which thing, albeit that diuers heretofore haue indeuored to atchieue: yet considering the infancie of those tymes and imperfect knowledge of the tongues, in respect of this ripe age and cleare light which God hath now reueiled, the translations required greatly to be perused and reformed. Not that we vendicat any thing to our selues aboue the least of our brethren (for God knoweth with what feare and trembling we haue bene now, for the space of two yeres and more day & night occupied herein) but being earnestly desired, and by diuers, whose learning and godlynes we reuerence, exhorted, and also incouraged by the ready willes of suche, whose heartes God likewise touched, not to spare any charges for the furtherance of suche a benefite and fauour of God toward his Churche (thogh the tyme then was moste dangerous and the persecution sharpe and furious) we submitted our selues at length to their godly iudgementes, and seing the great oportunitie and occasions, which God presented vnto vs in this Churche, by reason of so many godly and learned men: & suche diuersities of translations in diuers tongues, we vndertoke this great and wonderful worke (with all reuerence, as in the presence of God, as intreating the worde of God, whereunto we thinke our selues vnsufficient) which now God according to his diuine prouidence and mercie hath directed to a moste prosperous end. And this we may with good conscience protest, that we haue in euery point and worde, according to the measure of that knowledge which it pleased almightie God to giue vs, faithfully rendred the text, and in all hard places moste syncerely expounded the same. For God is our witnes that we haue by all meanes indeuored to set forthe the puritie of the worde and right sense of the holy Ghost for the edifying of the brethren in faith and charitie.

Now as we haue chiefely obserued the sense, and laboured alwaies to restore it to all integritie so haue we moste reuerently kept the proprietie of the wordes, considering that the Apostles who spake and wrote to the Gentiles in the Greke tongue, rather constrayned them to the liuely phrase of the Ebrewe, then entrepriséd farre by mollifying their langage to speake as the Gentils did. And for this & other causes we haue in many places reserued the Ebrewe phrases, notwithstanding that thei may seme somewhat hard in their eares that are not wel practised and also delite not in the swete sounding phrases of ỹ holy Scriptures. Yet lest ether the simple shulde be discouraged, or the malicious haue any occasion of iust cauillation, seing some translations read after one sort, & some after another, whereas all may serue to good purpose & edification, we haue in the margent noted that diuersitie of speache or reading which may also seme agreable to the mynde of the holy Ghost and propre for our langage with this marke *.

A gayne where as the Ebrewe speache semed hardly to agre with ours, we haue noted it in the margent after this sort", vsing that which was more intelligible. And albeit that many of the Ebrewe names be altered from the olde text, and restored to the true writing and first original, whereof thei haue their signification, yet in the vsual names litle is changed for feare of troubling the simple readers. Moreouer whereas the necessitie of the sentēce required any thing to be added (for suche is the grace & proprietie of the Ebrewe and Greke tongues, that it can not but ether by circumlocution or by adding the verbe or some worde be vnderstand of them that are not wel practised therein) we haue put it in the text with another kynde of lettre, that it may easely be discerned from the common lettre. As touching the diuision of the verses, we haue followed the Ebrewe examples, which haue so, euen frō the begynning distinguished them. Which thing as it is moste profitable for memorie: so doeth it agre with ý best translations, & is moste easie to finde out both by the best Concordances, and also by the cetations which we haue dilygently herein perused and set forthe by this starre *. Besides this the principal matters are noted and distincted by this marke ¶. Yea and the argumentes bothe for the booke and for the chapters with the nombre of the verse are added, that by all meanes the reader might be holpen. For the which cause also we haue set ouer the head of euery page some notable worde or sentence which may greatly further aswel for memorie, as for the chief point of the page. And considering how hard a thing it is to vnderstand the holy Scriptures, and what errors, sectes and heresies growe dailie for lacke of the true knowledge thereof, and how many are discouraged (as thei pretend) becausse thei can not attaine to the true and simple meaning of the same: we haue also indeuored bothe by the diligent reading of the best commentaries, and also by the conference with the godly and learned brethren, to gather brief annotations vpon all the hard places, aswel for the vnderstanding of suche wordes as are obscure, and for the declaration of the text, as for the application of the same as may moste appertaine to Gods glorie and the edification of his Churche. Furthermore whereas certeyne places in the bookes of Moses, of the Kings and Ezekiel semed so darke ý by no descriptiō thei coulde be made easie to the simple reader, we haue so set them forthe with figures and notes for the ful declaration thereof, that thei which can not by iudgement, being holpen by the annotations noted by the lettres a b c. &c. atteyn thereunto, yet by the perspective, and as it were by the eye may sufficiently knowe the true meaning of all suche places. Whereunto also we haue added certeyne mappes of Cosmographie which necessarely serue for the perfect vnderstanding and memorie of diuers places and countryes, partely described, and partely by occasion touched, bothe in the olde and newe Testament. Finally that nothing might lacke which might be boght by labors, for ý increase of knowledge and furtherance of Gods glorie, we haue adioyned two moste profitable tables, the one seruing for the interpretation of the Ebrewe names: and the other conteyning all the chefe and principal matters of the whole Bible: so that nothing (as we trust) that any coulde iustely desire, is omitted. Therefore, as brethren that are partakers of the same hope and saluation with vs, we beseche you, that this riche perle and inestimable treasure may not be offred in vayne, but as sent from God to the people of God, for the increase of his kingdome, the comfort of his Churche, and discharge of our conscience, whome it hath pleased him to raise vp for this purpose, so you wolde willingly receyue the worde of God, earnestly studie it and in all your life practise it, that you may now appeare in dede to be the people of God, not walking any more according to this worlde, but in the frutes of the Spirit, that God in vs may be fully glorified through Christ Iesus our Lord, who lyueth and reigneth for euer. Amen.

THE FIRST BOKE OF

Moſés, called *Geneſis.

* * *

* This worde ſignifieth the beginning and generacion of the creatures.

THE ARGVMENT.

MOSES in effect declareth the things, which are here chiefly to be cõſidered: Firſt, that the worlde & all things therein were created by God, & that man being placed in this great tabernacle of the worlde to beholde Gods wonderful workes, & to praiſe his Name for the infinite graces, where with he had endued him, ſtil wilingly from God through diſobedience: who yet for his owne mercies ſake reſtored him to life & confirmed him in the ſame by his promes of Chriſt to come, by whome he ſhulde ouercome Satan, death and hel. Secõdely, that the wicked, vnmindeful of Gods moſte excellent benefites, remamed ſtil in their wickednes, & ſo filling moſte horribly from ſinne to ſinne, prouoked God (who by his preachers called them cõtinually to repentance) at length to deſtroye the whole world. Thirdly, he aſſureth vs by the examples of Abraham, Izhák, Iaakob, & the reſt of the Patriarkes, that his mercies neuer faile the, whome he chuſeth to be his Church, and to profeſſe his Name in earth, but in all their afflictions and perſecutions he euer aſſiſteth them, ſendeth cõforte, & deliuereth them. And becauſe the beginning, increaſe, preſeruacion and ſucceſſe thereof might be onely attributed to God, Moſes ſheweth by the examples of Kain, Iſhmaél, Eſáu, and others, which were noble in mans iudgement, that this Church dependeth not on the eſtimacion and nobilitie of the worlde: and alſo by the ſtwenes of them, which haue at all times worſhiped him purely according to his worde, that it ſtandeth not in the multitude, but in the poore and deſpiſed, in the ſmale flocke and litle nomber, that man in his wiſdome might be confounded, & the Name of God euer more praiſed.

CHAP. I.

1 God created the heauen & the earth. 3 The light & the darkenes. 8 The firmament. 9 He ſeparateth the water from the earth. 16 He createth the ſunne, the moone, & the ſtarres. 21 He createth the fiſh, birdes, beaſtes. 26 He createth man and giueth him rule ouer all creatures. 29 And prouideth nourriture for man and beaſt.

1 IN the [a] beginning *God created ſ heauen and the earth.

2 And the earth was [b] without forme & voyde, and [c] derkenes was vpon the depe, & the Spirit of God [d] moued vpon the waters.

3 Then God ſaid, * Let there be light: and there was [e] light.

4 And God ſaw ſ light that it was good, and God ſeparated the light from the darkenes.

5 And God called the light, Day, and the darkenes, he called Night. ‖ So the euening and ſ morning were the firſt day.

6 ¶ Againe God ſaid, * Let there be [f] a firmament in the middes of the waters: and let it ſeparate the waters from the waters.

7 Then God made the firmament, & parted the waters, which were [f] vnder the firmament, from the waters which were [g] aboue ſ firmament, and it was ſo.

8 And God called the firmament, [g] Heauen. ‖ So the euening and the morning were the ſeconde day.

9 ¶ God ſaid againe, * Let the waters vnder the heauen be gathered into one place, & let the drye land appeare. and it was ſo.

10 And God called the drye land, Earth, & he called the gathering together of the waters, Seas: & God ſawe that it was good.

11 Then God ſaid, [h] Let the earth budde forthe the budde of the herbe, that ſedeth ſede, the fruteful tre, which beareth frute according to his kinde, ſ [i] maie haue his ſede in it ſelf vpon the earth. & it was ſo.

12 And the earth broght forthe the budde of the herbe, that ſedeth ſede according to his kinde, alſo the tre that yeldeth frute, ſ hathe his ſede in it ſelfe according to his kinde: & God ſawe that it was good.

a First of all, & before that anie creature was, God made heaue and earth of noth ng. Pſal. 33, 6. & 136, 5. eccleſ. 18, 1. act. 14, 15. & 17, 24.

b As a rude lumpe & without anie creature in it: for the waters couered all.

c Darkenes couered the depe waters: for as yet the light was not created.

d He maintened this cõfuſe heape by his ſecret power. Ebr. 11, 3

e The light was made before ether ſunne or moone was created: therefore we muſt not attribute that to the creatures that are Gods inſtruments, which onely appertaineth to God.

13 ‖ So the euening and the morning were the third daie.
14 ¶ And God said, *Let there be k lightes in the firmament of the heauen, to separate the daie from the night, & let them be for m signes, and for seasons, and for daies and yeres.
15 And let them be for lightes in the firmament of the heauen to giue light vpon the earth. and it was so.
16 God then made two n great lightes: the greater light o to rule the daie, & the lesse light to rule the night: he made also the starres.
17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shine vpon the earth.
18 And to *rule in the daie, & in the night, and to separate the light from the darkenes: and God sawe that it was good.
19 ‖ So the euening and the morning were the fourth daie.
20 Afterwarde God said, Let the waters bring forthe in abundance euerie p creping thing that hathe " life: & let the foule flie vpon the earth in the " open firmament of the heauen.
21 Then God created the great whales, & euerie thing liuing & mouing, which the q waters broght forthe in abundance, according to their kinde, & euerie fethered foule according to his kinde: & God sawe that it was good.
22 Then God r blessed them, saying, Bring forthe frute and multiplie, and fil the waters in the seas, & let the foule multiplie in the earth.
23 ‖ So the euening & the morning were the fifte day.
24 ¶ Moreouer God said, Let the earth bring forthe the " liuing thing according to his kinde, cattel, & that which crepeth, & the beast of the earth, according to his kinde. and it was so.
25 And God made the beast of the earth according to his kinde, and the cattel according to his kinde, & euerie creping thing of the earth according to his kinde: & God sawe that it was good.
26 Furthermore God said, *t Let vs make man in our r image according to our lickenes, and let them rule ouer the fish of the sea, and ouer the foule of the heauen, and ouer the beastes, & ouer all the earth, and ouer euerie thing that crepeth & moueth on the earth.
27 *Thus God created the man in his image: in the image of God created he him: be created them * male and female.
28 And God v blessed them, and God said to them, * Bring forthe frute and multiplie, and fil the earth, and subdue it, and rule ouer the fish of the sea and ouer the foule of the heauen, & ouer euerie beast that moueth vpon the earth.
29 And God said, Beholde, I haue giuen vnto you x euerie herbe bearing sede which is vpon all the earth, & euerie tre, wherein is the frute of a tre bearing sede: that shalbe to you for meat.
30 Likewise to euerie beast of the earth, and to euerie foule of the heauen, & to euerie thing that moueth vpon the earth, which hathe life in it selfe, euerie grene herbe shalbe for meat. and it was so.
31 *And God sawe all that he had made, & lo, it was very good. ‖ So the euening and the morning were the sixt day.

1 THus the heauens and the earth were finished, & all the a hoste of them.
2 For in the seuenth day God ended his worke which he had made, * & the seuenth daye he b rested from all his worke which he had made.
3 So God blessed the seuenth day, & c sanctified it, because that in it he had rested from all his worke, which God had created and made.
4 ¶ These are the " generacions of the heauens and of y earth, when they were created, in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heauens,

6 But a myst went vp from the earth, and watred all the earth.
7 ¶ The Lord God also made the man e of the dust of the grounde, and breathed in his face breath of life, and the man was a liuing soule.
8 And the Lord God planted a garden Eastwarde in f Eden, and there he put the man whome he had made.
9 (For out of the grounde made the Lord God to growe euerie tre pleasant to the sight, and good for meat: y g tre of life also in the middes of the garden, h and the tre of knowledge of good and of euil.

15 ¶ Then the Lord God toke the manan, and put him into the garden of Ededen, that he might [k] dresse it and kepe it.

16 And the Lord God [l] commanded the man, saying, Thou shalt eat frely of euerie tre of the garden, 17 But as touching the tre of knowledge of good and euil, thou shalt not eat of it for [m] when soeuer thou eatest thereof, thou shalt dye the [n] death.

18 Also the Lord God said, It is not good that the man shulde be him selfe alone I wil make him an helpe [o] meete for him.

19 So the Lord God formed of the earth euerie beast of the field, and euerie foule of the heauen, & broght them vnto the [p] man to se how he wolde call them: for howsoeuer the man named the liuing creature, so was the name thereof.

20 The man therefore gaue names vnto all cattel, and to the foule of the heauen, and to euerie beast of the field: but for Adam founde he not an helpe mete for him.

21 ¶ Therefore the Lord God caused an heauie slepe to fall vpon the man: & whiles he slept he toke one of his rybbes and closed vp the flesh in steade thereof.

22 And the rybbe which the Lord God had taken from the man, [m] made he a [q] woman, and broght her to the man.

23 Then the man said, *This now is bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She shalbe called [n] woman, because she was taken out of man.

SOVTH.

Because mētion is made in the tenth verse of this seconde chapter of the riuer that watered the garden, we muste note that Euphrates and Tygris called in Ebrewe, Perath and Hiddekel, were called but one riuer where they ioyned together, els they had foure heades: that is, two at their springs, & two where they fel into the Persian sea. In this countrey and moste plentiful land Adam dwelt, and this was called Paradise that is, a garden of pleasure, because of the fruitefulnes and abundance thereof. And whereas it is said that Pishon compasseth the land of Hauilah: it is meant of Tygris, which in some countreis, as it passed by diuers places, was called by soudry names, as some time Diglitto, in other places Pasitygris, & of some Thasin or Pishon. Likewise Euphrates towarde the countrey of Cush or Ethiopia, or Arabia was called Gihon. So that Tygris and Euphrates (which were but two riuers, and some time when they ioyned together, were called after one name) were according to diuers places called by these foure names, so that they might seme to haue bene foure diuers riuers.

CHAP. III.

1 The woman seduced by the serpent, 6 Entiseth her husband to sinne. 14 They three are punished. 15 Christ is promised. 19 Man is dust. 22 Man is cast out of paradise.

1 NOw* the serpent was more [a] subtil then anie beast of the field, which the Lord God had made: and he [b] said to the woma, Yea, hathe God in dede said, Ye shal not eat of euerie tre of the garden?

2 And the woman said vnto the serpent, We eat of the frute of the trees of the garden,

3 But of the frute of the tre, which is in the middes of the garden, God hathe said, Ye shal not eat of it, nether shal ye touche it, [c] lest ye dye.

4 Then* the serpent said to the woman, Ye shal not [d] dye at all,

5 But God doeth knowe, that when ye shal eat thereof, your eyes shalbe opened, & ye shalbe as gods, [e] knowing good and euil.

6 So the woman (seing that the tre was good for meat, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, & a tre to be desired to get knowledge) toke of the frute thereof and did* eat, and gaue also to her husband with her, and he [f] did eat.

7 Then the eyes of them bothe were opened, & they [g] knewe that they were naked, and they sewed fig tre leaues together, and made them selues [h] breeches.

8 ¶ Afterwarde they heard the voyce of the Lord God walking in the gardē in the [i] coole of the day, and the man and his wife [k] hid them selues from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.

9 But the Lord God called to the man, and said vnto him, Where art thou?

10 Who said, I heard thy voyce in the garden, and was afraied: because I was [l] naked, therefore I hid my self.

11 And he said, Who tolde thee [m] that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tre, where of I commanded thee that thou shuldest not eat in no case?

12 Then the man said, The woma which thou [n] gauest to be with me, she gaue me of the tre, and I did eat.

13 And the Lord God said to the woma, Why hast thou done this? And the woman said, [o] The serpent beguyled me, and I did eat.

14 ¶ Then the Lord God said to the serpent, [p] Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed aboue all cattel, and aboue euerie beast of the field: vpon thy belly shalt thou go, and [q] dust shalt thou eat all the dayes of thy life.

15 I wil also [r] put enimitie betwene thee and the woman, & betwene thy sede & her sede. He shal breake thine [s] head, & thou shalt [t] bruise his heele.

16 ¶ Vnto the woman he said, I wil greately increase thy [u] sorowes, & thy conceptions. In sorowe shalt thou bring forthe children, and thy desire shal be subiect to thine housband, and he shal* rule ouer thee.

17 ¶ Also to Adám he said, Because thou hast obeied the voyce of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tre (whereof I commaded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it) [x] cursed is the earth for thy sake: in sorowe shalt thou eat of it all the dayes of thy life.

18 [y] Thornes also, and thystles shal it bring forthe to thee, and thou shalt eat the herbe of the field.

19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, til thou returne to the earth: for out of it wast thou taken, because thou art dust, and to dust shalt thou returne.

20 (And the man called his wiues name Heuáh, because she was the mother of all liuing)

21 Vnto Adám also and to his wife, did the Lord God [z] make coates of skinnes, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the Lord God said, [a] Beholde, the man is become as one of vs, to knowe good and euil. And now lest he put forthe his hand, and [b] take also of the tre of life and eat and liue for euer.

23 Therefore [c] the Lord God sent him forthe from the garden of Eden, to til the earth, whence he was taken.

24 Thus he cast out man: and at the East side of the garden of Eden he set the Cherubims, and the blade of a [d] sworde shaken, to kepe the waye of the tre of life.

God threateneth to bring the flood. 5 Man is altogether corrupt. 18 Noah is preserued in the Arke, which he was commanded to make.

SO when men began to be multiplied vpon the earth, and there were daughters borne vnto them,

2 Then the a sonnes of God sawe the daughters b of men that they were fayre, and they toke them wiues of all that they liked.

3 Therefore the Lord said, My Spirit shal not alway d striue with man, because he is but flesh, & his dayes shal be an e hundreth and twentie yeres.

4 There were ||gyátes in the earth in those dayes: yea, and after that the sonnes of God came vnto the daughters of me, and they had borne them children, these were mightie men, which in olde time were men of f renoume.

2 The fountaines also of the depe & the windowes of heauen were stopped & the raine from heauen was restrained,

3 And the waters returned from aboue the earth, going and returning: and after the end of the hundreth and fiftyeth day the waters abated.

12 Then God said, This is the token of the couenant which I make betwene me and you, & betwene euerie liuing thing, that is with you vnto perpetual generacions.

13 I haue set my [k] bowe in the cloude, and it shalbe for a signe of the couenant betwene me and the earth.

14 And when * I shal couer the earth with a cloude, and the bowe shal be sene in the cloude, 15 Then wil I remember my [l] couenant, which is betwene me and you, & betwene euerie liuing thing in all flesh, & there shalbe no more waters of a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 Therefore the bowe shalbe in the cloude, that I may se it, & remember the euerlasting couenant betwene God, and euerie liuing thing in all flesh that is vpon the earth.

17 God said yet to Noah, [m] This is the signe of the couenant, which I haue established betwene me and all flesh that is vpon the earth.

18 ¶ Now the sonnes of Noah going forthe of the Arke, were Shem & Ham & Iapheth. And Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These are the three sonnes of Noah, and of them was the [n] whole earth ouerspred.

20 [o] Noah also began to be an housband man and planted a vineyarde.

21 And he dronke of the wine & was [o] dronken, & was vncouered in the middes of his tent.

22 And when Ham the father [p] of Canaan sawe the nakednes of his father, [q] he tolde his two brethren without.

23 Then toke Shem and Iapheth a garment, and put it vpon bothe their shulders and went backward, and couered the nakednes of their father with their faces backwarde: so thei sawe not their fathers nakednes.

24 Then Noah awoke from his wine, and knewe what his yonger sonne had done vnto him, 25 And said, [r] Cursed be Canaan: a [s] seruant of seruantes shal he be vnto his brethren.

26 He said moreouer, Blessed be the Lord God of Shem, and let Canaan be his seruant.

27 God [t] persuade Iapheth, that he may dwel in the tentes of Shem, and let Canaan be his seruant.

28 ¶ And Noah liued after the flood thre hundreth and fifty yeres.

29 So all the dayes of Noah were nine hundreth and fifty yeres: and he dyed.

1 NOw these are the [a] generacions of the sonnes of Noah, Shem, Ham & Iapheth vnto whome sonnes were borne after the flood.

2 The sonnes of Iapheth were Gomer and Magog, and [b] Madai, and Iauan, and Tubal and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And the sonnes of Gomer, Ashkenaz, and Riphath and Togarmah.

4 Also the sonnes of Iauan, Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim and Dodanim.

5 Of these were the [c] yles of the Gentiles deuided in their landes, euerie man after his tongue, and after their families in their nacions.

6 ¶ Moreouer ý sonnes of Ha were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, and Canaan.

7 And the sonnes of Cush, Seba and Hauilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtecha: also the sonnes of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.

8 And Cush begate Nimrod, who began to be [e] mighty in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the Lord, wherfore it is said, [f] As Nimrod ý mighty hunter before the Lord.

17 And Hiui, and Arki, and Sini,

18 And Aruadi, and Zemari, & Hamathi: & afterwarde were the families of the Canaanites spred abroad.

19 Then the border of the Canaanites was from Zidon, as thou commest to Gerar vntil Azzah, & as thou goest vnto Sodom, and Gomorah, and Admah, & Zeboiim, euen vnto Lasha.

23 And the sonnes of Aram, Vz & Hul, and Gether and Mash.

24 Also Arpachshad begate Shelah, and Shelah begate Eber.

25 Vnto Eber also were borne two sonnes: the name of the one was Peleg: for in his dayes was the earth l diuided: & his brothers name was Ioktan.

l This diuision came by the diuersitie of languages, as appeareth, chap. 11, 9.

26 Then Ioktan begate Almodad and Sheleph, & Hazarmaueth, and Ierah, 27 And Hadoram, & Vzal, and Dicklah,

28 And Obal, & Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Hauilah, and Iobab. all these were the sonnes of Ioktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest vnto Sephar a mount of the East.

31 These are the sonnes of Shem according to their families, according to their tongues, in their countreis and nacions.

32 These are the families of the sonnes of Noah, after their generacions among their people: and *out of these were the nacions diuided in the earth after the flood.

CHAP. XI.

The buylding of Babél was the cause of the confusion of tongues. 10 The age and generacion of Shem vnto Abram. 31 Abrams departure frō Vr with his father Térah, Sarai & Lot. 32 The age and death of Térah.

1 THen the whole earth was of one *language and one speache.

2 And a as b they went from the c East, they founde a plaine in the land of d Shinar, & there they abode.

3 And they said one to an other, Come let vs make bricke, and burne it in the fire. So they had bricke for stone, and slyme had they in steade of morter.

4 Also they said, Go to, let vs e buylde vs a citie and a tower, whose toppe may reach vnto the heauen, that we may get vs a name, lest we be scatred vpon the whole earth.

5 But the Lord f came downe, to se the citie & tower, which the sonnes of men buylded.

6 And the Lord said, g Beholde, the people is one, & thei all haue one language, & this thei beginne to do, nether can thei now be stopped from whatsoeuer thei haue imagined to do.

7 Come on, h let vs go downe, and i there confounde their language, that euerie one perceiue not an others speache.

8 So the Lord scatred them from thence vpon all the earth, and they left of to buylde the citie.

9 Therfore the name of it was called *Babél, because the Lord did there confounde the language of all the earth: from thence then did the Lord scater them vpon all the earth.

10 ¶ * These are the generacions k of Shem: Shem was an hundreth yere olde, and begate Arpachshad two yere after the flood.

11 And Shem liued, after he begate Arpachshad, fiue hundreth yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

13 And Arpachshad liued, after he begate Shelah, foure hundreth and thre yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

14 And Shélah liued thirty yeres, and begate Eber.

15 So Shélah liued, after he begate Eber, foure hundreth and thre yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

23 And Serúg liued, after he begate Nahór, two hundreth yeres, and begate sonnes & daughters.

25 So Nahor liued, after he begate Térah, an hundreth and ninetene yeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.
26 *So Térah liued seuentie yeres, & begate Abrám, Nahór, and Harán.
27 ¶ Now these are the generacions of Térah: Térah begate [l] Abrâm, Nahór, & Harán: and Harán begate Lot.
28 Then Harán dyed before Térah his father in the land of his natiuitie, in Vr of [n] the Caldees.
29 So Abrám and Nahór toke them wiues, the name of Abrams wife was Sarái, and the name of Nahors wife Milcáh, the daughter of Harā, the father of Milcah, and the father of [m] Iscáh.
30 But Sarai was barren, and had no childe.
31 Then [n] Térah toke Abram his sonne, & Lot the sonne of Haran, his sonnes sonne, and Sarai his daughter in lawe, his sonne Abrams wife: and they departed together from Vr of the Caldees, to go into the land of Canaan, and they came to [o] Haran, and dwelt there.
32 So the dayes of Térah were two hundreth and fiue yeres, and Térah dyed in Haran.

CHAP. XII.

Abrám by Gods commandement goeth to Canáan. 3 Christ is promised. 7 Abram buyldeth altars for exercise and declaration of his faith among the infidelles. 10 Because of the derthe he goeth into Egypt. 15 Pharaoh taketh his wife, and is punished.

1 FOr the Lord had said vnto Abram, *[a] Get thee out of thy countrei, and from thy kindred, and from thy fathers house vnto [b] the land that I wil shewe thee.
2 And I, wil make of thee a great nacion, and wil blesse thee, and make thy name great, and thou shalt be [c] a blessing.
3 I wil also blesse them that blesse thee, & curse them that curse thee, & in thee shal all families of the earth be blessed.
4 So Abram departed, euen as the Lord spake vnto him, and Lot went with him. (And Abram was seuenty and fiue yere olde, when he departed out of Haran.
5 Then Abram toke Sarai his wife, & Lot his brothers sonne, and all their substance that thei possessed, & the [d] soules that thei had gotten in Haran, and they departed, to go to the land of Canaan: and to the land of Canaan they came.
6 ¶ So Abram [e] passed through the land vnto the place of Shechém, and vnto the [f] plaine of Moréh (and the [f] Cananite was then in the land.)
7 And the Lord appeared vnto Abram, and said, Vnto thy sede wil I giue this land. And there buylded he an [g] altar vnto the Lord, which appeared vnto him.
8 Afterward remouing [h] thence vnto a mountaine Eastward from Beth-él, he pitched his tent hauing Beth-él on the Weastside, & Haai on the East: and there he buylt an [i] altar vnto the Lord, and called on the name of the Lord.
9 [k] Againe Abram went forthe going & iourneing towarde the South.
10 ¶ Then there came a [l] famine in the land: therefore Abram went downe into Egypt, to soiourne there: for there was a great famine in the land.
11 And when he drewe nere to entre into Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, Behold now, I knowe that thou art a faire woman to loke vpon:
12 Therfore it wil come to passe, that when the Egyptiās se thee, they wil say, She is his wife: so wil thei kil me, but they wil kepe thee aliue.
13 Say, I pray thee, that thou art my [m] sister, that I may fare wel for thy sake, and that my "life may be preserued by thee.
14 ¶ Now, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman: for she was very faire.
15 And the princes of Pharaoh sawe her, and commended her vnto Pharaoh: so the woman was [n] taken into Pharaohs house:
16 Who intreated Abram wel for her sake, and he had shepe, and beues, and he asses, and men seruantes and maide seruantes, and she asses, and camelles.
17 But the Lord [o] plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abrams wife.
18 Then Pharaoh called Abram and said, Why hast thou done this vnto me? Wherfore dideste thou not tel me, that she was thy wife?
19 Why saideste thou, She is my sister, that I shulde take her to be my wife? Now therfore beholde thy wife, take her and go thy way.

1 Abram departeth out of Egypt. 11 Lot departeth from him. 13 The wickednes of the Sodomites. 14 The promes made to Abrám is renued. 18 Abram buyldeth an altar to the Lord.

1 THen [a] Abram went vp from Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, & Lot with him towarde the South.
2 And Abram was very riche in cattel, in siluer and in golde.
3 And he went on his iourney from the South toward [b] Beth-él, to the place where his tent had bene at the beginning, betwene Beth-él and Haai,
4 Vnto the place of the *altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the Name of the Lord.
5 ¶ Lot also, who went with Abram, had shepe cattel and tentes,
6 So that the land colde not [c] beare them, that they might dwel together: for their *substance was great, so that they colde not dwel together.
7 Also there was debate betwene the herdmen of Abrams cattel, & the herdmen of Lots cattel (and the [d] Canaanites & the Perizzites dwelled at that time in the land)
8 Thē said Abram vnto Lot, Let there be no [e] strife, I pray thee, betwene thee & me, nether betwene mine herdmen and thine herdmen: for we be brethren.
9 Is not the whole land before thee? departe I pray thee from me: if thou wilt [f] take the left hand, then I wil go to the right: or if thou go to the right hand, then I wil take the left.
10 So when Lot lifted vp his eies, he saw ỹ all the plaine of Iordén was watered euerie where: (for before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorah, it was as the [g] garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou goest vnto Zoar)
11 Then Lot chose vnto him all the plaine of Iordén and toke his iourney from the East: & they departed the [h] one from the other.
12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot abode in the cities of the plaine, and pitched his tent euen to Sodom.
13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked & exceading [i] sinners against the Lord.
14 ¶ Thē ỹ Lord said vnto [k] Abram, (after that Lot was departed from him) Lift vp thine eies now, and loke from the place, where ỹ art, Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, and Westward:
15 For all * the land which thou seest, wil I giue vnto thee and to thy sede for [l] euer, 17 Arise, walke through the land, in the length thereof, and bredth thereof: for I wil giue it vnto thee.

CHAP. XV.

The Lord is Abrams defence and reward. 6 He is iustified by faith. 13 The seruitude and deliuerance out of Egypt is declared. 18 The land of Canaan is promised the fourth time.

1 AFter these things, the" worde of the Lord came vnto Abram in a* vision, saying, Feare not, Abram, I am thy buckler, and thine exceading* great reward.

* Or, the Lord spake to Abrã Nom. 12, 6 Psal. 16, 6

2 And Abram said, a O Lord God, what wilt thou giue me, seing I go childeles, and the stuarde of mine house is this Eliézer of Damascus?

a His feare was not onely lest he shulde not haue children, but lest the promes of ẏ blessed sede shulde not be accõplished in him.

3 Againe Abram said, Beholde, to me ẏ hast giuen no sede: wherfore lo, a seruant of mine house shalbe mine heire.

4 Then beholde, the worde of the Lord came vnto him, saying, " He shal not be thine heire, but one that shal come out of thine owne bowelles, he shalbe thine heire.

5 Moreouer he broght him forthe and said, *Loke vp now vnto heauen, & tel the starres, if thou be able to nombre them: and he said vnto him, So shal thy sede be.

b This is a particular mocio of Gods spirit, ẅ is not lawful for all to follow in asking signes but was permitted & cõme by a peculiar mocion. as to Gideon, and Ezechiah.

6 And Abrám beleued the Lord, and he counted that to him for righteousnes.

7 Againe he said vnto him, I am the Lord, that broght thee out of* Vr of the Caldees, to giue thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, O Lord God, b whereby shal I knowe that I shal inherit it?

c This was ẏ olde custome in making couenaits. Ier. 34, 18. to the ẅ God added these cõditions, ẏ Abrãs posteritie shulde be as torne in peces, but after thei shulde be coupled together: also that it shulde be assailed, but yet delyuered.

9 The he said vnto him, Take me an heyfer of thre yers olde, and a she goate of thre yeres olde, and a ramme of thre yeres olde, a turtel doue also, and a pigion.

10 So he toke all these vnto him, & c diuided them in the middes, and laied euerie pece one against another: but the birdes diuided he not.

11 Then foules fel on the carkases, and Abram droue them awaie.

12 And when the sunne went downe, there fel an heauie slepe vpon Abram: & lo, "a verie feareful darckenes fel vpon him.

13 Then he said to Abram, * Knowe this of a suretie, that thy sede shalbe a stráger in a land, that is not theirs, d foure hundreth yeres, and shal serue them: and thei shal entreate them euil.

Act. 7, 6

" Or, after foure hũdreth yeres.

15 But ẏ shalt go vnto thy fathers in peace, and shalt be buryed in a good age.

16 And in the" fourthe generacio thei shal come hether againe: for the e wickednes of the Amorites is not yet ful.

e Though God suffre ẏ wicked for a time, yet his vengeance falleth vpo thẽ, when the measure of their wickednes is ful.

17 Also when the sunne went downe, there was a darckenes: & beholde, a smoking furnace, and a firebrande, which went betwene those peces.

18 * In that same day the Lord made a couenant with Abram, saying, Vnto thy sede haue I giuen this land, * from the riuer of Egypt vnto the great riuer, the riuer" Euphrates.

1 Sarai being barren, giueth Hagar to Abram. 4 Which conceiueth & despiseth her dame: 6 And being ill handeled fleeth. 7 The Angel comforteth her. 11. 12 The name and maners of her sonne. 13 She calleth vpon the Lord, whome she findeth true.

1 NOw [a] Sarai Abrams wife bare him no children, and she had a maide an Egyptian, Hagar by name.

2 And Sarai said vnto Abram, Beholde now, the Lord hathe [b] restrayned me from childe bearing. I pray thee go in vnto my maide: it may be that I shal [*] receiue a childe by her. And Abram obeied the voice of Sarai.

3 Then Sarai Abrams wife toke Hagar her maide the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelled ten yere in the Land of Canaan, and gaue her to her housband Abram for his wife.

4 ¶ And he went in vnto Hagar, & she conceiued. and when she sawe that she had conceiued, her dame was [c] despised in her eies.

5 The Sarai said to Abram, [*] Thou doest me wrong. I haue giuen my maide into thy bosome, and she seeth that she hathe conceiued, and I am despised in her eies ý Lord iudge betwene me and thee.

6 The Abram said to Sarai, Beholde, thy maide is in thine [*] hand: do with her as it pleaseth thee. Then Sarai delt roughly with her: wherfore she fled from her.

7 ¶ But the [d] Angel of the Lord founde her beside a fountayne of water in the wildernes by the fountaine in the way to Shur, 8 And he said, Hagar Sarais maide, whēce comest thou? and whether wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from my dame Sarai.

9 Then the Angel of the Lord said to her, [e] Returne to thy dame, and humble thy selfe vnder her handes.

10 Againe the Angel of the Lord said vnto her, I wil so greatly encrease thy sede, that it shal not be nombred for multitude.

11 Also the Angel of the Lord said vnto her, Se, thou art with childe, and shalt beare a sonne, and shalt call his name Ishmaél: for the Lord hathe heard thy tribulation.

12 And he shal be a [*] wilde man: his hand shalbe against euerie man, and euerie mans hand against him. * and [f] he shal dwel in the presence of all his brethren.

13 Then she called the name of the Lord, that spake vnto her, Thou God lokest on me: for she said, [g] Haue I not also here loked after him that seeth me?

1 WHen Abram was ninety yere olde and nine, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said vnto him, I am God [*] all sufficient. * walke before me, and be thou vpright,

2 And I wil make my couenant betwene me and thee, and I wil multiply thee exceadingly.

3 Then Abram fel on his face, and God talked with him, saying,

5 Nether shal th name anie more be called Abram, but thy name shalbe [b] Abraham: * for a father of manie nacions haue I made thee.

7 Moreouer I wil establish my couenant betwene me and thee, and thy sede after thee in their generacions, for an * euerlasting couenant, to be God vnto thee and to thy sede after thee.

8 And I wil giue thee and thy sede after the land, wherin thou art a stranger, euen all the land of Canaan, for an euerlasting possession, and I wil be their God.

9 ¶ Againe God said vnto Abrahā, Thou also shalt kepe my couenant, thou, and thy sede after thee in their generacions.

h Thei were wel instructed which obeied to be circumcised without resistance: which thing declareth that maisters in their houses ought to be as preachers to their families, that from the hiest to the lowest they may obey the wil of God.

24 Abraham also him selfe was ninety yere olde & nine, when the foreskinne of his flesh was circumcised.

25 And Ishmaél his sonne was thirtene yere olde, when the foteskinne of his flesh was circuncised.

26 The selfe same day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his sonne:

19 For I knowe him [i] that he wil cõmande his sonnes and his housholde after him, that thei kepe the waie of the Lord, to do righteousnes and iudgement, that the Lord maie bring vpon Abraham that he hathe spoken vnto him.

20 Then the Lord said, Because the crie of Sodom and Gomorah is great, and because their sinne is exceading grieuous, 21 I wil [k] go downe now, and se whether thei haue done altogether according to that [l] crie, which is come vnto me: and if not, that I maie knowe.

22 And the men turned thence & went toward Sodom: but Abraham stode yet before the Lord.

23 Then Abraham drewe nere, & said, Wilt thou also destroye the righteous with the wicked?

24 If there be fiftie righteous within the citie, wilt thou destroie & not spare the place for the fiftie righteous that are therein?

25 Be it farre from thee from doing this thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked: & that the righteous shulde be euen as the wicked, be it farre from thee. shal not the iudge of all the worlde [n] do right?

26 And the Lord answered, If I shal finde in Sodom [m] fifty righteous within the citie, then wil I spare all the place for their sakes.

27 Then Abraham answered and said, Beholde now, I haue begonne to speake vnto my Lord, and I am [n] but dust and ashes.

28 If there shal lacke fiue of fiftie righteous, wilt thou destroie all the citie for fiue? And he said, If I finde there fiue and fourty, I wil not destroie it.

29 And he yet spake to him againe, and said, What if there shalbe founde fourtie? Then he answered, I wil not do it for fourties sake.

30 Againe he said, Let not my Lord now be angry that I speake, What if thirtie be fonnde there? Then he said, I wil not do it, if I finde thirtie there.

31 Moreouer he said, Beholde, now I haue begonne to speake vnto my Lord, What if twentie be founde there? And he answered, I wil not destroie it for twenties sake.

32 Then he said, Let not my Lord be now angrie, & I wil speak but this [o] once, What if ten be founde there? And he answered, I wil not destroie it for tens sake.

33 ¶ And the Lord went his waie when he had left communing with Abraham, & Abraham returned vnto his place.

i He sheweth that fathers ought bothe to knowe Gods iudgements & to declare thẽ to their children.

n Hereby we learne, that the nerer we approche vnto God, the more doeth our miserable estate appeare, and the more are we hũbled.

o If God refused not the prayer for the wicked Sodomites, euen to the sixt requeste, how muche more wil he grante the prayers of the godlie for the afflicted Church?

CHAP. XIX.

3 ¶ Lot receiueth two Angels into his house. 4 The filthy lustes of the Sodomites. 16 Lot is deliuered. 24 Sodom is destroyed. 26 Lots wife is made a piller of salt. 33 Lots daughters lye with their father, of whome come Moab and Ammon.

1 AND in the euening their came two [a] Angels to Sodom: and Lot sate at the gate of Sodom, & Lot sawe them, & rose vp to mete thẽ, and he bowed him selfe with his face to the grownd:

2 And he said, Se my Lords, I praie you turne in now into your seruants house, & tarie all night, and * wash your fete, and ye shal rise vp early and go your waies. Who said, Naie, but we wil abide in the strete all night.

3 Then [b] he preased vpon them earnestly, and thei turned into him, and came to his house, and he made them a feast, and did bake vnleauened bread, and thei [c] did eat.

4 But before thei went to bed, the men of the citie, euen the men of Sodom compassed the house round about from the yong to the olde, [d] all the people from all quarters.

5 Who cryig vnto Lot said to him, Where are the men, which came to thee this night? bring them out vnto vs that we maie knowe them.

6 Then Lot went out at the dore vnto them, and shut the dore after him,

7 And said, I praie you, my brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 Beholde now, I haue two [e] daughters, which haue not knowen man: them wil I bring out now vnto you, and do to them as semeth you good: onely vnto these men do nothing, [f] for therfore are thei come vnder the shadowe of my rofe.

9 Then thei said, Awaie hence. and thei said, He is come alone as a stranger, & shal he iudge and rule? we wil now deale worse with thee then with them. So thei preased sore vpon Lot * him selfe, & came to breake the dore.

10 But the men put forthe their hand & pulled Lot into the house to them and shut to the dore.

14 Then Lot went out and spake vnto his sonnes in lawe, which maried his daughters, & said, Arise, get you out of this place: for the Lord wil destroie the citie: but he semed to his sonnes in law as though he had mocked.

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, the Angels hasted Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife and thy two daughters "which are here, lest thou be destroied in the punishement of the citie.

16 And as he [h] prolonged the time, *the men caught bothe him & his wife, and his two daughters by the handes (the Lord being merciful vnto him) & they brought him forthe, & set him without the citie.

17 ¶ And when they had brought them out, the Angel said: escape for thy life: [i] loke not behinde thee, nether tarie thou in all the plaine: escape into the mountaine, lest thou be destroied.

18 And Lot said vnto them, Not so, I praie the, my Lord.

19 Beholde now, thy seruant hathe foūde grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercie, which thou hast shewed vnto me in sauing my life: and I can not escape in the mountaine, lest some euil take me, and I die.

20 Se now this citie hereby to [i] flee vnto, & is a litle one: Oh let me escape thither: is it not a [k] litle one, & my soule shal liue?

21 Then he said vnto him, Beholde, I haue receiued " thy request also concerning this thing, that I wil not ouerthrowe this citie, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, saue thee there: for I can do [l] nothing til thou be come thether. Therfore the name of the citie was called [m] Zoar.

23 ¶ The sonne did rise vpon the earth, when Lot entred into Zoar.

24 Then the Lord * rained vpon Sodom and vpon Gomorah brimstone, and fire from the Lord out of heauen, 25 And ouerthrewe those cities and all ȳ plaine, & all the inhabitants of the cities, and that that grewe vpon ȳ earth.

26 ¶ Now his wife behīde him loked backe, ād was turned in to a[n] piller of salt.

27 ¶ And Abraham rising vp early in ȳ morning went to the place, where he had stoode before ȳ Lord, and loking toward Sodom and Gomorah and toward all the land of the plaine:

28 Beholde, he sawe the smoke of the land mounting vp as the smoke of a fornace.

29 ¶ But yet when God destroied the cities of the plaine, God thoght vpon Abraham, and sent Lot out from the middes of the destruction, when he ouerthrewe the cities, wherein Lot dwelled.

30 ¶ Then Lot went vp from Zoar, and dwelt in the mountaine with his two daughters: for he [o] feared to tarie in Zoar, but dwelt in a caue, he, and his two daughters.

31 And the elder said vnto the yonger, Our father is olde, and there is not a ma in the [p] earth to come in vnto vs after the maner of all the earth.

32 Come, we wil make our father [q] drinke wine, and lye with him, that we maie preserue sede of our father.

33 So thei made their father drinke wine that night, and the elder went and laie with her father: but he perceiued not, nether when she laie downe, nether when she rose vp.

34 And on the morow the elder said to the yonger, Beholde, yester night laie I with my father: let vs make him drinke wine this night also, and go thou and lye with him, that we maie [s] preserue sede of our father.

35 So thei made their father drinke wine that night also, and the yonger arose, and laie with him, but he perceiued not, when she laie downe, nether when she rose vp.

36 Thus were [r] bothe the daughters of Lot with childe by their father.

37 And the elder bare a sonne, & she called his name Moab: the same is the father of the [t] Moabites vnto this daie.

38 And the yonger bare a sonne also, and she called his name [t] Ben-ammi: the same is the father of the Ammonites vnto this daie.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife [b] She is my sister. Then Abimelech King of Gerar sent and toke Sarah.

3 But God came to Abimelech in a dreame by night ād said to him, Beholde, [c] thou art but dead, because of the woman, which thou hast taken: for she is a mans wife.

Izhák is borne. 9 Ishmaél mocketh Izhák. 14 Hagaris cast out with her sonne. 17 The Angel conforteth Hagar. 22 The couenant betwene Abimelech & Abraham.

1 NOw the Lord visited Sarah, as he had said, and did vnto her * according as he had promised.

2 For * Sarah conceiued, & bare Abraham a sonne in his [a] olde age, at the same season that God tolde him.

3 And Abraham called his sonnes name that was borne vnto him, which Sarah bare him, Izhak.

4 Then Abraham circumcised Izhak his sonne, when he was eight dáies olde, * as God had commanded him.

5 So Abraham was an hundreth yere olde, when his soune Izhak was borne vnto him.

6 ¶ Then Sarah said, God hathe made me to reioyce: all that heare wil reioyce with me.

7 Againe she said, [b] Who wolde haue said to Abraham, that Sarah shulde haue giuen children sucke? for I haue borne him a sonne in his olde age.

8 Then the childe grewe & was weaned: & Abraham made a great feast ỹ same day that Izhak was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah sawe the sonne of Hagar the Egyptian (which she had borne vnto Abraham) [c] mocking.

10 Wherefore she said vnto Abraham, Cast out this bond woman and her sonne: for the sonne of this bond woman shal not be heire with my sonne Izhak.

11 And this thing was very grieuous in Abrahams sight, because of his sonne.

12 ¶ But God said vnto Abraham, Let it not be grieuous in thy sight for ỹ childe, and for thy bond woman: in all that Sarah shal saie vnto thee, heare her voice: for in Izhak shal thy sede be [d] called.

13 As for the sonne of the bond woman, I wil make him [e] a nacion also, because he is thy sede.

14 So Abraham arose vp early in ỹ morning, and toke bread, and a bottel of water, and gaue it vnto Hagar, putting it on her shulder and ỹ childe also, and sent her away: who departing wandred in the wildernes of Beer-sheba.

15 And when the water of the bottel was spent, she cast the childe vnder a certeine tre.

18 Arise, take vp the childe, and holde him in thine hand: for I wil make of him a great people.

2 And he said, Take now thine onely sonne Izhak whome thou louest, & get thee vnto the land of [a] Moriah, and [b] offre him there for a burnt offring vpon one of the mountaines, which I wil shewe thee.
3 Then Abraham rose vp early in the morning, and sadled his asse, and toke two of his seruants with him, and Izhak his sonne, and cloue wood for the burnt offring, and rose vp and went to the place, which God had tolde him.
4 ¶ Then the third day Abraham lift vp his eies, and sawe the place a farre of,
5 And said vnto his seruants, Abyde you here with the asse: for I & the childe wil go yonder & worship, & [c] come againe vnto you.
6 Then Abraham toke the wood of the burnt offring, & laied it vpon Izhak his sonne, & he toke the fire in his hand, & a knife: and they went bothe together.
7 Then spake Izhak vnto Abraham his father, & said, My father. And he answered, Here am I, my sone. And he said, Beholde the fire & the wood, but where is the lambe for the burnt offring?
8 Thē Abraham answered, My sonne. God wil [d] prouide him a lambe for a burnt offring: so they went bothe together.
9 When they came to the place which God had shewed him, Abraham buylded an altar there, & couched the wood, & [e] bound Izhak his sonne * & laied him on the altar vpon the wood.
10 And Abraham stretching forthe his hand, toke the knife to kil his sonne.
11 But the Angel of the Lord called vnto him from heauen, saying, Abraham, Abraham. And he answered, Here am I.
12 Then he said, Lay not thine hand vpō the childe, nether do anie thing vnto him: for now I [f] knowe that thou fearest God, seing for my sake [n] thou hast not spared thine onely sonne.

Abraham lamenteth the death of Sarah. 4 He bieth a field, to bury her, of the Hittites. 13 The equitie of Abraham. 19 Sarah is buryed in Machpelah.

1 WHen Sarah was an hundreth twenty and seuen yere olde ([a] so long liued she)

2 Then Sarah dyed in Kiriath-arba: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. & Abraham came to mourne for Sarah and to wepe for her.

3 ¶ Then Abraham [a] rose vp from the sight of his corps, & talked w the [b] Hittites, saying,

4 I am a straunger, & a foriner among you, giue me a possession of buryal with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

5 Then the Hittites answered Abraham, saying vnto him,

6 Heare vs, my Lord: thou art a prince [b] of God among vs: in the chiefest of our sepulchres bury thy dead: none of vs shal forbid thee his sepulchre, but thou maiest bury thy dead therein.

7 Then Abraham stode vp, & bowed him selfe before the people of the land of the Hittites.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be [c] your minde, that I shal bury my dead out of my sight, heare me, and intreat for me to Ephron the sonne of Zohar, 9 That he wolde giue me the caue of Machpelah, which he hathe in the end of his field: that he wolde giue it me for as muche [d] money as it is worthe, for a possession to bury in among you.

10 (For Ephron dwelt among the Hittites.) Then Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of all the Hittites that [e] went in at the gates of his citie, saying, 11 No, my lord, heare me: the field giue I thee, and the caue, that there in is, I giue it thee: euen in the presence of the sonnes of my people giue I it thee, to bury thy dead.

12 Then Abraham [d] bowed him self before the people of the land,

13 And spake vnto Ephron in the audience of the people of the countrey, saying, Seing thou wilt giue it, I praye thee, heare me, I wil giue the price of the field: receiue it of me, and I wil bury my dead there.

14 Ephron then answered Abraham, saying vnto him,

15 My Lord, hearken vnto me: the land is worthe four hundreth [e] shekels of siluer: what is that betwene me & thee? bury there fore thy dead.

16 So Abraham hearkened vnto Ephron and Abraham weyghed to Ephron the siluer, which he had named, in the audience of the Hittites, euen foure hundreth siluer shekels of currant money among marchantes.

17 ¶ So the field of Ephron which was in Machpelah, & ouer against Mamre, euen the field & the caue that was therein, and all the trees that were in the field which were in all the borders round about, was made sure.

8 Neuertheles if the woman wil not followe thee, then shalt thou be [”] discharged of this mine othe: onely bring not my sonne thether againe.

9 Then the seruant put his hand vnder the thigh of Abraha his master, & sware to him for this matter.

10 ¶ So the seruant toke ten camels of ye camels of his master, and departed: for he had all his masters goods in his hād, & so he arose, and went to [e] Aram Naharaim, vnto the [e] citie of Nahor.

11 And he made his camels to [”] lie downe without the citie by a well of water, at euen about the time that women come out to drawe water.

12 And he said, O [f] Lord God of my master Abraham, I beseche thee, send me good spede this day, and shewe mercie vnto my master Abraham.

13 Lo, I stand by the well of water, whiles the mens daughters of this citie come out to drawe water.

14 [g] Grant that the maide, to whome I saie, Bowe downe thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drinke: if she say, Drinke, and I wil giue thy camels drinke also: may be she that thou hast ordeined for thy seruant Izhak: & thereby shal I knowe that thou hast shewed mercie on my master.

15 ¶ Now yer he had left speaking, behold, [h] Rebekah came out, the daughter of Bethuel, sonne of Milcah the wife of Nahor Abrahams brother, and her pitcher vpon her shuldre.

16 (And the maide was very faire to loke vpon, a virgine and vnknowen of man) & she [i] went downe to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came vp.

17 Then the seruant ran to mete her, and said, Let me drincke, I praye thee a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drinke [k] syr: and she hasted, & let downe her pitcher vpon her hand & gaue him drinke 19 And whē she had giuē him drinke, she said, I wil draw e water for thy camels also vntil thei [”] haue dronken ynough.

20 And she poured out her pitcher into the trogh spedely, and ranne againe vnto the well to drawe water, and she drewe for all his camels.

21 So the man wondred at her, and helde his peace, to wit, whether the Lord had made his iourney prosperous or not.

22 And when the camels had left drinking, the man toke a golden [k] abillement of [l] halfe a shekel weight, & two bracelettes for her hands, of ten shekels weight of golde.

23 And he said, Whose daughter art ye? tel me, I praie thee, Is there roume in thy fathers [m] house for vs to lodge in?

24 Thē she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuél the sonne of Milcah who me she bare vnto Nahor.

25 Moreouer she said vnto him, We haue lytter also and prouander ynough, and roume to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed him selfe and worshipped the Lord,

27 And said, Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham, which hathe not withdrawen his mercie [m] and his trueth from my master: for when I was in the waie, the Lord broght me to my masters brethrens house

28 And the maide ran & tolde them of her mothers house according to these wordes.

29 ¶ Now Rebekah had a brother called Laban, & Laban ran vnto the man to the well.

30 For when he had sene the earings & ye bracelettes in his sisters hands, & when he heard the wordes of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus said the man vnto me, then he went to the man, & lo [n] he stode by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in thou blessed of the Lord: wherfore standest thou without, seing I haue prepared the house, & roume for the camels.

32 ¶ Then the man came into the house, and [o] he vnsadeled the [p] camels and broght lytter & prouander for the camels, and water to washe his fete, & the mens fete that were with him.

33 Afterward the meat was set before him: but he said, I [q] wil not eat, vntil I haue said my message: And he said, Speake on.

34 Then he said, I am Abrahams seruāt, r Or, shewed.

45 And before I had made an end of speaking in mine x heart, beholde, Rebekah came forthe, and her pitcher on her shulder, & she went downe vnto the wel, and drewe water. Then I said vnto her, Giue me drinke, I praie thee.

47 Then I asked her, & said, Whose daughter art ỹ? And she answered, The daughter of Bethuél Nahors sonne, whome Milcah bare vnto him. Then I put ỹ abillement vpon her face, and the bracelettes vpon her handes:
y He sheweth what is our duetie, whē we haue receiued anie benefite of the Lord.

65 (For she had said to the seruant, Who is yonder man, that commeth in the field to mete vs? And the seruāt had said, It is my master.) So she toke a vaile and couered her.
f The custome was, that ỹ spouse was broght to her housband, her head being couered, in token of shamefastnes & chastetie.
66 And ỹ seruant tolde Izhak all things that he had done.

11 ¶ And after the death of Abrahā God blessed Izhak his sonne, * and Izhak dwelt by Beér-lahai-roi.

21 And Izhak prayed vnto the Lord for his wife, because she was baren: and the Lord was inteated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceiued.
22 But the children "stroue together within her: therefore she said, Seing it is so, why am [h] I thus? wherefore she went to aske the Lord.
23 And the Lord said to her, two nations are in thy wombe, and two maner of people shalbe deuided out of thy bowels, and the one people shalbe mightier then the other, and the *elder shal serue the yonger.
24 ¶ Therefore when her time of deliuerance was fulfilled, beholde, twines were in her wombe.
25 So he that came out first was red, and he was allouer as a rough garment, and they called his name Esau.

27 And the boyes grewe, & Esau was a cunning hunter, & " liued in the fields: but Iaakob was a plaine man, and dwelt in tentes.
28 And Izhak loued Esau, for " venison was his meat, but Rebekah loued Iakob.
29 Now Iaakob sodde pottage, & Esau came from the field and was wearie.
30 Then Esau said to Iaakob, "Let me eat, I pray thee, of the pottage so red, for I am weary. Therefore was his name called Edom.
31 And Iaakob said, Sel me euen now thy birth right.
32 And Esau said, Lo, I am almost dead, what is then this [k] birth right to me?
33 Iaakob then said, Sweare to me euen now. And he sware to him, * & [l] solde his birthright vnto Iaakob.

23 So he went vp thence to Beer-sheba.

Iaakob getteth the blessing from Esau by his mothers counsel. 38 Esau by weping moueth his father to pitie him. 41 Esau hateth Iaakob and threateneth his death. 43 Rebekah sendeth Iaakob awaie.

27 AND when Izhak was olde, & his eies were dimme (so that he colde not se) he called Esau his eldest sonne, and said vnto him, My sonne. And he answered him, "I am here.

2 Then he said, Beholde, I am now olde and knowe not the daie of my death:

4 Then make me sauourie meat, such as I loue, and bring it me that I maie eat, and that my [a] soule maie blesse thee, before I die.

5 (Now Rebekah heard when Izhak spake to Esau his sonne) and Esau went into the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 ¶Then Rebekah spake vnto Iaakob her sone, saying, Beholde, I haue heard thy father talking with Esau thy brother, sayeing.

7 Bring me venison, and make me sauourie meat, that I maie eat and blesse thee before the Lord, afore my death.

8 Now therefore, my sonne, heare my voyce in that which I commande thee,

10 Then thou shalt bring it to to thy father, and he shal eat, to the intent, that he maie blesse thee before his death.

11 But Iaakob said to Rebekah his mother, Beholde, Esau my brother is rough, and I am smothe.

12 My father maie posibly fele me, and I shal seme "to him to be a mocker: so shal I bring a curse vpon me, and not a blesing.

13 But is mother said vnto him, "[c] Vpon me be thy curse, my sonne: onely heare my voyce, and go and bring me them.

14 So he went and fet them, and broght them to his mother: ād his mother made pleasant meat, such as his father loued.

15 And Rebekah toke faire clothes of her elder sonne Esau, which where in her house, and clothed Iaakob her yonger sonne:

17 Afterwarde she put the pleasant meat and bread, which she had prepared, in the hand of her sonne Iaakob.

18 ¶And when he came to his father he said, My father, Who answered, I am here: who art thou, my sonne?

19 And Iaakob said to his father, [d] I am Esau thy first borne, I haue done as ỹ badest me, arise, I praie thee sit vp and eat of my venison, that thy soule maie blesse me.

20 Then Izhak said vnto his sonne, How hast thou founde it so quickly my sonne? Who said Because the Lord thy God broght it to mine hand.

21 Againe said Izhak vnto Iaakob, Come nere now, that I maie fele thee, my sonne, whether thou be that my sonne Esau or not.

22 Then Iaakob came nere no Izhak his father, and he felt him and said, The [e] voyce is Iaakobs voyce, but the hādes are the handes of Esau.

23 (For he knewe him not, because his handes were rough as his brother Esaus handes: wherefore he blessed him.)

24 Again he said, Art thou that my sonne Esau? Who answered, "Yea.

25 Then said he, Bring it me hether, and I wil eat of my sones venisone that my soule may blesse thee. And he broght it to him and he ate: also he broght him wine, and he dranke.

26 Afterwarde his father Izhak said vnto him, Come nere now, and kisse me, my sonne.

27 And he came nere and kissed him. Then he smelled the sauour of his garments, & blessed him, and said, Beholde, the smel of mi sonne is as the smel of a field, which the Lord hathe blessed, 28 *God giue thee therefore of the dewe of heaue, and the fatnes of the earth, and plente of wheat and vine.

29 Let people be thy seruants, and nacions bowe vnto thee: be lord ouer thy brethren, and let thy mothers children honour thee. cursed be he ỹ curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 ¶And when Izhak had made an end of blesing Iaakob, and Iaakob was scarce gone out frō the presence of Izhak his father, then came Esau his brother from his hunting, 31 And he also prepared sauourie meat and broght it to his father, and said vnto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his sonnes venison, that thy soule may blesse me.

32 But his father Izhak said vnto him, Who art thou? And he answered, I am thy sonne, euen thy first borne Esau.

2 Arise, *get thee to * Padan Aram to the house of Bethuel thy mothers father, and thence take thee a wife of the daughters of Laban thy mothers brother.

3 And God [l] all sufficient blesse thee, & make thee to encrease, & multiplie thee, that thou maiest be a multitude of people,

4 And giue thee the blessing of Abraham, euen to the & to thy sede with thee, that thou maiest inherit the land (wherein thou art a [b] stranger) which God gaue vnto Abraham.

5 Thus Izhak sent forthe Iaakob, and he went to Padan Aram vnto Laban sonne of Bethuel the Aramite, brother to Rebekah, Iaakobs and Esaus mother.

6 ¶ When Esau sawe that Izhak had blessed Iaakob, and sent him to Padan Aram, to fet him a wife thence, and giuen him a charge when he blessed him, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan,

7 And that Iaakob had obeied his father & his mother, & was gone to Padan Aram:

8 Also Esau seing that the daughters of Canaan displeased Izhak his father, 9 Then went Esau to Ishmael, & toke [l] vnto the wiues, which he had, Mahalath the daughter of [c] Ishmael Abrahams sonne, the sister of Nabaioth, to be his wife.

10 ¶ Now Iaakob departed from Beersheba, and went to Haran, 11 And he came vnto a certeine place, & taried there all night, because the sonne was downe, and toke of the stones of the place and laied vnder his head and slept in the same place.

12 Then he dreamed, and beholde, there stode a [d] ladder vpon the earth and the top of it reached vp to heauen: and lo, the Angels of God went vp and downe by it,

13 *And beholde, the Lord stode aboue it, and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, & the God of Izhak: the land, vpon the which thou slepest, [e] wil I giue thee and thy sede.

14 And thy sede shal be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spreade abrode * to the West, and to the East, and to the North, and to the South, and in thee and in thy sede shal all the * families of the earth be blessed.

15 And lo, I am with thee, & wil kepe thee whithersoeuer thou goest, and wil bring thee againe into this land: for I wil not forsake thee vntil I haue performed that, that I haue promised thee.

16 ¶ Then Iaakob awoke out of his slepe, and said, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I was not aware.

CHAP. XXIX.

Iaakób commeth to Labán and serueth seuen yere for Rahél. 23 Leáh broght to his bed in stede of Rahél. 27 He serueth seuen yere more for Rahél. 32 Leáh conceiueth and beareth foure sonnes,

1 THen Iaakob a lift vp his fete and came into the " East countrei.

2 And as he loked about, beholde there was a well in the field, b and lo, thre flockes of shepe lay thereby (for at that well were the flockes watéred) and there was a great stone vpon the welles mouthe.

3 And thither were all the flockes gathered, and they rolled the stone from the welles mouthe, and watered the shepe, and put the stone againe vpon the welles mouthe in his place.

4 And Iaakob said vnto them, My c brethren, whence be ye? And they answered, We are of Haran.

5 Then he said vnto them, Knowe ye Laban the sonne of Nahor? Who said, We knowe him.

6 Againe he said vnto them, d Is he in good helth? And they answered, He is in good helth, and beholde, his daughter Rahel commeth with the shepe.

7 Then he said, Lo, it is yet hie day, neither is it time that the cattel shulde be gathered together: wáter ye the shepe & go fede them.

8 But they said, We may not vntil all the flockes be broght together, & til that men rolle the stone from the welles mouth that we may water the shepe.

9 ¶ While he talked with them, Rahel also came with her fathers shepe, for she kept them.

10 And assone as Iaakob sawe Rahel the daughter of Laban his mothers brother, and the shepe of Laban his mothers brother, then came Iaakob nere, and rolled the stone from the welles mouth, and watered the flocke of Laban his mothers brother.

11 And Iaakob kissed Rahel, and lift vp his voyce and wept.

12 (For Iaakob tolde Rahel, that he was her fathers " brother, & that he was Rebekahs sonne) then she ran and tolde her father.

13 And when Laban heard tel of Iaakob his sisters sonne, he ran to mete him, and embraced him and kissed him, & broght him to his house: and he tolde Laban e all these things.

14 To whome Laban said, Wel, thou art my f bone and my flesh. and he abode with him the space of a moneth.

15 ¶ For Laban said vnto Iaakob, Thogh thou be my brother, shuldest thou therefore serue me for noght? tel me, what shal be thy wages?

16 Now Laban had two daughters, the elder called Leah, & the yonger called Rahel.

17 And Leah was " tender eyed, but Rahel was beautiful and faire.

18 And Iaakob loued Rahel, and said, I wil serue thee seuen yeres for Rahel thy yonger daughter.

19 Then Laban answered, It is better g I giue her thee, then that I shulde giue her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Iaakob serued seuen yeres for Rahel, and they semed vnto him but as fewe daies, because he loued her.

21 ¶ Then Iaakob said to Laban, Giue me my wife that I maie go in to her: for my " terme is ended.

22 Wherefore Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 But h when the euening was come, he toke Leah his daughter and broght her to him, and he went in vnto her.

24 And Laban gaue his maide Zilpah to his daughter Leah, to be her seruant.

25 But when the morning was come, beholde, it was Leah. Then said he to Laban, Wherefore hast thou done thus to me? did not I serue thee for Rahel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 And Laban answered, It is not the i maner of this place, to giue the yonger before the elder.

27 Fulfil seuen yeres for her, and we wil also giue thee this for the seruice, which thou shalt serue me yet seuen yeres more.

28 Then Iaakob did so, & fulfilled her seuen yeres, so he gaue him Rahel his daughter to he his wife.

h The cause why Iaakób was deceiued was, that in olde time the wife was couered with a vaile, when she was broght to her husband in signe of chastitie & shamefastnes.

i He estemed more the profit that he had of Iaakobs seruice then other his promes or the maner of the countrie, thogh he alledged custome for his excuse.

29 Laban also gaue to Rahel his daughter Bilhah his maide to be her seruant.
30 So entred he in to Rahel also, and loued also Rahel more then Leah, and serued him yet seuen yeres mo.
31 ¶ When the Lord sawe that Leah was despised, he "made her [k] fruteful: but Rahel was baren.
32 And Leah conceiued and bare a sonne, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Because the [l] Lord hathe loked vpon my tribulacion, now therefore mine housband wil [m] loue me.
33 And she conceiued againe and bare a sonne, and said, Because the Lord heard that I was hated, he hathe therefore giuen me this sonne also, and she called his name Simeon.
34 And she conceiued againe and bare a sonne, and said, Now at this time wil my housband kepe me companie, because I haue borne him thre sonnes: therefore was his name called Leui.

CHAP. XXX.

1, 9. Rahel and Leah being bothe baren giue their maides vnto theer housband, and they beare him children. 15 Leah giueth mandrakes to Rahel that Iaakob might lie with her. 27 Laban is enriched for Iaakobs sake. 43 Iaakob is made very riche.

1 AND when Rahel sawe that she bare Iaakob no children, Rahel enuied her sister, and said vnto Iaakob, Giue me children, or els I dye.
2 Then Iaakobs angre was kindeled against Rahel, and he said, Am I in [a] Gods stede, which hathe withholde from thee the frute of the wombe?
3 And she said, Beholde my maide Bilhah, go in to her, and she shal beare vpon my [b] knees, & "I shal haue children also by her.
4 The she gaue him Bilhah her maide to wife, and Iaakob went in to her
5 So Bilhah conceiued and bare Iaakob a sonne.
6 Then said Rahel, God hathe giuen sentence on my side, & hathe also heard my voyce, and hathe giuen me a sonne therefore called she his name, Dan.
7 And Bilhah Rahels maide conceiued againe, and bare Iaakob the seconde sonne.
8 Then Rahel said, With " excellent wrestlings haue I wrestled with my sister and haue gotten the vpper hand: and she called his name, Naphtali.
9 And when Leah sawe that she had left bearing, she toke Zilpah her maide, and gaue her Iaakob to wife.
10 And Zilpah Leahs maide bare Iaakob a sonne.
11 Then said Leah, [d] A companie cometh: and she called his name, Gad.
12 Againe Zilpah Leahs maide bare Iaakob another sonne.
13 Then said Leah, Ah, blessed am I, for the daughters wil blesse me. and she called his name, Asher.
14 ¶ Now Reuben went in the dayes of the wheat harueste and found [e] mandrakes in the field & broght them vnto his mother Leah. Then said Rahel to Leah, Giue me, I pray thee, of thy sunnes mandrakes.
15 But she answered her, Is it a smale matter for thee to take mine housband, except thou take my sonnes mandrakes also? Then said Rahel, Therefore he shal slepe with thee this night for thy sonnes mandrakes.
16 And Iaakob came from the field in the euening, and Leah went out to mete him, & said, Come in to me, for I haue "boght and payed for thee with my sonnes mandrakes and he slept with her that night.
17 And God heard Leah and she conceiued, and bare vnto Iaakob the fift sonne.
18 Then said Leah, God hathe giuen me my rewarde, because I gaue my [f] maide to my housband, & she called his name Issachar.
19 After, Leah conceiued againe, and bare Iaakob the sixt sonne.
20 Then Leah said, God hathe endued me with a good dowerie: now wil mine housband dwel with me, because I haue borne him six sonnes: & she called his name Zebulon.
21 After that, she bare a daughter, and she called her name Dinah.
22 ¶ And God remembred Rahel, and God heard her, "and opened her wõbe.
23 So she conceiued and bare a sonne, and said, God hathe taken away my [g] rebuke.
24 And she called his name Ioseph, saying, The Lord wil giue me yet another sonne.
25 ¶ And assone as Rahel had borne Ioseph, Iaakob said to Laban. Send me away that I may go vnto my place and to my countrey.
26 Giue me my wiues and my children, for whome I haue serued thee, and let me go: for thou knowest what seruice I haue done thee.
27 To whome Laban answered, If I haue now founde fauour in thy sight, tarie: I haue [h] perceiued that the Lord hathe blessed me for thy sake.
28 Also he said, Appoint vnto me thy wages, and I wil giue it thee.

a It is onely God that maketh baren and fruteful, and therfore I am not in fawte.
b I wil receiue her children on my lappe, as though they were mine owne.
" Ebr. I shalbe buylded.
" Ebr. wrestlings of God.
c The arrogancie of mans nature appeareth in that she cõtemneth her sister, after she hathe receiued this benefit of God to beare children.
d That is, God doeth increase me with a multitude of children: for so Iaakob doeth expounde this name Gad, Chap. 49, 9.
e Which is a kinde of herbe whose rote hath a certeine likenes of the figure of a man.
" Ebr. lying I haue boght.
f In stede of acknolledging her fawte, she boasteth as if God had rewarded her therefore.
" Or, made her fruteful.
g Because fruefulnes came of Gods blessing, who said, Increase and multiplie: barenes was counted as a curse.
" Or, tried by experience.

29 But he said vnto him, Thou knowest, what seruice I haue done thee, and in what taking thy cattel hathe bene || vnder me.

30 For the litle, that thou haddest before I came, is increased into a multitude: and the Lord hathe blessed thee " by my comming: but now when shal h I trauel for mine owne house also?

31 Then he said, What shal I giue thee? And Iaakob answered, Thou shalt giue me nothing at all: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I wil returne, fede, and kepe thy shepe.

32 I wil passe through all thy flockes this day, and || separat from them all the shepe with litle spottes and great spottes, & all || blake lambes among the shepe, and thé great spotted, and litle spotted among the goates: i and it shal be my wages.

33 So shal my k righteousnes answere for me hereafter, when it shal come for my rewarde before thy face, & euerie one that hathe not litle or great spottes among the goates, and blacke among the shepe, thesame shalbe || theft with me.

34 Then Laban said, Go to, wolde God it might be according to thy saying.

35 Therefore || he toke out the same day the he goates that were party coloured and with great spottes, and all the she goates with litle and great spottes, and all that had white in them, and all the || blacke among the shepe, & put them in the keping of his sonnes.

36 And he set thre daies iourney betwene him selfe and Iaakob, & Iaakob kept the rest of Labans shepe.

37 ¶ Then Iaakob l toke roddes of grene popular, and of hasel, and of the chesnut tre, and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appeare in ŷ roddes.

38 Thē he put the roddes, which he had pilled, in the gutters and watering troghes, when the shepe came to drinke, before the shepe: (for thei were in heate, when thei came to drinke)

39 And the shepe || were in heate before the roddes, & afterward broght forthe yong of party coulour, and with smale & great spottes.

40 And Iaakob parted these lambes, and turned the faces of the flocke towards these lambes party couloured and all maner of blacke, among the shepe of Laban: so he put his owne flockes by them selues, & put them not with Labans flocke.

41 And in euerie ramming tyme of the m stronger shepe, Iaakob laied the roddes before the eies of the shepe in the gutters that thei might conceiue before the roddes.

42 But when the shepe were feble, he put them not in: and so the febler were Labans, and the stronger Iaakobs.

43 So the man encreased excedingly, and had manie flockes, and maide seruants, and men seruants, and camels and asses.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Labans children murmure against Iaakob. 3 God commandeth him to returne to his countrey. 14 The care of God for Iaakob. 19 Rahel steleth her fathers idoles. 23 Laban followeth Iaakob. 44 The couenant betwene Laban and Iaakob.

1 NOw he heard the a wordes of Labans sonnes, saying, Iaakob hathe taken away all that was our fathers, and of our fathers goods hathe he gotten all this honour.

2 Also Iaakob behelde the countenance of Laban, " that it was not towards him as in times past:

3 And the Lord had said vnto Iaakob, Turne againe into the land of thy fathers, and to thy kinred, and I wil be with thee.

4 Therefore Iaakob sent and called Rahel and Leah to the field vnto his flocke.

5 Then said he vnto them, I se your fathers countenance, that it is not towarde me as it was wonte, and the b God of my father hathe bene with me.

6 And ye knowe that I haue serued your father with all my might.

7 But your father hathe deceiued me, and changed my wages || ten times but God suffred him not to hurt me.

8 If he thus said, The spotted shalbe thy wages, then all the shepe bare spotted: & if he said thus, The partie couloured shal be thy reward, then bare all the shepe particoloured.

9 Thus hathe c God taken awaie your fathers || substance, and giuen it me.

10 ¶ For in ramming time I lifted vp mine eies and sawe in a dreame, and beholde, the he goates leaped vpō the she goates, that were partie coloured with litle and great spottes spotted.

11 And the Angel of God said to me in a dreame, Iaakob. And I answered, Lo, I am here.

12 And he said, lift vp now thine eies, and se all the he goates leaping vpon the she goates that are partie coloured, spotted with litle & great spottes: for I haue sene all that Laban doeth vnto thee.

d This Angel was Christ who appeared to Iaakob in Bethel: & hereby appeareth he had taught his wiues the feare of God: for he talketh as though they knewe this thing Chap. 28. 18 the land where thou wast borne.

14 Then answered Rahel and Leah, and said vnto him, Haue we anie more porcion and enheritance in our fathers house?
15 Doeth not he count vs as strangers? for he hathe [e] solde vs, and hathe eaten vp & consumed our monie.
16 Therefore all the riches, which God hathe taken from our father, is ours and our childrens: now then whatsoeuer God hathe said vnto thee do it.
17 ¶ Then Iaakob rose vp, and set his sonnes and his wiues vpon camels.
18 And he caried awaye all his flockes, and all his substance which he had gotten, to wit, his riches, which he had gotten in Padan Aram, for to go to Izhak his father vnto the land of Canaan.
19 When Laban was gone to sheare his shepe, then Rahel stale her fathers [f] idoles.
20 Thus Iaakob [g] stale awaie the heart of Laban the Aramite: for he tolde him not that he fled.
21 So fled he with all that he had, & he rose vp, and passed the [h] riuer, and set his face toward mount Gilead.
22 The third day after was it tolde Laban, that Iaakob fled.
23 Then he toke his [i] brethren with him, & followed after him seuen dayes iourney, and [k] ouertoke him at mount Gilead.
24 And God came to Laban the Aramite in a dreame by night, and said vnto hm, Take hede that thou speake not to Iaakob [l] ought saue good,
25 ¶ Then Laban ouertoke Iaakob, & Iaakob had pitched his tent in the mount: & Laban also with his brethren pitched vpon mount Gilead.
26 Then Laban said to Iaakob, What hast thou done? [m] thou hast euen stollen away mine heart & caried away my daughters as though they had bene take captiues with the sworde.
27 Wherefore diddest thou flee so secretly & steale away from me, & diddest not tel me, that I might haue sent thee forthe with mirth & with songs, with timbrel & with harpe?
28 But thou hast not suffered me to kisse my sonnes and my daughters: now thou hast done foolishly in doing so.
29 I am [n] able to do you euil but the [o] God of your father spake vnto me yester night, saying, Take hede that thou speake not to Iaakob ought saue good.
30 Now though thou wentest thy way, because thou greatly longedst after thy fathers house: yet wherefore hast thou stollen my gods?
31 Then Iaakob answered, & said to Laban, Because I was afraid, & thoght that thou woldest haue taken thy daughters from me.
32 But with whome thou findest thy gods, [p] let him not liue, Serche thou before our brethren what I haue of thine, and take it to thee (but Iaakob wist not that Rahel had stollen them)
33 Then came Laban into Iaakobs tent, & into Leahs tent, and into the two maides tentes, but founde them not, so he went out of Leahs tent, & entred into Rahels tent.
34 (Now Rahel had taken the idoles & put them in the camels [q] litter & sate downe vpon them) & Laban serched all the tent but founde them not.
35 Then said she to her father, "My lord, be not angry that I can not rise vp before thee: for the custome of women is vpon me: so he serched, but found not the idoles.
36 ¶ Then Iaakob was wroth, & chode with Laban: Iaakob also answered and said to Laban, What haue I tresspaced? what haue I offended, that thou hast pursued after me?
37 Seing thou hast serched all my stuffe, what hast thou founde of all thine housholde stuffe? put it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may iudge betwene vs bothe.
38 This twenty yere I haue bene with thee: thine ewes and thy goates haue not [r] cast their yong, & the rams of thy flocke haue I not eaten.
39 "Whatsoeuer was torne, of beastes, I broght it not vnto thee, but made it good my selfe, of mine hande diddest thou require it, were it stollen by day or stollen by night.
40 I was in the day consumed with heat, and with frost in the night, and my [s] slepe departed from mine eies, 41 Thus haue I bene twenty yere in thine house, and serued thee fourteenth yeres for thy two daughters, and six yeres for thy shepe, and thou hast changed my wages ten times.
42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, & the [t] feare of Izhak had bene with me, surely thou haddest sent me awaye now empty: but God behelde my tribulacion, & the labour of mine handes, & rebuked thee yester night.
43 Then Laban answered, & said vnto Iaakob, These daughters are my daughters, and these sonnes are my sonnes, and these shepe are my shepe, and all that thou seest, is mine, and what can I do this day vnto these my daughters, or to their sonnes which they haue borne?
44 Now therefore [u] come and let vs make a couenant, I and thou, which may be a witnes betwene me and thee.

54 Then Iaakob did offre a sacrifice vpon the mount, and called his brethren to eat [p] bread. and they did eat bread, & taried all night in the mount.
55 And early in the morning Laban rose vp and kissed his sonnes & his daughters, & [p] blessed them, and Laban departing, went vnto his place againe.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 God conforteth Iaakob by his [a] Angels. 9,10 He praieth vnto God confessing his Vnworthines. 13 He sendeth presentes vnto Esau. 24,28 He wrestled with the Angel who nameth him Israel.

1 NOw Iaakob went forthe on his iourney & the Angels of God met him.
2 And when Iaakob sawe them, he said, [a] This is Gods hoste, & called the name of the same place Mahanaim.
3 Then Iaakob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, vnto the land of Seir into the countrey of Edom:
4 To whome he gaue commandement, saying, Thus shal ye speake to my [b] lord Esau: Thy seruant Iaakob saith thus, I haue bene a stranger with Laban & taried vnto this time.
5 I haue beues, also & asses, shepe, & men seruantes, and women seruantes, and haue sent to shewe my Lord, that I may finde grace in thy sight.
6 ¶So the messengers came againe to Iaakob, saying, We came vnto thy brother Esau, and he also commeth against thee and foure hundreth men with him.
7 Then Iaakob was [c] greatly afraid, and was sore troubled, & deuided the people that was with him, and the shepe, and the beues, and the camels into two companies.
8 For he said, if Esau come to the one companie and smite it, the other companie shal escape.
9 ¶Moreouer Iaakob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Izhak: Lord, which saidest vnto me, Returne vnto thy countrei & to thy kinred, and I wil do thee good,
10 I am not [q] worthie of the least of all the mercies & all ý trueth, which thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant: For with my [d] staffe came I ouer this Iorden, and now haue I gotten two bandes.
11 I pray thee, Deliuer me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I feare him, lest he wil come and smite me, & the [e] mother ypon the children.
12 For thou saidest, I wil surely do thee good, and make thy sede as the sand of the sea, which can not be nombred for multitude.
13 ¶And he taried there the same night, & toke of that which came to hand, a [f] presente for Esau his brother:
14 Two hundreth she goates and twenty he goates, two hundreth ewes and twentie rammes:
15 Thirty milche camels with their coltes, fourtie kine, & ten bullockes, twentie she asses and ten foles.
16 So he deliuered them into the hand of his seruantes, euerie droue by them selues, & said vnto his seruants, Passe before me, and put a space betwene droue & droue.
17 And he commanded the formest, saying, If Esau my brother mete thee, and aske thee, saying, Whose seruãt art thou? & whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?
18 Then thou shalt say, they be thy seruant Iaakobs: it is a present sent vnto my lord Esau: and beholde, he him selfe also is behinde vs.
19 So likewise commanded he the secõde & the third, & all that followed the droues, saying, After this maner, ye shal speake vnto Esau, when ye finde him.
20 And ye shal say moreouer, Beholde, thy seruant Iaakob commeth after vs (for he thoght, I [g] wil appease his wrath with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I wil se his face: it may be that he wil [r] accept me) a He acknollageth Gods benefits: who for the preseruation of his sendeth hostes of Angels.

b He reuerenced his brother in wordlie things, because he chiefely loked to be preferred to the spiritual promes.

21 So

21 So went the present before him: but he taried that night with the companie.
22 And he rose vp the same night, and toke his two wiues, and his two maides, and his eleuen children, & went ouer the forde Iabbok.
23 And he toke them, & sent them ouer the riuer, & sent ouer that he had.
24 ¶ When Iaakob was left him selfe alone, there wrestled a h mā with him vnto the breaking of the day.
25 And he sawe that he colde not i preuaile against him: therefore he touched ỹ holow of his thigh, & the holow of Iaakobs thigh was losed, as he wrestled with him.
26 And he said, Let me go, for the morning appeareth. Who answered, * I wil not let thee go except thou blesse me.
27 Then said he vnto him, What is thy name? And he said, Iaakob.
28 Then said he, * Thy name shal be called Iaakob no more, but Israél: because thou hast had k power with God. ỹ shalt also preuaile with men.
29 Then Iaakob demanded, saying, Tel me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore now doest thou aske my name? And he blessed him there.
30 And Iaakob called the name of the place, Peniél: for, said he, I haue sene God face to face, and my ℓ life is preserued.
31 And ỹ sunne rose to him as he passed Peniél, and he l halted vpon his thigh.

Esau and Iaakob mete and are agreed. 11. Esau receiueth his gifts. 19 Iaakob byeth a possession, 20. And buyldeth an altar.

1 AND as Iaakob lift vp his eies, and loked, beholde, Esau came, and with him foure hundreth men: and he a deuided the children to Leah, and to Rahel, and to the two maides.
2 And he put the maides, & their childrē formost, and Leah and her children after, and Rahel, and Ioseph hindermost.
3 So he went before thē and b bowed him selfe to the grounde seuen times, vntil he came nere to his brother.
4 Then Esau ran to mete him and embraced him, and fel on his necke and kissed him, and thei wept.
5 And he lift vp his eies, and sawe the women, and the children, and said, Who are these with thee? And he answered, Thei are the children whome God of his grace hathe giuen thy seruant.
6 Then came the maides nere, thei, and their children, and c bowed them selues.
7 Leah also with her children came nere and made obeisance: and after Ioseph & Rahél drewe nere and did reuerence.
8 Then he said, What meanest thou by all this drowe, which I met? Who answered, I haue sent it, that I maie finde fauour in the sight of my lord.
9 And Esau said, I haue ynough, my brother: kepe that thou hast to thy selfe.
10 But Iaakob answered, Nay, I pray thee: if I haue founde grace now in thy sight, then receiue my present at mine hand: for d I haue sene thy face, as though I had sene the face of God, Because thou hast accepted me.
11 I praie thee take my blessing, that is broght thee: for God hathe had mercie on me, & therefore I haue all things: so he e compelled him, and he toke it.
12 And he said, Let vs take our iourney & go, and I wil go before thee.
13 Then he answered him, My lord knoweth, that the children are tendre, and ỹ ewes & kine with yong vnder mine hād: & if thei shulde ouerdriue them one day all the flocke wolde dye.
14 Let now my lord go before his seruāt and I wil driue softly, according to the passe of the cattel, which is before me, and as the children be able to endure, vntil f I come to my lord vnto Seir.
15 Then Esau said, I wil leaue then some of my folke with thee. And he answered What nedeth this? let me finde grace in the sight of my lord.
16 ¶ So Esau returned, and went his way that same day vnto Seir.
17 And Iaakob went forwarde towarde Succoth, & buylt him an house, and made boothes for his cattel: therefore he called the name of the place Succoth.
18 ¶ Afterwarde, Iaakob came safe to Shechém a citie, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan Arā, and pitched before the citie.
19 And there he boght a parcel of grounde, where he pitched his tent, at the hād of the sonnes of Hamor Shechems father, for an hundreth ' pieces of money.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

Dinah is rauished. 8 Hamor asketh her in mariage for his sonne. 22 The Shechemites are circumcised at the requeste of Iaakobs sonnes, and the persuasiō of Hamor. 25 The whoredome is reuenged. 28 Iaakob reproueth his sonnes.

1 Then

1 THen Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare vnto Iaakob, [a]went out to se the daughters of that countrey.
2 Whome when Shechem the sonne of Hamor the Hiuite lord of that countrie sawe, he toke her, and lay with her, & [”] defiled her.
3 So his heart claue vnto Dinah ý daughter of Iaakob: and he loued the maide, & [”] spake kindely vnto the maide.
4 Then said Shechem to his father Hamor, saying, [b] Get me this maide to wife.
5 (Now Iaakob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter; and his sonnes were with his cattel in the field: therefore Iaakob helde his peace, vntil they were come)
6 ¶ Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out vnto Iaakob to commune with him.
7 And when the sonnes of Iaakob were come out of the field and heard it, it grieued the men, & they were very angrie, because he had wroght [#] vilennie in Israél, in that he had lien with Iaakobs daughter: [”] which thing ought not to be done.
8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soule of my sonne Shechem longeth for your daughter: geue her him to wife, I pray you.
9 So make [#] affinitie with vs: giue your daughters vnto vs, and take our daughters vnto you,
10 And ye shal dwel with vs, and the land shal be before you: dwel, and do your businesses in it, and haue your possessions therein.
11 Shechem also said vnto her father and vnto her brethren, [c] Let me finde fauour in your eies, and I wil giue what soeuer ye shal appoint me, 12 [”] Aske of me abundantly bothe dowrie and giftes, & I wil giue as ye appoint me: so that ye giue me the maide to wife.
13 Then the sonnes of Iaakob answered Shechém and Hamor his father, talking among them selues deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister, 14 And they said vnto them, [d] We can not do this thing, to giue our sister to an vncircumcised man: for that were a [d] reproffe vnto vs.
15 But in this wil we consent vnto you, if ye wil be as we are, that euerie mã childe among you be [e] circumcised:
16 Then wil we giue our daughters to you, and we wil take your daughters to vs, and wil dwel w̄ you, and be one people
17 But if ye wil not hearken vnto vs to be circumcised, then wil we take our daughter & departe.
18 Now their wordes pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamors sonne.
19 And the yong man deferede not to do the thing because he loued Iaakobs daughter: he was also the moste set by of all his fathers house.
20 Then Hamor and Shechem his sonne went vnto the [f] gate of their citie, & communed with the men of their citie, saying,
21 These men are [g] peaceable with vs: & that they may dwel in the land, and do their affaires therein (for beholde, the land hathe roume ynough for them) let vs take their daughters to wiues, and giue them our daughters.
22 Onely herein wil ý men consent vnto vs for to dwel with vs, and to be one people, if all the men children among vs be circumcised as they are circumcised.
23 Shal not [h] their flockes and their substance and their cattel be ours? onely let vs consent herein vnto them, and they wil dwel with vs.
24 And vnto Hamor, & Schechem his sonne hearkened all that went out of the gate of his citie: and all the men children were circumcised, euen all that went out of the gate of his citie
25 And on the third day (whē thei were sore) two of the sonnes of Iaakob, [i] Simeon and Leui, Dinahs brethren toke ether of them his sworde & went into the citie boldely, and slewe [k] euerie male.
26 Thei slewe also Hamor and Shechem his sonne with the [”] edge of the sworde, & toke Dinah out of Shechems house, and went their way.
27 Againe the other sonnes of Iaakob came vpon the dead, and spoiled the citie, because they had defiled their sister.
28 Thei toke their shepe, and their beues and their asses, and what soeuer was in ý citie, and in the fields.
29 Also they caried away captiue and spoiled all their goods, and all their children and their wiues, and all that was in the houses.
30 Then Iaakob said to Simeon and Leui, Ye haue troubled me, & made me [#] stinke among the inhabitants of the lãd, as wel the Canaanites, as the Perizzites, and I being fewe in nombre, they shal gather them selues together against me, and slay me, and so shal I, and my house be destroied.
31 And they answered, Shulde he abuse our sister as a whore?

1 THen [a] God said to Iaakob: Arise, go vp to Bethél & dwel there, & make there an altar vnto God, that appeared vnto thee, *when thou fleddest from Esau thy brother.

2 Then said Iaakob vnto his housholde, & to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, & [b] clense your selues, and change your garments:

3 For we wil rise and go vp to Beth-el, and I wil make an altar there vnto God, which heard me in the day of my tribulacion, & was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gaue vnto Iaakob all the strange gods, which were in their hands, and all their [c] earings which were in their eares: and Iaakob hid them vnder an oke, which was by Shechem.

5 Then they went on their iourney, and the [d] feare of God was vpon the cities, that were round about them: so that thei did not followe after the sonnes of Iaakob.

6 ¶So came Iaakob to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan: (the same is Beth-el) he and all the people that was with him.

7 And he buylt there an altar, & *had called the place, The God of Beth-el, because that God appeared vnto him there, when he fled from is brother.

8 Then Deborah Rebekahs nourse dyed, and was buryed beneth Beth-el vnder an oke: and he called the name of it [e] Allon bachuth.

9 ¶Againe God appeared vnto Iaakob, after he came out of Padan Aram, and blessed him.

10 Moreouer God said vnto him, Thy name is Iaakob: thy name shal be no more called Iaakob, but *Israel shalbe thy name: and he called his name Israel.

11 Againe God said vnto him, I am God [f] all sufficient. growe, & multiplie: a natiō & a multitude of nations shal spring of thee, and Kings shal come out of thy loynes.

12 Also I wil giue ye land, which I gaue to Abraham and Izhak, vnto thee: & vnto thy sede after thee wil I giue that land.

13 So God [e] ascended from him in the place where he had talked with him.

14 And Iaakob set vp a piller in the place where he talked with him, a piller of stone, and powred drinke offring thereon: also he powred oyle thereon.

15 And Iaakob called the name of the place, where God spake with him, Beth-el.

16 Then they departed from Beth-el, & when there was [f] about halfe a daies iourney of grounde to come to Ephrath, Rahel trauailed, and in trauailing she was in peril.

17 And when she was in peines of her labour, the midwife said vnto her, Feare not: for thou shalt haue this sonne also.

18 Then as she was about to yelde vp the goste (for she dyed) she called his name Ben-oni, but his father called him Beniamin.

19 Thus dyed Rahel, & was buryed in the way to Ephrath, which is Bethlehem.

20 And Iaakob set a [g] piller vpon her graue: This is the piller of Rahels graue vnto this day.

21 ¶Then Israel went forwarde, & pitched his tent beyonde Migdal-éder.

22 Now, when Israél dwelt in that land, Reubén went, and [h] laye * with Bilhah his fathers concubine, and it came to Israels eare. And Iaakob had twelue sonnes.

23 The sonnes of Leah: Reuben Iaakobs eldest sonne, and Simeon, & Leui, & Iudah, & Issachar, & Zebulun.

24 The sonnes of Rahel: Ioseph and Beniamin.

25 And the sonnes of Bilhah Rahels maide: Dan and Naphtali.

26 And the sonnes of Zilpah Leahs maide: Gad and Asher. these are the sonnes of Iaakob, which were borne him in Padan Aram.

27 ¶Then Iaakob came vnto Izhak his father to Mamré a citie of Arbah: this is Hebron, where Abraham and Izhak were strangers.

28 And the daies of Izhak were an hundreth and foure score yeres.

29 And Izhak gaue vp the goste and dyed, and was * gathered vnto his people, being olde and ful of daies: & his sonnes Esau and Iaakob buryed him.

and is hated of his brethren. 28 They sel him to the Ishmaelites. 34 Iaakob bewaileth Ioseph.

37 1 IAakob now dwelt in the land, wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the [a] generacions of Iaakob, when Ioseph was seuenteth yere olde: he kept shepe with his brethrē, & the childe was with the sonnes of Bilhah, and with the sonnes of Zilpah, his fathers wiues.
And Ioseph brought vnto their father their euil [b] saying.

3 Now Israel loued Ioseph more then all his sonnes, because he begate him in his olde age, and he made him a coate of many [c] colours.

4 So when his brethren sawe that their father loued him more then all his brethrē then thei hated him, and colde not speake peaceably vnto him.

5 ¶ And Ioseph [e] dreamed a dreame, and tolde his brethren, who hated him so muche the more.

6 For he said vnto them, Heare, I pray you, this dreame which I haue dreamed.

7 Beholde now, we were binding sheues in the middes of the field: & lo, my sheefe arose and also stode vpright, & beholde, your sheues compassed rounde about, and did reuerence to my sheefe.

8 Then his brethren said to him, What, shalt thou reigne ouer us, and rule vs? or shalt thou haue altogether dominion ouer vs? And thei [d] hated him so muche ẏ more, for his dreames, & for his wordes.

9 ¶ Againe he dreamed an other dreame, & tolde it his brethren, & said, Beholde, I haue had one dreame more, and beholde, the sunne and the moone and eleuen starres did reuerence to me.

10 Then he tolde it vnto his father & to his brethren, and his father [g] rebuked him. & said vnto him, What is this dreame, which thou hast dreamed? shal I, & thy mother, and thy brethren come in dede and fall on ẏ grounde before thee?

11 And his brethren enuied him, but his father [f] noted the saying.

12 ¶ Then his brethren went to kepe their fathers shepe in Shechem.

13 And Israel said vnto Ioseph, Do not thy brethren kepe in Shechém? come & I wil send thee to them.

14 And he answered him, I am here. Thē he said vnto him, Go now, se whether it be wel with thy brethren, and how the flockes prosper, and bring me worde againe. So he sent him from the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechém.

15 ¶ Then a man founde him: for lo, he was wandring in the field, and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

16 And he answered, I seke my brethren: tel me, I pray thee, where they kepe shepe.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence: for I heard them say, Let vs go vnto Dothan. Then went Ioseph after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when thei saw him a far of, euen before he came at them, thei [g] conspired against him for to slaie him.

19 For thei said one to an other, Beholde, this [i] dreamer commeth.

20 Come now therefore, & let vs slaie him, and cast him into some pit, & we wil say, A wicked beast hathe deuoured him: then we shal se, what wil come of his dreames.

21 *But when Reubén heard that, he deliuered him out of their hands, & said, [*] Let vs not kil him.

22 Also Reubén said vnto them, Shed not blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wildernes, & lay no hand vpon him. Thus he said, that he might deliuer him out of their hand, and restore him to his father againe.

23 ¶ Now whē Ioseph was come vnto his brethrē, thei stript Ioséph out of his coat, his perticoloured coate that was vpō him.

24 And thei toke him, & cast [h] him into a pit, & the pit was empty, without water in it.

25 Then thei sat them downe to eat bread: and thei lift vp their eies and loked, and beholde, there came a company of Ishmeelites from Gilead, and their camels laden with spicerie, and rosen, and myrrhe, and were going to carie it downe into Egypt.

26 Then Iudah said vnto his brethren, What auaileth it, if we slaie our brother, thogh we kepe his blood secret?

27 Come and let vs sel him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hands be vpō him for he is our brother & our flesh: and his brethren obeied.

28 Then the *Midianites marchant men passed by, and thei drewe forthe, and lift Ioséph out of the pit, and solde Ioseph vnto the [i] Ishmeelites for twentie pieces of siluer: who broght Ioseph into Egypt.

29 ¶ Afterward Reubén returned to the pit, and beholde, Ioséph was not in the pit: then he rent his clothes, 30 And returned to his brethren, & said, The childe is not yonder, & I, whether shal I go?

31 And thei toke Iosephs coate, and killed a kid of the goates, and depped the coate in the blood.

32 So thei sent that particouloured coate, [k] and thei broght it vnto their father, & said, This haue we founde: se now, whether it be thy sonnes coate, or no.

2 The mariage of Iudáh. 29 The trespasse of Er and Onán, and the vengeance of God that came thereupon. 18 Iudáh lyeth with his daughter in lawe Tamar. 29. 30 The birth of Phárez and Zarah.

1 AND at that time [a] Iudah went downe from his brethren, and turned in to a man called Hirah an Adullamite.

2 And Iudah sawe there the daughter of a man called * Shuah a [b] Canaanite: and he toke her to wife, and went in vnto her.

3 So she conceiued and bare a sonne, & he called his name Er.

4 * And she conceiued againe, and bare a sonne, and she called his name Onan.

5 Moreouer she bare yet a sonne, whome she called Shelah: and Iudah was at Chezib when she bare him.

6 Then Iudah toke a wife to Er his first borne sonne whose name was Tamar.

7 * Now Er the first borne of Iudah was wicked in the sight of the Lord: therefore the Lord slewe him.

8 Then Iudah said ro Onan, Go in vnto thy brothers wife, and do the office of a kinsman vnto her, & raise [c] vp sede vnto thy brother.

9 And Onan knewe that the sede shulde not be his: therefore when he went in vnto his brothers wife, he spilled it on the grounde, lest he shulde giue sede vnto his brother.

10 And it was wicked in the eies of the Lord, which he did: wherefore he slewe him also.

11 Then said Iudah to Tamar his daughter in lawe, [d] Remaine a widowe in thy fathers house, til Shelah my sonne growe vp (for he thoght thus, Lest he die aswél as his brethrẽ) So Tamar wẽt & dwelt in her fathers house.

12 ¶ And in processe of time also ỹ daughter of Shuah Iudahs wife dyed. Then Iudah, when he "had left mourning, went vp to his shepe sherers to Timnah, he, and his neighbour Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was tolde Tamar, saying, 'Beholde, thy father in lawe goeth vp to Timnah, to shere his shepe.

14 Then she put her widowes garmentes of from her, & couered her with a vaile, and wrapped her selfe, & sate downe in [e] Pethah-enaim, which is by the way to Timnah, because she sawe that Shelah was growen, & she was 'not giuen vnto him to wife.

15 When Iudah sawe her, he iudged her an whore for she had couered her face.

16 And he turned to the way, towards her, & said, Come, I pray thee, let me lye with thee. (for he [f] knewe not that she was his daugther in lawe) And she answered, What wilt thou giue me for to lie with me?

17 Then said he, I wil send thee a kid of the goates from the flocke. & she said, Wel, if thou wilt giue me a pledge, til ỹ send it.

18 Then he said, What is the pledge that I shal giue thee? And she answered, Thy signet, & thy [g] cloke, and thy staffe that is in thine hand. So he gaue it her, and lay by her, and she was with childe by him.

19 Then she rose, and went & put her vaile from her & put on her widowes rayement.

20 Afterward Iudah sent a kid of the goates by the hand of his [f] neighbour ỹ Adullamite, for to receiue his pledge from the womans hand: but he founde her not.

21 Then asked he the men of that place, saying, Where is the whore that sate in Enaim by the way side? And they answered, There was no whore here.

22 He came therefore to Iudah againe, & said, I can not finde her, & also the men of the place said, There was no whore there.

23 Then Iudah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be "[g] shamed: beholde, I sent this kid, and thou hast not founde her.

24 ¶ Now after thre moneths, one tolde Iudah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in lawe hathe played the whore, and lo, ẅ playing the whote, she is great with childe. Then Iudah said, Bring ye her forthe and let her be [h] burnt.

25 When she was broght forthe, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man vnto whome these things perteine, am I with childe: & said also, Loke, I praye thee, whose these are, the seale, & the cloke, and the staffe.

26 Thẽ Iudah knewe them, and said, She is [i] more righteous then I: for she hath done it because I gaue her not to Shelah my sonne. So he laye with her [k] no more.

1 Ioséph is solde to Potiphar, 2 God prospereth him. 7 Potiphars wife tempteth him 13, 20 He is accused & cast in prison. 21 God sheweth him fauour.

1 NOw Ioséph was broght downe into Egypt: & Potiphar [a] an Eunuche of Pharaohs (and his chief stuard an Egyptian) boght him at the hand of the Ishmeelites, which had broght him thether.
2 And the Lord [b] was with Ioséph, and he was a man that prospered and was in the house of his master the Egyptian.
3 And his master sawe that the Lord was with him, and that the Lord made all ỹ he did to prosper in his hand.
4 So Ioséph founde fauour in his sight, & serued him: and he made him [c] ruler of his house, and put all that he had in his hand.
5 And from that time that he had made him ruler ouer his house & ouer all that he had, the Lord [d] blessed the Egyptians house for Iosephes sake: & the blessing of the Lord was vpon all that he had in the house, and in the field.
6 Therefore he lefr all that he had in Iosephs hand, [e] & toke accompte of nothing, that was w̃ him, saue onely of the bread, which he did eat. And Ioséph was a faire personne, and wel fauoured.
7 ¶ Now therefore after these things, his masters wife cast her eyes vpon Ioséph, and said, [f] Lye with me.
8 But he refused & said to his masters wife, Beholde, my master knoweth not what he hathe in the house with me, but hathe committed all that he hathe to mine hand.
9 There is no man greater in this house then I: nether hathe he kept any thing from me, but only thee, because thou art is wife: how then can I do this great wickednes & so sinne against [g] God?
10 And albeit she spake to Ioséph day by day, yet he hearkened not vnto her, to lye with her, or to be in her cõpanie.
11 Then on a certeine day Ioseph entred into the house, to do his busines & there was no man of the housholde in the house.
12 Therefore she caught him by his garment, saying, Slepe with me: but he left his garment in her hand and fled, & got him out.
13 Now when she sawe that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled out, 14 She called vnto the men of her house, and tolde them, saying, Beholde, he hathe broght in an Ebrewe vnto vs [i] to mocke vs: who came into me for to haue slept with me: but I [h] cryed with a loude voyce.
15 And when he heard that I lift vp my voyce and cryed, he left his garment w̃ me, & fled away, and got him out.
16 So she layed vp his garment by her, vntil her lord came home.
17 Thẽ she tolde him according to these wordes, saying, The Ebrewe seruant, w̃ thou hast broght vnto vs, came into me to mocke me.
18 But assone as I lift vp my voyce and cryed, he left his garment with me, & fled out.
19 Then when his master heard the wordes of his wife, which she tolde him, saying, After this maner did thy seruant to me, his angre was kindled.
20 And Iosephs master toke him and put him in [j] prison, in the place, where the Kings prisoners lay bounde: and there he was in prison.
21 ¶ But the Lord was with Ioséph, & [k] shewed him mercie, and got him fauour in the sight of the master of the prison.
22 And the keper of the prison committed to Iosephs hand all the prisoners that were in the prison, and [l] what soeuer they did there, that did he.
23 And ỹ keper of the prison loked vnto nothing that was vnder his hand, seing that the Lord was with him: for what soeuer he did, the Lord made it to prosper.

CHAP. XL.

1 The interpretation of dreames is of God. 12. 19. Ioseph expoundeth the dreames of the two prisoners. 23 The ingratitude of the butler.

1 AND after these things, the butler of ỹ King of Egypt and his baker offended their lord the king of Egypt.
2 And Pharaoh was angry against his two [m] officers, against the chief butler, and against the chief baker.
3 Therefore he put them in warde in his chief stuardes house, in ỹ prison and place where [a] Ioseph was bounde.
4 And the chief stuarde gaue Ioséph charge ouer them, & he serued thẽ: and they

m Or, eunuches. the worde signifieth thẽ: that were in high estate, or, them that were gelded.
a God worked many wonderful meanes to deliuer his.

they continued a season in warde:

5 ¶ And they bothe dreamed a dreame, either of them his dreame in one night, b eche one according to the interpretatiō of his dreame, both the butler & the baker of the King of Egypt, which were bounde in the prison.

6 And when Ioseph came in vnto them in the morning, and loked vpon them, beholde, they were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaohs officers, that were with him in his masters warde, saying "Wherefore" loke ye so sadly to day?

8 Who answered him, We haue dreamed eche one a dreame, & there is none to interpret the same. Then Ioseph said vnto them, c Are not interpretations of God? tel them me now.

9 So the chief butler tolde his dreame to Ioseph, and said vnto him, In my dreame, beholde, a vine was before me,

10 And in the vine were thre branches, and as it budded, her floure came forthe & the clusters of grapes waxed ripe.

11 And I had Pharaohs cup in mine hand, & I toke the grapes, and wrōg them into Pharaohs cup, and I gaue the cup into Pharaohs hand.

12 Then Ioseph said vnto him, This d is the interpretation of it: The thre branches are thre dayes.

13 Within thre dayes shal Pharaoh lift vp thine head, & restore thee vnto thine "office, and thou shalt giue Pharaohs cup into his hand after the olde maner, when thou was his butler.

14 But haue me in remembrance with thee, when thou art in good case, & shewe mercie, I pray thee, vnto me, and e make mencion of me to Pharaoh, that thou maiest bring me out of this house.

15 For I was stollen away by theft out of the land of the Ebrewes, & here also haue I done nothing, wherefore they shulde put me in the dungeon.

16 And when the chief baker sawe that the interpretacion was good, he said vnto Ioseph. Also me thoght in my dreame that I had thre f white baskets on mine head.

17 And in the vppermost basket there was of all maner baken meates for Pharaoh: & the birdes did eat them out of the basket vpon mine head.

18 Then Ioseph answered, & said, g This is the interpretacion thereof: The thre baskets are thre dayes:

19 Within thre daies shal Pharaoh take thine head from thee, & shal hang thee on a tre, and the birdes shal eat thy flesh from of thee.

20 ¶ And so the third day, which was Pharaohs h birth day, he made a feast vnto all his seruantes: and he lifted vp the head of the chief butler, and the head of the chief baker among his seruantes.

21 And he restored the chief butler vnto his butlership, who gaue the cup in to Pharaohs hand, 22 But he hanged the chief baker, as Ioseph had interpreted vnto them.

23 Yet the chief butler did not remembre Ioseph, but forgat him.

CHAP. XLI.

26 Pharaohs dreames are expounded by Ioseph. 40 He is made ruler ouer all Egypt. 51 He hathe two sonnes: Manasseh and Ephraim. 54 The famine beginneth throughout the worlde.

1 AND" two yeres after, Pharaoh also a dreamed, and beholde, he stode by a riuer,

2 And lo, there came out of the riuer seuen goodlie kine and fatfleshed, and they fed in a" medow:

3 And lo, seuen other kine came vp after them out of the riuer, euil fauoured and leane fleshed, and stode by the other kine vpon the brinke of the riuer.

4 And the euil fauoured and leane fleshed kine did eat vp the seue wel fauoured & fat kine: so Pharaoh awoke.

5 Againe he slept, and dreamed the b seconde time: and beholde, seuen eares of corne grewe vpon one stalke, ranke and goodlie.

6 And lo, seuen thinne eares, & blasted with the East winde, sprang vp after them.

7 And the thinne eares deuoured the seuen ranke and ful eares. then Pharaoh awaked, and lo, it was a dreame.

8 Now when the morning came, his spirite was c troubled: therefore he sent and called all the sothe saiers of Egypt, & all the wise men thereof, and Pharaoh tolde them his dreames: but d none colde interpret them to Pharaoh.

9 Then spake the chief butler vnto Pharaoh, saying, I e call to minde my faultes this day.

10 Pharaoh being angry with his seruantes, put me in warde in the chief stuardes house, both me and the chief baker

11 Then we dreamed a dreame in one night both I, and he: we dreamed eche man according to the interpretacion of his dreame.

12 And there was with vs a yong man, an Ebrewe, seruant vnto the chief stuarde, whome when we tolde, he declared our dreames to" vs, to euerie one he declared according to his dreame.

15 Then Pharaoh said to Ioseph, I haue dreamed a dreame, and no man can interpret it, and I haue heard say of thee, that when thou heerest a dreame, thou canst interpret it.

16 And Ioseph answered Pharaoh, saying, [g] Without me God shal [h] answer for the welth of Pharaoh.

17 And Pharaoh said vnto Ioseph, In my dreame, beholde, I stode by the banke of the riuer.

18 And lo, there came vp out of the riuer seuē fatfleshed, and welfauored kine, and thei fed in the medow.

19 Also lo, seuen other kine came vp after thē, poore and very [i] euilfauoured, and leanefleshed: I neuer sawe ỹ like in all the land of Egypt, for euilfauoured.

20 And the leane and euilfauoured kine did eat vp the first seuen fat kine.

21 And when they [k] had eaten them vp, it colde not be knowen that they had eaten them, but they were stil as euilfauoured, as they were at the beginning: so did I awake.

22 Moreouer I sawe in my dreame, and beholde, seuen eares sprang out of one stalke, ful and faire.

23 And lo, seuen eares, withered, thinne, and blasted with the East winde, sprang vp after them.

24 And the thinne eares deuoured the seuen good eares. Now I haue tolde the sothesaiers, and none can declare it vnto me, 25 ¶ Then Ioseph answered Pharaoh, Bothe Pharaohs dreames are one. [l] God hathe shewed Pharaoh, what he is about to do.

26 The seuen good kine are seuen yeres, & the seuen good eares are seuen yeres: this is one dreame.

27 Likewise the seuen thinne and euil fauoured kine, that came out after thē, are seuen yeres: and the seuen emptie eares blasted with the East winde are seuen yeres of famine, 28 This is the thing, [m] I haue said vnto Pharaoh, that God hathe shewed vnto Pharaoh, what he is about to do.

29 Beholde, there come seuen yeres of great [n] plentie in all ỹ land of Egypt,

30 Againe, there shal arise after them seuen yeres of famine, so that all ỹ plentie shalbe forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine shal consume the land:

31 Nether shal the plentie [o] be knowen in the land, by reason of this famine that shal come after: for it shalbe exceading great.

32 And therefore the dreame was doubled vnto Pharaoh the second time, because the thing is established by God, & God hasteth to performe it.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh [p] prouide for a man of vnderstanding and wisdome, & set him ouer the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh make and appoint officers ouer the land, and take vp the fifte parte of the land of Egypt in the seuen plenteous yeres.

35 Also let them gather all the fode of these good yeres that come, and lay vp corne vnder ỹ hand of Pharaoh for fode, in the cities, and let them kepe it.

36 So the fode shalbe for the prouisiō of the land, against the seuen yeres of famine, which shalbe in the lād of Egypt, that the land perish not by famine.

37 ¶ And the saying pleased Pharaoh and all his seruantes.

38 Then said Pharaoh vnto his seruantes, Can we finde such a man as this, in whome is the [q] Spirit of God?

39 Then Pharaoh said to Ioseph, For as muche as God hathe shewed thee all this, there is no man of vnderstanding, or of wisdome like vnto thee.

40 *Thou shalt be ouer mine house, & at thy [r] worde shal all my people be armed, only in the Kings throne wil I be aboue thee.

41 Moreouer Pharaoh said to Ioseph, Beholde, I haue set thee ouer all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh toke of his [s] ring from his hand, and put it vpon Iosephs hand, and araied him in garments of fine linen and put a golden cheine about his necke.

43 So he set him vpon the [t] best charet that he had, saue one: & they cryed before him, [u] Abrech, and placed him ouer all the land of Egypt.

44 Againe Pharaoh said vnto Ioseph, I am Pharaoh, & without thee shal no man lift vp his hand or his fote in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaoh called Iosephs name [x] Zaphnath-paaneah: ād he gaue him to wife Asenath the daughter of Potipherah [y] prince of On. then went Ioseph abroad in the land of Egypt.

46 ¶ And Ioseph was [z] thirty yere olde when he stode before Pharaoh King of Egypt: and Ioseph departing from the presence of Pharaoh, went through out all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seuen plenteous yeres the earth [a] broght forthe store.

48 And he gathered vp all the fode of the seuen plenteous yeres, which were in the land of Egypt, and layed vp fode in the cities: the fode of the field, that was round about euery citie, layed he vp in the same.

49 So Ioseph gathered wheat, like vnto the sand of the sea in multitude, out of measure, vntil he left nombring: for it

25 ¶ So Ioseph cõmanded that thei shulde fille their sackes with wheat, and put euerie mans money againe in his sacke, & giue them vitaile for ẏ iourney: end thus did he vnto them.

26 And they laied their vitaile vpon their

27 And as one of them opened his sacke for to giue his asse prouandre in the ynne, he espied his money: for lo, it was in his sackes mouthe.

35 ¶ And as they empted their sackes, beholde, euerie mans bundel of money was in his sacke: and when they and their father sawe the bundels of their money they were afraied.
36 Then Iaakob their father said to them, Ye haue robbed me of my children: Ioseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye wil take Beniamin: all these things " are against [k] me.
37 Then Reuben answered his father, saying, Slay my two sonnes, if I bring him not to thee againe: deliuer him to mine hand, and I wil bring him to thee againe.

1 NOw great [a] famine was in the land.
2 And when they had eaten vp the vitaile, which they had broght from Egypt, their father said vnto them, Turne againe, and bye vs a litle fode.
3 And Iudah answered him, saying, The man charged vs by an othe, saying, *Neuer se my face, except your brother be with you. Chap. 42, 20

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we wil not go downe: for the man said vnto vs, *Loke me not in the face, except your brother be with you. Chap. 42, 20
6 And Israel said, Wherefore delt ye so euil with me, as to tel the man, whether ye had yet a brother or no?
7 And they answered, The man asked straitly of " our selues and of our kinred, saying, Is your father yet aliue? haue ye any brother? And we tolde him " according to these wordes: colde we knowe certeinly y he wolde say, Bring your brother downe?
8 Then said Iudah to Israel his father, Send the boye with me, that we may rise & go, and that we may liue and not dye, bothe we, and thou, and our children.
9 I wil be suretie for him: of mine hand shalt thou require him. *If I bring him not to thee, & set him before thee, " thē let me beare the blame for euer. Chap. 44. 32
10 For except we had made this tarying, doutles by this we had returned the seconde time.
11 Then their father Israel said vnto thē, If it must nedes be so nowe, do thus: take of the best frutes of the land in your vessels, and bring the man a present, a litle rosen, and a litle honie, " spices and myrre, nuttes, and almondes:

15 ¶ Thus the men toke this present, and toke twise so muche money in their hand with Beniamin, and rose vp, and went downe to Egypt and stode before Ioseph.
16 And when Ioseph sawe Beniamin with them he said to [e] his stuard, Bring these men home and kil meat and make readie: for the men shal eat with me at noone.

" Or, to the ruler of his house.
a This was a great tentation to Iaakob to suffre so great famine in that land, where God had promised to blesse him.

Ioseph houſe, thei were [e] afraied, and ſaid, Becauſe of the money, that came in our ſackes mouthes at the firſt time, are we broght, that he maie "picke a quarel againſt vs, and "laie ſome thing to our charge, and bring vs in bondage and our aſſes.

19 Therefore came thei to Ioſephs ſtuard, and commoned with him at the dore of the houſe.

20 And ſaid, Oh, ſyr, *we came in dede downe hether at the firſt time to bye fode.

21 And as we came to an ynne and opened our ſackes, behold, euerie mans money was in his ſackes mouth, euen our money in ful weight, but we haue broght it againe in our hands..

22 Alſo other money haue we broght in our handes to bye fode, but we can not tel, who put our money in our ſackes.

23 And he ſaid, "Peace be vnto you, feare not: [f] your God and ý God of your father hathe giuen you that treaſure in your ſackes, I had your money: and he broght forthe Simeon to them.

24 So the man led thē in to Ioſephs houſe, and gaue them water to waſh their fete, and gaue their aſſes prouander.

25 And thei made redy their preſent againſt Ioſeph came at none, (for thei heard ſaie ý thei ſhulde eat bread there.)

26 When Ioſeph came home, thei broght the preſent into the houſe to him, which was in their hands, and bowed downe to the grounde before him.

27 And he aſked them of their "proſperitie, and ſaid, Is your father the olde man, of whome ye tolde me, in good health? is he yet aliue?

28 Who anſwered, Thy ſeruant our father is in good helth, he is yet aliue: and they bowed downe, and made obeſsance.

29 And he lifting vp his eies, behelde his brother Beniamin his [g] mothers ſonne, & ſaid, Is this your yonger brother, of whome ye tolde me? And he ſaid, God be merciful vnto thee, my ſonne.

30 And Ioſeph made haſte (for his "affectiō was inflamed toward his brother, and ſoght where to wepe) and entred into his chambre, and wept there.

31 Afterward he waſhed his face, and came out, and refrained him ſelfe, and ſaid, Set on " meat, 32 And they [h] prepared for him by him ſelfe, and for them by them ſelues, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him, by them ſelues, becauſe the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Ebrewes: for that was an [i] abominacion vnto the Egyptians.

33 So they ſate before him: the eldeſt according vnto his age, and the yongeſt according vnto his youthe, and the men marueiled among them ſelues.

34 And thei toke meaſes from before him, & ſent to them: but Beniamins meaſe was fiue times ſo muche as anie of theirs: & thei dronke [k] & had of the beſt drinke with him.

CHAP. XLIIII.

1 Ioſeph accuſeth his brother of theft. 33 Iudah offreth him ſelfe to be ſeruant for Beniamin.

1 AFterwarde he commanded his ſtuard, ſaying, Fil the mens ſackes with fode, as muche as thei can cary, and put euerie mans money in his ſackes mouthe.

2 And [a] put my cup, I meane the ſiluer cup, in the ſackes mouthe of the yongeſt, and his corne money. And he did according to the commandement that Ioſeph gaue him.

3 And in the " morning the men were ſent away, thei, and their aſſes.

4 And when thei went out of the citie not farre of, Ioſeph ſaid to his ſtuard, Vp, followe after the men: & when thou doeſt ouertake them, ſay vnto them, Wherefore haue ye rewarded euil for good?

5 Is that not, the cup, wherein my lord drinketh? [b] and in the which he doeth deuine and prophecie? ye haue done euil in ſo doing.

6 ¶ And when he ouertoke them, he ſaid thoſe wordes vnto them.

7 And thei anſwered him, Wherefore ſaieth my lord ſuche wordes? God forbid that thy ſeruants ſhulde do ſuche a thing.

8 Beholde, the money which we found in our ſackes mouthes, we broght againe to thee out of the land of Canaan: how then ſhulde we ſteale out of thy lordes houſe ſiluer, or golde?

9 With whomeſoeuer of thy ſeruants it be founde, let him dye, and we alſo wil be my lords bondmen.

10 And he ſaid, Now then let it be according vnto your wordes: he with whome it is founde, ſhalbe my ſeruant, & ye ſhal be " blameles.

11 Then at once euerie man toke downe his ſacke to the grounde, and euerie one opened his ſacke.

12 And he ſearched, and began at the eldeſt and left at the yongeſt and the cup was founde in Beniamins ſacke.

13 Then thei [c] rent their clothes, and laded euerie man his aſſe, and went againe into the citie.

14 ¶ So Iudah & his brethrē came to Ioſephs houſe (for he was yet there) and thei fel before him on the grounde.

16 ¶ And the "tydings came vnto Pharaohs house, so that thei said, Iosephs brethren are come: and it pleased Pharaoh wel, & his seruants.

17 Then Pharaoh said vnto Ioseph, Say to thy brethren, This do ye, lade your beastes & departe, go to the land of Canaan.

18 And take your father, and your housholdes, and come to me, and I wil giue you the [e] best of the land of Egypt, and ye shal eat of the [f] fat of the land.

19 And I commande thee, Thus do ye, take you charets out of the land of Egypt for your children, and for your wiues, and bring your father and come.

20 Also " regard not your stuffe for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.

21 And the children of Israel did so: and Ioseph gaue them charets according to the commandement of Pharaoh: he gaue them vitaile also for the iourney, 23 And vnto his father [n] likewise he sent ten he asses laden with the best things of Egypt, and ten she asses laden with wheat, & bread, & meat for his father by the away.

24 So sent he his brethren away, and thei departed: and he said vnto them, [g] Fall not out by the way.

25 ¶ Then thei went vp from Egypt, & came vnto the land of Canaan vnto Iakob their father, 26 And tolde him, saying, Ioseph is yet aliue, and he also is gouerner ouer all the land of Egypt, and Iaakobs heart [h] failed: for he beleued them not.

27 And thei tolde him all the wordes of Ioseph, which he had said vnto them: but when he sawe the charets, which Ioseph had sent to cary him, then the spirit of Iaakob their father reuiued.

28 And Israel said, I haue ynough: Ioseph my sonne is yet aliue: I wil go and se him yer I dye.

7 Iaakob cõmeth before Pharaoh, and telleth him his age. 11 The land of Goshen is giuen him. 22 The idolatrous priests haue liuing of the King. 28 Iaakobs age, when he dyeth. 30 Ioseph sweareth to bury him with his fathers.

1 THen came Ioseph and tolde Pharaoh, and said, My father, & my brethen, & their shepe, & their cattel, and all that they haue, are come out of the land of Canaan, & beholde, they are in the land of Goshen.

2 And Ioseph toke parte of his brethrẽ, euen [a] fiue men, & presented them vnto Pharaoh.

a That ỹ King might be assured they were come, and se what maner of people they were.

3 Then Pharaoh said vnto his brethren, What is your trade? And thei answered Pharaoh, Thy seruauts are shepherdes, bothe we and out fathers.

4 Thei said moreouer vnto Pharaoh, For to soiourne in the land are we come: for thy seruants haue no pasture for their shepe, so sore is the famine in the land of Canaan. Now therefore we pray thee, let thy seruants dwel in the land of Goshen.

5 Then spake Pharaoh to Ioseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come vnto thee.

6 The [b] land of Egypt is before thee: in the best place of the land make thy father and thy brethren dwel: let them dwel in the land of Goshen: and if thou knowest that there be men of actiuitie mong them, make them rulers ouer my cattel.

11 ¶ And Ioseph placed his father, and his brethren, and gaue them possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, euen in the land of [c] Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

c Which was a citie in the contrey of Goshen. Exod. 1, 11.

12 And Ioseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his fathers household with bread, euen [d] to the yong children.

d Some read, that he fed them as litle babes, because they colde not prouide for them selues against that famine.

13 ¶ Now there was no bread in all the land: for the famine was exceading sore: so that the land of Egypt & the land of Canaan were famished by ỳ reason of the famine.

14 And Ioseph gathered all the money, that was founde in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corne which they bought, & [e] Ioseph laied vp the money in Pharaohs house.

15 So when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, then all the Egyptians came vnto Ioseph, and said, Giue vs bread: for why shulde we dye before thee? for our money is spent.

16 Then said Ioseph, Bring your cattel, & I wil giue you for your cattel, if your money be spent.

17 So they brought their cattel vnto Ioseph, & Ioseph gaue them bread for the horses, and for the flockes of shepe, and for the herdes of cattel, and for the asses: so he fed them with bread for all their cattel that yere.

18 But when the yere was ended, they came vnto him the next yere, & said vnto him, We wil not hide from my lord, that since our money is spent, & my lord hathe the herdes of the cattel, there is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies & our grounde, 19 Why shal we perish in thy sight, bothe we, and our [f] land? bye vs and our land for bread, and we and our land wil be bonde to Pharaoh: therefore giue vs sede, that we may liue and not dye, and that the land go not to waste.

20 So Ioseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh: for the Egyptians solde euerie man his grounde because the famine was sore vpon them: so the land became Pharaohs.

21 And he [g] remoued the people vnto the cities, "from one side of Egypt euen to the other.

22 Onely the land of the Priestes bought he not: for the Priestes had an ordinarie of Pharaoh, and they did eat their ordinarie, ẅ Pharaoh gaue them: wherefore they solde not their grounde.

23 Then Ioseph said vnto the people, Beholde, I haue bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is sede for you: sowe therefore the grounde.

24 And of the encrease ye shal giue the fift parte vnto Pharaoh, and foure partes shal be yours for the sede of the field, and for your meat, and for them of your housholdes, and for your children to eat.

25 Then they answered, Thou hast saued our liues, let vs finde grace in the sight of my Lord, & we wil be Pharaohs seruants.

26 Then Ioseph made it a lawe ouer the land of Egypt vnto this day, that Pharaoh shulde haue the fift parte, [h] except the land of the Priestes onely, which was not Pharaohs.

27 ¶ And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in ỳ countrey of Goshen: and they had their possessions therein, and grewe and multiplied exceadingly.

28 Moreouer, Iaakob liued in the land of Egypt seuentene yeres, so that the whole age of Iaakob was an hundreth fourtie & seuen yere.

29 Now when the time drewe nere that Israel must dye, he called his sonne Ioseph, and said vnto him, If I haue now founde grace in thy sight, put thine hād now vnder my thigh, and deale mercifully and truely with me: bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt, 30 But when I shal [i] slepe with my fathers, thou shalt cary me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burial. And he answered, I wil do as thou hast said.

31 Then he said, Sweare vnto me. And he sware vnto him. And Israel [k] worshipped toward the beds head.

2 Also one tolde Iaakob, & said, Beholde, thy sonne Ioseph is come to thee, and Israel toke his strengeth vnto him and sate vpon the bed.

3 Then Iaakob said vnto Ioseph, God "almightie appeared vnto me at* Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me.

14 ¶ Then Ioseph returned into Egypt, he and his brethren, & all that went vp with him to bury his father, after that he had buryed his father.

d An euil conscience is neuer fully at rest.

16 Therefore they sent vnto Ioseph, saying, Thy father commanded before his death, saying, 21 Feare not now therefore, I wil nourish you, and your children: and he comforted them, and spake [g] kindely vnto them.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that Iaakob by Gods commandement Gen. 46, 3. had brought his familie into Egypt, where they remained for the space of foure hundreth yeres, and of seuenty persones grewe to an infinite nombre. So that the King and the countrey grudged and endeuored bothe by tyrannie and cruel seruery to suppresse them, the Lord according to his promes Gen. 15, 14. had cōpasion of his Church & deliuered them, but plagued their ennemies in moste strange and sondry sortes. And the more that the tyrannie of the wicked enraged against his Church, the more did his heauy iudgements increase against them, til Pharaoh & his armie were drowned in the same Sea, which gaue an entrie and passage to the children of God. But as the ingratitude of man is great so did they immediatly forget Gods wonderful benefites: & albeit he had giuen them the Passeouer to be a signe & memorial of the same, yet they fel to distrust, & tempted God with sondry murmurings and grudgings against him and his ministers: sometime moued with ambition, sometime for lacke of drincke or meate to content their lustes, sometime by idolatrie, or suche like. Wherfore God visited thē with sharpe roddes and plagues that by his corrections they might seke to him for remedy against his scourges & earnestly repent them for their rebellions & wickednes. And because God loueth them to the end, whome he hathe once begonne to loue, he punished them not according to their desertes, but deals with them in great mercies, and euer with newe benefites labored to ouercome their malice: for he stil gouerned them and gaue them his worde & Law, bothe concerning the maner, of seruing him, & also the forme of iudgements and ciuil policie: to the intent that thei shulde not serue God after their owne inuentions, but according to that ordre, which his heauenlie wisdome had appointed.

2 The children of Iaakob that came into Egypt. 8 The newe Pharaoh oppresseth thē. 12 The prouidence of God toward them. 15 The Kings commandement to the midwiues. 22 The sonnes of the Ebrewes are commanded to be cast into the riuer.

a Moses describeth the wonderful ordre ỹ God obserueth in performing his promes to Abraham. Gen. 25, 14.

NOw a these are the names of the children of Israel, which came in to Egypt (euerie man and his household came thither with Iaakob)

2 Reuben, Simeon, Leui, and Iudah,

3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Beniamin,

4 Dan, & Naphthali, Gad, & Asher.

5 So all the [b] soules, that came out of the loynes of Iaakob, were * seuentie soules: Ioseph was in Egypt already.

6 Now Ioseph dyed and all his brethren, & that whole generacion.

7 ¶ And the * children of Israel brought forthe frute and encreased in abundance, & were multiplied, and were exceading mightie, so that the [c] land was ful of them.

8 Then there rose vp a newe King in Egypt, who [c] knewe not Ioseph.

9 And he said vnto his people, Beholde, the people of the children of Israel are greater and mightier then we.

10 Come

b He meaneth ỹ countrey of Gosshen.

c He considered not how God had preserued Egypt for Iosephs sake.

10 Come, let vs worke wisely wt thē, lest they multiplie, and it come to passe, that if there be warre, they ioyne them selues also vnto our ennemies, & fight against vs, and [d] get them out of the land.

11 Therefore did they set taskemasters ouer them, to kepe them vnder with burdens: and they buylt the cities Pithom & Raamses for the [||] treasures of Pharaoh.

12 But the more they vexed them, ỹ more they multiplied and grewe: therefore [e] they were more grieued against the children of Israel.

13 Wherefore the Egyptians by crueltie caused the children of Israel to serue.

14 Thus they made them weary of their liues by sore labour in claye and in bricke, and in all worke in the field, with all maner of bondage, [||] which they laied vpon them moste cruelly.

15 ¶ Moreouer the King of Egypt commanded the midwiues of the Ebrewe women, (of which the ones name was [f] Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah)

16 And said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the women of the Ebrewes & se them on their [h] stolles, if it be a sonne, them ye shal kil him: but if it be a daughter, then let her liue.

17 Not withstanding the midwiues feared God, & did not as ỹ King of Egypt commanded them, but preserued aliue ỹ men children.

18 Then the King of Egypt called for ỹ midwiues, & said vnto them, Why haue ye done thus, and haue preserued aliue the men children?

19 And the midwiues answered Pharaoh, Because the Ebrewe [g] women are not as the women of Egypt: for they are liuelie, and are deliuered yer [h] midwife come at them.

20 God therefore prospered the midwiues, and the people multiplied & were very mightie.

21 [h] And because the midwiues feared God therefore he made them houses.

22 Then Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Euerie man childe that is borne, [i] cast ye into the riuer, but reserue euerie maidchilde aliue.

CHAP. II.

2 Moses is borne and cast into the flagges. 5 He is taken vp of Pharaohs daughter, & kept. 12 He killeth the Egyptian. 15 He fleeth and marieth a wife. 23 The Israelites crye vnto the Lord.

1 THen there went a [a] man of the house of Leui, & toke to wife a daughter of Leui,

2 And the womā conceiued & bare a sonne: & when she sawe that he was faire, [*] she hid him thre moneths.

3 But when she colde no longer hide him, she toke for him an arke made of rede, and daubed it with slime & with pitch, & [b] laid the childe therein, & put it among the bulrushes by the riuer brinke.

4 Now his sister stode a far of, to wete what wolde come of him.

5 ¶ Then the daughter of Pharaoh came downe to wash her in the riuer, and her maidens walked by the riuers side: & when she sawe the arke among the bulrushes, she sent her maid to fet it.

6 Then she opened it, and sawe it was a childe: and beholde, the babe wept: so she had compassion on it, and said, This is one of the Ebrewes children.

7 Then said his sister vnto Pharaohs daughter, Shal I go & call vnto thee a nurce of the Ebrewe women to nurce thee the childe?

8 And Pharaohs daughter said to her, Go. So the maid wēt and called the [c] childes mother.

9 To whome Pharaohs daughter said, Take this childe away, and nurce it for me, & I wil reward thee. Then the woman toke the childe and nurced him.

10 Now ỹ childe grewe, and she brought him vnto Pharaohs daughter, & he was as her sonne, and she called his name Moses, becausse, said she, I drewe him out of the water.

11 ¶ And in those dayes, when Moses was [d] growen, he went forthe vnto his brethren, and loked on their burdens: also he sawe an Egyptian smiting an Ebrewe one of his brethren.

12 And he loked [||] rounde about, & whē he sawe no man, he [e] slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 Againe he came forthe the seconde day, and beolde, two Ebrewes stroue: and he said vnto him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy felowe?

14 And he answered, Who made thee a mā of autoritie & a iudge ouer vs? Thinkest thou to kil me, as thou killedst ỹ Egyptian? Then Moses [f] fe ared and said, Certenly this thing is knowen.

15 Now Pharaoh heard this matter, and soght to slay Moses: therefore Moses fled from Pharaoh, & dwelt in the land of Midian, and he sate downe by a well.

16 And the Priest of Midian had seuen daughters, which came and drewe water, and filled ỹ troghes, for to watter their fathers shepe.

17 Then ỹ shepherdes came and droue them away: but Moses rose vp & [||] defended them, and wattered their shepe.

3 Therefore Moſes ſaid, I wil turne aſide now, & ſe this great ſight, why the buſhe burneth not.

4 And when the d Lord ſaw that he turned aſide to ſe, God called vnto him out of the middes of the buſhe, and ſaid. Moſes, Moſes. And he anſwered, I am here

5 Then he ſaid, Come not hither, e put thy ſhooes of thy fete: for the place where on thou ſtandeſt is f holy grounde.

6 Moreouer he ſaid, * I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, ỹ God of Izhak, & the God of Iaakob. Then Moſes hid his face: for he was g afraied to loke vpon God.

7 ¶ Then the Lord ſaid, I haue ſurely ſene the trouble of my people, which are in Egypt, & haue heard their crye, becauſe of their h taske maſters: for I knowe their ſorowes.

8 Therefore I am come downe to deliuer them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them out of ỹ land into a good lād & a large, into a land that i floweth with milke & hony, euen into the place of the Canaanites, and Hittites, & the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiuites, and the Iebuſites.

9 k And now lo, the crye of the children of Iſrael is come vnto me, and I haue alſo ſene the oppreſſion, where w the Egyptians oppreſſe them.

10 Come now therefore, and I wil ſend thee vnto Pharaoh, ỹ thou maieſt bring my people the children of Iſrael out of Egypt.

11 ¶ But Moſes ſaid vnto God, Who am l I, that I ſhulde go vnto Pharaoh, and that I ſhulde bring the children of Iſrael out of Egypt?

12 And he anſwered, m Certeinly I wil be with thee: & this ſhalbe a token vnto thee, that I haue ſent thee, After that thou haſte broght the people out of Egypt, ye ſhal ſerue God vpon this Mountaine.

14 And God anſwered Moſes, I n AM THAT I AM. Alſo he ſaid, Thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto the children of Iſrael, I AM hathe ſent me vnto you.

15 And God ſpake further vnto Moſes, Thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto the children of Iſrael, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Izhak, and the God of Iaakob hathe ſent me vnto you: this is my Name for euer, & this is my memorial vnto all ages.

16 Goand gather the Eldres of Iſrael together, & thou ſhalt ſay vnto thē, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Izhak, & Iaakob appeared vnto me, & ſaid, " I haue ſurely remembred you, & that which is done to you in Egypt.

17 Therefore I did ſay. I wil bring you out of the affliction of Egypt vnto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, & the Hiuites, and the Iebuſites, vnto a land that floweth with milke and hony.

18 Then ſhal thei obeie thy voyce, & ỹ and the Elders of Iſrael ſhal go vnto ỹ King of Egypt, and ſaie vnto him, The Lord God of the Ebrewes hathe met w vs: we pray thee now therefore, let vs go thre dayes iourney in the wildernes, that we may o ſacrifice vnto the Lord our God.

7 Ye ſhal giue the people no more ſtrawe, to make bricke (as in time paſt) but let thē go and gather thē ſtraw thē ſelues:

8 Notwithſtanding lay vpon thē the nō bre of bricke, which they made in time paſt, diminiſh nothing thereof: for they be idle, therefore thei crye, ſaying, Let vs go to offre ſacrifice vnto our God.

9 [c] Lay more worke vpon the men, and cauſe them to do it, and let them not regarde [f] vaine wordes.

10 ¶ Then went the taskemaſters of ỹ people & their officers out, and tolde the people, ſaying, Thus ſaith Pharaoh, I wil giue you no more ſtraw.

11 Go your ſelues, get you ſtraw where ye can finde it, yet ſhal nothing of your labour be diminiſhed.

12 Then were the people ſcatred abrode throughout all the land of Egypt, for to gather ſtubble in ſtede of ſtraw.

13 And the taskemaſters haſted thē, ſayīg, Finiſh your dayes worke [a] euerie dayes taske, as ye did when ye had ſtraw.

14 And the officers of the children of Iſrael, which Pharaohs taskemaſters had ſet ouer them, were beaten, and demāded, wherfore haue ye not fulfilled your taske in making bricke yeſterday and to day, as in times paſt?

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Iſrael came, & cryed vnto Pharaoh, ſaying, Wherefore dealeſt thou thus [a] thy ſeruants?

16 There is no ſtraw giuen to thy ſeruāts, and they ſay vnto vs, Make bricke: and lo, thy ſeruants are beaten, and [b] thy people is blamed.

17 But he ſaid, Ye are to muche idle: therefore ye ſay, Let vs go to offre ſacrifice to the Lord.

18 Go therefore now & worke: for there ſhal no ſtraw be giuen you, yet ſhal ye deliuer the whole tale of bricke.

19 Then the officers of the children of Iſrael ſawe thē ſelues in an euil caſe, becauſe it was ſaid, Ye ſhal diminiſh nothīg of your bricke, nor of euerie daies taske,

20 And they met Moſes & Aaron, which ſtode in their way as they came out frō Pharaoh, 22 Wherefore Moſes returned to ỹ Lord, and ſaid, Lord, why haſt thou afflicted this people? wherefore haſt thou thus ſent me?

CHAP. VII.

3 God hardeneth Pharaohs heart. 10 Moſes and Aaron do the miracles of the ſerpent, and the blood: and Phrraohs ſorcerers do the like.

1 THen the Lord ſaid to Moſes, Beholde, I haue made thee Pharaohs [a] God, & Aaron thy brother ſhal " be thy Prophet.

a I haue giuen thee power & autoritie to ſpeake in my name and to execute my iudgemets vpō him.

2 Thou ſhalt ſpeake all that I commanded thee: and Aaron thy brother ſhal ſpeake vnto Pharaoh, that he ſuffre the children of Iſrael to go out of his land.

3 But I wil harden Pharaohs heart, and multiplie my miracles, and my wondres in the land of Egypt.

4 And Pharaoh shal not hearken vnto you, that I may lay mine hand vpon Egypt, & bring out mine armies, euen my people, the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by great iudgemẽts.

5 Then the Egyptians shal know that I am the Lord, whẽ I stretch forth mine hand vpon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 So Moses and Aaron did as the Lord commanded them, euen so did they.

7 (Now Moses was[c] foure score yere olde, & Aaron foure score and thre, whẽ they spake vnto Pharaoh.)

8 ¶ And the Lord had spoken vnto Moses and Aaron, saying.

9 If Pharaoh speake vnto you, saying, Shewe a miracle for you, then thou shalt say vnto Aaron, Take thy rod & cast it before Pharaoh, and it shal be turned into a [d]serpent.

10 ¶ Then went Moses and Aaron vnto Pharaoh, and did euen as the Lord had commanded: and Aaron caste forthe his rod before Pharaoh and before his seruants, and it was turned into a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh called also for the wise men and[d] sorcerers: and those charmers also of Egypt did in like maner w their enchantements.

12 For they cast downe euerie man his rod, and thei were turned into serpents: but Aarons rod deuoured their rods.

13 So Pharaohs heart was hardened, & he hearkned not to them, as the Lord had said.

14 ¶ The Lord thẽ said vnto Moses, Pharaohs heart is[e] obstinat, he refuseth to let the people go.

15 Go vnto Pharaoh in the morning, (lo, he wil come vnto the water) & thou shalt stand & mete him by [e] the riuers brinke, and the rod, which was turned into a serpent, shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And ‖ shalt say vnto him, The Lord God of the Ebrews hath sent me vnto thee saying, Let my people go, that they may serue me in the wildernes: & beholde, hitherto thou woldest not heare.

17 Thus saith the Lord, In this thou shalt knowe that I am the Lord: beholde, I wil smite with the rod that is in mine hand vpon the water that is in the riuer, & it shalbe turned to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the riuer shal dye, and the riuer shal stinke, & it shal[f] greue the Egyptiãs to drinke of the water of the riuer.

19 The Lord then spake to Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Take thy rod, & stretch out thine hand ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer their streames, ouer their riuers, and ouer their pondes, and ouer all pooles of their waters, and they shalbe ‖ blood, ad there shalbe blood through out all the land of Egypt, bothe in vessels of wood, & of stone.

20 So Moses and Aaron did euen as the Lord commanded: and he lift vp the rod, and smote the water that was in the riuer, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his seruants: and all the water that was in the riuer, was [g]turned into blood.

21 And the [f] fish that was in the riuer dyed, and the riuer stanke: so that the Egyptians colde not drinke of the water of the riuer: and there was blood through out all the land of Egypt.

22 And the enchanters of Egypt did [g] likewise with their sorceries: & the heart of Pharaoh was hardened: so that he did not hearken vnto them, as the Lord had said.

23 Then Pharaoh returned, & went againe into his house, [h] nether did this yet entre into his heart.

24 All the Egyptians then digged rounde about the riuer for waters to drinke: for they colde not drinke of the water of the riuer.

25 And this continued fully seuen daies after the Lord had smitten the riuer.

CHAP. VIII.

6 Frogges are sent. 13 Moses praieth and they dye. 17. Lyce are sent, whereby the sorcerers acknowledge Gods power. 24 Egypt is plagued with noysom flies. 30. Moses praieth againe: 32 But Pharaohs heart is hardened.

4 Yea, the frogges shal climbe vp vpõ thee, and on thy people, and vpon all thy seruants.

5 ¶ Also the Lord said vnto Moses, Say thou vnto Aaron, Stretch thine hid w thy rod vpon the streames, vpon the riuers, and vpon the pondes, and cause frogges to come vp vpon the land of Egypt.

6 Then Aaron stretched his hand vpon the waters of Egypt: and the[i] frogges came vp, and couered the land of [b] Ef-

7 And the sorcerers did likewise with their sorceries, and broght frogges vpon the land of Egypt,
8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses & Aaron, & said, [c] Pray ye vnto the Lord that he may take away the frogges from me, and from my people, & I wil let the people go, that they may do sacrifice vnto the Lord.
9 And Moses said vnto Pharaoh, ["] As concerning me, euen commande when I shal praye for thee, and for thy seruants, and for thy people, to destroye the frogges from thee and from thine houses, that they may remaine in the riuer onely.
10 Then he said, To morowe. And he answered, Be it ["] as ỹ hast said, ỹ thou maiest knowe, that there is none like vnto the Lord our God.
11 So the frogges shal departe from thee, & from thine houses, and from thy seruants, and from thy people: onely they shal remayne in the riuer.
12 Then Moses and Aaron went out frō Pharaoh: and Moses cryed vnto ỹ Lord concerning the frogges, which he had sent vnto Pharaoh.
13 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses: so the frogges [d] dyed in the houses, in the townes, & in the fields.
14 And they gathered them togither by heapes, and the land stanke of them.
15 But when Pharaoh sawe that he had rest giuen him, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not vnto them, as the Lord had said.
16 ¶ Againe the Lord said vnto Moses, Say vnto Aarō, Stretche out thy rod, & smite the dust of the earth, that it may be turned to [||] lyce through out all the land of Egypt.
17 And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth: and lyce came vpon man & vpon beast: all the dust of the earth was lyce throughout all the land of Egypt,
18 Now the enchanters assaied likewise with their enchantmens to bring forthe lyce, but they [e] colde not. so the lyce were vpon man and vpon beast.
19 Then said the enchanters vnto Pharaoh, This is [f] the finger of God. But Pharaohs heart remained obstinat, and he hearckened not vnto them, as the Lord had said.
20 ¶ Moreouer the Lord said to Moses, Rise vp early in the morning, and stād before Pharaoh (lo, he wil come forthe vnto the water) & say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serue me.
21 Els, if thou wilt not let my people go, beholde, I wil send [*] swarmes of flies bothe vpon thee, & vpon thy seruants, and vpon thy people. & into thine houses: and the houses of the Egyptiās shal be ful of swarmes of flies, and the grounde also whereon they are.
22 But the land of Goshen, where my people are, wil I cause to be [n] wonderful in that day, so that no swarmes of flies shal be there, that thou maiest knowe that I am the Lord in the middes of the [n] earth.
23 And I wil make a deliuerance of my people from thy people: to morowe shal this miracle be.
24 And the Lord did so: for there came [‖] great swarmes of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his seruants houses, so that through all the land of Egypt the earth was corrupt by the swarmes of flies.
25 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, & said, Go, do sacrifice vnto your God in this land.
26 But Moses answered, It is not mete to do so: for then we shulde offre vnto the Lord our God that, which is an [g] abomination vnto the Egyptians. Lo, can we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eies, and they not stone vs?
27 Let vs go thre daies iourney in the desert, & sacrifice vnto the Lord our God as he hathe commanded vs.
28 And Pharaoh said, I wil let you go, that ye may sacrifice vnto the Lord your God in the wildernes. but [h] go not farre away, pray for me.
29 And Moses, said, Beholde, I wil go out from thee, and pray vnto the Lord, that the swarmes, of flies may departe from Pharaoh, from his seruants, and from his people to morowe. but let Pharaoh from henceforthe [i] deceiue no more, in not suffring the people to sacrifice vnto the Lord.
30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed vnto the Lord.
31 And the Lord did according to the saying of Moses, and the swarmes of flies departed from Pharaoh, from his seruants, and from his people. & there remained not one.
32 Yet Pharaoh [k] hardened his heart euē then also, & did not let the people go.

CHAP. IX.

1 The moraine of beastes. 10 The plague of botches & sores. 23 The horrible haile, thundre, and the lightening. 26 The land of Goshen euer is excepted. 27 Pharaoh confesseth his wickednes. 33 Moses praieth for him. 35 Yet is he obstinat.

23 Then Moses stretched out his rod toward heauen, and the Lord sent thundre & ‖ haile, and [a] lightening vpon the grounde: and the lord caused haile to raine vpon the land of Egypt.

26 Onely in the land of Goshen (where the children of Israel were) was no haile.

27 Then Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said vnto them, I [g] haue now sinned: the Lord is righteous, but I and my people are wicked.

g The wicked confesse their sinnes to their condemnation, but they cā not beleue to obtene remission.

3 Then Moses and Aaron came vnto Pharaoh, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of the Ebrewes, How long wilt thou refuse [b] to hũble thy selfe before me? Let my people go, that they may serue me.

4 But if thou refuse to let my people go, beholde, to morowe wil I bring [l] greshoppers into thy coastes.

5 And they shal couer the face of the earth, that a man can not se the earth: and they shal eat the residue which remaineth vnto you, ād hathe escaped frõ the haile: & they shal eat all your trees that bud in the field.

6 And they shal fil thine houses, & all thy seruants houses, and the houses of all the Egyptias, as nether thy fathers, nor thy fathers fathers haue sene, since the time they were vpõ the earth vnto this day. So he returned, and went out from Pharaoh.

7 Then Pharaohs seruats said vnto him, How lõg shal he be [m] an offence vnto vs? let the men go, that they may serue the Lord their God: wilt thou first knowe ý Egypt is destroyed?

8 So Moses and Aaron were broght agai ne vnto Pharaoh, & he said to them, Go, serue the Lord your God, but who are they that shal go?

9 And Moses answered, We wil go with our yong and with our olde, with our sonnes and with our daughters, with our shepe and with our cattel wil we go: for we must celebrate a feast vnto the Lord.

10 And he said vnto them, Let [d] the Lord so be with you, as I wil let you go and your children: beholde, for [e] euil is before your face.

11 It shal not be so: now go ye that are men, and serue the Lord: for that was your desire. Then they were thrust out from Pharaohs presence.

12 ¶ After, the Lord said vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hand vpon the land of Egypt for the greshoppers, that they may come vpon the land of Egypt, and eat all the herbes of the land, euen all that the haile hathe left.

13 Then Moses stretched forthe his rod vpon the land of Egypt: and the Lord brought an East winde vpon the land all that day, and all that night: and in the morning, the East winde broght the ‖ greshoppers.

14 So the greshoppers went vp vpon all the land of Egypt, and [n] remained in all quarters of Egypt: so grieuous greshoppers, like to these were neuer before, nether after them shalbe suche.

15 For they couered all the face of the earth, so that the land was darke: and they did eat all the herbes of the land, and all the frutes of the trees, which the haile had left, so that there was no grene thing left vpon the trees, nor among the herbes of the field throughout all the land of Egypt.

16 Therefore Pharaoh called for [f] Moses and Aaron in haste, and said, I haue sinned against the Lord your God, and against you.

17 And nowe forgiue me my sinne onely this once, and pray vnto the Lord your God, that he may take away from me this death onely.

18 Moses then went out from Pharaoh, and praied vnto the Lord.

19 And the Lord turned a mightie strõg West winde, and toke away the greshoppers, and violently cast them into the [g] red Sea, so that there remained not one greshopper in all the coast of Egypt.

20 But the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he did not let the children of Israel go.

21 ¶ Againe the Lord said vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heauen, that there may be vpon the land of Egypt darcknes, euen darcknes that may be [h] felt.

1 The Lord instituteth the Passeouer. 26 The fathers must teache their children the mysterie thereof. 29 The first borne are slaine. 31 The Israelites are driuen out of the land. 35 The Egyptians are spoiled. 37 The nūbre that departeth out of Egypt. 42 How long thei were in Egypt.

8 And thei shal eat ỹ flesh ỹ same night, rosted with fyre, & vnleauened bread: with sower herbes thei shal eat it.

9 Eat not thereof rawe, boiled nor sod-

10 And ye shal reserue nothing of it vnto the morning: but that, which remaineth of it vnto the morowe, shal ye burne with fyre.

11 ¶ And thus shal ye eat it, Your loynes girded, your shoes on your fete, & your staues in your hands, and ye shal eat it in haste: for [g] it is the Lords Passeouer.

12 For I wil passe through the land of Egypt the same night, and wil smite all the first borne in the land of Egypt, bothe man and beast, and I wil execute iudgement vpon all the [i] gods of Egypt. I am the Lord:

13 And the blood shalbe a token for you vpon the houses where ye are: so when I se the blood, I wil passe ouer you, and the plague shal not be vpon you to destruction, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shalbe vnto you a [h] remembrance: and ye shal kepe it an holy feast vnto the Lord, throughout your generacions: ye shal kepe it holy by an ordinance [i] for euer.

15 Seuen daies shal ye eat vnleauened bread, & in any case ye shal put away leauen the first day out of your houses: for whosoeuer eateth leauened bread from the first day vntil the seuenth day, that persone shal be cut of from Israel.

16 And in the first day shalbe an holy [k] assemblie: also in the seuenth day shal be an holy assemblie vnto you: no worke shalbe done in them, saue about that which euerie man must eat: that onely may ye do.

17 Ye shal kepe also the feast of vnleauened bread: for that same day I wil bring your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore ye shal obserue this day, throughout your posteritie, by an ordinance for euer.

18 ¶ In the first moneth and the fourtenth day of the moneth at [k] euen, ye shal eat vnleauened bread vnto the one and twentieth day of the moneth at euen.

19 Seuen dayes shal no leauen be found in your houses: for whosoeuer eateth leauened bread, that persone shalbe cut of from the Congregacion of Israel: whether he be a stranger, or borne in the land.

20 Ye shal eat no leauened bread: but in all your habitacions shal ye eat vnleauened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called all the Elders of Israel, and said vnto them, Chose out and take you for euerie of your housholdes a lambe, and kil the Passeouer.

22 And take a * bunche of hyssope, and dip it in the blood that is in the basson, & strike the [n] lintel, and the [o] dore chekes with the blood that is in ȳ basson, & let none of you go out at the dore of his house, vntil the morning.

23 For the Lord wil passe by to smite ȳ Egyptiās: and when he seeth the blood vpon the lintel & on the two dore chekes, the Lord wil passe ouer the dore, & wil not suffre the [l] destroyer to come into your houses to plague you.

24 Therefore shal ye obserue this thing as an ordinance bothe for thee and thy sonnes for euer.

25 And when ye shal come into the [m] land, which the Lord wil giue you, as he hathe promised, then ye shal kepe this [n] seruice.

26 * And when your children aske you, What seruice is this ye kepe?

27 Then ye shal say, It is the sacrifice of ȳ Lordes Passeouer, which passed ouer the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and preserued our houses. Then the people [p] bowed them selues, and worshipped.

28 So the children of Israel went, and did as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron: so did thei.

29 ¶ Now at * midnight, the Lord ‖ smote all the firstborne in the land of Egypt, from the firstborne of Pharaoh that sate on his throne, vnto the * firstborne of the captiue that was in prison, and all the firstborne of beastes.

30 And Pharaoh rose vp in the night, he, and all his seruants & all the Egyptians: and there was a great crye in Egypt: for there was [o] no house where there was not one dead.

31 And he called to Moses and to Aaron by night, & said, Rise vp, 'get you out from among my people, bothe ye, and the children of Israel, and go serue the Lord as ye haue said.

32 Take also your shepe and your cattel as ye haue said, and departe, and [p] blesse me also.

33 And the Egyptians did force the people, because thei wolde send them out of the land in haste: for thei said, We dye all.

34 Therefore the people toke their dowe before it was leauened, euen their dowe bounde in clothes vpon their shulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the saying of Moses, and thei asked of the Egyptians * iewels of siluer & iewels of golde, and raiment.

36 And the Lord gaue the people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians and thei [q] granted their requeste: so thei spoiled the Egyptians.

23 And the Egyptians pursued and wēt after them to the middes of the Sea, euē all Pharaohs horses, his charets, and his horsemen.
24 Now in the morning [l] watche, when ỹ Lord loked vnto the hoste of the Egyptiās, out of the firy, and cloudy piller he stroke the hoste of the Egyptians wt feare.
25 For he toke of their charet wheles, and thei drawe them with [n] muche a do: so that the Egyptiās euerie one said, I wil flee from the face of Israel: for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians.
26 ¶ Then the Lord said to Moses, Stretch thine hand vpon the Sea, that the waters may returne vpon the Egyptias, vpon their charets and vpon their horsemen.
27 Then Moses stretched forthe his hād vpon the Sea, and the Sea returned to his force early in the morning, & ỹ Egyptians fled against it: but the Lord [m] ouerthrewe the Egyptians in the middes of the Sea.
28 So the water returned & couered the charets and the horsemen, euen all the hoste of Pharaoh that came into the Sea after them there remained not one of them.
29 But the children of Israel walked vpon drye land through the middes of ỹ Sea, and the waters were a wall vnto thē on their right hand, & on their left.
30 Thus the Lod saued Israel the same day out of the hand of the Egyptians & Israel sawe the Egyptians dead vpon ỹ Sea bancke.
31 And Israel sawe the mighty "power, wt ỹ Lord shewed vpon the Egyptians: so ỹ people feared the Lord and beleued ỹ Lord, and his [n] seruant Moses.

1. 20 Moses with the men and women sing praises vnto God for their deliuerance. 23 The people murmure. 25 At the praier of Moses the bitter waters are swete. 26 God teacheth the people obedience.

1 THen [a] sang * Moses & the children of Israel this song vnto the Lord, and said in this maner, I wil sing vnto the Lord: for he hathe triumphed gloriously: the horse and him that rode vpon him hathe he ouerthrowen in the Sea.
2 The Lord is my strength and ' praise, and he is become my saluacion. He is my God, and I wil [b] prepare him a tabernacle. he is my fathers God, and I wil exalt him.
3 The Lord is a[c]man of warre, his [d] Name is Iehouah.
4 Pharaohs charets & his hoste hath he cast into the Sea: his chosen captaines also were drowned in the red Sea.
5 The depths haue couered them, they sancke to the bothome as a stone.
6 Thy ' right hand, Lord, is glorious in power: thy right hand, Lord, hathe bruised the ennemie.
7 And in thy great glorie thou hast ouer throwen them that rose against [e] thee: ỹ sentest forthe thy wrath, which consumed them as the stubble.
8 And by the blast of thy nostrels ỹ waters were gathered, the floods stode stil as an heape, the depths congeled together in the ' heart of the Sea.
9 The ennemie said, I wil pursue, I wil ouertake them, I wil deuide the spoile, my lust shalbe satisfied vpon them, I wil drawe my sworde, mine hand shal destroy them.
10 Thou blewest with thy winde, the Sea couered them, they sancke as lead in ỹ mightie waters.
11 Who is like vnto thee, o Lord, amōg the [f] gods! who is like thee so glorious in holines, [g] fearful in praises, shewing wonders!
12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swalowed them.
13 Thou wilt by thy mercie carye this people, which thou deliueredst: thou wil bring them in thy strength vnto thine holy [h] habitacion.
14 The people shal heare & be afraied: sorowe shal come vpon the inhabitants of Palestina.
15 Then the dukes of Edom shalbe amased, and trembling shal come vpon the great men of Moab: all the inhabitants of Canaan shal waxe faint hearted.
16 *Feare & dread shal fall vpon them: because of the "greatnes of thine arme, they shalbe stil as a stone, til thy people passe, ô Lord: til this people passe, which thou hast purchased.
17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountaine of thine [i] inheritance, which is the place that thou hast prepared, ô Lord, for to dwel in, euen ỹ sanctuarie, ô Lord, which thine hāds shal establish.

AFterward all the Congregacion of the children of Israel departed frō Elim, and came to the wildernes of [a] Sin, (which is betwene Elim and Sinai) ý fifteth day of the ſeconde moneth after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole Congregacion of the children of Israel murmured againſt Moſes and againſt Aaron in the wildernes.

3 For the children of Israel ſaid to them, Oh that we had dyed by the hand of ý Lord in the land of Egypt, when we ſate by the fleſh [b] pottes, when we ate bread our bellies ful: for ye haue broght vs out into this wildernes, to kil this whole companie with famine.

5 But the ſixt day they ſhal prepare that w they ſhal bring home, and it ſhalbe twiſe as muche as they gather daiely.

6 Then Moſes and Aaron ſaid vnto all ý children of Israel, At euen ye ſhal knowe, that the Lord broght you out of ý land of Egypt:

21 And they gathered it euerie morning, euerie man according to his eating: for when the heat of the sunne came, it was melted.

22 ¶ And the sixt day they gathered [k] twise so muche bread, two Omers for one man: then all the rulers of ỹ Congregacion came and tolde Moses.

29 Beholde, how the Lod hathe giuē you the sabbath: therefore he giueth you the sixt day bread for two dayes: tary therefore euerie man in his place: let no man go out of his place the seuenth day.

1 The Israelites came into Rephidim and grudge for water. 6 Water is giuen them out of the rocke. 11 Moses holdeth vp his hands, & thei ouercome the Amalekites.

1 And all the Congregacion of ỹ children of Israel departed from ỹ wildernes of Sin, by their iourneis at the [q] commandement of the Lord, & camped in [a] Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drinke.

2 *Wherefore ỹ people contended ẅ Moses, and said, Giue vs water that we may drinke. And Moses said vnto them, Why contend ye with me? wherefore do ye [b] tempt ỹ Lord?

3 So the people thirsted there for water, & ỹ people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore hast ỹ thus brought vs out of Egypt to kil vs and our children & our cattel with thirst?

4 And Moses cryed to ỹ Lord, saying, What shal I do to this people? for they be almost ready to [c] stone me.

5 And ỹ Lord answered to Moses, Go before ỹ people, and take ẅ thee of the Elders of Israel: and thy rod, where ẅ thou *smotest ỹ riuer, take in thine hād, and go:

6 *Beholde, I wil stād there before thee vpon ỹ rocke in Horeb, & ỹ shalt smite on the rocke & water shal come out of it, that the people may drinke. And Moses did so in the sight of the Elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of ỹ place [e], Massah and [e] Meribah, because of ỹ cōtention of ỹ children of Israel, and because they had tempted the Lord, saying Is ỹ [d] Lord among vs, or no?

8 ¶ *Then came [e] Amalek and foght ẅ Israel in Rephidim.

10 So Ioshua did as Moses bade him, & foght with Amalek: & Moses, Aaron, and Hur, went vp to the top of ỹ hil.

11 And when Moses held vp his hand, Israel preuailed: but when he let his hād [g] downe, Amalek preuailed.

12 Now Moses hands were heauy: therefore they toke a stone and put it vnder him, & he sate vpon it: and Aarō & Hur stated vp his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on ỹ other side: so his hands were steady vntil ỹ going downe of the 1 Iethro commeth to se Moses his sonne in lawe. 8 Moses telleth him of the wonders of Egypt. 9 Iethro reioyceth and offreth sacrifice to God. 24 Moses obeieth his counsel in appointing officers.

1 WHen Iethro the * Priest of Midian Moses father in lawe heard all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, & how the Lord had broght Israel out of Egypt,
2 Then Iethro the father in lawe of Moses toke Zipporah Moses wife, (after he had [a] sent her away)
3 And her two sonnes, (whereof the one was called Gershom: for he said, I haue bene an aliant in a strange land:
4 And the name of the other was Eliezer: for the God of my father, said he, was mine helpe, and deliuered me from the sworde of Pharaoh)
5 And Iethro Moses father in lawe came ẅ his two sonnes, & his wife vnto Moses into the wildernes, where he camped by the [b] mount of God.
6 And he [c] said to Moses, I thy father in lawe Iethro am come to thee, & thy wife and her two sonnes with her.
7 ¶ And Moses went out to mete his father in lawe, and did obeisance and kissed him, and eche asked other of his ["] welfare: and they came into the tent.
8 Then Moses tolde his father in law all that the Lord had done vnto Pharaoh, & to the Egyptians for Israels sake, and all the trauaile that had come vnto the by the way, and how the Lord deliuered them.
9 And Iethro reioyced at all the goodnes, ẅ the Lord had shewed to Israel, and because he had deliuered them out of ẏ hand of the Egyptians.
10 Therefore Iethro said, [d] Blessed be the Lord who hathe deliuered you out of ẏ hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh: who hathe also deliuered the people from vnder the hand of the Egyptians.
11 Now I knowe that the Lord is greater then all the gods: * for as they haue delt proudely with them, so are they [e] recompensed.
12 Then Iethro Moses father in law toke burnt offringes and sacrifices to offre vnto God. And Aaron and all the Elders of Israel came to eat bread with Moses father in law [f] before God.
13 ¶ Now on the morowe, when Moses sate to iudge the people, the people stode aboute Moses from morning vnto euen.
14 And when Moses father in lawe sawe all that he did to the people, he said, What is this that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thy selfe alone, and all the people stand about thee frō morning vnto euen?
15 And Moses said vnto his father in lawe, Because the people come vnto me to seke [g] God.
16 When they haue a matter, they come vnto me, and I iudge betwene one and an other, and declare the ordinances of God, and his lawes.
17 But Moses father in law said vnto him, The thing ẅ thou doest, is not wel.
18 Thou bothe ["] weariest thy selfe greatly, & this people that is ẅ thee: for the thing is to heauie for thee: thou art not able to do it thy selfe alone.
19 * Heare now my ["] voyce, (I wil giue thee counsel, and God shalbe ẅ thee) be thou for the people to [h] Godwarde, & reporte thou the causes vnto God, 20 And admonish them of the ordinances, and of the lawes, & shewe them the way, wherein they must walke, & ẏ worke that they must do.
21 Moreouer prouide thou among all the people [i] men of courage, fearing God, men dealing truely, hating couetousnes: and appoint suche ouer them to be rulers ouer thousandes, rulers ouer hundreths, rulers ouer fifties, and rulers ouer tens.
22 And let them iudge the people at all seasons: but euerie great matter let them bring vnto thee, & let them iudge all smale causes: so shal it be easier for thee, when they shal beare the burden ẅ thee.
23 If thou do this thing, (and God so cōmande thee) bothe thou shalt be able to endure, & all this people shal also go quietly to their place.
24 So Moses [k] obeied the voyce of his father in lawe, and did all ẏ he had said
25 And Moses chose men of courage out of all Israel, and made them heades ouer ẏ people, rulers ouer thousandes, rulers ouer hundreths, rulers ouer fifties and rulers ouer tens.
26 And they iudged the people at all seasons, but they broght the hard causes vnto Moses: for they iudged all smale matters them selues.

1 The Israelites come to Sinai. 5 Israel is chosen from among all other nations. 8 The people promes to obey God. 12 He that toucheth the hil dyeth. 16 God appeareth vnto Moses vpon the mount in thunder and lightening.

1 IN the [a] third moneth, after the children of Israel were gone out of the land of Egypt, the same [b] day came they into the wildernes of Sinai.

2 For they departed frō Rephidim, and came to the desert of Sinai, & camped in the wilderness: euen there Israel camped before the mount.

3 *But Moses went vp vnto God, for the Lord had called out of the mount vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of [c] Iaakob, and tel the children of Israel,

4 *Ye haue sene what I did vnto the Egyptians, and how I caried you vpon [d] egles wings, and haue broght you vnto me.

5 Now therefore *if ye wil heare my voyce in dede, & kepe my couenant, thē ye shalbe my chief treasure aboue all people, *though all the earth be mine.

6 Ye shalbe vnto me also a kingdome of *Priestes, and an holy nation. These are the wordes which thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel.

7 ¶ Moses then came & called for ẏ Elders of the people, and proposed vnto thē all these things, ẅ the Lord commanded him.

8 And the people answered altogether, & said, *All ẏ the Lord hathe commāded, we wil do. And Moses reported ẏ wordes of the people vnto the Lord.

9 And ẏ Lord said vnto Moses, Lo, I come vnto thee in a thicke cloude, that the people may heare, whiles I talke ẅ thee, & that they may also beleue thee for euer. (for Moses had tolde the wordes of the people vnto the Lord)

10 Moreouer the Lord said vnto Moses, Go to the people, and [e] sanctifie thē to daie and to morowe, and let them wash their clothes,

11 And let thē be ready on the third daie: for the third daie ẏ Lord wil come downe in the sight of all the people vpon mount Sinai:

12 And thou shalt set markes vnto ẏ people rounde about, saying, Take hede to your selues that ye go not vp to the mount, nor touche the bordre of it: whosoeuer toucheth the *mount, shal surely dye.

13 No hand shal touche it, but he shal be stoned to death, or stricken through ẅ dartes: whether it be beast, or man, he shal not liue: when the [f] horne bloweth long, thei shal come vp [g] into the mountaine.

14 ¶ Then Moses went downe from the mount vnto the people, & sanctified the people, and thei washed their clothes.

15 And he said vnto the people, Be ready on the third daie, and come not at your [h] wiues.

16 And the third daie, when it was morning, there was thūders & lightnings, & a thicke cloude vpon the mount, & the sound of the trumpet exceding loude, so that all the people, that was in the campe, was afraid.

17 Then Moses broght the people out of the tents to mete with God, & thei stode in the nether part of the mount.

18 *And mount Sinai was all on smoke, because the Lord came downe vpon it in fire, and the smoke thereof ascēded, as the smoke of a fornace, and all the mount [i] trembled exceedingly.

19 And when the sound of the trumpet blewe long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by [k] voyce.

20 (For the Lord came downe vpon mount Sinai on the top of the mount) and when the Lord called Moses vp into ẏ top of the mount, Moses went vp.

21 Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Go downe, charge ẏ people, that thei breake not their boundes to go vp to the Lord [l] to gaze, lest manie of them perish.

22 And let the [m] Priests also ẅ come to ẏ Lord be sanctified, lest the Lord [n] destroye them.

C The tunicle or broydred coate, which was vnder the robe and longer then it, and was alſo with out ſleues.

4 Now theſe ſhalbe the garments, which thei ſhal make, a breſt plate, & a [c] Ephod, & a robe, & a broydred coat, a mitre, & a girdle. ſo theſe holy garmẽts ſhal they make for Aaron thy brother, & for his ſonnes, that he may ſerue me in the Prieſts office.

c A ſhort and ſtreict coate without ſleeues put vpmoſt vpõ his garments to kepe them cloſe vnto him.

5 Therefore they ſhal take golde, and blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, & fyne linen,

6 ¶And they ſhal make the Ephod of golde, blewe ſilke, and purple, ſkarlet, & fine twined linẽ of broydred worke.

7 The two ſhulders thereof ſhalbe ioyned together by their two edges: ſo ſhal it be cloſed.

8 And the [d] embroydred garde of the ſame Ephod, which ſhalbe vpon him, ſhalbe of the ſelfe ſame worke & ſtuffe, euen of golde, blewe ſilke, and purple & ſkarlet, and fine twined linen.

d Which went about his vpmoſt coat.

9 And thou ſhalt take two onix ſtones, and graue vpon them the names of the children of Iſrael.

10 Six names of them vpon the one ſtone, & the ſix names that remaine, vpon the ſeconde ſtone, according to [e] their generacions.

e As they were in age, ſo ſhulde thei be grauen in ordre.

11 Thou ſhalt cauſe to graue the two ſtones according to the names of the children of Iſrael by a grauer of ſignets that worketh and graueth in ſtone, and ſhalt make them to be ſet and embоſſed in golde.

12 And thou ſhalt put the two ſtones vpon the ſhulders of the Ephod, as ſtones of [f] remembrance of the children of Iſrael, for Aaron ſhal beare their names before the Lord vpõ his two ſhulders for a remembrance.

f That Aaron might remembre the Iſraelitees to God warde.

13 So thou ſhalt make boſſes of golde,

14 ¶ And two cheines of fine golde [g] at the ende, of wrethed worke ſhalt thou make them, & ſhalt faſten the wrethed cheines vpon the boſſes.

g Of the boſſes.

15 ¶Alſo thou ſhalt make the breſt plate of [h] iudgement with broydred worke: like the worke of the Ephod ſhalt thou make it: of golde, blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet, & fine twined linen ſhalt thou make it.

h It was ſo called, becauſe the hie Prieſt colde not giue ſentence in iudgement without that on his breaſt.

16 [i] Foure ſquare it ſhalbe and double, an hand bred long and an hand bred broad.

i The deſcriptiõ of the breſt plate.

17 Then thou ſhalt ſet it ful of places for ſtones, euen foure rowes of ſtones: the ordre ſhalbe this, a[ll] ruby, a topaze, and a[ll] carbuncle in the firſt rowe.

ll Or, ſardoine.

18 And in the ſeconde rowe thou ſhalt ſet an[m] emeraude, a ſaphir, and a[ll] diamond.

m Or, emeraude.

19 And in the third rowe a turkeis, an achate, and an hematite.

n Or, carbuncle.

20 And in the fourthe rowe a[n] chryſolite, an onix, and a iaſper: & they ſhalbe ſet in golde in their emboſſements.

ll Or, iaſper.

n Ebr. tarſhiſh.

21 And the ſtones ſhalbe according to the names of the children of Iſrael, twelue, according to their names, grauẽ as ſignets, euerie one after his name, and thei ſhalbe for the twelue tribes.

22 ¶Then thou ſhalt make vpon the breſt plate two cheines at the endes of wrethen worke of pure golde.

23 Thou ſhalt make alſo vpon the breſtplate two rings of golde, and put the two rings on [k] the two endes of the breſt plate.

k Which are vpmoſt toward the ſhulder.

24 And thou ſhalt put the two wrethen cheines of golde in the two rings in the endes of the breſt plate.

25 And the other two endes of the two wrethen cheines, thou ſhalt faſten in the two emboſſements, and ſhalt put them vpon the ſhulders of the Ephod on the foreſide of it.

26 ¶ Alſo thou ſhalt make two rings of golde which thou ſhalt put in the [l] two other endes of the breſt plate, vpon the the border thereof, toward the inside of the Ephod.

27 And two other rings of golde thou shalt make, & put them on the two sides of ỹ Ephod, beneth in the fore parte of it ouer against the coupling of it, vpon the broydred garde of the Ephod.

28 Thus they shal binde the brest plate by his rings vnto the rings of ỹ Ephod, with a lace of blewe silke, that it may be fast vpon the broyded garde of the Ephod, & that the brest plate be not losed from the Ephod.

29 So Aaron shal [m] beare ỹ names of the children of Israel in the brest plate of iudgement vpon his heart, when he goeth into the holy place, for a remembrance continually before the Lord.

30 ¶ Also thou shalt put in the brest plate of iudgement the [n] Vrim & the Thūmim, ẅ shalbe vpon Aarons heart, when he goeth in before the Lord: and Aaron shal beare the iudgement of the childrē of Israel vpon his heart before ỹ Lord continually.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make the robe of ỹ Ephod altogether of blewe silke.

32 And the hole for his heade shalbe in ỹ middes of it, hauing an edge of wouen worke rounde about the coller of it: so it shalbe as the coller of an habergeon that it rent not.

33 ¶ And beneth vpon the skirtes thereof thou shalt make pomgranates of blewe silke, & purple, & skarlet, round about the skirtes thereof and belles of golde betwene them round about:

34 That is, *a golden bel and a pomgranate, a golden bel and a pomgranate rounde about vpon the skirtes of the robe.

35 So it shalbe vpon Aaron, when he ministreth, and his sound shalbe heard, when he goeth into the holy place before the Lord, and when he commeth out, & he shalt not dye.

36 ¶ Also thou shalt make a plate of pure golde, & graue theron, as signets are graué, [o] HOLINES TO THE LORD, 37 And thou shalt put it on a blewe silke lace, and it shalbe vpon the mitre: euen vpon the fore fronte of the mittre shal it be.

38 So it shalbe vpon Aarons forehead, ỹ Aaron may [p] beare the iniquitie of the offrings, ẅ the children of Israel shal offre in all their holy offrings: & it shalbe alwaies vpon his forehead, to make thē acceptable before the Lord.

39 Likewise thou shalt embroydre ỹ fine linen coat, and thou shalt make a mitre of fine linen, but thou shalt make a girdel of nedle worke.

40 Also thou shalt make for Aarons sonnes coates, & thou shalt make thē girdels, & bonets shalt thou make thē for glorie and comelines.

41 And thou shalt put them vpon Aaron thy brother, & on his sonne ẅ him, and shalt anoynt them, and [q] fil their hands, and sanctifie them, ỹ they may minister vnto me in the Priests office.

42 Thou shalt also make them linen breches to couer their priuities: frō ỹ loynes vnto the thighs shal they reache.

43 And they shalbe for Aaron & his sonnes when they come into the Tabernacle [r] of the Congregacion, or when they come vnto the altar to minister in ỹ holy place, that they [r] commit not iniquitie, & so dye. This shalbe a lawe for euer vnto him and to his sede after him.

CHAP. XXIX.

The maner of consecrating the Priests 38 The continual sacrifice. 45 The Lord promiseth to dwel amōg the children of Israel.

THis thing also shalt thou do vnto them when thou consecrateste them to be my Priestes. * Take a yōg calf, and two rams without blemish.

2 And vnleauend bread & cakes vnleauened tempered with oyle, and wafers vnleauened anointed with oyle: (of fine wheat flower shalt thou make them)

3 Then thou shalt put thē in one basket, & [a] present them in the basket with the calf and the two rams,

4 And shalt bring Aaron and his sonnes vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and wash them with water.

5 Also thou shalt take the garments, and put vpon Aaron the tunicle and ỹ robe of the [b] Ephod, and the Ephod, and the brest plate, and shalt close them to him with the broydred garde of the Ephod.

6 Then thou shalt put the mitre vpō his head, and shalt put the holy * crowne vpon the mitre.

7 And thou shalt take the anointing * oyle, and shalt powre vpon his head, and anoint him.

8 And thou shalt bring his sonnes, and put coates vpon them,

9 And shalt girde them with girdels, both he Aaron & his sonnes: and shalt put the bonets, on them, and the Priestes office shalbe theirs for a perpetual lawe: ỹ * shalt also [n] fil the hands of Aaron, and the hands of his sonnes.

10 After, thou shalt present the calf before the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, * and Aaron and his sonnes shal [c] put their hands vpon the head of the calf.

11 So ỹ shalt kil the calf before ỹ Lord, at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

25 Againe, ỹ shalt receiue them of their hāds, & burne them vpon the altar besides the burnt offring for a swete sauour before the Lord: for this is an offring made by fire vnto the Lord.

26 Likewise thou shalt take the brest of the ram of the cōsecration, ẅ is for Aaron, and shalt shake it to[h] and fro before the Lord, & it shalbe thy parte.

i So called, because it was not onely shaken to and fro, but also lifted vp.

28 And Aaron and his sonnes shal haue it by a statute for euer, of ỹ children of Israel: for it is an heaue offring, and it shalbe an heaue offring of the children of Israel, of their [k] peace offrings, euen their heaue offring to the Lord.

30 That sonne that shalbe Priest in his stede, shal put them on seuē dayes, whē he cometh into the Tabernacle of the Congregacion to minister in the holy place.

31 ¶ So thou shalt take the ram of ỹ consecration, & sethe his flesh in the holy place.

34 Now if oght of the flesh of the consecraciō, or of the bread remaine vnto ỹ morning, then thou shalt burne the rest with fire: it shal not be eatē, because it is an holy thing.

4 Besides this thou shalt make vnder this crowne two golden rings on ether side: euen on euerie side shalt thou make them, that thei may be as places for the barres to beare it wᵗ all.

7 And Aaron shal burne thereon swete incense euerie morning: when he [d] dresseth the lampes thereof, shal he burne it.

8 Likewise at euen, when Aaron setteth vp the lampes thereof, he shal burne incense: this perfume shalbe perpetually before the Lord, throughout your generations.

9 Ye shal offre no [e] strange incense thereō, nor burne sacrifice, nor offring, nether powre anie drinke offring [f] thereon.

10 And Aaron shal make reconciliation vpon the hornes of it once in a yere wᵗ the blood of the sinne offring in the day of reconciliation: once in the yere shal he make reconciliation vpon it throughout your generations: this is moste holy vnto the Lord.

The Lauer. Because Moses describeth not the maner of this Lauer, this figure is set here, after the manner of the best translations in other languages, printed in this volume.

18 Thou shalt also make a lauer of Brasse, & his fote of brasse to wash, and shalt put it betwene the Tabernacle of the Congregacion & the altar, & shalt put water therein.

19 For Aaron and his sonnes shal [k] wash their hands and their fete thereat.

21 So they shal wash their hands & their fete that they dye not: & this shalbe to thẽ an ordinance [l] for euer bothe vnto him and to his sede throughout their generacions.

30 Thou shalt also anoint Aaron and his sonnes, and shalt consecrat them, that they may ministre vnto me in the Priests office.

31 Moreouer thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, This shal be an holy ointing oyle vnto me, throughout your generacions.

32 None shal anoint [p] mans flesh there ẅ nether shal ye make any cõposition like vnto it: for it is holy, and shalbe holy vnto you.

34 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Take vnto thee these spices, pure myrrhe & [r] cleare gumme and galbanum, these odoures with pure frankincense, of eche like weight:

35 Then thou shalt make of them perfume composed after the arte of the apotecary, mingled together, pure and holy.

2 God maketh Bezaleel & Aholiab mete for his worke. 13 The Sabbath day is the signe of our sanctification. 18 The tables written by the finger of God.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saing.

2 Beholde, I [a] haue called by name, Bezaleel, the sonne of Vri, the sone of Hur of the tribe of Iudah, 3 Whome I haue filled with the Spirit of God, in wisdome, & in vnderstanding & in knowledge & in all [b] workemanship.

4 To finde out curious workes to worke in golde, & in siluer, and in brasse,

5 Also in the art to set stones, and to carue in timber, and to worke in all maner of workemanship.

6 And beholde, I haue ioyned with him Aholiab the sonne of Ahisamah of the tribe of Dan, & in the heartes of all that are [c] wise hearted, haue I put wisdome to make all that I haue commanded thee.

7 That is, the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and the Arke of the Testimonie, and ỹ Mercise at that shalbe thereupon, with all instruments of the Tabernacle:

8 Also the Table and ỹ instruments thereof, and the [d] pure Candelsticke with all his instrumẽts, and the Altar of perfume:

9 Likewise the Altar of burnt offring with all his instrumẽts, and the Lauer w his fote:

10 Also the garmentes of the ministration, and the holy garments for Aaron ỹ Priest, and the garments of his sonnes, to minister in the Priests office, 11 And the [e] anointing oyle, and swete perfume for the Sanctuarie, according to all that I haue commanded thee, shal they do.

12 ¶ Afterward the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

13 Speake thou also vnto the children of Israel, & say, [f] Notwithstanding kepe ye my Sabbaths: for it is a signe betwene me and you in your generations, that ye may knowe that I the Lord do sanctifie you.

14 *Ye shal therefore kepe the [g] Sabbath: for it is holy vnto you: he that defileth it, shal dye the death: therfore whosoeuer worketh therein, the same person shalbe euen cut of from among his people.

15 Six dayes shal men worke, but in the seuenth day is the Sabbath of the holy rest to the Lord: whosoeuer doeth any worke in the Sabbath day, shal dye the death.

16 Wherefore the children of Israel shal kepe the Sabbath, ỹ they may obserue ỹ [h] rest through out their generations for an euerlasting couenant.

17 It is a signe betwene me and the children of Israel for euer: *for in six dayes the Lord made the heauen and the earth, and in the seuenth day [h] he ceased, and rested.

18 Thus (when the Lord had made an end of communing with Moses vpon mount Sinai) *he gaue him two Tables [i] of the testimonie, euen tables of stone written with the finger of God.

4 The Israelites impute their deliuerance to the calf. 14 God is appaised by Moses prayer. 19 Moses breaketh the Tables. 27 He slayeth the idolaters. 23 Moses zeale for the people.

1 BVt when the people sawe, that Moses taried long or he came downe from the mountaine, the people gathered them selues together against Aaron, & said vnto him, Vp, [a] make vs gods to go before vs: for or this Moses (the ma that broght vs out of the land of Egypt) we knowe not what is become of him.

2 And Aaron said vnto them, [b] Plucke of the golden earings, which are in the eares of your wiues, of your sonnes, and of your daughters, and bring them vnto me.

3 Then all the people pluckte from the [c] selues the golden earings, which were in their eares, and they broght them vn to Aaron.

4 *Who receiued them at their hands, and facioned it with the grauing tole, & made of it a [d] molte calf: then they said, *These be thy gods, o Israel, ỹ broght thee out of the land of Egypt.

5 When Aaron sawe that, he made an altar before it: and Aaron proclaimed, saying, To morowe shalbe the holy day of the Lord.

6 So they rose vp the next day in the morning, and offred burnt offrings, & broght peace offrings: also *the people sate them downe to eat and drinke, and rose vp to playe.

7 Then the Lord said vnto Moses, *Go, get ỹ downe: for thy people w thou hast broght out of the land of Egypt, hathe corrupted their wayes.

8 Thei [e] are sone turned out of the way, which I commanded them: for thei haue made them a molten calf, & haue worshipped it, & haue offred thereto, e Whereby we se what necessitie we haue to pray earnestly to God, to kepe vs in his true obedience and to send vs good guides.

saing, * These be thy gods, ô Israel, ẅ haue broght thee out of the land of Egypt.

9 Againe the Lord said vnto Moses, * I haue sene this people, and beholde, it is a stifnecked people.

10 Nowe [f] therefore let me alone, ý my wrath may waxe hote against them, for I wil consume them: but I wil make of thee a mightie people.

11 *But Moses praied vnto the Lord his God, and said, O Lord, why doeth thy wrath waxe hote against thy people, ẅ thou hast broght out of the land of Egypt, with great power and with a mightie hand?

12 *Wherefore shal the Egyptians speake, and say, He hathe broght thē out maliciously for to slay them in the mountaines, and to consume them from ý earth? turne from thy fearce wrath, and change thy minde from this euil toward thy people.

13 Remembre [g] Abraham, Izhak, & Israel thy seruants, to whome thou swarest by thine owne selfe, and saidest vnto thē, *I wil multiplie your sede, as ý starres of the heauen, and all this land, that I haue spoken of, wil I giue vnto your sede, and thei shal inherit it for euer.

14 Then the Lord changed his minde from the euil, ẅ he threatened to do vnto his people.

15 So Moses returned and went downe from the mountaine ẅ the two Tables of the Testimonie in his hand the Tables were written on bothe their sides, euen on the one side & on the other were thei written.

16 And these Tables were the worke of God, and [h] this wirting was the writing of God grauen in the Tables.

17 And when Iosua heard the noise of ý people, as thei showted, he said vnto Moses, There is a noise of warre in the hoste.

18 Who answered, It is not the noise of thē that haue the victories, nor the noise of thē that are ouercome: but I do heare the noise of singing.

19 Nowe, assone as he came nere vnto the hoste, he sawe ý calf and the dancing: so Moses wrath waxed hote, and he cast ý Tables out of his hands, and brake thē in pieces beneth the mountaine.

20 *After, be toke the calf, which they had made, & burned it in the fire, and ground it vnto powder, and strowed it vpon the water, & made the children of Israel [i] drinke of it.

21 Also Moses said vnto Aarō, What did this people vnto thee, ý ý hast broght so great a sinne vpon them?

22 Then Aaron answered, Let not the wrath of my lord waxe fearce: thou knowest this people, that thei are euen set on mischief.

23 And thei said vnto me, Make vs gods to go before vs: for we knowe not what is become of this Moses (the man that broght vs out of the land of Egypt.)

24 Thē I said to them, Ye that haue golde, plucke it of: and thei broght it me, and I did cast it into the fire, and thereof came this calf.

25 Moses therefore sawe that the poople were [k] naked (for Aaron had made thē naked vnto their shame among their enemies)

26 And Moses stode in the gate of ý cāp, and said, Who perteineth to the Lord? let him come to me. And all ý sonnes of Leui gathered them selues vnto him.

27 Then he said vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Put euerie man his sworde by his side: go to and fro, from gate to gate, through the hoste, and [l] slay euerie man his brother, and euerie man his companion, & euerie mā his neighbour.

28 So the children of Leui did as Moses had commanded: and there fel of ý people the same day about thre thousand men.

29 (For Moses had said, Consecrat your hands vnto the Lord this day, euen euerie man vpon his [m] sonne, and vpon his brother, that there may be giuen you a blessing this day.)

30 And when the morning came, Moses said vnto the people, Ye haue committed a grieuous crime: but now I wil go vp to the Lord, if I may pacifie him for your sinne.

31 Moses therefore went againe vnto the Lord, and said, Oh, this people haue sinned a great sinne and haue made them gods of golde.

32 Therefore now if thou pardone their sinne, thy mercie shal appeare: but if thou wil not, I pray thee, rase me [n] out of thy boke, which thou hast written.

33 Then the Lord said to Moses, Whosoeuer hathe sinned against me, I wil put him out of my [o] boke.

34 Go now therefore, bring the people vnto the place ẅ I commanded thee: beholde, mine Angel shal go before thee, but yet in the day of my visitacion I wil [p] viset their sinne vpon them.

35 So the Lord plagued the people, because thei caused Aaron to make ý calf ẅ he made.

CHAP. XXXIII.

The Lord promiseth to send an Angel before his people. 4 Thei are sad because the Lord denieth to go vp with them. 9 Moses talketh familiarely with God. 13 He praieth for the people, 18 And desireth to se the glorie of the Lord.

[a] By the Sanctuarie he meaneth here all ſ Tabernacle.

2 For Moſes had called Bezaleel, & Aholiab, and all the wiſe hearted men, in whoſe hearts the Lord had giuen wiſdome, euen as manie as their heartes encouraged to come vnto that worke to worke it.

3 And they receiued of Moſes all the offring which the children of Iſrael had broght for the worke of the ſeruice of the Sanctuarie, to make it: alſo [b] they broght ſtil vnto him fre gifts euerie morning.

[b] Meaning the Iſraelites.

4 So all the wiſe men, that wroght all the holy worke, came euerie man from his worke which they wroght,

5 And ſpake to Moſes, ſaying, The people bring to [c] muche, and more then ynough for the vſe of the worke, which the Lord hathe commanded to be made.

[c] A rare example & notable to ſe the people ſo ready to ſerue God with their goods.

6 Then Moſes gaue a commandement, and they cauſed it to be proclaimed throughout the hoſte, ſaying, Let nether man nor woman prepare anie more worke for the oblacion of the Sanctuarie. So the people were ſtayed from offring.

7 For the ſtuffe they had was ſufficient for all the worke to make it, and to muche.

8 *All the conning men therefore amog the workemen, made for the Tabernacle ten curtaines of fine twined linen, & of blewe ſilke, and purple, and ſkarlet: [d] Cherubims of broydred worke made thei vpon them.

Chap. 26, 4

[d] Which were litle pictures with wingges in the forme of children.

9 The length of one curtaine was twenty and eight cubites, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites: and the curtaines were all of one ciſe.

10 And he coupled fiue curtaines together, & other fiue coupled he together.

11 And he made ſtrings of blewe ſilke by the edge of one curtaine, in the ſelueedge of the coupling: likewiſe he made on the ſide of the other curtaine in ſ ſelueedge in the ſeconde coupling.

12 *Fiftie ſtrings made he in the one curtaine, and fiftie ſtrings made he in the edge of the other curtaine, which was in the ſeconde coupling: the ſtrings were ſet one againſt an other.

Chap. 26, 10

13 After, he made fiftie [*] taches of golde, & coupled the curtaines one to an other with the taches: ſo was it one Tabernacle.

[*] Or, hokes.

14 ¶ Alſo he made curtaines of goates heere for the [*] couering vpon the Tabernacle: he made them to the nomber of eleuen curtaines.

[*] Or, pauillion.

15 The length of one curtaine had thirty cubites, and the breadth of one curtaine foure cubites: the eleuen curtaines were of one ciſe.

16 And he coupled fiue curtaines by them ſelues, and ſix curtaines by them ſelues:

17 Alſo he made fiftie ſtrings vpon the edge of one curtaine in the ſelueedge in the coupling, and fiftie ſtrings made he vpon the edge of the other curtaine in the ſeconde coupling.

18 He made alſo fiftie taches of braſſe to couple the couering that it might be one.

19 And he made a [e] couering vpon the pauillion of rams ſkins died red, and a couering of badgers ſkins aboue.

[e] Theſe two were aboue the couering of goates heere.

20 ¶ Likewiſe he made the boardes for the Tabernacle of Shittim [f] wood to ſtand vp.

[f] And to beare vp the curtaines of the Tabernacle.

21 The length of a boarde was ten cubites, and the breadth of one boarde was a cubite, and an halfe.

22 One boarde had two tenons, ſet in ordre as ſ fete of a ladder, one againſt an other: thus made he for all the boardes of the Tabernacle.

23 So he made twentie boardes for the Southſide of the Tabernacle, euen ful South.

24 And fourtie ſockets of ſiluer made he vnder the twentie boardes, two ſockets vnder one boarde for his two tenons, & two ſockets vnder another boarde for his two tenons.

25 Alſo for the other ſide of the Tabernacle towarde the North, he made twentie boardes, 26 And their fourtie ſockets of ſiluer, two ſockets vnder one boarde, & two ſockets vnder an other boarde.

27 Likewiſe towarde [g] the Weſtſide of the Tabernacle he made ſix boardes.

[g] Or towarde the ſea, w was the ſea called mediterraneum weſtward from Ieruſalem.

28 And two boardes made he in the corners af the Tabernacle, for ether ſides,

29 And

Chap. 26, 24 29 And they were * ioyned beneth, and likewise were made sure aboue with a ring: thus he did to bothe in bothe corners.

30 So there were eight boardes & their sixtene sockets of siluer, vnder euerie boarde two sockets.

Chap 25, 27, & 30, 4 31 ¶ After, he made * barres of Shittim wood, fiue for the boardes in the one side of the Tabernacle, 32 And fiue barres for the boardes in the other side of the Tabernacle, and fiue barres for the boardes of the Tabernacle on the side towarde the West.

33 And he made ſ middest barre to shote through the boardes, from the one end to the other.

34 He ouerlaied also the boardes with golde, and made their rings of golde for places for the barres, and couered the barres with golde.

h Which was betwene the Sanctuarie and the Holiest of all.

35 ¶ Moreouer he made a [h] vaile of blewe silke, and purple, and of skarlet, and of fine twined linen: with Cherubims of broydred worke made he it:

[b] Or, heades.

36 And made thereunto foure pillers of Shittim, & ouerlaied them with golde: whose [b] hokes were also of golde, and he cast for them foure sockets of siluer.

i Which was betwene the court and the Sanctuarie.

37 And he made an [i] hanging for the Tabernacle dore, of blewe silke, and purple, & skarlet, & fine twined linen, and nedle worke,

[b] Or, grauen borders.

38 And the fiue pillers of it with their hokes, and ouerlaied their chapiters & their [b] filets with golde, but their fiue sockets were of brasse.

1 The Arke. 6 The Merciseat. 10 The Table. 17 The Candelsticke. 25 The Altar of incense.

Chap. 25, 10 1 AFter this Bezaleel made the * Arke of Shittim wood, two cubites & an halfe long, & a cubite and an halfe broade, and a cubite and an halfe hie:

a Like battelments.

2 And ouerlaied it ẅ fine golde within and without, and made a [a] crowne of golde to it round about,

3 And cast for it foure rings of golde for the foure corners of it: that is, two rings for the one side of it, and two rings for the other side thereof.

4 Also he made barres of Shittim wood, and couered them with golde, 5 And put the barres in the rings by the sides of the Arke, to beare the Arke.

Chap. 25, 17 6 ¶ And he made the * Merciseat of pure golde: two cubites and an halfe was the length thereof, and one cubite and an halfe the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two Cherubims of golde, vpon the two ends of the Merciseat: euen of worke beaten with the hammer made he them.

8 One Cherub on the one end, and an other Cherub on the other end: [b] of ſ Merciseat made he the Cherubims, at the two ends thereof.

b Of the self same matter: ſ the Merciseat was.

9 And the Cherubims spred out their wings on hie, and couered the Merciseat ẅ their wings, and their faces were one towardes an other: toward ſ Merciseat were the faces of the Cherubims.

10 ¶ Also he made the Table of Shittim wood: two cubites was the length thereof, and a cubite the breadth thereof, and a cubite and an halfe the height of it.

11 And he ouerlaied it with fine golde and made thereto a crowne of golde round about.

12 Also he made thereto a border of an [a] hand breadth round about, and made vpon ſ border a crowne of golde round about.

a Or, foure fingers.

13 And he cast for it foure rings of golde, and put the rings in the foure corners that were in the foure fete thereof.

14 Against the border were the rings, as places for the barres to beare ſ Table.

15 And he made the barres of Shittim wood, and couered them with golde to beare the Table.

Chap. 25, 29 16 * Also he made the instruments for the Table of pure golde: dishes for it, & incens cups for it, and goblets for it, and couerings for it, wherewith it shulde be couered.

17 ¶ Likewise he made the Candelsticke of pure golde: of worke beaten out with the hammer made he the Candelsticke: and his shaft, & his branches, his bolles, his knops, and his floures were of one piece.

18 And six branches came out of the sides thereof: thre branches of the Candelsticke out of the one side of it, and thre branches of the Candelsticke out of the other side of it.

19 In one branche thre bolles made like almondes, a knop and a floure: and in an other branche thre bolles made like almondes, a knop & a floure: and so throughout the six branches that proceded out of the Candelsticke.

20 And vpon ſ Candelsticke were foure bolles after the fiction of almondes, the knops thereof and the floures thereof:

21 That is, vnder euerie two branches a knop made thereof, and a knop vnder the seconde branche thereof, and a knop vnder the third branche thereof, according to the six branches comming out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: it was all one * beaten worke of pure golde. Chap. 25, 31

23 And he made for it seuē lampes with ſ snuffers, & snufdishes thereof of pure gold.

24 Of a [c] talent of pure golde made he it with all the instruments thereof.

25 Furthermore he made the * perfume altar of Shittim wood: the length of it was a cubite, and ỹ breadth of it a cubite (it was square) and two cubites hie, and the hornes thereof was of the same.

26 And he couered it with pure golde, bothe the top and the sides thereof round about, and the hornes of it, and made vnto it a crowne of golde round about.

27 And he made two rings of golde for it, vnder the crowne thereof in the two corners of the two sides thereof, to put barres in for to beare it there with.

28 Also he made the barres of Shittim wood, and ouerlaied them with golde.

29 And he made the holy * anointing oyle, & the swete pure incense after the apotecaries arte.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 The Altar of burnt offrings. 8 The brasen Lauer. 9 The Courte. 24 The summe of that the people offred.

1 ALso he made the altar of the burnt offring * of Shittim wood: fiue cubites was the length thereof, and fiue cubites ỹ breadth thereof: it was square and thre cubites hie.

2 And he made vnto it hornes in the foure corners thereof: the hornes thereof were of the same, & he ouerlaied it with brasse.

3 Also he made all the instruments of the Altar: the * ashpans, & the besomes, and the basins, the fleshokes, & the [n] cēsers: all the instruments thereof made he of brasse.

4 Moreouer he made a brasē grate wroght like a net to the Altar, vnder the compas of it beneth in the [a] middes of it,

5 And cast foure rings of brasse for the foure ends of the grate to put barres in.

6 And he made the barres of Shittim wood, and couered them with brasse.

7 The which barres he put into ỹ rings on the sides of the altar to beare it withall, and made it holowe within the boardes.

8 ¶ Also he made the Lauer of brasse, and the fote of it of brasse of the [b] glasses of the women that did assemble and came together at ỹ dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

9 ¶ Finally he made the courte on the Southside ful Southe: the hangings of the courte were of fine twined linen, hauing an hundreth cubites.

10 Their pillers were twētie, & their brasen sockets twentie: the hokes of the pillers, and their filets were of siluer.

11 And on the Northside the hangings were an hundreth cubites: their pillers twentie, & their sockets of brasse twentie, the hokes of the pillers & their filets of siluer.

12 On the Westside also were hangings of fiftie cubites, their ten pillers with their ten sockets: the hokes of the pillers and their filets of siluer.

13 And toward the Eastside, ful East, were hangings of fiftie cubites.

14 The hangings of the one side were fiftene cubites, their thre pillers, and their thre sockets:

15 * And of the other side of the courte gate on bothe sides were hangings of fiftene cubites, with their thre pillers and their thre sockets.

16 All the hangings of the courte round about were of fine twined linen:

17 But the sockets of the pillers were of brasse: the hokes of the pillers and their filets of siluer, and the couering of their chapiters of siluer: and all the pillers of the courte were hooped about with siluer.

18 He made also the hanging of the gate of the courte of nedle worke, blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linē euen twentie cubites long, and fiue cubites in height & breadth, [o] like the hangings of the courte.

19 And their pillers were foure with their foure sockets of brasse their hokes of siluer, and the couering of their chapiters, and their filets of siluer.

20 But all the * pins of the Tabernacle and of the courte round about were of brasse, 21 ¶ These are the partes of the Tabernacle, I meane, of the Tabernacle of ỹ Testimonie, which was appointed by the commandement of Moses for the office of the [c] Leuites by the hand of Ithamar sonne to Aaron the Priest.

22 So Bezaleel the sonne of Vri the sonne of Hur of the tribe of Iudah, made all that the Lord commanded Moses.

23 And with him Aholiab sonne of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, a [d] cunning workeman and an embroyderer and a worker of nedle worke in blewe silke, and in purple, and in skarlet, and in fine linen.

24 All the golde that was occupied in all the worke wroght for the holy place (which was the golde of the offring) was nine & twentie talents, and seuen hundreth and thirtie shekels, according to the shekel of the Sanctuarie.

25 But the siluer of them that were nombred in the Congregacion, was an hundreth talents, & a thousand seuen hundreth seuentie and fiue shekels, after ỹ shekel of the Sanctuarie.

27 Moreouer there were an hundreth talents of siluer, to cast the sockets of the Sanctuarie, and the sockets of the vaile: an hundreth sockets of an hundreth talents, a talent for a socket.

28 But he made the hokes for the pillers of a thousand seuen hundreth and seuentie & fiue shekels, & ouerlaied their chapiters, & made filets about them.

e Read the weight of a talent, Chap. 25, 39

29 Also the brasse of the offring was seuentie [e] talents, and two thousand, and foure hundreth shekels.

CHAP. XXXIX.

The apparel of Aaron & his sonnes. 32 All that the Lord commanded, was made, and finished. 43 Moses blesseth the people.

a As couerings for the Arke, the Caudelsticke, the Altars & suche like. Chap. 31. 10 & 35, 19

1 MOreouer they made [a] garments of ministration to ministre in the Sanctuarie of blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet: thei * made also the holy garments for Aaron, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

2 So he made the Ephod of golde, blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beate the golde into thin plates, & cut it into wiers, to worke it in the blewe silke & in the purple, and in the skarlet, & in the fine linen, with broydred worke.

4 For the which thei made shulders to couple together: for it was closed by the two edges thereof.

5 And the broydred garde of his Ephod that was vpon him, was of ỹ same stuffe, and of like worke: euen of golde, of blewe silke, and purple, and skarlet, & fine twined linen, as the Lord had cõmanded Moses.

Chap 28. 9

6 ¶ And they wroght * two onix stones closed in ouches of golde, and graued, as [b] signets are grauen, with the names of the children of Israel.

b That is, of very fine and curious workmanship.

7 And put them on the shulders of the Ephod as stones for a * remembrace of the children of Israel, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Chap. 28, 12

8 ¶ Also he made ỹ brest plate of broydred worke like ỹ worke of ỹ Ephod: to wit, of golde, blewe silke, & purple, and skarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 They made ỹ brest plate double, & it was square, an hand breadth long, & an hand breadth broad: it was also double.

10 And they filled it with foure rowes of stones. The ordre was thus, a ruby, a topaze, and a carbuncle in ỹ first rowe.

11 And in the seconde rowe, an emerawde, a saphir, and a diamond:

12 Also in the third rowe, [c] a turkeis, an achate, and an hematite:

c Or a ligure, which stone auters write that it commeth of the vrine of ỹ beast called linx.

13 Likewise in the fourthe rowe, a chrysolyte, an onix, and a iasper: closed & set in ouches of golde.

14 So the stones were according to the names: of ỹ childrẽ of Israel, euen twelue [d] after their names, grauen like signets euerie one after his name according to the twelue tribes.

d That is, euerie tribe had his name written in a stone.

15 After, they made vpon the brest plate cheines at the endes, of wrethen worke & pure golde.

16 They made also two bosses of golde, & two golde rings, & put the two rings in the two corners of the brest plate.

17 And they put the two wrethen cheines of golde in the two rings, in ỹ corners of the brest plate.

18 Also the two other endes of the two wrethen cheines, thei fastened in ỹ two bosses, & put them on the shulders of ỹ Ephod vpon the fore fronte of it.

19 Likewise they made two rings of golde, & put them in the two other corners of the brest plate vpon the edge of it, ỹ was on the inside of the Ephod.

20 They made also two other golden rings, & put them on the two sides of ỹ Ephod, beneth on the foreside of it and ouer against his coupling aboue the broydred garde of the Ephod.

21 Then they fastened the brest plate by his rings vnto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blewe silke, that it might be fast vpon the broydred garde of the Ephod and that the brest plate shulde not be losed from the Ephod, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 ¶ Moreouer he made the robe of ỹ Ephod of wouen worke, altogether of blewe silke.

e Which was next vnder the Ephod.

23 And [f] the hole of the robe was in ỹ middes of it, as the coller of an habergeon, with an edge about the coller, that it shulde not rent.

f Where he shulde put through his head.

24 And they made vpon the skirtes of the robe pomegranates of blewe silke, & purple, and skarlet, and fine linen twined.

25 They made also * belles of pure golde, & put ỹ belles betwene ỹ pomegranates vpon ỹ skirtes of the robe rounde about betwene the pomegranates.

Chap. 28, 33

26 A bel & a pomegranate, a bel and a pomegranate round about the skirtes of the robe to minister in, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

27 ¶ After, they made coates of fine linen, of wouen worke for Aaron & for his sonnes.

28 And the mitre of fine linen, and goodlie bonnets of fine linen, and linen *breches of fine twined linen,

Exo. 28, 42

29 ¶ And the girdel of fine twined linen, & of blewe silke, & purple, & skarlet, euen of nedle worke, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 ¶ Finally thei made the plate for the holy crowne of fine golde, and wrote vpon it a superscription like to the graiuing of a signet, * HOLINES TO THE LORD.

Chap. 28, 36

31 And thei tied vnto it a lace of blewe silke to fasten it on hye vpon the mitre, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

32 ¶ Thus was all the worke of the Tabernacle, euen of the * Tabernacle of the Congregacion finished: & the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord had commanded Moses: so did thei.

Chap. 27, 21

33 ¶ Afterwarde thei broght the Tabernacle vnto Moses, the Tabernacle and all his instruments, his taches, his boardes, his barres, and his pillers, and his sockets, 34 And the couering of rammes skins died red, & the couerings of Badgers skinnes, & the [g] couering vaile.

[h] Or, which Aaron dressed and refreshed with oyle euerie morning, chap. 30, 7

38 Also the golden Altar & the anointing oyle, and the swete incens, and the hanging of the Tabernacle dore.

39 The brasen Altar with his grate of brasse, his barres & all his instruments, the Lauer and his sote.

40 The curtaines of the court with his pillers, and his sockets, & the hanging to the courte gate, and his cordes & his pinnes, and all the instruments of ȳ seruice of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, 41 Finally, the ministring garments to serue in the Sanctuarie & the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, & his sonnes garments to minister in ȳ Priests office.

[i] Signifiyng ȳ in Gods matters mā may neither adde nor diminish.

42 According to euerie point that the Lord had [i] commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the worke.

[k] praised God for the peoples diligence and prated for the.

43 And Moses beheld all the worke, & beholde, thei had done it as the Lord had commanded: so had thei done: & Moses [k] blessed them.

CHAP. XL.

1 The Tabernacle with the appertinances is reared vp. 34 The glorie of the Lord appeareth in the cloude couering the Tabernacle.

1 THen the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 In the [a] first day of the first moneth in the very first of the same moneth shalt thou set vp the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregacion:

[a] After that Moses had bene 40. daies and 40 nights in the mount, that is, from the beginning of August to the 10. of Sept. he came downe, & caused this worke to be done: ẅ being finished, was set vp in Abib, ẅ moneth conteineth halfe Marche and halfe April. Read chap. 26, 35

3 And thou shalt put therein the Arke of the Testimonie, and couer ȳ Arke with the vaile.

4 Also thou shalt bring in the * Table, and set it in ordre as it doeth require: thou shalt also bring in the Candelstike, and light his lampes,

5 And thou shalt set the incense Altar [b] of golde before the Arke of the Testimonie, and put the [c] hanging at the dore of the Tabernacle.

[b] That is, the altar of perfume, or to burne incense on.

[c] This hanging or vaile was betwene the Sanctuarie and the court.

6 Moreouer thou shalt set the burnt offring Altar before the dore of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

7 And thou shalt set the Lauer betwene the Tabernacle of the Congregacion & the Altar, and put water therein.

8 Then ȳ shalt appoint the courte round about, and hang vp the hanging at the courte gate.

9 After, ȳ shalt take the anointing oyle, and anoint the Tabernacle, and all that is therein, and halowe it with all the instruments thereof, that it may be holye.

10 And thou shalt anoint the Altar of the burnt offring, and all his instruments, and shalt sanctifie the Altar, that it may be an altar moste holy.

11 Also thou shalt anoint the Lauer and his sote, and shalt sanctifie it.

12 Then thou shalt bring Aaron and his sonnes vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put vpon Aaron the holy garments, and shalt anoint him, & sanctifie him that he may minister vnto me in the Priests office.

14 Thou shalt also bring his sonnes, and clothe them with garments, 15 And shalt anoint them as thou diddest anoint their father, that thei may minister vnto me in ȳ Priests office: for their anointing shal be a signe, that the priesthode [d] shalbe euerlasting vnto them throughout their generacions.

[d] Til both the ȳ priesthode and the ceremonies shulde ende, ẅ was at Christs comming. Nomb. 7. 1

16 So Moses did according to all that the Lord had commanded him: so did he.

17 [e] * Thus was the Tabernacle reared vp the first day of the first moneth in [e] the seconde yere.

[e] After thi came out of Egypt, Nomb. 7, 1

18 Then Moses reared vp the Tabernacle

nacle and fastened his sockets, and set vp the boardes thereof, and put in the barres of it, and reared vp his pillers.

19 And he spred the couering ouer the Tabernacle, and put the couering of that couering on hie aboue it, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he toke and put the [f] Testimonie in the Arke, and put the barres in the rings of the Arke, and set the Mercie seat on hie vpon the Arke.

21 He brought also the Arke into the Tabernacle, and hanged vp the *couering vaile, and couered the Arke of the Testimonie, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 ¶ Furthermore he put the Table in ſ Tabernacle of the Congregacion in the Northside of the Tabernacle, without the vaile, 23 And set the bread in ordre before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

24 ¶ Also he put the Candelstike in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion ouer against ſ Table towarde the Southside of the Tabernacle.

25 And he [g] lighted the lampes before the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

26 ¶ Moreouer he set the golden Altar in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion before the vaile, 27 And burnt swete incense thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

28 ¶ Also he hanged vp the vaile at the [g] dore of the Tabernacle.

29 After, he set the burnt offring Altar without the dore of the Tabernacle, called the Tabernacle of the Cōgregacion, & offred the burnt offring and the sacrifice thereon, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 ¶ Likewise he set the Lauer betwene the Tabernacle of the Congregacion & the Altar, and powred water therein to wash with.

31 So Moses, and Aaron, and his sonnes, washed their hands & their fete thereat.

32 When thei went into the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and when thei approched to the Altar, thei washed, as ſ Lord had commanded Moses.

33 Finally he reared vp the courte round about the Tabernacle and the Altar, and hanged vp the vaile at the courte gate: so Moses finished the worke.

34 ¶ *Then the cloude couered the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and the glorie of the Lord filled the Taberna-cle.

35 So Moses colde not entre into the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, because the clode aboude thereon and the glorie of the Lord filled the Taberna-cle.

36 Now when the cloude ascended vp from the Tabernacle, the children of Israel went forwarde in all their iourneis.

37 But if the cloude ascended not, then thei iourneied not til the day that it ascended.

38 For [h] the cloude of the Lord was vpon the Tabernacle by day, and fire was in it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their iorneies.

THE ARGVMENT.

AS God daily by moste singular benefities declared him selfe to be mindeful of his churche so he wolde not that thei shulde haue anie occasion to trust ether in them selues, or to depēd vpon others for lacke of temporal things, or ought that belonged to his diuine seruice and religion. Therefore he ordeined diuers kindes of oblations and sacrifices, to assure them of forgiuenes of their offenses. (if thei offred them in true faith and obedience) Also he appointed their Priests and Leuites, their apparel, offices, conuersation and portion: he shewed what feastes thei shulde obserue, and in what times. Moreouer he declared by these sacrifices & ceremonies that the reward of sinne is death, and that without the blood of Christ the innocent Lambe there can be no forgiuenes of sinnes. And because thei shulde giue no place to their owne inuentions (which thing God moste detesteth as appeareth by the terrible example of Nadab and Abihu) he prescribed euen to the least things, what thei shulde do, as what beastes thei shulde offre and eat: what diseases were contagious and to be auoyded: what ordre thei shulde take for all maner of filthines and pollution: whose companie thei shulde flee: what mariages were lawful: and what politicke lawes were profitable. Which things declared, he promised fauour and blessing to them that kepe his Lawes, and threatened his curse to them that transgressed them.

a Because in this boke is chiefly intreated of the Leuites, and of things perteining to their office.

CHAP. I.

2 Of burnt offrings for particular persons. 3. to. & 14 The maner to offre burnt offrings as wel of bullocks, as of sheepe and birdes.

a Here by Moses declareth ý he taught nothing to ý people but that ẅ he receiued of God.

1 NOW the [a] Lord called Moses, and spake vnto him out of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & thou shalt say vnto them, If anie of you offer a sacrifice vnto the Lord, ye shal offer your sacrifice of [b] cattel, as of beues and of the shepe.

b So thei colde offre of none other sort, but of those which were commanded. Exod. 29. 10

3 *If his sacrifice be a burnt offring of ý herde, he shal offer a male without blemish, presenting him of his owne voluntary wil at ý dore of ý [c] Tabernacle of the Congregacion before the Lord.

c Meaning ẅ in the court of the Tabernacle.

4 And he shal put his hand vpon ý head of the burnt offring & it shalbe accepted [''] to the Lord to be his atonement.

'' Ebr. to him.

5 And [d] he shal kil the bullocke before the Lord, and the priestes Aarons sonnes shal offer the blood, and shal sprinkle it round about vpon the [e] altar, that is by the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

d The priest or Leuite.

e Of the burnt offring, Exod. 27. 1

6 Then shal he fley the burnt offring & cut it in pieces.

7 So the sonnes of Aaron the Priest shal put fire vpon the altar & lay the wood in ordre vpon the fire.

8 Then the Priestes Aarons sonnes shal lay the partes in ordre, the head and ý [g] kall vpon the wood that is in the fire ẅ is vpon the altar.

g Or, the body of the beast or the fatt.

9 But the inwardes thereof & the legs thereof he shal wash in water, and the Priest shal burne all on the altar: for it is a burnt offring, an oblation made by fire, for a swete sauour [f] vnto the Lord.

f Or a sauour of rest, which pacifieth the angre of the Lord.

10 ¶ And if his sacrifice for the burnt offring be of the flockes (as of the shepe, or of the goates) he shal offer a male without blemish, g Read vers. 5.

11 [g] And he shal kil it on the Northside of the altar [h] before the Lord, & the Priestes Aarons sonnes shal sprinkle the blood thereof round about vpon the Altar.

h Before the alter of the Lord.

12 And he shal cut it in [''] pieces, separating his head and his [''] kall, & the Priest shal lay them in ordre vpon ý wood ý lieth in the fire which is on the altar.

'' Ebr. into his pieces.

'' Or, fat.

13 But he shal wash the inwardes, and the legs with water, and the Priest shal offer the whole & burne it vpon the altar: for it is a burnt offring, an oblation made by fire for a swete sauoure vnto the Lord.

14 ¶ And if his sacrifice be a burnt offring to the Lord of the foules, then he shal offer his sacrifice of the turtle doues, or of the yong pigeons.

15 And the Priest shal bring it vnto the altar, and [i] wring the necke of it a sunder, and burne it on the altar: and the blood thereof shalbe [''] shed vpon the side of the altar.

i The Ebrewe worde signifieth to pinch of ẅ the nayle.

'' Or, strained or pressed.

16 And he shal plucke out his mawe with his fethers, and cast them beside the altar on the [k] East parte in the place of the ashes.

k On the side of the courte gate in the pannes, which stode with ashes. Exod. 27. 3.

17 And he shal cleaue it with his wings, but not deuide it a sundre: & the Priest shal burne it vpon the altar vpon the wood that is in the fire for it is a burnt offring, an oblation made by fire for a swete sauour vnto the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 The meat offring is after three sortes: of fine floure vnbaken, 4 Of bread baken, 14 And of corne in the eare.

1 AND when anie wil offer a [a] meat offring vnto the Lord, his offring shalbe of fine floure, and he shal poure oyle vpon it, and put incense thereon, a Because the burnt offring colde not be without the meat offring.

2 And shal bring it vnto Aarons sonnes the Priests, and [b] he shal take thence his handful of the floure, and of the oyle with all the incense, and the Priest shal burne it for a [c] memorial vpon the altar: for it is an offring made by fire for a swete sauour vnto the Lord.

b The priest.

c To signifie that God remembreth him that offreth. Ecc. 7. 34

3 *But the remnant of the meat offring shal be Aarons and his sonnes: for it is [d] moste holy of the Lords offrings made by fire.

d Therefore none colde eat of it but the priests.

4 ¶ If thou bring also a meat offring baken in the ouen, it shalbe an vnleauened cake of fine floure mingled with oyle, or an vnleauened wafer anointed with oyle.

5 ¶ But if thy [e] meat offring be an oblation of the friyng pan, it shalbe of fine floure vnleauened, mingled with oyle.

e Which is a gift offred to God to pacifie him.

6 And thou shalt parte it in pieces, and powre oyle thereon: for it is a meat offring.

7 ¶ And if thy meat offring be an oblation made in the caudron, it shalbe made of fine floure with oyle.

8 After, thou shalt bring the meat offring (ý is made of these things) vnto ý Lord, & shalt present it vnto the Priest, and he shal bring it to the altar,

9 And the Priest shal take from ý meat offring a *memorial of it, and shal burne it vpon the altar: for it is an oblation *made by fire for a swete sauour vnto the Lord.

Exod. 29. 18

10 But that which is left of the meat offring shalbe Aarons & his sonnes: for it is moste moste holy of the offrings of the Lord made by fire.

11 All the meat offrings which ye shal offer vnto the Lord, shalbe made without leauen: for ye shal nether burne leauen nor hony in any offring of the Lord made by fire.

12 ¶ In the oblation of the first frutes ye shal offer [f] them vnto the Lord, but they shal not be burnt [g] vpon the altar for a swete sauour.

13 (All the meat offrings also shalt thou season with* salt, nether shalt thou suffre the salt of the [h] couenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offring: but vpon all thine oblations thou shalt offer salt)

14 If then thou offer a meat offring of thy first frutes vnto the Lord, thou shalt offer for thy meat offring of thy first frutes* eares of corne dried by the fire, and wheat beaten out of [#] the grene eares.

15 After thou shalt put oile vpon it, and laie incense thereon: for it is a meat offring.

16 And the Priest shal burne the memorial of it, euen of that that is beaten and of the oyle of it with all the incense thereof: for it is an offring vnto the Lord made by fire.

CHAP. III.

1 The maner of peace offrings, and beasts for the same. 17 The Israelites may nether eat fat, nor blood.

1 ALso if his oblation be a [a] peace offring, if he wil offer of the droue (whether it be male or female) he shal offer suche as is without bleemish, before the Lord.

2 And shal put his hand vpon the head of his offring, and kil it at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion: & Aarons sonnes the Priests shal sprincle the blood vpon the altar roud about.

3 So he shal offer [b] parte of the peace offrings as a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, euen the* fat ſ couereth ſ inwardes, and all ſ fat ſ is vpō ſ inwardes.

4 He shal also take away the two kidneis, and the fat that is on them, and vpon the flanks, and the kall on the liuer with the kidneis.

5 And Aarons sonnes shal burne it on the altar with ſ burnt offring, which is vpō the wood, that is on the fire: this is a sacrifice made by fire for a swete sauour vnto the Lord.

6 ¶ Also if his oblation be a peace offring vnto the Lord out of the flocke, whether it be [c] male or female, he shal offer it without blemish.

7 If he offer a lambe for his oblation, then he shal bring it before the Lord,

8 And lay his hand vpon the head of his offring, and shal kil it before the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and Aarons sonnes shal sprinkle the blood thereof round about vpon the altar.

9 After, of the peace offrings he shal offer [d] an offring made by fire vnto the Lord: he shal take away the fat thereof, & the rumpe altogether, hard by ſ backe bone, & the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes.

10 Also he shal take away ſ two kidneis, with the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the* flanks, & the kall vpon the liuer ẅ the kidneis.

11 Then the Priest shal burne it vpon the alter, as the meat of an offring made by fire vnto the Lord.

12 ¶ Also if his offring be a goat, then shal he offer it before the Lord, 13 And shal put his hand vpon the head of it, and kil it before [e] the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & the sonnes of Aaron shal sprinkle the blood thereof vpon the altar round about.

14 The he shal offer thereof his offring, euen an offring made by fire vnto ſ Lord ſ fat ſ couereth ſ inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes.

15 Also he shal take away the two kidneis, & the fat that is vpon them, and vpon ſ flanks & the kall vpon the liuer ẅ the kidneis.

16 So the Priest shal burne them vpon ſ altar, as the meat of an offring made by fire for a swete sauour: * all the fat is the Lords.

17 This shalbe a perpetual ordinance for your generacions, through out all your dwellings, so that ye shal eat nether [f] fat nor* blood.

7 The Priest also shal put some of the blood before the Lord, vpon the hornes of the altar of swete incens, which is in the [e]Tabernacle of the Cõgregaciõ, then shal he powre* all the rest of ỹ blood of the bulloke at the fote of the altar of burnt offring, ẅ is at ỹ dore of ỹ Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

17 And the Priest shal dip his finger in ỹ blood, and sprinkle it seuen times before the Lord, euẽn before the vaile.

18 Also he shal put some of the blood vpõ the hornes of the altar, which is before the Lord, that is in the Tabernacle of ỹ Congregacion: then shal he powre all ỹ rest of the blood at the fote of the altar of burnt offring, which is at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, 19 And he shal take all his fat from him, & [c]burne it vpon the altar.

20 And the Priest shal do with this bulloc ke, as he did with ỹ bullocke for his sinne: so shal he do ẅ this: so the Priest shal make an atonement for them, and it shal be forgiuen them.

21 For he shal carie the bullocke without ỹ hoste, and burne him as he burned the first bullocke: for it is an offring for the sinne of the Congregacion.

22 When a ruler shal sinne, & do through ignorance against anie of the commandements of the Lord his God, which shulde not be done and shal offende,

1 LIkwise this is the lawe of the [a] treſpaſſe offring, it is moſte holy.

4 After he shal take away the two kidneis, with the fat that is on them & vpon ỽ flanks, and the kall on the liuer ẅ the kidneis.

5 Then the Prieſt shal burne them vpon the altar, for an offring made by fire vnto the Lord: this is a treſpaſſe offring.

6 All the males among the Prieſts shal eat thereof, it shalbe eaten in the holy place, for it is moſte holy.

7 As ỽ ſinne offring, is, ſo is the treſpaſſe offring, one [d] lawe ſerueth for both, [e] ỽ where with the Prieſt shal make atonement, shalbe his.

12 If he offer it to [g] giue thankes, then he shal offer for his thankes offring, vnleauened cakes mingled with oyle, and vnleauened wafers anointed with oyle, and fine floure fried with ỽ cakes mingled with oyle.

13 He shal offre alſo his offring with cakes of leauened bread, for his peace offrings to giue thankes.

14 And of all the ſacrifice he shal offre one cake for an heaue offring vnto the Lord, & it shalbe the Prieſts that ſprinkleth the blood of the peace offrings.

15 Alſo the fleſh of his peace offrings, for thankes giuing, shalbe eaten the ſame day ỽ it is offred: he shal leaue nothing thereof vntil the morning.

22,23 ¶ Againe ỽ Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying, Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, and ſay, *Ye shal eat no fat of beues, nor of ſhepe, nor of goates:

24 Yet the fat of the dead beaſt, and ỽ fat of that, which is torne with beaſtes, shalbe occupied to anie vſe, but ye shal not eat of it.

28 ¶ And the Lord talked with Moſes, ſaying,

29 Speake vnto ỽ children of Iſrael, and ſay, He that offreth his peace offrings vnto the Lord, shal bring his gift vnto ỽ Lord of his peace offrings:

30 His [m] hands shal bring the offrings of the Lord made by fire: euen the fat with the breaſt shal he bring, that the breaſt may be* ſhaken to and fro before the Lord.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The anointing of Aaron, and his sonnes, with the sacrifice concerning the same.

1 AFterwarde the Lord spake vnto Moses saying,

Exod 28, 4 Exod. 31, 24

2 * Take Aaron and his sonnes w̄ him, & the garments and the *anointing oyle, and a bullocke for the sin offring, and two rams, and a basket of vnleauened bread,

3 And assemble all the companie at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

4 So Moses did as the Lord had commanded him, and the companie was assembled at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

Exod. 29, 4

5 Then Moses said vnto the companie,* This is the thing w̄ ỹ Lord hathe commanded to do.

6 And Moses broght Aaron and his sonnes, and washed them w̄ water, 7 And put vpon him the coat, & girded him w̄ a girdel, and clothed him with ỹ robe, and put the Ephod on him, which he girded with the broydred garde of the Ephod, & bonde it vnto him there with.

8 After he put the brest plate thereon, and put in the brest plate* ỹ Vrim and the Thummim.

Exod. 28, 30

9 Also he put the mitre vpon his head, and put vpon the mitre on the fore frōte ỹ golden plate, and the a holy crowne as ỹ Lord had commanded Moses.

a So called because this superscription, Holines to the Lord, was grauen in it.

10 (Now Moses had taken the anointing oyle, & anointed the b Tabernacle, and all that was therein, and sanctified them, b That is, ỹ Holiest of all, the Sanctuarie and the coure.

11 And sprinkled thereof vpon the altar seuen times, & anointed the altar and al his instruments, and the lauer, and his fote, to sanctifie them)

12 * And he powred of the anointing oyle vpon Aarons head, and anointed him to sanctifie him.

Eccle. 45, 18 Psal. 133, 2

13 After, Moses broght Aarōs sonnes, and put coates vpon them, and girded them with girdels, and put bonets vpon their heades, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Exod. 29, 1

14 * Then he broght the bullocke for ỹ sin offring, & Aaron & his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of ỹ bullocke for the sinne offring.

15 And Moses slewe him, & toke the blood, which he put vpon the hornes of ỹ c Altar round about with his finger, and purified the Altar, and powred the rest, of the blood at the fote of the Altar: so he sanctified d it, to make reconciliation vpon it.

c Of the burnt offring.

d To offre for the sinnes of ỹ people.

16 Then he toke all the fat that was vpon the inwardes, and the kall of the liuer and the two kidneis, w̄ their fat, w̄ Moses burned vpon the Altar.

17 But the bullocke and his e hide, and his flesh, and his doung, he burnt w̄ fire without the hoste as ỹ Lord had commanded Moses.

e In other burnt offrings, which are not of consecracio, or offring for him selfe, the Priest hathe the skinne, Cha. 7, 8

18 ¶ Also he broght the ram for ỹ burnt offring, and Aaro & his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the ram.

19 So Moses killed, it and sprinkled the blood vpon the Altar round about,

20 And Moses cut the ram in pieces, & burnt ỹ head w̄ the pieces, and the fat,

21 And washed the inwardes and the legs in water: so Moses burnt the ram euerie whit vpon ỹ Altar: for it was a burnt offring for a swete sauour, w̄ was made by fire vnto ỹ Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

22 ¶* After, he broght the other ram, ỹ ram of consecracions, and Aaron & his sonnes laied their hands vpon the head of the ram,

Exod. 29, 31

23 Which Moses f slewe, and toke of the blood of it, and put it vpon the lap of Aarons right eare, and vpon the thōbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right fote.

f Moses did this because that ỹ Priests were not yet established in their office, 24 Then Moses broght Aarons sonnes, & put of the blood on ỹ lap of their right eares, & vpō the thumbes of their right hands, & vpon the great toes of their right fete, and Moses sprinkled the rest of the blood vpon the Altar round about.

25 And he toke the fat and the rumpe, and all the fat that was vpon the inwardes, & the kall of the liuer, and the two kidneis with their fat, and the right shulder.

26 Also he toke of the basket of ỹ vnleauened bread that was before the Lord, one vnleauened cake and a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and vpon the right shulder.

27 So he

27 So he put *all in Aarons hands, and in his sonnes hands, and shoke it to and fro before the Lord.

28 After, Moses toke them out of their hands, and burnt them vpon the Altar for a burnt offring: for these were consecracions for a swete sauour ẅ were made by fire vnto the Lord.

29 Likewise Moses toke the breast of ẏ ram of consecracions and shoke it to & fro before the Lord: for it was Moses* portion, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

30 Also Moses toke of the anointing oyle, and of the blood ẅ was vpon the Altar, and sprinkled it vpon Aaron, vpon his garments, and vpon his sonnes, and on his sonnes garments with him: so he sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sonnes, and his sonnes garments with him.

31 ¶ Afterward Moses said vnto Aaron & his sonnes, Sethe the flesh at the dore of the [g] Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and there * eat it with the bread ẏ is in the basket of consecracions, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sonnes shal eat it, 32 But that ẅ remaineth of the flesh & of the bread, shal ye burne ẅ fire.

33 And ye shal not departe from the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion seuen daies, vntil ẏ daies of your consecracions be at an end: * for seuen daies said the Lord, shal he "consecrate you, 34 As "he hathe done this day: so the Lord hathe commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shal ye abide at ẏ dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion day and night, seuen daies, and shal kepe the watch of the Lord, that ye dye not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aarō and his sonnes did all things ẅ the Lord had commanded by the [h] hand of Moses.

3 And vnto the children of Israel ẏ shalt speake, saying, Take ye an he goate for a sinne offring, and a calf, & a lambe bothe of a yere olde, without blemish for a burnt offring:

4 Also a bullocke, and a ram for peace offrings, to offer before the Lord, & a meat offring mingled ẅ oyle: for to day the Lord wil appeare vnto you.

5 ¶ Then thei broght ẏ ẅ Moses commanded before the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & all the assemblie drewe nere and stode before the [c] Lord,

6 (For Moses had said, This is the thing ẅ the Lord commanded that ye shulde do, and the glorie of the Lord shal appeare vnto you)

7 Then Moses said vnto Aaron, Drawe nere to the Altar, & offer thy sin offring, and thy burnt offring, and make an atonement for [d] thee and for ẏ people: offer also the offring of the people, and make an atonement for them, as ẏ Lord hathe commanded.

8 ¶ Aaron therefore went vnto ẏ Altar, & killed the calf of the sin offring, ẅ was for him self.

9 And the sonnes of Aaron broght the blood vnto him, and he dipt his finger in the blood, and put it vpon ẏ hornes of the Altar, & powred there [e] of ẏ blood at the fote of the Altar.

10 But the fat and the kidneis and the kall of the liuer of the sin offring, he burnt vpon the Altar, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

11 The flesh also and the hyde he burnt ẅ fire without ẏ hoste.

12 After, he slewe the burnt offring, & Aarons sonnes broght vnto him ẏ blood, ẅ he sprinkled round about vpon ẏ Altar.

13 Also thei broght the burnt offring vnto him ẅ ẏ pieces thereof, and the head, and he burnt them vpon the Altar.

14 Likewise he did wash the inwardes and the legs, and [f] burnt them vpon ẏ burnt offring on the Altar.

15 ¶ Then he offred the peoples offring & toke a goat, ẅ was ẏ sin offring for ẏ people, and slewe it, and offred it for sinne, as the first:

16 So he offred the burnt offring, & prepared it, according to the maner,

18 He slewe also the bullocke, and ẏ ram for the peace offrings, ẏ was for ẏ people, and Aarons sonnes broght vnto him the blood, ẅ he sprinkled vpon the Altar round about,

Nadab & Abihu are burnt. 6 Israel murmeth for them, but the Priests might not. 9 The Priests are forbidden wine.

1 BVt * Nadab and Abihu, the sonnes of Aaron, toke ether of them his cēsor, and put fire therein, and put incens thereupon, and offred a strange fire before the Lord, which he had not commanded them.

2 Therefore a fire went out from the Lord, & deuoured them: so thei dyed before the Lord.

3 Then Moses said vnto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I wil be b sanctified in them that come nere me, & before all the people I wil be glorified: but Aaron helde his peace.

4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan the sonnes of Vzziel, the vncle of Aaron, and said vnto them, Come nere, cary your l brethren from before ý Sanctuaire out of the hoste.

5 Then thei went, & caryed them in there coates out of the hoste, as Moses had commanded.

6 After, Moses said vnto Aaron and vnto Eleazar and Ithamar his sonnes, c Vncouer not your heades, nether rent your clothes, lest ye dye, and lest wrath come vpon all the people: but let your brethren, all the house of Israel bewaile the burning which the Lord hathe d kindled.

7 And go not ye out from the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, lest ye dye: for the anointing oyle of the Lord is vpon you: and thei did according to Moses commandement.

8 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Aaron, saying,

9 Thou shalt not drinke wine nor m strōg drinke, thou, nor thy sonnes with thee, when ye come into the Tabernacle of ý Congregacion, lest ye dye: this is an ordinance for euer throughout your generacions,

10 That ye may put difference betwene ý holy and the vnholy, and betwene ý cleane and the vncleane, 11 And that ye may teache the childrē of Israel all the statutes which the Lord hathe commanded them by the n hand of Moses.

12 ¶ Thē Moses said vnto Aaron & vnto Eleazar and to Ithamar his sonnes that were left, Take ý meat offring that remaineth of the offrings of the Lord, made by fire, & eat it without leauen beside the altar: for it is moste holy:

13 And ye shal eat it in ý holy place, because it is thy duetie & thy sonnes duetie of the offrings of the Lord made by fire: for so I am commanded.

15 The heaue shulder, and ý shakē breast shal they bring ẅ ý offrings made by fire of ý fat, to shake it to and fro before the Lord, and it shalbe thine and thy sonnes ẅ thee by a lawe for euer, as the Lord hathe commanded.

16 ¶ * And Moses soght the goat that was offred for sinne, and lo, it was burnt: therefore he was angry ẅ Eleazar and Ithamar the sonnes of Aaron, ẅ were r left aliue, saying,

17 Wherefore haue ye not eaten the sin offring in the holy place, seing it is moste holy? and God hathe giuen it you, to beare the iniquitie of the Congregacion to make an atonement for them before the Lord.

18 Beholde, the blood of it was not broght within the holy place: ye shulde haue eaten it in the holy place, * as I commāded.

19 And Aaron said vnto Moses, Beholde, this day s haue they offred their sin offring and their burnt offring before the Lord, and suche things as thou knowest are come vnto me: if I had eaten ý sin offring to day, shulde it haue bene accepted in the sight of the Lord?

Act. 10.14

earth.

b He noteth foure sortes of beastes: some chewe the cud onely, and some haue onely the fote cleft: others nether chewe the cud nor haue the hoofe cleft: the fourthe bothe chewe the cud and haue the hoofe deuided which may be eaten.

3 Whatsoeuer parteth the b hoofe, and is clouen foted, and chaweth the cud among the beastes, that shal ye eat:

4 But of them that chewe the cud, or deuide the hoofe onely, of them ye shal not eat: as ý camel, because he cheweth the cud, and deuideth not the hoofe, he shalbe vncleane vnto you,

5 Likewise ý conie, because he cheweth the cud & deuideth not the hoofe, he shalbe vncleane to you.

6 Also the hare, because he cheweth the cud, & deuideth not the hoofe, he shalbe vncleane to you.

3.Mac.6,18 7 *And the swine, because he parteth the hoofe and is clouen foted, but cheweth not the cud, he shalbe vncleane to you.

c God wolde that herby for a time thei shulde be discerned as his people from the Gentiles.

8 Of their c flesh shal ye not eat, & their carkeis shal ye not touche: for thei shalbe vncleane to you.

9 ¶ These shal ye eat, of all that are in the waters: whatsoeuer hathe finnes & skales in the waters, in the seas, or in the riuers, them shal ye eat.

d As litle fyshe ingendred of ý slime.
e As thei wcome of generacion.

10 But all that haue not fins nor skales in the seas, or in the riuers, of all that d moueth in the waters & of all e liuing things that are in the waters, thei shalbe an abominacion vnto you.

11 Thei, I say, shalbe an abominacion to you: ye shal not eat of their flesh, but shal abhorre their carkeis.

12 Whatsoeuer hathe not fins nor skales in the waters, that shalbe abominacion vnto you.

13 ¶ These shal ye haue also in abominacion among ý foules, thei shal not be eaten: for thei are an abominacion, the egle, and the f gosshauke, & the osprey:

a Or, gryphin, as is in the greke.

14 Also the vultur, and the kite after his kinde,

15 And all rauens after their kinde:

16 The ostriche also, & the night crowe, and the f seameawe, and the hauke after his kinde:

b Or, cookow.

17 The litle owle also, and the cormorant, and the great owle.

18 Also the g redshanke and the pelicane, and the swanne:

c Or, porphyrie.

19 The storke also, the heron after his kinde, and the lapwing, and the backe:

20 Also euerie foule that crepeth and goeth vpon all foure, suche shalbe an abominacion vnto you.

21 Yet these shal ye eat: of euerie foule that crepeth, and goeth vpon all foure which h haue their fete and leggs all of one to leape withall vpon the earth, d Or, haue no bowings on there fete.

e These were certeine kindes of grashopers, which are not now properly knowen.

22 Of them ye shal eat these, the grashopper after his kinde, and the i solean after his kinde, ý hargol after his kinde, and the hagab after his kinde.

23 But all other foules that crepe & haue foure fete, thei shalbe abominacion vnto you.

24 For by suche ye shalbe polluted: whosoeuer toucheth their carkeis, shalbe vncleane vnto the euening.

25 Whosoeuer also k beareth of their carkeis, shal wash his clothes, & be vncleane vntil euen.

f Out of the campe.

26 Euerie beast that hathe clawes deuided, and is l not clouen foted, nor cheweth the cud, suche shalbe vncleane vnto you: euerie one that toucheth them, shalbe vncleane.

l Or, hathe not his fote clouen in two.

27 And whatsoeuer goeth vpon his pawes among all maner beastes that goeth on all foure, suche shalbe vncleane vnto you: whoso doeth touche their carkeis shalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

28 And he that beareth their carkeis, shal wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntil the euen: for suche shalbe vncleane vnto you.

29 ¶ Also these shalbe vncleane to you among the things that crepe and moue vpon the earth, the weasel, & the mouse, and the m frog, after his kinde:

h The greue frog that sitteth on the bushes.

30 Also the rat, & the lizard, & ý chameleon, and the stelio, and the molle.

m Or, crocadile

31 These shalbe vncleane to you among all that crepe: whosoeuer doeth touche them when thei be dead, shalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

32 Also whatsoeuer anie of the dead carkeises of them doeth fall vpon, shalbe vncleane, whether it be vessel of wood, or raiment, or n skin, or sacke: whatsoeuer vessel it be that is occupied, it shalbe put in the water as vncleane vntil the euen, and so be purified.

i As a bottel or bag.

33 But euerie earthen vessel, whereinto anie of them falleth, whatsoeuer is with in it shal be vncleane, and * ye shal breake it.

* Chap.6,28

34 All meat also that shalbe eaten, if anie suche water come vpon it, shalbe vncleane: and all drinke that shalbe dronke in all suche vessels shalbe vncleane.

35 And euerie thing that their carkeis fall vpon, shalbe vncleane: the fornais or ý pot shalbe broken: for thei are vncleane, and shalbe vncleane vnto you.

36 Yet the fountaines and welles where there is plentie of water shal be cleane: but that which o toucheth their carkeises shal be vncleane.

k So muche of the water as toucheth it.

37 And if there fall of their dead carkeis vpon anie sede, which vseth to be sowē, it shal be cleane.

38 But if anie p water be powred vpon ý sede, & there fall of their dead carkeis thereon, it shalbe vncleane vnto you.

l He speaketh of sede, that is layed to stepe before it be sowen.

39 If also anie beast, whereof ye may eat, dye, he that toucheth the carkeis thereof shalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

40 And he that eateth of the carkeis of it, shal wash his clothes and be vncleane vntil the euen: he also that beareth the carkeis of it, shal wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntil the euen.

41 Euerie creping thing therefore that crepeth vpon the earth shalbe an abominacion, and not be eaten.

42 Whatsoeuer goeth vpon the breast, and whatsoeuer goeth vpon all foure, or that hathe manie fete among all creping things that crepe vpon the earth, ye shal not eat of them, for thei shalbe abominacion.

43 Ye shal not pollute your selues with anie thing that crepeth, nether make your selues vncleane with them, nether defile your selues thereby: ye shal not, I say, be defiled by them.

44 For I am the Lord your God: be sanctified therefore, and be [m] holy, for I am holy, and defile not your selues with anie creping thing, that crepeth vpon the earth.

45 For I am the Lord that broght you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God, and that you shulde be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the lawe of beastes, & of foules, and of euerie liuing thing that moueth in the waters, and of euerie thing that crepeth vpon the earth:

47 That there may be a difference betwene the vncleane and cleane, and betwene the beast that may be eaten, and the beast that oght not to be eaten.

m He sheweth why God did chouse them to be his people, 1. pet. 1, 15.

CHAP. XII.

2 A lawe how women shulde be purged after their deliuerance.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, When a woman hathe broght forthe sede, and borne a man childe, she shal be vncleane [a] seuen daies, like as she is vncleane when she is put a parte for her [n] * disease.

(* And in the eight day the foreskin of the childes flesh shalbe circumcised)

3 And she shal continue in the blood of her purifiyng thre [b] and thirty daies: she shal touche no [c] halowed thing, nor come in to the [d] Sanctuarie, vntil the time of her purifiyng be out.

4 But if she beare a maide childe, then she shalbe vncleane two [e] wekes, as when she hathe her disease: and she shal continue in the blood of her purifiyng thre score and six daies.

5 Now when the daies of her purifiyng are out, (whether it be for a sonne or for a daughter) she shal bring to ỹ Priest a lambe of one yere olde for a burnt offring and a yong pigeon or a turtle doue for a sin offring, vnto the dore of the [f] Tabernacle of the Congregacion,

6 And the Priest shal offer it before the Lord, & make an atonement for her: so she shal be purged of ỹ issue of her blood. this is the lawe for her that hathe borne a male or female.

7 But if she [o] be notable to bring a lambe she shal bring two * turtles, or two yong pigeons: the one for a burnt offring, and the other for a sin offring: and the Priest shal make an atonement for her: so she shalbe cleane.

a So that her housband for that time colde not resorte to her.

b Besides the first seuē daies.

CHAP. XIII.

2 What considerations the Priest ought to obserue in iudging the leprosie, 29 The blacke spot or skab, 47 And the leprie of the garment.

1 MOreouer the Lord spake vnto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

2 The man that shal haue in the skin of his flesh a swelling or a skab, or a white spot, so that in the skin of his flesh [a] it be like the plague of leprosie, then he shalbe broght vnto Aaron the Priest, or vnto one of his sonnes the Priests,

3 And the Priest shal loke on the sore in the skin of his flesh: if the heere in the sore be turned into white, and the sore seme to be [b] lower then the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosie: therefore the Priest shal loke on him, and [p] pronounce him vncleane:

4 But if the white spot be in the skin of his flesh, and seme not to be lower then the skin, nor the heere thereof be turned vnto white, then the Priest shal shut vp him that hathe the plague, seuen daies.

5 After, the Priest shal loke vpon him the seuēth day: & if the plague seme [p] to him to abide stil, and the plague growe not in the skin, the Priest shal shut him vp yet seuen daies more.

6 Then the Priest shal loke on him againe the seuenth day, and if the plague [c] be darke, and the sore growe not in ỹ skin, then ỹ Priest shal [p] pronounce him cleane, for it is a skab: therefore he shal wash his clothes, and be cleane.

7 But if ỹ skab growe more in the skin, after that he is sene of the Priest, for to be purged, he shalbe sene of the Priest yet againe.

8 Then the Priest shal consider, and if the skab [q] growe in the skin, then the Priest shal pronounce him [d] vncleane: for it is leprosie.

9 ¶ When the plague of leprosie is in a man, he shalbe broght vnto the Priest,

10 And the Priest shal se him: & if the swelling be white in the skin, and haue made the heere white, & there be raw flesh in the swelling,

11 It is an olde leprosie in the skin of his flesh:

a That it may be suspected to be the leprie.
b That is, shronke in, and be lower then the rest of the skin.
p Ebr. shal pollute him.
p Ebr. in his eies.
c As hauing the skin drawen together, or blackish.
p Ebr. shal clēse him.
q Or, be spred abroade.
d As touching his bodely disease: for his disease was not imputed to him for sin before God, though it were the punishement of sinne.

flesh: and the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane, and shal not shut him vp, for he is vncleane.

12 Also if the leprosie [a] breeke out in ỹ skin, and the leprosie couer all the skin of the plague, from his head euen to his fete, whereſoeuer the Priest loketh, 13 Then the Priest shal consider: and if ỹ leprosie couer all his flesh, he shal pronoūce the plague to be [c] cleane, because it is all turned into whitenes: ſo he shal be cleane.

14 But if there be rawe flesh on him when he is sene, he shalbe vncleane.

15 For the Prist shal se the rawe flesh, and declare him to be vncleane: for the rawe flesh is [f] vncleane, therefore it is the leprosie.

16 Or if the rawe flesh change and be turned into white, then he shal come to the Priest, 17 And the Priest shal beholde him: and if the sore be changed into white, then the Priest shal pronounce the plague cleane, for it is cleane.

18 ¶ The flesh also in whose skin there is [b] a bile and his healed, 19 And in the place of the bile there be a white swelling, or a white spot some what reddish, it shalbe sene of ỹ Priest.

20 And when the Priest seeth it, if it appeare lower then the skin, and the heere thereof be changed into white, ỹ Priest then shal pronounce him [g] vncleane: for it is a plague of leprosie, broken out in the bile.

21 But if the Priest loke on it and there be no white heeres therein, & if it be not lower then the skin, but be darker, then the Priest shal shut him vp seuen daies.

22 And if it spread abroade in the flesh, the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane, for it is a sore.

23 But if the spot continue in his place, and grow not, it is a burning bile: therefore the Priest shal declare him to be cleane.

24 ¶ If there be anie flesh, in whose skin there is an hote burning, and the quicke flesh of the burning haue a [h] white spot, some what reddish or pale,

25 Then the Priest shal loke vpon it: and if the heere in that spot be changed into white, and it appeare lower then the skin, it is a leprosie broken out in the burning: therefore the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane: for it is the plague of leprosie.

26 But if the Priest loke on it, and there be no white heere in the spot and be no lower then the other skin, but be darcker, then the Priest shal shut him vp seuen daies.

27 After the Priest shal loke on him the seuenth day: if it be growen abroade in the skinne, then the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane: for it is the plague of leprosie.

28 And if the spot abide in his place, not growing in the skin, but is darke, it is a [a] rising of the burning: the Priest shal therefore declare him cleane, for it is ỹ drieng vp of the burning.

29 ¶ If also a man or woman hathe a sore on the head or in the beard, 30 Then the Priest shal se the sore: and if it appeare lower then the skin, and there be in it a smale yelowe [i] heere, thē the Priest shal pronounce him vncleane: for it is a blacke spot, and leprosie of the head or of the beard.

31 And if the Priest loke on the sore of the blacke spot, & if it seme not lower then the skin nor haue anie blacke heere in it, then the Priest shal shut vp him, that hathe the sore of the blacke spot, seuen daies.

32 After, in the seuenth day the Priest shal loke on the sore: and if the blacke spot growe not, & there be in it no yelowe heere, & the blacke spot seme not lower then the skin, 33 Then he shalbe shauen, but the place of the blacke spot shal he not shaue: but the Priest shal shut vp him, that hathe the blacke spot, seuen daies more.

34 And the seuenth day the Priest shal loke on the blacke spot: and if the blacke spot growe not in the skin, nor seme lower then ỹ other skin then the Priest shal clense him, & he shal wash his clothes, and be cleane.

35 But if the blacke spot growe abroade in the flesh after his clensing, 36 Then the Priest shal loke on it: and if the blake spot growe in the skin, the Priest shal not [k] seke for ỹ yelowe heere, for he is vncleane.

37 But if the blacke spot seme to him to abide, and that blacke heere growe therein, the blacke spot is healed, he is cleane, and the Priest shal declare him to be cleane.

38 ¶ Furthermore if there be manie white spots in the skin of the flesh of man or woman.

39 Then the Priest shal consider: and if the spots in the skin of their flesh be somewhat darcke and white with all, it is but a white spot broke oute in the skin: therefore he is cleane.

40 And the man whose heere is fallen of his head and is balde, is cleane.

41 And if his head lose the [l] heere on the fore parte, and be balde before, he is cleane.

42 But if there be in the balde head, or in the balde fore heade a white reddish sore, it is a leprosie springing in his balde head, or in his balde forehead.

43 Therefore ỹ Priest shal loke vpon it,

[a] Or, budde.

[c] For it is not that contagious leprie that infecteth, but a kinde of skirfe, which hathe not the flesh rawe as the leprosie.

[f] That is, declareth that the flesh is not soūde, but is in dāger to be leprous.

[b] Or, impostume.

[g] None were exempted, but if ỹ priest pronouced him vncleane, he was put out from among the people: as appeareth by Marie the prophetesse, Nomb. 12, 14, & by King Ozias. 2. Chro. 26, 20

[h] If he haue a white spot in that place, where that burning was, & was after healed.

[a] Or, swelling.

[i] Which was not wont to be there: or els smaler then in any other parts of the body.

[k] He shal not care whether ỹ yelowe heere be there, or no.

[l] By sickenes, or anie other inconuenience.

and if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his balde head, or in his balde fore head, appearing like leprosie in the skin of the flesh, 44 He is a leper and vncleane: therefore the Priest shal pronounce him altogether vncleane: for the sore is in his head.

45 The leper also in whome the plague is, shal haue his clothes [m] rent, and his head bare, and shal put a couering vpon his [n] lippes, and shal crye, I am vncleane, I am vncleane.

46 As long as the disease shalbe vpon him, he shalbe polluted, for he is vncleane: he shal dwel alone, without ỹ campe shal his habitacion be.

47 ¶ Also the garment that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it be a wollen garment or a linen garment,

48 Whether it be in the warpe or in the woofe of linen or of wollen, ether in a skin or in anie thing made of skin,

49 And if the sore be grene or some what reddish in the garment or in the skin, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thing that is made of [o] skin, it is a plague of leprosie & shalbe shewed vnto the Priest.

50 Then the Priest shal se the plague and shut vp it that hathe the plague, seuen daies, 51 And shal loke on the plague the seuenth day: if the plague growe in the garment or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in the skin or in anie thing that is made of skin, that plague is a freating leprosie and vncleane.

52 And he shal burne the garment, or ỹ warpe, or the woofe, whether it be wollen or linen, or anie thing that is made of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a freating leprosie, therefore it shalbe burnt in the fire.

53 If the Priest yet se that the plague [p] growe not in the garment, or in the woofe, or in whatsoeuer thing of skin it be, 54 Then the Priest shal commande them to wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shal shut it vp seuen dayes more.

55 Againe the Priest shal loke on the plague, after it is washed: and if the plague haue not chaged his [q] colour, thogh the plague spred no further, it is vncleane: thou shalt burne it in the fire, for it is a freat inwarde, [r] whether the spot be in the bare place of the whole, or in parte thereof.

56 And if the Priest se that the plague be darker, after that it is washed, he shal cut it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.

57 And if it appeare stil in the garment or in the warpe, or in ỹ woofe, or in anie thing made of skin, it is a spreading leprie: thou shalt burne the thing wherein the plague is, in the fire.

58 If thou hast washed the garment or the warpe, or the woofe, or whatsoeuer thing of skin it be, if the plague be departed there from, thē shal it be washed [s] the seconde time, and be cleane.

59 This is the lawe of the plague of leprosie in a garment of wollen or linen, or in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in anie thing of skin, to make it cleane or vncleane.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 The clensing of the leper, 34 And of the house that he is in.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 *This is the [a] lawe of the leper in the day of his clensing: that is, he shalbe broght vnto the Priest,

3 And the Priest shal go out of the campe, and the Priest shal consider him: and if the plague of leprosie be healed in the leper.

4 Then shal the Priest commande to take for him that is clensed, two [h] sparowes aliue and [b] cleane, and ceder wood and a skariet lace, and hyssope.

5 And the Priest shal commande to kil one of the birdes ouer [c] pure water in an earthen vessel.

6 After, he shal take the liue sparowe with the cedar wood, and the skarlet lace, and the hyssope, and shal dip them and the liuing sparowe in the blood of the sparowe slaine, ouer the pure water,

7 And he shal sprinkle vpon him, that must be clensed of his leprosie, seuen times, and clense him, & shal [d] let go the liue sparowe into the broade field.

8 Then he that shalbe clensed, shal wash his clothes, and shaue of all his heere, and wash him selfe in water, so he shalbe cleane: after that shal he come into the hoste, but shal tarie without his tent seuen dayes.

9 So in the seuenth day he shal shaue of all his heere both his head, & his beard, and his eie browes: euen all his heere shal he shaue, & shal wash his clothes and shal wash his flesh in water: so he shalbe cleane.

10 Then in the eight day he shal take two he lambes without [e] blemish, and an ewe lambe of an yere olde without blemish, and thre tenth deales of fine floure for a meat offring, mingled with oyle, [f] and a pinte of oyle.

11 And the Priest that maketh him cleane shal bring ỹ man which is to be made cleane, and those things, before the Lord, at ỹ dore of the Tabernacle of ỹ Congre-

Chap.7,1
14 So the Priest shal take of the blood of the trespasse offring, and put it vpon the lap of the right eare of him that shalbe clensed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right fote.

20 So the Priest shal offer the burnt offring and the meat offring vpon the altar: and the Priest shal make an atonement for him: so he shal be cleane.

24 Then the Priest shal take the lambe of the trespas offring, and the pinte of oyle, and the Priest shal[h] shake them to and fro before the Lord.
h Or shal offre them as the offring that is shaken to and fro.
25 And he shal kil the lambe of the trespas offring, & the Priest shal take of ỹ blood of the trespas offring, and put it vpon the lap of his right eare that is to be clensed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, & vpon the great toe of his right fote.
26 Also ỹ Priest shal powre of the oyle into the palme of his owne "left hand.

27 So the Priest shal with his right finger sprinkle of the oyle that is in his left hand, seuen times before the Lord.

29 But the rest of the oyle that is in the Priests hand, he shal put vpon the head of him that is to be clensed, to make an atonement for him before the Lord.
30 Also he shal present one of the turtle doues, or of the yong pigeons, [i] as he is able:
i Whether of them he can get.
31 Suche, I say, as he is able, the one for a sin offring, and the other for a burnt offring "with ỹ meat offring: so the Priest shal make an atonement for him that is to be clensed before the Lord.

32 This is the [k] lawe of him which hathe the plague of leprosie, who is not able in his clensing to offre the whole.
k This ordre is appointed for the poore man.
33 ¶ The Lord also spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying, 34 When ye be come vnto ỹ land of Canaan which I giue you in possession, if I [l] send the plague of leprosie in an house of the land of your possession, l This declareth that no plague nor punishement commeth to man without godes prouidence and his sending.
35 Thē he that oweth the house, shal come and tel the Priest, saying, Me thinke there is like a plague of leprosie in ỹ house.
36 Then the Priest shal commande them to empty the house before the Priest go into it to se the plague, that all that is in the house be not made vncleane, and then shal the Priest go in to se the house, 37 And he shal marke the plage: and if the plague be in the walles of the house, and that there be "depe spots, greniſh or reddish, which seme to be lower thē the wall,
" Or, blacknes. or hollow strakes.
38 Then the Priest shal go out of ỹ house to the dore of ỹ house, and shal cause to shut vp the house seuen daies.
39 So the Priest shal come againe the seuēth day: and if he se that the plague be increased in the walles of the house, 40 Then the Priest shal commāde them to take away the stones wherein ỹ plague is, and they shal cast thē into a [o] foule place without the citie.
" Or, polluted.
41 Also he shal cause to scrape the house within round about, and powre ỹ dust, that they haue pared of, without the citie in [m] an vncleane place.
m Where carions were cast, and other filth that the people might not be there with infected.
42 And they shal take other stones, and put them in the places of those stones, and shal take other mortar, to plaister the house with.

43 But if the plague come againe & breake out in the house, after that he hathe taken away the stones, & after that he hathe scraped and plaistred the house,

44 Then the Priest shal come and see: & if the plague groxe in the house, it is a freating leprosie in the house: it is therefore vncleane.

45 And he shal [n] breake downe the house, with the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the [n] mortar of the house, and he shal carie them out of the citie vnto an vncleane place.

46 Moreouer he that goeth into ý house, all the while that it is shut vp, he shalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

47 He also that slepeth in the house shal wash his clothes: he likewise that eateth in the house, shal wash his clothes.

48 But if the Priest shal come & se, that the plague hathe spred no further in the house, after the house be plaistered, the Priest shal pronounce that house cleane, for the plague is healed.

49 Then shal he take to purifie ý house, two sparowes and cedar wood, [o] and skarlet lace, and hyssope.

50 And he shal kil one sparowe ouer pure water in an earthen vessel, 51 And shal take the cedar wood, & the hyssope, & the skarlet lace with the liue sparowe, and dip them in the blood of ý slaine sparowe, and in the pure water, & sprinkle the house seuen times:

52 So shal he clense the house with the blood of the sparowe and with the pure water, and with the liue sparowe, & with the cedar wood, and with the hyssope, & with the skarlet lace.

53 Afterwarde he shal let go the liue sparowe out of the [p] towne into the [p] broade fieldes: so shal he make atonement for the house, and it shalbe cleane.

54 This is the lawe for euerie plague of leprosie and * blacke spot,

55 And of the leprosie of the garment, & of the house,

56 And of the [q] swelling, & of the skab, and of the white spot.

57 This is the lawe of the leprosie, to teache [r] when a thing is vncleane, & when it is cleane.

CHAP. XV.

1 9. The maner of purging the vncleane issues bothe of men and women. 31 The children of Israel must be separate from all vncleanes.

1 MOreouer the Lord spake vnto Moses, & to Aaron, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & say vnto them, Whosoeuer hathe an issue from his [s] flesh, is vncleane, because of his issue.

3 And this shalbe his vncleannes in his issue: when his flesh auoideth his issue, or if his flesh be stopped from his issue, this is his [t] vncleannes.

4 Euerie bed whereon he lieth that hathe the issue, shalbe vncleane, & euerie thing whereon he sitteth, shalbe vncleane.

5 Whosoeuer also toucheth his bed, shal wash his clothes, and wash him selfe in water, and shalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

6 And he that sitteth on anie thing, whereon he sate that hathe the issue, shal wash his clothes & wash him selfe in water, & shal be vncleane vntil the euen.

7 Also he that toucheth the flesh of him that hathe ý issue, shal wash his clothes, and wash him selfe in water, and shalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

8 If he also, that hathe the issue, spit vpon him that is cleane, [c] he shal wash his clothes, and wash him selfe in water, & shalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

9 And what [d] saddle soeuer he rideth vpon, that hathe ý issue, shalbe vncleane.

10 And whosoeuer toucheth anie thing ý was vnder him, shalbe vncleane vnto the euen: & he that beareth those things, shal wash his clothes, and wash him selfe in water, and shal be vncleane vntil the euen.

11 Likewise whomesoeuer he toucheth that hathe the issue (and hathe not washed his hands in water) shal wash his clothes and wash him selfe in water, & shalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

12 *And the vessel of earth that he toucheth, which hathe the issue, shalbe broken: and euerie vessel of wood shalbe rinsed in water.

13 But if he that hathe an issue be [e] clensed of his issue, then shal he count him seuen daies for his clensing, and wash his clothes, and wash his flesh in pure water: so shal he be cleane,

14 Then the eight day he shal take vnto him two turtle doues or two yong pigeons, and come before the Lord at the dore of ý Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & shal giue them vnto the Priest.

15 And the Priest shal make of the one of them a sinne offring, & of the other a burnt offring: so the Priest shal make an atonement for him before the Lord, for his issue.

16 Also if anie mans issue of sede departe from him, he shal wash all his [f] flesh in water, and be vncleane vntil the euen.

17 And euerie garment and euerie skin whereupon shalbe issue of sede, shalbe euen washed with water, & be vncleane vnto the euen, 19 ¶ Also when a woman shal haue an issue, and her issue in her [f] flesh shalbe blood, she shalbe put aparte seuen daies: and whosoeuer toucheth her, shalbe vncleane vnto the euen.

20 And whatsoeuer she lieth vpon in [g] her separacion, shalbe vncleane, and euerie thing that she sitteth vpon, shalbe vncleane.

21 Whosoeuer also toucheth her bed, shal wash his clothes, and wash him selfe with water, and shal be vncleane vnto the euen.

22 And whosoeuer toucheth anie thing that she sate vpon, shal wash his clothes, and wash him selfe in water, and shalbe vncleane vnto the euen:

23 So that whether he touche her bed, or anie thing whereon she hathe sit, he shalbe vncleane vnto the euen.

24 And if a man lie with her, and the floures of her separacion [h] touche him, he shalbe vncleane seuen daies, and all the whole bed whereon he lieth, shalbe vncleane.

25 Also when a womans issue of blood runneth long time besides the time of her "floures, or when she hathe an issue, longer them her floures, all the daies of the issue of her vnclennes she shalbe vncleane, as in the time of her floures.

26 Euerie bed whereon she lieth (as long as her issue lasteth) shalbe to her as her [i] bed of her separacion: and whatsoeuer she sitteth vpon, shalbe vncleane, as her vnclennes when she is put aparte.

27 And whosoeuer toucheth these things, shalbe vncleane, & shal wash his clothes, and wash him selfe in water, & shalbe vncleane vnto the euen.

28 But if she be clensed of her issue, then she shal [k] counte her seuen daies, & after, she shalbe cleane.

29 And in the eight day she shal take vnto her two turtles or two yong pigeons, and bring them vnto the Priest at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

30 And the Priest shal make of the one a sinne offring, and of the other a burnt offring, & the Priest shal make an atonement for her before the Lord, for ỹ issue of her vnclennes.

31 Thus shal ye [l] separate ỹ children of Israel from their vnclēnes, that thei dye not in their vnclennes, if thei defile my Tabernacle that is among them.

32 This is the lawe of him that hathe an issue, & of him from whome goeth an issue of sede whereby he his defiled:

33 Also of her that is sicke of her floures, & of him ỹ hathe a running issue, whether it be man or woman, & of him that lieth with her which is vncleane.

2 The Priest might not all times come into the moste holy place. 8 The scape goat. 14 The purging of the Sanctuarie. 17 The clensing of the Tabernacle. 21 The Priest confesseth the sinnes of the people. 29 The feast of clensing sinnes.

1 FVrthermore the Lord spake vnto Moses, * after the death of the two sonnes of Aaron, when thei came to offer before the Lord, and dyed:

2 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Speake vnto Aaron thy brother, *that he come not at [a] all times in to the Holy place within the vaile, before the Merciseat, which is vpon the Arke, that he dye not: for I wil appeare in the cloude vpon the Merciseat.

3 After this sort shal Aaron come into ỹ Holy place: euen with a yong bullocke for a sinne offring, & a ram for a burnt offring.

4 He shal put on the holy linen coat and shal haue linen breches vpon his "flesh, and shalbe girded with a linen girdel, & shal couer his head with a linen mitre: these are the holy garments: therefore shal he wash his flesh in water, when he doeth put them on.

5 And he shal take of the Congregacion of the children of Israel, two he goates for a sinne offring, and a ram for a burnt offring.

6 Then Aaron shal offer ỹ bullocke for his sinne offring. * & make an atonemēt for him selfe, and for his house.

7 And he shal take the two he goates, & present them before the Lord at the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

8 Then Aaron shal cast lots ouer ỹ two he goates: one lot for the Lord, and the other for the [b] Scape goat.

9 And Aaron shal offer the goat, vpon which the Lords lot shal fall, and make him a sinne offring.

10 But the goat, on which ỹ lot shal fall to be the Scape goat, shalbe presented aliue before the Lord, to make reconciliacion by him, & to let him go (as a Scape goat) into the wildernes.

11 Thus Aaron shal offer the bullocke for his sinne offring, and make a reconciliation for him selfe, and for his house, and shal kil the bullocke for his sinne offring.

12 And he shal take a censer ful of burning coles from of the Altar before the Lord, and his handful of swete incens beaten small, and bring it within the [c] vaile.

20 And the Priest shal shake them to & fro with the bread of the first frutes before the Lord, and with the two lambes: thei shalbe holy to the Lord, for the [i] Priest.
21 So ye shal proclame the same day, that it may be an holy conuocacion vnto you: ye shal do no seruile worke therein: it shalbe an ordinance for euer in all your dwellings, throughout your generacions.

30 And euerie persone that shal do anie worke that same day, the same persone also wil I destroye from among his people, 31 Ye shal do no manner worke: therefore this shalbe a lawe for euer in your generacios throughout all your dwellings.
32 This shalbe vnto you a Sabbath of rest and ye shal humble your soules: in the ninth day of the moneth at euen, from [o] euen to euen shal ye [p] celebrate your Sabbath.
33 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

3 Without the vaile [b] of y Testimonie, in the Tabernacle of the Congregacio, shal Aaron dresse them, both euen and morning before the Lord alwaies: this shalbe a lawe for euer through your generacions.

CHAP. XXV.

The Sabbath of the seuenth yere. 8 The Iubile in the fiftieth yere. 14 Not to oppresse their brethren. 23 The sale, and redeming of lands, houses and persones.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye shal come into the land which I giue you, the *land shal "kepe Sabbath vnto the Lord.

3 [a] Six yeres thou shalt sowe thy field, and six yeres thou shalt cut thy vineyard, and gather the fruite thereof.

4 But the seuenth yere shalbe a Sabbath of rest vnto the land: shalbe the Lords Sabbath: thou shal nether sowe thy field nor cut thy vineyarde.

5 That which groweth of it [b] owne accorde of thy harueste, thou shalt not reape, nether gather the grapes that thou haste [c] left vnlaboured: for it shalbe a yere of rest vnto the land.

6 And the [d] rest of the land shalbe meat for you, euen for thee, & for thy sertant, & for thy maid, & for thy hyred sertant, and for the stranger that soiourneth by thee:

7 And for thy cattel, and for the beastes that are in thy land shal all ỹ increase thereof be meat.

8 ¶ Also thou shalt nomber seuen' Sabbaths of yeres vnto thee, euen seuen times seuen yere: and the space of the seuen Sabbaths of yeres wil be vnto thee nine and fourty yere.

9 [e] Then thou shalt cause to blowe the trumpet of the Iubile in the tenth day of the seuenth moneth: euen in the day of the reconciliacion shal ye make the trũpet blowe, through out all your land.

10 And ye shal halowe that yere, euen the fiftieth yere, and proclaime libertie in the land to all the [f] inhabitãts thereof: it shal be the Iubile vnto you, and ye shal returne euerie man vnto his [g] possession, and euerie man shal returne vnto his familie.

11 This fiftieth yere shalbe a yere of Iubile vnto you: ye shal not sowe nether reape that which groweth of it selfe, nether gather the grapes thereof, that are left vnlaboured.

12 For it is the Iubile, it shal be holy vnto you: ye shal eat of the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In the yere of this Iubile, ye shal returne euerie man vnto his possession.

14 And when thou sellest ought to thy neighbour, or byest at thy neighbours hand, ye shal [h] not oppresse one another:

15 But according to the nomber of [i] yeres after the Iubile thou shalt bye of thy neighbour: also according to the nomber of the yeres of the reuenues, he shal sel vnto thee.

16 According to the multitude of yeres thou shalt encrease the price thereof, and according to the fewnes of yeres, thou shalt abate the price of it: for the nomber of [k] frutes doeth he sel vnto thee.

17 Oppresse not ye therefore anie man his neighbour, but thou shalt feare thy God: for I am the Lord your God.

2 Of diuers vowes, and the redemption of the ſame. 22 A thing ſeparate from the vſe of man can not be ſolde, nor redemed, but remaineth to the Lord.

1 MOreouer [d] Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, & ſay vnto them, If anie man ſhal make a [a] vowe of a perſonne vnto the Lord, by [b] thy eſtimacion,

3 Then thy eſtimacion ſhalbe thus: a male from twenty yere olde vnto ſixty yere olde ſhalbe by thy eſtimacion euen fifty [c] ſhekels of ſiluer, after the ſhekel of the Sanctuarie.

4 But if it be a female, then thy valuacion ſhalbe thirty ſhekels.

5 And from fiue yere olde to twenty yere olde thy valuacion ſhalbe for the male twenty ſhekels, and for the female ten ſhekels.

6 But from a [d] moneth olde vnto fiue yere olde, thy price of the male ſhalbe fiue ſhekels of ſiluer, & thy price of the female, thre ſhekels of ſiluer.

7 And from ſixty yere olde and aboue, if he be a male, then thy price ſhal be fiftene ſhekels, and for the female ten ſhekels.

8 But if he be poorer [e] then thou haſt eſtemed him, then ſhal he preſent him ſelfe before the Prieſt, and the Prieſt ſhal value him according to the abilitie of him that vowed him ſo ſhal the Prieſt value him.

9 And if it be a [f] beaſt, whereof men bring an offring vnto the Lord, all that one giueth of ſuche vnto the Lord, ſhal be holy.

10 He ſhal not alter it nor change it, a good for a bad, nor a bad for a good: and if he change beaſt for beaſt, then bothe this and that, which was changed for it, ſhalbe [g] holy.

12 And the Priest shal value it, whether it be good or bad: and as thou valuest it, which art the Priest, so shal it be.
13 But if he wil bie it againe, then he shal giue the fift parte of it more, aboue thy valuacion.
14 ¶ Also when a man shal dedicate his house to be holy vnto the Lord, then the Priest shal value it, whether it be good or bad, and as the Priest shal prise it, [o] so shal the value be.
15 But if he that sanctified it, wil redeme his house, then he shal giue thereto the fift parte of money more then thy estimacion, and it shalbe his.
16 If also a man dedicate to the Lord anie grounde of his inheritance, then shalt thou esteme it according to the [h] sede thereof: an [i] Homer of barlie sede shalbe at fiftie shekels of siluer.
17 If he dedicate his field immediately from the yere of Iubile, it shalbe worthe as thou doest esteme it.
18 But if he dedicate his field after the Iubile, then the Priest shal reken him the money according to the yeres that remaine vnto the yere of Iubile, and it shalbe abated by thy estimacion.
19 And if he that dedicateth it, wil redeme the field, then he shal put ỹ fift parte of the price, that thou estemedst it at, thereunto, and it shal remaine his.
20 And if he wil not redeme the field, but the Priest [k] sel the field to another man, it shalbe redemed nomore.
21 But the field shalbe holie to the Lord, whē it goeth out in the Iubile, as a field [l] separate from commune vses: the possession thereof shalbe the Priestes.
22 If a man also dedicate vnto the Lord a field which he hathe boght, which is not of the grounde of his inheritance, 23 Then the Priest shal set the price to him, as * thou estemest it, vnto the yere of Iubile, and he shal giue [m] thy price the same day, as a thing holy vnto the Lord.
24 But in the yere of Iubile, the field shal returne vnto him, of whome it was boght: to him, I say, whose inheritance the land was,
25 And all thy valuacion shalbe according to the skekel of * the Sanctuarie: a shekel conteineth twenty gerahs.
26 ¶ * Notwithstanding the firstborne of the beastes, because it is the Lords firstborne, none shal dedicate suche, be it bullocke, or shepe: for it is the [n] Lords.
27 But if it be an vncleane beast, then he shal redeme it by thy valuacion, and giue the fift parte more thereto: and if it be not redemed, then it shal be solde, according to thy estimacion.
28 *Notwithstanding, nothing separate from the commune vse that a man doeth separate vnto the Lord of all that he hathe (whether it be man or beast, or land of his inheritance) may be solde nor redemed: for euerie thing seperate from the commune vse is moste holy vnto the Lord.
29 Nothing separate from the commune vse, which shalbe separate from mā, shal be redemed, but [o] dye the death.
30 Also all the tithe of the land bothe of the sede of the ground, and of the frute of the trees is the Lords: it is holy to the Lord.
31 But if a man wil redeme anie of his tithe, he shal adde the [p] fift parte thereto.
32 And euerie tithe of bullocke, and of shepe, and of all that goeth vnder the [q] rod, the tenth shalbe holy vnto the Lord.
33 He shal not loke if it be good or bad, nether shal he change it: els if he change it, bothe it, and that it was changed withall, shalbe holy, and it shal not be redemed.

THE ARGVMENT.

For asmuche as God hathe appointed that his Church in this worlde shalbe vnder the cresse, bothe because they shulde learne not to put their trust in worldely things, and also file his comforte, when all other helpe faileth: he did not straight way bring his people, after their departure out of Egypt, into the land which he promised them: but led them to & fro for the space of fourtie yeres, and kept them in continual exercises before they enioyed it, to trye their faith, & to teache them to forget the worlde and to depend on him. Which tryal did greately profit to discerne the wicked and the hypocrites from the faithful and true seruants of God, who serued him with pure heart, where as the other preferring their carnal affections to Gods glorie, and and making religion to serue their purpose, murmured when they lacked to content their lustes, and despised them whome God had appointed rulers ouer them. By reason whereof they prouoked Gods terrible iudgemẽts against them, and are set forthe as a moste notable exemple for all ages to be ware how they abuse Gods worde, preferre their owne lustes to his wil, or dispise his ministers. Notwithstanding God is euer true in his promes, and gouerneth his, by his holy Spirit, that ether they fall not to suche inconueniences, or els returne to him quickely by true repentance: and therefore he continueth his graces toward them, he giueth them ordinances and instructions, aswel for religion as outward policie: he preserueth them against all craft and conspiracie, and giueth them manifolde victories against their enemies. And to auoyd all controuersies that might arise, he taketh away the occasiõs, by dividing among all the tribes, bothe the land, which they had wonne, and that also which he had promised, as semed best to his godlie wisdome.

CHAP. I.

1 AND ỹ Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, & to Aaron, ſaying,

2 Take the ſumme of the ſonnes of Kohath from among the ſonnes of Leui, after their families, & houſes of their fathers, 12 And they ſhal take all the inſtruments of the miniſterie wherewith they miniſter in the Sanctuarie, and put them in a cloth of blewe ſilke, and couer them ẅ a couering of badgers ſkins, & put thẽ on the barres.

17 ¶ And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes & to Aaron, ſaying, 18 Ye ſhal not l cut of the tribe of ỹ families of the Kohathites from among ỹ Leuites:

21 ¶ And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

22 Take

22 Take also the summe of the sonnes of Gershon, euerie one by the houses of their fathers throughout their families:
23 From thirtie yere olde and aboue, vntil fiftie yere olde shalt thou nōbre thē, all that [n] entre into the assemblie for to do seruice in the Tabernacle of ỹ Congregacion.
24 This shalbe the seruice of the families of the Gershonites, to serue and to beare.
25 They shal beare the curtaines of the Tabernacle, & the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, his couering, and ỹ couering of badgers skins, that is on hie vpon it, and the vaile of the [o] dore of ỹ Tabernacle of the Congregacion:
26 The curtaines also of the court, and the vaile of the entring in of ỹ gate of the court, [p] wch is nere the Tabernacle & nere the altar round about, wt their cordes, and all the instrumentes for their seruice, and all that is made for them: so shal they serue.
27 At the commandement of Aaron and his sonnes shal all the seruice of the sonnes of the Gershonites be done, in all their charges and in all their seruice, & ye shal appoint them to kepe all their charges.
28 This is the seruice of the families of ỹ sonnes of the Gershonites in the Tabernacle of the Cōgregaciō, & their watch shalbe vnder the [q] hand of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the Priest.
29 ¶ Thou shalt nomber the sonnes of Merari by their families, & by ỹ houses of their fathers:
30 From thirtie yere olde & aboue, euen vnto fiftie yere olde shalt thou nomber them, all that entre into the assemblie, to do the seruice of the Tabernacle of ỹ Congregacion.
31 And this is their office & charge according to all their seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion: the * boardes of the Tabernacle wt ỹ barres thereof, and his pillers, and his sockets.
32 And the pillers round about ỹ court, with their sockets and their pins, & their cordes, wt all their instrumentes, euen for all their seruice, & by [r] name ye shal reken the instruments of their office & charge.
33 This is the seruice of the families of ỹ sonnes of Merari, according to all their seruice in the Tabernacle of ỹ Cōgregacion vnder the hand of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the Priest.
34 ¶ Then Moses and Aaron and the princes of the Congregacion nombred the sonnes of the Kohathites, by their families and by the houses of their fathers, 35 From thirtie yere olde & aboue, euen vnto fiftie yere olde, all that entre into the assemblie for the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.
36 So the [t] nombers of them throughout their families were two thousand, seuen hundreth and fiftie.
37 These are the nombers of the families of the Kohathites, all that serue in ỹ Tabernacle of the Congregaciō, which Moses and Aaron did nomber according to the commandement of the Lord by the [u] hand of Moses.
38 Also the nombers of ỹ sonnes of Gershon throughout their families & houses of their fathers, 39 From thirtie yere olde and vpward, euen vnto fiftie yere olde: all that entre in to the assemblie for the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.
40 So the nombers of them by their families, & by the houses of their fathers, were two thousand six hundreth & thirtie.
41 These are the nombers of the families of the sonnes of Gershon: of all that did seruice in the Tabernacle of ỹ Cōgregacion, whome Moses & Aaron did nomber according to thē cōmandement of the Lord.
42 ¶ The nombers also of the families of the sonnes of Merari by their families, & by the houses of their fathers, 43 From thirtie yere olde & vpward, euen vnto fiftie yere olde: all ỹ entre into the assemblie for the seruice of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.
44 So the nombers of them by their families were thre thousand, & two hundreth.
45 These are the summes of the families of the sonnes of Merari, whome Moses & Aaron nombred according to ỹ commandement of the Lord, by the hand of Moses.
46 So all the nombers of the [v] Leuites, wt Moses, & Aaron, & the princes of Israel nombred, by their families & by the houses of their fathers, 47 From thirtie yere olde & vpward, euen to fiftie yere olde, euerie one that came to do [v] his duetie, office, seruice & charge in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.
48 So the nombers of them were eight thousand fiue hundreth and foure score.
49 According to the [w] commandement of the Lord by the hand of Moses did Aaron nomber them, euerie one according to his seruice, & according to his charge. Thus were thei of ỹ tribe nombred, as the Lord commanded [x] Moses.

27 So they shal put my [m] Name vpon ỹ children of Israel, & I wil blesse them.

m They shal pray in my Name for them.

5 But if ye blowe an alarme, then ỹ campe of thē that pitche on the [b] East parte, shal go forwarde.
6 If ye blowe an alarme the seconde time, then the hoste of thē that lie on ỹ [c] South side shal marche: for they shal blowe an alarme when they remoue.
7 But in assembling the Congregacion, ye shal blowe without an alarme.
8 And the sonnes of Aaron the Priest shal [d] blowe the trumpets, and ye shal haue them as a lawe for euer in your generacions.
9 And when ye go to warre in your land against the enemie that vexeth you, ye shal blowe an alarme with the trumpets, and ye shal be remembred before the Lord your God, and shal be saued from your enemies.
10 Also in the day of your [e] gladnes, and in your feast daies, and in the beginning of your monethes, ye shal also blowe the trumpets [f] ouer your burnt sacrifices, and ouer your peace offrings, that they may be a remembrance for you before your God: I am the Lord your God.
11 ¶ And in the seconde yere, in the seconde moneth, and in ỹ twentieth day of the moneth the cloude was taken vp from the Tabernacle of ỹ Testimonie.
12 And the children of Israel departed on their [g] iourneis out of the desert of Sinai, and the cloude rested in the wildernes of Paran.
13 So they [f] first toke their iourney at ỹ commandement of the Lord, by the hand of Moses.
14 ¶ *In the first place went the standerd of the hoste of the children of Iudah, according to their armies: and * Nahshon the sonne of Amminadab was ouer his bande.
15 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the sonne of Zuar.
16 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the sonne of Helon.
17 When the Tabernacle was taken downe, thē the sonnes of Gershon, and the sonnes of Merari wēt forwarde bearing [g] the Tabernacle.
18 ¶ After, departed the standerd of the hoste of Reuben according to their armies, & ouer his bande was Elizur the sonne of Shedeur.
19 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the sonne of Surishaddai.
20 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the sonne of Deuel.
21 The Kohathites also went forwarde and [h] bare the *Sanctuarie, & the [i] former did set vp the Tabernacle against they came.
22 ¶ Then the standerd of the hoste of the children of Ephraim went forwarde according to their armies, and ouer his bande was Elishama the sonne of Ammiud.
23 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the sonnes of Manasseh was Gamliel the sonne of Pedazur.
24 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the sonnes of Beniamin was Abidā the sonne of Gideoni.
25 ¶ Last, the standerd of the hoste of the children of Dan marched, [k] gathering all the hostes according to their armies: & ouer his bande was Ahiezer the sonne of Ammishaddai.
26 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the sonne of Ocran.
27 And ouer the bande of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the sonne of Enan.
28 ¶ These were the remouings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they marched.
29 ¶ After, Moses said vnto [m] Hobab the sonne of Reuel the Midianite, the father in lawe of Moses, We go into the place, of which the Lord said, I wil giue it you: Come thou with vs, and we wil do thee good: for the Lord hathe promised good vnto Israel.
30 And he answered him, I wil not go: but I wil departe to mine owne countrey, and to my kinred.
31 Then he said, I praye thee, leaue vs not: for thou knowest our camping places in the wildernes: therefore ỹ maiest be [o] our guide.
32 And if thou go with vs, what goodnes the Lord shal shewe vnto vs, the same wil we shewe vnto thee.
33 ¶ So they departed from the [n] mount of the Lord, three daies iourney: and the Arke of the couenant of the Lord went before them in the three daies iourney, to searche out a resting place for them.
34 And the cloude of the Lord was vpō them by day, when they went out of the campe.

CHAP. XI.

The people murmureth, and is punished with fire. 4 The people lusteth after flesh. 6 They lothe Manna. 11 The weake faith of Moses. 16 The Lord deuideth the burthen of Moses to seuenty of the Ancientes. 31 The Lord sendeth quailes. 33 Their lust is punished.

1 WHen the people became "murmurers," it displeased the Lord: and the Lord heard it, therefore his wrath was kindled, and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and *cōsumed the vtmost parte of the hoste.
2 Then the people cryed vnto Moses: and when Moses prayed vnto ȳ Lord, the fire was quenched.
3 And he called the name of that place "Taberah, because the fire of ȳ Lord burnt among them.
4 ¶ And a nomber of [a] people that was among them, fell a lusting, and [b] turned away, and the children of Israel also wept and said, Who shal giue vs flesh to eat?
5 We remember the fish which we did eat in Egypt for [c] naught, the cucumbers, and the pepons, and the lekes, and the onions, and the garleke.
6 But now our soule is [d] dried away, we can se nothing but this MAN.
7 (The MAN also was as *coriander sede, & his colour like the colour of [e] Bdelium.
8 The people went about and gathered it, and ground it in milles, or bet it in morters, and baked it in a cauldrō, and made cakes of it, and the taste of it was like vnto the taste of fresh oyle.
9 And when the dewe fel downe vpon the hoste in the night, the MAN fel with it.)
10 ¶ Then Moses heard the people wepe throughout their families, euerie man in the dore of his tente, and the wrath of the Lord was grieuously kindled: also Moses was grieued.
11 And Moses said vnto the Lord, Wherefore hast thou "vexed thy seruant? and why haue I not founde [f] fauour in thy sight, seing thou hast put the charge of all this people vpon me?
12 Haue I [g] conceiued all this people? or haue I begotte them? that thou shuldest say vnto me, Cary them in thy bosome (as a nurse beareth the sucking childe) vnto the [h] land, for the which thou swarest vnto their fathers?
13 Where shulde I haue flesh to giue vnto all this people? for they wepe vnto me, saying, Giue vs flesh that we may eat.
14 I am not able to beare all this people alone, for it is to heauie for me.
15 Therefore if thou deale thus with me, I pray thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy [i] sight, kil me, that I beholde not my miserie.
16 ¶ Then ȳ Lord said vnto Moses, Gather vnto me seuenty men of ȳ Elders of Israel, whome thou knowest, that they are ȳ Eldres of the people, & gouerners ouer them, and bring them vnto ȳ Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and let them stand there with thee.
17 And I wil come downe, & talke with thee there, [k] and take of ȳ Spirit, which is vpon thee, and put vpon them, and they shal beare the burthen of the people with thee: so thou shalt not beare it alone.
18 Furthermore thou shal say vnto the people, [l] Be sanctified against tomorowe, and ye shal eat flesh: for you haue wept in the eares of the Lord, saying, Who shal giue vs flesh to eat? for we were better in Egypt: therefore the Lord wil giue you flesh, and ye shal eat.
19 Ye shal not eat one day nor two daies, nor fiue daies, neither ten daies, nor twēty daies, 20 But a whole moneth, vntil it come out at your nostrels, and be lothesome vnto you, because ye haue [m] cōtemned the Lord, which is [n] among you, and haue wept before him, saying, Why came we hither out of Egypt?
21 And Moses said, Six hundreth thousand fotemen are there of the people, [o] among whome I am: & thou saiest, I wil giue them flesh, that they may eat a moneth long.
22 Shal the shepe and the beues be slaine for them, to finde them? ether shal all ȳ fish of the sea be gathered together for them to suffice them?
23 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Is * ȳ Lords hand shortened? thou shalt se now whether my worde shal come to passe vnto thee, or no.
24 ¶ So Moses went out, and tolde ȳ people the wordes of the Lord, and gathered seuenty men of the Elders of the people, and set them round about the Tabernacle.
25 Thē the Lord came downe in a cloude, and spake vnto him, and [p] toke of the Spirit, that was vpon him, and put it vpon the seuenty Ancient men: and when the Spirit rested vpon them, then they prophecied, and did not [p] cease.

CHAP. XII.

1 Aaron and Miriam grudge against Moses. 10 Miriam is striken with leprosie, and healed at the prayer of Moses.

u Or, murmured.

1 AFterward Miriam and Aaron u spake against Moses, because of the woman of Ethiopia whome he had maried (for he had maried a a woman of Ethiopia) a Zipporah was a Midianite, and because Midian bordered on Ethiopia, it is sometime in the Scripture comprehended vnder this name. Eccl. 45, 4.

2 And they said, What? hathe the Lord spoken but onely by Moses? hathe he not spoken also by vs? and the Lord heard this.

b And so bare with their grudgings, although he knewe the.

3 (But Moses was a very *b meke man, aboue all the men that were vpon the earth)

4 And by and by the Lord said vnto Moses & vnto Aaron, & vnto Miriam, Come out ye three vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregacion: and they three came forthe.

5 Then the Lord came downe in ỹ piller of the cloude, and stode in the dore of the Tabernacle, & called Aaron and Miriam, and they bothe came forthe.

c These were the two ordinarie meanes.

6 And he said, Heare now my wordes, If there be a Prophet of the Lord among you, I wil be knowen to him by a c vision, & wil speake vnto him by dreame.

d In all Israel which was his Church. Exod. 33, 11.

7 My seruāt Moses is not so, who is faithful in d all mine house.

8 Vnto him wil I speake * mouth to mouth, and by vision, & not in darke wordes, but he e shal se the similitude of the Lord. wherefore then were ye not afraied to speake against my seruāt, euen against Moses?

e So farre as anie man was able to comprehende, which he calleth his backeparces, Exod. 33, 23.

9 Thus the Lord was very angry with them, and departed.

10 Also the cloude departed from the f Tabernacle: & beholde, Miriam was leprous like snowe: and Aarō loked vpō Miriam, and beholde, she was leprous.

f From the dore of the Tabernacle.

11 Then Aaron said vnto Moses, Alas, my Lord, I beseche thee, lay not the sinne vpon vs, which we haue foolishly committed & where in we haue sinned.

12 Let her not, I pray thee, be as one g dead, of whome the flesh is halfe consumed, when he cōmeth out of his mothers wombe.

g As a childe that commeth out of his mothers belly dead, hauing as it were but the skin.

13 Then Moses cryed vnto the Lord, saying, O God, I beseche thee, heale her now.

14 ¶ And ỹ Lord said vnto Moses, If her father had h spit in her face, should she not haue bene ashamed seuen dayes? let her be * shut out of the hoste seue dayes, & after she shal be receiued.

h In his displeasure. Leu. 15, 24.

15 So Miriā was shut out of the hoste seuen dayes, and the people remoued not, til Miriam was broght in againe.

CHAP. XIII.

4 Certeine men are sent to searche the land of Canaan. 24 They bring of the frute of the lande. 31 Caleb cōforteth the people against the discouraging of the other spies.

1 THen afterward ỹ people remoued from Hazeroth, & pitched in the wildernes of a Paran.

a That is, in Rithma, which was in Paran, Chap. 33, 18.

2 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

3 b Send thou men out to search ỹ land of Canaan which I giue vnto the children of Israel: of euerie tribe of their fathers shal ye send a man, suche as are all rulers among them.

b After the people had required it of Moses, as it is Deu. 1, 21, then the Lord spake to Moses so to do.

4 Then Moses sent them out of ỹ wildernes of Paran at the commandement of the Lord: all those men were ll heades of the children of Israel.

ll Or, rulers.

5 Also their names are these: of the tribe of Reu-of Reuben, Shammua the sonne of Zaccur:

6 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the sonne of Hori:
7 Of the tribe of Iudah, Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh:
8 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the sonne of Ioseph:
9 Of the tribe of Ephraim, [n] Oshea the sonne of Nun:
10 Of the tribe of Beniamin, Palti the sonne of Raphu:
11 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the sonne of Sodi:
12 Of the tribe of Ioseph, to wit, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the sonne of Susi:
13 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the sonne of Gemalli:
14 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the sonne of Michael:
15 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the sonne of Vophsi:
16 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the sonne of Machi.
17 These are ỹ names of the [e] men, which Moses sent to spie out the land: & Moses called the name of Oshea the sonne of Nun Iehoshua.
18 So Moses sent them to spie out ỹ land of Canaan, and said vnto them, Go vp this way toward the South, and go vp into [n] the mountaines, 19 And consider the land what it is, & the people that dwel therein, whether they be strong or weake, ether few or many,
20 Also what the land is that they dwel in, whether it be [d] good or bad: and what cities they be, that they dwel in, whether they dwel in tentes, or in walled townes:
21 And what ỹ land is: whether it be fat or leane, whether there be trees therein, or not. And be of good courage, and bring of the frute of the land (for then was the time of the first ripe grapes)
22 ¶So they went vp, and searched out the land from the wildernes of [e] Zin vnto Rehob, to go to Hamath, 23 And thei ascended toward the South, and came vnto Hebron, where were Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmai, the sonnes of [f] Anak. And [g] Hebron was buylt seuen yere before Zoan in Egypt.
24 *Then they came to the riuer of Eshcol, and cut downe thence a branche w one clustre of grapes, and they bare it vpon a barre betwene two, & broght of the pomegranates and of the figges.
25 That place was called the [n] riuer Eshcol because of the clustre of grapes, which the children of Israel cut downe thence.
26 Then after fourty daies they turned againe from searching of the land.
27 And they went and came to Moses and to Aaron and vnto all the Congregacion of the children of Israel, in the wildernes of [h] Paran, to Kadesh, and broght to them, and to all the Congregacion tidings, and shewed them ỹ frute of the land.
28 And they tolde [i] him, and said, We came vnto the land whether thou hast sente vs, & surely in floweth with * milke & honie: & here is of the frute of it.
29 Neuertheles the people be strõg that dwel in the land, and, the cities are walled and exceading great: and moreouer, we sawe the [k] sonnes of Anak there.
30 The Amalekites dwel in the Southe countrey, and the Hittites, and the Iebusites, and the Amorites dwel in the mountaines, and the Canaanites dwel by the Sea and by the coste of Iorden.
31 Then Caleb stilled the people * before Moses, and said, Let vs go vp atonce, and possesse it: for vndoutedly we shal ouercome it.
32 But the men, that went vp with him, said, We be not able to go vp against the people: for they are stronger then we.
33 So they broght vp an euil reporte of ỹ lãd which they had searched for ỹ children of Israel, saying, The land which we haue gone through to searche it out, is a land that [l] eateth vp the inhabitãts thereof: for all the people that we sawe in it are men of great stature.
34 For there we sawe gyantes, the sonnes of Anak, which come of the gyantes, so that we semed in our sight like greshoppers: and so we were in their sight.

CHAP. XIIII.

The people murmure against Moses. 10 They wolde haue stoned Caleb and Ioshua. 13 Moses pacifieth God by his prayer. 45 The people that wolde entre into the land, contrarie to Gods will, are slaine.

1 THen all the Congregacion lifted vp their voice, and cr ed: and [a] the people wept that night,
2 And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron: and the whole assemblie said vnto them, Wolde God we had dyed in the land of Egypt, or in this wildernes: wolde God we were dead.
3 Wherefore now hathe ỹ Lord broght vs into this land to fall vpon the swordes? our wiues, and our children shal be [b] a praye: were it not better for vs to returne into Egypt?
4 And they said one to another, Let vs make a captaine and returne into Egypt.

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought vs out[f] of a land that floweth with milke and hony, to kil vs in the wildernes, except thou make thy self Lord and ruler ouer vs also?

14 Also thou hast not brought vs vnto a lād that floweth with milke and honie, nether giuē vs inheritāce of fieldes and vineyardes: wilt thou[g] put out ỹ eies of these men? we wil not come vp.

15 Thē Moses waxed verie angrie, & said vnto the Lord, * Loke not vnto their offring. I haue not taken so muche as an asse from them, nether haue I hurte anie of them.

16 And Moses said vnto Korah, Be thou & all thy companie[h] before the Lord: bothe thou, thei, and Aaron to morowe:

17 And take euerie man his censor, and put incens in them, and bring ye euerie mā his cēsor before the Lord, two hundreth and fiftie censors: thou also and Aaron, euerie one his censor.

18 So thei toke euerie man his cēsor, and put fire in them, and laied incens thereon, and stode in the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion with Moses & Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all thei[i] multitude against them vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion: then the glorie of the Lord appeared vnto all the Congregacion.

20 And the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron, saying, 21 Separate your selues from among this Congregacion, ỹ I may consume them atonce.

22 And thei fel vpō their faces and said, O God ỹ God of ỹ spirits, [l] of all flesh, hathe not one man onely sinned, and wilt thou be wrath with all the Congregacion?

23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

24 Speake vnto the Cōgregacion & say, Get you away frō about the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.

25 Then Moses rose vp, & went vnto Dathan and Abiram, and the Elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake vnto the Cōgregaciō, saying, Departe, I pray you, from the tētes of these wicked men, and touche no thing of theirs, lest ye perish [k] in all their sinnes.

27 So thei gate them away from the Tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, & Abiram on euerie side: and Dathan, & Abiram came out and stode in the dore of their tentes with their wiues, and their sonnes, & their litle children.

28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shal knowe that the Lord hathe sent me to do all these workes; for I haue not done them of mine owne [m] minde.

29 If these men dye ỹ commune death of all men, or if thei be visited after the visitacion of all men, the Lord hathe not sent me.

35 But there came out a fire from the Lord, and cōsumed the two hundreth and fiftie men that offred the incens.

39 Thē Eleazar the Priest toke the brasen censers, which thei, that were burnt, had offred, and made broad plates of them for a couering of the Altar.

13 And the first ripe of all that is in their land, which they shal bring vnto the Lord, shalbe thine: all the cleane in thine house shal eat of it.

15 All that first openeth ỹ * matrice of anie flesh, which they shal offer vnto the Lord of man or beast, shalbe thine: but the first borne of man shalt thou redeme, and the first borne of the vn cleane beast shalt thou redeme.

17 But the first borne of a kowe, or the first borne of a shepe, or the first borne of a goat shalt thou not [i] redeme: for thei are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood at the altar, and thou shalt burne theyr fat: it is a sacrifice made by fire for a swete sauour vnto the Lord.

18 And ỹ flesh of them shalbe thine, *as ỹ shake breast, and as the right shulder shalbe thine.

19 All the heaue offrings of the holy things which the children of Israel shal offer vnto the Lord, haue I giuen thee, & thy sonnes, and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: it is a perpetual couenant [k] of salt before ỹ Lord, to thee and to thy sede with thee.

20 ¶ And ỹ Lord said vnto Aaron, Thou shalt haue none inheritance in their [l] land, nether shalt thou haue anie parte amõg them: * I am thy parte & thine inheritace among the children of Israél.

24 For the tithes of the children of Israel, which they shal offer as an offring vnto ỹ Lord, I haue giuen the Leuites for an inheritance: therefore I haue said vnto them, Among ỹ children of Israel ye shal possesse none inheritance.

25 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

26 Speake also vnto the Leuites & say vnto them, When ye shal take of the childrẽ of Israel the tithes, which I haue giuẽ you of them for your inheritãce, then shal ye take an heaue offring of that same for the Lord, euen the tenth parte of the tithe.

27 And your heaue offring shalbe rekened vnto you, as the [o] corne of the barne, or as the abundance of the wine presse.

28 So ye shal also offer an heaue offring vnto the Lord of all your tithes, which ye shal receiue of ỹ children of Israel, and ye shal giue thereof the Lords heaue offring to Aaron the Priest.

29 Ye shal offer of all your [p] gifts all the Lords heaue offrings: of all the [q] fat of the same shal ye offer the holy things thereof.

30 Therefore thou shalt say vnto them, When ye haue offred the fat thereof, then it shalbe counted vnto the Leuites, as the encrease of the corne floore, or as the encrease of the wine presse.

2 The sacrifice of the red kowe. 9 The sprinkling water. 11 He that toucheth the dead. 14 The man that dyeth in a tent.

1 And the Lord spake to Moses, and to Aaron, saying, a According to this lawe & ceremonie, ye shal sacrifice ỹ red kowe.

2 a This is the ordinance of the lawe, which the Lord hathe commanded, saying, Speake vnto the children of Israel that they bring thee a red kowe without blemish, where in is no spot, vpon the which neuer came yoke.

3 And ye shal giue her vnto Eleazar the Priest, that he may bring her * without the hoste, and cause her to b be slaine before his face.

Ebr. 13, 11.

b By another priest.

4 Then shal Eleazar the Priest take of her blood with his * finger, & sprinkle it before the Tabernacle of the Congregacion seuen times,

Ebr. 9, 13.

5 And cause the kowe to be burnt in his sight: with her *skin, & her flesh, and her blood, and her doung shal he burne her.

Exod. 29, 13. Leu. 4, 11.

6 Then shal the Priest take ceder wood, & hyssope and skarlet lace, and cast thē in the middes of the fire where the kowe burneth.

c Meaning, Eleazar.

7 Then shal the c Priest wash his clothes, and he shal wash his flesh in water, and then come into the hoste, and the Priest shalbe vncleane vnto the euen.

d The inferior Priest who killed her & burned her.

8 Also he that d burneth her, shal wash his clothes in water and wash his flesh in water, and be vncleane vntil euen.

9 And a man that is cleane, shal take vp the ashes of the kowe, & put them without the hoste in a cleane place: and it shalbe kept for the Congregacion of the children of Israel for e a sprinkling water: it is a sinne offring.

e Or the water of separation, because that they that were separate for their vncleannes, were sprinkled therewith & made cleane, Chap. 8, 7. It is also called holy water, be cause it was ordeined to an holy vse, Chap. 5, 17.

10 Therefore he that gathereth the ashes of the kowe, shal wash his clothes, and remaine vncleane vntil euen: and it shalbe vnto the children of Israel, and vnto the stranger that dwelleth among them, a statute for euer.

11 He that toucheth the dead bodie of anie man, shalbe vncleane euen seuen daies.

f With the sprinkling water.

12 He shal purifie him selfe f there with the third day, and the seuenth day he shalbe cleane: but if he purifie not him selfe the third day, then the seuenth day he shal not be cleane.

13 Whosoeuer toucheth the corps of anie man that is dead, and purgeth not him selfe, defileth the Tabernacle of the Lord, & that persone shalbe g cut of from Israel, because the sprinkling water was not sprinkled vpon him: he shalbe vncleane, and his vnclennes shal remaine stil vpon him.

g So that he shulde not be esteemed to be of the holy people, but as a polluted & excommunicate person.

14 This is the lawe, When a man dyeth in a tent, all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shalbe vnclean seuen dayes, 15 And all the vessels that be open, which haue no "couering fastened vpō them, shalbe vncleane.

" Ebr. a couering of cloth.

16 Also whosoeuer toucheth one that is slaine with a sworde in ỹ fielde, or a dead persone, or a bone of a dead man, or a graue, shalbe vncleane seuen dayes.

17 Therefore for an vncleane persone thei shal take of the burnt ashes of the h sin offring, and i pure water shal be put there to in a vessel.

h Of the red kowe burnt for sinne.

i Water of the fountein or riuer.

18 And k cleane persone shal take hyssope and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it vpō the tent, and vpō all the vessels, and on the persones that were therein, and vpon him that touched the bone, or ỹ slaine, or the dead, or the graue.

k One of the priests which is cleane.

19 And the cleane persone shal sprinkle vpon the vncleane the third day, and the seuēth day, and he shal purifie him selfe the seuenth day, & l wash his clothes & wash him selfe in water, & shalbe cleane at euen.

l Because he had bene among them that were vncleane: or els had touched the water, as ver. 21.

20 But the man that is vncleane and purifieth not him selfe, that persone shalbe cut of from among the Congregacion, because he hathe defiled the Sanctuarie of the Lord: and the sprinkling water hathe not bene sprinkled vpon him: therefore shal he be vncleane.

21 And it shalbe a perpetual lawe vnto thē, that he that sprinkleth the sprinkling water, shal wash his clothes: also he that toucheth the sprinkling water, shal be vncleane vntil euen.

22 And whatsoeuer the vncleane persone toucheth, shalbe vncleane: and the persone that toucheth m him, shalbe vncleane vntil the euen.

m That is vncleane.

1 Miriam dyeth. 2 The people murmure. 8 They haue water out of the rocke. 14 Edom denyeth the Israelites passage. 25. 28. The death of Aaron, in whose rowme Eleazar succedeth.

1 Then the childrē of Israel came with the whole Congregacion to the desert of Zin in the first a moneth, and the people abode at Kadesh: where b Miriā dyed, and was buryed there.

a This was fourtie yeres after their departure from Egypt.

b Moses and Aarons sister.

2 But there was no water for the Cōgregacion: and they c assembled them selues against Moses and against Aaron.

c Another rebellion was in Raphidim Exod. 17, and this was in Kadesh.

3 And the people chode with Moses, and spake, saying, Wolde God we had perished, *when our brethren dyed before ỹ Lord.

Chap. 11, 33. Exod. 17, 2.

4 *Why haue ye thus broght the Cōgregacion of the Lord vnto this wildernes, ỹ both we, and our cattel shulde dye there?

there?
5 Wherefore now haue ye made vs to come vp from Egypt, to bring vs into this miserable place, which is no place of sede, nor figs, nor vines, nor pomgranates? nether is there anie water to drinke.
6 Then Moses and Aaron went from ỹ assemblie vnto the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, and fel vpon their faces: and the glorie of ỹ Lord appeared vnto them.
7 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
8 Take the [d] rod, and gather thou and thy brother Aaron the Congregacion together, and speake ye vnto the rocke before their eies, & it shal giue forthe his water, and thou shalt bring them water out of the rocke: so thou shalt giue the Congregacion, and their beastes drinke.
9 Then Moses toke the rod from before the Lord, as he had commanded him.
10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the Congregacion together before the rocke, and Moses said vnto them, Heare now, ye rebels: [e] shal we bring you water out of this rocke?
11 Then Moses lift vp his hand, and with his rod he smote the rocke twise, and ỹ water came out abundantly: so ỹ Congregacion, and their beasts dranke.
12 ¶ Againe the Lord spake vnto Moses & to Aarō, Because ye beleued me not, to [f] sanctifie me in the presence of the children of Israel, therefore ye shal not bring this Congregacion into the land which I haue giuen them.
13 This is the water [g] of Meribah, because the children of Israel stroue with the Lord, and he [h] was sanctified in them.
14 ¶ Then Moses sent messengers from Kadesh vnto ỹ King of [i] Edom, saying, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the trauaile that we haue had,
15 How our fathers went downe into Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, where the Egyptians handled vs euil & our fathers.
16 But when we cryed vnto the Lord, he heard our voyce, and sent an Angel, & hathe broght vs out of Egypt, & beholde, we are in the citie Kadesh, in thine vtmost border.
17 I pray thee that we may passe through thy countrey: we wil not go through the fieldes nor the vineyardes, nether wil we drinke of the water of the welles: we wil go by the [l] kings way, and nether turne vnto the right hand nor to the left, vntil we be past thy borders.
18 And Edom answered him, [m] Thou shalt not passe by me, lest I come out against thee with the sworde.
19 Then the children of Israel said vnto him, We will go vp by the hie way: & if I and my cattel drinke of thy water, I wil the paye for it: I wil onely (without anie harme) go through on my fete.
20 He answered againe, Thou shalt not go through. Then Edom came out against him with muche people, and with a mighty power.
21 Thus Edom denied to giue Israel passage through his countrie: wherefore Israel [k] turned away from him.
22 ¶ And when ỹ children of Israel with all the Congregacion departed from *Kadesh, they came vnto ỹ mount Hor.
23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses and to Aaron in the mount Hor nere the coste of the land of Edom, saying,
24 Aaron shal be [l] gathered vnto his people: for he shal not entre into the land, ẅ I haue giuen vnto the children of Israel, because ye [n] disobeied my commandement at the water [n] of Meribah.
25 Take *Aaron and Eleazar his sonne, & bring them vp into the mount Hor, 26 And cause Aaron to put of his garments & put them vpō Eleazar his sonne: for Aaron shal be gathered to his fathers, and shal dye there.
27 And Moses did as the Lord had commanded & they went vp into the mount Hor in the sight of all the Congregacion.
28 And Moses put of Aarōs clothes, and put them vpon Eleazar his sonne: * so Aaron dyed there in the top of ỹ mount and Moses and Eleazar came downe from of the mount.
29 When all the Congregacion saw that Aaron was dead, all the house of Israel wept [o] for Aaron thirtie dayes.

CHAP. XXII.

Balak ſendeth for Balaam to curſe the Iſraelites. 12 The Lord forbideth him to go. 22 The Angel of the Lord meteth him & his aſſe ſpeaketh. 38 Balaam proteſteth that he wil ſpeake nothing, but that which the Lord putteth in his mouthe.

1 After,

1 AFter, the childrē of Israel departed and pitched in the plaine of Moab on the [a] other side of Iorden from Iericho.

a Being at Iericho, it was beyonde Iordē: but where the Israelites were, it was on this side.

2 ¶ Now Balak the sonne of Zippor sawe all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And the Moabites were sore afraide of the people, because they were manie, and Moab [b] freated against the children of Israel.

b Or, was vexed.

4 Therefore Moab said vnto the [b] Elders of Midian, Now shal this multitude licke vp all that are rounde about vs, as an oxe licketh vp ỹ grasse of the field: and Balak the sonne of Zippor was King of the Moabites at that time.

b Which were the heades & gouerners.

Iosh. 24, 9.

5 * He sent messengers therefore vnto Balaam the sonne of Beor to Pethor (which is by the [c] riuer of the lād of the children of his folke) to call him, saying, Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt, which couer the face of ỹ earth, and lie ouer against me.

c To wit, Euphrates, vpon ỹ which stode this citie Pethor.

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, and curse me this people (for they are stronger then I) so it may be that I shal be able to smite them and to driue thē out of the land: for I knowe that he, whome thou blessest, is blessed, and he whome thou curssest, shal be cursed.

7 And the Elders of Moab, and the Elders of Midian departed, hauing [d] the reward of ỹ soothsaying in their hād, and thei came vnto Balaam, & tolde him the wordes of Balak.

d Thinking to bribe him w giftes to curse the Israelites.

8 Who answered them, Tary here this night, and I wil giue you an answer, as the Lord shal say vnto me. So [e] the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

e Whome before he called Elders: meaning, the gouerners, & after calleth them seruants: that is, subiectes to their King.

9 Thē God came vnto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam said vnto God, Balak ỹ sonne of Zippor, King of Moab hathe sent vnto me, saying, 11 Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt and coureth ỹ face of the earth: come nowe, curse them for my sake: so it may be that I shal be able to ouercome thē in battel, and to driue thē out.

f He warned him by a dreame ỹ he shulde not cosent to ỹ kings wicked requeste.

12 And God [f] said vnto Balaam, Go not thou with them, nether curse ỹ people, for they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose vp in the morning, and said vnto the princes of Balak: Returne vnto your land: for the Lord hathe refused to giue [g] me leaue to go with you.

g Els he shewed him selfe willing, couetousnes had so blinded his heart.

14 So the princes of Moab rose vp, and went vnto Balak, and said Balaam hathe refused to come with vs.

15 ¶ Balak yet sent againe mo princes, and more honorable then they.

16 Who came to Balaā, and said to him, Thus saieth Balak the sonne of Zippor, [h] Be not thou stayed, I pray thee, from comming vnto me.

h The wicked seke by all meās to further their naughty enterprises, though they know we that God is against them.

17 For I wil promote thee vnto great honour, and wil do whatsoeuer thou sayest vnto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Balaam answered, and sayd vnto the seruantes of Balak, *If Balak wolde giue me his house ful of siluer and golde, I can not go beyonde the worde of the Lord my God, to do lesse or more.

*Chap. 24, 13.

19 But nowe, I pray you, tary here this night, that I may wit, what the Lord wil say vnto me [i] more.

i Because he tēpted God to require him contrary to his cōmandement, his petition was granted, but it turned to his owne condemnation.

20 And God came vnto Balaā by night, and said vnto him, If the men come to call thee, rise vp, and go with them: but onely what thing I say vnto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 So Balaam rose vp early, and sadled his asse, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 And ỹ wrath of God was kindled, because he [k] went: & ỹ angel of the Lord stode in the way to be against him, as he rode vpon his asse, and his two seruantes were with him.

k Moued rather with couetousnes, them to obei God.

23 And * when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord stand in the way and his sworde drawen in his hand, the asse turned out of the waie and went into the field, but Balaam smote the asse, to turne her into the way.

* 2. Pet. 2, 16. Iude 11.

24 [l] Againe the Angel of the Lord stode in a path of the vineyardes, hauing a wall on the one side, and a wall on the other.

l The seconde time.

25 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, she thrust her selfe vnto the wall, and dasht Balaams fote against the wall: wherefore he smote her againe.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord went further, and stode in a narowe place, where was no way to turne, either to the right hand, or to the left.

27 And when the asse sawe the Angel of the Lord, she lay downe vnder Balaam: therefore Balaam was very wrath, and smote the asse with a staffe.

m Or, fel.

28 Then the Lord [m] opened the mouth of the asse, and she said vnto Balaam, What haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smitten me nowe thre times?

m Gaue her power to speake.

29 And Balaam said vnto the asse, Because thou hast mocked me: I wolde there were a sworde in mine hand, for now wolde I kil thee.

30 And the asse said vnto Balaam, Am not I thine asse, which thou hast ridden vpon [n] since thy first time vnto this day? haue I vsed at anie time to do thus vnto thee? Who said, Nay.

n Since thou hast bene my master.

31 And the Lord [o] opened the eies of Balaam, and he sawe ỹ Angel of the Lord standing in the way with his sworde drawen in his hand: then he bowed him selfe, and fel flat on his face.

o For whose eyes the Lord doeth not open, they can nether se his angre, nor his loue.

32 And the Angel of the Lord said vnto him, Wherefore hast thou now smitten thine asse thre times? beholde, I came out to withstand thee, because thy P way is not straight before me.

P Bothe thy heart is corrupt and thine entreprise wicked.

33 But the asse sawe me, and turned fro me now thre times for els, if she had not turned fro me, surely I had euen now slaine thee, and saued her aliue.

34 Then Balaam said vnto the Angel of the Lord, I haue sinned: for I wist not that thou stodest in ý way "against me: now therefore if it displease thee, I wil turne" home againe.

"Or, before me, or, to mete me.

"Ebr. I wil retourne to me.

35 But the Angel said vnto Balaam, Go with ý men: but q what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou speake. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

q Because his heart was euil his charg was renued, that he shulde not pretend ignorance.

36 And when Balak heard that Balaam came, he went out to mete him vnto a citie of Moab, which is in the r border of Arnon, euen in the vtmost coste.

r Nere the place, where the Israelites caped.

37 Then Balak said vnto Balaam, Did I not send for thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not vnto me? am I not able in dede to promote thee vnto honour.

38 And Balaam made answer vnto Balak, Lo, I am come vnto thee, & can I now say s anie thing at all? the worde that God putteth in my mouth, that shal I speake.

s Of my selfe I can speake no thing: onely what God reueleth, ý wil I vtter, seme it good or bad.

39 So Balaam went with Balak, and thei came vnto the citie of "Huzoth.

"Or, of stretes. or, a populous citie.

40 Then Balak offred bullockes, and shepe, and sent thereof to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And on the morow Balak toke Balaam, and broght him vp into the hie places of t Baal, that thence he might se the vtmost parte of the people.

t Where the idole Baal was worshiped.

1 Balaam causeth seuen Altars to be buylt. 5 God teacheth him what to answer. 8 In stede of cursing he blesseth Israel. 19 God is not like man.

1 AND Balaam said vnto Balak', Buylde me here seuen altars, and prepare me here seuen bullockes, and seuen rams.

2 And Balak did as Balaam said, and a Balak and Balaam offred on euerie altar a bullocke and a ram.

a For among ý Gētiles ý Kings oft times vsed to sacrifice, as did ý Priests.

3 Then Balaam said vnto Balak, Stand by thy burnt offring, & I wil go, if so be that the Lord wil come and mete me: & whatsoeuer he sheweth me, I wil tel thee: so he 'went forthe alone.

'Or, went vp hier.

4 And God b met Balaam, and Balaam said vnto him, I haue prepared seuen altars, & haue offred vpon euerie altar a bullocke and a ram.

b Appeared vnto him.

5 And the Lord c put an answer in Balaams mouth, and said, Go againe to Balak, and say on this wise.

c Taught him what to say.

6 So when he returned vnto him, lo, he stode by his burnt offring, he, & all the princes of Moab.

7 Then he vttered his 'parable, and said, Balak the King of Moab hathe broght me from 'Aram out of the mountaines of the East, saying, Come, curse Iaakob for my sake: come, and d deteste Israel.

'Or, prophecie.

"Or, Syria.

d Cause that all men may hate & deteste them.

8 How shal I curse, where God hathe not cursed? or how shal I deteste, where the Lord hathe not deteSted?

9 For from the top of the roks I did se him, and from the hils I did beholde him: lo, the people shal dwel by them selues, and shal not be rekened among the e nacions.

e But shal haue religion & lawes a parte.

10 Who can tel the f dust of Iaakob, and the nomber of the fourth parte of Israel? Let me g dye the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his.

f The infinite multitude, as ý dust of ý earth.

g The feare of Gods iudgements caused him to wish to be ioyned to ý housholde of Abraham thus ý wicked haue their consciences wounded when thei consider Gods iudgements.

11 Then Balak said vnto Balaam, W hat hast thou done vnto me? I toke thee to curse mine enemies, and beholde, thou hast blessed them altogether.

12 And he answered, and said, Must I not take hede to speake that, ẅ the Lord hathe put in my mouth?

13 And Balak said vnto him, Come I pray thee, with me vnto an other place, whence thou maiest se them, and thou shalt se but the vtmost parte of them, and shalt not se them all: therefore curse them out of that place for my sake.

14 ¶ And he broght him into h Sede-sophim to the top of Pisgah and buylt seuen altars, & offred a bullocke, & a ram on euerie altar.

'Or, into the field of them that spied: to wit, lest the enemy shulde approche.

15 After, he said vnto Balak, Stand here by thy burnt offring, and I wil mete the Lord yonder.

16 And the Lord met Balaam, and * put an answer in his mouth, and said, Go againe vnto Balak, and saie thus.

Chap. 22, 35.

17 And when he came to him, beholde, he stode by his burnt offring, and ý princes of Moab with him: so Balak said vnto him, W hat hathe the Lord said?

18 And he vttered his parable, & said, Rise vp, Balak, and heare: hearken vnto me, thou sonne of Zippor.

19 h God is not as man, that he shulde lie, nether as the sonne of man that he shulde repent: hathe he said, and shal he not do it? and hathe he spoken, and shal he not accomplish it?

h Gods enemies are compelled to confesse that his gouernemēt is iuste, cōstant, & without chāge or repentāce

20 Beholde, I haue receiued commandement to blesse: for he hathe blessed, & I can not alter it.

21 He seeth none iniquitie in Iaakob, nor seeth no transgression in Israel: the Lord his God is with him, & ý i ioyful shoute of a King is among them.

i Thei triūphe as victorious Kings ouer their enemies.

22 God broght them out of Egypt: their strength is as an vnicorne.

23 For

23 For there is no sorcerie in Iaakob, nor sooth saying in Israel: [k] according to this time it shalbe said of Iaakob and of Israel, What hathe God wroght?

24 Beholde, the people shal rise vp as a lion, and lift vp himself as a yong lion: he shal not lie downe, til he eat of the praie, and til he drinke the blood of the slaine.

25 ¶ Then Balak said vnto Balaam, Nether curse, nor blesse them at all.

26 But Balaam answered, and said vnto Balak, Tolde not I thee, saying, All that the Lord speaketh, that must I do?

27 ¶ Againe Balak said vnto Balaam, Come, I pray thee, I wil bring thee vnto another [l] place, if so be it wil please God, that thou maiest thence curse them for my sake.

28 So Balak broght Balaam vnto ỹ top of Peor, that loketh toward Ieshimon.

29 Then Balaam said vnto Balak, Make me here seuen altars, and prepare me here seuen bullockes, and seuen rams.

30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offred a bullocke and a ram on euerie altar.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 Balaam prophecieth of the great prosperitie that shulde come vnto Israel. 17 Also of the comming of Christ. 20 The destruction of the Amalekites, and of the Kenites.

1 WHen Balaam sawe that it pleased the Lord, to blesse Israel, then he went not, *as certeine times before, to set diuinacions but set his face towarde the [a] wildernes.

2 And Balaam lift vp his eies, and loked vpon Israel, which dwelt according to their tribes, and the Spirit of God came vpon him.

3 *And he vttered his parable, and said, Balaam ỹ sonne of Beor hathe said, and the man, whose eies [b] were shut vp, hathe said,

4 He hathe said, which heard the wordes of God, and sawe the vision of the Almightie, and [c] falling in a trance had his eies opened.

5 ¶ How goodlie are thy tents ô Iaakob, & thine habitacions, ô Israel?

6 As the valleis, are thei stretched forthe, as gardens by the riuers side, as the [*] aloe trees, which the Lord hathe planted, as the cedars, beside the waters.

7 The [d] water droppeth out of his bucket, and his sede shalbe in many waters, & his King shalbe hier then [e] Agag, & his kingdome shalbe exalted.

8 God broght him out of Egypt: his strength shalbe as an vnicorne: he shal eat the nacions his enemies, and bruise their bones, and shoote them through with his arrowes.

9 * He coucheth and lieth downe as a yong lyon, & as a lyon: who shal stirre him vp? blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

10 Then Balak was verie angry with Balaam, and [f] smote his hands together: so Balak said vnto Balaam, I sent for thee to curse mine enemies, and beholde, thou hast blessed them now thre times.

11 Therefore now flee vnto thy place: I thoght surely to promote thee vnto honour, but lo, the [g] Lord hathe kept thee backe from honour.

12 Then Balaam answered Balak, Tolde I not also thy messegers, which thou sentest vnto me, saying, 13 If Balak wolde giue me his house ful of siluer and golde, I can not passe the commandemēt of the Lord, to do either good or bad of mine owne minde? what the Lord shal commande, that same wil I speake.

14 And now beholde, I go vnto my people: come, I wil [*] haduertise thee what this people shal do to thy folke in the later daies.

15 And he vttered his parable, and said, Balaam the sonne of Beor hathe said, and ỹ man whose eies were shut vp, hathe said.

16 He hathe said that heard the wordes of God, & hathe the knowledge of the moste high, & sawe the vision of ỹ Almightie, and falling in a trance had his eies opened:

17 I shal se him, but not now: I shal beholde him, but not nere: there shal come a [i] starre of Iaakob, and a scepter shal rise of Israel, and shal smite the [k] coastes of Moab, and destroye all the sonnes of [l] Sheth.

18 And Edom shalbe possessed, and Seir shalbe a possession to their enemies: but Israel shal do valiantly.

19 He also that shal haue dominion shalbe of Iaakob, and shal destroye ỹ remnant of the [m] citie.

20 ¶ And when he loked on Amalek, he vttered his parable, and said, Amalek was the [n] first of the nacions: but his later end shal come to destruction.

21 And he loked on the [o] Kenites, and vttered his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling place, and [p] put thy nest in the rocke.

22 Neuertheles, [q] the Kenite shalbe spoiled vntil Ashur cary thee away captiue.

23 Againe he vttered his parable, and said, Alas, [r] who shal liue when God doeth this?

24 The shippes also shal come from the coastes of [q] Chittim and subdue Ashur, and shal subdue Eber, and [r] he also shal come to destruction.

2 The people committeth fornication with the daughters of Moab. 9 Phinehas killeth Zimri & Cozbi. 11 God maketh his couenant with Phinehas. 17 God commaudeth to kil the Midianites.

1 NOw whiles Israel abode in Shittim, the people began to commit whoredome with the [a] daughters of Moab:

2 Which called the people vnto the sacrifice of their gods, & the people ate, & bowed downe to their gods.

3 And Israel [b] coupled him self vnto Baal Peor: wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel:

4 And the Lord said vnto Moses, * Take all the heades of the people, & hang them vp [c] before the Lord against the sonne, that ȝ indignacion of the Lords wrath may be turned from Israel.

5 Then Moses said vnto the iudges of Israel, Euerie one slay his [d] men that were ioyned vnto Baal Peor.

6 ¶ And beholde, one of the children of Israel came and broght vnto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the Congregacion of the children of Israel, [e] who wept before the dore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

7 *And when Phinehas ȝ sonne of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest sawe it, he rose vp from the middes of the Congregacion, and toke a [f] speare in his hand,

8 And followed the man of Israel into ȝ tent, & thrust them bothe through: to wit, the man of Israel, and the woman, [g] through her belly: so the plague ceased from the children of Israel.

9 *And there died in that plague, foure & twentie thousand.

10 Then the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

11 *Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the Priest, hathe turned mine anger away from the children of Israel, while he [f] was zelous for my sake among them: therefore I haue not consumed the children of Israel in my iealousie.

12 Wherefore saye to him, Beholde, *I giue vnto him my couenant of peace, 13 And he shal haue it, and his sede after him, euen the couenant of the Priests office for euer, because he was zelous for his God, and hathe made an [g] atonement for the children of Israel.

14 And the name of the Israelite that slayne, which was killed with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri the sonne of Salu, prince [h] of the familie of the Simeonites.

15 And the name of the Midianitish woman, that was slaine, was Cozbi the daughter of Zur, who was head ouer ȝ people of his fathers house in Midian.

16 ¶ Againe the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

17 *Vexe the Midianites, and smite them:

18 For they trouble you with their [i] wiles, wherewith they haue beguiled you as concerning Peor, & as concerning their sister Cozbi the daughter of a prince of Midian, which was slaine in the day of the plague because of Peor.

CHAP. XXX.

3 Concerning vowes. 4 The Vowe of the maid, 7 Of the wife, 10 Of the widow, or deuorced.

1 THen Moses spake vnto ỹ children of Israel according to all that the Lord had commanded "him, " Ebr. Moses.
2 Moses also spake vnto the heades of ỹ tribes a concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which ỹ Lord hathe commanded, a Because thei might declare them to the Israelites.
3 Whosoeuer voweth a vowe vnto the Lord, or sweareth an othe to binde him "selfe by a bonde, he shal not breake his " promes, but shal do according to all that proceadeth out of his mouth.
4 If a woman also vowe a vowe vnto the Lord, & binde her selfe by a bonde, being in her fathers house, in the time of her youth, 5 And her father heare her vowe & bõde, where with she hathe bounde her selfe, and her father holde his b peace concerning her, then all her vowes shal stand & euerie bonde, wherewith she hathe bounde her selfe, shal stand.
b For in so doing, he doeth approue her.
6 But if her c father disalowe her the same daye that he heareth all her vowes & bondes, where with she hathe bounde her selfe, they shal not be of value, and the Lord wil forgiue her, because her father disalowed her.
c By not approuing or consenting to her vowe.
7 And if she haue an housband when she voweth or d pronounceth ght with her lippes, wherewith she bindeth herselfe, d Ether by othe, or solenne promise.
8 If her housband heard it and holdeth his peace concerning her, the same day he heareth it, then her vowe shal stand, and her bondes wherewith she bindeth her selfe shal stand in effect.
9 But if her housband disalowe her ỹ same day ỹ he heareth it, then shal he make her vowe ỹ she hathe made, & that that she hathe pronoũced with her lippes, wherewith she bõde her e selfe, of none effect: and ỹ Lord wil forgiue her.
e For she is in subiection of her housband, & can performe notig without his consent.
10 But euerie vowe of a widowe, and of her ỹ is deuorced (wherewith she hathe bõde her selfe) shal stad in f effect with her.
f For ther are not vnder ỹ authoritie of ỹ mã.
11 And if she vowed in her housbandes g house, or bonde her selfe streictly with an othe, g Her housband being aliue.
12 And her housband hathe heard it, & helde his peace concerning her, not disalowing her, then all her vowes shal stand, & euerie bonde, wherewith she bound her selfe, shal stand in effect.
13 But if her housband disanulled them, the same day that he heard them, nothing that proceaded out of her lippes concerning her vowes or concerning "her bõdes, shal stand in effect: for her housbãd hathe disanulled them: and the " Ebr. the bõdes of her soule

Lord wil forgiue her.

14 So euerie vowe, and euerie othe or bonde, made to [h]humble the soule, her housband may stablish it, or her housband may breake it.

15 But if her housband holde his peace concerning her from [i]day to day, then he stablisheth all her vowes and all her bondes which she hathe made, he hathe confirmed them because he holde his peace concerning her the same day that he heard them.

16 But if he [k]breake them after that he hathe heard them, then shal he beare her iniquitie.

17 These are the ordinances which the Lord commanded Moses, betwene a man & his wife, & betwene the father and his daughter, being yong in her fathers house.

h To mortifie her selfe by abstinence, or other bodely exercises.

i And warne her not the same day that he heareth it, as vers. 9.

k Not the same day he heard them, but some day after, ỹ sinne shalbe imputed to him & not to her.

CHAP. XXXI.

5 Fiue Kings of Midian & Balaam are slaine. 18 Onely the maides are reserued alme. 27 The praye is equally deuided. 49 A present giuen of Israel.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 *Reuenge the children of Israel of the Midianites, & afterward shalt thou be [a]gathered vnto thy people.

3 And Moses spake to the people, saying, Harnes some of you vnto warre, and let them go against Midian, to execute the vengeance of the Lord [a] against Midian.

4 A thousand of euerie tribe through out all the tribes of Israel, shal ye send to the warre.

5 So there were taken out of the thousands of Israel, twelue thousand prepared vnto warre, of euerie tribe a thousand.

6 And Moses sent them to the warre, euen a thousand of euerie tribe, and sent [b]thē with Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest to the warre & the holy instruments: that is, the trumpets to blowe were in his hand.

7 And they warred against Midian, as the Lord had commanded Moses, & slue all the males.

8 They slue also the Kings of Midian among them that were slaine: * Eui and Rekem, & Zur, & Hur & Reba fiue kings of Midian, and thei slue [c] Balaam the sonne of Beor with the sworde:

9 But the children of Israel toke the women of Midian prisoners, and their children, & spoyled all their cattel, & all their flockes, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities, wherein they dwelt, and all their [n] villages with fire.

11 And they toke all the spoyle & all the praye bothe of men & beastes.

12 And they brought the [d] captiues and that [ẇ] they had taken, and the spoyle vnto Moses and to Eleazar the Priest, and vnto the Congregacion of the children of Israel, into the campe in the plaine of Moab, which was by Iorden toward Iericho.

13 ¶ Then Moses and Eleazar the Priest, & all the princes of the Congregacion went out of the campe to mete them.

14 And Moses was angry with the captaines of the hoste, with the captaines ouer thousands, & captaines ouer hundreds, which came from the warre and battel.

15 And Moses said vnto them, What? haue ye saued all the [e] women?

16 Beholde, * these caused the children of Israel through the *counsel of Balaam to commit a trespas against the Lord, [f] as concerning Peor, and there came a plague among the Congregacion of the Lord.

17 Now therefore, *slay all the males among the [g] children, & kil all the women that haue knowen man by carnal copulation.

18 But all the women children that haue not knowen carnal copulation, kepe aliue for your selues.

19 And ye shal remaine without the hoste seuen dayes, all that haue killed any persone, *and all that haue touched anie dead, & purifie bothe your selues & your prisoners the third day and the seuenth.

20 Also ye shal purifie euerie garment and all that is made of skins & all worke of goates heere, & all things made of wood.

21 ¶ And Eleazar the Priest said vnto the men of warre, which went to the battel, This is the ordinance [n] of the lawe which the Lord * commanded Moses,

22 As for golde, and siluer, brasse, yron, tynne, and lead:

23 Euen all that may abyde the fire, ye shal make it go through the fire, and it shalbe cleane: yet, it shalbe [h] purified with *the water of purificacion: and all that suffreth not the fire, ye shal cause to passe by the [i] water.

24 Ye shal wash also your clothes the seuenth day, and ye shalbe cleane: and afterward ye shal come into the Hoste.

25 ¶ And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

26 Take the summe of the praie that was taken, bothe of persones and of cattel, thou and Eleazar the Priest, & the chief fathers of the Congregacion.

28 And thou shalt take a tribute vnto the Lord of the [k] men of warre, which went out to battel: one personne of fiue hundreth, bothe of the persones, and of the beues, & of the asses, and of the shepe.

k Of the praie that falleth to the soldiers.

29 Ye shal take it of their halfe and giue it vnto Eleazar the Priest, as an heaue offring of the Lord.

30 But of the halfe of the children of Israel thou shalt take [l] one, taken out of fiftie, bothe of the persones, of the beues, of the asses, and of the shepe, euen of all the cattel: and thou shalt giue them vnto the Leuites, which haue the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord.

l The Israelites w^ch had not bene at warre, of euerie fiftieth paied one to the Lord: & the soldiers, one of euerie fiue hundreth.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the Priest did as the Lord had commanded Moses.

m This is the porcion that ỹ soldiers gaue to the Lord.

37 And the [m] Lords tribute of the shepe was six hundreth and seuentie and fiue.

38 And the beues were six and thirtie thousand, whereof the Lords tribute was seuentie and two.

39 And the asses were thirtie thousand and fiue hundreth, whereof ỹ Lords tribute was thre score and one:

41 And Moses gaue the tribute of the Lords offring vnto Eleazar the Priest, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

o Of that part which was giuen vnto them, in deuiding the spoile.

42 And of the [o] halfe of the childrē of Israel, which Moses deuided from the men of warre,

43 (For the halfe that perteined vnto ỹ Congregacion) was thre hundreth thirtie and seuen thousand shepe and fiue hundreth,

44 And six and thirtie thousand beues,

45 And thirtie thousand asses, and fiue hundreth, p Which had not bene at warre.

47 Moses, I say, toke of the halfe that perteined vnto the [p] children of Israel, one taken out of fiftie, bothe of the persones & of the cattel, and gaue them vnto the Leuites, which haue the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

48 ¶ Then the captaines which were ouer thousands, of the hoste, the captaines ouer ỹ thousands, and the captaines ouer the hundreds came vnto Moses:

49 And said to Moses, Thy seruants haue taken the summe of the men of warre which are vnder "our autoritie, and there lacketh not one man of vs.

" Ebr. vnder our hands.

50 ¶ We haue therefore broght a present vnto the Lord, what euerie man founde of iewels of golde, bracelets, and cheines, rings, eare rings, and ornaments of the legs, to make an atonement for our soules before the Lord.

q The captaines by this free offring acknowledge the great benefit of God in perseruing his people.

51 And Moses and Eleazar ỹ Priest toke ỹ golde of them, and all wroght iewels.

52 And all the golde of the offring that thei offred vp to the Lord, (of the captaines ouer thousands and hundreds) was sixtene thousand seuen hundreth & fiftie shekels, p Ebr. if anie of the men. Chap. 14, 28. 11 p None of the men that came out of Egypt * from twentie yere olde and aboue, shal se the land for the which I sware vnto Abrahā, to Izhak, and to Iaakob, because thei haue not q wholie folowed me:

q Or, perseuered & continued. 12 Except Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh the Kenesite, & Iosh ua the sonne of Nun: for thei haue constantly folowed the Lord.

13 And the Lord was verie angry with Israel, and made them wander in the wildernes fortie yeres, vntil all the generacion that had done r euil in the sight of the Lord were consumed.

r Because thei murmured, neither wolde beleue their report, wolde ý erueth as concerning ý land. 14 And beholde, ye are risen vp in your fathers steade as an encrease of sinneful men, stil to augment the fearce wrath of the Lord, toward Israel.

15 For if ye turne away from following him, he wil yet againe leaue the people in the wildernes, and s ye shal destroye all this folke.

s By your occasion. 16 And thei went nere to him and said, We wil buylde shepe foldes here for our shepe, and for our cattel, and cities for our children.

17 But we our selues wil be ready armed to go before the children of Israel, vntil we haue brought them vnto their t place: but our children shal dwel in the defenced cities, because of the inhabitans of the land.

t In the land of Canaan. 18 We wil not returne vnto our houses, vntil the children of Israel haue inherited, euerie man his inheritance.

19 Nether wil we inherit with thē beyonde Iorden and on that sides, because our inheritance is fallen to vs on this side Iorden Eastward.

Iosh. 1, 13. 20 u *And Moses said vnto them, If ye wil do this thing, and go armed f before the Lord to warre:

f Before the Arke of the Lord. 21 And wil go euerie one of you in harnes ouer Iorden before the Lord, vntil he hathe cast out his g enemies from his sight:

g That is, the inhabitans of ý land. 22 And vntil the land be subdued before the Lord, then ye shal returne and be innocent toward the Lord, and toward Israel: and this land shal be your possession h before the Lord.

h The Lord wil graunte you this land which ye require. 23 But if ye wil not do so, beholde, ye haue sinned against the Lord, and be sure, that your sinne i wil finde you out.

i Ye shal assuredly be punished for your sinne. 24 Builde you then cities for your children and foldes for your shepe, and do that ye haue spoken.

25 Then the children of Gad & ý children of Reuben spake vnto Moses, saying, Thy seruants wil do as my lord commandeth:

26 Our children, our wiues, our shepe, and all our cattel shal remaine there in the cities of Gilead, Iosh. 4, 12. 27 But * thy seruants wil go euerie one armed to warre before the Lord for to fight, as my lord sayeth.

k Moses gaue charge that his promes made to the Reubenites & others shulde be performed after his death, so that thei brake not theirs. 28 So concerning them, Moses k cōmanded Eleazar the Priest, & Iosh ua ý sonne of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel:

29 And Moses said vnto thē, If the children of Gad, and the children of Reuben, wil go with you ouer Iorden, all armed to fight before the Lord, thē when the land is subdued before you, ye shal giue them the land of Gilead for a possession:

30 But if thei wil not go ouer with you armed, then thei shal haue their possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

l That is attributed to ý Lord which his messenger speaketh. 31 And the children of Gad, and ý children of Reuben answered, saying, As the l Lord hathe said vnto thy seruats, so wil we do.

32 We wil go armed before ý Lord into the land of Canaan: that the possesion of our inheritance may be to vs on this side Iorden.

Deut. 3, 12. Iosh. 13, 8. & 22, 4. 33 *So Moses gaue vnto them, euen to the children of Gad, & to the children of Reuben, & to half the tribe of Manasseh the sonne of Ioseph, the kingdome of Sihon King of the m Amorites, and the kingdome of Og, King of Bashan, the land with the cities thereof and coastes, euen the cities of the countrey round about.

m The Amorites dwelled on bothe sides of Iorden: but here he maketh mencion of thē that dwelt on this side: & Iosh. 12, 12. he speaketh of them that inhabited beyonde Iordē. 34 ¶ Then the children of Gad buylt Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, 35 And Atroth, Shophan, and Iazer, and Iogbehah.

36 And Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, defenced cities: also shepe foldes.

37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, & Kiriathaim, 38 And Nebo, and Baalmeon, and turned their names, and Shibmah: & gaue other names vnto the cities which they built.

38 *(And Aaron the Priest went vp in to mount Hor at ỹ commandement of the Lord, and died there, in ỹ fourtieth yere after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the first day of the [d] fifth moneth.

39 And Aaron was an hundreth & thre and twentie yere olde, when he died in mount Hor.

3 The coastes and borders of the land of Canaan. 17 Certeine men are assigned to deuide the land.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Commande the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye come into the land of Canaan, this is the a land that shal fall vnto your inheritance: that is, the land of Canaan with the coastes thereof.

a Meaning the description of the land.

Iosh.15,1. 3 * And your Southquarter shalbe from the wildernes of Zin to the borders of Edom: so that your Southquarter shalbe from the salt Sea coast Eastward:

4 And the border shal compasse you frō the Southe b to Maaleth-akrabbim, and reache to Zin, & go out from the Southe to Kadesh-barnea: thence it shal stretch to Hazar-addar, and go along to Azmon.

18 And ye shal take also a f prince of euerie tribe to deuide the land.

f One of the heades or chiefe men of euerie tribe.

19 The names also of the men are these: Of the tribe of Iudah, Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh.

20 And of the tribe of the sonnes of Simeon, Shemuel the sonne of Ammihud.

21 Of the tribe of Beniamin, Elidad the sonne of Chislon.

22 Also of the tribe of the sonnes of Dan, the prince Bukki, the sonne of Iogli.

23 Of the sonnes of Ioseph: of the tribe of the sonnes of Manasseh, the prince Hanniel the sonne of Ephod.

24 And of the tribe of the sonnes of Ephraim,

Ephraim, the prince Kemuel, the ſonne of Shiphtan.

25 Of the tribe alſo of the ſonnes of Zebulun, the prince Elizaphan, the ſonne of Parnach.

i Vnder this figure is declared, that our ſinnes colde not be remitted, but by ỹ death of the hie prieſt Ieſus Chriſt.

26 But if ỹ ſlayer come without the borders of the citie of his refuge, whither he was fled,

27 And

27 And the reuenger of blood finde him without the borders of the citie of his refuge, and the reuenger of blood slay the [k] murtherer, he shal be giltles,

28 Because he shulde haue remained in ỹ citie of his refuge, vntil ỹ death of the hye Priest: and after the death of the hie Priest: the slayer shal returne vnto the land of his possession.

29 So these things shalbe a [l] lawe of iudgement vnto you, throughout your generacions in all your dwellings.

30 Whosoeuer killeth anie persone, the iudge shal slay the murtherer, through * witnesses: but * one witnes shal not testifie against a persone to cause him to die.

31 More ouer ye shal take no recompense for the life of the murtherer, which is [m] worthie to die: but he shal be put to death.

32 Also ye shal take no recompense for him that is fled to the citie of his refuge, that he shuld come againe, and dwel in the land before the death of the hie Priest.

33 So ye shal not pollute ỹ land wherein ye shal dwel: [n] for blood defileth ỹ land: and the land can not be [n] clensed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

34 Defile not therefore the land which ye shal inhabite, for I dwel in the middes thereof: for I the Lord dwel among the children of Israel.

CHAP. XXXVI.

6 An ordre for the mariage of the daughters of Zelophehad. 7 The enheritance could not be giuen from one tribe to another.

1 THen [a] the chief fathers of the familie of the sonnes of Gilead, the sonne of Machir the sonne of Manasseh, of the families of the sonnes of Ioseph, came, and spake before Moses, and before the princes, ỹ chief fathers of the children of Israel,

2 And said, * The Lord commãded [b] my Lord to giue the land to inherite by lot to the childrẽ of Israel: and my Lord was commanded by the Lord, to giue ỹ inheritance of Zelophehad our brother vnto his daughters.

3 If they be maried to anie of the sonnes of the other tribes of the children of Israel then shal their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, & shalbe put vnto ỹ inheritance of the tribe whereof they shalbe: so shal it be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

4 Also when the [c] Iubile of the children of Israel commeth, then shal their inheritance be put vnto the inheritance of the tribe whereof they shalbe, so shal their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 Then Moses commanded the childrẽ of Israel, according to the worde of the Lord, saying: The tribe of the sonnes of Ioseph haue sayd [d] wel.

6 This is the thing that the Lord hathe commanded, concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, They shal be wiues, to whome they thinke best, onely to ỹ familie of the tribe of their father shal they mary:

7 So shal not the inheritãce of the children of Israel remoue from tribe to tribe, for euerie one of the children of Israel shal ioyne him selfe to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And euerie daughter that possesseth anie [e] inheritance of the tribes of the children of Israel, shal be wife vnto one of the familie of the tribe of her father: that the children of Israel may enioye euerie man the inheritance of their fathers.

9 Nether shal the inheritance go about from tribe to tribe: but euerieone of ỹ tribes of the children of Israel shal sticke to his owne inheritance.

10 As the Lord commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad.

11 For * Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah the daughters of Zelophehad were maried vnto their fathers brothers sonnes, 12 They were wyues to certaine of the families of the sonnes of Manasseth the sonne of Ioseph, so their inheritance remained in the tribe of the familie of their father.

13 These are the [f] commandements and lawes which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, vnto the children of Israel in the plaine of Moab, by Iorden toward Iericho.

a It semeth ỹ the tribes contended who might mary these daughters to haue their inheritance: and therefore the sonnes of Ioseph proposed the matter to Moses.

THE FIFTH BOKE OF Moses, called * Deuteronomie.

* That is, a seconde lawe: so called, because the Lawe which God gaue in mount Sinai, is here repeated, as though it were a newe Lawe and this boke is a commentarie or exposition of the ten commandements.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe wonderful loue of God toward his Churche is liuely set forthe in this boke. For albeit through their ingratitude and sundry rebellions against God, for the space of forty yeres, Deu. 9,7, they had deserued to haue bene cut of frō the nōber of his people, and for euer to haue bene depriued of the vse of his holy worde, & sacraments: yet he did euer preserue his Churche euen for his owne mereies sake, and wolde stil haue his Name called vpon among them. Wherefore he bringeth them into the land of Canaan, destroyeth their enemies giueth them their countrey, townes, and goodes, and exhorteth them by the example of their fathers (whose infidelitie, idolatrie, adulteries, murmurings and rebellion, he had moste sharpely punished) to feare and obey the Lord, to embrace and kepe his lawe without adding ther vnto or diminishing there from. For by his worde he wolde be knowen to be their God, and they his people: by his worde he wolde gouerne his Churche, and by the same they shulde learne to obey him: by his worde he wolde discerne the false Prophet frō the true, light from darknes, error frō knowledge, and his owne people from all other nations and infideles: teaching them thereby to refuse and detest, destroy and abolish whatsoeuer is not agreable to his holy wil. Seme it otherwise neuer so good or precious in the eyes of man. And for this cause God promised to raise vp Kings and gouernours for the setting forthe of this worde and preseruacion of his Churche: giuing vnto them an especial charge for the executing thereof: whome therefore he willeth to exercise them selues diligently in the continual studie and meditacion of the same: that they might learne to feare the Lord, loue their subiects, abhorre couetousnes and vice, and whatsoeuer offendeth the maiestie of God. And as he had to fore instructed their fathers in all things apperteining, bothe to his spiritual seruice, and also for the maintenance of that societie which is betwene men: so he prescribeth here a newe, all suche lawes and ordinances, which ether concerne his Diuine seruice, or els are necessarie for a comon weale: appointing vnto euerie estate and degre their charge and duetie: as wel, how to rule and liue in the feare of God, as to nourish friendship towarde their neighbours, and to preserue that ordre which God hathe established amōg men: threatening with all, moste horrible plagues to them that transgresse his commandements, and promising all blessings & felicitie to suche as obserue and obey them.

CHAP. I.

a Abrefe rehersal of things done before, from Horeb vnto Kadesh-barnea. 32 Moses reproueth the people for their incredulite. 44 The Israelites are ouer come by the Amorites because they fought against the commandement of the Lord.

a In the countrey of Moab. b So that the wilderne es was betwene ý Sea and this plaine of Moab.

THESE be the wordes which Moses spake vnto all Israel, on[a] this side Iorden in the wildernes, in the plaine, [b]ouer against that red Sea, betwene Paran & Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Di-zahab.

c In Horeb, or Sinai, forty yeres before this the lawe was giuen: but because all ý were then of age and iudgement were now dead, Moses repeateth the same to ý youth which ether then were not borne, or had not iudgement.

2 There are eleuen daies iourney from [c] Horeb vnto Kadesh-barnea, by the way of mount Seir.

3 And it came to passe in the first day of the eleuenth moneth, in the forteth yere, that Moses spake vnto the children of Israel according vnto al that ý Lord had giuen him in commandement vnto them, d By these examples of Gods fauour their mindes are prepared to receiue the Law. Nom. 21,24.

4 After that he had slaine [d] * Sihon the King of the Amorites which dwelt in Heshbō, and Og King of Bashan, which dwelt at Ashtaroth in Edrei.

5 On this side Iorden in the land of Moab [e] began Moses to declare this Law, saying, e The seconde time.

6 The Lord our God spake vnto vs in [f] Horeb, saying, Ye haue dwelt long ynough in this mount, f In the seconde yere, and seconde moneth. Nom 10.11.

7 Turne you and departe, and go vnto the mountaine of the Amorites, and vnto all places nere therunto: in the plaine, in the mountaine, or in the valley: bothe Southward, and to the sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and vnto Lebanon: euen vnto the great riuer, the riuer [h] Perath.

h Or, Euphrates. Gen. 15,18. & 17,7.

8 Beholde, I haue set the land before you: go in and * possesse that land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob, to giue vnto them and to their sede after them.

9 ¶ And I spake [g] vnto you the same time, saying, I am not able to beare you my selfe alone:

g By the counsel of Iethro my father in lawe. Exo. 18,19.

12 The Lord your God hathe [h] multiplied you: & beholde, ye are this day as the starres of heauen in nomber:

h Not so muche by ý cours of nature, as miraculously.

11 (The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so manie mo as ye are, and blesse you, as he hathe promised you)

12 How can I alone [i] beare your cūbrance and and your charge, and your ſtrife?

13 Bring you men of wiſdome and of vnderſtanding, and [k] knowen among your tribes, and I wil make them rulers ouer you:

14 Then ye anſwered me & ſaid, The thing is good that thou haſt commãded vs to do.

15 So I toke the chief of your tribes [l] wiſe and knowen men, and made them rulers ouer you, captaines ouer thouſands, and captaines ouer hundreds, & captaines ouer fifty, and captaines ouer ten, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your iudges that ſame time, ſaying, Heare the controuerſies betwene your brethren, and * iudge righteouſly betwene euerie man & his brother, and the ſtranger that is with him.

17 Ye ſhal haue no reſpect of perſone in iudgement, * but ſhal heare the ſmall aſwel as the great: ye ſhal not feare the face of man: for ẏ iudgement is [m] Gods: and the cauſe that is to hard for you, bring vnto me, and I wil heare it.

18 Alſo I commãded you the ſame time all the things which ye ſhulde do.

19 ¶ Then we departed frõ Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wildernes, (as ye haue ſene) by the way of the mounteine of the Amorites, as ẏ Lord our God commanded vs: and we came to Kadeſh-barnea.

20 And [n] I ſaid vnto you, ye are come vnto the mounteine of the Amorites, which the Lord our God doeth giue vnto vs.

21 Beholde, the Lord thy God hathe layed the land before thee, go vp & poſſeſſe it, as the Lord the God of thy fathers hathe ſaid vnto thee: feare not, nether be diſcouraged.

22 ¶ [o] Then ye came vnto me euerie one, & ſaid, We wil ſend men before vs, to ſearche vs out the land and to bring vs worde againe, what way we muſt go vp by, and vnto what cities we ſhal come.

23 So the ſaying pleaſed me wel, and I toke twelue men of you, of euerie tribe one.

24 * Who departed, and went vp into ẏ mounteine, & came vnto the riuer Eſhcol, and ſearched out the land.

25 And toke of ẏ frute of ẏ land in their hãds, and broght it vnto vs, and broght vs worde againe, and [p] ſaid, It is a good land, which the Lord our God doeth giue vs.

26 Notwithſtanding, ye wolde not go vp, but were diſobedient vnto the cõmandement of the Lord your God.

27 And murmured in your tentes, and ſaid, Becauſe the Lord [q] hated vs, therefore hathe he broght vs out of ẏ land of Egypt, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to deſtroy vs.

28 Wether ſhal we go vp? our [r] brethren haue diſcouraged our hearts, ſaying, The people is greater, and taller thẽ we: the cities are great and walled vp to heauen and moreouer we haue ſene ẏ ſonnes of the * Anakims there.

29 But I ſaid vnto you, Dread not, nor be afraid of them.

30 The Lord your God, [ſ] who goeth before you, he ſhal fight for you, according to all that he did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes, 31 And in the wildernes, where thou haſt ſene howe the Lord thy God bare thee as a mã doeth beare his ſonne, in all the way which ye haue gone, vntil ye came vnto this place.

32 Yet for all this ye did not beleue the Lord your God, 33 * Who went in the way before you, to ſearche you out a place to pitche your tentes in, in fire by night, that ye might ſe what way to go, and in a cloude by day.

34 Then the Lord heard the voyce of your wordes, and was wroth, and ſware, ſaying,

35 * Surely there ſhal not one of theſe mẽ of this froward generacion, ſe that good land, which I ſware to giue vnto your fathers, 36 Saue Caleb the ſonne of Iephunneh: he ſhal ſe it, * and to him wil I giue the land that he hathe troden vpon, and to his children, becauſe he hathe cõſtantly followed the Lord.

37 * Alſo the Lord was angry with me for your ſakes, ſaying, * Thou alſo ſhalt not go in thither, 38 But Ioſhua the ſonne of Nun which [t] ſtandeth before thee, he ſhal go in thither: incourage him: for he ſhal cauſe Iſrael to inherit it.

39 Moreouer, your [v] children, which ye ſaid ſhulde be a pray, and your ſonnes, which in that day had no knowledge betwene good and euil, they ſhal go in thither, and vnto thẽ wil I giue it, and they ſhal poſſeſſe it.

40 But as for you, turne backe, & take your iourney into the wildernes by the way of the red Sea.

41 Then ye anſwered and ſaid vnto me, We haue ſinned againſt the Lord, [x] we wil go vp, and fight, according to all that the Lord our God hathe commanded vs: and ye armed you euerie man to the warre, & were ready to go vp into ẏ mounteine.

42 But the Lord ſaid vnto me, Say vnto them, Go not vp, nether fight, (for I am not among you) leſt ye fall before your enemies.

43 And when I tolde you, ye wolde not heare, but rebelled againſt the cõmandement

CHAP. II.

1 Israel is forbidden to fight with the Edomites, 9 Moabites, 19 And Ammonites, 33 Sihon King of Heshbon is discomfited.

1 THen [a] we turned, and toke our iourney into the wildernes, by the waie of the red Sea, as the Lord spake vnto me, and we compassed mount Seir a [b] long time.
2 And the Lord spake vnto me, saying,
3 Ye haue compassed this mountaine lõg ynough: turne you Northwarde.
4 And warne thou the people, saying, Ye shal go through the [c] coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwel in Seir, and they shal be afraid of you: take ye good hede therefore.
5 Ye shal not prouoke them: for I wil not giue you of their land so muche as a foote breadth, * because I haue giuẽ mouṫ Seir vnto Esau for a possession.
6 Ye shal bye meat of them for money to eat, and ye shal also procure water of them for money to drinke.
7 For the Lord thy God hathe [d] blessed thee in all the workes of thine hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wildernes, & the Lord thy God hathe bene with thee this fortie yere, and thou hast lacked nothing.
8 And when we were departed frõ our brethren the children of Esau ẅ dwelt in Seir, through the way of the [n] plaine, from Elath, & frõ Ezion-gaber, we turned and went by the way of ỹ wildernes of Moab.
9 Then the Lord said vnto me, Thou shalt not [n] vexe Moab, nether prouoke them to battel: for I wil not giue thee of their land for a possessiõ, because I haue giuen Ar vnto the children [e] of Lot for a possession.
10 The [f] Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, & many, and tall, as the Anakims.
11 They also were taken for gyantes as the Anakims: whome the Moabites cal Emims.
12 The Horims also dwelt in Seir before time, whome the children of Esau chased out and destroyed them before thẽ, and dwelt in their stede: as Israel shal do vnto the land of his possessiõ, which the Lord hathe giuẽ them.
13 Now rise vp, said I, and get you ouer ỹ riuer * Zered: and we went ouer the riuer Zered.
14 The [g] space also wherein we came from Kadesh-barnea vntil we were come ouer the riuer Zered, was eight and thirtie yeres, vntil all the generacion of the men of warre were wasted out from among the hoste, as the Lord sware vnto them.
15 For in dede the [h] hand of the Lord was against them, to destroye them frõ among the hoste, til thei were consumed.
16 ¶So when all the men of warre were consumed and dead from among the people:
17 Then the Lord spake vnto me, saying,
18 Thou shalt go through Ar the coast of Moab this day:
19 And thou shalt come nere ouer against the children of Ammon: but shalt not lay siege vnto them, nor moue warre against them: for I wil not giue thee of the land of the children of Ammon anie possession: for I haue giuen it vnto the children of Lot for a possession.
20 That also was takẽ for a land [i] of gyants: for gyants dwelt therein a fore time, whome the Ammonites called Zazummims:
21 A people that was great, & many, & tall, as the Anakims: but the Lord destroyed them before them, & thei succeded them in their inheritãce, and dwelt in their stede:
22 As he did to the children of Esau which dwel in Seir, when he destroyed the Horims before them, & thei possessed thẽ, and dwelt in their stede vnto this day.
23 And the Auims which dwelt in Hazerim euen vnto [n] Azzah, ỹ Caphtorims which came out of Caphtor destroyed them and dwelt in their stede.
24 ¶Rise vp therefore, said the Lord: take your iourney, and passe ouer the riuer Arnon: beholde, I haue giuen into thy hand Sihõ the [k] Amorite, King of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possesse it and prouoke him to battel.
25 This day wil I [l] begin to send thy feare & thy dread, vpõ all people vnder the heaues, ẅ shal heare thy fame & shal tremble and quake before thee.
26 Then I sent messengers out of the wildernes of Kedemoth vnto Sihon King of Heshbon, with wordes of peace, saying, 27 ¶* Let me passe through thy land: I wil go by the hie way: I wil nether turne vnto the right hand nor to the left.

31 And the Lord said vnto me, Beholde, I haue begonne to giue Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possesse and inherit his land.

32 * Then came out Sihon to mete vs, him self with all his people to fight at Iahaz.

33 But the Lord our God deliuered him [o] into our power, and we smote him, and his sonnes, and all his people.

34 And we toke all his cities the same time, & destroyed euerie citie, men, & [o] women, & children: we let nothing remaine.

1 THen we turned, and went vp by y way of Bashan: *and Og King of Bashan [a] came out against vs, he, and all his people to fight at Edrei.

2 And the Lord said vnto me, Feare him not, for I wil deliuer him, and all his people, and his land into thine hand, & thou shalt do vnto him, as thou dideſt vnto *Sihon King of the Amorites, w dwelt at Heshbon.

4 And we toke all his cities y same time, nether was there a citie which we toke not from thē, euen three score cities, and all the countrey of Argob, the kingdome of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fenced with hie walles, gates and barres, beside [b] vnwalled townes a great many.

6 And we ouerthrewe thē, as we did vnto Sihon King of Heshbō, destroying euerie citie, with men, [c] women, & childrē.

7 But all the catte and the spoile of the cities we toke for our selues.

8 Thus we toke at that time out of the hand of two Kings of the Amorites, the land that was on this side Iorden, from the riuer of Arnon vnto mount Hermon:

9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Shirion, but the Amorites call it Shenir)

10 All the cities of the plaine and all Gilead, and all Bashān vnto Salchah, and Edrei, cities of the kingdome of Og in Bashan.

11 For onelie Og King of Bashan remained of the remnant of the gyāts, [d] whose bed was a bed of yron: is it not at Rabbath among the children of Ammon? the length thereof is nine cubites, and foure cubites the bredth of it, after the cubite of a man.

12 And this land which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the riuer of Arnon, and halfe mount Gilead, *and the cities thereof, gaue I vnto the Reubenites and Gadites.

13 And y rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdome of Og, gaue I vnto the half tribe of Manasseh: euen all y countrey of Argob with all Bashan, which is called, The land of gyantes.

14 Iair the sonne of Manasseh toke all y countrey of Argob, vnto the coastes of Geshuri, and called them after his owne name, Bashan, Hauoth Iair vnto [e] this day.

15 And I gaue parte of Gilead vnto Machir.

16 And vnto the Reubenites and Gadites I gaue the rest of Gilead, and vnto the riuer of Arnon, halfe the riuer and the borders, euen vnto the riuer [f] Iabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon:

17 The plaine also and Iorden, & the borders from Chinnereth euen vnto the Sea of the plaine, to wit, the salt Sea [g] vnder the springs of Pisgah Eastwarde.

18 ¶ And I commanded [g] you the same time, saying, The Lord your God hathe giuen you this land to possesse it: ye shal go b As villages & smale townes.

c Because this was Gods appointement, therefore it may not be iudged cruel.

d The more terrible y this gyant was, the greater occasiō had they to glorifie God for the victorie.

21 ¶ *And I charged Ioshua the same time, saying, Thine eies haue sene all that the [h] Lord your God hathe done vnto these two Kings: so shal the Lord do vnto all ý kingdomes whither thou goest.

22 Ye shal not feare them: for the Lord your God, he shal fight for you.

23 And I besought the Lord the same time, saying,

24 O Lord God, thou haste begonne to shewe thy seruant thy greatnes and thy mightie hand: for where is there a God in heauen or in earth, that can [i] do like thy workes, and like thy "power?

25 I pray thee let me go ouer and se the good land that is beyond Iorden, that goodlie [k] mountaine, and Lebanon.

26 But the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, and wolde not heare me: and ý Lord said vnto me, Let it suffice thee, speake no more vnto me of this matter.

27 Get thee vp into the top of Pisgah, and [l] lift vp thine eyes Westward, and Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, & beholde it with thine eyes, for thou shalt not go ouer this Iorden:

28 But charge Ioshua, and incourage him, and bolden him for he shal go before this people, and he shal deuide for inheritance vnto them, the land which thou shalt se.

29 So we abode in the valley ouer against Beth-Peor.

1 An exhortacion to obserue the Lawe without adding thereto or diminishing. 6 Therein standeth our wisdome. 6 We must teache it to our children. 15 No image ought to be made to worship. 26 Threatenings against them that forsake the Law of God. 37 God chose the sede because he loued their fathers. 43 The three cities of refuge.

1 NOw therefore hearke, o Israel, vnto ý ordinances and to ý lawes ẅ I teache you to [a] do, ý ye may liue and go in, & possesse the land, which ý Lord God of your fathers giueth you.

2 Ye shal [b] put nothing vnto the worde which I commande you, nether shal ye take [c] ought there from, that ye may kepe the commandements of the Lord your God which I commande you.

3 Your [d] eyes haue sene what the Lord did because of Baal-Peor, for all ý men that followed Baal-Peor, the Lord thy God hathe destroyed euerie one from among you.

4 But ye that did [e] cleaue vnto the Lord your God, are aliue euerie one of you this day.

5 Beholde, I haue taught you ordinances, and lawes, as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye shulde do euen so with in the lād whither ye go to possesse it.

6 Kepe them therefore, and do them: for that is your [f] wisdome, and your vnderstanding in the sight of the people, which shal heare all these ordinances, and shal say, "Onely this people is wise, and of vnderstanding and a great nacion.

7 For what nacion is so great, vnto whome the gods come so nere vnto thē, as the Lord our God is [g] nere vnto vs, in all that we call vnto him for?

8 And what nacion is so great, that hathe ordinances and lawes so righteous, as all this Lawe, which I set before you this day?

9 But take hede to thy selfe, and [h] kepe thy soule diligently, that thou forget not the things which thine eyes haue sene, & ý they departe not out of thine heart all the daies of thy life: but teache thē thy sonnes, and thy sonnes sonnes.

10 Forget not ý day that thou stodest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said vnto me, Gather me the people together, and I wil cause them heare my wordes, that they may learne to feare me all the dayes that they shal liue vpon the earth, and that they may teache their children:

11 Then came you nere & *stode vnder the mountaine & the mountaine [i] burnt with fire vnto ý middes of heauen, and there was darcknes, cloudes and mist.

12 And the Lord spake vnto you out of the middes of the fire, and ye heard the voyce of the wordes, but sawe no similitude, saue a voyce.

13 Then he declared vnto you his couenant which he commanded you to [k] do, euen the ten commandements, and wrote them vpon two tables of stone.

14 ¶ And the Lord commanded me that same time, that I shulde teache you ordinances and lawes, which ye shulde obserue in the land, whither ye go, to possesse it.

15 Take therefore good hede vnto your "selues: for ye sawe no [l] image in ý day that the Lord spake vnto you in Horeb out of the middes of the fire:

20 But ỹ Lord hathe takē you and brought you out of ỹ [n] yron fornace: out of Egypt to be vnto him a people and inheritance, as appeareth this day.

21 And the Lord was angry with me for your wordes, and sware that I shulde not go ouer Iorden, & that I shulde not go in vnto that good land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance.

22 For I must dye in this land, and shal not go ouer Iorden: but [o] ye shal go ouer, and possesse that good land.

23 Take hede vnto your selues, lest ye forget the couenant of the Lord your God which he made with you, & lest ye make you anie grauen image, or likenes of anie thing, as the Lord thy God hathe charged thee.

26 I [r] call heauen and earth to recorde against you this day, that ye shal shortely perish from the land, whereunto ye go ouer Iorden to possesse it, ye shal not prolong your daies therein, but shal vtterly be destroyed.

27 And ỹ Lord shal [s] scatter you amōg the people, & ye shalbe left fewe in nōber among the nacions, whether ỹ Lord shal bring you:

28 And there ye shal serue gods, euen the worke of mans hand, wood, & stone, which neither se, nor heare, nor eat, nor smel.

29 But if from thēce thou shalt seke the Lord thy God, thou shalt finde him, if thou seke him with all thine [t] heart, and with all thy soule.

30 When thou art in tribulacion, and all these things are come vpon thee, [u] at the length, if thou returne to the Lord thy God, and be obedient vnto his voyce, 31 (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God) he wil not forsake thee, nether destroye thee nor forget ỹ couenant of thy fathers, which he [v] sware vnto them.

32 For inquire now of the daies that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man vpon the earth, and [x] aske from the one end of heauen vnto the other, if there came to passe suche a great thing as this, or whether anie suche like thing hathe bene heard.

33 Did euer people heare the voyce of God speaking out of the middes of a fire, as thou hast heard, and liued?

34 Or hathe God assayed to go & take him a nacion from among nacions, by [y] tentacions, by signes, and by wonders, and by warre, and by a mighty hand, & by a stretched out arme, and by great feare, according vnto all that the Lord your God did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Vnto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest [z] knowe, that the Lord he is God, and that there is none but he alone.

36 Out of heauen he made thee heare his voice to instruct thee, & vpon earth he shewed thee his great fire, and thou heardest his voyce out of the middes of the fire.

37 And because [a] he loued thy fathers, therefore he chose their sede after thē, and hathe brought thee out of Egypt in his sight, by his mighty power, 38 To thrust out nacions greater and mightier then thou, before thee, to bring thee in, and to giue thee their land for inheritance: as appeareth this day.

39 Vnderstand therefore this day, and considere in thine heart, that the Lord, he is God in heauen aboue, and vpō the earth beneth: there is none other.

40 Thou shalt kepe therefore his ordinances, and his commandements which I commande thee this day, that it may [b] go wel with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou maiest prolong thy dayes vpon the earth, which the Lord thy God giueth thee for euer.

ỹ Moses is the meane betwene God and the people. 6 The Lawe is repeted. 23 The people are afraide at Gods voyce. 29 The Lord wisheth that the people wolde feare him. 32 They must neither decline to the right hand nor left.

1 THen Moses called all Israel, and said vnto them, Heare o Israel the ordinances and the lawes which I [''] propose to you this day, ỹ ye may learne them, and take hede to obserue thē.

2 * The Lord our God made a couenant with vs in Horeb.

3 The Lord [a] made not this couenant with our fathers, onely, but with vs, euen with vs all here aliue this day.

4 The Lord talked with you [b] face to face in the mount, out of the middes of the fire.

5 (At that time I stode betwene ỹ Lord and you, to declare vnto you ỹ worde of the Lord: for ye were afraide at the sight of the fire, & went not vp into the mount) and he said,

6 ¶ * I am the Lord thy God, which haue broght thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of [''] bondage.

7 Thou shalt haue none [c] other gods before my face.

8 Thou shalt make thee no grauen image, or anie likenes of that ỹ is in heauen aboue, or which is in the earth beneth, or that is in the waters vnder ỹ earth.

9 Thou shalt nether bowe thy self vnto them, nor serue thē: for * I the Lord thy God am a [d] ielous God, visiting ỹ iniquitie of the fathers vpon the children, euen vnto the third and fourth generacion of them that hate me:

10 And shewing mercie vnto thousands of them that [e] loue me, and kepe my commandements.

11 Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vaine: for the Lord wil not holde him giltles, that taketh his Name in vaine.

12 Kepe ỹ Sabbath day, to sanctifie it, as ỹ Lord thy God hathe cōmanded thee.

13 Six daies [f] thou shalt labour, and shalt do all thy worke:

14 But the seuenth day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: thou shalt not do anie worke therein, thou, nor thy sonne, nor thy daughter, nor thy man seruāte, nor thy maide, nor thine oxe, nor thine asse, nether anie of thy cartel, nor the stranger that is with in thy gates: that thy man seruāt and thy maide may rest aswel as thou.

15 For, remember that thou wast a seruāt in the land of Egypt, and that the Lord the God broght thee out thence by a mighty hand and a stretched out arme: therefore the Lord thy God cōmanded thee to obserue the Sabbath day.

16 ¶ [g] Honour thy father & thy mother, as the Lord thy God hathe commāded thee that thy daies may be prolōged, and that it may go wel with thee vpon the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

17 * Thou shalt not kil.

18 * Nether shalt thou cōmit adulterie.

19 * Nether shalt thou steale.

20 Nether shalt thou beare false witnes against thy neighbour.

21 * Nether shalt [h] thou couet thy neighbours wife, nether shalt thou desire thy neighbours house, his field, nor his man seruant, nor his maid, his oxe, nor his asse, nor ought that thy neighbour hathe.

22 ¶ These wordes the Lord spake vnto all your multitude in the mount out of the middes of the fire, the cloude & the darkenes, with a great voyce, and [i] added nomore thereto: and wrote them vpon two tables of stone, and deliuered them vnto me.

23 And when ye heard the voyce out of the middes of the darkenes, (for the mountaine did burne with fire,) then ye came to me, all the chief of your tribes, and your Elders:

24 And ye said, Beholde, ỹ Lord our God hath shewed vs his glorie & his greatnes, & * we haue heard his voyce out of the middes of the fire: we haue sene this day that God doeth talke with mā, and he * liueth.

25 Now therefore, why shulde we dye: for this great fire wil consume vs: if we heare the voyce of the Lord our God anie more, we shal dye.

a A reuerent feare and loue of God, is the first beginning to kepe Gods cõmandements.

2 That thou mightest [a] feare the Lord thy God, and kepe all his ordinãces, and his commandements which I cõmande thee, thou, and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne all the dayes of thy life, euen that thy dayes may be prolonged.

b Which hathe abũdance of all things appertei ning to mans life.

3 Heare therefore, o Israel, and take hede to do it, that it may go wel with thee, and that ye may increase mightely [b] in the land that floweth with milke and hony, as the Lord God of thy fathers hathe promised thee.

6 * And these wordes which I cõmande thee this day, shalbe in thine heart.

c Some read, thou shalt whet them vpon thy children, to wit, that they may printe thẽ more depely in memorie.

7 And thou shalt [c] rehearse them continually vnto thy childrẽ, and shalt talke of them when thou tariest in thine house, and as thou walkest by the way, and when thou lyest downe, and when thou risest vp:

[n] Or, signet of remembrance.

8 And thou shalt binde them for a signe vpon thine hand, and they shalbe [n] as frontelets betwene thine eyes.

d That when thou entrest in, thou maiest remember them.

9 Also thou shalt write them vpon the [d] postes of thyne house, and vpon thy gates.

10 And when the Lord thy God hathe broght thee into the land, which he sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob, to giue to thee, with great and goodly cities which thou buyldedst not,

11 And houses ful of all maner of goods which thou filledst not, and wels digged which thou diggedst not, vineyardes and oliue trees which thou plãtedst not, and when thou hast eaten and art ful, e Let not welthe and ease cause thee forget Gods mercies, wherby thou wast deliuered out of miserie.

12 [e] Beware left thou forget the Lord, ỹ broght thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

f We must feare God, serue him onely, and confesse his Name, which is done by swearing lawfully.

13 Thou shalt feare ỹ Lord thy God, and serue him, & shalt [f] sweare by his Name.

14 Ye shal not walke after other gods, after anie of the gods of the people ỹ are round about you, 15 (For the Lord thy God is a ielous God among you:) left the wrathe of the Lord thy God be kindeled against thee, and destroy thee from the face of the earth.

16 ¶ Ye shal not [g] tempt the Lord your God, as ye did tempt him in Massah:

h Here he condẽneth all mans good intẽtions.

17 But ye shal kepe diligently ỹ cõmandements of ỹ Lord your God, and his testimonies, and his ordinances which he hathe commanded thee,

18 And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the [h] sight of the Lord: that thou maiest prosper, and that thou maiest go in, and possesse that good land which the Lord sware vnto thy fathers, 19 To cast out all thine enemies before thee, as the Lord hathe said.

i God requireth not onely ỹ we serue him all our life, but also ỹ we take paine ỹ our posteritie may set forthe his glorie.

20 When [i] thy sonne shal aske thee in time to come, saying, What meane these testimonies, and ordinances, and lawes, which the Lord our God hathe cõmanded you?

21 Then thou shalt say vnto thy sonne, We were Pharaohs bondmen in Egypt: but the Lord broght vs out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

CHAP. VIII.

God humbleth the Israelites to trie what they haue in their heart. 5 God chastiseth them as his children. 14 The heart ought not to be proude for Gods benefites. 19 The forgetfulnes of Gods benefites causeth destruction.

1 YE shal kepe all the commandemēts which I commande thee this day, for [a] to do them: that ye may liue, & be multiplied, and go in, and possesse the land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers.

a Shewing that it is not ynough to heare the worde, except we expresse it by example of life.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee this fourty yere in the wildernes, for to humble thee and to [b] proue thee, to knowe what was in thine heart, whether thou woldest kepe his commandemēts or no.

b Which is declared in afflictions, either by pacience, or by grudging against Gods visitation.

3 Therefore he humbled thee, and made thee hūgry, & fed thee with MAN, which thou kneweste not, nether did thy fathers knowe it, that he might teache thee that man liueth not by [c] bread onely, but by euerie worde that proceadeth out of ȳ mouth of the Lord, doeth a man liue.

c Man liueth not by meat, but by the power of God, which giueth it strength to nourish vs.

4 Thy rayment waxed not olde vpon thee, nether did thy fote [d] swel those fourtie yeres.

d As they that go bare foted.

5 Knowe therefore in thine heart, that as a mā nourtereth his sonne, so the Lord thy God [e] nourtereth thee.

e So ȳ his afflictions are signes of his fatherly loue towarde vs.

6 Therefore shalt thou kepe the commandements of the Lord thy God, that thou maiest walke in his wayes, and feare him.

7 For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land in the which are riuers of water and fountaines, & * depthes that spring out of valeis and mountaines:

*Or meres.

8 A land of wheat and barley, and of vineyardes, and figtrees, & pomgranates: a land of oyle oliue and honey:

9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarcetie, nether shalt thou lacke anie thing therein: a land [f] whose stones are yron, & out of whose mountains thou shalt digge brasse.

f Where there are mines of metal.

10 And when thou hast eaten and filled thy self, thou shalt [g] blesse the Lord thy God for the good land, which he hath giuen thee.

g For to receiue Gods benefites, & not to be thankful, is to contemne God in them.

11 Beware that thou forget not ȳ Lord thy God, not keping his cōmandemēts, and his lawes, and his ordinances, which I commande thee this day:

12 Lest when thou hast eaten and filled thy selfe, & hast buylt goodly houses & dwelt therein,

13 And thy beastes, and thy shepe are increased, and thy siluer and golde is multiplied, & all that thou hast is encreased,

14 Then thine heart [h] be lifted vp and thou forget the Lord thy God, which broght thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, h By attributing Gods benefites to thine owne wisdome & labour, or to good fortune.

15 Who was thy guide in the great and terrible wildernes (wherein were firy serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where was no water, * who broght for the water for thee, out of the rocke of flinte:

16 Who fed thee in the wildernes with * MAN, which thy fathers knewe not,) to humble thee, and to proue thee, that he might do thee good at thy latter end.

Exod. 16, 15.

17 Beware lest thou say in thine heart, My power, and the strength of mine owne hand hathe prepared me this abundance.

18 But remember the Lord thy God: for it is he which [i] giueth thee power to get substance to establish his couenant which he sware vnto thy fathers, as appeareth this day.

i If things cōcerning this life procede onely of Gods mercie: muche more spiritual gifts & life eternal asting.

19 And if thou forget the Lord thy God, and walke after other gods, & serue them, and worship them, I [k] testifie vnto you this day that ye shal surely perish.

k Or, take to witnes the heauen & ȳ earth, as Chap. 4, 26.

20 As the nacions which the Lord destroyeth before you, so ye shal perish, because ye wolde not be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lord your God.

CHAP. IX.

God doeth them not good for their owne righteousnes, but for his owne sake. 7 Moses putteth them in remēbrance of their sinnes. 17 The two tables are broken. 26 Moses prayeth for the people.

2 A people great and tall, euen ỹ children of the Anakims, whome ỹ knowest, and of whome thou hast [b] heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak?

3 Vnderstand therefore that this day the Lord thy God is he which [c] goeth ouer before thee as a consuming fire: he shal destroy them, and he shal bring them downe before thy face: so thou shalt cast them out and destroy them soddenly, as the Lord hathe said vnto thee.

4 Speake not thou in thine heart (after that the Lord thy God hath cast them out before thee) saying, For my [d] righteousnes the Lord hathe broght me in, to possesse this land: but for ỹ wickednes of these nacions the Lord hathe cast them out before thee.

5 For thou entrest not to inherit their land for thy righteousnes, or for thy vpright heart, but for the wickednes of those nations, the Lord thy God doeth cast them out before thee, and that he might perfourme the worde ỹ the Lord thy God sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob.

6 Vnderstand therefore, that the Lord thy God giueth thee not this good land to possesse it for thy righteousnes: for thou art a [e] stifnecked people.

7 ¶ Remember, & forget not, how ỹ prouokedst the Lord thy God to angre in the wildernes: [f] since ỹ day that thou didest depart out of the land of Egypt, vntil ye came vnto this place ye haue rebelled against the Lord.

8 Also in Horeb ye prouoked the Lord to angre so that ỹ Lord was wroth with you, euen to destroy you:

9 When I was gone vp in to the mount, to receiue the tables of stone, ỹ tables, I say, of the couenant, which the Lord made with you: and * I abode in ỹ mout forty dayes and fortie nightes, & I neither ate bread nor yet dranke water:

10 *Then the Lord deliuered me two tables of stone, written with the [g] finger of God, and in them was conteined according to all the wordes which the Lord had said vnto you in the mounte out of the middes of the fire, in the day of the assemblie.

11 And when the fortie dayes and fortie nightes were ended, the Lord gaue me the two tables of stone, the tables, I say, of the couenant.

12 And the Lord said vnto me, * Arise, get thee downe quickely from hence: for thy people which thou hast broght out of Egypt, haue [h] corrupt their wayes: thei are sone turned out of the way, ỹ I commanded them: thei haue made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore, the Lord spake vnto me, saying, I haue sene this people, and beholde, it is a stifnecked people.

14 [i] Let me alone, that I may destroye them, and put out their name from vnder heauen, and I wil make of thee a mightie nacion, and greater thē thei be.

15 So I returned, and came downe from the Mount (& the mount burnt with fire) and the two Tables of the couenant were in my two hands)

16 Then I loked, & beholde, ye had sinned against the Lord your God: for ye had made you a molten calf, and had turned quickely out of the [k] way which the Lord had commanded you.

17 Therefore I toke the two Tables, & cast them out of my two hads, and brake them before your eies.

18 And I fel downe before the Lord, fortie daies, and fortie nights, as before: I nether ate bread nor dranke water, because of all your sinnes, which ye had committed, in doing wickedly in the sight of the Lord, in that ye prouoked him vnto wrath.

19 (For I was afraied of the wrath and indignacion, wherewith ỹ Lord was moued against you, euen to destroye you) yet the Lord heard me at that time also.

20 Likewise the Lord was verie angry with Aaron, euen to [l] destroye him: but at that time I praied also for Aaron.

21 And I toke your sinne, I meane the calfe which ye had made, and burnt him with fire and stamped him and grounde him smale, euen vnto verie dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the riuer, that descended out of the [m] Mount.

22 Also * in Taberah, and in *Massah, *& in Kibroth-hattaauah ye prouoked the Lord to angre.

23 Likewise when ỹ Lord sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go vp, and possesse the land which I haue giuen you, then ye [n] rebelled against the commandement of the Lord your God, and beleued him not, nor hearkened vnto his voyce.

24 Ye haue bene rebellious vnto ỹ Lord, since the daie that I knewe you.

25 Then I fel downe before the Lord [o] fortie daies and fortie nights, as I fel downe before, because the Lord had said, that he wolde destroye you.

26 And I praied vnto the Lord, and said, O Lord God, destroye not thy people & thine inheritāce, which thou hast redemed through thy greatnes whome ỹ hast broght out of Egypt by a mightie hand.

27 ¶ Remember thy seruants Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob: loke not to the stubburnes of this people, nor to their wickednes, nor to their sinne,

1 The seconde tables put in the Arke, 8 The tribe of Leui is dedicate to the seruice of the Tabernacle. 12 VVhat the Lord requireth of his. 16 The circumcision of the heart. 17 God regardeth not the persone. 21 The Lord is the praise of Israel.

Exod. 34, 1. 1 IN the same time the Lord said vnto me, * Hewe thee two Tables of stone lyke vnto the first, and come vp vnto me into the Mount, and make thee an Ark e of wood,

2 And I wil write vpon the Tables the wordes that were vpon the first Tables, which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the Arke.

a Which wood is of long continuance. 3 And I made an Arke of [a] shittim wood, and hewed two Tables of stone like vnto the first, and went vp into the Mountaine, and the two Tables in mine hand.

4 Then he wrote vpon the Tables according to the first writing (the ten cõmandements, which ẏ Lord spake vnto you in the Mount out of the middes of the fire, in the daye of the [b] assemblie) and the Lord gaue them vnto me.

b When you were assembled to receiue the Lawe. 5 And I departed, and came downe from the Mount, & put the Tables in ẏ Arke which I had made: and there thei be, as the Lord commanded me.

c This mountaine was also called Hor, Nomb. 20, 28. 6 ¶ And ẏ children of Israel toke their iourney from Beeroth of the children of Iaakã to [c] Mosera, where Aaron dyed, & was buryed, and Eleazar his sonne became Priest in his steade.

7 ¶ From thence thei departed vnto Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Iotbath a land of running waters.

8 ¶ The same time the Lord separated the tribe of Leui to beare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, and to stand before the Lord, to [d] minister vnto him, and to blesse in his name vnto this day.

d That is, to offer sacrifices & so declare ẏ Lawe to ẏ people. 9 Wherefore Leui hathe no parte nor inheritance with his brethren: for the Lord is his [e] inheritance, as the Lord thy God hathe promised him.

e So God turned ẏ curse of Iaakob, Gen. 49, 7, vnto blessing. 10 And I taried in the Mount, as at the first time, fortie daies and fortie nights, and ẏ Lord heard me at that time also, and the Lord wolde not destroye thee.

11 But the Lord said vnto me, Arise, go forthe in ẏ iourney before the people, that they may go in and possesse ẏ land, which I sware vnto their fathers to giue vnto them.

f For all our sinnes & transgressions God requireth nothing but to turne to him & obey him. 12 ¶ And now, Israel, what doeth the Lord thy God [f] require of thee, but to feare the Lord thy God, to walke in all his waies, and to loue him, and to serue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule?

13 That thou kepe the commandemẽts of the Lord, and his ordinances, which I commande thee this day, for thy welth?

14 Beholde, heauen, and the heauen of heauens is the Lords thy God, and the earth, with all that therein is.

g Although he was Lord of heauen & earth, yet wolde he chuse none but you. 15 [g] Notwithstanding, the Lord set his delite in thy fathers to loue thẽ, and dyd chose their sede after them, euen you aboue all people, as appeareth this day.

h Cut of all your euil affectiõs, Iere. 4, 4. 16 [h] Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and harden your necks no more.

CHAP. XI.

1 An exhortacion to loue God, and kepe his Lawe. 10 The praises of Canaan. 18 To meditate continually the worde of God. 19 To teache it vnto the children. 26 Blessing, and cursing.

1 THerefore thou shalt loue the Lord thy God, and shalt kepe that, which he commandeth to be kept: that is, his ordinances, and his Lawes, and his commandements alwaie.

a Ye, which haue seene Gods graces ẅ your eies, oght rather to be moued, them your children, ẅ haue onely heard of them. 2 And [a] consider this day (for I speake not to your children, which haue nether knowne nor sene) the chastisement of ẏ Lord your God, his greatnes, his mightie hand, and his stretched out arme,

3 And his signes, and his actes, which he did did in the middes of Egypt vnto Pharaoh the King of Egypt and vnto all his land:

4 And what he did vnto the hoste of the Egyptians, vnto their horses and to their charets, when he caused ỹ waters of ỹ red Sea to ouerflowe them, as thei pursued after you, and the Lord destroyed them vnto this day:

b Aswel cõcerning his benefites, as his corrections.

5 And b what he did vnto you in the wildernes, vntil ye came vnto this place:

6 And what he did vnto Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab the sonne of Reuben, when the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them with their housholdes and their tẽts, and all their substance that "thei had in the middes of all Israel.

"Ebr. was at their fete.

7 For your eies haue sene all the great actes of the Lord which he did.

c Because ye haue felt both his chastisemẽts and his benefites.

8 Therefore shal ye kepe c all the commandements, which I commande you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possesse ỹ land whether ye go to possesse it:

9 Also that ye may prolong your daies in the land, which the Lord sware vnto your fathers to giue vnto them and to their sede, euen a land that floweth with milke and honie.

10 ¶For the land whether thou goest to possesse it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came, where thou sowedst thy sede, and wateredst it with "thy d fete as a garden of herbes:

"Or, labour.

d As by makig gutters for the water to come out of ỹ riuer Nilus to water the land.

11 But the land whether ye go to possesse it, is a land of mountaines and valleis, & drinketh water of the raine of heauen.

12 This land doeth the Lord thy God care for: the eies of the Lord thy God are alwaies vpon it, from the beginning of the yere, euen vnto the end of the yere.

13 ¶If ye shal hearken therefore vnto my commandements, which I commande you this day, that ye loue the Lord your God & serue him with all your heart, and with all your soule, e In the fede time, & toward harueft.

14 I also wil giue raine vnto your land in due time, e the first raine and ỹ latter, that ỹ maiest gather in thy wheat, and thy wine, and thine oyle.

15 Also I will send grasse in thy fields for thy cattel, that thou maiest eat, and haue ynough.

f By diuising to your selues foolish deuocions according to your owne fantasies.

16 But beware lest your heart f deceaue you, and lest ye turne aside, and serue other gods, and worship them,

17 And so the angre of ỹ Lord be kindled against you, and he shut vp the heauen, that there be no raine, and that your land yelde not her frute, & ye perish quickely from the good lãd, which the Lord giueth you.

18 ¶Therefore shal ye lay vp these my wordes in your heart & in your soule, & *binde them for a signe vpon your hãd, ỹ they maie be as a frontelet betwene your eyes, Chap. 6, 6.

19 And ye shal *teache them your children, speaking of them, when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the waie, and when thou liest downe, and when thou risest vp. Chap. 4, 10. & 6, 6.

20 And thou shalt write them vpon the postes of thine house, & vpon thy gates, 21 That your dayes maie be multiplied, & the dayes of your children, in the land ẅ the Lord sware vnto your fathers to giue them, as long as g the heauens are aboue the earth.

g As long as the heauẽs endure.

22 ¶For if ye kepe diligently all these commandements, which I commande you to do: that is, to loue the Lord your God to walke in all his waies, & to cleaue vnto him.

23 Then wil the Lord cast out all these nacions before you, and ye shal possesse great nacions and mightier then you.

24 *All the places whereon the soles of h your fete shal treade, shalbe yours: your coast shal be from ỹ wildernes and from Lebanon, and from the riuer, euen the riuer Perath, vnto the vttermost i Sea. Iosh. 1, 3.

h This was accomplished in Dauids & Salomons time.

i Called mediterraneum.

25 No man shal stand against you: for the Lord your God shal cast the feare and dread of you vpon all the land that ye shal tread vpon, as he hathe said vnto you.

26 ¶Beholde, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse.

27 *The blessing, if ye obey the commandements of the Lord your God ẅ I commande you this day. Chap. 28, 2. & 30, 1.

28 And the curse, if ye wil not obey the commandements of the Lord your God, but turne out of the way, which I commande you this day, to go after other gods, which ye haue not k knowen.

k He reproueth ỹ malice of mẽ ẅ leaue that ẅ is certeine, to follow that ẅ is vncerteine.

29 ¶When the Lord thy God therefore hathe broght thee into the land, whether thou goest to possesse it, then thou shalt put the *blessing vpon mount Gerizim, and the curse vpon mount Ebal. Chap. 27, 13. Iosh. 8, 33.

CHAP. XII.

2 To destroy the idolatrous places. 5, 8 To serue God where he commandeth and as he commandeth, and not as men fantasie. 19 The Leuites must be nourished. 31 Idolaters burnt their children to their gods. 32 To adde not hing to Gods worde.

1 THese are the ordinances & the lawes, which ye shal obserue and do in the land (which the Lord God [a] of thy fathers giueth thee to possesse it) as log as ye liue vpon the earth.

2 *Ye shal vtterly destroy all the places wherein the nacions which ye shal possesse, serued their gods vpon the hie mountains & vpon the hilles, and vnder euerie grene tre.

3 *Also ye shal ouerthrowe their altars, & breake downe their pillers, & burne their [b] groues with fire: & ye shal hewe downe the grauen images of their gods, & abolish their names out of that place.

4 Ye shal [c] not so do vnto the Lord your God,

5 But ye shal seke the place which the Lord your God shal *chose out of all your tribes, to put his Name there, & there to dwel, and thether thou shalt come,

6 And ye shal bring thether your burnt offrings, and your sacrifices, & your tithes, & the [d] offring of your hands, & your vowes, & your fre offrings & ỹ first borne of your kine & of your shepe.

7 And there ye shal eat [e] before ỹ Lord your God, and ye shal reioyce in all that ye put your hand vnto, both ye, & your housholdes, because the Lord thy God hathe blessed thee.

8 Ye shal not do after all these things ỹ we do [f] here this day: that is, euerie man whatsoeuer semeth him good in his owne eyes.

9 For ye are not yet come to rest, & to the inheritance ẅ the Lord thy God giueth thee.

10 But when ye go ouer Iorden, & dwel in the land, which the Lord your God hathe giuen you to inherit, & when he hathe giuen you [g] rest from all your enemies rounde about, & ye dwel in safetie,

11 When there shalbe a place which ỹ Lord your God shal chose, to cause his Name to dwell there, thether shal ye brig all that I cõmande you: your burnt offrings, & your sacrifices, your tithes, and the offring of your hands, and all your [h] special vowes which ye vow vnto the Lord:

12 And ye shal reioyce before the Lord your God, ye & your sonnes & your daughters, & your seruants, and your maidens, and the Leuite that is within your gates: *for he hathe no parte nor inheritance with you.

13 Take hede that thou offer not thy burnt offrings in euerie place that thou seest:

14 But in the place which the Lord shal [h] chose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offrings, and there thou shalt do all that I commande thee.

15 Notwithstanding thou maist kil and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoeuer thine heart desireth, according to the [i] blessing of the Lord thy God which he hathe giuen thee: bothe the vncleane and the cleane may eat thereof, [k] as of the roe bucke, & of the hart.

16 Onely ye shal not eat the blood, but powre it vpon the earth as water.

17 ¶ Thou maiest not eat within thy gates the [l] tithe of thy corne, nor of thy wine, nor of thine oyle, nor the first borne of thy kine, nor of thy shepe, nether anie of thy vowes which thou vowest, nor thy fre offrings, nor the offring of thine hands,

18 But thou shalt eat it before the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord thy God shal chose, thou, and thy sonne, and thy daughter, and thy seruant, and thy maid, and the Leuite, that is within thy gates: and thou shalt reioyce before ỹ Lord thy God, in all that thou putteste thine hand to.

19 *Beware, that thou forsake not the Leuite, as long as thou liuest vpon the earth.

20 ¶ When the Lord thy God shal enlarge thy border, *as he hathe promised thee, and thou shalt say, I wil eat flesh, (because thine heart lõgeth to eat flesh) thou maist eat flesh, what soeuer thine heart desireth.

21 If the place which the Lord thy God hathe chosen to put his Name there, be far frõ thee, then thou shalt kil of thy bullockes, and of thy shepe which the Lord hathe giuen thee, as I haue commanded thee, & thou shalt eat in thy gates, whatsoeuer thine heart desireth.

22 Euen as the roe bucke and the hart is eaten, so thou shalt eat them: both the vncleane & the cleane shal eat of them alike.

23 Onely be [m] sure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood [m] is the life, and thou maist not eat the life with the flesh.

24 Therefore thou shalt not eat it, but powre it vpon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eat it, that it may go wel with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right

3 And let the Elders of that citie, which is next vnto the slayne man, take out of the droue an heifer that hathe not bene put to labour, nor hathe drawen in the yoke.

17 But he shal acknowledge the sonne of the hated for the first borne, & giue him [h] double porcion of all that he hathe: for he is the first of his strength, and to [i] him belongeth the right of the first borne.

18 If anie man haue a sonne that is stubburne and disobedient, which wil not hearken vnto the voyce of his father, nor the voyce of his [k] mother, and they haue chastened him, and he wolde not obey them,

20 And shal say vnto the Elders of his citie, This our sonne is stubburne and disobedient, and he wil not obey our admonicion: he is a ryotour, and a dronkard.

21 Then all the men of his citie shal [l] stone him with stones vnto death: so thou shalt take away euil from among you, that all Israel may heare it and feare.

22 ¶ If a man also haue cõmitted a tresspas worthy of death, and is put to death, & thou hangest him on a tre,

Chap. 15, 9.

55 For feare of giuing vnto anie of them of the flesh of his childrē, whome he shal eat, because he hathe nothing left him in that siege, and straitnes, wherewith thine enemie shal besiege thee in all thy cities.

56 The tender and deintie [s] woman among you, which neuer wolde venture to set the sole of her fote vpon ỹ grounde (for her softnes and tēdernes) shalbe grieued at her husband, that lyeth in her bosome, and at her sonne, & at her daughter, s As came to passe in the daies of Ioram, King of Israel, 2. King. 6, 29. and when the Romains besieged Ieruſalem.

57 And at her [t] afterbyrth (that shal come out from betwene her fete) and at her children, which she shal beare: for when all things lacke, she shal eat thē secretly, during the siege and straitnes, wherewith thine enemie shal besiege thee in thy cities.

t Hungre shal so bite her, that she shal be ready to eat her childe before it be deliuered.

58 ¶ If thou wilt not kepe and do [v] all the wordes of this Lawe (that are written in this boke) & feare this glorious & feareful Name THE LORD THY GOD, v For he that offendeth in one, is guilie of all. Iam. 2, 10.

59 Then the Lord wil make thy plagues wonderful, & the plagues of thy sede, euen great plagues and of long continuance, & sore diseases, and of long durance.

60 Moreouer, he wil bring vpon thee all the diseases of Egypt, whereof thou wast afraied, and thei shal cleaue vnto thee.

61 And euerie sickenes, and euerie plague, which is not [x] written in the boke of this Lawe, wil ỹ Lord heape vpon thee, vntil thou be destroyed.

x Declaring ỹ God hathe infinite meanes to plague the wicked, besides them that are ordinarie or written.

62 And ye shalbe left fewe in nomber, where ye were as the *starres of heauen in multitude, because thou woldest not obey the voyce of the Lord thy God.

Chap. 10, 22.

63 And as the Lord hathe reioyced ouer you, to do you good, & to multiplie you, so he wil reioyce ouer you, to destroye you, and bring you to noght, and ye shalbe rooted out of the land, whether thou goest to possesse it.

64 And the Lord shal [y] scatter thee among all people, frō the one end of the worlde vnto the other, and there thou shalt serue other gods, which thou hast not knowen nor thy fathers, euen wood and stone.

y Signifying ỹ it is a singular gift of God to be in a place where as we may worship God purely & declare our faith & religion.

65 Also among these nacions thou shalt finde no rest, nether shal the sole of thy fote haue rest: for the Lord shal giue thee there a trembling heart, and loking to returne til thine eies fall out, & a sorowful minde.

66 And thy life shal [n] hang before thee, and n Or, thou shalt be in doute of thy life.

and thou shalt feare bothe night and day, and shalt haue none assurance of thy life.

67 In the morning thou shalt say, Wolde God it were euening, and at euening thou shalt say, Wolde God it were morning, for the feare of thine heart, which thou shalt feare, and for the sight of thine eies, which thou shalt se.

68 And the Lord shal bring thee into Egypt againe with [z] shippes by ý way, whereof I said vnto thee, Thou shalt se it no more againe: & there ye shal sel your selues vnto your enemies for bondemen and bõde women, & there shalbe no byer.

z Because thei were vnmindeful of that miracle, when the Sea gaue place for thẽ to passe through.

CHAP. XXIX.

2 The people are exhorted to obserue the commandements. 10 The whole people from the hieest to the lowest are comprehended vnder Gods couenant. 19 The punishement of him that flattereth him selfe in his wickednes. 24 The cause of Gods wrath against his people.

1 THese are the [a] wordes of the couenant which the Lord commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel, in the lãd of Moab beside the couenant which he had made with them in [b] Horeb.

a That is, the articles, or condicions.

b At the first giuing of the Lawe, ẃ was fourtie yeres before.

2 ¶ And Moses called all Israel, & said vnto them, Ye haue sene all that the Lord did before your eies in the land of Egypt vnto Pharaoh and vnto all his seruants, & vnto all his land,

3 The [c] great tentacions which thine eies haue sene, those great miracles and wonders:

c The profes of my power.

4 Yet the Lord hathe not [d] giuen you an heart to perceiue, and eies to se, and eares to heare, vnto this day.

d He sheweth that it is not in mans power to vnderstand the mysteries of God, if it be not giuen him from aboue.

5 And I haue led you fourtie yere in the wildernes: your clothes are not waxed olde vpon you, nether is thy shooe waxed olde vpon thy fote.

6 Ye haue eaten no [e] bread, nether dronke wine, nor strõg drinke, that ye might knowe, how that I am the Lord your God.

e Made by mãs arte, but mãna, which is called the bread of Augels.

7 After ye came vnto this place, and Sihon King of Heshbon, and Og King of Bashan came out against vs vnto battel, and we slewe them,

8 And toke their land, and gaue it for an inheritãce vnto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, & to the half tribe of Manasseh.

9 * Kepe therefore the wordes of this couenant & do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye shal do.

Chap. 4, 6.

10 Ye stand this day euerie one of you before the Lord your [f] God: your heades of your tribes, your Elders and your officers, euen all the men of Israel:

f Who knoweth your hartes, & therefore ye may not thinke to dissemble ẃ him.

11 Your children, your wiues, & thy strãger that is in thy campe from the hewer of thy wood, vnto the drawer of thy water,

12 That thou shuldest [g] passe into ý couenant of the Lord thy God, and into his othe which the Lord thy God maketh with thee this day, g Alluding to them, that whẽ they made a sure couenant, deuided a beast in twaine, and past betweene ý partes deuided, Gen. 15, 10.

13 For to establish thee this day a people vnto him selfe, & that he may be vnto thee a God, as he hathe said vnto thee, and as he hathe sworne vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob.

14 Nether make I this couenãt, and this othe with you onely, 15 But aswel with him that standeth here with vs this day before the Lord our God, as with him [h] that is not here with vs this day.

h Meaning, their posteritie.

16 For ye knowe, how we haue dwelt in the land of Egypt, and how we passed through the middes of the nacions, ẃ ye passed by.

17 And ye haue sene their abominaciõs & their idoles (wood, and stone, siluer & golde) ẃ which were among them,

18 That there shulde not be among you man nor woman, nor familie, nor tribe, which shulde turne his heart away this day from the Lord our God, to go & serue the gods of these nacions, & that there shulde not be among you [i] anie roote that bringeth fourth gall and wormewood, i Suche sinne, as the bitter frute thereof might choke & destroye you.

19 So that when he heareth the wordes of this curse, he [k] blesse him selfe in his heart, saying, I shal haue peace, although I walke according to the stubbernes of mine owne heart, thus adding [k] drõkenes to thirst.

k Or, flatter.

k For as he ý is thirsty, desireth to drinke muche, so he ý followeth his appetites, seketh by all meanes, & yet can not be satisfied

20 The Lord wil not be merciful vnto him, but then the wrath of the Lord and his ielousie shal smoke against that man, and euerie curse that is written in this boke, shal light vpon him, and the Lord shal put out his name from vnder heauen.

21 And the Lord shal separate him vnto euil out of all the tribes of Israel, according vnto all the curses of the couenant, that is written in the boke of this Lawe.

22 So that the [l] generacion to come, euen your children, that shal rise vp after you, and the stranger that shal come from a far land, shal say, when they shal se the plagues of this land, and the diseases thereof, wherewith the Lord shal smite it:

l Gods plagues vpon them that rebell against him, shal be so strange, that all ages shalbe astonied.

23 (For all that land shal burne with brimstone and salt: it shal not be sowen, nor bring forth, nor anie grasse shal growe therein, like as in the ouerthrowing of *Sodõ, & Gomorah, Admah & Zeboim, which the Lord ouerthrewe in his his wrath and in his angre)

1.King.9,8. ier.22,8. 24 Then shal all nacions say, *Wherefore hathe the Lord done thus vnto this land? how fearce is this great wrath?
25 And they shal answer, Because they haue forsaken the couenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he had made with them, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt, 26 And went and serued other gods & worshipped them: euen gods which they knewe not, & [n] which had giuen them nothing, n Or, which had, not giue them a land to possesse.
27 Therefore the wrath of the Lord waxed hote against this land, to bring vpon it euerie curse that is written in this boke.
28 And the Lord hathe rooted thē out of their land in angre, and in wrath, and in great indignacio, and hathe cast them into another land, as appeareth this day.
m Moses hereby reproueth their curiosite, which seke those things that are only knowē to God: & their negligence, that regarde not ý, ẅ God hath reueiled vnto thē as the lawe.
29 The [m] secret things belong to ý Lord our God, but the things reueiled belong vnto vs, and to our children for euer, that we may do all the wordes of this Lawe.

CHAP. XXX.

Mercie shewed when thei repent. 6 The Lord doeth circumcise the heart. 11 All excuse of ignorance is taken away. 19 Life and death is set before them. 20 The Lord is their life which obey him.

1 NOw when all these thinges shal come vpon thee, either the blessing or the curse which I haue set before thee, and thou shalt [a] turne into thine heart, among all the nacions whether ý Lord thy God hathe driuen thee, a By calling to remembrance, both his mercies & his plagues.
2 And shalt returne vnto the Lord thy God, and obey his voyce in all that I commande thee this day: thou, & thy children with all thine [b] heart and with all thy soule, b In true repentance is none hypocrisie.
3 Then the Lord thy God wil cause thy captiues to returne, and haue compassion vpon thee, & wil returne, to gather thee out of all the people, where ý Lord thy God had scatered thee.
c Euen to the worldes end.
4 Thogh thou were cast vnto the vtmost parte of [c] heauen, from thence wil the Lord thy God gather thee, & from thence wil he [d] take thee, d And bring thee into thy countrey.
5 And the Lord thy God wil bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possesse it, and he wil shewe thee fauour, and wil multiplie thee aboue thy fathers.
e God wil purge all thy wicked affections. ẅ thing is not in thine owne power to do.
6 And the Lord thy God wil [e] circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy sede, that thou maist loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, that thou maist liue.
7 And the Lord thy God wil lay all these curses vpon thine enemies, and on them, that hate thee, and that persecute thee.
8 [f] Returne thou therefore, & obey the voyce of the Lord, & do all his commādements, which I commande thee this day.
f If we wil haue God to worke in vs with his holy Spirit, we must turne againe to him by repentance.
9 And the Lord thy God wil make thee plenteous in euerie worke of thine hād, in the frute of thy body, and in the frute of thy cattel, and in the frute of the land for thy welth: for the Lord wil turne againe & [g] reioyce ouer thee to do thee good, as he reioyced ouer thy fathers, g He meaneth not that God is subiect to these passions, to reioyce or to be sad: but he vseth this maner of speache to declare the loue ý he beareth vnto vs.
10 Because thou shalt obey the voyce of the Lord thy God, in keping his commandements, & his ordinances, which are written in the boke of this Lawe, when thou shalt returne vnto the Lord thy God with all thine heart & with all thy soule.
11 ¶ For this commandement which I cōmande thee this day, is [h] not hid from thee, nether is it farre of.
h The Law is so euident that none can pretend ignorance.
12 It is not in heauen, that thou shuldest say, *Who shal go vp for vs to heauen, and bring it vs, and cause vs to heare it, that we may do it?
Rom.12,6.
13 Nether is it beyonde the [i] sea, ý thou shuldest say, Who shal go ouer the sea for vs, & bring it vs, and cause vs to heare it that we may do it?
i By heauen & the sea he meaneth places most farre distant.
14 But the [k] worde is verie nere vnto thee: euen in thy mouth & in thine heart, for to [l] do it.
k Euen the Lawe & the Gospel.
l By faith in Christ.
15 Beholde, I haue set before thee this day life & good, death and euil.
16 In that I commande thee this day, [m] to loue the Lord thy God, to walke in his wayes, & to kepe his commandements, & his ordinances, & his lawes that thou maiest [n] liue & be multiplied, and that the Lord thy God may blesse thee in the land, whether thou goest to possesse it.
m So that to loue & obey God, is onely life & felicitie.
n He addeth these promises to signifie that it is for our profit ý we loue him, & not for his.
17 But if thine heart turne away, so that thou wilt not obey, but shalt be seduced & worship other gods, and serue them,
18 I pronounce vnto you this day that ye shal surely perish, ye shal not prolong your dayes in the land whether thou passest ouer Iorden to possesse it.
19 *I call heauen & earth to recorde this day against you, that I haue set before you life and death, blessing and cursing. therfore [o] chose life, that both thou & thy sede may liue,
Chap.4,26.
20 By louing the Lord thy God, by obeying his voyce, & by cleauing vnto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy dayes: that thou maist dwel in the land which the Lord sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Izhak and Iaakob, to o That is, loue & obey God: ẅ thing is not in mans power, but Gods spirit onely worketh it in his elect.

CHAP. XXXI.

1,7 Moses preparing him selfe to dye, appointeth Ioshua to rule the people. 9 He giueth the Law to the Leuites, that they shulde read it to the people. 19 God giueth thē a song as a witnes betwene him & them. 23 God confirmeth Ioshua. 29 Moses sheweth thē that they wil rebel after his death.

1 THen Moses wēt & spake these wordes vnto all Israel, a I can no longer execute mine office. Nomb.20,12. chap.3,26.

2 And said vnto them, I am an hundreth & twentie yere olde this day: I [a] can no more go out & in: also the Lord hathe said vnto me, * Thou shalt not go ouer this Iorden.

3 The Lord thy God he wil go ouer before thee: he wil destroy these nacions before thee, & thou shalt possesse them. *Ioshua he shal go before thee, as the Lord hathe said.

Nom.27,18.

Nom 21,24.

4 And the Lord shal do vnto them, as he dyd to*Sihon & to Og Kings of the Amorites, & vnto their land whome he destroyed.

b Into your handes. Chap.7,2.

5 And the Lord shal giue them [b] before you that ye may do vnto them according vnto euerie* cōmandement, which I haue commanded you.

[c]Or, be of good courage.

6 Plucke[c] vp your hearts therefore, and be strong: dread not, nor be afrayd of them: for the Lord thy God him selfe doeth go with thee: he wil not fayle thee, nor forsake thee.

c For he that must gouerne ỹ people, hathe nede to be valiant to represse vice, & constant to maintein vertue.

7 ¶And Moses called Ioshua, and said vnto him in the sight of all Israel, Be [c] of a good courage and strong: for thou shalt go with this people vnto the land which the Lord hathe sworne vnto their fathers, to giue them, and thou shalt giue it them to inherit.

d Signifying ỹ man can neuer be of good courage, except he be perswaded of Gods fauour & assistance.

8 And the Lord him selfe doeth [d] go before thee: he wilbe with thee: he wil not fayle thee, nether forsake thee: feare not therefore, nor be discomforted.

9 ¶And Moses wrote this Lawe, and deliuered it vnto the Priestes the sonnes of Leui (which bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord) and vnto all the Elders of Israel, Nehem.8,2. Chap.15,1.

10 And Moses commāded them, saying, Euerie seuenth yere when the vere of fredome shalbe in the feast of the Tabernacles:

e Before ỹ Arke of the couenant, which was ỹ signe of Gods presence, & the figure of Christ.

11 When all Israel shal come to appeare [e] before the Lord thy God, in the place which he shal chose, thou shalt read this Lawe before all Israel that they may heare it.

12 Gather the people together: men, & women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may heare, and that they may learne, and feare the Lord your God, and kepe, and obserue all the wordes of this Lawe, f Which were not borne when the Lawe was giuen.

13 And that their children which [f] haue not knowen it, may heare it, and learne to feare the Lord your God, as long as ye liue in the land, whether ye go ouer Iorden to possesse it.

14 ¶Then the Lord said vnto Moses, Behold, thy dayes are come, ỹ thou must dye: Call Ioshua, & stand ye in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion that I may giue him a [g]charge. so Moses & Ioshua went, and stode in the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.

[g]Or, commandement.

g In a cloude ỹ was facioned like a piller.

15 And the Lord appeared in the Tabernacle, in the piller of a [g] cloude: & ỹ piller of the cloude stode ouer the dore of the Tabernacle.

16 ¶And the Lord said vnto Moses, Behold, thou shalt slepe with thy fathers, and this people wil rise vp, and go a whoring after the gods of a strāge land (whether they go) to dwel therein, & wil forsake me, and breake my couenant ỹ I haue made with them.

17 Wherefore my wrath wil waxe hote against them at that day, & I wil forsake them, & wil [h] hide my face from them: then they shalbe consumed, and many aduersities & tribulaciōs shal come vpon them: so then they wil say, Are not these troubles come vpō me, because God is not with me?

h That is, I wil take my fauour frō them: as to turne his face toward vs, is to shewe vs his fauour.

18 But I wil surely hide my face in that day, because of all the euil, which they shal commit, in that they are turned vnto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this [i] song for you, and teache it the children of Israel: put it in their mouthes, that this song may be my witnes against the children of Israel.

i To preserue you and your children frō idolatrie, by remēbring Gods benefites.

20 For I wil bring them into the land (ỹ I sware vnto their fathers) that floweth with milke and honie, and they shal eat, and fil them selues, and waxe fat: [k] then shal they turne vnto other gods, and serue them, and contemne me, & breake my couenant.

k For this is ỹ nature of flesh, no longer to obey God, thē it is vnder the rod.

21 And then when manie aduersities and tribulacions shal come vpon them, this song shal [l]answer them to their face as a witnes: for it shal not be forgotten out of the mouthes of their posteritie: for I knowe their imaginacion, which they go about euē now, before I haue brought them into the land which I sware.

l That these euils are come vpon them, because they forsoke me.

22 ¶Moses therefore wrote this song the same day and taught it the children of Israel.

23 And God gaue Ioshua ỹ sonne of Nun a charge, and said, * Be strong, and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land, which I sware vnto them, and I wil be with thee.

Iosh.1,6.

24 And

24 ¶ And when Moses had made an end of writing the wordes of this Lawe in a boke vntil he had finished them,
25 Then Moses commanded the Leuites, which bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, saying,
26 Take the boke of this Law, and put ye it in the side of the Arke of ỹ couenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a [m] witnes against thee.
27 For i knowe thy rebellion and thy stiffe necke: beholde, I being yet aliue with you this day, ye are rebellious against the Lord: how muche more then after my death?
28 Gather vnto me all the Elders of your tribes, and your [n] officers, that I may speake these wordes in their audience, and call heauen and earth to recorde against them.
29 For I am sure that after my death ye wil vtterly be corrupt and turne from the way, which I haue commanded you: therefore euil wil come vpon you at the lẽgth, because ye wil commit euil in the sight of the Lord, by prouoking him to angre through the [o] worke of your handes.
30 Thus Moses spake in the audience of all the Congregacion of Israel the wordes of this song, vntil he had ended them.

m Of thine infidelitie, when thou shalt turne away from the doctrine cõteined therein.

n As gouuerners, iudges, & magistrates.

CHAP. XXXII.

The song of Moses conteining Gods benefites toward the people, 15 And their ingratitude toward him. 20 God menaceth thẽ. 21 And speaketh of the vocation of the Gentiles. 46 Moses commandeth to teache the Lawe to the children. 49 God forewarneth Moses of his death.

1 HEarken, ye [a] heauens, and I wil speake: and let the earth heare the wordes of my mouth.
2 My [b] doctrine shal drop as ỹ raine, and my speache shal stil as doeth the dewe, as the showre vpon the herbes, and as ỹ great raine vpon the grasse.
3 For I wil publishe the Name of the Lord: giue ye gloire vnto our God.
4 Perfect is the worke of the [c] mighty God: for all his wayes are iudgement. God is true, and without wickednes: iust, & righteous is he.
5 They haue corrupted them selues toward him by their vice, not being his childrẽ, but a frowarde and crooked generacion.
6 Do ye so rewarde the Lord, o foolish people and vnwise? is not he thy father, that hathe boght thee? he hathe [d] made thee, and proportioned thee.
7 ¶ Remember the dayes of olde: consider the yeres of so manie generacions: aske thy father, and he wil shewe thee: thine Elders, and they wil tel thee.
8 When the most hie God deuided to the nacions their inheritance, when he separated ỹ sonnes of Adam, he appointed ỹ borders of the [e] people according to ỹ nomber of the children of Israel.
9 For ỹ Lords porcion is his people: Iaakob is the lot of his inheritance.
10 He founde him in the land of ỹ wildernes, in a waste, and roaring wildernes: he led him about, he taught him, and kept him as the apple of his eye.
11 As an egle stereth vp her nest, [f] flotereth ouer her birdes, stretcheth out her wings, taketh them, and beareth thẽ on her wings, 12 So the Lord alone led him and there was no [g] strange god with him.
13 He caried him vp to the hie places of the [h] earth, that he might eat the frutes of the fields, and he caused him to sucke honey out of the stone and oyle out of the hard rocke:
14 Butter of kine, and milke of shepe ẅ fat of the lambs, and rams fed in Bashã, and goates, with the fat of the graines of wheat, and the red [i] licour of ỹ grape hast thou dronke.
15 ¶ But he that shulde haue bene [k] vpright, when he waxed fat, spurned with his hele: thou art fat, thou art grosse, thou art laden with fatnes: therefore he forsoke God that made him, and regarded not the strong God of this saluacion.
16 They prouoked him with [l] strange gods: they prouoked him to angre with abominacions.
17 They offred vnto deuils, not to God, but to gods whome they knewe not: [m] newe gods that came newly vp, whome their fathers feared not.
18 Thou hast forgottẽ the mightie God, that begate thee, & hast forgotten God that formed thee.
19 The Lord then sawe it, and was angry, for the prouocacion of his [n] sonnes and of his daughters.
20 And he said, I wil hide my face from them: I wil se what their end shalbe: for they are a frowarde generacion, children in whome is no faith.
21 They haue moued me to ielousie with that which is not God: they haue prouoked me to angre with their vanites: * and I wil moue them to ielousie with those which are no [o] people: I wil prouoke thẽ to angre with a foolish nacion.
22 For fire is kindled in my wrath, & shal burne vnto the bothome of hel, & shal consume the earth with her increase, & set on fire the fundacions of the mountaines.
23 I wil spend plagues vpon them: I wil bestowe mine arrowes vpon them.
24 They shalbe burnt with hũger, and cõsumed

5 Then [n] he was among the [n] righteous people, as King, when the heades of the people, and the tribes of Israel were assembled.

6 ¶ Let [f] Reubē liue and not dye, though his men be a small nomber.

7 ¶ And thus he blessed Iudah, & said, Heare, o Lord, the voice of Iudah, & bring him vnto his people: his hands shalbe [g] sufficient for him, if thou helpe him against his enemies.

8 ¶ And of Leui he said, Let thy * Thūmim & thine Vrim be with thine holy one, whome thou didest proue in Massah, and didest cause him to striue at the waters of Meribah.

9 Who said vnto his father and to his mother, [h] I haue not sene him, nether knewe he his brethren, nor knewe his owne children: for they obserued [i] worde, & kept thy couenant.

10 Thei shal teache Iaakob thy judgemēts, and Israel thy Lawe: they shal put incens before thy face, & the burnt offring vpon thine altar.

11 Blesse, o Lord, his substance, and accept the worke of his hands: [i] smite through the loines of them that rise against him, and of them that hate him, that they rise not againe.

12 ¶ Of Beniamin he said, The beloued of the Lord shal [k] dwel in safety by him: the Lord shal couer him all the day long, and dwel betwene his shulders.

13 ¶ And of Ioseph he said, Blessed of ý Lord is his land for the swetenes of heauen, for the dewe, and [n] for the depth lying beneth,

14 And for ý swete increase of the sunne, and for the swete increase of ý moone,

18 ¶ And of Zebulun he said, Reioyce, Zebulun, in thy [m] going out, and thou, Issachar, in thy tentes.

19 They shal call the people vnto the [n] mountaine: there they shal offer ý sacrifices of righteousnes: for [n] they shal sucke of the abundance of the sea, and of the treasures hid in the sand.

20 ¶ Also of Gad he said, Blessed be he ý enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a liō, ý catcheth for his pray ý arme & ý head.

21 And he loked to him selfe at the beginning, because there was a porcion of the [o] Lawegiuer hid: yet he shal come with the heds of the people, to execute the iustice of the Lord, & his iudgemēts with Israel.

22 ¶ And of Dan he said, Dan is a lions whelpe: he shal leape from Bashan.

23 ¶ Also of Naphtali he said, o Naphtali, satisfied with fauour, and filled with the blessing of the Lord, possesse [p] the West and the South.

24 ¶ And of Asher he said, Asher shalbe blessed with children: he shalbe acceptable vnto his brethren, and shal dip his fote in oyle.

25 Thy shoes shalbe [q] yron and brasse, and thy strength shal continue as long as thou liuest.

26 ¶ There is none like God, o righteous people, which rideth vpō the heauens for thine helpe, & on ý cloudes in his glorie.

27 The eternal God is thy refuge, and vnder his armes thou arte for euer: he shal cast out the enemie before thee, and wil say, Destroy them.

28 Then Israel [r] the founteine of Iaakob shal dwel alone in safety in a lād of wheat & wine: also his heauens shal drop the dewe.

29 Blessed art thou, o Israel: who is like vnto thee, o people saued by the Lord, ý shylde of thine helpe, & which is ý sworde of thy glorie? therefore [s] thine enemies shalbe in subiection to thee, & thou shalt tread vpon their hie places.

THE BOKE OF IOSHVA.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN this boke the holy Goste setteth moste liuely before our eyes the accomplishement of Gods promes, who as he promised by the mouthe of Moses, that a Prophet shulde be raised vp vnto the people like vnto him, whome he willeth to obey, Deut 18, 15: so he sheweth him selfe here truly his promes, as at all other times, and after the deathe of Moses his faithful seruant, he raiseth vp Iosh̄ua to be ruler and gouernour ouer his people, that nether they shulde be discouraged for lacke of a captaine, nor haue occasion to distrust Gods promises hereafter. And because that Iosh̄ua might be confirmed in his vocation, and the people also might haue none occasion to grudge, as though he were not approued of God: he is adorned with moste excellent giftes and graces of God, bothe to gouerne the people with counsel, and to defend them with strength: that he lacked nothing which ether belonged to a valiant captaine or a faithful minister. So he ouercometh all difficulties, and bringeth them in to the land of Canaan: the which according to Gods ordinance he deuideth among the people & appointeth their borders: he establisheth lawes and ordinances, and putteth them in remembrance of Gods manifolde benefites, assuring them of his grace and fauour, if they obey God, and contrarie wise of his plagues and vengeance, if they disobey him. This historie doeth represent Iesus Christ the true Iosh̄ua, who leadeth vs into eternal felicitie, which is signified vnto vs by this land of Canaan. From the beginning of the Genesis to the end of this boke are conteined 2597 yeres For from Adam vnto the flood are 1656. from the flood vnto the departure of Abraham out of Caldea 363 and from thence to the death of Ioseph 290. So that the Genesis conteineth 2390. Exodus 140. the other thre bokes of Moses 40. Iosh̄ua 27. So the whole maketh 2597 yeres.

a The beginning of this boke depēdeth on the last chap. of Deu. which was written by Iosh̄ua as a preparacion to his historie.

NOw after the a death of Moses the seruant of the Lord, the Lord spake vnto Iosh̄ua the sonne of Nun, Moses minister, saying,
2 Moses my seruant is dead: now therefore arise, go ouer this Iorden, thou, and all this people, vnto the land which I giue them, that is, to the children of Israel.
3 *Euerie place that the sole of your foote shal tread vpon haue I giuen you, as I said vnto Moses.

7 Onely be thou strong, " and of a moste valiat courage, that thou maiest obserue and do according to all the lawe which Moses my seruant hathe commanded thee:
" Or, growe stronger & stronger.

c He sheweth wherein consisteth true prosperitie, euen to obey the worde of God.

thee: *thou shalt not turne away from it to the right hand, nor to the left, that 8 thou maiest c prosper whethersoeuer thou goest.

Let not this boke of the Lawe departe out of thy mouth, but meditate therein day and f night, that thou maiest obserue & do according to all that is written therein: for then shalt thou make thy way prosperous, & then shalt thou ‖ haue good successe.

f Shewing ỹ it was not possible to gouerne wel without continual studie of Gods worde.

‖ Or, gouerne wisely.

9 Haue not I commanded thee, saying, Be strong and of a good courage, feare not nor be discouraged? for I the Lord thy God wilbe with thee, whethersoeuer thou goest.

10 ¶ Then Ioshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Passe through the hoste, and cõmande the people, saying, Prepare you vitailes: for g after thre daies ye shal passe ouer this Iorden, to go in to possesse ỹ land, which the Lord your God giueth you to possesse it.

g Meaning frõ the day ỹ this was proclaimed.

12 ¶ And vnto ỹ Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to halfe the tribe of Manasseh spake Ioshua, saying,

15 Vntil the Lord haue giuen your brethren rest, aswel as to you, & vntil thei also shal possesse the land, which ỹ Lord your God giueth them: then shal ye returne vnto the land of your possession, and shal possesse it, which land Moses ỹ Lords seruãt i gaue you on this side Iorden towarde the sunne rising.

i By your request, but yet by Gods secret appointement, Deut.33.21.

16 Then thei answered Ioshua, saying, All that thou hast commãded vs, we wil do, and whether soeuer thou sendest vs, we wil go.

17 As we obeyed Moses in all things, k so wil we obey thee: onely the Lord thy God be with thee as he was with Moses.

k Thei do not onely promise to obey him so long as God is with him: but to helpe to punish all that rebelle against him.

18 Whosoeuer shal rebelle against thy commandement, and wil not obey thy wordes in all that thou commãdest him, let him be put to death; onely be strong & of good courage.

CHAP. II.

1 Ioshua sendeth men to spie Iericho, whome Rahab hideth. 11 She confesseth the God of Israel. 12 She requireth a signe for her deliuerãce. 21 The spies returne to Ioshua with comfortable tidings.

1 THen Ioshua the sonne of Nun sent out of a Shittim two mẽ to spie secretly, saying, Go vewe the land, and also Iericho: and thei went, and *came into an ‖ harlots house, named Rahab, and lodged there.

a Which place was in the plaine of Moab nere vnto Iorden. Ebr.11.21. Iam.2.25.

‖ Or, tauerners house, or hostes

2 Then reporte was made to the King of Iericho, saying, Beholde, there came mẽ hether to night, of the childrẽ of Israel, to spie out the countrey.

3 And the King of Iericho sent vnto Rahab, saying, b Bring forthe the mẽ that are come to thee, and which are entred into thine house: for thei be come to searche out all the land.

b Thogh the wicked se the hand of God vpon thẽ, yet thei repent not, but seke how thei may by their power resist his meanes.

4 (But the woman had taken the two men, and hid them) Therefore said she thus, There came men vnto me, but I wist not whence thei were.

5 And when thei shut the gate in ỹ darcke, the men went out, whether the men went I wote not: followe ye after them quickely, for ye shal ouertake them.

6 (But she had broght them vp to the c roofe of the house, & hyd them with the stalkes of flaxe, which she had spread abroade vpon the roofe)

c Meaning, vpon ỹ house: for then their houses were flat aboue, so ỹ they might do their busines thereupon.

7 And certeine men pursued after hem, the way to Iorden, vnto the fourdes, and assone as thei which pursued after thẽ, were gone out, thei shut the gate.

8 ¶ And before thei were a slepe, she came vp vnto them vpon the roofe, 9 And said vnto the men, I knowe that the Lord hathe giuen you the land, and that the d feare of you is fallen vpõ vs, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you.

d For so God promised, Deu. 28,7. chap.5,1.

10 For we haue heard, how ỹ Lord *dryed vp the water of the read Sea before you, when you came out of Egypt, and what you did vnto the two Kings of ỹ Amorites, that were on the other side Iordẽ, vnto *Sihon and to Og, whome ye vterly destroyed:

Exod.14.21.

Nomb. 21,13.

11 And when we hearde it, our heartes ‖ did faint, and there remained no more ‖ courage in anie because of you: for e the Lord your God, he is the God in heauẽ aboue, and in earth beneth.

‖ Or, melted.

e Herein appeareth the great mercie of God, that in this comune destructiõ he wolde drawe a moste miserable sinner to repent & confesse his Name.

12 Now therefore, I pray you sweare vnto me by ỹ Lord, that as I haue shewed you mercie, ye wil also shewe mercie vnto my fathers house, and giue me a true token, 13 And that ye wil saue aliue my father and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that thei haue: & that ye wil deliuer our ‖ soules from death.

‖ Or, liues.

14 And the men answered her, f Our life for you to dye, if ye vtter not this our busines: and when the Lord hathe giuen vs the land, we wil deale mercifully and truely with thee.

f We warrant you on peine of our liues.

15 Then she let them downe by a corde through the windowe: for her house was vpon the towne wall, and she dwelt vpō the wall.

16 And she said vnto them, Go you into the [b] mountaine, lest the pursuers mete with you, & hyde your selues there three daies, vntil the pursuers be returned: then afterward may ye go your way.

17 And the men said vnto her, [h] We wil be blameles of this thine othe, which thou hast made vs sweare.

18 Beholde, when we come into the land, thou shalt binde this corde of red threde in the windowe, whereby thou lettest vs downe, and thou shalt bring thy father & thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy fathers housholde home to thee.

19 And whosoeuer then doeth go out at the dores of thine house into the streat, [i] his blood shal be vpon his head, and we wil be gylteles: but whosoeuer shal be with thee in the house, his blood shalbe on our head, if anie hand touche him:

20 And if thou vtter this our [k] matter, we wil be quit of thine othe, which thou hast made vs sweare.

21 And she answered, According vnto your wordes so be it: then she sent them away, and they departed, and she bounde the [l] red corde in the windowe.

22 And they departed, and came into the mountaine, & there abode thre daies, vntil the pursuers were returned: & the pursuers soght them throughout all the way, but founde them not.

23 So the two men returned, and descended from the mountaine, & passed [l] ouer, and came to Ioshua the sonne of Nun, & tolde him all things that came vnto them.

24 Also they said vnto Ioshua, Surely ỹ Lord hathe deliuered into our hāds all the land: for euen all the inhabitants of the countrey faint because of vs.

g Which was nere vnto the citie.

h We shal be discharged of our othe, if ỹ doest not performe this condicion that foloweth, for so shalt thou & thine be deliuered.

CHAP. III.

1 Ioshua commādeth them to departe when the Arke remoueth. 7 The Lord promiseth to exalt Ioshua before the people. 9 Ioshuas exhortatiō to the people. 16 The waters parte asunder whiles the people passe.

1 THen Ioshua rose verie early, & they remoued from Shittim, and came to [a] Iorden, he, & all the children of Israel, & lodged there, before they went ouer.

2 And after [b] thre daies the officers went throughout the hoste,

3 And commanded the people, saying, When ye se the Arke of the couenant of the Lord your God, and the Priests of the Leuites bearing it, ye shal departe from your place, and go after it.

4 Yet there shalbe a space betwene you & it, about [a] two thousand cubites by measure: ye shal not come nere vnto it, that ye may knowe the way, by ỹ which ye shal go: for ye haue not gone this way in times past.

5 (Now Ioshua had said vnto ỹ people, *Sanctifie your selues: for tomorowe the Lord wil do wonders among you)

6 Also Ioshua spake vnto ỹ Priests, saying, Take vp the Arke of the couenāt, and go ouer before the people: so thei toke vp the Arke of the couenant, and went before the people.

7 ¶ Then ỹ Lord said vnto Ioshua, This day wil I begin to magnifie thee in the sight of all Israel, which shal knowe, that *as I was with Moses, so wil I be with thee.

8 Thou shalt therefore commande the Priests that beare the Arke of the couenant, saying, When ye are come to the brinke of [c] the waters of Iorden, ye shal stand stil in Iorden.

9 ¶ Then Ioshua said vnto the children of Israel, Come hether, and heare ỹ wordes of the Lord your God.

10 And Ioshua said, [d] Hereby ye shal knowe that the liuing God is among you, & that he wil certeinly cast out before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hiuites, and ỹ Perizzites, and the Gergasshites, and the Amorites, and the Iebusites.

11 Beholde, the Arke of the couenant of the Lord of all the worlde passeth before you into Iorden.

12 Now therefore take frō among you [e] twelue men out of the tribes of Israel, out of euerie tribe a man.

13 And assone as the soles of ỹ fete of the Priests (that beare the Arke of the Lord God the Lord of all ỹ worlde) shal stay in the waters of Iorden, the waters of Iorden shalbe cut of: for the waters that come from aboue, * shal stand stil vpon an heape.

14 ¶ Then when ỹ people were departed from their tentes to go ouer Iordē, the Priests bearing the * Arke of the couenant, went before the people.

15 And as thei that bare the Arke came vnto Iorden, and the fete of the Priests that bare the Arke were dipped in the brinke of the water, (*for Iorden vseth to fil all his [f] bankes all the time of harueste)

16 Then the waters that came downe frō aboue, stayed and rose vpon an heape and departed far from the citie of Adā, that was beside Zaretan: but the waters that came downe towarde the Sea of the wildernes, euen the salt Sea, failed, and were cut of: so ỹ people went right ouer against Iericho.

Eccl. 24, 36.

f Because the riuer was accustomed at this time to be ful, the miracle is so much the greater.

Iordén ready prepared, and all the Israelites went ouer drye, vntil all the people were gone cleane ouer through Iordén.

g Ether taryed til the people were past, or as some read, sure, as thogh they had bene vpon the drye land.

CHAP. IIII.

2 God commanded Ioshua to set vp twelue stones in Iordén. 18 The waters returne to their olde course. 20 Other twelue stones are set vp in Gilgál. 21 This miracle must be declared to the posteritie.

1 AND when all the people were wholly gone * ouer Iordén, (after the 2 Lord had spoken vnto Ioshúa, saying,
Take you twelue men out of the people, out of euerie tribe a man.
3 And commande you them, saying, Take you hence out of the middes of Iordén, out of the place where the Priests stode in a readines, twelue stones, which ye shal take away with you, and leaue them in the b lodging, where you shal lodge this night)
4 Then Ioshúa called ỹ twelue mẽ, whome he had prepared of the children of Israél, out of euerie tribe a man,
5 And Ioshúa said vnto them, Go ouer before the Arke of the Lord your God, euen through the middes of Iordẽ, & take vp euerie man of you a stone vpõ his shulder according vnto the nomber of the tribes of the children of Israél,
6 That this may be a signe among you, that when your c children shal aske their fathers in time to come, saying, What meane you by these stones?
7 Then ye may answer them, That ỹ waters of Iordén were cut of before the Arke of the couenãt of the Lord: for whẽ it passed through Iordén, the waters of Iordén were cut of: therefore these stones are a memorial vnto the children of Israél for euer.
8 Then the children of Israél did euẽ so, as Ioshúa had commanded, & toke vp twelue stones out of the middes of Iordén, as the Lord had said vnto Ioshúa, according to the nomber of the tribes of the children of Israel, & caried them away with them vnto the lodging, and layed them downe there.
9 And Ioshua set vp d twelue stones in the middes of Iordén, in the place where the fete of the Priests, which bare the Arke of the couenant, stode, and there haue they continued vnto this day.
10 ¶ So the Priests, ẅ bare the Arke, stode in the middes of Iordén, vntil euerie thing was finished that ỹ Lord had commanded Ioshua to say vnto the people, according to all that Moses charged Ioshua: then the people hasted and went ouer.
11 When all the people were cleane passed ouer, ỹ Arke of the Lord went ouer also, and the Priests e before the people.
12 *And the sonnes of Reubén, & the sonnes of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manasseh went ouer before the children of Israél armed, as Moses had charged them.
13 Euen fourty thousand prepared for warre, went before the f Lord vnto battel, into the plaine of Iericho.
14 That day ỹ Lord magnified Ioshua in the sight of all Israél, & they g feared him, as they feared Moses all the dayes of his life.
15 And the Lord spake vnto Ioshua, saying,
16 Commande the Priests that beare the h Arke of the Testimonie, to come vp out of Iordén.
17 Ioshua therefore cõmãded the Priests, saying, Come ye vp oute of Iordén.
18 And when the Priests that bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord were come vp out of the middes of Iordén, and assone as ỹ soles of the Priests fete were set on the drye land, the waters of Iordén returned vnto their place, and flowed ouer all the bãkes therof, as they did before.
19 ¶ So the people came vp out of Iordén the tenth day of the i first moneth, and pitched in Gilgál, in the Eastside of Iericho.
20 Also the twelue stones, which they toke out of Iordén, did Ioshua pitche in Gilgál.
21 And he spake vnto the children of Israél, saying, When your childrẽ shal aske their fathers in time to come, and say, What meane these stones?
22 Then ye shal shewe your childrẽ, and say, Israél came ouer this Iordén on drye land:
23 For ỹ Lord your God dryed vp the waters of Iordén before you, vntil ye were gone ouer, as the Lord your God did the red Sea, * which he dryed vp before vs, til we were gone ouer, 24 That all the people of the k world may know that the hand of the Lord is mighty, that ye might feare the Lord your God continually.

CHAP. V.

1 The Canaanites are afraide of the Israelites. 2 Circumcision is commanded the seconde time. 10 The Passouer is kept. 12 Manna ceaseth. 13 The Angel appeareth vnto Ioshúa.

1 NOw whẽ all ỹ Kings of the a Amorites, which were beyonde Iordén Westward, and all the Kings of the Canaanites, which were by ỹ Sea, heard that the Lord had dryed vp ỹ waters of Iorden before the childrē of Israel vntil they were gone ouer, their heart fainted: and there was no courage in them anie more because of the children of Israel.

2 ¶ That same time the Lord said vnto Ioshua, * Make thee sharpe knives, b and returne, and circumcise the sonnes of Israel the second time.

3 Then Ioshua made him sharpe knives & circumcised the sonnes of Israel in c the hil of the foreskinnes.

4 And this is the cause why Ioshua circumcised all the people, euen the males that came out of Egypt, because all the men of warre were dead in the wildernes by the way after they came out of Egypt.

5 For all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were borne in the wildernes by the way after they came out of Egypt, were d not circumcised.

6 For the childrē of Israel walked fourty yeres in the wildernes, til all the people of the men of warre that came out of Egypt were consumed, because they obeyed not the voyce of the Lord: vnto whome ý Lord sware, that he wolde not shewe them the land, * which the Lord had sworne vnto their fathers, that he wolde giue vs, euen a land that floweth with milke and honie.

7 So their sonnes whome he raised vp in their steade, Ioshua circūcised: for they were vncircumcised, because they circumcised them not by the way.

8 And whē they had made an end of circumcising all the people, they abode in the places in the campe til they e were whole.

9 After, the Lord said vnto Ioshua, This day I haue taken away the f shame of Egypt from you: wherefore he called the name of that place Gilgal, vnto this day.

10 ¶ So the children of Israel abode in Gilgal, & kept the feast of the Passeouer the fourteenth day of the moneth at euen in the plaine of Iericho.

11 And they did eat of the corne of the land, on the morow after the Passeouer, vnleauened bread, and parched corne in the same day.

12 And the MAN ceased on the morowe after they had eaten of ý corne of the land, nether had the children of Israel MAN anie more, but did eat of ý frute of the land of Canaan that yere.

13 ¶ And when Ioshua was by Iericho, he lift vp his eyes and loked: and beholde, there stode a * man against him, hauing a sworde drawen in his hand: and Ioshua went vnto him, & said vnto him, Art thou on our side, or on our aduersaries?

14 And he said, Nay, but as a captaine of ý hoste of ý Lord am I now come: thē Ioshua fel on his face to ý earth, and g did worship, and said vnto him, What saith my Lord vnto his seruant?

15 And the captaine of the Lords hoste said vnto Ioshua, * Lose thy shooe of thy fote: for the place whereon thou standest, is holy: and Ioshua did so.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Lord instructeth Ioshua what he shulde do, as touching Iericho. 6 Ioshua cōmandeth the Priests and warriors what to do. 20 The walles fall. 22 Rahab is saued. 24 All is burnt saue golde and metal. 26 The curse of him that buyldeth the citie.

1 NOw Iericho was a shut vp, & b closed, c because of the children of Israel: none might go out nor entre in.

2 And ý Lord said vnto Ioshua, Beholde, I haue giuē into thine hand Iericho and the king thereof, and the strong men of warre.

3 Allye therefore that be men of warre, shal compasse the citie, in going round about the citie d once: thus shal you do six dayes:

4 And seuen Priests shal beare seuē trōpets of e rams hornes before the Arke: & the seuenth day ye shal compasse the citie seuen times, and the Priests shal blowe with the trompets.

5 And when they make a long blast with the rams horne, & ye heare the sounde of the trompet, all the people shal shoute with a great shoute: then shal the wall of the citie fall downe flat, and the people shal ascend vp, euerie man streight before him.

6 ¶ Then Ioshua the sonne of Nun called ý Priests & said vnto thē, Take vp the Arke of the couenant, & let seuen Priests beare seuen trōpets of rams hornes before the Arke of the Lord.

7 But he said vnto the people, f Go and compasse the citie: and let him that is armed, go forthe before the Arke of the Lord.

8 ¶ And when Ioshua had spoken vnto the people, the seuen Priests bare the seuē trompets of rams hornes, and went forthe before the Arke of the Lord, and blewe with the trompets, and the Arke of the couenant of the Lord followed them.

9 ¶ And the men of armes went before the Priests, that blewe the trompets: then the g gathering hoste came after the Arke, as they went and blewe the trompets.

11 So the Arke of the Lord cõpassed the citie, and went aboute it h once: then they returned into the hoste, and lodged in the campe.

12 And Ioshua rose early in the morning, & the Priests bare the Arke of the Lord:

13 Also seuen Priests bare seuen trõpets of rams hornes, and went before the Arke of the Lord, and going blewe with the trompets: and the mẽ of armes went before them, but the i gathering hoste came after ý Arke of the Lord, as they went and blewe the trompets.

i The tribe of Dã was so called, because it marched last, and gathered vp what soeuer was left of others.

14 And the second day they compassed the citie once, and returned into the hoste: thus they did six dayes.

15 And whẽ ý seuẽth day came, they rose early, euẽ with the dawning of the day, and compassed the citie after the same maner k seuen times: onely ý day they compassed the citie seuen times.

k Besides euerie day once for the space of six dayes.

16 And when the Priests had blowẽ the trompets the seuenth time, Ioshua said vnto the people, Shoute: for the Lord hathe giuen you the citie.

17 And the citie shalbe l an execrable thing, both it, and all that are there in, vnto the Lord: onely Rahab the harlot shal liue, she, and all that are with her in the house. for she *hid ý messengers that we sent.

l That is, appointed wholly to be destroyed.

20 So the people shouted, when they had blowen trompets: for when the people had heard the sounde of the trompet, they shouted with a great shoute: and ý *wal fel downe flat: so the people went vp into the citie, euery mã streight before him. *and they toke the citie.

21 And they vtterly destroyed all that was in the citie, bothe man and woman, yong and olde, and oxe, and shepe, and asse, with the edge of the sworde.

22 But Ioshua had said vnto ý two men that had spied out the countrey, Go into the harlots house, and bring out thẽce the woman, and all that she hathe, *as ye sware to her.

Chap. 2, 14. ebr. 11, 31.

23 So the yong mẽ that were spies, *went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had: also they brought out all her familie, and put them n without the hoste of Israel.

n For it was not lawful for strãgers to dwel among ý Israelites, til they were purged.

24 After they burnt the citie with fire, and all that was therein: onely the siluer and the golde, and the vessels of brasse and yron, they put vnto the treasure of the o house of the Lord.

o Meaning, the Tabernacle.

25 So Ioshua saued Rahab the harlot, and her fathers household, & all that she had, & she p dwelt in Israel euen vnto this day, because she had hid the messengers, which Ioshua sent to spie out Iericho.

p For she was maried to Salmon, prince of the tribe of Iudah, Mat. 1, 5.

26 ¶ And Ioshua sware at ý time, saying, Cursed be the man before ý Lord, that riseth vp, and buyldeth this citie Iericho: q he shal lay the fundacion thereof in his eldest sonne, & in his yongest sonne shal he set vp the gates of it.

q He shal build it to the destruction of all his stocke, which thing was fulfilled in Hiel of Beth-el, 1. King. 16, 34.

27 So the Lord was with Ioshua and he was famous through all the worlde.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Lord is angry with Achan. 4 They of Ai put the Israelites to flight. 6 Ioshua prayeth to the Lord. 15 Ioshua inquireth out him that sinned, and stoneth him & all his.

1 BVt the children of Israel cõmitted a a trespasse in the a excommunicate thing: for *Achã the sonne of Carmi, the sonne of Zabdi, ý sonne of Zerah of the tribe of Iudah toke of the excõmunicate thing: wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against the children of Israel.

a In taking ý which was commanded to be destroied. (hap 22, 20. 1 chro. 2, 7.

2 And Ioshua sent men from Iericho to b Ai, which is beside Bethauẽ, on ý East side of Beth-el, and spake vnto them, saying, Go vp, and vewe the countrey. And the men went vp, and vewed Ai, b This was a citie of the Amorites: for there was another so called amõg the Ammonites. Jerc. 49, 3. The first Ai is called Aiath, Isa. 10, 28.

3 And returned to Ioshua, and said vnto him, Let not all ý people go vp, but let as it were two or thre thousand men go vp, & smite Ai, and make not all ý people to labour thether, for they are fewe.

4 So there went vp thether of ý people about thre thousand men, & they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the c men of Ai smote of thẽ vpon a thirtie and six men: for they chased them from before the gate vnto Shebarim, and smote thẽ in the going downe: wherefore ý heartes of the people melted away like water.

c God wolde by this ouerthrowe make them more earneste to search out and punish the sinne committed.

6 ¶ Then Ioshua rent his clothes, and fel to the earth vpon his face before ý Arke of the Lord, vntil the euentide, he, and the Elders of Israel, and put dust vpon their heades.

7 And Ioshua said, Alas, o Lord God, wherefore hast thou broght this people ouer Iorden, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy vs? wolde God we had bene content to dwel on the d other side Iorden.

d This infirmitie of his faith sheweth howe we are inclined of nature to distrust.

8 Oh Lord, what shal I say, when Israel turne their backes before their enemies?

9 For the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land shal heare of it, and shal compasse vs, and destroy our name out of the earth: and what wil thou do vnto thy mightie [e] Name?

10 ¶ And the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Get thee vp: wherefore liest thou thus vpon thy face?

11 Israel hathe sinned, and they haue trãsgressed my couenant, which I commanded them, for thei haue euen taken of the excommunicate thing, and haue also stollen, and dissembled also, & haue put it euen with their owne stuffe.

12 Therefore the children of Israel can not stande before their enemies, but haue turned their backes before their enemies, because they be execrable: nether wil I be with you anie more, except ye [f] destroy the excommunicate from among you.

13 Vp therefore sanctifie the people, and say, Sanctifie your selues against to morowe: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, There is an execrable thing among you, o Israel, therefore ye can not stand against your enemies, vntil ye haue put the [g] execrable thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shal come according to your tribes, and ẏ tribe which the Lord taketh, shal come according to the families: & the familie which the Lord shal take, shal come by the housholds: & the housholde which the Lord shal take, shal come man by man.

15 And he that is [h] taken with the excommunicate thing, shalbe burnt with fire, he, & all that he hathe, because he hathe transgressed the couenant of the Lord, and because he hathe wroght folly in Israel.

16 ¶ So Ioshua rose vp early in the morning & broght Israel by their tribes: & the tribe of Iudah was taken.

17 And he broght the families of Iudah, & toke the familie of the Zarhites, and he broght the familie of the Zarhites, man by man, and Zabdi was taken.

18 And he broght his housholde, mã by man, and Achan the sonne of Carmi, ẏ sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Zerah of the tribe of Iudah was taken.

19 Then Ioshua said vnto Achan, My sonne, I beseche thee, giue gloire to the Lord God of Israel, and [i] make confession vnto him, and shewe me now what thou hast done: hide it not from me.

20 And Achan answered Ioshua, and said, In dede, I haue sinned against the Lord God of Israel, and thus, and thus haue I done.

21 I sawe among the spoyle a goodly [k] Babylonish garment, & two hundreth shekels of siluer, and a wedge of golde of fiftie shekels weight, and I coueted them, and toke them: and beholde, they lye hid in the earth in ẏ middes of my tent, & the siluer vnder it.

22 ¶ Then Ioshua sent messengers, which ran vnto the tẽt, and beholde, it was hid in his tent, and the siluer vnder it.

23 Therefore they toke them out of the tent, and broght them vnto Ioshua, and vnto all the childrẽ of Israel, and layed them before the Lord.

24 Then Ioshua toke Achan the [l] sonne of Zerah, and the siluer, & the garment and the [l] wedge of golde and his [m] sonnes, & his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his shepe, and his tent, and all that he had: and all Israel with him broght them vnto the valley of Achor.

25 And Ioshua said, [n] In as muche as thou hast troubled vs, ẏ Lord shal trouble thee this day: and all Israel threwe stones at him, and burned them with fire, & stoned them with stones.

26 And they cast vpon him a great heape of stones vnto this day: and so the Lord turned from his fearce wrath: therefore he called the name of that place, The valley of Achor, vnto this day.

CHAP. VIII.

3 The siege, 19 And winning of Ai. 29 The King thereof is hanged. 30 Ioshua setteth vp an altar. 32 He writeth the Lawe vpõ stones, 35 And readeth it to all the people.

1 AFter, the Lord said vnto Ioshua, * Feare not, nether be thou faint hearted: take all the men of warre with thee and arise, go vp to Ai: beholde, I haue giuen into thine hand the King of Ai, and his people, and his citie, and his land. Deut. 7, 18. & 21, 23.

2 And thou shal do to Ai and to the King thereof, as thou didest vnto * Iericho and to the King thereof: neuertheles the spoyle thereof and * the cattel thereof shal ye take vnto you for a pray: thou shalt lie in waite against the citie on the [a] backside thereof. Chap. 6, 21. Deut. 20, 14.

3 ¶ Then Ioshua arose, and all the men of warre to go vp against Ai: and Ioshua chose out thirtie thousand strong men, and valiant, and sent them away by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Beholde, ye [b] shal lye in wait against the citie on the backside of the citie: go not very far from the citie, but be ye all in a readines.

5 And I and all the people that are with me, wil approche vnto the citie: and whẽ they shal come out against vs, as they did at the first time, then wil we flee before them.

6 For they wil come out after vs, til we haue a Meaning on the Westside, as vers. 9.

b God wolde not destroy Ai by miracle, as Iericho, to the intent that other nations might feare the power & policie of his people.

haue broght them out of the citie: for they wil say, They flee before vs as at the first time: so we wil flee before them.

7 Then you shal rise vp from lying in wait and destroy the citie: for the Lord your God wil deliuer it into your hād.

8 And when ye haue taken the citie, ye shal set it on fire: according to the commandement of the Lord shal ye do: beholde, I haue charged you.

9 ¶ Ioshua then sent them forthe, and they went to lye in wait, and abode betwene Beth-el and Ai, on the West-side of Ai: but Ioshua lodged that night [c] among the people.

10 And Ioshua rose vp early in the morning, and [d] nombred the people: and he and the Elders of Israel went vp before the people against Ai.

11 Also all the men of warre that were [w] him went vp & drue nere, and came against the citie, & pitched on the Northside of Ai: and there was a valley betwene them and Ai:

12 And he toke about fiue thousand men, [e] & set them to lie in wayt betwene Beth-el & Ai, on the Westside of the citie.

13 And the people set all the hoste that was on the Northside against the citie, & the liers in wayte on [y] West, against the citie: & Ioshua went the same night into the [f] middes of the valley.

14 ¶ And when the King of Ai sawe it, then the men of the citie hasted & rose vp early, and went out against Israel to battel, he & all his people at the time appointed, before the plaine: for he knewe not that anie lay in waite against him on the backside of the citie.

15 Then Ioshua and all Israel [g] as beaten before them, fled by the way of the wildernes.

16 And all the people of the citie were called together, to pursue after them: & they pursued after Ioshua, and were drawen away out of the citie,

17 So that there was not a man left in Ai, nor in Beth-el, that went not out after Israel: and they left the citie open, & pursued after Israel.

18 Then [y] Lord said vnto Ioshua, [h] Stretche out the speare that is in thine hand towarde Ai: for I wil giue it into thine hand and Ioshua stretched out [y] speare that he had in his hand, towarde the citie.

19 And thei that lay in waite, arose quickly out of their place, & ran assone as he had stretched out his hand, and they entred into the citie, and toke it, and hasted, and set the citie on fire.

20 And the men of Ai loked behinde them, & sawe it: for lo, the smoke of the citie ascended vp [i] to heauen, and they had no [k] power to flee this way or that way: for the people that fled to the wildernes, turned backe vpon the pursuers.

21 When Ioshua and all Israel sawe that they that lay in wait, had taken the citie, & that the smoke of the citie mounted vp, then they turned againe and slewe the men of Ai.

22 Also the [l] other issued out of the citie against them: so were they in [y] middes of Israel, these being on the one side, & the rest on the other side: & they slewe them, so that they let none of them* remaine nor escape.

23 And the King of Ai they toke aliue, & broght him to Ioshua.

24 And when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, that is, in the wildernes, where they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, vntil they were consumed, all the Israelites returned vnto Ai, & [k] smote it with the edge of the sworde.

25 And all that fel that day, bothe of men and women, were twelue thousand, euen all the men of Ai.

26 For Ioshua drewe not his hand backe againe which he had stretched out with [y] speare, vntil he had vtterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27 *Onely the cattel & [y] spoyle of this citie, Israel toke for a pray vnto them selues, according vnto the worde of the Lord, which he commanded Ioshua.

28 And Ioshua burnt Ai, and made it an heape for [l] euer, & a wildernes vnto this day.

29 And the King of Ai he hanged on a tre, vnto the euening. And assone as [y] sunne was downe, Ioshua commanded [m] [y] they shulde take his carkeis downe from [y] tre, and cast it at the entring of the gate of the citie, and [n] lay thereon a great heape of stones, that remaineth vnto this day.

30 ¶ Then Ioshua buylt an altar vnto [y] Lord God of Israel, in mount Ebal, 31 As Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the* boke of the Lawe of Moses, an altar of whole stone, ouer [w] no man had lift any yron: and they offred thereon burnt offrings vnto the Lord, & sacrificed peace offrings.

1 Diuers Kings assemble them selues against Ioshua. 3 The craft of the Gibeonites. 15 Ioshua maketh a league with them. 23 For their craft they are condemned to perpetual seruitude.

1 AND when all the Kings that [a] were beyond Iorden, in the mountaines & in the vallcis, and by all the coastes of the [b] great Sea ouer against Lebanon (as the Hittites, & the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hiuites, & the Iebusites) heard thereof,

2 They gathered them selues together, to fight against Ioshua, & against Israel with one [»] accord.

»Ebr. one mouthe.

3 ¶ *But the inhabitāts of Gibeon heard what Ioshua had done vnto Iericho, and to Ai.

2. Sam. 21,1.

4 And therefore they wroght craftely: for they went, and fained them selues embassādours, and toke olde sackes vpon their asses, and olde bottels for wine, bothe rent & [c] bounde vp.

c Because they were all worne.

5 And olde shooes and clouted vpō their fete: also the raiment vpon them was olde, & all their prouision of bread was dried, & mouled.

6 So they came vnto Ioshua into the hoste to Gilgal, & said vnto him, and vnto the men of Israel, We be come from a farre countrey: now therefore make a league with vs.

d For ȳ Gibeonites and the Hiuites were all one people.

7 Then the men of Israel said vnto the [d] Hiuites, It may be that thou dwellest among vs, how then can I make a league with thee?

8 And they said vnto Ioshua, We are thy seruants. Then Ioshua said vnto them Who are ye? & whence come ye?

9 And they answered him, From a very far countrey thy seruants are come for [e] the Name of the Lord thy God: for we haue hearde his fame & all that he hathe done in Egypt, e Euen ȳ idolaters for feare of death wil pretend to honor ȳ true God & receiue his religion.

10 And all that he hathe done to the two Kings of the Amorites that were beyond Iorden, to Sihon King of Heshbon, & to Og King of Bashan, which were at Ashtaroth.

11 Wherefore our Elders, and all the inhabitants of our countrey spake to vs, saying, Take vitailes "with you for the iourney, & go to mete them, & say vnto them, We are your seruats: now therefore make ye a league with vs.

"Ebr. in your hand.

12 This our [f] bread we toke it hote with vs for vitailes out of our houses, the day we departed to come vnto you: but now beholde, it is dried, and it is mouled.

f The wicked lacke no art nor spare no lies to set forth their policie, when they wil deceiue the seruants of God.

13 Also these bottels of wine which we filled, were new, and lo, they be rent, and these our garments and our shooes are olde, by reason of the exceding great iourney.

14 ¶ And the [g] men accepted their tale concerning their vitailes, & counseled not with the mouth of the Lord.

g Some thinke, that the Israelites are of their vitailes, & so made a league with them.

15 So Ioshua made peace with them, & made a league with them, that he wolde suffer them to liue: also the Princes of ȳ Congregacion sware vnto them.

16 ¶ But at the end of thre daies, after they had made a league with them, they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Israel toke their [h] iourney, and came vnto their cities the third day, and their cities were Gibeon, & Chephirah, & Beeroth & Kiriathiearim.

18 And the children of Israel slewe them not, because the Princes of the Congregacion had sworne vnto them by ȳ Lord God of Israel: wherefore all the Congregacion [i] murmured against the Princes.

i Fearing lest for their faute the plague of God shuld haue light vpō them all.

19 Then all the princes said vnto all the Congregacion, We haue sworne vnto them by ȳ Lord God of Israel now therefore we may not touche them.

20 But this we wil do to thē, & let them liue, lest the wrath be vpon vs because of the [k] othe which we sware vnto them.

k This doeth not establish rash othes, but sheweth Gods mercie toward his, who shulde not punish them for this faute.

21 And the Princes said vnto them againe, Let them liue, but they shal hewe wood, & drawe water vnto all the Congregacion, as the Princes appoint them.

22 Ioshua then called them, and talked w̄ them, and said, Wherefore haue ye beguiled vs, saying, We are verie farre from you, when ye dwel among vs?

23 Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shal none of you be freed from being bondmē, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water [l] for the house of my God.

24 And they answered Ioshua and said, Because it was tolde thy seruants, that ȳ Lord thy God had * commāded his seruant Moses to giue you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of ȳ land out of your sight, therefore we were exceding sore afraid for our liues at the 26 Euen so did he vnto them, and deliuered them out of the [m] hand of the children of Israel, that they slewe them not.

27 And Ioshua appointed them that same daie to be hewers of wood, & drawers of water for the Congregacion, & for ý [n] altar of the Lord vnto this day, in the place which he shulde chuse.

CHAP. X.

1 Fiue Kings make warre against Gibeon whome Ioshua discomfiteth. 11 The Lord rained haile stones and slewe many. 12 The sunne standeth at Ioshuas prayer. 26 The fiue Kings are hanged. 29 Many mo cities & Kings are destroyed.

1 NOw when Adoni-zedek King of Ierusalem had heard how Ioshua had taken Ai and had destroyed it ( for* as he had done to Iericho and to the King thereof, so he had done to * Ai and to the King thereof) and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them,
2 Then thei feared excedingly: for Gibeon was a great citie, as one of ý roial cities: for it was greater then Ai, and all the men thereof were mightie.
3 Wherefore [a] Adoni-zedek King of Ierusalem sent vnto Hoham King of Hebron, and vnto Piram King of Iarmuth, and vnto Iapia King of Lachish, and vnto Debir King of Eglon, saying,
4 Come vp vnto me, and helpe me, that we may smite Gibeō: for thei haue made peace with Ioshua and with ý children of Israel.
5 Therefore the fiue Kings of the Amorites, the King of Ierusalem, the King of Hebron, the King of Iarmuth, the King of Lachish, and the King of Eglon gathered them selues together, & went vp, thei with all their hostes, & besieged Gibeon, and made [b] warre against it.
6 And the men of Gibeon sent vnto Ioshua, euen to the hoste to Gilgal, saying, Withdraw not thine hand from thy seruants: come vp to vs quickely, and saue vs, and helpe vs: for all the Kings of the Amorites which dwel in the mountaines, are gathered together against vs.
7 So Ioshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of warre with him, and all the men of might.
8 ¶ And the Lord said vnto Ioshua, [c] Feare them not: for I haue giuen them into thine hand: none of them shal stand against thee.
9 Ioshua therefore came vnto them sodenly: for he went vp from Gilgal all the night.
10 And the Lord discomfited them before Israel, & slewe them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth vp to Bethhoron, and smote them to Azekah and to Makkedah.
11 And as thei fled from before Israel, & were in ý going downe to Beth-horon, the Lord cast downe great stones from heauen vpon them, vntil Azekah, & they dyed: thei were more that dyed with the [d] haile stones, then they whome the children of Israel slewe with the sworde.
12 ¶ Then spake Ioshua to the Lord, in the day when the Lord gaue the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, * Sunne, staie thou in Gibeon, and thou moone, in the valley of Aialon.
13 And the sunne abode, & the moone stode stil, vntil the people auēged them selues vpon their enemies: (Is not this written in the boke of [e] Iasher) so the sunne abode in the middes of the heauen, and hasted not to go downe for a whole day.
14 And there was no day like that before it, nor after it, that the Lord heard the voyce of a man: for ý Lord [f] fought for Israel.
15 ¶ After, Ioshua returned, and all Israel with him vnto the campe to Gilgal:
16 But the fiue Kings fled and were hid in a caue at Makkedah.
17 And it was tolde Ioshua, saying, The fiue Kings are founde hyd in a caue at Makkedah.
18 Then Ioshua said, Roule great stones vpon the mouthe of the caue, and set men by it for to kepe them.
19 But stand ye not styl: followe after your enemies, and [*] smite all the hindemost, suffre them not to enter into their cities: for the Lord your God hathe giuen them into your hand.
20 And when Ioshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with an exceding great slaughter til they were consumed, and there rest that remained of them were entred into walled cities, 21 Then all the people returned to the campe, to Ioshua at Makkedah in [g] peace: no man moued his tongue against ý children of Israel.
22 After, Ioshua said, Open the mouthe of the caue, & bring out these fiue Kigs vnto me forthe of the caue.
23 And thei did so, and broght out those fiue Kings vnto him forthe of ý caue,

25 And Ioshua said vnto them, Feare not, nor be faint hearted, but be strong and of a good courage: for thus wil ỹ Lord do to all your enemies, against whome ye fight.

26 So then Ioshua smote them, and slewe them, and hanged them on fiue trees, and thei hanged stil vpon the trees vntil the euening.

27 And at the going downe of the sunne, Ioshua gaue commandement, that thei shulde take * thē downe of ỹ trees, & cast them into the caue (wherein thei had bene hid) and thei layed great stones vpon ỹ caues mouthe, which remaine vntil this day.

2 Diuers Kings and cities, and countreis ouercome by Ioshua. 15 Ioshua did all that Moses had commanded him. 20 God hardeneth the enemies heartes that they might be destroyed.

1 [a] AND when Iabin King of Hazor had heard this, then he sent to Iobab King of Madon, and to the King of Shimron, and to the King of Achshaph,

[a] The more the Gods power appeareth, the more ỹ wicked rage against it.

2 And vnto the Kings that were by the North in the mountaines, and plaines towarde the Southside of [b] Cinneroth, and in the valleis, and in the borders of Dor Westwarde, [b] Which the Euāgelistes call the lake of Gēnezereth, or Tiberias.

3 And vnto the Canaanites, bothe by East, and by West, and vnto the Amorites, and Hittites, and Perizzites, and Iebusites in the mountaines, and vnto the Hiuites vnder [c] Hermon in the land of Mizpeh.

[c] Which was mount Sihon, as Deut. 4, 48.

4 And they came out and all their hostes with them, many people as the sand that is on the seashore for multitude, tude, with horses and charets exceding many.

5 So all these Kings met together, & came and pitched together at ỹ waters of Merom, for to fight against Israel.

6 ¶ Then the Lord said vnto Ioshua, Be not afraid for them: for to morowe about this time wil I deliuer them all slayne before Israel: thou shalt [d] hough their horses, & burne their charets with fire.

7 Then came Ioshua and all the men of warre with him against them by the waters of Merom sodenly, and fel vpon them.

8 And the Lord gaue them into the hād of Israel: and they smote thē, and chased them vnto great Zidon, and vnto [e] Misrephothmaim, and vnto the valley of Mizpeh Eastwarde, & smote them vntil thei had none remaining of them.

9 And Ioshua did vnto them as ỹ Lord bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their charets with fire.

10 ¶ At that time also Ioshua turned backe, and toke Hazor, and smote ỹ King thereof with the ſworde: for Hazor beforetime was ỹ head of all those kingdomes.

11 Moreouer thei smote all the [f] persones that were therein with the edge of the sworde, vtterly destroying all, leauing none aliue, and he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 So all the cities of those kings, and all the Kings of them did Ioshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sworde, & vtterly destroyed them, *as Moses the seruant of the Lord had commanded.

13 But Israel burnt none of ỹ cities that stode stil in their [g] strength, saue Hazor onely, that Ioshua burnt.

14 And all the spoile of these cities and the cattel, the children of Israel toke for their praye, but they smote euerie [h] man with the edge of the sworde vntil they had destroyed them, not leauing one aliue.

15 As the Lord *had commanded Moses his seruant, so did Moses *commande Ioshua, & so did Ioshua: he left nothing vndone of all that the Lord had commanded Moses.

16 So Ioshua toke all this land of the mountaines, and all the South, and all ỹ land of Goshen, and the lowe countrey, and the plaine, & the [i] mountaine of Israel, and ỹ lowe countrey of the same,

17 From the mount [k] Halak, that goeth vp to Seir, euen vnto [l] Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon vnder mount Hermon: and all their Kings he toke, and smote them, and slewe them.

18 Ioshua made warre long time with all those Kings,

19 Nether was there any citie that made peace with the children of Israel, * saue those Hiuites that inhabited Gibeon: all other they toke by battel. Chap. 9, 3.

20 For it came of the Lord, to [l] harden their heartes that they shulde come against Israel in battel to the intent that they shulde destroy them vtterly, and shewe them no mercy, but that they shulde bring them to noght: as the Lord had commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And that same season came Ioshua, and destroyed the Anakims out of the mountaines: as out of Hebron, out of Debir, out of Anab, and out of all the mountaines of Iudah, and out of all the mountaines of Israel: Ioshua destroyed them vtterly with their cities.

22 There was no Anakim left in ỹ land of the children of Israel: onely in Azzah, [m] in Gath, and in Ashdod were they left.

23 So Ioshua toke ỹ whole land, according to all that the Lord had said vnto Moses: and Ioshua gaue it for an inheritance vnto Israel *according to their porcions through their tribes: then the land was at rest without warre. Nom. 26, 53.

6 All the inhabitants of the mountaines from Lebanon vnto [c] Misrephothmaim, & all the Sidonians, I wil cast them out from before the children of Israel: onely deuide thou it by lot vnto the Israelites, to inherit, as I haue commanded thee.

7 Now therefore deuide this land to inherit, vnto the nine tribes, and to the halfe tribe of Manasseh.

8 For with halfe thereof the Reubenites and the Gadites haue receiued their inheritance, * which Moses gaue them beyond Iorden Eastward, euen as Moses ỹ seruant of ỹ Lord had giuen them, 11 And Gilead, & the borders of the Geshurites & of the Maachatites, & all mount Hermon, with all Bashan vnto Salcah.

12 All the kingdome of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei: (who remained of the * rest of the giantes) for these did Moses smite, and cast them out.

13 But the children of Israel [d] expelled not the Geshurites nor ỹ Maachatites: but the Geshurites & the Maachatites dwel among the Israelites euen vnto this day.

14 Onely vnto the tribe of Leui he gaue none inheritance, but the sacrifices of the Lord God of Israel are [e] his inheritance, as he said vnto him.

15 Moses then gaue vnto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance, according to their families.

16 And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the brinke of the riuer Arnon, & from the citie that is in the middes of the riuer, & all the plaine which is by Medeba:

6 ¶ Then the children of Iudah came vnto Ioshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh the Kenezite said vnto him, Thou knowest what the Lord said vnto Moses the man of God, concerning [c] me and thee in Kadesh-barnea.

13 Then Ioshua blessed him, and gaue vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh, Hebron for an inheritance.

14 *Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh the Kenezite, vnto this day: because he followed constantly the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the name of *Hebron was *beforetime, Kiriath-arba: which Arba was a f great man among the Anakims: thus the land ceased from warre.

CHAP. XV.

1 The lotte of the children of Iudah, and the names of the cities and villages of the same. 13 Calebs portion. 18 The request of Achsah.

1 THis then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Iudah by their families: euen * to y border of Edom and the wildernes of * Zin, Southward on y Southcoast.

2 And their Southborder was the salt Sea coast, from a the point that loketh Southward.

3 And it went out on the Southside toward Maaleth-akrabbim, and went along to Zin, and ascended vp on the Southside vnto Kadesh-barnea, and wet along to Hezron, and went vp to Adar, and fet a compasse to Karkaa.

4 From thence went it along to Azmon, & reached vnto the riuer of Egypt: and the end of that coast was on the Westside: this shalbe your Southcoast.

5 Also y Eastborder shalbe the salt Sea, vnto the bend of Iorden: and y border on the North quarter from y point of the Sea, and from the end of Iorden.

6 And this border goeth vp to Bethhogla, and goeth along by y Northside of Beth-arabah: so the border from thence goeth vp to the c stone of Bohan the sonne of Reuben.

7 Againe this border goeth vp to Debir from y valley of Achor, & Northwarde, turning toward Gilgal that lyeth before the going vp to Adummim, w is on the Southside of the riuer: also this border goeth vp to the waters of "Enshemesh, & endeth at *En-rogel.

8 Then this border goeth vp to the valley of y sonne of Hinnom, on y Southside of the Iebusites: the same is Ierusalem, also this border goeth vp to the top of the mountaine that lieth before the valley of Hinnom Westward, which is by the end of the valley of the "g y antes Northward.

9 So this border compasseth from the top of the mountaine vnto y fountaine of the water of Nephtoah, and goeth out to the cities of mount Ephron: and this border draweth to Baalah, which is h Kiriath-iearim.

10 Then this border compasseth from Baalah Westward vnto mount Seir, & goeth along vnto the side of mount Iearim, which is Chesalon on the Northside: so it commeth downe to Beth-shemesh, and goeth to Timnah.

11 Also this border goeth out vnto the side of Ekron Northward: and this border draweth to Shicron, and goeth along to mount Baalah, & stretcheth vnto Iabneel: & the endes of this coast are to the d Sea.

12 And the Westborder is to the great Sea: so this border shalbe the bondes of the children of Iudah round about, according to their families.

13 ¶ And vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh did Ioshua giue a parte among the children of Iudah, as the Lord commanded him, euen * Kiriath-arba of the father of Anak, which is Hebron.

14 And Caleb e droue thence thre sonnes of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the sonnes of Anak.

15 And he went vp thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before time was Kiriath-sepher.

16 Then Caleb said, He that smiteth Kiriath-sepher, & taketh it, euen to him wil I giue Achsah my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel, the sonne of Kenaz, the "brother of Caleb toke it: and he gaue him Achsah his daughter to wife.

18 And as she went in to him, she moued him to aske of her father a feld: f & she lighted of her asse, & Caleb said vnto her, What wilt thou?

19 Then she answered, g Giue me a blessing: for thou hast giuen me the South countrei: giue me also springs of water. And he gaue her the springs aboue & the springs benethe.

20 This shalbe the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Iudah according to their families.

21 And the vtmost cities of the tribe of the children of Iudah, toward the coastes of Edom Southward were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Iagur.

22 And Kinah, and Dimonah, & Adadah,

23 And Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan,

24 Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth.

25 And Hazor, Hadattah, & Kerioth, Hesron (which is Hazor)

1 The lot & parte of Ephraim. 10 The Canaanite dwelled among them.

1 AND the lot fel to the [a] children of Ioseph from Iorden by Iericho vnto the water of Iericho Eastwarde, & to the wildernes that goeth vp from Iericho by the mount Beth-el:
2 And goeth out from Beth-el to * Luz, and runneth along vnto the borders of Archiataroth,
3 And goeth downe Westward to the coaste of Iaphleti, vnto the coast of Beth-horon the nether, and to Gezer: and the ends [b] thereof are at the Sea.
4 So the children of Ioseph, Manasseh and Ephraim [c] toke their inheritance.
5 ¶ Also the borders of the children of Ephraim according to their families, euen the borders of their inheritance on the Eastside, were Atroth-addar, vnto Beth-horon the vpper.
6 And this border goeth out to the Sea vnto Micmethah on the Northside, & this border returneth Eastwarde vnto Taanath-shiloh, and passeth it on the Eastside vnto Ianohah, 7 And goeth downe from Ianohah to Ataroth, and Naarath, and cometh to Iericho, [d] and goeth out at Iorden.
8 And this border goeth from Tappuah Westward vnto the riuer Kanah, and the ends thereof are at the Sea: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.
9 And the [e] separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh: all the cities with their villages.
10 And they cast not out the Canaanite that dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanite dwelleth among the Ephraimites vnto this day, and serue vnder tribute.

[a] That is, to Ephraim & his children: for Manasshs porcion followeth.

[b] Of their inheritance.

[c] Seuerally, first Ephraim, & then Manasseh.

[d] For so farre y coasts reache.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The porcion of the halfe tribe of Manasseh. 3 The daughters of Zelophehad. 13 The Canaanites are become tributaries. 14 Manasseh & Ephraim require a greater porcion of heritage.

1 THis was also the lot of the tribe of Manasseh: for he was the * first borne of Ioseph, to wit, of Machir the first borne of Manasseh, and the father of Gilead: now because he was a man of warre he had Gilead and Bashan.

Gen.46,14

2 And also *of the [a] rest of the sonnes of Manasseh by their families, euen of the sonnes of Abiezer, and of the sonnes of Helek, and of the sonnes of Azriel, and of the sonnes of Shechem, and of the sonnes of Hepher, and of the sonnes of Shemida: these were the males of Manasseh, the sonne of Ioseph according to their families.

Nom.26,29 a For the other halfe tribe had their porció beyonde Iorden.

3 ¶ *But Zelophehad the sonne of Hepher, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasseh, had no sonnes, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milchah and Tirzah:

Nom.26,33 & 27,1. & 36,2

4 Which came before Eleazar the Priest, & before Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The Lord commanded Moses to giue vs an inheritãce among our [b] brethren: therefore according to the commandement of the Lord he gaue them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

b Among thé of our tribe.

5 And there fel ten porcions to [c] Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the otherside Iorden.

c In the land of Canaan: fiue to ỳ males, & other fiue to ỳ daughters of Zelophehad.

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh did inherit among his sonnes: and Manasshes other sonnes had the land of Gilead.

7 ¶ So the borders of Manasseh were frõ Asher to Michmethah that lieth before Shechem, and this border goeth on right hand, euen vnto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 The land of Tappuah belõged to Manasseh, but [d] Tappuah beside the border of Manasseh belongeth to the sonnes of Ephraim.

d Meaning ỳ citie it selfe.

9 Also this border goeth downe vnto the [||] riuer Kanah Southwarde to the riuer: these cities of Ephraim are amõg the cities of Manasseh: and the border of Manasseh is on the Northside of the riuer, and the ends of it are at the [e] Sea,

||Or, the broke of reedes.

e That is toward the maigne sea.

10 The South perteineth to Ephraim, and the North to Manasseh, and the Sea is his border: and they met together in [f] Asher Northward, and in Issachar Eastward.

f In the tribe of Asher, & tribe of Issachar.

11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth-shean, & her townes, and Ibleam, and her townes, and the inhabitants of Dor with the townes thereof, and the inhabitants of En-dor with the townes thereof, and the inhabitants of Thaanach with her townes, and the inhabitants of Megiddo with the townes of the same, euen thre countreis.

12 Yet the children of Manasseh [g] colde not destroy those cities, but the Canaanites dwelled stil in that land.

g For at ỳ first they lacked courage, & after agreed wt the on condicion contrary to Gods cõmandement.

13 Neuertheles, when the children of Israel were strong, they put the Canaanites vnder tribute, but cast them not out wholly.

14 Then the children of Ioseph spake vnto Ioshua, saying, Why hast thou giuen me but one lot, and one porcion to inherit, seing I am a great people, for as muche as the Lord hathe [h] blessed me hetherto?

h According to my father Iaakobs prophecie, Gen.48,19

15 Ioshua then answered them, If thou be muche people, get thee vp to the wood, and cut trees for thy selfe there in the land of the Perizzites, and of the giants, [i] if mount Ephraim be to narowe for thee.

i If this mount be not large ynough, why doest not ỳ get more by destroying Gods enemies, as he hathe commanded?

16 Then the childrẽ of Ioseph said, The mountaine wil not be ynough for vs: and all the Canaanites that dwel in the lowe countrey haue charets of yron, aswel they in Beth-shean, and in the townes of the same, as they in the valley of Izreel.

17 And Ioshua spake vnto the house of Ioseph, to Ephraim, and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power, & shalt not haue one lot.

18 Therefore the mountaine shalbe thine: for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the ends of it shalbe thine, [k] and thou shalt cast out the Canaanites, thogh they haue yron charets, & thogh they be strong.

k So ỳ thou shalt enlarge thy portion thereby.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The tabernacle set in Shiloh. 4 Certeine are sent to deuide the land to the other seuen tribes. 11 The lot of the children of Beniamin.

1 AND the whole Congregacion of the children of Israel came together at Shiloh: for they set vp the [a] Tabernacle of the Congregacion there, after the land was subiect vnto them.

a For they had now remoued it from Gilgal and set it vp in Shiloh.

2 Now there remained among the children of Israel seuen tribes, to whome [b] they had not deuided their inheritance.

b As Eleazar, Ioshua & ỳ heades of the tribes had done to Iudah, Ephraim & halfe of Manasseh.

3 Therefo-

3 Therefore Ioshua said vnto the children of Israel, How long are ye so slacke to entre & possesse the land which the Lord God of your fathers hathe giuen you?

4 Giue from among you for euerie tribe thre men, that I may send them, and that they may rise, and walke through the land, and distribute it according to [c] their inheritance, and returne to me.

5 And that they may deuide it vnto thē into seuen partes, (Iudah shal abide in his coast at the South, and the house of Ioseph shal [d] stand in their coastes at ỹ North)

6 Ye shal describe the land therefore into seuen partes, and shal bring them hether to me, and I wil cast lottes for you here before the [e] Lord our God.

7 But the Leuites shal haue no part among you: for the [f] Priesthode of the Lord is their inheritance: also Gad & Reuben and halfe the tribe of Manasseh haue receiued their inheritance beyonde Iorden Eastward, which Moses the seruant of the Lord gaue them.

8 ¶ Then the men arose, and went their way: and Ioshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Departe, and go through the land, & [g] describe it, and returne to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the Lord in Shiloh.

9 So the men departed, and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seuen partes in a boke, and returned to Ioshua into ỹ campe at Shiloh.

10 ¶ Then Ioshua [h] cast lots for them in Shiloh before the Lord, and there Ioshua deuided the land vnto the children of Israel, according to their porcions.

11 ¶ And the lot of the tribe of the children of Beniamin came forthe accorcording to their families, and the coast of their lot lay [i] betwene the children of Iudah, and the children of Ioseph.

12 And their coast on the Northside was from Iorden, and the border went vp to the side of Iericho on the Northparte, and went vp through the mountaines Westward, and the endes thereof are in the wildernes of Bethauen:

13 And this border goeth along from thence to Luz, euen to the Southside of Luz (the same is [k] Beth-el) and this border descendeth to Atroth-addar, nere the mount, that lieth on the Southside of Beth-horon the nether.

14 So the border turneth, and compasseth the corner of the Sea Southward, from the mout ỹ lieth before Beth-horon Southward: and the ends thereof are at Kiriath-baal (which is Kiriath-iearim) a citie of the children of Iudah: this is the Westquarter.

15 And the Southquarter is from the end of Kiriath-iearim, and this border goeth out [n] Westward, and cometh to the fountaine of waters of Nephtoah.

16 And this border descendeth at the end of the mountaine, that lieth before the valley of Ben-hinnom, which is in the valley of the [o] gyantes Northward, and descendeth into the valley of Hinnom by the side of [p] Iebusi Southward, and goeth downe to Enrogel, 17 And compasseth from the North, and goeth forthe to [l] Enshemesh, and stretcheth to Geliloth, which is toward the going vp vnto Adummim, and goeth downe to the * stone of Bohan the sonne of Reuben.

18 So it goeth along to the side ouer against the plaine Northward, & goeth downe into the plaine.

19 After, this border goeth along to the side of Beth-hoglah Northward: and the ends thereof, that is, of the border, reache to the point of the salt Sea Northward, & to the [m] end of Iorden Southward: this is the Southcoast.

20 Also Iorden is the border of it on ỹ Eastside: this is the inheritance of the children of Beniamin by the coastes thereof round about according to their families,

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the childrē of Beniamin according to their families, are Iericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz,

2 Now thei had in their inheritance, Beersheba, & Sheba, and Moladah,

4 And Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,
5 And Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, & Hazar-susah,

8 And all the villages that were round about these cities, vnto Baalath-beer, & b Ramath Southwarde: this is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.
9 Out of the porcion of the children of Iudah came the inheritáce of the children of Simeon: for the parte of the children of Iudah was to b muche for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within their inheritance.
10 Also the third lot arose for the children of Zebulun according to their families: and the coastes of their inheritance came to Sarid, 11 And their border goeth vp c Westwarde, euen to Maralah, and reacheth to Dabbasheth, & meteth with the riuer ý lyeth before Iokneam,

14 And this border compasseth it on the Northside to Hannathon, and the ends thereof are in the valley of Iiphtah-el,
15 And Kattath, and Nahallal, & Shimron, and Idalah, and d Beth-lehem: twelue cities with their villages.
16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.
17 ¶ The fourthe lot came out to Issachar, euen for the children of Issachar according to their families.
18 And their coast was Izreelah, and Chesulloth, and Shunem,
19 And Ephraim, and Shion, and Anaharath,
20 And Harabbith, and Kishion, and Abez,
21 And Remeth, and e En-gannim, and En-haddah, and Beth-pazzez.
22 And this coast reacheth to Tabor, and Shahazimath, and Beth-shemesh, and the ends of their coast reache to Iorden: sixtene cities with their villages.
23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families: that is, the cities, & their villages.
24 ¶ Also the fifte lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families.
25 And their coast was Helcath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph, 26 And Alammelech, and Amad, and Misheal, and came to Carmel Westwarde, and to Shihor-libnath,

29 Then the coast turneth to Ramah & to the strong citie of g Zor and this border turneth to Hosah, and the endes thereof are at the Sea from Hebel, to Achzib, 30 Vmmah also and Aphek, and Rehob: two and twentie cities with their villages.
31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the childrē of Asher according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.
32 ¶ The sixt lot came out to the childrē of Naphtali, euen to the children of Naphtali according to their families.
33 And their coast was from h Heleph, & from Allon in Zaananim, and Adaminekeb, and Iabneel, euen to Lakum, and the ends thereof are at Iorden.
34 So this coast turneth Westwarde to Aznothtabor, and goeth out from thēce to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the Southside, & goeth to Asher on the Westside, and to Iudah at by Iorden towarde the sunne rising.

41 The cities giuen to the Leuites in nombre eight & fourtie. 44 The Lord according to his promes gaue the children of Israel rest.

1 THen came the [g] principal fathers of ỹ Leuites vnto Eleazar the Priest, and vnto Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and vnto the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel,

2 And spake vnto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, * The Lord commanded [a] by the hand of Moses, to giue vs cities to dwel in, with the suburbes thereof for our cattel.

3 So the children of Israel gaue vnto the Leuites, out of their inheritance at the commandement of the Lord these cities with their suburbes.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the [b] Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the Priest, which were of the Leuites, had by lot, out of ỹ tribe of Iu-

5 And the reſt of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the halfe tribe of Manaſſeh, ten cities.

6 Alſo the children of Gerſhon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Iſſachar, and out of the tribe of Aſher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the halfe tribe of Manaſſeh in Baſhan, thirtene cities.

7 The children of Merari according to their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelue cities.

8 So the childrē of Iſrael gaue by lot vnto the Leuites theſe cities with their ſuburbes, as the Lord had commanded by the hand of Moſes.

20 ¶ But to the families of the children of Kohath of the Leuites, [g] which were the reſt of the children of Kohath (for ſ cities of their lot were out of ſ tribe of Ephraim) 27 ¶ Alſo vnto the children of Gerſhon of the families of the Leuites, they gaue out of the halfe tribe of Manaſſeh, the citie of refuge for the ſlayer, [k] Golan in Baſhan with her ſuburbes, and Beeſhterah with her ſuburbes: two cities.

k Golan & Kedeſh were the cities of refuge vnder the Gerſhonites.

28 And out of the tribe of Iſſachar, Kiſhon with her ſuburbes, Dabereh ẅ her ſuburbes, 29 Iarmuth with her ſuburbes, En-gannim with her ſuburbes: foure cities.

30 And out of the tribe of Aſher, Miſhal with her ſuburbes, Abdon with her ſuburbes, 31 Helkoh with her ſuburbes, and Rehob with her ſuburbes: foure cities.

32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, the citie of refuge for the ſlayer, Kedeſh in [l] Galil with her ſuburbes, and Hammoth-dor with her ſuburbes, and Kartan with her ſuburbes, thre cities.

33 All the cities of the Gerſhonites according to their families were thirtene cities with there ſuburbes.

36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, [m] Bezer with her ſuburbes, and Iahazah ẅ her ſuburbes.

m Bezer and Ramoth were the cities of refuge vnder the Merarites & beyonde Iordeu, Cha. 20, 8.

37 Kedemoth with her ſuburbes, and Mephaath ẅ her ſuburbes: foure cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad they gaue for a citie of refuge for the ſlayer, Ramoth in Gilead with her ſuburbes, and Mahanaim with her ſuburbes, 39 Heſhbon with her ſuburbes, & Iazer with her ſuburbes: foure cities in all.

40 So all the cities of the children of Merari according to their families (which

(which were the rest of the families of the Leuites) were by their lot, twelue cities.

41 And all the cities of the Leuites[n] within the possession of the children of Israel were eight and fourtie with their suburbes.

42 These cities lay euerie one seuerally w̃ their suburbes rounde about them: so were all these cities.

43 ¶So the Lord gaue vnto Israel all ỹ land, which he had sworne to giue vnto their fathers: and they possessed it, & dwelt therein.

CHAP. XXII.

Reuben, Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasseh are sent againe to their possessions. 10 They buyld an altar for a memorial. 15 The Israelites reproue them. 21 Their answer for defense of the same.

1 THen [a] Iosh̃ua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, & the halfe tribe of Manasseh,

2 And said vnto them, Ye haue kept all that Moses the seruant of the Lord [b] commanded you, and haue obeyed my voyce in all that I commanded you:

3 Ye haue not forsaken your brethren this long season vnto this day, but haue diligently kept the commandement of the Lord your God.

4 And now the Lord hathe giuen rest vnto your brethren as he promised them: therefore now returne ye and go to your tentes, to the land of your possession, which Moses the seruant of the Lord * hathe giuen you beyonde Iorden.

5 But take diligent hede, to do the commandement and Lawe, which Moses the seruant of the Lord commanded you: that is, * that ye [c] loue the Lord your God, and walke in all his waies, and kepe his commandements, and cleaue vnto him, and serue him with all your heart and with all your soule.

6 So Iosh̃ua [d] blessed them and sent them away, and they went vnto their tents.

7 ¶Now vnto one halfe of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had giuen a possession in Bashan: and vnto the other halfe thereof gaue Iosh̃ua among their brethren on this side Iorden Westward: therefore when Iosh̃ua sent them away vnto their tentes, and blessed them,

8 Thus he spake vnto them, saying, Returne with muche riches vnto your tẽtes, and with a great multitude of cattel, with siluer and with golde, with brasse and with yron, and with great abundance of raiment: deuide the spoile of your enemies with your [b] brethrẽ.

9 ¶So the children of Reuben, & the children of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel from Shiloh (which is in the land of Canaan) to go vnto there countrey of Gilead to the land of the possession, which they had obteined, according to the worde of ỹ Lord by the hand of Moses.

10 And when they came vnto [*] the borders of Iorden (which are in the land of Canaan) then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and ỹ halfe tribe of Manasseh, buylt [f] there an altar by Iorden, a great altar to se to.

11 ¶ When the children of Israel heard saie, Beholde, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasseh haue buylt an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan vpon the borders of Iorden at the passage of the children of Israel:

12 When the children of Israel heard it, then the whole Congregacion of the children of Israel gathered them together at Shiloh to go vp [g] to warre against them,

13 Then the children of Israel sent vnto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manasseh into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest, 14 And with him ten princes, of euerie chief house a prince, according to all ỹ tribes of Israel, for euerie one was chief of their fathers housholde amõg the [h] thousandes of Israel.

15 ¶So they went vnto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manasseh, vnto the land of Gilead, and spake with them saying,

16 Thus saith [h] the whole Congregacõ of the Lord, What transgression is this that ye haue transgressed against the God of Israel, to turne awaie this day from the Lord, in that ye haue buylt you an altar for to rebel this day against the Lord?

16 Then the people answered and said, God forbid, that we shulde forsake the Lord, to serue other gods.

THE BOKE OF IVDGES.

THE ARGVMENT.

Albeit there is nothing that more prouoketh Gods wrath, then mans ingratitude, yet is there nothing so displeasant & heinous that can turne backe Gods loue from his Church. For nowe when the Israelites were entred into the land of Canaan, and sawe the trueth of Gods promes performed, instead of acknowledging his great benefites and giuing thankes for the same, they fell to moste horrible oblision of Gods graces, contrarie to their solemne promes made vnto Ioshua, and so prouoked his vengeance (as muche as in them stode) to their vtter destruction. Wherof as they had moste euident signes by the mutabilitie of their state: so suffered them to be moste cruelly vexed and tormented by tyrants: he pulled them from libertie, and cast them into slauerie, to the intent they might fele their owne miseries and so call vnto call vnto him and be deliuered. Yet to shewe that his mercies indure for euer, he raiseth vp from time to time suche as shulde deliuer them and assure them of his fauour & grace, if they wolde turne to him by true repentance. And these deliuerers the Scripture calleth Iudges, because they were executers of Gods iudgements, not chosen of the people nor by succession, but raised vp, as it semed best to God, for the gouernance of his people. They were twelue in nōber besides Ioshua, and gouerned from Ioshua vnto Saul the first King of Israel. Ioshua and these vnto the tyme of Saul ruled 336 yeres. In this boke are manie notable points declared, but two especially: first, the battel that the Church of God hathe for the maintenance of true religion against idolatrie and superstition: next, what great danger that commune wealth is in, when as God giueth not a magistrate to reteine his people in the pureties of Religion and his true seruice.

CHAP. I.

1 After Ioshua was dead, Iudah was constitute captaine. 6 Adoni-bezek is takē. The request of Achsah. 16 The children of Keni. 19 The Canaanites are made tributaries, but not destroyed.

1 AFter that Ioshua was dead, the children of Israel [a] asked ỹ Lord, saying [b] Who shal go vp for vs against the Canaanites, to fight first against them?

2 And the Lord said, Iudah shal go vp: beholde, I haue giuen the land into his hand.

3 And Iudah said vnto Simeon his [c] brother, Come vp with me into my lot, ỹ we may fight against the Canaanites: and I likewise wil go with thee into thy lot: so Simeon went with him.

4 Then Iudah went vp, and the Lord deliuered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands, and they slewe of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

5 And they founde [d] Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, & slew the Canaanites, and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled, and they pursued after him, and caught him, & [d] cut of the thumbes of his hands and of his fete.

7 And Adoni bezek said, Seuētie Kings hauing the thumbes of their hands and of their fete cut of, gathered bread vnder my table: as I haue done, so God hathe rewarded me, so they broght him to Ierusalem, and there he dyed.

8 (Now ỹ children of Iudah had fought against Ierusalem, and had taken it & smitten it with the edge of the sword, and had set the [e] citie on fire.)

9 ¶ Afterwarde also the children of Iudah went downe to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountaine, and toward the South, and in the lowe contrey.

10 And Iudah went against the Canaanites, that dwelt in Hebron, which Hebron before time was called * Kiriath-arba: and they slewe [f] Sheshai, and Ahiman & Talmai.

11 And from thence he went to the inhabitants of Debir, and the name of Debir in olde time was Kiriath-sepher

12 And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kiriath-sepher, & taketh it euen to him wil I giue Achsah my daughter to wife.

13 And Othniel the sonne of Kenaz Calebs yonger brother toke it, to whome he gaue Achsah his daughter to wife.

14 And when she came to him, she moued him to aske her father a field. [g] and she lighted of her asse, and Caleb said vnto her, What wilt thou?

15 And she answered him, Giue me a blessing: for thou hast giuen me a South cōtrey, giue me also springs of water: and Caleb gaue her the springs aboue and the springs beneth.

16 ¶ And the children of [h] Keni Moses father in lawe went vp out of the citie of the palmetrees with the children of Iudah into the wildernes of Iudah, that lieth in the South of Arad, & went and dwelt among the people.

17 But Iudah went with Simeon his brother, and they slewe the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and vtterly destroyed it, and called the name of the citie * Hormah.

18 Also Iudah toke [i] Azzath with the coastes thereof, & Askelon with the coastes thereof, and Ekron with the coastes thereof.

19 And the Lord was with Iudah, and he possessed the mountaines: for he colde not driue out the inhabitants of the valleys, because they had charets of yron.

20 And they gaue Hebron vnto Caleb, as * Moses had said, and he expelled thence the thre sonnes of Anak.

21 But the children of Beniamin did not cast out the Iebusites, that [k] inhabited Ierusalem: therefore the Iebusites dwel with the children of Beniamin in Ierusalem vnto this day.

1 The Angel rebuketh the people, because they had made peace with the Canaanites. 12 The Israelites fel to idolatrie after Iosuas death 14 Thei are deliuered into the enemies hands. 16 God deliuereth them by Iudges. 22 Why God suffred idolaters to remaine among them.

1 AND an [a] Angel of the Lord came vp from Gilgal to Bochím, and said, I made you to go vp out of Egypt & haue broght you vnto ý land which I had sworne vnto your fathers, & said, I wil neuer breake my couenant with you.

5 Therefore thei called the name of ý place, [#] Bochim, and offred sacrifices there vnto the Lord.

6 ¶ Now when Ioshúa had [b] sent ý people away, the children of Israél went euerie man into his inheritance to possesse the land.

b After that he had deuided to euery man his porcion by lot. Iosh. 24.28

7 And the people had serued the Lord all the daies of Ioshúa, and all the daies of the Elders that out lyued Ioshúa, which had sene all the great [c] workes of the Lord that he did for Israél.

c Meaning, the wonders & miracles.

8 But Ioshúa the sonne of Nun the seruant of the Lord dyed, when he was an hundreth and ten yeres olde:

9 And thei buryed him in the coastes of his inheritance, in [d] Timnath-héres in mount Ephraim, on the Northside of mount Gáash.

d Heres by turning the letters backward is Serch, as Iosh. 24.30

10 And so all that generacion was gathered vnto their fathers, and an other generacion arose after them, which nether knewe the Lord, nor yet the workes, which he had done for Israel.

11 ¶ Then ý children of Israél did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, & serued [e] Baalím, e That is, all maner of idoles

12 And forsoke the Lord God of their fathers, which broght them out of the land of Egypt, & followed other gods, euen the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed vnto thē & prouoked the Lord to angre.

13 So thei forsoke the Lord, and serued Báal and [f] Ashtaróth.

f These were Idoles, ẅ had the forme of an ewe or shepe among the Sidonians.

14 And the wrath of the Lord was hote against Israél, and he deliuered them into the hands of spoilers, that spoiled them, and 15 g Whersoeuer thei went out, the h hand of the Lord was sore against thẽ as the Lord had said, & as the Lord had sworne vnto them: so he punished them sore.

16 ¶ Notwithstanding, the Lord raised vp ‖ Iudges which ” deliuered them out of the hands of their oppressers.

17 But yet they wolde not obey their Iudges: for thei went a whoring after other gods, & worshipped them, & turned quickely out of the i way, wherein their fathers walked, obeying the commandements of the Lord: thei did not so.

i Meaning, from true religion.

18 And when the Lord had raised them vp Iudges, the Lord was with the Iudge, and deliuered them out of the hand of their enemies all the daies of the Iudge (for the Lord ” had compassion of their gronings, k because of them ý oppressed them & tormented them.)

” Ebr. repented k Seing their cruelties. Chap.3.12. ” Ebr. corrupte them selues.

19 Yet * when the Iudge was dead they returned, and ” did worse then their fathers, in following other gods to serue them and worship them: thei ceased not from their owne inuencions, nor from their rebellious way.

20 Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he said, Because this people hathe transgressed my couenant, which I commanded their fathers, & hathe not obeyed my voyce,

21 Therefore wil I no more cast out before them any of the l nacions, which Iosh ua left when he dyed, l As the Hiuites Iebusites, Amorites, &c.

22 That through them I may m proue Israel, whether they wil kepe the way of the Lord, to walke therein, as their fathers kept it, or not.

m So that bothe outwarde enemies and false Prophets are but a tryal to proue or faith. Deut.13.3.

23 So the Lord left those nacions, & drone them not out immediatly, nether deliuered them into the hand of Iosh ua.

b For thei trusted in God and he fought for them.

3 Fiue princes of the Philistims, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hiuites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon vnto one come to Hamath.

4 And these remained to proue Israel by them, to wit, whether thei wolde obey the cõmandements of the Lord, which he commanded their fathers by the hãd of Moses.

5 And ý children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, & the Amorites, and the Perizzites, & the Hiuites, and the Iebusites, 13 And he gathered vnto him the children of Ammon, and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and thei possessed the citie of palmetrees.

15 But when the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred them vp a sauiour, Ehud the sonne of Gera ý sonne of ‖ Iemini, a man ‖ lame of his right hand: and the children of Israel sent a present by him vnto Eglon King of Moab.

20 Then Ehud came vnto him, (and he sate alone in a somer parler, which he had) & Ehud said, I haue a message vnto thee from God. Then he arose out of his throne,

21 And Ehud put forthe his left hand, & toke the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly, 25 And thei taryed til thei were ashamed: and seing he opened not the dores of ỹ the parler, thei toke the keye, & opened them, and beholde, their lord was fallen dead on the earth.

26 So Ehud escaped (while thei taryed) and was passed the quarris, and escaped vnto Seirath.

27 And when he came home, [n] he blewe a trumpet in mount Ephraim, & the children of Israel went downe with him from the mountaine, and he went before them.

28 Then said he vnto them, Followe me: for the Lord hathe deliuered your enemies, euen Moab into your hand. So they went downe after him, and toke the passages of Iorden toward Moab, & suffred not a man to passe ouer.

29 And they slew of the Moabites ỹ same time about ten thousand men, all [o] fed men, and all were warriours, and there escaped not a man.

Israel sinne and are giuen into the hands of Iabim. 4 Deborah iudgeth Israel and exhorteth Barak to deliuer the people. 15 Sisera fleeth. 17 And is killed by Iael.

1 AND the children of Israel [p] began againe to do wickedly in the sight of the Lord when Ehud was dead.

2 And the Lord solde them into the hand of [a] Iabin King of Canaan that reigned in Hazor, whose chief captaine was called Sisera, which dwelt in [b] Harosheth of the Gentiles.

3 Then the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord: (for he had nine hundreth charets of yron, and twentie yeres he had vexed the children of Israel very sore.)

4 ¶ And at that time Deborah a Prophetesse the wife of Lapidoth [c] iudged Israel.

5 And this Deborah dwelt vnder a palmetre, betwene Ramah and Beth-el in mount Ephraim, and the children of Israel came vp to her for iudgement.

6 Then she sent and called Barak the sonne of Abinoam out of Kedesh of Naphtali, and said vnto him, Hathe not the Lord God of Israel [d] commanded, saying, Go, and [l] drawe toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

7 And I wil drawe vnto thee to the [*] [f] riuer Kishon Sisera, the captaine of Iabins armie with his charets, & his multitude, & wil deliuer him into thine hand.

8 And Barak said vnto her, [e] If thou wilt go with me, I wil go: but if thou wilt not go with me, I wil not go.

9 Then she answered, I wil surely go with thee, but this iourney that thou takest, shal not be for thine honour: for the Lord shal sel Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 ¶ And Barak called Zebulun & Naphtali to Kedesh, & [g] he went vp on his fete with ten thousand men, and Deborah went vp with him.

11 (Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the [q] children of * Hobab the father in law of Moses, was departed from the [r] Kenites, and pitched his tent [f] vntil the plaine of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh.)

12 Then they shewed Sisera, that Barak the sonne of Abinoan was gone vp to mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera [l] called for all his charets, euē nine hundreth charets of yron, and all the people that were with him frō Harosheth of the Gentiles, vnto the riuer Kishon.

14 Then Deborah said vnto Barak, [g] Vp, for this is the day that the Lord hathe deliuered Sisera into thine hand. Is not the Lord gone out before thee? so Barak went downe from mount Tabor, & ten thousand men after him.

5 For they went vp, and their cattel, and cryed vnto the Lord because of the Mishewe me g a signe, that thou talkest with me.

18 Departe not hence, I pray thee, vntil I come vnto thee, and bring mine offring, & lay it before thee. And he said, I wil tary vntil thou come againe.

19 ¶ Then Gideon went in, & made ready a kid, & vnleauened bread of an h Ephah of floure, and put the flesh in a basket, and put the broth in a pot, and brought it out vnto him vnder the oke, and presented it.

20 And the Angel of God said vnto him, Take the flesh and the vnleauened bread, and lay them vpō this stone, and powre out the broth: and he did so.

21 ¶ Then the Angel of the Lord put forthe the end of the staffe that he held in his hand, and touched the flesh & the vnleauened bread: and there arose vp fire i out of the stone, and consumed the flesh & ý vnleauened bread: so the Angel of the Lord departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceiued that it was an Angel of the Lord, Gideon then said, Alas, my Lord God: *for because I haue sene an Angel of the Lord face to face, I shal dye.

23 And the Lord said vnto him, Peace be vnto thee: feare not, thou shalt not dye.

24 Then Gideon made an altar there vnto the Lord, and called it, l Iehouah-shalom: vnto this day it is in Ophrah, of the father of the Ezrites.

25 ¶ And the same night the Lord said vnto him, Take thy fathers yong bullocke, & another bullocke k of seuen yeres olde, and destroy the altar of Baal that thy father hathe, and cut downe ý groue that is by it,

26 And buylde an altar vnto the Lord thy God vpon the top of this rocke, in a plaine place, and take ý seconde bullocke, and offer a burnt offring with the wood of the l groue, which thou shalt cut downe.

27 Then Gideon toke ten men of his seruants, and did as the Lord bade him: but because he feared to do it by day for his fathers housholde and the men of the citie, he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the citie arose early in the morning, beholde, the altar of Baal was broken, and the seconde bullocke offred vpon the altar that was made.

29 Therefore they said one to another, Who hathe done this thing? & whē they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the sonne of Ioash hathe done this thing.

30 Then the men of the citie said vnto Ioash, Bring out thy sonne, that he may dye: for he hathe destroyed the altar of Baal, & hathe also cut downe the groue that was by it.

31 And Ioash said vnto all that stode by him, Wil ye pleade Baals cause? or wil ye saue him? n he that wil contend for him, let him dye or the morning. If he be God, let him pleade for him selfe against him that hathe cast downe his altar.

32 And in that day was Gideon called Ierubbaal, that is, Let Baal plead for him selfe: because he hathe broken downe his altar.

33 Then all the Midianites & the Amalekites and they of the East, were gathered together, and went & pitched in the valley of Israel.

34 But the Spirit of the Lord o came v- pon Gideon. * & he blewe a trumpet, & p Abiezer was ioyned with him.

35 And he sent messengers through out all Manasseh, which also was ioyned with him, and he sent messengers vnto Asher, and to Zebulun and to Naphtali, and they came vp to mete them.

36 Then Gideon said vnto God, P If thou wilt saue Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, 37 Beholde, I wil put a fleece of wolle in ý threshing place: if the dewe come on the fleece onely, and it be drye vpon all the earth, then shal I be sure, that thou wilt saue Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.

38 And so it was for he rose vp early on the morowe, & thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dewe out of the fleece, and filled a bowle of water.

39 Againe Gideon said vnto God, Be not angry with me, that * I may speake once more: let me proue once againe, I pray thee, with the fleece: let it now be drye onely vpon the fleece, and let dewe be vpon all the grounde.

40 And God did so that same night: for it was q drye vpon the fleece onely, and there was dewe on all the grounde.

11 And thou ſhalt hearken, what they ſay, and ſo ſhal thine hands be ſtrong to go downe vnto the hoſte. Then went he downe and Phurah his ſeruant vnto the outſide of the ſouldiars that were in the hoſte.

12 And the Midianites, and the Amalekites and all * they of ẏ Eaſt, lay in the valley like graſhoppers in multitude, & their camels were without nomber, as the ſand which is by ẏ ſea ſide for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, beholde, a mā tolde a dreame vnto his neighbour, and ſaid, Beholde, I dreamed a dreame, & lo, a [f] cake of barley bread tombled from aboue into the hoſte of Midian, and came vnto a tēt, and ſmote it that it fel, and ouerturned it, that the tent fel doxne.

14 And his felloxe anſwered, and ſaid, This is nothing els ſaue the ſxorde of Gideon the ſonne of Ioaſh a man of Iſrael: for into his hand hathe God deliuered Midian and all the hoſte.

15 ¶ When Gideon heard the dreame tolde, and the interpretacion of the ſame, he [g] worſhipped, and returned vnto the hoſte of Iſrael, & ſaid, Vp: for the Lord hathe deliuered into your hand the hoſte of Midian.

16 And he deuided the thre hundreth men into thre bandes, and gaue euerie man a trumpet in his hand with emptie pitchers, and [a] lampes [h] within the pitchers.

17 And he ſaid vnto them, Loke on me, and do likewiſe, when I come to the ſide of the hoſte: euen as I do, ſo do you.

18 When I blowe with a trumpet and all that are with me, blowe ye with trumpets alſo on euerie ſide of the hoſte, and ſay, [i] For the Lord, and for Gideon.

19 ¶ So Gideon and the hundreth men that were with him, came vnto the outſide of the hoſte in the beginning of the middle watche, and they raiſed vp the watchemen, and they blewe with their trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 And the thre companies blewe with trumpets and brake the pitchers, and held the lampes in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blowe with al: and they cryed, The [k] ſworde of the Lord and of Gideon.

21 And they ſtode, euerie man in his place rounde about the hoſte: and all the hoſte [a] ranne, and cryed, and fled.

22 And the thre hundreth blewe with trumpets, & * the Lord ſet euerie mans ſworde vpon his [l] neighbour, and vpon all the hoſte: ſo the hoſte fled to Beth-haſhittah in Zererah, and to the border of Abel-meholah vnto Tabbath.

23 Then the men of Iſrael being gathered together out of Naphtali, & out of Aſher, and out of all Manaſſeh purſued after the Midianites.

24 And Gideon ſent meſſengers vnto all mount Ephraim, ſaying, Come downe againſt the Midianites, and take before them ẏ [m] waters vnto Beth-barah, and Iorden. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together and toke the waters vnto Beth-barah, and Iorden.

1 Ephraim murmureth against Gidem. 2 Who appeaseth them. 4 He passeth the Iorden 16 He reuengeth him selfe on them of Succoth and Penuel. 27 He maketh an Ephod which was the cause of idolatrie. 30 Of Gideons sonnes and of his death.

1 THen the men of Ephraim said vnto him, [a] Why hast thou serued vs thus that thou calledst vs not, when thou wentest to fight with ſ Midianites? and they chode with him sharpely.

[a] They began to cauil, because he had the glorie of the victorie.

2 To whome he said, What haue I now done in comparison of [b] you? is not [c] the gleaning of grapes of Ephraim better, then the vintage of Abiezer?

3 God hathe deliuered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? and when he had thus spoken, then their spirits abated toward him.

4 ¶ And Gideon came to Iorden to passe ouer, he, and the thre hundreth men that were with him, weary, yet pursuing them.

5 And he said vnto the men of Succoth, Giue, I pray you, [d] morsels of bread vnto the people "that followe me (for they be weary) that I may followe after Zebah, & Zalmunna Kings of Midian.

"Ebr. beat in pieces.

9 And he said also vnto the men of Penuel, When I come againe [h] in peace, I wil breake downe this towre.

10 ¶ Now Zebah and Zalmunna were [i] in Karkor, and their hostes with them, about fiftene thousand, all that were left of all the hostes of them of the East: for there was slayne an hundreth and twentie thousand men, that drewe swordes.

[h] He wẽt by the wildernes where the Arabians dwelt in tentes.

11 ¶ And Gideon went through them that dwelt in [k] tabernacles on the Eastside of Nobah & Iogbehah, and smote the hoste: for the hoste was careles.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he followed after them, & toke the two Kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the hoste.

13 ¶ So Gideon the sonne of Ioash returned from battel, [l] the sunne being yet hie, [o] Or, they were like vnto thee.

19 And he said, They were my brethren, euen my [k] mothers children: as the Lord liueth, if ye had saued their liues, I wolde not slay you.

[k] We came all out of one belly: therefore I wil be reuenged.

20 Then he said vnto Iether his first borne sonne, Vp, and slay them: but ſ boy drewe not his sworde: for he feared, because he was yet yong.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall vpon vs: for [l] as the man is, ſo is his strength. And Gideon arose and slewe Zebah and Zalmunna, & toke away the [p] ornaments, that were on their camels neckes.

[l] Meaning, that they wolde be rid out of their paine at once, or els to haue a valiant man to put them to death.

[p] Or, collers.

22 ¶ Then the men of Israel said vnto Gideon, Reigne thou ouer vs, bothe thou, & thy sonne, & thy [m] sonnes sonne: for thou hast deliuered vs out of the hand of Midian.

[m] That is, thy posteritie.

23 And Gideon said vnto them, I wil not reigne ouer you, nether shal my childe reigne ouer you, but the Lord shal [n] reigne ouer you.

[n] His intent was to shewe him selfe thankeful for this victorie by restoring of religion, w̃ because it was not according as God had cõmanded, turned to their destruction.

24 Againe Gideon said vnto them, I wolde desire a request of you, that you wolde giue me euerie man the earings of his praye (for they had golden earings because they were Ismaelites)

25 And they answered, We wil giue thẽ. And they spred a garment, & did cast therein euerie man the earings of his praye.

26 And the weight of the golden earings that he required, was a thousãd and seuen hũdreth shekels of golde, beside collers, and iewels, and purple raimẽt that was on the Kings of Midian, and beside o That is, suche thigs as perteined to the vse of the tabernacle.

27 And Gideon made an o Ephod thereof, and put it in Ophrah his citie: & all Israel went a whoring there after it, which was the destruction of Gideon and his house.

28 Thus was Midian broght low e before the children of Israel, so that they lift vp their heads nomore: and the countrey was in quietnes forty yeres in the dayes of Gideon:

29 ¶ Then Ierubbaal the sonne of Ioash went, and dwelt in his owne house.

30 And Gideō had seuentie sonnes n begotten of his body: for he had manie wiues.

31 And his concubine that was in Shechē, bare him a sonne also, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 So Gideon the sonne of Ioash dyed in a good age, and was buryed in the sepulchre of Ioash his father in Ophrah, of the p father of the Ezrites.

p Which citie belonged to the familie of the Ezrites.

33 But when Gideon was dead, the children of Israel turned away and went a whoring after Baalim, and made q Baal-berith their god.

q That is Baal, to whome they had bounde thē selues by couenant.

34 And the children of Israel remembred not the Lord their God, which had deliuered them out of the hāds of all their enemies on euerie side.

r They were vnmindeful of God, and vnkinde toward him, by whome they had receiued so great a benefite.

35 Nether r shewed they mercie on the house of Ierubbaal, or Gideon, according to all the goodnes which he had shewed vnto Israel.

CHAP. IX.

1 Abimelech vsurpeth the kingdome, and putteth his brethren to death. 7 Iotham proposeth a parable. 23 Hatred betwene Abimelech & the Shechemites. 26 Gaal conspireth against him, and is ouercome. 53 Abimelech is wounded to death by a woman.

1 THen Abimelech the sonne of Ierubbaal went to Shechem vnto his a mothers brethrē, and communed with them, and with all the familie, and house of his mothers father, saying, a To practise with his kinsfolkes for the atteining of the kingdome.

2 Say, I pray you, in the audience of all the men of Shechem, whether is better for you, that all the sonnes of Ierubbaal, which are seuentie persones, reigne ouer you, ether that one reigne ouer you? Remēber also, that I am your b bone, and your flesh.

b Of your kinred by my mothers side.

3 Then his mothers brethren spake of him in the audience of all the men of Shechem, all these wordes: and their heartes were moued to followe Abimelech: for said they, He is our brother.

4 And they gaue him seuentie pieces of siluer out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired t vaine and light fellowes which followed him.

t Or, idle felowes and vacabonds.

5 And he went vnto his fathers house at Ophrah, and c slewe his brethren, the sonnes of Ierubbaal, about seuenty persones vpō one stone: yet Iotham ý yongest sonne of Ierubbaal was left: for he hid him selfe.

c Thus tyrants to establishe their vsurped power spare not the innocent blood, 1. King. 16, 7. 2. chro 21, 4.

6 ¶ And all the men of Shechem gathered together with all the house of d Millo, and came & made Abimelech King in the plaine, where the stone was erected in Shechem.

d Which was as ý towne house or comon hal, w he calleth the towre of shechē vers. 49.

7 And when they tolde it to Iotham, he went and stode in the top of mount Gerizim, and lift vp his voyce, and cryed, and said vnto them, Hearken vnto me, you men of Shechem, that God may hearken vnto you.

8 e The trees went forthe to anointe a King ouer them, and said vnto the oliue tre, Reigne thou ouer vs.

e By this parable he declareth, that those ý are not ambitious, are moste worthy of honour, and that the ambitious abuse their honour bothe to their owne destruction and other.

9 But the oliue tre said vnto them, Shulde I leaue my fatnes, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to auance me aboue the trees?

10 Then the trees said to the fig tre, Come thou, and be King ouer vs.

11 But the fig tre answered them, Shulde I forsake my swetnes, and my good frute, and go to auance me aboue the trees?

12 Then said the trees vnto the vine, Come thou & be King ouer vs, 13 But the vine said vnto them, Shulde I leaue my wine: whereby I cheare God and man, and go to auance me aboue the trees?

14 Then said all ý trees vnto the f bramble, Come thou and reigne ouer vs.

u Or, thistel, or breere.

15 And the bramble said vnto the trees, If ye wil in dede anoint me King ouer you, come, & put your trust vnder my shadow: and if not, the g fire shal come out of the bramble, and consume the cedres of Lebanon.

f Abimelech shal destroye ý nobles of Shechem.

16 Now therefore, if ye do truely and vncorruptly to make Abimelech King, & if ye haue dealt wel with Ierubbaal & with his house, & haue done vnto him according to the deseruing of his hands, 17 (For my father, fought for you, and h aduentured his life, & deliuered you out of the hands of Midian.

h Ebr. he cast his life farre from him.

18 And ye are risen vp against my fathers house this day, and haue slayne his children, about seuentie persones vpon one stone, & haue made Abimelech ý sonne of his maide seruant, King ouer the men of Shechem, because he is your brother)

19 If ye then haue delt truely and purely with Ierubbaal, and with his house this day, then g reioyce ye with Abimelech, g That he is your King, and you his subiectes.

bimelech, and let him reioyce with you.

20 But if not, let a fire come out from Abimelech, and consume the men of Shechem and the house of Millo also: let a fire come forthe from the mē of Shechem, & from the house of Millo, and consume Abimelech.

21 And Iotham ranne away, and fled, & went to Beer and dwelt there for feare of Abimelech his brother.

22 So Abimelech reigned thre yere ouer Israel.

h Because the people consented with the King in sheding innocent blood: therefore God destroyeth both the one & the other.

23 But God [h] sent an euil spirit betwene Abimelech, and the men of Shechem: and the men of Shechem brake their promes to Abimelech, 24 That the crueltie towarde the seuentie sonnes of Ierubbaal & their blood might come and be laide vpon Abimelech their brother, which had slayne them, and vpon the men of Shechem, which had aided him to kil his brethren.

25 So the men of Shechem set men in waite for him in the tops of the mountaines: who robbed all that passed that way by them: and it was tolde Abimelech.

26 Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed came with his brethren, and thei went to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

i Before they were afrayed of Abimelechs power, & durst not go out of the citie.

27 Therefore thei [i] went out into the field, & gathered in their grapes & troade them, and made mery, and went into the house of their gods, and did eat & drinke, and cursed Abimelech.

28 Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech? and who is Shechem, that we shulde serue him? Is he not the sonne of Ierubbaal? & Zebul is his officer? Serue rather the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why shulde we serue him?

29 Now wolde God this people were vnder mine hand: thē wolde I put away Abimelech. And he said to [k] Abimelech, Increase thine armie, and come out.

k Braggingly as though he had bene present, or to his captaine Zebul.

30 And when Zebul the ruler of the citie heard the wordes of Gaal the sonne of Ebed, his wrath was kindled.

31 Therefore he sent messengers vnto Abimelech "priuely, saying, Beholde, Gaal the sonne of Ebed and his brethrē be come to Shechem, and beholde, thei fortifie the citie against thee.

"Ebr. craftely.

32 Now therefore arise by night, thou and the people that is with thee, & lie in wayte in the field.

33 And rise early in the morning as soone as the sunne is vp, and assalt the citie: and when he and the people that is with him, shal come out against thee, do to him "what thou canst.

"Ebr. What thyne hand can finde.

34 ¶ So Abimelech rose vp, & all ỹ people that were with him by night: and thei laie in waite against Shechem in foure bandes.

35 Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed went out and stode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and Abimelech rose vp and the folke that were with him, frō liyng in waite.

36 And when Gaal sawe the people, he said to Zebul, Beholde, there come people downe from the tops of the mountaines: and Zebul said vnto him, The [l] shadowe of the mountaines seme men vnto thee.

Thou art afrayed of a shadowe.

37 And Gaal spake againe, & said, See there come folke downe "by the middle of the land, & an other band cometh by the way of the plaine of "Meonenim.

"Ebr. by the nauel.

"Or, charmers.

38 Then said Zebul vnto him, Where is now thy mouth, that said, Who his Abimelech, that we shulde serue him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Go out now, I pray thee, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal [m] went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

m As their captaine.

40 But Abimelech pursued him, & he fled before him, and many were ouerthrowen and wounded, euen vnto the entring of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren that thei shulde not dwel in Shechem.

42 ¶ And on the morowe, the people went out into ỹ field: which was tolde Abimelech.

43 And he toke the [n] people, and deuided them into thre bandes, & laid waite in the fields, and loked, & beholde, the people were come out of the citie, & he rose vp against them, and smote them.

n Which were of his companie.

44 And Abimelech, and the bādes that were with him, russhed forwarde, & stode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and the two other bandes ranne vpon all the people that were in the field and slewe them.

45 And when Abimelech had fought against the citie all that day, he toke the citie, and slewe the people that was therein, & destroyed the citie and sowed [o] salt in it.

o That it shulde be vnfruteful and neuer serue to any vse.

46 ¶ And when all the men of the towre of Shechem heard it, thei entred into an holde of the house of the God [p] Berith.

p That is, of Baal-berith, as Chap. 8, 33.

47 And it was tolde Abimelech, that all the men of the towre of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gate him vp to mount Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him: and Abimelech toke axes with him and cut downe boughes of trees and toke them, and bare them on his shulder, and said vnto the folke that were with him, What ye haue sene me do, make haste, and do like me.

49 Then all the people also cut downe euery man his bough, and followed Abimelech, & put them to the holde, and set the holde on fire vpon them: so all the men of the towre of Shechem [q] dyed also, about a thousand men and women.

q Meaning, that all were destroyed, aswel they in the towre as the other.

50 ¶ Then went Abimelech to Tebez, and besieged Tebez, and toke it.

51 But there was a strong towre with in the citie, and thether fled all the men and women, and all the chief of the citie, and shut it to them, and went vp to the top of the towre.

52 And Abimelech came vnto the towre & fought against it, and went hard vnto the dore of the towre to set it on fire.

2. Sam. 11, 21. 53 But a certaine woman *cast a piece of a milstone vpon Abimelechs head, & brake his braine pan.

54 Then Abimelech called hastely his page that bare his harnes, and said vnto him, Drawe thy sworde & slay me, that men say not of me, A woma slewe him. And his page [r] thrust him through, and he dyed.

r Thus God by suche miserable death taketh vengeance on tyrants euen in this life.

55 And when the men of Israel sawe that Abimelech was dead, they departed euery man vnto his owne place.

56 Thus God rendred the wickednes of Abimelech, which he did vnto his father in slaying his seuenty brethren.

57 Also all the wickednes of the men of Shechem did God bring vpon their heades. So vpon them came the [f] curse of Iotham the sonne of Ierubbaal.

f For making a tyrant their King.

CHAP. X.

2 Tola dyeth. 5 Iair also dyeth. 17 The Israelites are punished for their sinnes. 10 They crye vnto God, 16 And he hath pitie on them.

1 AFter Abimelech there arose to defend Israel, Tola, ỹ sonne of Puah, the sonne of [u] Dodo, a man of Issachar which dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim.

u Or, his vncle.

2 And he [e] iudged Israel thre and twentie yere and dyed, & was buryed in Shamir.

e Or, gouerned.

3 ¶ And after him arose Iair a Gileadite, & iudged Israel two and twentie yeres.

4 And he had thirtie sonnes that [z] rode on thyrty assecoltes, & they had thirty cities, which are called [u] Hauoth-Iair vnto this day, and are in the land of Gilead.

z Signifying, they were men of autoritie.

u Or, ỹ townes of Iair, as Deut. 3, 14.

5 And Iair dyed, & was buryed in Kamon.

6 ¶ *And the children of Israel wroght wickednes againe in the sight of the Lord, & serued Baalim and *Astharoth, and the Gods of [u] Aram, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the childrē of Ammon, and the Gods of the Philistims, and forsoke the Lord and serued not him.

Chap. 2, 11. & 3, 7. & 4, 1. & 6, 1. & 13, 1. Chap. 2, 13. u Or, Syria.

7 Therefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and [u] he solde them into the hands of the Philistims, and into the hands of the children of Ammon:

u Or, deliuered.

8 Who from that yere vexed and oppressed the children of Israel eightene yeres, [b] euen all the children of Israel that were beyonde Iorden, in the lād of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

b As the Reubenites, Gadites, & half the tribe of Manasseh.

9 Moreouer the children of Ammon went ouer Iorden to fight against Iudah, and against Beniamin, and against the house of Ephraim: so that Israel was sore tormented.

10 Then the children of Israel [c] cryed vnto the Lord, saying, We haue sinned against thee, euen because we haue forsaken our owne God, and haue serued Baalim.

c They prayed to the Lord & confessed their sinnes.

11 And the Lord [d] said vnto the children of Israel, did not I deliuer you from the Egyptians & from the Amorites, from ỹ children of Ammon & from the Philistims?

d By stirring them vp some prophet, as Chap. 6, 8.

12 The Zidonias also, and the Amalekites, and the Moabites did oppresse you, & ye cryed to me, and I saued you out of their hands.

13 Yet ye *haue forsaken me, and serued other gods: wherefore I wil deliuer you nomore.

Deut. 32, 15. Ierem. 2, 13.

14 Go, and crye vnto the gods which ye haue chosen: let them saue you in the time of your tribulacion.

15 And ỹ children of Israel said vnto the Lord, We haue sinned: do thou vnto vs what soeuer pleaseth thee: onely we pray thee to deliuer vs [e] this day.

e That is, from this present dāger.

16 Then they put away the strange gods from among them & [f] serued the Lord: & his soule was grieued for the miserie of Israel.

f This is true repentance to put away the euil, & to serue God aright.

17 Then the children of Ammon gathered them selues together, & pitched in Gilead: and the children of Israel assembled them selues, and pitched in Mizpeh.

18 And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, Whosoeuer wil begin the battel against the children of Ammon, the same shal be *head ouer all the inhabitants of Gilead.

2 Iphtah being chased away by his brethren, was after made captaine ouer Israel. 30 He maketh a rashe vowe. 32 He vanquisheth the Ammonites, 39 And sacrificeth his daughter according to his vowe.

1 THen Gilead begate Iphtah, & Iphtah the Gileadite was "a valiant man but the sonne of an 'harlot.

2 And Gileads wife bare him sonnes, and when the womans children were come to age, they thrust out Iphtah, and said vnto him, Thou shalt not inherit in our fathers house: for thou art ỹ sonne of a [a] strange woman.

3 Then Iphtah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of [b] Tob: and there gathered ydle fellowes to Iphtah, and [c] went out with him.

4 ¶ And in processe of time the children of Ammon made warre with Israel.

5 And when the children of Ammon fought with Israel, [d] the Elders of Gilead went to fet Iphtah out of the land of Tob.

6 And they said vnto Iphtah, [e] Come and be our captaine, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 Iphtah then answered the Elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and [f] expel me out of my fathers house? how then come you vnto me now in time of your tribulacion?

8 Then the Elders of Gilead said vnto Iphtah, Therefore we turne againe to thee now, that thou maiest go with vs, & fight against the children of Ammon, & be our head ouer all the inhabitans of Gilead.

9 And Iphtah said vnto the Elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home againe to fight against the children of Ammon, if the Lord giue them before me, shall I be your head?

10 And the Elders of Gilead said to Iphtah, The Lord "be witnes betwene vs, if we do not according to thy wordes.

11 Then Iphtah went with the Elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captaine ouer them: and Iphtah rehearsed all his wordes before the Lord in Mizpeh.

12 ¶ Then Iphtah sent messengers vnto the King of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me, to fight in my land?

13 And the King of the children of Ammon answered vnto the messengers of Iphtah, *Because Israel toke my land, when they came vp from Egypt, from Arnō vnto Iabbok, and vnto Iordē: now therefore restore those lands " quietly.

14 Yet Iphtah sent messengers againe vnto the King of the children of Ammon, 15 And said vnto him, Thus saith Iphtah, *Israel toke not the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon.

16 But when Israel came vp from Egypt, and walked through the wildernes vnto the red Sea, then they came to Kadesh.

17 *And Israel sent messengers vnto the King of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, go through thy lād: but the King of Edom wold not consent: and also they sent vnto the King of Moab, but he wolde not: therefore Israel abode in Kadesh.

18 Then they went through the wildernes, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the Eastside of ỹ land of Moab, & pitched on the other side of Arnon, * and came not within the coast of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 Also Israel *sent messengers vnto Sihon, King of the Amorites, the King of Heshbon, & Israel said vnto him, Let vs passe, we pray thee, by thy land vnto our [n] place.

20 But Sihon [g] consented not to Israel, ỹ he shulde go through his coast: But Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Iahaz, and fought with Israel.

21 And the Lord God of Israel gaue Sihon and all his folke into the hands of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that countrey:

22 And they possessed * all the coast of the Amorites, from Arnō vnto Iabbok, and from the wildernes euen vnto Iorden.

23 Now therefore the Lord God of Israel hathe cast out the Amorites before his people Israel, & shuldest thou possesse it?

24 Woldest not thou possesse that which Chemosh thy God giueth thee to possesse? So whomesoeuer ỹ [h] Lord our God driueth out before vs, them wil we possesse.

2 And Iphtah said vnto them, I and my people were at great strife with ỹ children of Ammon, and when I called you, ye deliuered me not out of their hands.

3 So when I sawe that ye deliuered me not, [c] I put my life in mine hands, & wẽt vpon the children of Ammon: so the Lord deliuered them into mine hands. Wherefore then are ye come vpon me now to fight against me?

4 Then Iphtah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought with Ephraim: & the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Giliadites are runagates of Ephraim [d] among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites.

5 Also the Giliadites toke the passage of Iorden before the Ephraimites, and when the Ephraimites that were escaped, said, Let me passe, then the men of Gilead said vnto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay,

Samson desireth to haue a wife of the Philistims. 6 He killeth a lyon. 12 He propoundeth poundeth a riddle. 19 He killeth thirtie. 20 His wife forsaketh him and taketh another.

1 NOw Samson went downe to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistims.
2 And he came vp and tolde his father and his mother, and said, I haue seene a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistims: now therefore [y] giue me her to wife.
3 Then his father and his mother said vnto him, Is there [a] neuer a wife amõg ỹ daughters of thy brethren, and amõg all my people, that thou must go to take a wife of the vncircumcised Philistims? And Samson said vnto his father, Giue me her, for she pleaseth me wel.
4 But his father and his mother knewe not ỹ it came of the Lord, that he shulde seke an occasion against the [b] Philistims: for at that time the Philistims reigned ouer Israel.
5 ¶ Then went Samson and his father and his mother downe to Timnath, and came to ỹ vineyardes at Timnath: & beholde, a yong lyon roared vpon him.
6 And the Spirit of the Lord [c] came vpon him, and he tare him, as one shulde haue rent a kid, and had nothing in his hand, nether tolde he his father nor his mother what he had done.
7 And he went downe, and talked with the woman which was beautiful in the eyes of Samson.
8 ¶ And within a fewe dayes, whẽ he returned [d] to receiue her, he went aside to se the carkeis of the lyon: and beholde, there was a swarme of bees, and hony in the body of the lyon.
9 And he toke thereof in his hands, and went eating, and came to his father and to his mother, and gaue vnto them, and they did eat: but he tolde not them, that he had taken the hony out of the bodie of ỹ lyon.
10 So his father went downe vnto the woman, and Samson made there a [d] feast: for so vsed the yong men to do.
11 And when [e] they sawe him, they broght thirtie companions to be with him.
12 Then Samson said vnto thẽ, I wil now put forthe a ridle vnto you: & if you cã declare it me within seuen dayes of the feast, & finde it out, I wil giue you thirtie shetes, and thirtie [f] chãge of garmẽts.
13 But if you can not declare it me, then shal ye giue me thirtie shetes and thirtie change of garments. And they answered him, Put forthe thy ridle, that we may heare it.
14 And he said vnto them, Out of the eater came meat, and out of ỹ strong came swetenes: & they colde not in thre dayes expounde the ridle.
15 And when the seuenth day was [g] come, they said vnto Samsons wife, Entise thyne housband, that he may declare vs the ridle, lest we burne thee and thy fathers house with fire. Haue ye called vs, [h] to possesse vs? is it not so?
16 And Samsons wife wept before him, and said, Surely thou hatest me and louest me not: for thou hast put forthe a ridle vnto the [h] children of my people, and hast not tolde it me. And he said vnto her, Beholde, I haue not tolde it my father, nor my mother, and shal I tel it thee?
17 Then Samsons wife wept before him [i] seuẽ dayes, while their feast lasted: and whẽ the seuenth day came, he tolde her, because she was importunate vpon him: so she tolde the ridle to the children of her people.
18 And the men of the citie said vnto him the seuenth day before the sonne went downe, What is sweter, then honie? and what is stronger then a lyon? Then said he vnto them, [k] If ye had not plowed ẅ my heiffer, ye had not founde out my ridle.
19 And the Spirit of the Lord came vpõ him, and he went downe [l] to Ashkelon, and slewe thirtie men of them & spoiled thẽ, and gaue change of garments vnto them which expounded the ridle: & his wrath was kindled, and he went vp to his fathers house.
20 Then Samsons wife was giuen to his companion, whome he had vsed as his friend.

14 When he came to Lehi, the Philistims shouted against him, and the Spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and the cordes that were vpon his armes, became as flaxe that was burnt with fire, for the bādes losed from his hands.

15 And he found a [i] newe iawebone of an asse, and put forthe his hand, and caught it, and slewe a thousand men therewith.

14 And ſhe faſtened it with a pinne, & ſaid vnto him, The Philiſtims be vpon thee, Samſon. And he awoke out of his ſlepe, and went away with the [f] pinne of the webbe and the woufe.

[f] Or, beame.

15 Againe ſhe ſaid vnto him, Howe canſt thou ſay, I loue thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou haſt mocked me theſe thre times, and haſt not tolde me wherein thy great ſtrength lieth.

h For this Samſon vſed to ſaye, I loue thee.

16 And becauſe ſhe was importunate vpon him with her wordes continually, and vexed him, his ſoule was peined vnto the death.

i Thus his immoderate affections towarde a wicked womā cauſed him to loſe Gods excellent gifts, & become ſlaue vnto them, whome he ſhulde haue ruled.

17 Therefore he tolde her all his [i] heart, & ſaid vnto her, There neuer came raſor vpon mine head: for I am a Nazarite vnto God from my mothers wombe: therefore if I be ſhauen, my ſtrength wil go from me, & I ſhal be weake, & be like all other men.

18 And when Delilah ſawe that he had tolde her all his heart, ſhe ſent, & called for the Princes of the Philiſtims, ſaying, Come vp once againe: for he hathe ſhewed me all his heart. Then the princes of the Philiſtims came vp vnto her, and broght the money in their hands.

19 And ſhe made him ſlepe vpon her knees, & ſhe called a man, & made him to ſhaue of the ſeuen lockes of his head, & ſhe began to vexe him, & his ſtrēgth was [k] gone from him.

k Not for the loſſe of his heere, but for ſ cōtempt of ſ ordinace of God, w was ſ cauſe ſ God departed from him.

20 Then ſhe ſaid, The Philiſtims be vpon thee, Samſon. And he awoke out of his ſlepe, and thoght, I wil go out now as at other times, & ſhake my ſelfe, but he knewe not that the Lord was departed from him.

21 Therefore the Philiſtims toke him, and put out his eies, and broght him downe to Azzah, and bound him with fetters: and he did grinde in the priſon houſe.

l Yet had he not his ſtrength againe, til he had called vpō God, and reconciled him ſelfe.

22 And the heere of his head began to [l] growe againe after that it was ſhauen.

23 Thē the princes of the Philiſtims gathered thē together for to offer a great ſacrifice vnto Dagon their god, and to reioyce: for they ſaid, Our god hathe deliuered Samſon our enemie into our hands.

24 Alſo when the people ſaw him, they praiſed their god: for they ſaid, Our god hathe deliuered into our hands our enemie and deſtroier of our countrey, which hathe ſlaine manie of vs.

25 And when their heartes were mery, they ſaid, Call Samſon, that he may make vs paſtime. So they called Samſon out of the priſon houſe, and he [m] was a laughing ſtocke vnto them, and they ſet him betwene the pillers.

m Thus by Gods iuſt iudgements they are made ſlaues to infideles, which neglect their vocation in defending the faithful.

26 Then Samſon ſaid vnto the ſeruant that led him by the hand, Lead me, that I may touche the pillers that the houſe ſtandeth vpon, and that I may leane to them.

27 (Now the houſe was ful of men & women, and there were all the princes of the Philiſtims: alſo vpon the roofe were about thre thouſand men & women that behelde while Samſon [n] played)

[n] Or, was mocked.

28 Then Samſon called vnto the Lord, and ſaid, o Lord God, I pray thee, thinke vpon me: o God, I beſeche thee, ſtrengthen me at this time onely, that I maye be [o] at once auenged of the Philiſtims for my two eyes.

[o] Ebr. take one vengeance.

29 And Samſon layed holde on the two middle pillers whereupon the houſe ſtode, and on which it was borne vp: on the one with his right hand, and on the other with his left.

n According to my vocation, which is to execute Gods iudgemēts vpō the wicked.

30 Then ſaid Samſon, [p] Let me loſe my life with the Philiſtims: and he bowed him with all his might, and the houſe fel vpon the princes, and vpon all the people that were therein. ſo the dead which he ſlue at his death were mo then they which he had ſlayne in his life.

p He ſpeaketh not this of diſpaire, but humbling him ſelfe for neglecting his office & ſ of fence thereby giuen.

31 Then his brethren, and all the houſe of his father came downe and toke him, and broght him vp & buryed him betwene Zorah and Eſhtaol, in the ſepulchre of Manoah his father. nowe he had iudged Iſrael twentie yeres.

3 Michahs mother according to her vowe made her ſonne two idoles. 5 He made his ſonne a Prieſt for his idoles, 10 And after he hired a Leuite.

1 THere [a] was a mā of moūt Ephraim, whoſe name was Michah, a Some thincke this hiſtorie was in ſ time of Othniel, or as Ioſephus writeth, immediatly after Ioſhua.

2 And he ſaid vnto his mother, The eleuen hundreth ſhekels of ſiluer that were taken frō thee, for the which thou curſedſt, & ſpakedſt it, euen in mine hearing, beholde, the ſiluer is with me, I toke it. Then his mother ſaid, Bleſſed be my ſonne of the Lord.

3 And when he had reſtored the eleuen hundreth ſhekels of ſiluer to his mother, his mother ſaid, I had dedicate the ſiluer to the Lord of mine hand for my ſonne, to make [b] a grauen and molten image. Nowe therefore I wil giue it thee againe.

4 And when he had restored the money vnto his mother, his mother toke two hundreth shekels of siluer, and gaue them to the founder, which made thereof a grauen and molten image, and it was in the house of Michah.

5 And this man Michah had an house of gods, & made an *c Ephod, & * Teraphim, and " consecrated one of his sonnes, who was his Priest.

6 In those daies there was no d King in Israel, but euerie man did that, which was good in his owne eies.

7 ¶ There was also a yong man out of Bethlehem Iudah, e of the familie of Iudah: who was a Leuite, and soiourned there.

8 And the man departed out of ỹ citie, euen out of Beth-lehem Iudah, to dwel where he colde finde a place: and as he iourneied, he came to mount Ephraim to the house of Michah.

9 And Michah said vnto him, Whence commest thou? And the Leuite answered him, f I come from Beth-lehem Iudah, and go to dwel where I may finde a place.

10 Then Michah said vnto him, Dwel with me, and be vnto me a father and a Priest, and I wil giue thee ten shekels of siluer by yere, and a sute of apparel, & thy meat and drinke. So the Leuite went in.

11 And the Leuite was g content to dwel w̃ the man, and the yong mã was vnto him as one of his owne sonnes.

12 And Michah consecrated the Leuite, & the yong man was his Priest, and was in the house of Michah.

13 Then said Michah, Now I knowe that the Lord wil be h good vnto me, seing I haue a Leuite to my Priest.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 The children of Dan send men to searche the land. 11 Then come the six hundreth & take the gods, and the Priest of Michah awaie. 27 They destroy Laish. 28 Thei buyld it againe, 30 And set vp idolatrie.

1 IN those dayes there was no a King in Israel, and at the same time the tribe of Dan soght them an inheritance to dwel in: for vnto that time all their inheritance had not fallen vnto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 Therefore the children of Dan sent of their familie fiue men out of their coastes, euen men expert in warre, out of Zorah & Eshtaol, to vewe the lãd and searche it out, and said vnto them, b Go, and search out the land. Then thei came to mount Ephraim to the house of Michah and lodged there.

3 When thei were in the house of Michah, thei knewe the c voyce of the yõg mã ỹ Leuite: & being turned in thether, thei said vnto him, Who broght thee hether? or what makest thou in this place? & what hast thou to do here?

4 And he answered them, Thus and thus dealeth Michah with me, and hathe hired me, and I am his Priest.

5 Againe thei said vnto him, Aske counsel now of God, ỹ we may knowe whether the way w̃ we go, shal be prosperous.

6 And the Priest said vnto them, d Go in peace: for ỹ Lord guideth your way w̃ ye go.

7 Then the fiue men departed and came to Laish, and sawe the people that were therein, which dwelt careles, after the maner of the Zidonians, quiet and sure, because no man " made any trouble in the land, or vsurped any dominion: also they were far from the Zidoniãs, and had no busines with other men.

8 ¶ So thei came againe vnto their brethren to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said vnto them, What haue ye done?

9 And thei answered, Arise, that we may go vp against them: for we haue sene the land, and surely it is very good, and e do ye sit stil? be not slouthful to go and enter to possesse the land.

10 (If ye wil go, ye shal come vnto a careles people, and the countrey is large) for God hathe giuen it into your hand. It is a place which doeth lacke nothing that is in the worlde.

11 ¶ Then there departed thence of the familie of the Danites, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, six hundreth men appointed with instruments of warre.

12 And thei went vp, & pitched in Kiriath-iearim in Iudah: wherefore they called that place, "Mahaneh-Dan vnto this day: & it is behinde Kiriath-iearim.

13 And thei went thence vnto mount Ephraim, and came to the house of Michah.

14 Thẽ answered the fiue men, that wẽt to spie out the countrey of Laish, and said vnto their brethren, f Knowe ye not, that there is in these houses an Ephod, & Teraphim, and a grauen and a molten image? Now therefore consider what ye haue to do.

15 And thei turned thetherwarde and came to the house of the yong man the Leuite, euen vnto the house of Michah, and saluted him peaceably.

16 And the six hundreth men appointed with their weapons of warre, w̃ were of the children of Dan, stode by the entring of the gate.

17 Then the fiue men that went to spie out the lãd, went in thether, and toke the g grauen image and the Ephod, and the Teraphim, b For the portion w̃ Ioshua gaue them, was not sufficient for all their tribe.

f Because thei before had had good successe, thei wolde that their brethren shulde be encouraged by hearing the same tidings.

Teraphim, and the molten image: and the Priest stode in the entring of the gate with the six hundreth men, that were appointed with weapons of warre, 18 And the other went into Michahs house, & fet the grauen image, the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the molte image. Then said the Priest vnto thē, What do ye?

19 And thei answered him, Holde thy peace: laye thine hand vpō thy mouth, and come with vs to be our father and Priest. Whether is it better that thou shuldest be a Priest vnto the house of one mā, or that thou shuldest be a Priest vnto a tribe and to a familie in Israel.

20 And the Priests heart was glad, and he toke the Ephod and the Teraphim, and the grauen image, and went among the [h] people.

h With the six hundreth men.

21 And they turned and departed, and put the children and the cattel, and the substance [i] before them.

i Suspecting them that did pursue them.

22 ¶ When thei were farre of from the house of Michah, the men that were in the houses nere to Michahs house, gathered together, and pursued after the children of Dan, 23 And cryed vnto the children of Dan: who turned their faces, and said vnto Michah, What ayleth thee, that thou makest an out crye?

k This declareth what opinion the idolaters haue of their idoles.

24 And he said, Ye haue taken away my [k] gods, which I made, and the Priest, and go your waies: & what haue I more? how then say ye vnto me, What aileth thee?

25 And the childrē of Dan said vnto him, Let not thy voyce be heard among vs, lest "angry fellowes runne vpon thee, & thou lose thy life with the liues of thine housholde.

" Ebr. Who haue their hearts bitter.

26 So the children of Dan went their waies: and when Michah sawe that they were to strong for him, he turned, & wēt backe vnto his house.

l Meaning, the idoles, as vers. 24.

27 And thei toke the [l] things which Michah had made, and the Priest which he had, and came vnto Laish, vnto a quiet people and without mistrust, and smote thē w the edge of the sworde, & burnt the citie with fire:

" Or, deliuer them.

28 And there was none to "helpe, because [m] Laish was farre from Zidon, and they had no busines with other men: also it was in the valley that lyeth by Bethrehob. After, they buylt the citie, & dwelt therein, m Which after was called Cesarea philippi.

Iosh. 19, 47.

29 *And called the name of the citie Dā, after the name of Dan their father which was borne vnto Israel: howbeit the name of ỹ citie was Laish at the beginning.

n Thus in steade of giuing glorie to God, thei attributed the victorie to their idoles, & honored them therefore.

30 Then the childrē of Dan set them vp the [n] graue image: and Ionathan the sonne of Gershom, the sonne of Manasseh and his sonnes were the Priests in the tribe of the Danites vntil the day of the [o] captiuitie of the land.

o That is, til the Arke was taken, 1. Sam. 5, 1.

31 So they set them vp the grauen image, w Michah had made, all the while the house of God was in Shiloh.

2 A Leuites wife being an harlot forsoke her housband, and he toke her againe. 25 At Gibeah she was most vilenously abused to the death. 29 The Leuite curseth her in pieces, and sendeth her to the twelue tribes.

" Ebr. arose vp.

6 So they sate downe, & did eat and drinke bothe of thē together. And the [q] yōg womans father said vnto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tary all night, & let thine heart be mery.

q That is, his concubines father.

7 And when the man rose vp to departe, his father in lawe [r] was earnest: therefore he returned, and lodged there.

s Meaning, ỹ he shulde refresh him selfe with meate, as vers. 5.

9 Afterwarde when the man arose to departe with his concubine and his seruāt, his father in lawe, the yong womans father said vnto hī, Beholde now, the day "draweth towarde euen: I pray you, tary all night: beholde [t] the sunne goeth to rest: lodge here, that thine heart may be mery, & tomorowe get you early vpon your way, and go to thy [u] tent.

10 But the man wolde not tary, but arose and departed, & came ouer against Iebus, bus(which is Ierusalem)and his two asses laden, and his concubine were with him.

11 When thei were nere to Iebus,the day was sore spent,and the seruãt said vnto his master,Come,I pray thee, & let vs turne into this citie of the Iebusites, & lodge all night there.

12 And his master answered him, d We wil not turne into the citie of strangers that are not of the childrẽ of Israel,but we wil go forthe to Gibeah.

13 And he said vnto his seruant, Come, and let vs drawe nere to one of these places,that we may lodge in Gibeah or in Ramah.

14 So they wẽt forwarde vpon their way, and the sunne went downe vpon them nere to Gibeah,which is in Beniamin.

15 ¶ Then thei turned thether to go in and lodge in Gibeah:and whẽ he came, he sate him downe in a strete of ỹ citie: for there was no man that ||toke them into his house to lodging.

16 And beholde, there came an olde mã from his worke out of the field at euẽ, and the man was of mount Ephraim, but dwelt in Gibeah : and the men of the place were the children of e Iemini.

17 And when he had lift vp his eyes, he sawe a ||wayfaring man in the stretes of the citie : then this olde man said, Whether goest thou,and whence camest thou?

18 And he answered him, We came from Beth-lehem-Iudah,vnto ỹ side of moũt Ephraim:from thence am I : and I went to Beth-lehem Iudah,and go now to the f house of the Lord : and no man receiueth me to house, 19 Although we haue straw e and prouandre for our asses,and also bread and wine for me and thine handmayd, and for the boy that is with thy seruant : we lacke nothing.

20 And the olde mã said, ||Peace be with thee : as for all that thou lackest, shalt thou finde with me;onely abide not in the strete all night.

21 ¶ So he broght him into his house,and gaue fodder vnto the asses : & thei washed their fete,& did eat and drinke.

22 And as they were making their hearts mery,beholde,the mẽ of the citie," wicked men beset ỹ house roũd about,and smote at the dore,and spake to this olde man the master of the house, saying, Bring forthe ỹ man that came into thine house that we may knowe him.

23 And*this man the master of the house, went out vnto them, and said vnto them, Naye my brethren,do not so wickedly,I pray you:seing that this man is come into mine house,do not this vilanie.

24 Beholde,here is my daughter,a virgine,and his concubine : them wil I bring out now,h and humble thẽ, and do with them what semeth you good :but to this man do not this vilenie.

25 But the mẽ wolde not hearkẽ to him: therefore the man toke his concubine, and broght her out vnto them;and they knewe her and abused her all the night vnto the morning: & when the day began to spring,they let her go.

26 So the woman came in the dawning of the day, & i fel downe at the dore of the mans house where her lord was, til the light day.

27 And her || lord arose in the morning, & opened the dores of the house, and went out to go his way, and beholde, ỹ woman his concubine was || dead at the dore of the house,and her hands lay vpon the threshold.

28 And he said vnto her, Vp,and let vs go:but she answered not. Then he toke her vp vpon the asse, and the man rose vp,and went vnto his k place.

29 And when he was come to his house, he toke a knife,and laid hãd on his cõcubine, and deuided her in pieces with her bones into twelue partes,and sent her through all quarters of Israel.

30 And all that sawe it,said, There was no l suche thing done or sene since the time that the children of Israel came vp from the land of Egypt vnto this day: considre the matter, consult and giue sentence.

and haue forced my concubine that she is dead.

6 Then I toke my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent [c] her through out all the countrey of the inheritance of Israel: for they haue committed abomination and vilenie in Israel.

7 Beholde, ye are all children of Israel: giue your aduise, and counsel herein.

8 The all ý people arose as one man, saying, There shal not a ma of vs go to his tent, ne ther anie turne into his [f] house.

9 But now this is ý thing ŵ we wil do to Gibeah: we wil go vp by lot against it,

10 And we wil take ten men of ý hundreth throughout all ý tribes of Israel, and an hundreth of the thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand to bring [g] vitaile for the people that they may do (when they come to Gibeah of Beniamin) according to all the vilenie, that it hathe done in Israel.

11 ¶ So all the men of Israel were gathered against the citie, knit together, as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the [h] tribe of Beniamin, saying, What wickednes is this that is committed among you?

13 Now therefore deliuer vs those wicked men which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away euil from Israel: but the childrē of Beniamin [i] wolde not obey ý voyce of their brethren the children of Israel.

14 But the children of Beniamin gathered them selues together out of the cities vnto Gibeah, to come out and fight against the children of Israel.

15 ¶ And the children of Beniamin were nombred at that time out of the cities six and twentie thousand men that drewe sworde, beside the inhabitāts of Gibeah, which were nombred seuen hundreth chosen men.

16 Of all this people were seuen hūdreth chosen men, being *left handed: all these colde sling stones at an heere breadth, and not faile.

17 ¶ Also the men of Israel, beside Beniamin, were nombred foure hundreth thousand men that drewe sworde, euen all men of warre.

18 And ý childrē of Israel arose, & went vp [k] to ý house of God, & asked of God, saying, Which of vs shal go vp first to fight against the children of Beniamin? And the Lord said, Iudah shalbe first.

19 Then the children of Israel arose vp early and camped against Gibeah.

20 And ý men of Israel went out to battel against Beniamin, and the men of Israel put them selues in array to fight against them beside Gibeah.

21 And ý childrē of Beniamin came out of Gibeah, & slewe downe to ý grounde of the Israelites that day two and twentie thousand men.

22 And the people, ý men of Israel plucked vp their hearts, and set their battel again in array in the place where they put them in array the first day.

23 (For the children of Israel had gone vp and wept before the Lord vnto the euening, and had asked of the Lord, saying, Shal I go againe to battel against ý children of Beniamin my brethren? & the Lord said, Go vp against them)

24 ¶ Then the children of Israel came nere against the children of Beniamin the seconde day.

25 Also the seconde day Beniamin came forthe to mete them out of Gibeah, & slewe downe to ý groūde of ý childrē of Israel againe eightene thousand men: " Ebr. all they drawing the sworde. all they colde handle the sworde.

26 Then all the childrē of Israel went vp & all ý people came also vnto the house of God, & wept and sate there before the Lord & fasted that day vnto the euening, and offred burnt offrings & peace offrings before the Lord.

27 And the children of Israel asked the Lord (for [m] there was the Arke of ý couenant of God in those dayes, 28 And Phinehas ý sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron [n] stode before it at that time) saying, Shal I yet go anie more to battel against the childrē of Beniamin my brethren, or shal I cease? And the Lord said, Go vp: for tomorowe I wil deliuer them into your hand.

29 And Israel set men to lye in wait roūd about Gibeah.

30 And the childrē of Israel went vp against the children of Beniamin ý third day, and put thē selues in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 Then the children of Beniamin coming out against the people, were [o] drawen from the citie: and they began to smite of the people and kil as at other times, euen by ý wayes in the field (whereof one goeth vp to the house of God, & the other to Gibeah) vpon a thirtie men of Israel.

32 (For the children of Beniamin said, They are fallen before vs, as at ý first. But the children of Israel said, Let vs flee & pulcke them away from the citie vnto the hie [p] wayes)

33 And all the men of Israel rose vp out of their place, & put them selues in array at Baal-tamar: and the men that lay in waite of the Israelites came forthe of their place, euen out of the medowes of Gibeah, 34 And they came ouer against Gibeah, ten thousand chosen men of all Israel, & the battel was sore: for they knewe not that the [q] euil was nere them.

37 And they that lay in waite haſted, & brake forthe towarde Gibeah, & the embuſhment[q] drewe them ſelues along, and ſmote all the citie with the edge of the ſworde.

38 Alſo the men of Iſrael had appointed a certeine time with the embuſhments, that they ſhulde make a great flame, & ſmoke riſe vp out of the citie.

39 And when the men of Iſrael retired in the battel, Beniamin began to[ſ] ſmite & kil of the men of Iſrael about thirtie perſones: for they ſaid, Surely they are ſtriken downe before vs, as in the firſt battel.

1 The Iſraelites ſweare that they wil not mary their daughters to the Beniamites. 10 They ſlay them of Iabeſh Gilead, and giue their virgines to the Beniamites. 21 The Beniamites take the daughters of Shiloh.

1 MOreouer the men of Iſrael [a] ſware in Mizpeh, ſaying, None of vs ſhal giue his daughter vnto the Beniamites to wife.

2 And the people came vnto the houſe of God and abode there til euen before God, and lift vp their voices, and wept with great lamentacion,

3 And ſaid, O Lord God of Iſrael, why is this come to paſſe in Iſrael, that this day one tribe of Iſrael ſhulde want?

4 ¶ And on the morowe the people roſe vp and made there an [b] altar, and offred burnt offrings and peace offrings.

5 Then the children of Iſrael ſaid, Who is he among all the tribes of Iſrael, ẏ came not vp with the Congregacion vnto the Lord? for they had made a great othe concerning him that came not vp to the Lord to Mizpeh, ſaying, Let him dye the death.

6 And the children of Iſrael [c] were ſorie for Beniamin their brother, and ſaid, There is one tribe cut of from Iſrael this day.

7 How ſhal we do for wiues to them that remaine, ſeing we haue ſworne by the Lord, that we wil not giue them of our daughters to wiues?

8 Alſo they ſaid, Is there anie of the tribes of Iſrael that [d] came not vp to Mizpeh to the Lord? and beholde, there came none of Iabeſh Gilead vnto the hoſte and to the Congregacion.

9 For when the people were vewed, beholde, none of the inhabitants of Iabeſh Gilead were there.

10 Therefore the Congregacion ſent thether twelue thouſand men of the "moſte valiant, and commanded them, ſaying, Go, and ſmite the inhabitants of Iabeſh Gilead with the edge of the ſworde, bothe women and children.

tants of Iabesh Gilead foure hundreth maides, virgins that had knowen no man by lying with anie male: and they broght them vnto the hoste to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 ¶ Then the whole Congregacion [e] sent and spake with the children of Beniamin that were in the rocke of Rimmon, and called [f] peaceably vnto them:

14 And Beniamin came againe at that time, and they gaue them wiues which they had saued aliue of the women of Iabesh Gilead: but they had not [f] so y nough for them.

15 And the people were sory for Beniamin, because [g] Lord had made a breache in the tribes of Israel.

16 Therefore the Elders of the Congregacion said, How shal we do for wiues to the remnant? for the women of Beniamin are destroyed.

17 And they said, There must be an [g] inheritance for them that be escaped of Beniamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 Howbeit we may not giue them wiues of our daughters: for the children of Israel had sworne, saying, Cursed be he, that giueth a wife to Beniamin.

19 Therefore they said, Beholde, there is a feast of the Lord euerie yere in Shiloh in a place, which is on [h] North-side of Beth-el, and on the East side of the way that goeth vp from Bethel to Shechem, and on the South of Lebonah.

20 Therefore thei commanded the children of Beniamin, saying, Go, and lye in waite in the vineyardes.

21 And when ye se that the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyardes, & catche you euery man a wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go into the land of Beniamin.

22 And [i] when their fathers or their brethren come vnto vs to complaine, we wil say vnto them, Haue pitie on them for our sakes, because we reserued not to eche man his wife in the warre, and becausе ye haue not giuen vnto them hetherto, ye haue sinned.

23 And the children of Beniamin did so, and toke wiues of them that danced according to their [k] nomber: which they toke, and went away, and returned to their inheritance, and repaired the cities and dwelt in them.

24 So the children of Israel departed thence at that time, euery man to his tribe, and to his familie, and went out from thence euerie man to his inheritance.

THE BOKE OF RVTH.

THE ARGVMENT.

THis boke is intitled after the name of Ruth: which is the principal persone spoken of in this treatise. Wherein also figuratiuely is set forthe the state of the Church which is subiecte to manifolde afflictions, and yet at lenght God giueth good and ioyful yssue: teaching vs to abide with pacience til God deliuer vs out of troubles. Herein also is described howe Iesus Christ, who according to the flesh ogut to come of Dauid, proceded of Ruth, of whome the Lord Iesus did vouchesaue to come, notwithstanding she was a Moabite of base condicion, and a stranger from the people of God: declaring vnto vs thereby that the Gentiles shulde be sanctified by him and ioyned with his people, and that there shulde be but one shepefolde, and one shepherde. And it semeth that this historie appertaineth to the time of the Iudges.

CHAP. I.

CHAP. I.

1 Elimelech goeth with his wife and children into the land of Moab, 3 He and his sonnes dye. 19 Naomi and Ruth come to Beth-lehem.

1 NOw in the time that the iudges "ruled, there was a dearth in the [a]land, and a man of Beth lehem[b] Iudah went for to soiourne in the countrei of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sonnes.

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife, Naomi: and the names of his two sonnes, Mahlon, and Chilion, Ephrathites of Beth-lehem Iudah: and when they came into the land of Moab, they continued there.

3 Then Elimelech the husband of Naomi dyed, and she remained with her two sonnes, 4 Which toke them wiues of the[c] Moabites: the ones name was Orpah, & the name of the other Ruth: & they dwelled there about ten yeres.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion dyed also bothe twaine: so the woman was left destitute of her two sonnes, & of her husband.

6 ¶ Then she arose with her daughters in lawe, and returned from the countrey of Moab: for she had heard say in the countrei of Moab, that the Lord had [d] visited his people, and giuen them bread.

7 Wherefore she departed out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in lawe with her, and they went on their way to returne vnto the land of Iudah.

8 Then Naomi said vnto her two daughters in lawe, Go, returne eche of you vnto her owne mothers house: the Lord shewe fauour vnto you, as ye haue done with the dead, & with me.

9 The Lord grante you, that you may finde[e] rest, either of you in the house of her husband. And when she kissed them, they lift vp their voyce & wept.

10 And they said vnto her, Surely we wil returne with thee vnto thy people.

11 But Naomi said, Turne againe, my daughters: for what cause wil you go with me? are there anie mo sonnes in my wombe, that they may be your husbands?

12 Turne againe my daughters: go your way: for I am to olde to haue an husband. if I shulde saie, I haue hope, & if I had an husband this night: yea, if I had borne sonnes, 13 Wolde ye tary for them, til they were of age? wolde ye be differred for the from taking of husbands? nay my daughters: for it grieueth me [f] muche for your sakes that the hand of the Lord is gone out against me.

14 Then they lift vp their voyce, and wept againe, & Orpah [g] kissed her mother in lawe, but Ruth abode stil with her 15 And Naomi said, Beholde, thy sister in lawe is gone backe vnto her people and vnto her gods: [h] returne thou after thy sister in law.

16 And Ruth answered, Intreat me not to leaue thee, nor to departe from thee: for whither thou goest, I wil go: & where thou dwellest, I wil dwell: thy people shalbe my people, and thy God my God.

17 Where thou dyest, wil I dye, and there wil I be buryed. The Lord do so to me and more also, if ought but death departe thee and me.

18 ¶ When she sawe that she was stedfastly minded to go with her, she left speaking vnto her.

19 So they went bothe vntil they came to Beth-lehem: and whe they were come to Beth-lehem, it was [h] noised of them through all the citie, & thei said, Is not this Naomi?

20 And she answered them, Call me not "Naomi, but call me [e] Mara: for the Almightie hathe giuen me muche bitternes.

21 I went out ful, & the Lord hathe caused me no returne empty: wh call ye me Naomi, seing the Lord hath humbled me, & the Almightie hathe brought me vnto aduersitie.

22 So Naomi returned and Ruth the Moabitesse her daughter in law with her, when she came out of the countrei of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of [i] barly harnest.

1 THen Naomies husbād had a kinsman, one of great [a] power, of the familie of Elimelech, & his name was Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitesse said vnto Naomi, I pray thee, let me go to the field, and [b] gather eares of corne after him in whose sight I find fauour. And she said vnto her, Go my daughter.

4 And beholde, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said vnto the reapers, The Lord be with you: & thei answered him, The Lord blesse thee.
5 Then said Boaz vnto his seruant that was appointed ouer the reapers, Whose mayd is this?
6 And the seruant that was appointed ouer the reapers, answered, and said, It is the Moabitish mayd, that came with Naomi out of the countrey of Moab:
7 And she said vnto vs, I pray you, let me gleane and gather after the reapers [a] among the sheaues: so she came, and hathe continued from that time in the morning vnto now, saue that she taried a litle in the house.
8 ¶ Then said Boaz vnto Ruth, Hearest thou, my daughter? go to none other field to gather, nether go from hence: but abide here by my maidens.
9 [c] Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reape, and go thou after the maidens. Haue I not charged the seruants that they touche thee not? Moreouer when thou art a thirst, go vnto the vessels and drinke of that which ỳ seruants haue drawen.
10 Then she fel on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground, and said vnto him, How haue I found fauour in thine eyes, that thou shuldest knowe me, seing I am [d] a stranger?
11 And Boaz answered, and said vnto her, All is tolde and shewed me that thou hast done vnto thy mother in law, since the death of thine husband, and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, & the land where thou wast borne, and art come vnto a people which thou knewest not in time past.
12 The Lord recompence thy worke & a ful reward be giuen thee of ỳ Lord God of Israel, vnder whose [e] wings thou art come to trust.
13 Then she said, Let me finde fauour in thy sight, my lord: for thou hast comforted me, & spoken comfortably vnto thy maid, though I be not like to one of thy maids.
14 And Boaz said vnto her, At the meale time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegre. And she sate beside ỳ reapers, and he reached her parched corne: and she did eat, and was suffised, and [f] left thereof.
15 ¶ And when she arose to gleane, Boaz commanded his seruants, saying, Let her gather among the sheaues, and do not rebuke her.
16 Also let fall some of the sheaues for her, and let it lie, that she may gather it vp, and rebuke her not.
17 So she gleaned in the field vntil euening, and she threshed that she had gathered, and it was about an * Ephah of barly.
18 ¶ And she toke it vp, and went into the citie, and her mother in lawe sawe what she had gathered: also she [g] toke forthe, and gaue to her that which she had reserued, when she was suffised.
19 Then her mother in lawe said vnto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wroghtest thou? blessed be he that knewe thee. And she shewed her mother in lawe, with whome she had wroght, and said, The mans name with whome I wroght to day, is Boaz.
20 And Naomi said vnto her daughter in lawe, Blessed be he of the Lord: for he ceaseth not to do good to the liuing and to the [h] dead. Againe Naomi said vnto her, The man is nere vnto vs, & of our affinitie.
21 And Ruth the Moabitesse said, He said also certainly vnto me, Thou shalt be with my seruants, vntil they haue ended all mine haruest.
22 And Naomi answered vnto Ruth her daughter in lawe, It is best, my daughter, that thou go out with his maids, that thei [i] mete thee not in another field.
23 Then she kept her by the maids of Boaz, to gather vnto the end of barly haruest, & of wheat haruest, and [k] dwelt with her mother in lawe.

1 Naomi giueth Ruth counsel. 8 She sleepeth at Boaz fete. 12 He acknowledgeth him selfe to be her kinsman.

1 AFterward Naomi her mother in law said vnto her, My daughter, shal not I seke [a] rest for thee, that thou maiest prosper?
2 Now also is not Boaz our kinsman, with whose maids thou wast? beholde, he winoweth barly to night in the [l] floore.
3 Wash thy selfe therefore, and anoint thee, & put thy raiment vpon thee, and get thee downe to the floore: let not ỳ [b] man knowe of thee, vntil he haue left eating and drinking.
4 And when he shal slepe, marke the place where he lay eth him do wne, and go, and vncouer the place of his fete, and lay thee downe, & he shal tel thee what thou shalt do.
5 And she answered her, All that thou bidest me, I wil do.

7 And when Boaz had eaten, and dronken, and[c] cheared his heart, he went to lie downe at the end of the heape of corne, and she came softely, and vncouered the place of his fete, and lay downe.

8 And at midnight the man was afraied [a] and caught holde: and lo, a woman lay at is fete.

9 Then he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmaide: spread therefore the wing of thy garment ouer thine handmaid: for thou art the kinsman.

10 Then said he, Blessed be thou of the Lord, my daughter: thou hast [d] shewed more goodnes in the latter end, then at the beginning, in as muche as thou followedst not yong men, were they poore or riche.

11 And now, my daughter, feare not: I wil do to thee all ẏ ẏ requirest: for all the citie of my people doeth knowe, that thou art a vertuous woman.

12 And now, it is true that I am the kinsman, howbeit there is a kinseman neater then I.

13 Tary to night, and when morning is come, if he[e] wil do the duetie of a kinseman vnto thee, wel, let him do the kinsmans duetie: but if he wil not do the parte, then wil I do the duetie of a kinsman, as the Lord liueth: slepe vntil the morning.

14 ¶ And she lay at is fete vntil the morning: and she arose before one colde knowe another: for he said, Let no man knowe that a woman came in to the floore.

15 Also he said bring the [f] shete that thou hast vpon thee, and holde it. And when she helde it, he measured six measures of barly, and laied them on her, and went into the citie.

16 And when she came to her mother in law, she said, [f] Who art thou, my daughter? And she tolde her all that the man had done to her, 17 And said, These six measures of barly gaue he me: for he said to me, Thou shalt not come empty vnto thy mother in lawe.

18 Then said she, My daughter, sit stil, vntil thou knowe how the thing wil fall: for the man wil not be in rest, vntil he hathe finished the matter this same day.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Boaz speaketh to Ruths next kinsman touching her mariage 7 The ancient custome in Israel. 10 Boaz marieth Ruth, of whome he begetteth Obed. 18 The generacion of Tharez.

1 THen went Boaz vp to the [a] gate, & sate there, and beholde the kinseman of whome Boaz had spoken, came by: and he said, [b] Ho, suche one, come, sit downe here. And he turned, and sate downe.

2 Then he toke ten men of the Elders of the citie, and said, Sit ye downe here. And they sate downe.

3 And he said vnto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come againe out of the countrei of Moab, wil sel a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelechs.

4 And I thoght to aduertise thee, saying, Bye it before the assistans, and before ẏ Elders of my people. If thou wilt redeme it, redeme it: but if thou wilt not redeme it, tel me: for I knowe that there is none[c] besides thee to redeme it, & I am after thee. Then he answered, I wil redeme it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou byest the field of the hand of Noami, thou must also bye it of Ruth the Moabitesse the wife of the dead, to stirre vp the name of the deade, vpon his [d] inheritance.

6 And the kinsman answered, I can not redeme it, lest I destroy mine owne inheritance: redeme my right to thee, for I can not redeme it.

7 Now this was the maner before time in Israel, concerning redeming & chāging, for to stablish all things: a mā did plucke of his shooe & gaue it his neighbour, & this was a sure[e] witnes in Israel.

8 Therefore ẏ kinsma said to Boaz, Bye it for thee: and he drue of his shooe.

9 And Boaz said vnto the Elders and vnto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I haue boght all that was Elimelechs, and all that was Chilions and Mahlons, of the hand of Naomi.

10 And moreouer, Ruth the Moabitesse the wife of Mahlon, haue I boght to be my wife, to stirre vp the name of the dead vpon his inheritance, and that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethrē, and from the gate of his [f] place: ye are witnesses this day.

THE ARGVMENT.

According as God had ordeined Deut. 17, 14. that when the Israelites shulde be in the land of Canaan, he wolde appoint thē a King: so here in this first boke of Samuel is declared the state of this people vnder their first King Saul, who not content with that ordre, which God had for a time appointed for the gouernement for his Church, demanded a King, to the intent thei might be as other nacions & in a greater assurance as thei thoght: not because thei might the better thereby serue God, as being vnder the safegarde of him, which did represent Iesus Christ the true deliuerer: therefore he gaue them a tyrant and an hypocrite to rule ouer them, that they might learne, that the persone of a King is not sufficient to defend them, except God by his power preserue and kepe them. And therefore he punisheth the ingratitude of his people, & sendeth them continual warres bothe at home and abroad. And because Saul, whome of nothing God had preferred to the honour of a King, did not acknowledge Gods mercie towarde him, but rather disobeied the worde of God, and was not zealous of his glorie, he was by the voyce of God put downe from his state, & Dauid the true figure of Messiah placed in his steade, whose pacience, modestie, constancie, persecution by open enemies, fained friends, and dissembling flatterers are left to the Church & to euery member of the same, as a paterne and example to beholde their state and vocacion.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogie of Elkanah father of Samuel. 2 His two wiues. 5 Hannah was baren & prayed to the Lord. 15 Her answer to Eli. 20 Samuel is borne. 24 She doeth dedicate him to the Lord.

1 THere was a man of one of the two[a] Ramathaim Zophim, of mount Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah the sonne of Ieroham, ý sonne of Elihu, the sonne of Tohu, the sonne of Zuph, an Ephrathite:

2 And he had two wiues: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 *And this man went vp out of his citie euery yere, to worship & to sacrifice vnto the Lord of hostes in [b] Shiloh, where were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni, and Phinehas Priests of the Lord.

4 And on a day, when Elkanah sacrificed, he gaue to Peninnah his wife and to all her sonnes and daughters porcions,

5 But vnto Hannah he gaue a worthy [c] porcion: for he loued Hannah, & the Lord had made her baren.

6 ¶ And her aduersarie vexed her sore, forasmuche as she vpbraided her, because the Lord had made her baren.

7 (And so did he yere by yere) & as oft as she went vp to the house of ý Lord, thus she vexed her, that she wept and did not eat.

8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why wepest thou? & why eatest eatest thou not? and why is thine heart troubled? am not I better to thee then ten sonnes?

9 So Hannah rose vp after that they had eaten and dronke in Shiloh (and Eli the Priest sate vpon a stole by one of the postes of the [c] Temple of the Lord)

10 And she was troubled in her minde, and praied vnto the Lord, and wept sore:

11 Also she vowed a vowe, and said, O Lord of hostes, if thou wilt loke on the trouble of thine handmayd, & remember me, & not forget thine handmayd, but giue vnto thine handmayd a manchilde, then I wil giue him vnto the Lord all the daies of his life, * and there shal no raser come vpon his head.

12 And as she continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth.

13 For Hannah spake in her heart: her lippes did moue onely, but her voyce was not heard: therefore Eli thoght she had bene dronken.

14 And Eli said vnto her, How long wilt thou be dronken? Put away [a] thy dronkennes from thee.

15 Then Hannah answered & said, Nay my lord, but I am a woman [b] troubled in spirit: I haue dronke nether wine nor strog drinke, but haue *powred out my soule before the Lord.

16 Count not thine handmaid [a] for a wicked woman: for of the abundance of my complaint and my grief haue I spoken hitherto.

17 Then Eli answered, and said, Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant thy peticion that thou hast asked of him.

18 She said againe, Let thine handmayd finde [f] grace in thy sight: so the woman went her way, and did eat, and loked no more sad.

19 ¶ Then they rose vp early, and worshipped before the Lord, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah. Now Elkanah knewe Hannah his wife, and the Lord [g] remembred her.

20 For in processe of time Hannah conceiued, and bare a sonne, and she called his name Samuel, Because, said she, I haue asked him of the Lord.

21 ¶ So the man [h] Elkanah, and all his house went vp to offer vnto the Lord the yerelie sacrifice, and his vowe.

22 But Hannah went not vp, for she said vnto her housband, I wil tary vntil ỹ childe be wained, then I wil bring him that he may appeare before the Lord, and there abide for euer.

23 And Elkanah her housband said vnto her, Do what semeth thee best: tary vntil thou hast wained him: onely the Lord accomplish his [i] worde. So the woman abode, and gaue her sonne sucke vntil she wained him.

24 ¶ And when she had wained him, she toke him with her with thre bullocks and an *Ephah of floure and a bottle of wine, and broght him vnto the house of the Lord in Shiloh, and the childe was [a] yong.

25 And thei slewe a bullocke, and broght the childe to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh my lord, as thy [k] soule liueth, my lord, I am the woman that stode with thee here praying vnto the Lord.

27 I praied for this childe, and ỹ Lord hathe giuen me my desire which I asked of him.

28 Therefore also I haue [a] giuen him vnto the Lord: as long as he liueth he shalbe giuen vnto the Lord: and he [l] worshiped the Lord there.

1 AND Hannah [a] praied, and said, Mine heart reioyceth in ỹ Lord, mine [b] horne is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is [c] enlarged ouer mine enemies, because I reioyce in thy saluacion.

2 There is none holy as the Lord: yea, there is none besides thee, and there is no God like our God.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house, and the childe did minister vnto the Lord [i] before Eli the Priest.
12 Now the sonnes of Eli were wicked men & [k] knewe not the Lord.
13 For the Priests custome toward ý people was this: when any man offred sacrifice, the Priests [l] boy came, while the flesh was sething and a fleshoke with thre teth in his hand,
14 And thrust it into the kettle, or into ý caldren, or into the pan, or into the pot: [l] all that the fleshoke broght vp, ý Priest toke for him self: thus thei did vnto all the Israelites, that came ther to Shiloh.
15 Yea, before they burnt the [m] fat, the Priests boy came and said to the man ý offred, Giue me flesh to rost for the Priest: for he wil not haue sodden flesh of thee, but rawe.
16 And if any man said vnto him, Let them burne the fat according to the [n] "custome, then take as muche as thine heart [n] desireth: then he wolde answer, No, but thou shalt giue it now: and if thou wilt not, I wil take it by force.
17 Therefore the sinne of the yong men was very great before the Lord: for mē [o] abhorred the offring of the Lord.
18 ¶ Now Samuel being a yong childe ministred before the Lord, girded with a linnen *Ephod.
19 And his mother made him a litle coate, and broght it to him from yere to yere, when she came vp with her husband, to offer the yerely sacrifice.
20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, & said, The Lord giue thee sede of this woman, for [p] the peticion that she asked of ý Lord: & they departed vnto their place.
21 And the Lord visited Hannah, so ý she conceiued, and bare thre sonnes, & two daughters. And the childe Samuel grewe before the Lord.
22 ¶ So Eli was very olde, & heard all ý his sonnes did vnto all Israel, and how they laye with the women that [p] assembled at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregacion.
23 And he said vnto them, Why do ye suche things? for of all this people I heare euil reportes of you.
24 Do no more, my sonnes: for it is no good reporte that I heare, which is, that ye make the Lords people to [q] trespasse.
25 If one man sinne against an other, the iudge shal iudge it: but if a man sinne against the Lord, who wil pleade for him? Notwithstanding thei obeied not the voyce of their father, because the Lord [r] wolde slaye them.
26 ¶ (Now the childe Samuel profited and grewe, and was in fauour bothe w the Lord, and also with men)
27 And there came a man of God vnto Eli and said vnto him, Thus saieth the Lord, Did not I plainely appeare vnto the house of thy [s] father, when they were in Egypt in Pharohs house?
28 And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my Priest, to offer vpon mine altar, and to burne insence, and to weare an Ephod before me, and * I gaue vnto the house of thy father all the offrings made by fire of the children of Israel.
29 Wherefore haue you [t] kicked against my sacrifice and mine offring, which I commanded in my Tabernacle, and honorest thy children aboue me, to make your selues fat of the first frutes of all the offrings of Israel my people?
30 Wherefore the Lord God of Israel sayth,
I said, that thine house and the house of thy father shulde walke before me for euer: but nowe the Lord saith, [v] It shal not be so: for thē that honour me, I wil honour, and they that despise me, shal be despised.
31 Beholde the dayes come, that I wil cut of thine [x] arme, and the arme of thy fathers house, that there shal not be an olde man in thine house.
32 And thou [y] shalt se thine enemie in the habitaciō of the Lord in all things wherewith God shal blesse Israel, and there shal not be an olde man in thine house for euer.
33 Neuertheles, I wil not destroy euery one of thine from mine altar, to make thine eyes to faile, and to make thine heart sorowful: and all the [u] multitude of thine house shal [u] dye when they be men.
34 And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, that shal come vpon thy two sonnes Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shal dye bothe.
35 And I wil stirre me vp a [z] faithful Priest that shal do according to mine heart and according to my minde: and I wil buylde him a sure house, and he shal walke before mine Anointed for euer.

1 There was no manifest vision in the time of Eli. 4 The Lord calleth Samuel thre times. 11 And sheweth what shal come vpon Eli and his house. 18 The same declareth Samuel to Eli.

1 NOw the childe Samuel ministred vnto the Lord [a] before Eli: and ỹ worde of the Lord was [b] precious in those dayes: for there was no manifest vision.

2 And at ỹ time, as Eli laie in his [c] place, his eyes began to waxe dimme that he colde not se.

3 And yer the [d] light of God went out, Samuel slept in the temple of the Lord where the Arke of God was.

4 Then the Lord [e] called Samuel: and he said Here I am.

5 And he ran vnto Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou calledst me. But he said, I called thee not: go againe & slepe. And he went and slept.

6 And the Lord called once againe, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, & said, I am here: for thou didest call me. And he answered, I called the not, my sonne: go againe & slepe.

7 Thus did Samuel, before he knewe [f] ỹ Lord, & before the worde of the Lord was reueiled vnto him.

8 And the Lord called Samuel againe ỹ third time: and he arose, and went to Eli, & said, I am here: for thou hast called me. Then Eli [g] perceiued that the Lord had called the childe.

9 Therefore Eli said vnto Samuel, Go & slepe: and if he call thee, then say, Speake Lord, for thy seruant heareth. So Samuel went, and slept in his place.

10 ¶ And the Lord came, & stode & called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speake, for thy seruant heareth.

11 ¶ Then the Lord said to Samuel, Beholde, I wil do a thing in Israel, whereof whosoeuer shal heare, his two eares shal [h] tingle.

12 In that day I wil raise vp against Eli all things which I haue spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I wil also make an end.

13 And I haue tolde him that I wil iudge his house for euer, for the iniquitie ỹ he knoweth, because his sonnes ran into a slander, and he stayed them not.

14 Now therefore I haue sworne vnto ỹ house of Eli, that the wickednes of Elies house, shal not be purged with sacrifice nor offring [i] for euer.

15 Afterwarde Samuel slept vntil ỹ morning, and opened the doores of the house of the Lord, and Samuel feared to shewe Eli the vision.

16 ¶ Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel my sonne. And he answered, Here I am.

17 Then he said, What is it, that the Lord said vnto thee? I pray thee, hide it not from me. God [k] do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide anie thing from me, of all that he said vnto thee.

18 So Samuel tolde him euerie whit, and hid nothing from him. Then he said, It is the Lord: let him do what semeth him good.

19 ¶ And Samuel grewe, and the Lord was with him, and let none of his wordes [l] fall to the ground.

The time that the Arke was with the Philistims which they sent againe with a gift. 12 It commeth to Beth-shemesh. 17 The Philistims offer golden emerods. 19 The men of Beth-shemesh are stricken for loking into the Arke.

1 SO the Arke of the Lord was in the countrey of the Philistims [a] seuen monethes.
2 And the Philistims called the Priest & the sothsayers, saying, What shal we do with the Arke of the Lord? tel vs wherewith we shal send it home againe?
3 And they said, If you send away the Arke of the God of Israel, send it not away emptie, but giue vnto it [b] a sinne offring: then shal ye be healed, and it shalbe knowen to you, why his hād departeth not from you.
4 Then said they, What shalbe the sinne offring, which we shal giue vnto it? And they answered, Fiue golden emerods & fiue golden mice, according to the nōber of the Princes of the Philistims: for one plague was on you all, and on your princes.
5 Wherefore ye shal make the similitudes of your emerods, & the similitudes of your mice that destroye the land: so ye shal giue glorie vnto the God of Israel, that he may take his hand from you, and from your [c] gods, and frō your land.
6 Wherefore then shulde ye harden your heartes, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their heartes, when he wroght wonderfully among them, * did they not let them go, and they departed?
7 Now therefore make a newe carte, and take two melche kine, on whome there hathe come no yoke: & tye ỹ kine to the carte, and bring the calues home from them.
8 Then take the Arke of the Lord, and set it vpon the carte, and put the [d] iewels of golde which ye giue it for a sinne offring in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it away, that it may go.
9 And take hede, if it go vp by the way of his owne coast to Beth-shemesh, it is [e] he that did vs this great euil: but if not, we shal knowe then, that it is not his hand that smotte vs, but it was a [f] chance that hapened vs.
10 And the men did so: for they toke two kine that gaue milke, and tyed them to the carte and shut the calues at home.
11 So they set the Arke of the Lord vpō the carte, and the coffer with the mice of golde, and with the similitudes of their emerods.
12 And the kine went the streight way to Beth-shemesh, and kept one path & lowed as they went, and turned nether to the right hand nor to the left: also the princes of the Philistims went after [g] them, vnto the borders of Beth-shemesh.
13 Now they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat haruest in the valley, and they lift vp their eyes, & spyed the Arke, & reioyced when they sawe it.
14 ¶ And the carte came into the fielde of Iosh̄ua a Bethshemite, and stode stil there. there was also a great stone, and [h] they claue the wood of the carte and offred the kine for a burnt offring vnto the Lord.
15 And the Leuites toke downe the Arke of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein ỹ iewels of golde were, & put them on the great stone, and the men of Beth-shemesh offred burnt offring, and sacrificed sacrifices that same day vnto the Lord.
16 And when the fiue princes of ỹ Philistims had sene it, they returned to Ekron the same day.
17 ¶ So these are the golden emerods ẅ the Philistims gaue for a sinne offring to the Lord: for [i] Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, & for Ekron one,
18 And golden mice, according to the nomber of all the cities of the Philistims, belonging to ỹ fiue princes, bothe of walled townes & of townes vnwalled, vnto the great stone of [l] Abel, whereon they set the Arke of the Lord: which stone remaineth vnto this day in ỹ field of Iosh̄ua the Beth-shemite.
19 And he smote of the men of Beth-shemesh, because they [k] had loked in the Arke of the Lord: he slewe euen among the 'people fiftie thousand: men & three score and ten men: and the people lamented, because the Lord had slaine ỹ people with so great a slaughter.

20 Wherefore the men of Beth-shemeshs said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God? and to whome shal he go from vs?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-iearim, saying, The Philistims haue broght againe the Arke of the Lord: come ye downe and take it vp to you.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Arke is broght to Kiriath-iearim. 3 Samuel exhorteth the people to forsake their sinnes and turne to the Lord. 10 The Philistims fight against Israel and are ouercome. 16 Samuel iudgeth Israel.

a A citie in the tribe of Iudah, called also Kiriath baal, Iosh. 15,60.

1 THen the men of [a] Kiriath-iearim came, and toke vp the Arke of ỹ Lord, and broght it into the house of Abinadab in the hil: and they sanctified Eleazar his sonne, to kepe the Arke of the Lord.

2 (For while the Arke abode in Kiriath-iearim, ỹ time was long, for it was twentie yeres) and all the house of Israel lamented [b] after the Lord.

b Lamented for their sinnes and followed the Lord.

Iosh.24,15. Iudg.2,13. Deut.6.4. Mat.4,10.

3 ¶ Then Samuel spake vnto all ỹ house of Israel, saying, If ye be come againe vnto the Lord with all your hearte, * put away the strange gods from amõg you, and, * Ashtaroth, and direct your hearts vnto the Lord, & serue him * onely, and he shal deliuer you out of the hand of the Philistims.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away * Baalim and Ashtaroth, and serued the Lord onely.

Iudg.2,11.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to [c] Mizpeh, and I wil pray for you vnto the Lord.

c For Shiloh was now desolate, because the Philistims had taken thence ỹ Arke.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and [d] drewe water and powred it out before the Lord, and fasted the same day, & said there, We haue sinned against Lord. And Samuel iudged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

d The Chalde text hathe, that thei drewe water out of their heart: ỹ is, wept abundantly for their sinnes.

7 When the Philistims heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the princes of the Philistims went vp against Israel: & when ỹ children of Israel heard that, they were afraied of the Philistims.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to [e] crye vnto ỹ Lord our God for vs, that he may saue vs out of the hand of the Philistims.

e Signifying ỹ in ỹ prayers of the godlie there ought to be a vehement zeale.

9 Then Samuel toke a sucking lambe, and offred it all together for a burnt offring vnto the Lord, & Samuel cryed vnto the Lord for Israel, and the Lord heard him.

10 And as Samuel offred the burnt offring, the Philistims came to fight against Israel: but the Lord [f] thundred with a great thundre that day vpon the Philistims, & scattred them: so they were slaine before Israel.

f According to the prophecie of Hanah Samuels mother, cha.2,10

11 And the men of Israel went from Mizpeh and pursued the Philistims, & smote thẽ vntil they came vnder Beth-car.

12 Then Samuel toke a stone & pitched it betwene Mizpeh and [g] Shen, and called the name thereof, Eben-ezer, & he said, Hitherto hathe the Lord holpẽ vs.

g Which was a great rocke ouer against Mizpeh.

13 ¶ So ỹ Philistims were broght vnder, & they came nomore againe into the coastes of Israel. & the hand of ỹ Lord was against the Philistims all the dayes of Samuel.

14 Also the cities which the Philistims had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, from Ekron euen to Gath: & Israel deliuered the coastes of the same out of the hands of the Philistims: and there was peace betwene Israel and the [h] Amorites.

h Meaning, the philistims.

15 And Samuel iudged Israel all ỹ dayes of his life.

16 And wẽt about yere by yere to Bethel, and Gilgal and Mizpeh, and iudged Israel in all those places.

17 Afterward he returned to Ramah: for there was his house, & there he iudged Israel: also he buylt an [i] altar there vnto the Lord.

i Which was not contrarie to the lawe: for as yet a certeine place was not appointed.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Samuel maketh his sonnes iudges ouer Israel, who followe not his steppes. 5 The Israelites aske a King. 11 Samuel declareth in what state they shulde be vnder the King. 19 Notwithstanding they aske one stil, & the Lord willeth Samuel to grant vnto them.

1 WHen Samuel was now become old, he [a] made his sonnes iudges ouer Israel.

a Because he was not able to beare ỹ charge.

2 (And the name of his eldest sonne was [b] Ioel, and the name of the seconde Abiah) euen iudges in Ber-sheba.

b Who was also called Vahni.

3 And his sonnes walked not in his waies but turned aside after lucre and * toke rewardes, and peruerted the iudgement.

4 Wherefore all the Elders of Israel gathered them together, and came to Samuel vnto [c] Ramah.

c For there his house was. Chap.7,17. Ose.13,10. Act.13,21.

5 And said vnto him, Beholde, thou art old, and thy sonnes walke not in thy waies: * make vs now a King to iudge vs like all nacions.

6 But the thing [d] displeased Samuel, whẽ they said, Giue vs a King to iudge vs: and Samuel prayed vnto the Lord.

d Because thei were not contet wt the ordre that God had appointed, but wolde be gouerned as were ỹ Gentiles

7 And the

7 And the Lord said vnto Samuel, Heare the voice of the people in all that thei shal say vnto thee: for thei haue not cast thee away, but they haue cast me away, that I shulde not reigne ouer them.

8 As thei haue euer done since I brought them out of Egypt euen vnto this day, (and haue forsaken me, & serued other gods) euen so do they vnto thee.

e To proue if they wil forsake their wicked purpose.

9 Now therefore hearken vnto their voyce: howbeit yet e testifie vnto them & shewe them the maner of the King ỹ shal reigne ouer them.

10 ¶ So Samuel tolde all the wordes of the Lord vnto the people that asked a King of him.

f Not ỹ Kings haue this autoritie by their office, but ỹ suche as reigne in Gods wrath shulde vsurpe this ouer their brethren contrary to ỹ Law. Deut. 17, 20.

11 And he said, This shalbe the f maner of the King that shal reigne ouer you: he wil take your sonnes, and appoint them to his charets, and to be his horsmen, and some shal runne before his charet.

12 Also he wil make them his captaines ouer thousandes and captaines ouer fifties, and to eare his grounde, and to reape his haruest, & to make instruments of warre, and the things that serue for his charets.

13 He wil also take your daughters and make them apoticaries, and cookes & bakers.

14 And he wil take your fieldes, & your vineyardes and your best oliue trees, & giue them to his seruants.

g Or, chief officers.

15 And he wil take the tenth of your sede, and of your vineyardes, and giue it to his g Eunuches, and to his seruants.

16 And he wil take your men seruants & your maid seruants, & the chief of your yong men, and your asses, & put them to his worke.

17 He wil take the tenth of your shepe, and ye shalbe his seruants.

18 And ye shal crye out at that day, because of your King, whome ye haue chosen you, & the Lord wil not h heare you at that day.

g Because ye repēt not for your sinnes, but because ye smart for your afflictions, wherein to ye cast your selues willingly.

19 But the people wolde not heare the voyce of Samuel, but did say, Nay, but there shalbe a King ouer vs.

20 And we also wil be like all other naciōs and our King shal iudge vs, & go out before vs, and fight our battels.

21 Therefore when Samuel heard all the wordes of the people, he rehearsed thē in the eares of the Lord.

h Or, graunt their request.

22 And the Lord said to Samuel, h Hearken vnto their voyce, and make them a King. And Samuel said vnto the men of Israel, Go euerie man vnto his citie.

Saul seking his fathers asses, by the counsel of his seruant goeth to Samuel. 9 The Prophets called Seers. 15 The Lord reuealeth to Samuel Sauls comming, commanding him to annoint him King. 22 Samuel bringeth Saul to the feast.

1 THere was now a man of Beniamin a mightie in power named * Kish the sonne of Abiel, the sonne of Zeror the sonne of Bechorath, the sonne of Aphiah, the sonne of a man of Iemini.

a That is, both e valiant & riche. Chap. 14, 51. 1. Chro. 8, 33.

2 And he had a sonne called Saul, a b goodly yong man and a faire: so that among the children of Israel there was none goodlier then he: from the shulders vpward he was hier then anie of ỹ people.

b So ỹ it might seme ỹ God approued their request in appointing out suche a persone.

3 And the asses of Kish Saules father were lost; therefore Kish said to Saul his sonne, Take now one of the seruants with thee, and arise, go, and c seke the asses.

c All these circūstances were meanes to serue vnto Gods prouidēce, where by Saul (thogh not approued of God) was made King.

4 So he passed through mount Ephraim & went through the land of Shalishah, but they found them not. Then they went through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: he went also through the land of Iemini, but they found thē not.

5 When they came to the lād of d Zuph, Saul said vnto his seruant that was with him, Come and let vs returne, lest my father leaue the care of asses, and take thoght for vs.

d Where was Ramath Zophim ỹ citie of Samuel.

6 And he said vnto him, Beholde now, in this citie is a man of God, and he is an honorable man: all that he saieth commeth to passe: let vs now go thither, if so be that he can shewe vs what way we may go.

7 Then said Saul to his seruant, Wel thē let vs go: but what shal we bring vnto the man? For the e bread is spent in our vessels, and there is no present to bring to the man of God: what haue we?

e Or, vitailes.

8 And the seruant answered Saul againe, and said, Beholde, I haue found about me the fourth parte of a e shekle of siluer: that wil I giue the man of God, to tel vs our way.

e Which is about fiue pence read. Gen. 23, 15.

f So called because he foresawe things to come.

10 Then said Saul to his seruāt, Wel said come, let vs go: so they went into the citie where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as thei were going vp the hie way to the citie, they founde maydes that came out to drawe water, and said vnto them, Is there here a Seer?

12 And they answered them, and said, Yea: lo, he is before you. make haste now for he came this day to the citie: for there is an g offring of the people this daye in daye in the hie place.

13 When ye shal come into ỹ citie, ye shal finde him streight way yer he come vp to the hie place to eat: for the people wil not eat vntil he come, becausse he wil [h] blesse the sacrifice: and then eat they that be bidden to the feast: now therefore go vp: for euen now shal ye finde him.
14 Then they went vp into the citie, and when they were come into the middes of the citie, Samuel came out against them, to go vp to the hie place.
15 ¶ *But the Lord had reueiled to Samuel [n] secretly (a day before Saul came) saying,
16 Tomorowe about this time I wil send thee a man out of the land of Beniamin: him shalt thou annoint to be gouernour ouer my people Israel, that he may [i] saue my people out of the hands of the Philistims: for I haue loked vpō my people, and their crye is come vnto me.
17 When Samuel therefore sawe Saul, the Lord answered him, Se, this is the man whome I spake to thee of, he shal rule my people.
18 Then wēt Saul to Samuel in the middes of the gate, and said, Tel me, I pray thee, where the Seers house is.
19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the Seer: go vp before me vnto the hie place: for ye shal eat with me to day, and tomorowe I wil let thee go, and wil tel thee all that is in thine [k] heart.
20 And as for thine asses that were lost thre dayes ago, care not for them: for they are founde: and [l] on whome is set all the desire of Israel? is it not vpon thee and on all thy fathers house?
21 ¶ But Saul answered, and said, Am not I the sonne of Iemini of the smalest tribe of Israel? and my familie is the least of all the families of the tribe of Beniamin. Wherefore then speakest ỹ so to me?
22 And Samuel toke Saul and his seruāt, and broght them into the [m] chamber, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden: which were about thirtie persones.
23 And Samuel said vnto ỹ cooke, Bring forthe the portion which I gaue thee, & whereof I said vnto thee, Kepe it with thee.
24 And the cooke toke vp the shoulder, & that which was [n] vpon it, & set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Beholde, ỹ which is left, set it before thee & eat: for hitherto hathe it bene kept for thee, saying, Also I [o] haue called the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel ỹ day.
25 And when they were come downe frō the hie place into the citie, he communed ẅ Saul vpon the top of the house:
26 And when they arose early about the spring of the day, Samuel called Saul to the [p] top of the house, saying, Vp, ỹ I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out bothe he, and Samuel.
27 And when they were come downe to the end of the citie, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the seruant go before vs, (and he went) but stand thou stil now, that I may shewe thee [q] the worde of God.

2 When thou shalt departe from me this day, thou shalt finde two men by *Rahels sepulchre in the border of Beniamin euen at Zelzah, and thei wil say vnto thee, The [b] asses which thou wentest to seke, are founde: and lo, thy father hathe left the care of the asses, & soroweth for you, saying, What shal I do for my sonne?
3 Then shalt thou go forthe from thence and shalt come to the [c] plaine of Tabor, and there shal mete thee thre mē going vp to God to Beth-el: one carying thre kiddes, & another carying thre loaues of bread, and another carying a bottle of wine:

11 Therefore all the people that knewe him before, when thei sawe that he prophecied among the Prophets, said eche to other: What is come vnto the sonne of Kish?* is Saul also among the Prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered, & said, But who is their [e] father? Therefore it was a prouerbe, Is Saul also among the [f] Prophets.

13 And when he had made an end of prophecying he came to the hie place.

14 And Sauls vncle said vnto him, and to his seruant, Whether went ye? And he said, To seke the asses: and when we sawe that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Sauls vncle said, Tel me, I pray thee, what Samuel said vnto you.

16 Then Saul said to his vncle, He tolde vs plainely that the asses were founde: but concerning the kingdome whereof Samuel spake, tolde he him not.

17 ¶ And Samuel [g] assembled the people vnto the Lord in Mizpeh,

18 And he said vnto the children of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I haue brought Israel out of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, & out of the hands of all kingdomes that troubled you.

19 But ye haue this day cast away your God, who onely deliuereth you out of all your aduersities and tribulations: & ye said vnto him, No, but appoint a King ouer vs. Now therefore stand ye before the Lord according to your tribes & according to your thousands.

20 And when Samuel had gathered together all the tribes of Israel, the tribe of Beniamin was [h] taken.

21 Afterwarde he assembled the tribe of Beniamin according to their families, & the familie of Matri was taken. So Saul the sonne of Kish was taken, and when thei soght him, he colde not be founde.

22 Therefore thei asked the Lord againe, if that man shulde yet come thether. And the Lord answered, Beholde, he [i] hathe hid him selfe among the stuffe.

23 And thei ranne, and brought him thence: and when he stode among the people, he was hier then any of the people from the shoulders vpwarde.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, Se ye not him, whome the Lord hathe chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted and said, "God saue ỹ King.

25 Then Samuel tolde the people [k] the duetie of the kingdome, and wrote it in a boke, and layed it vp before the Lord, & Samuel sent all the people away euery man to his house.

26 Saul also went home to Gibeah, and there followed him a band of men, whose heart God had touched, 27 But the wicked men said, How shal he saue vs? So thei despised him, and brought him no presentes: but he [l] held his tongue.

3 To whome the Elders of Iabesh said, Giue vs seuen daies respet, that we may send messengers vnto all the coastes of Israel: & then if no man deliuer vs, we wil come out to thee.

4 ¶ Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, & tolde these tidings in ỹ eares of the people: and all the people lift vp their voyces and wept.

12 Then the people said vnto Samuel, [g] Who is he that said, Shal Saul reigne ouer vs? bring those men that we may slaye them.

13 But Saul said, There shal no mā [h] dye this day: for to day the Lord hathe saued Israel.

14 ¶ Then said Samuel vnto the people, Come, that we may go to Gilgal, & renue the kingdome there.

15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and made Saul King there before the Lord in Gilgal: and there thei offred [i] peace offrings before the Lord: and there Saul & all the men of Israel reioyced excedingly.

Samuel declaring to the people his integritie, reproueth their ingratitude. 19 God by miracle causeth the people to cōfesse their sinne. 20 Samuel exhorteth the people to followe the Lord.

1 SAmuel then said vnto all Israel, Beholde, I haue [a] hearkened vnto your voyce in all that ye said vnto me, and haue appointed a King ouer you.

2 Now therefore beholde, your King walketh [b] before you, and I am olde and graye headed, & beholde, my sonnes are with you: and I haue walked before you from my childehode vnto this day.

5 And he said vnto them, The Lord is witnes against you, and his [d] Anointed is witnes this day, that ye haue founde noght in mine hands. And they answered, He is witnes.

6 Then Samuel said vnto the people, It is the Lord that [e] made Moses & Aarō, & that broght your fathers out of the lnd of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand stil, that I may reason with you before the Lord according to all the [f] righteousnes of the Lord which he shewed to you and to your fathers.

8 * After that Iaakob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cryed vnto the Lord, then the Lord * sent Moses and Aaron which broght your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwel in this place.

10 And thei cryed vnto the Lord, & said, We haue sinned, because we haue forsaken the Lord, and haue serued Baalim and Ashtaroth, Now therefore deliuer vs out of ſ hands of our enemies, & we wil serue thee.

11 Therefore the Lord sent Ierubbaal [h] and Bedan &* Ipthah, &* Samuel, and deliuered you out of the hands of your enemies on euerie side, and ye dwelled safe.

CHAP. XIII.

3 The Philistims are smitten of Saul & Ionathan. 13 Saul being disobedient to Gods commandement is shewed of Samuel that he shal not reigne. 19 The great flauerie, wherein the Philistims kept the Israelites.

1 SAul now had bene King [a] one yere, & he reigned [b] two yeres ouer Israel.

2 Then Saul chose him thre thousand of Israel: & two thousand were with Saul in Michmash, and in mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Ionathā in Gibeah of Beniamin: and the rest of the people he sent euerie one to his tent.

3 And Ionathan smote the garison of the Philistims, that was in the [c] hil: and it came to the Philistims eares: and Saul blewe the [d] trumpet throughout all ý land, saying, Heare, ô ye Ebrewes.

4 And all Israel heard say, Saul hathe destroyed a garison of ý Philistims: wherefore Israel was had in abominacion with the Philistims: and the people gathered together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 ¶ The Philistims also gathered them selues together to fight with Israel, thirtie thousand charets and six thousand horsemen: for the people was like the sand which is by the seas side in multitude, & came vp, and pitched in Michmash Eastwarde from [e] Beth-auen.

6 And when the men of Israel sawe that they were in a straite (for the people were in distresse) the people hid them selues in caues, & in holdes, & in rockes, & towres, & in pittes.

7 And some of the Ebrewes went ouer Iorden vnto the lād of [f] Gad & Gilead: and Saul was yet in Gilgal, and all the people for feare folloxed him.

8 And he taried seuen dayes, according vnto the time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal, therefore the people were [g] scatred from him.

9 And Saul said, Bring a burnt offring to me and peace offrings: and he offred a burnt offring.

10 And assone as he had made an end of offring the burnt offring, beholde, Samuel came: and Saul went forthe to mete him, to [p] salute him.

11 And Samuel said, What hast thou done? Then Saul said, Because I sawe ý the people was [h] scatred from me, and that thou camest not within ý dayes appointed, and ý the Philistims gathered them selues together to Michmash, 12 Therefore said I, The Philistims wil come downe now vpō me to Gilgal, and I haue not made supplicacion vnto the Lord. I was bolde therefore and offred a burnt offring.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandement of the Lord thy [i] God, which he commanded thee: for ý Lord had now stablished thy kingdome vpon Israel for euer.

14 But now thy kingdome shal not continue: the Lord hathe soght him a [k] mā after his owne heart, and ý Lord hathe cōmaded him to be gouernour ouer his people, because thou hast not kept ý which the Lord had commanded thee.

15 ¶ And Samuel arose, and gate him vp from Gilgal in [l] Gibeah of Beniamin: & Saul nombred the people ý were founde with him, about six hundreth men.

16 And Saul and Ionathan his sonne, & the people that were founde with them, had their abiding in Gibeah of Beniamin: but the Philistims pitched in Michmash.

17 And there came out of ý hoste of the Philistims [q] thre bandes to destroy, one bande turned vnto the way of Ophrah vnto the land of Shual, 18 And another bāde turned toward the way to Beth-horon, and the [m] thirde bande turned toward the way of ý coast that loketh toward the valley of Zeboim, toward the wildernes.

19 Thē there was no smith foūde through out all the land of Israel: for the Philistims said, Lest the Ebrewes make them swordes or speares.

20 Wherefore all ỹ Israelites went downe to the Philistims, to sharpen euerie man his share, his mattocke, & his axe and his weding hooke.
21 Yet they had a file for the shares, and for the mattockes, and for the pickeforkes, & for the axes and for to sharpen the goades.
n To declare ỹ the victorie onely came of God & not by their force.
22 So when the day of battel was come, there was nether [n] sworde nor speare founde in the hands of anie of the people that were with Saul & with Ionathā: but onely with Saul and Ionathan his sonne was there founde.
23 And the garison of the Philistims came out to the passage of Michmash.

CHAP. XIIII.

14 Ionathan and his armour bearer put the Philistims to flight. 24 Saul bindeth the people by an othe, not to eat til euening. 32 The people eat with the blood. 38 Saul wolde put Ionathan to death. 45 The people deliuer him.

1 THen on a day Ionathā the sonne of Saul said vnto ỹ yong man that bare his armour, [a] Come and let vs go ouer toward the Philistims garison, that is yonder on the otherside, but he tolde not his father.
a By this exāple God wold declare to Israel ỹ the victorie did not consist in multitude or armour, but onely came of his grace.
2 And Saul taryed in the border of Gibeah vnder a pomegranate tre, which was in Migron, and the people that were with him, were about six hundreth men.
Chap. 4, 21. 3 And Ahiah ỹ sonne of Ahitub, * Ichabods brother, the sonne of Phinehas, the sonne of Eli, was the Lords Priest in Shiloh, and ware an Ephod: and the people knewe not that Ionathan was gone.
4 ¶ Now in the way whereby Ionathan soght to go ouer to the Philistims garison, there was a [o] sharpe rocke on the one side, and a sharpe rocke on the other side: the name of the one was called Bozez. & the name of the other Seneh.
[o] Or, like a tooth.
5 The one rocke stretched frō ỹ North toward Michmash. & the other was frō the South toward Gibeah.
6 And Ionathan said to ỹ yong man that bare his armour, Come, and let vs go ouer vnto ỹ garison of these [b] vncircūcised: it may be that the Lord wil worke with vs: for it is [o] not hard to the Lord * to saue with manie, or with fewe.
b To wit, the Philistims.
[o] Or, none can let the Lord.
2. Chro. 14, 11.
7 And he that bare his armour said vnto him, Do all that is in thine heart: go where it pleaseth thee: beholde, I am ẅ thee as thine heart desireth.
c I wil follow thee whithersoeuer thou goest.
8 Then said Ionathan, Beholde, we go ouer vnto those men, and wil shewe our selues vnto them.
9 [d] If they say on this wise to vs, Tarie vntil we come to you, then we wil stand stil in our place, and not go vp to them.
d This he spake by the Spirit of prophecie for asmuche as hereby God gaue him assurance of the victorie.
1. Mac. 4, 30.
10 But if they say, Come vp vnto vs, thē we wil go vp: for * the Lord hathe deliuered them into our hand: and this shalbe a signe vnto vs.
11 So they bothe shewed them selues vnto the garison of the Philistims: and the Philistims said, Se, the Ebrewes come out of the [e] holes wherein they had hid them selues.
e Thus they spake contemptuously, and by derision.
12 And the men of the garison answered Ionathā, & his armour bearer, and said, Come vp to vs: for we wil shewe you a thing. Then Ionathan said vnto his armour bearer, Come vp after me: for the Lord hathe deliuered them into ỹ hand of Israel.
13 So Ionathan went vp vpon [f] his hands and vpon his fete, and his armour bearer after him: and some fel before Ionathan, & his armour bearer slewe others after him.
f That is, he crept vp, or wēt vp ẅ all hast.
14 So the [g] first slaughter which Ionathan and his armour bearer made, was about twentie men within that cōpasse, as it were within halfe an acre of land which two oxen plowe.
g The seconde was when they slewe one another, and ỹ third when ỹ Israelites chased thē.
15 And there was a feare in the hoste, and in the field, and among all the people: the garison also, and they that went out to spoile, were afrayed them selues: and the earth [h] trembled: for it was stricken with feare by God.
h In ỹ the insensible creatures tremble for feare of Gods iudgement, it declareth how terrible his vēgeance shalbe against his enemies.
16 ¶ Then the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Beniamin sawe: and beholde, ỹ multitude was discomfited, and smitten as they went.
17 Therefore said Saul vnto the people ỹ were with him, Search now & se, who is gone from vs. And when they had nombred, beholde, Ionathan and his armour bearer were not there.
18 And Saul said vnto Ahiah, Bring hither the Arke of God (for the Arke of God was at that time with the children of Israel)
19 ¶ And while Saul talked vnto ỹ Priest, ỹ noise, ỹ was in the hoste of ỹ Philistims, spred farther abroade, & encreased: therefore Saul said vnto the Priest, [i] Withdrawe thine hand.
i Let ỹ Ephod alone: for I haue no leysure nowe to aske counsel of God, Nomb. 27, 21. Iudg. 7, 21. 2. chro. 20, 23.
20 And Saul was assembled with all the people ỹ were with him, and they came to the battel: & beholde, * euerie mans sworde was against his fellowe, and there was a very great discomfiture.
21 Moreouer ỹ Ebrewes ỹ were with the Philistims before time, & were come ẅ them into all partes of ỹ hoste, euē they also turned to be with the [k] Israelites that were with Saul and Ionathan.
k Thogh before for feare of ỹ philistims they declared them selues as enemies to their brethren.
22 Also all the men of Israel which had hid them selues in mount Ephraim when they heard, that ỹ Philistims were fled, re fled, they followed after them in the battel.

23 And so the Lord saued Israel that day: and the battel continued vnto Beth-auen.

24 ¶And at that time the men of Israel were pressed with hunger: for Saul charged the people with an othe, saying, [l] Cursed be the man that eateth ["] foode til nyght, that I may be auenged of mine enemies: so none of the people tasted anie sustenance.

25 And all they of ý lād came to a wood where hony lay vpon the ground.

26 And the people came into the wood, & beholde, the hony dropped, and no man moued his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the [m] othe.

27 But Ionathan heard not when his father charged the people with the othe: wherefore he put forthe the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipt it in an hony combe, and put his hand to his mouth, and his [n] eyes receyued sight.

28 Thē answered one of the people, and said, Thy father made ý people to sweare, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth sustenance this day: and the people were [n] faint.

29 Then said Ionathan, My father hathe [o] troubled ý land: se now how mine eyes are made cleare, because I haue tasted a litle of this hony:

30 How muche more, if the people had eaten to day of the spoile of their enemies which they founde? for had there not bene now a greater slaughter amōg the Philistims?

31 ¶ And they smote the Philistims that day, from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were exceding faint.

32 So the people turned to ý spoyle, and toke shepe, & oxen, and calues, & slewe them on the ground, and the people did eat then *with the blood.

33 Then men told Saul, saying, Beholde, the people sinne against ý Lord, in that thei eat with the blood. And he said, Ye haue trespassed: Froule a great stone vnto me this day.

34 Againe Saul said, Go abroade among the people, & bid them bring me euerie man his oxe, and euery man his shepe, and slaye them here, and eate and sinne not against the Lord in eating with the blood. And the people broght euery mā his oxe in his hand that night and slewe them there.

35 Then Saul made an altar vnto the Lord, & that [n] was the first altar that he made vnto the Lord.

36 ¶And Saul said, Let vs go downe after the Philistims by night, and spoyle them vntil the morning shine, and let vs not leaue a man of them. And thei said, Do whatsoeuer thou thinkest best. Thē said the Priest, Let vs [q] draw nere hither vnto God.

37 So Saul asked of God, saying, Shal I go downe after ý Philistims? wilt thou deliuer them into the hands of Israel? But he answered him not at that time.

38 ¶And Saul said, *All" ye chiefe of the people, come ye hither, and knowe, and se by whome this sinne is done this day.

39 For as ý Lord liueth, ẅ saueth Israel, thogh it be done by Ionathan my sonne, he shal dye ý death. But none of all the people answered him.

40 Then he said vnto all Israel, Be ye on one side, & I and Ionathan my sonne wil be on the other side. And the people said vnto Saul, Do what thou thinkest best.

41 Then Saul said vnto the Lord God of Israel, Giue [r] a perfet lot. And Ionathan & Saul were taken but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lot betwene me and Ionathan my sonne. And Ionathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Ionathan, Tel me what thou hast done. And Ionathā told him, and said, I tasted a litle hony with the end of ý rod, that was in mine hand, & lo, I must dye.

44 Againe Saul answered, God do so and more also, vnles thou dye the death, Ionathan.

45 And the people said vnto Saul, [s] Shal Ionathā dye, who hathe so mightely deliuered Israel? God forbid. As the Lord liueth there shal not one heere of his head fall to the ground: for he hathe wroght ẅ God this day. So the people deliuered Ionathan that he dyed not.

46 Then Saul came vp from the Philistims: & the Philistims wēt to their owne place.

47 ¶So Saul helde the kingdome ouer Israel, and foght against all his ennemies on euerie side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the Kings of Zobah, & against the Philistims: & whethersoeuer he went, he ["] handled them as wicked men.

48 He gathered also an hoste & smote [t] Amalek, & deliuered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 Now the sonnes of Saul were Ionathan, [v] and Ishui and Malchishua: and the names of his two daughters, the elder was called Merab, and the yonger was named [x] Michal.

50 And the name of Sauls wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz: and ý name of his chief captaine was [y] Abner the sonne of Ner, Sauls vncle.

51 And Kish was Sauls father: and Ner the father of Abner was the sonne of Abiel.

10 ¶ Then came the worde of the Lord vnto Samuel, saying,

11 It [e] repenteth me ẏ I haue made Saul King: for he is turned from me, & hathe not performed my commandemẽts. And Samuel was moued, & cryed vnto the Lord all night.

12 And when Samuel arose early to mete Saul in the morning, one tolde Samuel, saying, Saul is gone to Carmel: and behold, he hathe made him there a place, from whence he returned, and departed, and is gone downe to Gilgal.

13 ¶ Then Samuel came to Saul, & Saul said vnto him, Blessed be ẏ of the Lord, I haue fulfilled the [f] commandement of the Lord.

f This is the nature of hypocrites, to be impudent against the trueth, to cõdẽne others, & iustifie themselues.

14 But Samuel said, What meaneth then ẏ bleating of the shepe in mine eares, & the lowing of the oxen which I heare?

15 And Saul answered, Thei haue broght them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the shepe, and of the oxen to sacrifice thẽ vnto the Lord thy God? and the remnant haue we destroyed.

16 Againe Samuel said to Saul, Let me tel thee what the Lord hathe said to me this night. And he said vnto him, Say on.

17 Then Samuel said, When thou wast [g] litle in thine owne sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel? for the Lord anointed thee King ouer Israel.

23 For [i] rebellion is as ẏ sinne of witchcraft, and transgressiõ is wickednes and idolatrie. Because thou hast cast away ẏ worde of the Lord, therefore he hathe cast away thee from being King.

i God hateth nothing more then the disobedience of his commãdement, though the intent seme neuer so good to man.

24 Then Saul said vnto Samuel, I haue sinned: for I haue transgressed the commandement of the Lord, & thy wordes, because I feared the people, & obeied their voyce.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, take away my [k] sinne, and turne againe with me, ẏ I may worship the Lord.

k This was not true repentance, but dissimulatiõ, fearing the losse of his kingdome.

26 But Samuel said vnto Saul, I wil not returne ẅ thee: for thou hast cast awaye the worde of the Lord, & the Lord hathe cast away thee, that thou shalt not be King ouer Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned him selfe to go away, he caught ẏ lap of his coat, & it rent.

it rent.
28 Then Samuel said vnto him, The Lord hathe rent the kingdome of Israel from thee this day, & hathe giuen it to thy [l] neighbour, that is better thē thou.
29 For in dede the [m] strength of Israel wil not lie nor repēt: for he is not a man that he shulde repent.
30 Then he said, I haue sinned: but honour me, I pray thee, before the Elders of my people, & before Israel, & turne againe with me, that I may worship the Lord thy God.
31 ¶ So Samuel turned againe, and followed Saul: and Saul worshiped the Lord.
32 Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the King of the Amalekites: & Agag came vnto him [o] pleasantly, and Agag said, Truely the [n] bitternes of death is passed.
33 And Samuel said, * As thy sworde hathe made women childeles, so shal thy mother be childeles among other women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal.
34 ¶ So Samuel departed to [o] Ramah, and Saul went vp to his house to Gibeah of Saul.
35 And Samuel came nomore to [p] se Saul vntil the day of his death: but Samuel mourned for Saul, and the Lord [q] repēted that he made Saul King ouer Israel.

CHAP. XVI.

Samuel is reproued of God, & is sent to anoint Dauid. 7 God regardeth the heart. 13 The Spirit of the Lord commeth vpon Dauid. 14 The wicked spirit is sent vpon Saul. 19 Saul sendeth for Dauid.

1 THe Lord then said vnto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourne for Saul, [a] seing I haue cast him away from reigning ouer Israel? fil thine horne with oyle and come, I wil send thee to Ishai the Bethlehemite: for I haue prouided me a King among his sonnes.
2 And Samuel said, How can I go? for if Saul shal heare it, he wil kil me. Then the Lord answered, Take an heifer "with thee, & say, I am come [b] to do sacrifice to the Lord.
3 And call Ishai to the sacrifice, and I wil shewe thee what thou shalt do, & thou shalt anoint vnto me him whome I name vnto thee.
4 So Samuel did that the Lord bade him, & came to Beth-lehem, and the Elders of the towne were [c] astonied at his comming, & said, Commest thou peaceably?
5 And he answered, Yea: I am come to do sacrifice vnto the Lord: sanctifie your selues, & come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Ishai and his sonnes, and called them to the sacrifice.
6 And when they were come, he loked on Eliab, and said, Surely the Lords [d] Anointed is before him.
7 But the Lord said vnto Samuel, Loke not on his countenance, nor on ỹ height of his stature, because I haue refused him: for God seeth not as man seeth: for man loketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord beholdeth the *heart.
8 Then Ishai called Abinadab, & made him come before Samuel. And he said, Nether hathe the Lord chosen this.
9 Then Ishai made Shammah come. And he said, Nether yet hathe the Lord chosen him.
10 Againe Ishai made his seuen sonnes to come before Samuel: & Samuel said vnto Ishai, The Lord hath chosen none of these.
11 Finally Samuel said vnto Ishai, "Are there no more children but these? And he said, There remaineth yet a litle one behinde, that kepeth the shepe. Then Samuel said vnto Ishai, * Send and fet him: for we wil not sit downe, til he be come hither.
12 And he sent, and broght him in: and he was ruddie, and of a good countenāce & comelie visage. And ỹ Lord said, Arise, & anoint him: for this is he.
13 Then Samuel toke the horne of oyle, & anointed him in the middes of his brethren. And the * Spirit of the Lord [n] came vpon Dauid, from that day forwarde: then Samuel rose vp, and went to Ramah.
14 ¶ But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an [e] euil spirit sent of the Lord vexed him.
15 And Sauls seruants said vnto him, Beholde now, the euil spirit of God vexeth thee.
16 Let our lord therefore cōmande thy seruants, that are before thee, to seke a man, that is a conning player vpon the harpe: that when the euil spirit of God commeth vpon thee, he may playe with his hand, & thou maiest be eased.
17 Saul then said vnto his seruants, Prouide me a man, I pray you, that cā play wel, & bring him to me.
18 Then answered one of his seruants, and said, Beholde, I haue sene a [f] sonne of Ishai, a Bethlehemite, that can play, & is strong, valiant & a man of warre & wise in matters, & a comely persone, & the Lord is with him.
19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers vnto Ishai, & said, Send me Dauid thy sonne w' ich is with the shepe.
20 And Ishai tok an asse laden w' bread and a flagon of wine & a kid, & sent them by the hand of Dauid his sonne vnto Saul.
21 And Dauid came to Saul, and "stode

CHAP. XVII.

1 The Philistims make warre against Israel. 10 Goliath defieth Israel. 17 Dauid is sent to his brethren. 34 The strength and boldenes of Dauid. 47 The Lord saueth not by swordes nor speare. 50 Dauid killeth Goliath and the Philistims flee.

1 NOw the Philistims gathered their armies to battel, and came together to Shochoh, ẅ is in Iudah, & pitched betwene Shochoh and Azekah, [h] in the coast of Dammim.

[h] Or, in Ephesdammim.

2 And Saul, and the men of Israel assembled, and pitched in the valley [i] of Elah, & put thẽ selues in battel array to mete the Philistims.

3 And the Philistims stode on a mountaine on the one side, and Israel stode on a mountaine on the other side: so a valley was betwene them.

4 ¶ Then came a mã betwene them [a] bothe out of the tentes of the Philistims, named Goliath of Gath: his height was six cubits and an hand breadth, a Betwene the two campes.

5 And had an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and a [k] brigandine vpon him: and the weight of his brigandine was fiue thousand [b] shekels of brasse.

[k] Or, coate of plate.

b That is, 156. lib. 4. onces, after halfe an ounce the shekel & 600 shekels weight amounteth to 18 lib. 3. quarters.

6 And he had [l] bootes of brasse vpõ his legges, & a shilde of brasse vpon his shoulders.

[l] Or, greaues.

7 And the shafte of his speare was like a weauers beame: and his speare head weyed six hundreth shekels of yron: and one bearing a shilde went before him.

8 And he stode, and cryed against the hoste of Israel, and said vnto them, Why are ye come to set your battel in array? am not I a Philistim, and you seruants to Saul? chose you a man for you, & let him come downe to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and [m] kil me, then wil we be your seruants: but if I ouercome him, and kil him, then shal ye be our seruants, and serue vs.

[m] Ebr. smite me.

10 Also the Philistim said, I defie the hoste of Israel this day: giue me a man, ỹ we may fight [n] togither.

[n] Or, hand to hand. Chap. 16, 1.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those wordes of the Philistim, they were discouraged, and greatly afrayed.

[o] Or, he was counted amõg them that bare office.

12 ¶ Now this Dauid was the * sonne of an Ephrathite of Beth-lehem Iudah, named Iishai, ẅ had eight sonnes: and [o] this man was taken for an olde man in the daies of Saul.

13 And the thre eldest sonnes of Iishai wẽt and followed Saul to the battel: and the names of his thre sonnes that wẽt to battel, were Eliab the eldest, & the next Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14 So Dauid was the least: and the thre eldest went after Saul.

15 Dauid also [c] went, but he returned frõ Saul to fede his fathers shepe in Beth-lehem.

c To serue Saul, as chap. 16, ver. 19.

16 And the Philistim drewe nere in the morning, and euening, and continued fourtie dayes.

17 And Iishai said vnto Dauid his sonne, [d] Take now for thy brethren an Ephah of this parched corne, and these ten cakes, and runne to the hoste to thy brethren.

d Thogh Iishai ment one thing, yet Gods prouidence directed Dauid to another end.

18 Also cary these ten fresh cheses vnto the captaine, and loke how thy brethrẽ fare, and receiue their [e] pledge.

e If they haue laied anie thing to gage for their necessitie, redeme it out.

19 (Then Saul and they, and all ỹ men of Israel were in ỹ valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistims)

20 ¶ So Dauid rose vp early in the morning, and left ỹ shepe with a keper, and toke and went as Iishai had commãded him, & came within the compasse of the hoste: & the hoste wẽt out in array, and shouted in the battel.

21 For Israel and the Philistims had put them selues in array, armie against armie.

22 And Dauid left the things, which he bare, vnder the hands of the keper of the [p] cariage, and ran into the hoste, & came, and asked his brethren [p] how they did.

[q] Or, valleye.

f As are aboue rehersed vers. 8, & 9.

24 And all the men of Israel, when they sawe the man, ran away from him, & were sore afrayed.

25 For euery man of Israel said, Sawe ye not this man that cometh vp? euẽ to reuile Israel is he come vp: and to him that killeth him, wil the King giue great riches, and wil giue him his * daughter, yea, and make his fathers house [g] fre in Israel.

26 ¶ Then Dauid spake to ỹ men that stode with him, and said, What shalbe done to the man that killeth this Philistim, and taketh away the [h] shame from Israel? for who is this vncircũcised Philistim, that he shulde reuile the hoste of the liuing God?

h This dishonour that he doeth to Israel.

27 And the people answered him after this maner, saying, Thus shal it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 And

28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard whē he spake vnto the men, & Eliab was very angry with Dauid, and said, Why camest thou downe hether? and with whome hast ỹ left those fewe shepe in the wildernes? I knowe thy pride and the malice of thine heart, that thou art come downe to se the battel.

i For his fathers sending was a iuste occasion, & also he felt him self inwardly moued by Gods Spirit.

29 Then Dauid said, What haue I now done? Is there not a [i] cause?

30 And he departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same maner, and the people answered him according to the former wordes.

31 ¶ And thei that heard the wordes ẅ Dauid spake, rehearsed thē before Saul, which caused him to be broght.

32 So Dauid said to Saul, Let no mans heart faile him, because of him: thy seruāt wil go, and fight with this Philistim.

k Here Satan proueth Dauids faith by the infidelitie of Saul.

33 [k] And Saul said to Dauid, Thou art not able to go against this Philistim to fight with him: for thou art a boye, and he is a man of warre from his youth.

I Dauid by the experience that he hathe had in time past of Gods helpe, nothing douteth to ouercome this dāger, seing he was zealous for Gods honour.

34 And Dauid answered vnto Saul, Thy seruāt kept his fathers shepe, and there came a [l] lyon and likewise a beare, and toke a shepe out of the flocke, 35 And I went out after him & smote him, & toke it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by the bearde, and smote him, and slewe him.

36 So thy seruant slewe bothe the lyon, and the beare: therefore this vncircumcised Philistim shalbe as one of thē, seing he hath railed on ỹ hoste of the liuing God.

37 ¶ Moreouer Dauid said, The Lord that deliuered me out of the pawe of ỹ lyon, and out of the pawe of the beare, he wil deliuer me out of the hand of this Philistim. Then Saul said vnto Dauid, [m] Go, and the Lord be with thee.

m For by these examples he sawe that the power of God was with him.

38 And Saul put his rayment vpon Dauid, and put an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and put a brigandine vpon him.

39 Then girded Dauid his sworde vpon his rayment, and [n] began to go: for he neuer proued it: and Dauid said vnto Saul, I can not go with these: for I am not accustomed, wherefore Dauid put them of him.

n Or, assayed.

40 Then toke he his [n] staffe in his hand, and chose him fiue smothe stones out of a brooke, and put them in his shepherdes bag or skrippe, & his sling was in his hand, and he drewe nere to the Philistim.

n To the intēt that by these weake meanes God might only be knowen to be the autor of this victorie.

41 ¶ And the Philistim came & drewe nere vnto Dauid, and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 Now whē the Philistim loked about & sawe Dauid, he disdeined him: for he was but yōg, ruddy, & of a comely face.

43 And the Philistim said vnto Dauid, Am I a dog, that thou commest to me ẅ staues? And the Philistim [o] cursed Dauid by his gods.

o He sware by his gods ỹ he wolde destroye him.

44 And the Philistim said to Dauid, Come to me, and I wil giue thy flesh vnto the foules of the heauen, and to ỹ beastes of the field.

45 ¶ Then said Dauid to the Philistim, Thou commest to me ẅ a sworde, and ẅ a speare, and with a shield but I come to thee in the Name of ỹ Lord of hostes, the God of the hoste of Israel, whome thou hast railed vpon.

46 This [p] day shal the Lord close thee in mine hand, and I shal smite thee, and take thine head frō thee, and I wil giue the carkeises of the hoste of the Philistims this day vnto the foules of the heauen, & to the beastes of the earth, that all the worlde may knowe that Israel hathe a God, p Dauid being assured bothe of his cause & of his calling, prophecieth of the destruction of the philistims.

47 And ỹ all this assemblie may knowe, that ỹ Lord saueth not with sworde nor with speare (for the battel is the Lords) & he wil giue you into our hands.

48 And when the Philistim arose to come and drawe nere vnto Dauid, Dauid [q] hasted & ran to fight against the Philistim.

q Being moued with a feruent zeale to be reuenged vpon this blasphemer of Gods Name.

49 And Dauid put his hand in his bag, and toke out a stone, & slāg it and smote ỹ Philistim in his forehead, that the stone sticked in his forehead, and he fel groueling to the earth.

50 So Dauid * ouercame the Philistim ẅ a sling and with a stone, & smote the Philistim, & slewe him, when Dauid had no sworde in his hand.

Eccles. 47, 4. 1. mac. 4, 30.

51 Then Dauid ran, and stode vpon the Philistim, and toke his sworde & drewe it out of his sheath, and slewe him, & cut of his head therewith. So when the Philistims sawe that their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and Iudah arose, and showted, and followed after the Philistims, vntil thei came to the [n] valley, and vnto the gates of Ekron: and the Philistims fel downe wounded by the way of Shaaraim, euen to Gath and to Ekron.

n Or, Gai, the citie.

53 And the children of Israel returned from pursuing the Philistims, and spoiled their tents.

54 And Dauid toke the head of ỹ Philistim, and broght it to Ierusalem, and put his armour in his [n] tent.

n Or, house at Beth. Ichem.

55 ¶ When Saul sawe Dauid go for the against the Philistim, he said vnto Abner the captaine of his hoste, Abner, [r] whose sonne is this yong man? and Abner answered, As thy soule liueth, o King, I can not tel.

r That is, of what familie & tribe is he? or els, he had forgotten Dauid, albeit he had receiued so great a benefit by him.

56 Then the King said, Enquire thou whose sonne this yong man is.

57 And when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of ỹ Philistim, then Abner toke him, & broght him before Saul with the head of the Philiſtim in his hand.

58 And Saul ſaid to him, Whoſe ſonne art thou, thou yong mā? And Dauid anſwered, I am the ſonne of thy ſeruant Iſhai the Bethlehemite.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The amitie of Ionathan and Dauid. 8 Saul enuieth Dauid for the praiſe that the women gaue him. 11 Saul woldehaue ſlayne Dauid. 17 He promiſeth him Merab to wife, but giueth him Michal. 27 Dauid deliuereth to Saul two hundreth foreſkines of the Philiſtims. 29 Saul feareth Dauid, ſeing that the Lord is with him.

1 AND when he had made an end of ſpeaking vnto Saul, the [a] ſoule of Ionathan was knit with the ſoule of Dauid, and Ionathā loued him, as his owne ſoule.

a His affection was fully bent toward him.

2 And Saul toke him that day, and wolde not let him returne to his fathers houſe.

3 Then Ionathan and Dauid made a couenant: for he loued him as his owne ſoule.

4 And Ionathan put of the robe that was vpon him, and gaue it Dauid, and his garments, euen to his ſworde, & to his bowe, and to his girdle.

5 And Dauid went out whetherſoeuer Saul ſent him, & behaued him ſelfe [b] wiſely: ſo that Saul ſet him ouer the men of warre, and he was accepted in ỹ ſight of all the people, and alſo in the ſight of Sauls ſeruants.

b That is, he proſpered in all his doings.

6 ¶ When thei came againe, and Dauid returned from the ſlaughter of ỹ [c] Philiſtim, the women came out of all cities of Iſrael, ſinging and danſing to mete King Saul, with timbrels, with inſtruments of ioye, and with rebecks.

c To wit, Goliath.

7 And the women [*] ſang by cours in their playe, & ſaid, * Saul hathe ſlayne his thouſand, and Dauid his ten thouſand.

* Ebr anſwered, playing. Chap. 21, 11. & 29, 5. eccleſ. 47, 7.

8 Therefore Saul was exceding wrath, and the ſaying diſpleaſed him, & he ſaid, Thei haue aſcribed vnto Dauid ten thouſand, & to me thei haue aſcribed but a thouſand, & what can he haue more ſaue the kingdome?

9 Wherefore Saul [d] had an eye on Dauid from that day forward e.

d Because he bare him enuie & hatred.

10 ¶ And on the morowe, the euil ſpirit of God came vpon Saul, & he [e] prophecied in the middes of the houſe: and Dauid plaied with his hand like as at other times, and there was a ſpeare in Sauls hand.

e That is, ſpake as a man beſide him ſelfe: for ſo the people abuſed this worde, whē thei colde not vnder ſtand.

11 And Saul toke the ſpeare, and ſaid, I wil ſmite Dauid through to the wall. But Dauid auoyded twiſe out of his preſence.

12 And Saul was afraied of Dauid, becauſe the Lord was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul put him from him, and made him a captaine ouer a thouſand, and he went [f] out and in before the people.

f Meaning, he was captaine ouer the people.

14 And Dauid behaued him ſelfe wiſely in all his waies: for the Lord was w him.

15 Wherefore when Saul ſawe that he was very wiſe, he was afraied of him.

16 For all Iſrael and Iudah loued Dauid, becauſe he went out and in before them.

17 ¶ Then Saul ſaid to Dauid, Beholde mine eldeſt daughter Merab, her I wil giue thee to wife: onely be a valiāt ſonne vnto me, and [g] fight the Lords battels: for Saul thoght, Mine hand ſhal not be vpon him, but the hand of the Philiſtims ſhalbe vpon him.

g Fight againſt them ỹ warre againſt Gods people.

18 And Dauid anſwered Saul, What am I? and what is my life, or the familie of my father in Iſrael, that I ſhulde be ſonne in lawe to the King?

19 Howbeit when Merab Sauls daughter ſhulde haue bene giuen to Dauid, [h] ſhe was giuen vnto Adriel a Meholathite to wife.

h By whome he had fiue ſonnes which Dauid put to death at the requeſt of ỹ Gibeonites. 2. Sam. 21, 8.

20 ¶ Then Michal Sauls daughter loued Dauid: and thei ſhewed Saul, & ỹ thing pleaſed him.

21 Therefore Saul ſaid, I wil giue him her, that ſhe may be a [i] ſnare to him, and that the hād of the Philiſtims may be againſt him. Wherefore Saul ſaid to Dauid, Thou ſhalt this day be my ſonne in lawe in the one of the twaine.

i So his hypocriſie appereth: for vnder pretence of fauour he ſoght his deſtruction.

22 And Saul commanded his ſeruants, Speake with Dauid ſecretly, and ſay, Beholde, the King hathe a fauour to thee, and all his ſeruants loue thee: be now therefore the Kings ſonne in lawe.

23 And Sauls ſeruants ſpake theſe wordes in the eares of Dauid. And Dauid ſaid, [k] Semeth it to you a light thing to be a Kings ſonne in lawe, ſeing that I am a poore mā and of ſmall reputaciō?

k Meaning, that he was not able to endowe his wife with riches.

24 And then Sauls ſeruants broght him worde againe, ſaying, Suche wordes ſpake Dauid.

25 And Saul ſaid, This wiſe ſhal ye ſay to Dauid, The King deſireth no dowrie, but an hundreth foreſkines of the Philiſtims, to be auenged of the Kings enemies: for Saul thoght to make Dauid fall into the hands of the Philiſtims.

26 And when his ſeruants tolde Dauid theſe wordes, it pleaſed Dauid wel, to be the [l] Kings ſonne in lawe: and the daies were not expired.

l Because he thoght him ſelfe able to compaſſe the Kings requeſt.

27 Afterwarde Dauid aroſe with his men, and went and ſlewe of the Philiſtims two hundreth men: and Dauid broght broght their foreskinnes, and [m] they gaue them wholy to the King that he might be ỹ Kings sonne in lawe: therefore Saul gaue him Michal his daughter to wife.

28 Then Saul sawe, & vnderstode that the Lord was with Dauid, & that Michal the daughter of Saul loued him.

29 Then Saul was more & more [n] afraied of Dauid, and Saul became alway Dauids enemy.

30 And when ỹ princes of the Philistims went forthe, at their going forthe [o] Dauid behaued him selfe more wisely then all the seruantes of Saul, so that his name was muche set by.

[m] Meaning, Dauid and his soldiers.

[n] To be depriued of his kingdome.

[o] That is, Dauid had better successe against the philistims then Sauls mē.

CHAP. XIX.

Ionathan declareth to Dauid the wicked purpose of Saul. 11 Michal his wife saueth him. 18 Dauid commeth to Samuel. 23 The Spirit of prophecie cōmeth on Saul.

1 THē Saul spake to Ionathā his sonne, and to all his seruants, that they shulde [a] kil Dauid: but Ionathan Sauls sonne had a great fauor to Dauid,

2 And Ionathan tolde Dauid, saying, Saul my father goeth about to slaye thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take hede vnto thy selfe vnto the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thy selfe.

3 And I wil go out, and stand by my father in ỹ field where thou [b] art, and wil commune with my father of thee, and I wil se what he saith and wil tel thee.

4 ¶ And Ionathan spake good of Dauid vnto Saul his father, and said vnto him, Let not the King sinne against his seruant, against Dauid: for he hathe not sinned against thee, but his workes haue bene to the very good.

5 For he [p] did * put his life in danger, and slewe the Philistim, and the Lord wroght a great saluacion for all Israel: thou sawest it, and thou reioysedst: wherefore then wilt thou sinne against innocent blood, & slaye Dauid without a cause?

6 Then Saul hearkened vnto the voyce of Ionathan, and Saul [c] sware, As the Lord liueth, he shal not dye.

7 So Ionathan called Dauid, and Ionathan shewed him all those wordes, & Ionathan broght Dauid to Saul, and he was in his presence as in times past.

8 ¶ Againe the warre began, and Dauid went out and foght with the Philistims, and slewe them with a great slaughter, & they fled from him.

9 ¶ And the euil Spirit of the Lord was vpon Saul, as he sate in his house hauing his speare in his hand, and Dauid [d] played with his hand.

10 And Saul entended to smite Dauid to the wal with the speare: but he turned aside out of Sauls presence, and he smote the speare against the wall: but Dauid fled, and escaped the same night.

11 Saul also sent messengers vnto Dauids house, to watche him, and to slaye him in the morning: & Michal Dauids wife tolde it him, saying, If thou saue not thy self this night, tomorowe thou shalt be slaine.

12 So Michal [e] let Dauid downe through a windowe: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 Thē Michal toke an image and layed it in the bed, and put a pillowe stuffed with goates heere vnder the head of it, and couered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take Dauid, she said, He is sicke.

15 And Saul sent the messengers againe to se Dauid, saying, Bring him to me in the [f] bed, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, beholde, an image was in the bed, with a pillowe of goates heere vnder the head of it.

17 And Saul said vnto Michal, Why hast thou mocked me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said vnto me, Let me go, or els I wil kil thee.

18 ¶ So Dauid fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and tolde him all ỹ Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in [g] Naioth.

19 But one tolde Saul, saying, Beholde, Dauid is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And Saul sent messengers to take Dauid: and when they sawe a companie of Prophets prophecying, and Samuel standing [h] as appointed ouer them, the Spirit of God fel vpon the messengers of Saul, and they also [i] prophecied.

21 And when it was tolde Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophecied likewise: againe Saul sent the third messengers, and they prophecied also.

22 Then went he him self to Ramah and came to a great wel that is in Sechu, and he asked, and said, Where are Samuel and Dauid? and one said, Beholde, they be at Naioth in Ramah.

23 And he [k] went thither, euen to Naioth in Ramah, and the Spirit of God came vpon him also, and he went prophecying vntil he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 And he stript of his [l] clothes, and he prophecied also before Samuel, and fel [m] downe naked all that day and all that night: therefore they say, * Is Saul also among the Prophetes?

Ionathan comforteth Dauid. 3 They renue their league. 33 Saul wolde haue killed Ionathan. 38 Ionathan aduertiseth Dauid by thre arrowes of his fathers fury.

1 AND Dauid [a] fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Ionathan, What haue I done? what is mine iniquitie? and what sinne haue I committed before thy father, that he seketh my life?

2 And he said vnto him, God forbid, thou shalt not dye: beholde, my father wil do nothing great nor smale, but he wil "shew it me: and why shulde my father hide this thing from me? he wil not do it.

3 And Dauid sware againe and said, Thy father knoweth that I haue founde grace in thine eyes: therefore he thinketh, Ionathan shal not know it, lest he be sory: but in dede, as the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, there is but [b] a steppe betwene me and death.

4 The said Ionatha vnto Dauid, Whatsoeuer thy soule "requireth, that I wil do vnto thee.

5 And Dauid said vnto Ionathan, Beholde, tomorowe is the [c] first day of the moneth, and I shulde sit with the King at meat: but let me go, that I may hide my selfe in the fields vnto the third day at euen.

6 If thy father make mencion of me, then say, Dauid asked leaue of me, that he might go to Beth-lehem to his owne citie: for there is a [d] yerely sacrifice for all that familie.

7 And if he say thus, It is wel, thy seruant shal haue peace: but if he be angry, be sure that wickednes is concluded of him.

8 So shalt thou shewe mercy vnto thy seruant: *for thou hast ioyned thy seruant into a couenant of the Lord with thee, & if there be in me iniquitie, slaye thou me: for why shuldeest thou bring me to thy father?

9 ¶And Ionathan answered, God kepe that from thee: for if I knewe that wickednes were [e] concluded of my father to come vpon thee, wolde not I tel it thee?

10 Then said Dauid to Ionathan, Who shal tel me? how shal I knowe, if thy father answere thee cruelly?

11 And Ionathan said to Dauid, Come and let vs go out into the field: and they twaine went out into the field.

12 Then Ionathan said to Dauid, O Lord God of Israel, when I haue groped my fathers minde tomorowe at this time, or with in this thre dayes, & if it be wel with Dauid, and I then send not vnto thee, and shewe it thee, 13 The Lord [g] do so & muche more vnto Ionathan: but if my father haue minde to do thee euil, I wil shewe thee also, & send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the Lord be with thee as he hathe bene with my father.

14 Likewise I require not whiles I liue: for I dout not but thou wilt shewe me the mercy of the Lord, [h] that I dye not.

15 But I require that thou cut not of thy mercie from mine house for euer: no, not when the Lord hathe destroyed the enemies of Dauid, euerie one from the earth.

16 So Ionathan made a bonde with the house of Dauid, saying, Let ỹ Lord require it at the hãds of Dauids enemies.

17 And againe Ionathan sware vnto Dauid, because he loued him (for he loued him as his owne soule)

18 Then said Ionathan to him, Tomorowe is the first day of the moneth: and thou shalt [n] be looked for, for thy place shalbe empty.

19 Therefore thou shalt hide thy selfe thre dayes, then thou shalt go downe quickely and come to the place where thou dideſt hide thy selfe, when this matter was in hand, & shalt remaine by the stone" Ezel.

20 And I wil shoote thre arrowes on ỹ side thereof, as though I shot at a marke.

21 And after I wil send a boy, saying, Go, seke the arrowes. If I say vnto the boy, Se, the arrowes are on this side thee, bring them: then come thou: for it is "wel with thee and no hurt, as the Lord liueth.

22 But if I say thus vnto the boy, Beholde, the arrowes are beyonde thee: go thy way: for the [i] Lord hathe sent the away.

23 As touchig the thing which thou and I haue spoken of, beholde, the Lord be betwene thee and me for euer.

24 ¶So Dauid hid him selfe in the field: & when the first day of the moneth came, the King sate to eat meat.

25 And the King sate, as at other times vpon his seat, euen vpon his seat by the wall: & Ionathan arose, and Abner sate by Sauls side, but Dauids place was empty.

26 And Saul said nothing that day: for he thought, Some thing hathe befallen him, though he were [k] cleane, or els because he was not purified.

27 But on the morowe which was the second day of the moneth, Dauids place was emptie againe: and Saul said vnto Ionathan his sonne, Wherefore cõmeth not the sonne of [l] Ishai to meat, neither yesterday nor to day?

28 And Ionathan answered vnto Saul, Dauid required of me, that he might go to 30 Then was Saul angry with Ionathan, & said vnto him, Thou [o] sonne of the wicked rebellious womā, do not I knowe, that thou hast chosen the sonne of Ishai to thy confusion and to the confusion and shame of thy mother?

31 For as long as the sonne of Ishai liueth vpon the earth, thou shalt not be stablished, nor thy kingdome: wherefore now send and fet him vnto me, for he [p] shal surely dye.

32 And Ionathan answered vnto Saul his father, and said vnto him, Wherefore shal he [p] dye? what hathe he done?

33 And Saul cast a speare at him to hit him, Whereby Ionathan knewe, that it was determined of his father to slaye Dauid.

34 ¶ So Ionathan arose from the table in a great angre, and did eat no meat the second day of the moneth: for he was sory for Dauid, and because his father had reuiled him.

35 On the next morning therefore Ionathan went out into the field, [q] at the time appointed with Dauid, and a litle boy with him.

36 And he said vnto his boy, Runne now, seke the arrowes which I shoote, & as the boy ran, he shot an arrowe beyonde him.

37 And when the boy was come to the place where the arrowe was that Ionathan had shot, Ionathan cryed after the boy, & said, Is not the arrowe beyond thee?

38 And Ionathan cryed after the boy, [r] Make spede, haste and stand not stil: and Ionathans boy gathered vp the arrowes, and came to his master, 39 But the boy knewe nothing: onely Ionathan and Dauid knewe the matter.

40 Then Ionathan gaue his [w] bowe and arrowes vnto the boy that was with him, & said vnto him, Go, carie them into the citie.

41 ¶ Assone as the boy was gone, Dauid arose out of a place that was towarde the [s] South, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed him selfe thre times: and they kyssed one an other, and wept bothe twaine, til Dauid exceded.

42 Therefore Ionathan said to Dauid, Go in peace: that which we haue [t] sworne bothe of vs in the Name of ỹ Lord, saying, The Lord be betwene me & thee, and betwene my seede and betwene thy seede, let it stand for euer.

1 Dauid fleeth to Nob to Ahimelech ỹ Priest. 6 He getteth of him the shew bread to satisfie his hungre. 7 Doeg Sauls seruant was present. 10 Dauid fleeth to King Achish, 13 And there faineth him selfe mad.

1 THen came Dauid to [a] Nob, to Ahimelech the Priest, and Ahimelech was astonyed at the meting of Dauid, and said vnto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

2 And Dauid said to Ahimelech the Priest, The [b] King hathe commanded me a certeine thīg, and hathe said vnto me, Let no man knowe where about I send thee, & what I haue commanded thee, and I haue appointed my seruants to suche and suche places.

3 Now therefore if thou hast oght vnder thine hand, giue me fiue cakes of bread, or what commeth to hand.

4 And the Priest answered Dauid, & said, There is no commune bread vnder mine hand, but here is *halowed bread, if the yong men haue kept them selues, at leastfrom [c] women.

5 Dauid then answered the Priest, and said vnto him, Certeinly women haue bene separate from vs these two or thre dayes since I came out: and the [d] vessels of the yong men were holy, thogh the way were prophane, & how muche more then shal euery one [e] be sanctified this day in the vessel?

6 So the Priest gaue him halowed bread: for there was no bread there, saue the shewbread that was taken from before the Lord, to put hote bread there, the day that it was taken away.

7 (And there was the same day one of the seruants of Saul [f] abiding before the Lord, named Doeg the Edomite, the "chiefest of Sauls herdemen)

8 And Dauid said vnto Ahimelech, Is there not here vnder thine hād a speare or a sworde? for I haue nether broght my sworde nor mine harnes with me, because the Kings busines required haste.

9 And the Priest said, The sworde of Goliath the Philistim, whome thou slewest in the * valley of Elah, beholde, it is wrapt in a clothe behinde the [g] Ephod: if thou wilt take that to thee, take it: for there is none other saue that here, & Dauid said, There is none to that, giue it me.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Dauid hideth him selfe in a caue. 2 Many that were in trouble came vnto him. 9 Doeg accuseth Ahimelech. 18 Saul causeth the Priests to be slaine. 20 Abiathar escapeth.

1 DAuid therefore departed thence, and saued him selfe in the caue [a] of Adullam: and when his brethren and all his fathers house heard it, they went downe thither to him.
2 And there gathered vnto him all men that were in trouble and all men that were in det, & all those that were vexed in minde, and he was their [n]prince, and there were with him about foure hundreth men.
3 ¶ And Dauid went thence to Mizpeh in [b] Moab, and said vnto the King of Moab, I pray thee, let my father and my mother come and abide with you, til I knowe what God wil do for me.
4 And he [c] broght them before ỹ King of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the while that Dauid kept him selfe in [d] the holde.
5 And the Prophet Gad said vnto Dauid, Abide not in the holde, but departe & go into the land of Iudah. Then Dauid departed and came into the forest of Hareth.
6 ¶ And Saul heard that Dauid was [e] discouered, and the men that were with him, and Saul remained in Gibeah vnder a tre in Ramah, hauing his speare in his hand, and all his men stode about him.
7 And Saul said vnto his seruants that stode about him, Heare now, ye sonnes [f] of Iemini, wil the sonne of Ishai giue euerie one of you fields and vineyardes? wil he make you all captaines ouer thousands, & captaines ouer hũdreths?

a Which was in the tribe of Iudah and nere to Beth-lehem.

c For he feared ỹ rage of Saul against his house.

d That is, in Mizpeh, which was a strong holde.

e That a great brute went on him.

8 That all ye haue cõspired against me, and there is none that telleth me that my sonne hathe made a couenant with ỹ sonne of Ishai? & there is none of you that is sory for me, or sheweth me, that my [g]sonne hathe stired vp my seruant to lye in wait against me as appeareth this day.
9 ¶ Then answered Doeg the Edomite (who was appointed ouer the seruants of Saul) and said, I sawe the sonne of Ishai when he came to Nob, to Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitub, 10 Who asked counsel of the Lord for him & gaue him vitails, and he gaue him also the sworde of Goliath the Philistim.
11 Then the King sent to call Ahimelech the Priest the sonne of Ahitub, and all his fathers house, to wit, [h]the Priests that were in Nob: and they came all to the King.
12 And Saul said, Heare now thou sonne of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my Lord.
13 Then Saul said vnto him, Why haue ye conspired against me, thou and the sonne of Ishai, in that thou hast giuen him vitaile, and a sworde, and hast asked counsel of God for him, that he shulde rise against me, & lye in waite as appeareth this day?
14 ¶ And Ahimelech answered the King, & said, Who is so faithful among all thy seruants as Dauid, being also the Kings sonne in lawe, & goeth at thy commandement, and his honorable in thine house?
15 [i] Haue I this day first begon to aske counsel of God for him? be it far from me, let not the King impute any thing vnto his seruant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy seruãt knewe nothing of all this, lesse nor more.
16 Then the King said, Thou shalt surely dye, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy fathers house.
17 And the King said vnto the [o] sergents that stode about him, Turne, & slaye the Priests of the Lord, because their hand also is with Dauid, and because they knewe when he fled, and shewed it not to me. But ỹ seruants of the King [k] wolde not moue their hands to fall vpon the Priests of the Lord.
18 Then the King said to Doeg, Turne thou and fall vpon ỹ Priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and ran vpon the Priests, and slewe that same day foure score and fiue persones that did weare a linen Ephod.
19 Also Nob the citie of the Priests smote he with the edge of the sworde, bothe man and woman, bothe childe and suckling, bothe oxe and asse, and shepe with the edge of the sworde.

g Hereby he wolde persuade them ỹ this cõspiracie was moste horrible, where the sonne conspired against ỹ father, and the seruant against his master.

5 Dauid chaſeth the Philiſtims from Keilah. 13 Dauid departeth from Keilah, and remaineth in the wildernes of Ziph. 16 Ionathan comforteth Dauid. 28 Sauls entrepriſe is broken in purſuing Dauid.

1 THen they tolde Dauid, ſaying, Behold, the Philiſtims fight againſt [a] Keilah, and ſpoyle the barnes.

2 Therefore Dauid aſked counſel of ỹ Lord, ſaying, Shal I go and ſmite theſe Philiſtims? And the Lord anſwered Dauid, Go and ſmite the Philiſtims, and ſaue Keilah.

3 And Dauids men ſaid vnto him, Se, we be afraied here in [b] Iudah, how muche more if we come to Keilah againſt the hoſte of the Philiſtims?

4 Then Dauid aſked coũſel of the Lord againe. And the Lord anſwered him, and ſaid, Ariſe, go downe to Keilah: for I wil deliuer the Philiſtims into thine hand.

5 ¶ So Dauid and his men went to Keilah, and foght with the Philiſtims, and broght away theyr cattel, and ſmote thẽ with a great ſlaughter: thus Dauid ſaued the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 (And when Abiathar the ſonne of Ahimelech * fled to Dauid to Keilah, he broght an [c] Ephod "with him).

7 ¶ And it was tolde Saul ỹ Dauid was come to Keilah, and Saul ſaid, God hathe deliuered him into mine hand: for he is ſhut in, ſeing he his come into a citie that hathe gates and barres.

8 Then Saul called all the people together to warre, for to go downe to Keilah, and to beſiege Dauid and his men.

9 ¶ And Dauid hauing knowledge that Saul imagined miſchief againſt him, ſaid to Abiathar the Prieſt, [d] Bring the Ephod.

10 Then ſaid Dauid, O Lord God of Iſrael, thy ſeruant hathe heard, that Saul is about to come to Keilah to deſtroy the citie for my ſake.

11 Wil the lords of Keilah deliuer me vp into his hand? and wil Saul come doxne, as thy ſeruant hathe heard? O Lord God of Iſrael, I beſeche thee, tel thy ſeruant. And the Lord ſaid, He wil come downe.

12 Then ſaid Dauid, Wil the [n] lords of Keilah deliuer me vp and the men that are with me, into the hand of Saul? And the Lord ſaid, They wil deliuer thee vp.

13 ¶ Thẽ Dauid and his men, which were about ſix hundreth, aroſe, and departed out, of Keilah, and went [o] whither they colde. And it was tolde Saul, that Dauid was fled from Keilah, and he left of his iourney.

14 And Dauid abode in the wildernes in [p] holdes, and remained in a mountaine in ỹ wildernes of Ziph. And Saul ſoght him euerie day, but God [e] deliuered him not into his hand.

15 And Dauid ſaxe that Saul was come out for to ſeke his life: & Dauid was in the wildernes of Ziph in the wood.

16 ¶ And Ionathan Sauls ſonne aroſe and went to Dauid into ỹ wood, and comforted "him in God, 17 And ſaid vnto him, Feare not: for the hand of Saul my father ſhal not finde thee, and thou ſhalt be [f] King ouer Iſrael, and I ſhal be next vnto thee: and alſo Saul my father knoweth it.

18 So they twaine made a couenant before the Lord: and Dauid did remaine in the wood: but Ionathan went to his houſe.

19 ¶ Then came vp the Ziphims to Saul to Gibeah, ſaying, Doeth not Dauid hide him ſelfe by vs in holdes, in ỹ wood in the hil of Hachilah, which is on the right ſide [n] of Ieſhimon?

20 Now therefore ô King, come downe according to all that thine heart cã deſire, & our parte ſhalbe to deliuer him into the Kings hands.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 Dauid hid in a caue spareth Saul. 10 He sheweth to Saul his innocencie. 18 Saul acknowledgeth his faute. 22 He causeth Dauid to sweare vnto him to be fauorable to his.

1 AND Dauid went thence, and dwelt in [a] holdes at Engedi.

2 When Saul was returned from the Philistims, they tolde him, saying, Beholde, Dauid is in the wildernes of [b] Engedi.

3 Then Saul toke thre thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seke Dauid and his men vpon the rockes among the wilde goates.

4 And he came to the shepecoates by the way where there was a caue and Saul went in " to do his easement: and Dauid and his men sate in the " inward partes of the caue.

5 And the men of Dauid said vnto him, Se the day is [c] come, whereof the Lord said vnto thee, Beholde, I wil deliuer thine enemie into thine hand, and thou shalt do to him as it shal seme good to thee. Then Dauid arose and cut of the lappe of Sauls garment priuely.

6 And afterward Dauid [d] was touched in his heart, because he had cut of the lappe which was on Sauls garment.

7 And he said vnto his men, The Lord kepe me from doing that thing vnto my master the Lords Anointed, to lay mine hand vpon him: for he is the Anointed of the Lord.

8 So Dauid ouercame his seruants with these wordes, & suffred them not to arise against Saul, so Saul rose vp out of the caue & went away.

9 ¶ Dauid also arose afterward, & went out of the caue, and cryed after Saul, saying, O my lord the King. And when Saul loked behinde him, Dauid inclined his face to the earth, and bowed him selfe.

c Here we se how ready we are to hasten Gods promes, if ỹ occasion serue neuer so litle.

d For seing it was his owne priuate cause, he repented ỹ he had touched his enemie.

10 And Dauid said to Saul, [e] Wherefore giuest thou an eare to mẽs wordes, that say, Beholde, Dauid seketh euil against thee?

11 Beholde, this day thine eyes haue sene, that the Lord had deliuered the this day into mine hand in the caue, and some bade me kil thee, but I had compassion on thee, and said, I wil not lay mine hand on my master: for he is the Lords Anointed.

12 Moreouer my father, beholde: beholde, I say, the lappe of thy garment in mine hãd: for when I cut of the lappe of thy garment, I killed thee not. Vnderstand and se, that there is neither euil nor wickednes in me, neither haue I sinned against thee, yet thou hunteſt after my soule to take it.

13 The Lord be iudge betwene thee & me, and the Lord auenge me of thee, and let not mine hand be vpon thee.

14 According as the "olde prouerbe saith, Wickednes proceedeth from the wicked, but mine hand be not vpon thee.

15 After whome is the King of Israel come out? after whome doest thou pursue? after a dead dog, & after a flye?

16 The Lord therefore be iudge, & iudge betwene thee & me, and se, and pleade my cause, and " deliuer me out of thine hand.

17 When Dauid had made an end of speaking these wordes to Saul, Saul said, [f] Is this thy voyce, my sonne Dauid? and Saul lift vp his voyce, and wept, 18 And said to Dauid, Thou art more righteous then I: for thou hast rendred me good, and I haue rendred thee euil.

19 And thou hast shewed this day, that thou hast dealt wel with me: forasmuche as when the Lord had closed me in thine hands, thou killedst me not.

20 For who shal finde his enemy, and let him departe " fre? wherefore the Lord rendre thee good for that thou hast done vnto me this day.

21 For now beholde, I [g] knowe that thou shalt be King, and that the kingdome of Israel shalbe stablished in thine hand.

22 Sweare now therefore vnto me by the Lord, ỹ thou wilt not destroy my seede after me, and that thou wilt not abolish my name out of my fathers house.

23 So Dauid sware vnto Saul, and Saul went home: but Dauid and his men went vp vnto the holde.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Samuel dyeth. 3 Nabal & Abigail. 38 The Lord killeth Nabal. 43 Abigail & Ahinoam Dauids wiues. 44 Michal is giuen to Thalti.

1 Then

Chap. 28, 3. eccles. 46, 23.

1 THen *Samuel dyed, and all Israel assembled, and mourned for him, & buryed him in his [a] owne house at Ramah. And Dauid arose and went downe to the wildernes of Paran.

a That is, among his owne kinred.

2 Now in [b] Maon was a man, who had his possession in Carmel, and the man was exceeding mighty, & had thre thousand shepe, and a thousand goates: and he was shering his shepe in Carmel.

b Maon and Carmel were cities in ỹ tribe of Iudah. Carmel ỹ mountaine was in Galile.

3 The name also of the man was Nabal, & the name of his wife Abigail, and she was a woman of singular wisdome, and beautiful, but the man was churlish, and euil conditioned, and was of the familie of Caleb.

4 And Dauid heard in ỹ wildernes, that Nabal did shere his shepe.

5 Therefore Dauid sent ten yong men, & Dauid said vnto the yong men, Go vp to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and aske him in my name "how he doeth.

"Ebr. of peace.

6 And thus shal ye say [c] " for salutation, Bothe thou, and thine house, and all that thou hast, be in peace, welth, and prosperitie.

c Some read, so maiest thou liue in prosperitie the next yere, bothe thou, &c.

"Ebr. for life.

7 Beholde, I haue heard, that thou hast sherers: now thy shepherds were with vs, & we did them no hurt, nether did they misseanie thing all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Aske thy seruants & they wil shewe thee. Wherefore let these yong mẽ finde fauour in thine eyes: (for we come in a good seaſon) giue, I praye thee, whatsoeuer [d] commeth to thine hand vnto thy seruants, & to thy sonne Dauid.

d What soeuer thou hast ready for vs.

9 ¶ And when Dauids yong men came, they tolde Nabal all those wordes in ỹ name of Dauid, and helde their peace.

10 Then Nabal answered Dauids seruants, and said, Who is Dauid? and who is the [e] sonne of Ishai? there is manie seruants now a dayes, that breake awaye euery man from his master.

e Thus ỹ couetous wretches, in stede of releuing ỹ necessitie of Gods children, vse to reuile their persoones and condemne their cause.

11 Shal I then take my bread, & my water, & my flesh that I haue killed for my sherers, and giue it vnto men, whome I knowe not whence thei be?

12 ¶ So Dauids seruãts turned their way, and went againe, and came, and tolde him all those things.

13 And Dauid said vnto his men, Girde euery mã his sworde about him. And they girded euery man his sworde: Dauid also girded his sworde. And about foure hundreth men went vp after Dauid, and two hundreth abode by the "carriage.

"Ebr. vessel.

14 Now one of the seruants tolde Abigail Nabals wife, saying, Beholde, Dauid sent messengers out of the wildernes to salute our master, and he "rayled on them.

"Ebr. droue them away.

15 Notwithstanding the men were very good [f] vnto vs, and we had no displeasure, nether missed we any thing as log as we were conuersant with them, when we were in the fields.

f Whe we kept our shepe in the wildernes of Paran.

16 They were as a wal vnto vs bothe by night and by day, all the while we were with them keping shepe.

17 Now therefore take hede, and se what thou shalt do: for euil " wil surely come vpon our master, and vpon all his familie: for he is so wicked that a man can not speake to him.

"Ebr. is accomplished.

18 ¶ Then Abigail made haste, and toke two hundreth " cakes, and two bottles of wine, and fiue shepe ready dressed, & fiue measures of parched corne, and an hundreth [g] frailes of raisins, and two hundreth of figges, and laded them on asses.

"Ebr. bread.

[g] Or, clusters.

19 Then she said vnto her seruants, Go ye before me: beholde, I wil come after you: yet she tolde [g] not her housband Nabal.

g Because she knewe his crooked nature, ỹ he wolde rather haue perished, then cõsented to her enterprise.

20 And as she rode on her asse, she came downe by a secret place of the mountaine, and beholde, Dauid and his men came downe against her, and she met them.

21 And Dauid said, In dede I haue kept all in vaine that this fellowe had in the wildernes, so that nothing was missed of all that perteined vnto him: for he hathe requited me euil for good.

22 So and more also do God vnto the enemies of Dauid: for surely I wil not leaue of all that he hathe, by the dawning of the day, any that [h] pisseth against the wall.

h Meaning by this prouerbe, that he wolde destroye bothe smale & great.

23 And when Abigail sawe Dauid, she hasted and lighted of her asse, & fel before Dauid on her face, and bowed her selfe to the grounde, 24 And fel at his fete, & said, Oh, my lord, I haue committed the iniquitie, and I pray thee, let thine handmaid speake " to thee, & heare thou the wordes of thine handmayd.

"Ebr. in thine eares.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regarde this wicked man Nabal: for as his name is, so is he: [i] Nabal is his name, and foly is with him: but I thine handmayd sawe not the yõg men of my lord whome thou sentest.

"Or, foole.

26 Now therefore my lord, as the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth (the Lord, I say, that hathe withholden thee from comming to shed blood, and that [i] thine hand shulde not saue thee) so now thine enemies shalbe as Nabal, and they that intende to do my lord euil.

i That is, that thou shuldest not be reuenged of thine enemie.

27 And now, this [k] blessing which thine handmayd hathe broght vnto my lord, let it be giuen vnto the yongmen, that " follow e my lord.

k Or, present.

28 I pray thee, forgiue the trespasse of thine handmay d: for the Lord wil make my my Lord a [k] sure house, because my lord fighteth the battels of the Lord, and none euil hathe bene founde in thee " in all thy life.

29 Yet [l] a man hathe risen vp to persecute thee, and to seke thy soule, but the soule of my lord shalbe bounde in the [m] bundel of life with the Lord thy God: and the soule of thine enemies shal God cast out, as out of the midle of a sling.

30 And when the Lord shal haue done to my lord all ſ good that he hathe promised thee, and shal haue made thee ruler ouer Israel, 31 Then shal it be no grief vnto thee, nor offence of minde vnto my lord, that he hathe not shed blood causeles, nor that my lord hathe [n] not preserued him selfe: & when the Lord shal haue dealt wel with my lord, remember thine hād-mayd.

32 Then Dauid said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to mete me.

33 And blessed be thy counsel, and blessed be thou, which haste kept me this day from comming to shed blood, [o] and that mine hand hathe not saued me.

34 For in dede, as the Lord God of Israel liueth, [p] who hathe kept me backe from hurting thee, except thou haddest hasted and met me, surely there had not bene left vnto Nabal by the dawning of the day, any that pisseth against the wall.

35 Then Dauid receiued of her hand that which she had broght him, & said to her, Go vp in peace to thine house: beholde, I haue heard thy voyce, and haue " granted thy peticion.

36 ¶So Abigail came to Nabal, & beholde, he made a feast in his house, like the feast of a King, and Nabals heart was mery within him, for he was very dronken: wherefore she tolde him [q] nothing, nether lesse nor more, vntil the morning arose.

37 Then in the morning when the wine was gone out of Nabal, his wife tolde him those wordes, & his heart dyed within him, and he was like [r] a stone.

38 And about ten daies after, the Lord smote Nabal, that he dyed.

39 ¶Now when Dauid heard, that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord that hathe [s] iudged the cause of my rebuke of the hand of Nabal, & hathe kept his seruant from euil. for the Lord hathe recompensed the wickednes of Nabal vpon his owne head. Also Dauid sent to commune with Abigail to [t] take her to his wife.

40 And when the seruants of Dauid were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake vnto her, saying, Dauid sent vs to thee, to take thee to his wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed her self on her face to the earth, & said, Beholde, let thy handmayd be a seruant to wash the fete of the seruants of my lord.

42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode vpon an asse, & her fiue maids " followed her, and she went after the messengers of Dauid, and was his wife.

43 Dauid also toke Ahinoam of *Izreel, & they were bothe his wiues.

44 Now Saul had giuen * Michal his daughter Dauids wife to Phalti the sonne of Laish, which was of [t] Gallim.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 Dauid was discouered vnto Saul by the Ziphims. 12 Dauid taketh awaye Sauls speare, and a pot of water that stode at his head. 21 Saul confesseth his sinne.

1 AGaine ſ Ziphims came vnto Saul to Gibeah, saying, * Doeth not Dauid hide him selfe " in the hil of Hachilah before "Ieshimon?

2 Then Saul arose, and went downe to ſ wildernes of Ziph, hauing thre thousand [a] chosen men of Israel with him, for to seke Dauid in the wildernes of Ziph.

3 And Saul pitched in ſ hil of Hachilah, which is before Ieshimon by the waye side. Now Dauid abode in the wildernes, and he sawe that Saul came after him into the wildernes.

4 (For Dauid had sent oute spies, & vnderstode, that Saul was come [x] in very dede)

5 Then Dauid arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched, and when Dauid beheld the place where Saul lay, & *Abner the sonne of Ner which was his chief captaine, (for Saul lay in the forte, and the people pitched round about him)

6 Then spake Dauid, & said to Ahimelech the [b] Hittite, and to Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah, brother to [c] Ioab, saying, Who wil go downe with me to Saul to the hoste? Then Abishai said, I wil go downe with thee.

7 So Dauid & Abishai came downe to the people by night: and beholde, Saul laye sleping within the forte, & his speare did sticke in the grounde at his " head: and Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 ¶Then said Abishai to Dauid, God hathe closed thine enemie into thine hād this day: now therefore, I pray thee, let me smite him once with a speare to the earth, and I wil not smite him [q] againe.

9 And Dauid said to Abishai, Destroye him

10 Moreouer Dauid said, As the Lord liueth, ether the Lord shal smite him, or his day shal come to dye, or he shal descende into battel, & perish.

11 The Lord kepe me from laying mine hand vpon the Lords anointed: but, I pray thee, take now the speare that is at his head, and the pot of water, and let vs go hence.

12 So Dauid toke the speare and the pot of water from Sauls head, and they gate them away, and no man sawe it, nor marked it, nether did any awake, but thei were all aslepe: for [a] the Lord had sent a deade slepe vpon them.

13 Then Dauid went into the other side, & stode on the toppe of an hil a far of, a great space being betwene them.

14 And Dauid cryed to the people, and to Abner ý sonne of Ner, saing, [a] Hearest thou not Abner? Then Abner answered, and said, Who art thou ý cryest to the King?

15 ¶ And Dauid said to Abner, Art not thou [d] man? and who is like thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the King? for there came one of ý folke in to destroye ý K̄ig thy lord.

16 This is not wel done of thee: as the Lord liueth, ye are [a] worthy to dye, because ye haue not kept your master the Lords Anointed: and now se where the Kings speare is, & the pot of water ý was at his head.

17 And Saul knewe Dauids voyce, and said, Is this thy voyce, [g] my sonne Dauid? And Dauid said, It is my voyce, my lord ô King.

18 And he said, Wherefore doeth my lord thus persecute his seruāt? for what haue I done? or what euil is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I beseche thee, let my lord the King heare the wordes of his seruant. If the Lord haue stirred thee vp against me, [h] let him smel the sauour of a sacrifice: but if the children of men haue done it, cursed be thei before the Lord: for thei haue cast me out this day from abiding in ý inheritance of the Lord, saying, Go, serue other [i] gods.

20 Now therefore let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the King of Israel is come out to seke a flye, as one wolde hunt a patriche in the mountaines.

21 Then said Saul, I haue sinned: come againe, my sonne Dauid: for I wil do thee nomore harme, because my soule was [k] precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I haue done foolishly, and haue erred exceedingly.

22 Then Dauid answered, & said, Behold the Kings speare, let one of the yōg men come ouer and fet it.

23 And let the Lord rewarde euerie man according to his [l] righteousnes and faithfulnes: for the Lord had deliuered thee into mine hands this daie, but I wolde not lay mine hand vpon ý Lords anointed.

24 And beholde, like as thy life was muche set by this day in mine eyes: so let my life be set by the eyes of the Lord, that he may deliuer me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to Dauid, Blessed art thou, my sonne Dauid: for thou shalt do great things, and also preuaile. So Dauid went his way, and Saul returned to his [m] place.

CHAP. XXVII.

2 Dauid fleeth to Achiso King of Gath, who giueth him Ziklag. 8 Dauid destroyeth certeine of the Philistims. 10 Achiso is deceiued by Dauid.

1 AND Dauid said in his heart, I shal now [a] perish one day by the hand of Saul: is it not better for me that I saue my selfe in the land of the Philistims, and that Saul may haue no hope of me to seke me anie more in all the coastes of Israel, and so escape out of his hand?

2 Dauid therefore arose, and he, and the six hundreth men that were with him, went vnto Achish the sonne of Maoch King of Gath.

3 And Dauid [b] dwelt with Achish at Gath, he, and his men euerie man with his housholde, Dauid with his two wiues, Ahinoam the Ifreelite, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite.

4 And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was fled to Gath, so he soght nomore for him.

6 Then Achish gaue him Ziklag that same day: therefore Ziklag perteineth vnto the Kings of Iudah vnto this day.

7 ¶ And [a] the time that Dauid dwelt in the countrey of the Philistims, was foure moneths and certeine dayes.

Dauid hathe the chief charge promised about Achish. 3 Saul consulteth with a witche, and she causeth him to speake w Samuel, 18 Who declareth his ruine.

1 NOw at that time the Philistims assembled their bandes and armie to fight with Israel, therefore Achish said to Dauid, [a] Be sure, thou shalt go out with me to the battel, thou, & thy men.
2 And Dauid said to Achish, Surely thou shalt knowe what thy seruant can do. And Achish said to Dauid, Surely I wil make thee keper of mine head for euer.
3 *(Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buryed him in Ramah his owne citie: and Saul had [b] put away the sorcerers, and the sothesayers out of the land)
4 Then the Philistims assembled them selues, and came, and pitched in Shunem; and Saul assembled all Israel, and they pitched in Gilboa.
5 And when Saul sawe the hoste of the Philistims, he was afrayed, & his heart was sore astonied.
6 Therefore Saul asked counsel of the Lord, and the Lord answered him not, nether by dreames, nor by [c] Vrim, nor yet by Prophetes.
7 ¶ Then said Saul vnto his seruats, Seke me a woman that hathe a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and aske of her. And his seruants said to him, Behold, there is a woman at En-dor that hathe a familiar spirit.
8 Then Saul [d] changed him selfe, & put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: & he said, I pray thee, cõiecture vnto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him vp whome I shal name vnto thee.
9 And the woman said vnto him, Beholde thou knowest what Saul hathe done, how he hathe destroyed the sorcerers, and ỹ sothesayers out of the land: wherefore then sekest thou to take me in a snare to cause me to dye?
10 And Saul sware to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lord liueth, no [n] harme shal come to thee for this thing.
11 Then said the woman, Whome shal I bring vp vnto thee? And he answered, Bring me vp [e] Samuel.
12 And when the woman sawe Samuel, she cryed with a loude voyce, and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceiued me? for thou art Saul.
13 And the King said vnto her, Be not afrayed: for what sawest thou? And the woman said vnto Saul, I sawe [n] gods ascending vp out of the earth.
14 Then he said vnto her, What facion is he of? And she answered, An olde mã cometh vp lapped in a mantel: & Saul knewe that it was [f] Samuel, and he enclined his face to the ground, and bowed him selfe.
15 ¶ And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me vp? Then Saul answered, I am in great distresse: for the Philistims make warre against me, & God is departed from me, and answereth me nomore, nether "by Prophetes nether by dreames: therefore I haue called thee, that thou mayest tel me, what I shal do.
16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then doest thou aske of me, seing the Lord is gone from thee, and is thine enemie?

19 Moreouer the Lord wil deliuer Israel with thee into the hands of the Philistims: [h] and tomorowe shalt thou & thy sonnes be with me, & the Lord shal giue the hoste of Israel into the hands of the Philistims.
20 Then Saul fel streyght way all along on the earth, and was sore [i] afrayed because of the wordes of Samuel, so that there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day nor all the night.

4 But the princes of the Philistims were wroth with him, & the princes of [ỹ] Philistims said vnto him, [*] Sēd this fellowe backe, that he may go againe to his place which thou hast appointed him, & let him not go downe with vs to battel, lest that in the battel he be an aduersarie to vs: for wherewith shulde he obteine the fauour of his master? shulde it not be with the [c] heads of these men?

1 The Amalekites burne Ziklag. 5 Dauids two wiues are taken prisoners. 6 The people wolde stone him. 8 He asketh counsel of the Lord and pursuing his enemies recouereth the praye. 24 He diuideth it equally, 26 And sendeth parte to his frēds.

9 ¶ So Dauid and the ſix hundreth men that were with him, went, and came to the riuer Beſor, where a parte of them abode:
10 But Dauid and foure hundreth men followed (for two hundreth abode behinde, being to wearye to go ouer the riuer Beſor)

14 We roued vpon the South of Chereth, & vpon the coaſt belonging to Iudah, and vpon the South of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire.
15 And Dauid ſaid vnto him, Canſt thou bring me to this companie? And he ſaid, [g]Sweare vnto me by God, that thou wilt nether kil me, nor deliuer me into the hands of my maſter, and I wil bring thee to this companie.
16 ¶ And when he had broght him thither, beholde, they lay ſcatered abroade vpon all the earth, [h]eating & drinking, and danſing, becauſe of all the great pray that thei had taken out of the land of the Philiſtims, and out of ý land of Iudah.
17 And Dauid ſmote them from the twilight, euen vnto the euening [i] of the next morowe, ſo that there eſcaped not a man of them, ſaue foure hundreth yong men, which rode vpon camels, & fled.
18 And Dauid recouered all that the Amalekites had take: alſo Dauid reſcued his two wiues.
19 And thei lacked nothing, ſmall or great, ſonne or daughter, or of the ſpoyle of all that they had taken away: Dauid recouered them all.
20 Dauid alſo toke all the ſhepe, and the oxen, & they draue them before his cattel, and ſaid, This is Dauids [k]praye.
21 ¶ And Dauid came to the two hundreth men that were to wearie for to followe Dauid: whome they had made alſo to abide at the riuer Beſor: and they came to mete Dauid, and to mete the people that were with him: ſo when Dauid came nere to the people, he ſaluted them.
22 Then anſwered all the euil and wicked of the men that went with Dauid, and ſaid, Becauſe they went not with vs, therefore wil we giue them none of the praye, that we haue recouered, ſaue to euery man his[l] wife and his children: therefore let them cary them away & departe.
23 Then ſaid Dauid, Ye ſhal not do ſo, my brethren, with that which the Lord hathe giuen vs, who hathe preſerued vs, and deliuered the companie that came againſt vs, into our handes.

25 [m]So from that day forward hee made it a ſtatute and a lawe in Iſrael, vntil this day.

THE SECONDE BOKE of Samuel.

THE ARGVMENT.

This boke and the former beare the title of Samuel, becawse they conteine the conception, natiuitie and the whole course of his life, and also the liues and actes of two Kings, to wit, of Saul and Dauid, whome he anointed and consecrated Kings by the ordinance of God. And as the first boke conteineth those things, whē God breght to passe among this people vnder the gouernement of Samuel & Saul: so this seconde boke declareth the noble actes of Dauid, after the death of Saul, when he began to reigne, vnto the end of his kingdome: and how the same by him was wonderfully augmented: also his great troubles & dangers, which he susteined both within his house and without: what horrible and dangerous insurrections, vprores, and treasons were wroght against him, partly by false counselers, fained friends & flatterers, & partely by some of his owne children and people. and how by Gods assistance he ouercame all difficulties, & enioyed his kingdome in rest and peace. In the persone of Dauid the Scripture setteth forthe Christ Iesus the chief King, who came of Dauid according to the flesh, and was persecuted on euery side with outward & inward enemies, aswel in his owne persone, as in his mēbers, but at length he ouercometh all his enemies and gaineth his Church victorie against all power both spirituall & temporal: and so reigneth with them, King for euermore.

3 Then Dauid said vnto him, Whence comest yͤ? And he said vnto him, Out of the hoste of Israel I am escaped.
4 And Dauid said vnto him, What is done? I pray thee, tel me. Then he said, yͤ people is fled frō the battel and many of the people are ouerthrowen, and dead, and also Saul and Ionathan his sonne are dead.

7 And when he loked backe, he sawe me, & called me, & I answered, Here am I.

8 And he said vnto me, Who art ỹ? And I answered him, I am an [c] Amalekite.

9 Then said he vnto me, I pray thee, come vpon me, and slaye me: for anguish is come vpon me, because my [d] life is yet whole in me.

10 So [11] I came vpon him, & slewe him, & because I was sure ỹ he colde not liue, after that he had failed, I toke ỹ crowne that was vpon his head, & the bracelet that was on his arme, and broght them hither vnto my lord.

11 Then Dauid toke holde on his clothes, * & rent them, and likewise all the men that were with him.

12 And they mourned & wept, & fasted vntil euen, for Saul and for Ionathan his sonne, & for the people of ỹ Lord, & for the house of Israel, because they were slaine with the sworde.

13 ¶ [e] Afterward Dauid said vnto the yong man that tolde it him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the sonne of a stranger an Amalekite.

14 And Dauid said vnto him, * How wast ỹ not afraied, to put forthe thine hand to destroy the Annointed of the Lord?

17 ¶ Then Dauid mourned with this lamentation ouer Saul, and ouer Ionathan his sonne, 22 The bowe of Ionathan neuer turned backe, nether did the sworde of Saul returne empty frō the blood of the slaine, and from the fat of the mighty.

23 Saul and Ionathan were louely and pleasant in their liues, & in their deathes they were not [k] deuided: they were swifter then egles, they were stronger then lions.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, wepe for Saul which clothed you in skarlet, [l] with pleasures, and hanged ornaments of golde vpon your apparel.

25 How were the mighty slaine in the middes of the battel? ô Ionathan, thou wast slaine in thine hie places.

26 Wo is me for thee, my brother Ionathan: very kinde hast thou bene vnto me: thy loue to me was wonderful, passing the loue of [m] women: how are the mighty ouerthrowen, and the weapons of warre destroyed?

2 So Dauid went vp thither & his two wiues also, Ahinoam the Izreelite, & Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite.

14 Then Abner said to Ioab, Let the yong men now arise, and [h] playe before vs. And Ioab said, Let them arise.

21 Thē Abner said, Turne thee ether to the right hand or to the left, and take one of the yong men, and take thee his [o] weapons: but Asahel wolde not departe from him.

26 Then Abner called to Ioab, & said, Shal the [n] sworde deuoure for euer? knowest thou not, that it wil be bitternes in the latter end? how long then shal it be, or thou bid the people returne from following their brethren?
27 And Ioab said, As God liueth if thou haddest not [o] spoken surely euen in the morning the people had departed euerie one backe from his brother.
28 ¶So Ioab blewe a trumpet, and all the people stode stil, and pursued after Israel nomore, nether foght they anie more.

Baanah and Rechab slaye Ish-bosheth the sonne of Saul. 12 Dauid commandeth them to be slayne.

1 AND when Sauls [a] sonne heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, then his hands were [b] feble, and all Israel was afrayed,

2 And Sauls sonne had two men that were captaines of bands: the one called Baanah, and the other called Rechab the sonnes of Rimmon a Beerothite of the children of Beniamin. (for [c] Beeroth was reckened to Beniamin,

3 Because the Beerothites fled to [d] Gittaim, and soiourned there, vnto this day.)

4 And Ionathan Sauls sonne had a sonne that was lame on his feete: he was fiue yere olde when the tidings came of Saul and Ionathan out of Israel: then his nourse toke him, and fled away. And as she made haste to flee, the childe fell, and began to halt, and his name was Mephibosheth.

5 And the sonnes of Rimmon the Beerothites, Rechab and Baanah, went and came in the heate of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth (who slept on a bed at noone.)

6 And beholde, Rechab & Baanah his brother came into the middes of the house, as they [e] wolde haue wheat, and they [f] smote him vnder the fift rib, & fled.

7 For when they came into the house, he slept on his bed in his bed chamber, & they smote him, and slewe him, & beheaded him, and toke his head, and gate them away through the [g] plaine all the night.

8 And thei broght ỹ head of Ish-bosheth vnto Dauid to Hebron, and said to the King, Beholde ỹ head of Ish-bosheth Sauls sonne thine enemie, who soght after thy life: and the Lord hathe auenged my lord the King this day of Saul and of his seed.

9 Then Dauid answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, ỹ sonnes of Rimmon the Beerothite, & said vnto them, As the Lord liueth, who hathe deliuered my soule out of all aduersitie, Dauid is made King ouer all Israel. 7 He taketh the forte of Zion. 19 He asketh counsel of the Lord. 20 And ouercometh the Philistims twise.

1 THEN * came all the tribes of Israel to Dauid vnto Hebron, & said thus, Beholde, we are thy [a] bones and thy flesh. 1.Chro.11.1.

2 And in time past when Saul was our King, thou leddest Israel in and out: & the Lord hathe said to thee, * Thou shalt feede my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captaine ouer Israel.

3 So all the Elders of Israel came to the King to Hebron: and King Dauid made a couenant with them in Hebron [b] before the Lord: and they annointed Dauid King ouer Israel.

4 ¶ Dauid was thirty yere olde when he began to reigne: & he reigned fourty yere.

5 In Hebron he reigned ouer Iudah * seuen yere, and six moneths: and in Ierusalem he reigned thirty and three yeres ouer all Israel and Iudah.

6 ¶ The King also and his men went to Ierusalem vnto the Iebusites, the inhabitants of the land: who spake vnto Dauid, saying, Except thou take away the [c] blinde and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking ỹ Dauid colde not come thither.

[a] We are of thy kinred, & most nere ioyned vnto thee. Psal.78.71.

[b] That is, taking ỹ Lord to witnes: for the Arke was as yet in Abinadabs house. Chap.2.11.

[c] The children of God called idoles blinde & lame guides: therefore ỹ Iebusites ment, ỹ thei shulde proue ỹ their gods were nether blide nor lame.

7 But

7 But Dauid toke the forte of Zion: this is the citie of Dauid.
8 Now Dauid had said the same day, Whosoeuer smiteth the Iebusites, and getteth vp to the gutters & smiteh the lame & blinde, which Dauids soule hateth, I will preferre him: * therefore they said, The blinde and the lame shal not [d] come into that house.
9 So Dauid dwelt in that forte, and called it the citie of Dauid, and Dauid buylt round about it, frō [e] Millo, and inwarde.
10 And Dauid prospered and grewe: for the Lord God of hostes was with him.
11 ¶ Hiram also King of [f] Tyrus sent messengers to Dauid, and cedar trees, & carpenters, and masons for walles: and thei buylt Dauid an house.
12 Then Dauid knewe, that the Lord had stablished him King ouer Israel, & that he had exalted his kingdome for his people Israels sake.
13 And Dauid toke him mo * concubines & wiues out of Ierusalem, after he was come from Hebron, and mo sonnes and daughters were borne to Dauid.
14 * And these be the names of the sonnes that were borne vnto him in Ierusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Salomon,
15 And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Iaphia, 16 And Elishama, & Eliada, and Eliphalet.
17 ¶ * But when ỹ Philistims heard that they had anointed Dauid King ouer Israel, all the Philistims came vp to seke Dauid: and when Dauid heard, he went downe to a forte.
18 But the Philistims came, & spred thē selues in the valley of Rephaim.
19 Then Dauid [g] asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shal I go vp to the Philistims? wilt thou deliuer them into mine hands? And the Lord answered Dauid, Go vp: for I wil doutles deliuer ỹ Philistims into thine hands.
20 ¶ * Then Dauid came to Baal-perazim, & smote them there, & said, The Lord hathe deuided mine enemies a sondre before me, as waters be deuided asondre: therefore he called the name of that place, [h] Baal-perazim.
21 And there they left their images, and Dauid and his men * burnt them.
22 Againe the Philistims came vp, and spred them selues in the valley of [i] Rephaim.
23 And when Dauid asked counsel of the Lord, he answered, Thou shalt not go vp, but turne about behinde them, and come vpon them ouer against the mulbery trees.
24 And when thou heareſt the noyse of one going in the toppes of the mulbery trees, then remoue: for then shal ỹ Lord go oute before thee, to smite the hoste of ỹ Philistims.

1 The Arke is broght forthe of the house of Abinadab. 7 Vzzah is stricken, and dyeth. 14 Dauid dāceth before it. 16 And is therefore despised of his wife Michal.

1 AGaine Dauid gathered together all the [a] chosen men of Israel, euen thirtie thousand,
2 *And Dauid arose & went with all the people that were with him [b] from Baale of Iudah to bring vp from thence the Arke of God, whose name is called by the Name of the Lord of hostes, ỹ dwelleth vpon it betwene the Cherubims:

5 And Dauid and all the house of Israel [d] played before the Lord on all instruments made of firre, and on harpes, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.
6 ¶ * And when they came to Nachons threshing floore, Vzzah put his hād to the Arke of God, & helde it: for the oxen did shake it.
7 And the Lord was very wrothe with Vzzah, & God [e] smote him in the same place for his faute, and there he dyed by the Arke of God.
8 And Dauid was displeased, because the Lord had [f] smitten Vzzah: & he called the name of the place [g] Perez Vzzah vntil this day.
9 Therefore Dauid that day feared the Lord, and said, How shal the Arke of ỹ Lord come to me?
10 So Dauid wolde not bring the Arke of the Lord vnto him into the citie of Dauid, but Dauid caryed it into the house of Obed-edom [h] a Gittite.
11 And the Arke of the Lord continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite, thre moneths, and the Lord blessed Obed-edom, and all his housholde.

13 And when they that bare the Arke of the Lord had gone six paſes, he offred an oxe, and a fat beast.

14 And Dauid danced before the Lord with all his might, and was girded with a linen [g] Ephod.

15 So Dauid and all the house of Israel, broght the Arke of the Lord [w] shouting, and sounde of trumpet.

16 And as the Arke of the Lord came into the citie of Dauid, Michal Sauls daughter loked through a windowe, & sawe King Dauid leape, and dance before the Lord, & she [h] despised him in her heart.

17 And when they had broght in the Arke of the Lord, they set it in his place, in the middes of the tabernacle that Dauid had pitched for it: then Dauid offred burnt offrings, & peace offrings before the Lord.

18 And assone as Dauid had made an end of offring burnt offrings & peace offrings, he * [i] blessed the people in the Name of the Lord of hostes, 20 ¶ Then Dauid returned to [i] blesse his house, and Michal the daughter of Saul came out to mete Dauid, and said, O how glorious was the King of Israel this day, which was vncouered to day in the eyes of the maidens of his seruants, as a foole vncouereth him selfe.

21 Then Dauid said vnto Michal, [k] it was b efore the Lord, which chose me rather then thy father, & all his house, and commanded me to be ruler ouer all the people of the Lord, euen ouer Israel: and therefore wil I play before the Lord,

3 Then Nathan said vnto the King, Go, and do all that is in thine heart: for the Lord is with thee.

4 ¶ And the same night the worde of the Lord came vnto Nathan, saying,

5 Go, and tel my seruant Dauid, Thus saieth the Lord, [b] Shalt thou buyld me an house for my dwelling?

b Meaning, he shulde not: yet Nathan speaketh according to mās iudgemēt & not by the Spirit of prophetie permitted him.

6 For I haue dwelt in no house since the time that I broght the children of Israel out of Egypt vnto this day, but haue walked in a tent and tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I haue walked with all the children of Israel, spake I one worde with anie of the tribes of [c] Israel when I commaded the iudges to fede my people Israel? or said I, Why buyld ye not me an house of cedar trees?

17 According to all these wordes, & according to all this vision, Nathan spake thus vnto Dauid.
18 Then King Dauid went in, & sate before the Lord, and said, Who am I, ô Lord God, and what is mine house, ỹ thou hast broght me hitherto?

21 For thy wordes sake, & according to thine owne heart hast thou done all these great things, to make them knowen vnto thy seruant.
22 Wherefore thou art great, ô Lord God: for there is none like thee, neither is there anie god besides thee, according to all that we haue heard with our eares.
23 * And what one people in the earth is like thy people, like Israel? whose God went & redemed thē to him selfe, that they might be his people, and that he might make him a name, & do for [i] you great things, and terrible for thy [k] land, ô Lord, euen for thy people, whome ỹ redemeſt to thee out of Egypt, from the [l] nacions, and their gods?

25 Now therefore, ô Lord God, confirme for euer the worde that thou hast spoken concerning thy seruant and his house, and do as thou hast said.
26 And let thy Name be magnified for euer by them that shal say, The Lord of hostes is the God ouer Israel: and let the [n] house of thy seruant Dauid be stablished before thee.

7 And Dauid toke the shields of golde that belonged to the seruants of Hadadézer, and broght them to [e] Ierusalem.
8 And out of Betah, and Berothai (cities of Hadadezer) Dauid broght exceding muche brasse.
9 ¶ Then Toi King of [] Hamah heard how Dauid had smitten all the hoste of Hadadézer, 10 Therefore Toi sent Ioram his sonne vnto King Dauid, [] to salute him, and to [*] reioyce with him because he had foght against Hadadézer, and beaten him (for Hadadézer had warre w̄ Toi) who [*] broght w̄ him vessels of siluer, & vessels of golde, & vessels of brasse.

CHAP. XI.

1 The citie Rabbah is besieged. 4 Dauid committeth adulterie. 17 Vriah is slaine. 27 Dauid marieth Bath-sheba.

1 AND when the yere was [a] expired in the time when Kings go forthe to battel, Dauid sent * Ioab, and his seruants with him, & all Israel, who destroyed the children of Ammon, & besieged Rabbah: but Dauid remained in Ierusalem.

2 ¶ And when it was euening tide, Dauid arose out of his [b] bed, and walked vpon the roofe of the Kings palace: and from the roofe he sawe a womā washing her selfe: & the woman was very beautiful to loke vpon.

3 And Dauid sent & inquired what woman it was: & one said, Is not this Bethsheba the daughter of Eliam, wife to Vriah the [c] Hittite?

4 Then Dauid sent messengers, and toke her away: and she came into him & he lay with her: (now she was * purified from her vnclennes) and she returned vnto her house.

5 And the woman conceiued: therefore she sent & [d] tolde Dauid, and said, I am with childe.

6 ¶ Then Dauid sent to Ioab, saying, Send me Vriah the Hittite. And Ioab sent Vriah to Dauid.

7 And when Vriah came vnto him, Dauid demanded him how Ioab did, and how the people fared, and how the warre prospered.

8 Afterwarde Dauid said to Vriah, [e] Go downe to thine house, and wash thy feete. So Vriah departed out of the Kings palace, & the King sent a present after him.

9 But Vriah slept at the dore of ỹ Kings palace with all the seruants of his lord, and went not downe to his house.

10 Then they tolde Dauid, saying, Vriah went not downe to his house: & Dauid said vnto Vriah, Comest thou not frō thy iourney? why didest thou not go downe to thine house?

11 Then Vriah answered Dauid, [f] The Arke of Israel, and Iudah dwel in tents: & my lord Ioab and the seruants of my lord abide in the opē fields: shal I then go into mine house to eat and drinke, and lie with my wife? by thy life, and by the life of thy soule, I wil not do this thing.

12 Then Dauid said vnto Vriah, Tarye yet this daye, and tomorowe I wil send thee awaie. So Vriah abode in Ierusalē that day, and the morowe, 13 Thē Dauid called hī, & he did eat & drinke before hī, & he made him [g] drōke: & at euen he went out to lie on his couche with the seruants of his lord, but went not downe to his house.

14 And on the morowe Dauid wrote a letter to Ioab, and sent it by the hand of Vriah.

15 And he wrote "thus in the letter, [h] Put ye Vriah in the forefrōte of ỹ strength of the battel, & recule ye backe from him, that he may be smitten, and dye.

assigned Vriah vnto a place, where he knewe that strong men were.
17 And the men of the citie came out, & fought with Ioab: & there fell of ý people of the seruants of Dauid, & Vriah ý Hittite also dyed.
18 Then Ioab sent and tolde Dauid all ý things concerning the warre.
19 ¶ And he charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the warre vnto ý King, 20 [n] And if the King angre arise, so that he say vnto thee, Wherefore approched ye vnto the citie to fight? knewe ye not that they wolde hurle from the wall?
21 Who smote Abimelech sonne of [i] Ierubbeheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a milstone vpon him from ý wall, and he dyed in Thebez? why went you nye the wall? Then say thou, Thy seruant Vriah the Hittite is also dead.
22 ¶ So the messenger went, and came & shewed Dauid all ý Ioab had sent him for.
23 And the messenger said vnto Dauid, Certeinly the men preuailed against vs, & came out vnto vs into the field, but we [o] pursued them vnto the entring of the gate.
24 But the shooters shot from the wall against thy seruats, and some of ý Kings seruants be dead: and thy seruant Vriah the Hittite is also dead.
25 Then Dauid said vnto the messenger, [k] Thus shalt thou say vnto Ioab, Let not this thing trouble thee: for ý sworde deuoureth [o] one aswel as another: make thy battel more strong against the citie & destroy it, and encourage thou him.
26 ¶ And when the wife of Vriah heard that her husband Vriah was dead, she mourned for her husband.
27 So when the mourning was past, Dauid sent & toke her into his house, and she became his wife, & bare him a sonne: but the thing that Dauid had done, [p] displeased the Lord.

CHAP. XII.

Dauid reproued by Nathan confesseth his sinne. 18 The childe conceiued in adulterie dyeth. 24 Salomon is borne. 26 Rabbah is take. 31 The citizens are grieuously punished.

1 THen the Lord [a] sent Nathan vnto Dauid, who came to him, and said vnto him, There were two men in one citie, the one riche, and the other poore.
2 The riche man had exceding many shepe and oxen:
3 But the poore had none at all, saue one litle shepe which he had boght, & nourished vp: and it grewe vp with him, & with his children also, and did eat of his owne morsels, and dranke of his owne cup, and slept in his bosome, and was vnto him as his daughter.
4 Now there came a [n] stranger vnto the riche man, who [n] refused to take of his owne shepe, & of his owne oxen to dresse for the stranger that was come vnto him, but toke the poore mans shepe, & dressed it for the man that was come to him.
5 Then [o] Dauid was exceding wrothe w the man, & said to Nathan, As ý Lord liueth, the man ý hathe done this thing, [o] shal surely dye
6 And he shal restore the lambe * foure folde, because he did this thing, & had no pitie thereof.
7 Then Nathan said to Dauid, Thou art the man. Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, * I anointed thee King ouer Israel, & deliuered thee out of the hand of Saul,
8 And gaue thee thy lords [b] house, & thy lords [c] wiues into thy bosome, and gaue thee the house of Israel, and of Iudah, & wolde moreouer (if that had bene to litle) haue giuen thee [d] suche & suche things.
9 Wherefore hast thou despised the cõmandement of the Lord, to do euil in his sight? thou hast killed Vriah the Hittite with the sworde, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slaine him with the sworde of the [e] children of Ammon.
10 Now therefore the sworde shal neuer departe from thine house, because thou hast despised me, and taken the wife of Vriah the Hittite to be thy wife.
11 Thus saith the Lord, Beholde, I wil raise vp euil against thee out of thine owne house, & wil * take thy wiues before thine eyes, & giue them vnto thy neighbour, & he shal lye with thy wiues in the sight of this [f] sunne.
12 For thou dideſt it secretly: but I wil do this thing before all Israel, & before the sunne.
13 Then Dauid said vnto Nathan, * I haue sinned against the Lord. And Nathan said vnto Dauid, The Lord also hathe [g] put away thy sinne, thou shalt not dye.
14 Howbeit because by this dede ý hast caused the enemies of ý Lord to [h] blaspheme, the childe that is borne vnto thee shal surely dye.
15 ¶ So Nathan departed vnto his house: and the Lord stroke the childe that Vriahs wife bare vnto Dauid, and it was sicke.

17 Then the Elders of his house arose to come vnto him, and to cause him to rise from the grounde: but he wolde not, neither did he eat [k] meat with them.

18 So on the seuenth day the childe dyed: & the seruants of Dauid feared to tel him that the childe was dead: for thei said, Beholde, while the childe was aliue, we spake vnto him, & he wolde not hearken vnto our voyce: how then shal we say vnto him, The childe is dead, "to vexe him more?

19 But when Dauid sawe that his seruāts whispered, Dauid perceiued ỹ the childe was dead: therefore Dauid said vnto his seruants, Is the childe dead? And thei said, He is dead.

20 Then Dauid [l] arose from the earth, & washed and anointed him selfe, & changed his apparel, and came into the house of the Lord, and worshipped, and afterward came to his owne house, & bade that thei shulde set bread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then said [m] his seruants vnto him, What thing is this, that thou hast done? thou didest fast and wepe for the childe, while it was aliue, but when the childe was dead, thou dideſt rise vp, & eat meat.

22 And he said, While ỹ childe was yet aliue, I fasted, and wept: for I said, Who can tel whether God wil haue mercie on me, that the childe may liue?

23 But now being dead, wherefore shulde I now fast? [n] Can I bring him againe anie more? I shal go to him, but he shal not returne to me.

24 ¶ And Dauid comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in vnto her, and lay with her, and she bare a sonne, [o] & he called his name Salomon: also ỹ Lord loued him.

25 For the Lord had sēt by Nathā ỹ [p] Prophet: therefore ¶ * he called his name Iedidiah, because the Lord loued him.

26 Then Ioab foght against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and toke the [q] citie of the kingdome, 27 Therefore Ioab sent messēgers to Dauid, saying, I haue foght against Rabbah, and haue taken the citie of [r] waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and besiege the citie, ỹ thou maiest take it, lest "the victorie be attributed to me.

29 So Dauid gathered all the people together, and went against Rabbah & besieged it and toke it.

30 *And he toke their Kings crowne frō his head, (which wayed a [s] talent of golde, with precious stones) and it was set on Dauids head: and he brought away the spoile of the citie in exceding great abundance.

31 And he caryed away the people that was therein, & put them vnder [t] sawes, and vnder yron harowes, & vnder axes of yron, & cast them into the tyle kylne: euen thus did he with all the cities of the childrē of Ammon. Then Dauid and all the people returned vnto Ierusalem.

CHAP. XIII.

Amnon Dauids sonne defileth his sister Tamar. 19 Tamar is comforted by her brother Absalom. 29 Absalom therefore killeth Amnon.

1 NOw after this so it was, that Absalom the sonne of Dauid hauing a faire sister, whose name was [a] Tamar, Amnon the sonne of Dauid loued her.

2 And Amnon was so sore vexed, that he fel sicke for his sister Tamar: for she was a [b] virgin, & it semed harde to Amnon to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend called Ionadab, the sonne of Shimeah Dauids brother: and Ionadab was a very subtile man.

4 Who said vnto him, Why art thou the Kings sonne so leane from day to day? wilt thou not tel me? Then Amnon answered him, I loue Tamar my brother Absaloms sister.

5 And Ionadab said vnto him, [c] Lye downe on thy bed, and make thy selfe sicke: and when thy father shal come to se thee, say vnto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and giue me meat, and let her dresse meat in my sight, that I may se it, and eat it of her hand.

6 ¶ So Amnon laye downe, & made him selfe sicke: and when the King came to se him, Amnon said vnto the King, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of [d] cakes in my sight, that I may receiue meat at her hand:

7 Then Dauid sent homē to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnons house, & dresse him meat.

8 ¶ So Tamar went to her brother Amnons house, and he laye downe: and she toke "floure, and knead it, & made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she toke a panne, & [e] powred them out before him, but he wolde not eat. Then Amnon said, Cause ye euery man to go out from [f] me: so euery man went out from him.

18 (And she had a garment of [h] diuers coulers vpon her: for with suche garmēts were the Kings daughters that were virgins, appareled) then his seruant broght her out, & locked the dore after her.

19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, & rent the garmēt of diuers coulers which was on her, and layed her hand on her head, & went her way crying.

20 And Absalom her brother said vnto her, Hathe Amnō thy brother bene with thee? Now yet be [i] styl, my sister: he is thy brother: let not this thing grieue thine heart. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absaloms house.

21 ¶ But when King Dauid heard all these things, he was very wrothe.

22 And Absalom said vnto his brother Amnon nether good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 ¶ And after the time of two yeres, Absalom had shepesherers in [q] Baalhazor, which is beside Ephraim, and [k] Absalom called all the Kings sonnes.

24 And Absalom came to the King & said, Beholde now, thy seruant hathe shepesherers I pray thee, that the King with his seruants wolde go with thy seruant.

25 But the King answered Absalom, Naye my sonne, I pray thee, let vs not go all, lest we be chargeable vnto thee. Yet Absalom laye sore vpon him: howbeit he wolde not go, but [r] thāked him.

26 Then said Absalom, But, I pray thee, shal not my brother [l] Amnon go with vs? And the King answered him, Why shulde he go with thee?

27 But Absalom was instant vpon him and he sent Amnon with him, & all the Kings children.

28 ¶ Now had Absalom commanded his seruats, saying, Mark now when Amnōs heart is mery with wine, and when I say vnto you, Smite Amnon, kil him, feare not, for haue not [m] I commanded you? be bolde therefore, and play the men, 29 And the seruants of Absalom did vnto Amnon, as Absalom had commanded: & all the Kings sonnes arose, and euery man gate him vp vpon his mule, and fled.

30 ¶ And while thei were in the way, tidings came to Dauid, saying, Absalom hathe slayne all the Kings sonnes, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the King arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the [n] grounde, and all his seruants stode by with their clothes rent.

32 And Ionadab the sonne of Shimeah Dauids brother answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they haue slayne all the yong men the Kings sonnes: for Amnon onely is dead, [s] because Absalom had reported so, since he forced his sister Tamar.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the King [t] take the thing so grieuously, to thinke that all the Kings sonnes are dead: [u] for Amnon onely is dead.

34 ¶ Then Absalom fled: & the yong man that kept the watche, lift vp his eyes, and loked, & beholde, there came muche people by the way of the hil side [w] behinde him.

35 And Ionadab said vnto the King, Beholde, the Kings sonnes come: as thy seruant said, [o] so it is.

36 And assone as he had left speaking, beholde, the Kings sonnes came, and lift vp their voyces, and wept: and the King also and all his seruants wept excedingly sore.

37 But Absalom fled away, and went to [p] Talmai the sonne of Ammihur King of Geshur: and Dauid mourned for his sonne euery day.

38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, & was there thre yeres.

39 And King Dauid [x] desired to go forthe vnto Absalom, because he was pacified concerning Amnon, seing he was dead.

the Kings face. 21 The beautie of Absalom. 30 He causeth Ioabs corne to be burnt, and is broght to his fathers presence.

1 THen Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah perceiued, that the Kings [a] heart was towarde Absalom,

2 And Ioab sent to Tekoah, and broght thence a "subtile woman, & said vnto her, I pray thee, faine thy selfe to mourne, and now put on mourning apparel, & [b] anoint not thy selfe with oyle: but be as a woman that had now long time mourned for the dead.

3 And come to the King, and speake of this maner vnto him (for Ioab "taught her what she shulde say)

4 ¶Then the woman of Tekoah spake vnto the King, and fel downe on her face to the grounde, & did obeisance, and said, "Helpe, ô King.

5 Then ỹ King said vnto her, What ayleth thee? And she answered, I am in dede a "widowe, and mine housband is dead:

6 And thine handmayd had two [c] sonnes, & they two stroue together in the field: (and there was none to parte them) so the one smote the other, and slewe him.

7 And beholde, the whole familie is risen against thine handmayd, & they said, Deliuer him that smote his brother, that we may kil him for the [d] soule of his brother whome he slewe, that we may destroy the heire also: so they shal quenche my sparkle which is left, and shal not leaue to mine housband nether name nor posteritie vpon the earth.

8 And the King said vnto the woman, Go to thinehouse, and I wil giue a charge for thee.

9 Then the woman of Tekoah said vnto the King, My lord, ô King, this [e] trespasse be on me, and on my fathers house, & the King and his throne be "giltles.

10 And the King said, Bring him to me that speaketh against thee, and he shal touche thee nomore.

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let ỹ King [f] remember the Lord thy God, that thou woldest not suffer many reuengers of blood to destroy, lest they slaye my sonne. And he answered, As the Lord liueth, there shal not one heere of thy sonne fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, I pray thee, let thine handmaid speake a worde to my lord the King. And he said, Say on.

13 Then ỹ woman said, Wherefore then hast thou [g] thoght suche a thing against the people of God? or why doeth the King, as one which is fautie, speake this thing, that he wil not bring againe his banished.

14 For we must nedes dye, & we are as water spilt on the grounde, which can not be gathered vp againe: nether doeth God "spare anie persone, yet doeth he appoint [h] meanes, not to cast out from him, him that is expelled.

15 Now therefore that I am come to speake of this thing vnto my lord the King, the cause is, that ỹ people [i] haue made me afraide: therefore thinke handmaid said, Now wil I speake vnto the King: it may be that the King wil performe the requeste of his handmaid.

16 For the King wil heare, to deliuer his handmaid out of the hand of the man that wolde destroye me, and also my sonne from the inheritance of God.

17 Therefore thine hādmaid said, The worde of my lord the King shal now be "comfortable: for my lord the King is euen as an [k] Angel of God in hearing of good & bad: therefore the Lord thy God be with thee.

18 Then the King answered, and said vnto the woman, Hide not frō me, I pray thee, the thīg that I shal aske thee. And the woman said, Let my Lord ỹ King now speake.

19 And the King said. Is not [l] the hād of Ioab with thee in all this? Thē the woman answered, & said, As thy soule liueth, my lord the King, I wil not turne to the right hand nor to the left from ought that my lord the King hathe spoken: for euen thy seruāt Ioab bade me, & he put all these wordes in the mouthe of thine handmaid.

20 For to the intent that I shulde [m] change the forme of speache, thy seruant Ioab hathe done this thing: but my lord is wise according to the wisdome of an Angel of God to vnderstand all things that are in the earth.

21 ¶And the King said vnto Ioab, Beholde now, I haue [n] done this thing: go then, & bring the yong man Absalom againe.

22 And Ioab fel to the grounde on his face, and bowed him selfe, and "thanked the King. Then Ioab said, This day thy seruant knoweth, that I haue founde grace in thy sight, my lord the King, in that the King hathe fulfilled the requeste of his seruant.

23 ¶And Ioab arose, and went to Gesshur, and broght Absalom to Ierusalem.

24 And the King said, Let him [o] turne to his owne house, and not se my face. So Absalom turned to his owne house, and saw not the Kings face.

25 Now in all Israel there was none to be so muche praised for beautie as Absalom: from the sole of his foote euen to the top of his head there was no blemish

The practiſes of Absalom to aſpire to the kingdome. 14 Dauid and his flee. 31 Dauids prayer. 34 Huſhai is ſent to Absalom to diſcouer his counſel.

1 AFter this, Absalom [s] prepared him charets and horſes, & fiftie men to [a] runne before him.
2 And Absalom roſe vp early, and ſtode beside the entring in of the gate: & euerie man that had anie [n] matter, & came to the King for iudgement, him did Absalom call vnto him, and ſaid, Of what citie art thou? And he anſwered, Thy ſeruant is of one of the [b] tribes of Iſrael.
3 Then Absalom ſaid vnto him, Se thy matters are good & righteous. but there is no man deputed of the King to heare thee.
4 Absalom ſaid moreouer, [c] Oh that I were made iudge in the land, that euerie man which hathe anie matter or controuerſie, might come to me, that I might do him iuſtice.
5 And when anie man came nere to him, and did him obeiſance, he put forthe his hand, and toke him, and kiſſed him.
6 And on this maner did Absalom to all Iſrael, that came to the King for iudgement: ſo Absalom [d] ſtale the heartes of the men of Iſrael.
7 ¶ And after [e] fortie yeres, Absalom ſaid vnto the King, I pray thee, let me go to Hebron, and rendre my vowe [ẅ] I haue vowed vnto the Lord.
8 For thy ſeruant vowed a vowe when I remained in Geſhur, in Aram, ſaying, If the Lord ſhal bring me againe in dede to Ieruſalem, I wil [f] ſerue the Lord.
9 And the King ſaid vnto him, Go in peace. So he aroſe, and went to Hebron.
10 ¶ Then Absalom ſent ſpies throghout all the tribes of Iſrael, ſaying, When ye heare the ſounde of the trumpet, ye ſhal ſay, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.
11 ¶ And with Absalom went two hundreth men out of Ieruſalem, that were [g] called: and they went in their ſimplicitie, knowing nothing.
12 Alſo Absalom ſent for Ahithophel the Gilonite Dauids counſeler, from his citie Giloh, while he offred ſacrifices: and the treaſon was great: for the people [*] encreaſed ſtil with Absalom.
13 ¶ Then came a meſſenger to Dauid, ſaying, The hearts of the men of Iſrael are turned after Absalom.
14 Then Dauid ſaid vnto all his ſeruāts that were with him at Ieruſalem, Vp, and let vs flee: for we ſhal not eſcape from [h] Absalom: make ſpede to departe, leſt he come ſodenly and take vs, & bring euil vpon vs, and ſmite the citie with the edge of the ſworde.
15 And the Kings ſeruants ſaid vnto him, Beholde, thy ſeruants are ready to do according to all that my lord the King ſhal [*] appoint.
16 So the King departed and all his houſholde [*] after him, and the King left ten concubines to kepe the houſe.
17 And the King went forthe and all the people after him, and taryed in a [*] place [i] farre of.
18 And all his ſeruants went about him, and all the [k] Cherethites and all the Pelethites and all the Gittites, euen ſixe hundreth men which were come after him from Gath, went before the King.
19 Then ſaid the King to [l] Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore commeſt thou alſo with vs? Returne and abide with the King, for thou art a ſtrāger: departe thou therefore to thy place.

m Meaning, them of his familie.

n God requite thee thy friendſhip and fidelitie.

21 And Ittai anſwered the King, and ſaid, As the Lord liueth, & as my lord the King liueth, in what place my lord the King ſhalbe, whether in death or life, euen there ſurely wil thy ſeruant be.

22 Then Dauid ſaid to Ittai, Come, & go forwarde. And Ittai the Gittite wēt, and all his men, and all the children that were with him.

23 And all the countrey wept with a loude voyce, and [o] all the people went forward, but ỹ King paſſed ouer the brooke Kidron: and all the people went ouer towarde the way of the wildernes.

o To wit, the ſix hundreth men.

24 ¶ And lo, Zadok alſo was there, and all the Leuites with him, [p] bearing the Arke of the couenant of God: & they ſet downe the Arke of God, and Abiathar went [q] vp vntil the people were all come out of the citie.

p Which was the charge of ỹ Kohathites, Nombr. 4.4.

25 Then the King ſaid vnto Zadok, Carie the Arke of God againe into the citie: if I ſhal finde fauour in the eyes of the Lord, he wil bring me againe, & ſhewe me bothe it, and the [r] Tabernacle thereof.

r Or, his tabernacle.

27 The King ſaid againe vnto Zadok ỹ Prieſt, Art not thou a *Seer? returne into the citie in peace, & your two ſonnes with you: to wit, Ahimaaz thy ſonne, and Ionathan the ſonne of Abiathar.

28 Beholde, I wil tarie in the fieldes of the wildernes, vntil there come ſome worde from you to be tolde me.

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar caryed the Arke of God againe to Ieruſalem, and they taried there.

30 And Dauid went vp the mount of oliues and wept as he went vp, and had his head [t] couered, and wēt barefooted: and all the people that was with him, had euerie man his head couered, and as they went vp, they wept.

t With aſhes & duſt in ſigne of ſorrowe.

31 Thē one tolde Dauid, ſaying, Ahithophel is one of them that haue conſpired with Abſalom: and Dauid ſaid, ô Lord, I pray thee, turne the [u] counſel of Ahithophel into fooliſhnes.

u The counſel of the crafty worldelings doeth more harme then the open force of ỹ enemie.

32 ¶ Then Dauid came to the toppe of the mount where he worſhiped God: and beholde, Huſhai the Archite came againſt him with his coate torne, & hauing earth vpon his head.

33 Vnto whome Dauid ſaid, If thou go with me, thou ſhalt be a burthen vnto me.

34 But if thou returne to the citie, and ſay vnto Abſalom, I wil be thy [v] ſeruant, ô King, (as I haue bene in time paſt thy fathers ſeruant, ſo wil I now be thy ſeruant) then thou maieſt bring me the counſel of Ahithophel to noght.

v Thogh Huſhai diſſembled here at the Kings requeſte, yet may we not vſe this example to excuſe our diſſimulacion.

35 And haſt thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the Prieſts? therefore whatſoeuer thou ſhalt heare out of the Kings houſe, thou ſhalt ſhewe to Zadok and Abiathar the Prieſts.

36 Beholde, there are with them their two ſonnes: Ahimaaz Zadoks ſonne, and Ionathan Abiathars ſonne: by them alſo ſhal ye ſend me euerie thing that ye can heare.

37 So Huſhai Dauids friēd went into the citie: and Abſalom came into Ieruſalem.

b Communely there are no viler traitours then they, vnder pretence of friendſhip accuſe others.

3 And the King ſaid, But where is thy maſters ſonne? Then Ziba anſwered the King, Beholde, he remaineth in Ieruſalem: for he ſaid, This day ſhal the houſe of Iſrael reſtore me the kingdome of my father.

4 Then ſaid the King to Ziba, Beholde, thine are all that perteined vnto Mephiboſheth. And Ziba ſaid, "I beſeche thee, let me finde grace in thy ſight, my lord, ô King.

5 ¶ And when King Dauid came to [c] Bahurim, beholde, thence came out a man of the familie of the houſe of Saul, named Shimei the ſonne of Gera: and he came out, and curſed.

hathe deliuered the kingdome into the hand of Absalom thy sonne: and beholde, thou art taken in the wickednes, becausse thou arta murtherer.

9 Then said Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah vnto the King, Why doeth this * dead dogge curse my lord the King? let me go, I pray thee, and take away his head.

1. Sam. 24. 15. & chap. 3. 8.

10 ¶ But the King said, What haue I to do with you, ye sones of Zeruiah: for he curseth, euen becausse the Lord hathe [f] bidden him curse Dauid: who darre then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

[f] Dauid felt ỹ this was the iudgement of God for his sinne, & therefore humbleth him selfe to his rod.

11 And Dauid said to Abishai, & to all his seruants, Beholde, my sonne which came out of mine owne bowels, seketh my life: then how muche more now may this sonne of Iemini? Suffre him to curse: for the Lord hathe bidden him.

12 It may be that the Lord wil loke on [e] mine affliction, and [g] do me good for his cursing this day.

[e] Or, my teares.

[g] Meaning, ỹ the Lord wil send comfort to his when they are oppressed.

13 And as Dauid and his men went by ỹ way, Shimei wẽt by the side of ỹ mountaine ouer against him, and cursed as he went, and threwe stones against him, and cast dust.

14 Then came the King & all the people that were with him weary, and refreshed them selues [h] there.

[h] To wit, at Bahurim.

15 And Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel came to Ierusalem, & Ahithophel with him.

16 And when Hushai the Archite Dauids friend was come vnto Absalom, Hushai said vnto Absalom, [*] God saue the King, God saue the King.

[*] Ebr. Let the King liue.

17 Then Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindenes to thy [i] friend? Why wenteste thou not with thy friend?

18 Hushai then answered vnto Absalom, Nay, but whome the Lord, & this people, and all the men of Israel chuse his will I be, and with him wil I dwell.

19 And [*] moreouer vnto whome shal I do seruice? not to his sonne? as I serued before thy father, so wil I before thee.

20 ¶ Then spake Absalom to Ahithophel, Giue counsel what we shal do.

21 And [k] Ahithophel said vnto Absalom, Go in to thy fathers concubines, which he hathe left to kepe the house: and whẽ all Israel shal heare, that thou art abhorred of thy father, the hands of all that are with thee, shalbe strong.

[k] Suspecting ỹ change of the kingdome, and so his owne ouerthrowe, he giueth suche counsel as might moste hindre his fathers reconciliation: and also declare to the people that Absalom was in hieste autoritie.

22 So they spred Absalom a tent vpon the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his fathers concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel which he counseled in those dayes, was like as one had asked [l] counsel at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel bothe with Dauid and with Absalom.

[a] The wicked are so gredy to execute their malice, that they leaue none occasiõ, that may further the same.

2 And I wil come vpon him: for he is weary, and weake handed: so I wil feare him, and all the people that are with him, shal flee, and I wil smite the King onely,

3 And I wil bring againe all the people vnto thee, and when all shal returne, ([b] the man whome thou seke*s*t being slaine) all the people shalbe in peace.

6 So when Hushai came to Absalõ, Absalom spake vnto him, saying, Ahithophel hathe [*] spoken thus: shal we do after his saying, or no? tel thou?

[*] Or, giuen suche counsel.

7 Hushai then answered vnto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hathe giuen, is not [c] good at this time.

8 For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father, and his men, that they be strong men, and are chafed in minde as a beare robbed of her whelpes in the field: also thy father is a valiant warriar, and wil not [*] lodge with the people.

c Hushai sheweth him selfe faithful to Dauid, in that he reproueth this wicked counsel and purpose.

[*] Or, tary all night.

9 Beholde, he is hid now in some caue, or in some place: and thogh some of them be ouerthrowen at the first, yet ỹ people shal heare, and say, The people that followe Absalom, be [*] ouerthrowen.

[*] Ebr. haue a breache, or ruine.

10 Then he also that is valiant whose heart is as the heart of a liõ, shal [*] shrinke and faint: for all Israel knoweth, that thy father is valiant, and they which be with him, stowte men.

[*] Ebr. melt.

11 Therefore my counsel is, that all Israel be gathered vnto thee, from Dan euen to Beer-sheba as the sand of the sea in nomber, and that thou go to battel in thine owne persone.

12 So shal we come vpon him in some place where we shal finde him, and [*] we wil vpon him as the dewe falleth on the ground: and of all the men that are with him, we wil not leaue him one.

[*] Or, we wil campe against him.

13 Moreouer if he be gotten into a citie, then shal all the men of Israel bring ropes to that citie, and we wil drawe it into the riuer, vntil there be not one smale stone found there.

14 ¶ Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better then the counsel of Ahithophel: for the Lord had [a] determined to destroy the [d] good counsel of Ahithophel, that the Lord might [e] bring euil vpon Absalom.

15 Then said Hushai vnto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, Of this and that maner did Ahithophel and ſ Elders of Israel counsel Absalom: and thus and thus I haue counseled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and shewe Dauid, saying, Tary not this night in the fieldes of the wildernes, but rather get thee [f] ouer, least the King be deuoured & all the people that are with him.

17 ¶ Now Ionathan and Ahimaaz abode by En-[g]rogel: (for they might not be sene to come into the citie) and a maid went, and tolde [g] them, and they went and shewed King Dauid.

18 Neuertheles a yong man sawe them, and tolde it to Absalom: therefore they bothe departed quickly, & came to a mans house in Bahurim, who had a well in his court, into the which they went downe.

19 And [h] the wife toke and spred a couering ouer the welles mouthe, and spred grounde corne thereon, that the thing shulde not knowen.

20 And when Absaloms seruants came to the wife into the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Ionathan? And the woman answered them, They be gone ouer the [i] broke of water. And when they had soght them, and colde not finde thē, they returned to Ierusalē.

21 And assone as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went and tolde King Dauid, and said vnto him, Vp, and get you quickly ouer the water: for [k] suche counsel hathe Ahithophel giuen against you.

22 Then Dauid arose, and all the people that were with him, and they went ouer Iorden [l] vntil the dawning of the day, so that there lacked not one of them, that was not come ouer Iorden.

23 ¶ Now when Ahithophel sawe that his counsel was not followed, he sadled his asse, and arose, and he went home vnto his citie, and put his housholde in ordre, and [m] hanged him selfe, and dyed, and was buryed in his fathers graue.

24 ¶ Then Dauid came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed ouer Iorden, he, and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captaine of the hoste in the stead of Ioab: which Amasa was a mās sonne named Ithra an Israelite, that went in to Abigal the daughter of [n] Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Ioabs mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 ¶ And when Dauid was come to Mahanaim, Shobi the sonne of Nahash out of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the sonne of Ammiel out of Lodebar, and Barzelai the Gileadite out of Rogel, 28 [o] Brought beds, and basens, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barly, and floure, and parched corne & beanes, and lentils, and parched corne.

29 And they brought hony, and butter, and shepe, and chese of kine for Dauid and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, & weary, and thirsty in the wildernes.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 Dauid deuideth his armie into thre partes. 9 Absalom is hanged, slaine, and cast in a pit. 33 Dauid lamenteth the death of Absalom.

1 THen Dauid [a] nombred the people that were with him, & set ouer them captaines of thousands and captaines of hundreths.

2 And Dauid sent forthe the third parte of the people vnder the hād of Ioab, and the third parte vnder the hand of Abishai Ioabs brother ſ sonne of Zeruiah: and the other third parte vnder the hand of Ittai the Gittite. & the King said vnto the people, I wil go with you my selfe also.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not to go forthe: for if we flee away, they wil not regarde vs, nether wil they passe for vs, thogh halfe of vs were slaine: but thou [b] art now worthe ten thousand of vs: therefore now it is better that thou succour vs out of the citie.

4 Then the King said vnto them, What semeth you best, that I wil do. So the King stoode by ſ gate side, and all the people came out by hundreths and by thousands.

5 And the King commanded Ioab and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Entreate the yong man Absalom gently for my sake: and all ſ people hearde when the King gaue all the captaines charge cōcerning Absalom.

6 So the people went out into the field to meete Israel, & the battel was in the [c] wood of Ephraim.

7 Where the people of Israel were slaine before the seruants of Dauid: so there was a great slaughter that day, euen of twentie thousand.

8 For the battel was skattred ouer all the countrey: and the wood deuoured muche more people that day, then did the sworde.

[g] Or, the well of Rogel.

[g] Meaning, the message from their fathers.

[h] Thus God sēdeth succour to his in their greatest dangers.

[i] The Chalde text readeth, now they haue passed ſ Iorden.

[o] God sheweth him selfe moste liberale to his, when they seme to be vtterly destitute.

[a] For certein of ſ Reubenites, Gadites, & of the halfe tribe, colde not beare the insolentie of ſ sonne against the father, & therefore ioyned ẇ Dauid.

[b] Signifying, ſ a good gouernour ought to be so deare vnto his people, that they wil rather lose their liues, then that ought shalde come vnto him.

[c] So called because ſ Ephraimites (as some say) fed their cattel beyonde Iorden in this wood.

9 ¶ Now Absalom met the seruants of Dauid, and Absalom rode vpon a mule, and the mule came vnder a great thicke oke: and his head caught holde of the oke, and he was taken vp betwene the heauen and the earthe: & the mule that was vnder him went away.

‖ This is a terrible example of Gods vengeance against them that are rebels or disobedient to their parents.

10 And one that sawe it, tolde Ioab, saying, Beholde, I sawe Absalom hanged in an oke.

11 Then Ioab said vnto the mā that tolde him, And hast thou in dede sene? why then dideſt not thou there smite him to the ground, and I wolde haue giuen thee ten * shekels, of siluer, and a girdle?

Gen. 23, 15.

12 Then the man said vnto Ioab, Thogh I shulde "receiue a thousand shekels of siluer in mine hand, yet wolde I not lay mine hand vpon the Kings sonne: for in our hearing the King charged thee, and Abishai, & Ittai, saying, Beware, lest anie touche the yong man Absalom.

14 Then said Ioab, I wil not thus tary with thee. And he toke thre dartes in his hand, & thrust them "through Absalom, while hé was yet aliue in the middes of the oke.

15 And ten seruants that bare Ioabs armour, compassed about and smote Absalom, and slewe him.

16 Then Ioab [d]blewe the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Ioab helde backe the people.

d For he had pitie of the people, which was seduced by Absolōs flatterie.

17 And they toke Absalom, and cast him into a great [e] pit in the wood, and layed a mighty great heape of stones vpon him: and all Israel fled euerie one to his tent.

e Thus God turned his vaine glorie to shame.

18 Now Absalom in his life time had taken and reared him vp a piller, which is in the * Kings dale: for he said, I haue no [f] sonne to kepe my name in remembrance: & he called the piller after his owne name, and it is called vnto this day, Absaloms place.

Gen. 14, 17.

f It semeth ỹ God had punished him, in taking away his children, Chap. 14, 27.

19 Then said Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok, I pray thee, let me runne, and beare the King tidings that the Lord hathe "deliuered him out of the hād of his enemies.

"Ebr. iudged.

20 And Ioab said vnto him, Thou [g] shalt not be the messenger to day, but thou shalt beare tidings another time, but to day thou shalt beare none: for the Kings sonne is dead.

g For Ioab bare a good affection to Ahimaaz, & doubted how Dauid wold take the reporte of Absalōs death.

21 Then said Ioab to Cushi, Go, tel the King, what thou hast sene. And Cushi bowed him selfe vnto Ioab, and ran.

22 Then said Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok againe to Ioab, What I pray thee, if I also rūne after Cushi? And Ioab said, Wherefore now wilt thou runne, my sonne, seing that thou hast no tidings to bring?

23 Yet what if I runne? Then he said vnto him, Runne. So Ahimaaz ranne by the way of the plaine, and ouerwent Cushi.

24 Now Dauid sate betwene the two [h] gates. And the watcheman went to the toppe of the gate vpon the wall, & lift vp his eyes, and sawe, and beholde, a man came running alone.

h He sate in the gate of the citie of Mahanaim.

25 And the watcheman cryed, & tolde the King. And the King said, If he be alone, "he bringeth tidings. And he came apase, and drewe nere.

"Ebr. tidings are in his mouthe.

26 And the watcheman sawe an other man running, and the watcheman called vnto the porter, and said, Beholde, another man runneth alone. And the King said, He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watcheman said, "Me thinketh the running of the formost is like the running of Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok. Then the King said, He is a [i] good man, & commeth with good tidings.

"Ebr. Ise the running.

i He had had experience of his fidelitie, Chap. 17, 21.

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said vnto the King, Peace be with thee: and he fel downe to the earth vpon his face before the King, and said, Blessed be the Lord thy God, who hathe [n] shut vp the men that lift vp their hāds against my lord the King.

n Or, deliuered vp.

29 And the King said, Is the yong man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Ioab sent the Kings [k] seruant, and me thy seruant, I sawe a great tumulte, but I knewe not what.

k To wit, Chushi, who was an Ethiopian.

30 And the King said vnto him, Turne aside, & stand here: so he turned aside and stode stil.

31 And beholde, Cushi came, and Cushi said, "Tidings, my lord the King: for the Lord hathe deliuered thee this day out of the hand of all that rose against thee.

"Ebr. tiding is brought.

32 Then the King said vnto Cushi, is the yong man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, The enemies of my Lord the King, & all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that yong man is.

33 And the King was [l] moued, and went vp to the chamber ouer the gate, and wept: & as he went, thus he said, O my sonne Absalom, my sonne, my sonne Absalō: wolde God I had dyed for thee, O Absalom, my sonne, my sonne.

l Because he cōsidered bothe ỹ iudgement of God against his sinne, & colde not otherwise hide his fatherly affection toward his sonne.

teth. 41 Israel striueth with Iudah.

1 And it was tolde Ioab, Beholde, the King wepeth and mourneth for Absalom.

2 Therefore the "victorie of that day was turned into mournig to all the people: for the people heard say that day, The King sorroweth for his sonne.

3 And the people went that day into the citie 'secretly, as people confounded hide them selues when they flee in battel.

4 So the King [a] hid his face, and the King cryed with a lowde voyce, My sonne Absalom, Absalom my sonne, my sonne.

5 ¶ Then Ioab came into [b] the house to the King & said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy seruants, which this day haue saued thy life, and the liues of thy sonnes and of thy daughters, and the liues of thy wiues, and the liues of thy concubines,

6 In that thou louest thine enemies, & hatest thy friendes: for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest nether thy 'princes nor seruants: therefore this day I perceiue, that if Absalom had liued, and we all had dyed this day, that then it wolde haue" pleased thee wel.

7 Now therefore vp, come out, and speake "comfortably vnto thy seruats: for I sweare by the Lord, except thou come out, there wil not tary one man with thee this night: and ẏ wil be worse vnto thee, then all the euil that fel on thee from thy youthe hetherto.

8 Then the King arose, & sate in thee [c] gate: and they tolde vnto all the people, saying, Beholde, the King doeth sit in the gate: & all the people came before the King: for Israel had fled euerie man to his tent.

9 ¶ Then all the people were at [d] strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The King saued vs out of the hand of our enemies, & he deliuered vs out of the hand of the Philistims, and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom.

10 And Absalom, whome we anointed ouer vs, is dead in battel: therefore why are ye so slowe to bring the King againe?

11 But King Dauid sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the [e] Priests, saying, Speake vnto the Elders of Iudah and say, Why are ye behind to bring the King againe to his house, (for the saying of all Israel is come vnto the King, euen to his house)

12 Ye are my brethren: my bones and my flesh are ye: wherefore then are ye the last that bring the King againe?

13 Also say ye to Amasa, Art thou not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me and more also, if thou be not captaine of the hoste to me for euer in the [f] roume of Ioab.

14 So he bowed the heartes of all the men of Iudah, as of one man: therefore they sent to the King, saying, Returne thou with all thy seruants.

15 ¶ So the King returned, & came to Iorden. And Iudah came to Gilgal, for to go to meete the King, & to conduct him ouer Iorden.

16 ¶ And [g] Shimei the sonne of Gera: the sonne of Iemini, which was of Bahurim, hasted & came downe with the men of Iudah to meete King Dauid, 17 And a thousand men of Beniamin with him, and * Ziba the seruant of the house of Saul, and his fiftene sonnes and twentie seruants with him: and they wẽt ouer Iorden before the King.

18 And there went ouer a bote to carie ouer the Kings housholde, and to do him pleasure. Thẽ Shimei the sonne of Gera fel before the King, when he was come ouer Iorden, 19 And said vnto the King, Let not my lord impute * wickednes vnto me, nor remember the thing that thy seruãt did [h] wickedly when my Lord the King departed out of Ierusalem, that the King shulde take it to his heart.

20 For thy seruant doeth knowe, that I haue done amisse: therefore beholde, I am the first this day of all the house of [i] Ioseph, that am come to go downe to meete my lord the King.

21 But Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah answered, and said, Shal not Shimei dye for this, because he cursed the Lords anointed?

22 And Dauid said, What haue I to do with you, ye sonnes of Zeruiah, that this day ye shulde be aduersaires vnto me? shal there anie man dye this day in Israel? for do not I knowe, that I am this day King ouer Israel?

23 Therefore the King said vnto Shimei, Thou shalt not dye, and the King sware vnto him.

24 ¶ And Mephibosheth the sonne of Saul came downe to meete the King, and had nether washed his feete, nor dressed his bearde, nor washed his clothes from the time the King departed, vntil he returned in peace.

25 And when [k] he was come to Ierusalẽ, & met the King, the King said vnto him, Wherefore wenteest not thou with me, Mephibosheth?

26 And he answered, My Lord the King, my seruant disceiued me: for thy seruant said, I wolde haue mine asse sadled to ride thereon for to go with the King, because thy seruant is lame.

29 And the King said vnto him, Why speakest thou anie more of thy matters? I haue said, Thou, and Ziba deuide the [n] lands.

30 And Mephibosheth said vnto the King, Yea, let him take all, seing my lord the King is come home in peace.

31 ¶ Then Barzillai the Gileadite came downe frō Rogelim, and went ouer Iorden with the King, to conduct him ouer Iorden.

32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, euen fourescore yere olde, and he had prouided the King of sustenance, while he lay at Mahanaim: for he was a man of very great substance.

33 And the King said vnto Barzillai, Come ouer with me, & I wil feede thee with me in Ierusalem.

34 And Barzillai said vnto the King, [o] How long haue I to lyue, that I shulde go vp with the King to Ierusalem?

35 I am this day fourescore yere olde: and can I discerne betwene good or euil? Hathe thy seruant anie taste in that I eat or in that I drinke? Can I heare anie more the voice of singing men and women? wherefore then shulde thy seruant be anie more a [p] burthen vnto my lord the King?

36 Thy seruant wil go a litle way ouer Iorden with the King, and why wil the King recompence it me with suche a reward?

37 I pray thee, let thy seruant turne backe againe, that I may dye in mine owne citie, and be buryed in the graue of my father and of my mother: but beholde thy seruant [p] Chimham, let him go with my lord ỹ King, & do to him what shal please thee.

38 And the King answered, Chimhā shal go with me, and I wil do to him ỹ thou shalt be cōtent with: & whatsoeuer thou shalt [q] require of me, that wil I do for thee.

39 So all the people went ouer Iorden: and the King passed ouer: and the King kissed Barzillai, and [r] blessed him, and he returned vnto his owne place.

40 ¶ Then the King went to [s] Gilgal, and Chimham went with him, and all the people of Iudah conducted the King, and also halfe the people of [t] Israel.

41 And beholde, all the men of Israel came to the King, & said vnto the King, Why haue our brethren the men of Iudah stolen thee away, and haue brought the King and his housholde, and all Dauids men with him ouer [t] Iorden?

42 And all the men of Iudah answered the men of Israel, Because the King is nere of kin to vs: and wherefore now be ye angry for this matter? haue we eaten of the Kings cost, or haue we taken anie bribes?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Iudah, and said, We haue ten partes in the King, and haue also more right to Dauid then ye, Why then did ye despise vs, [u] that our aduise shulde not be first had in restoring our King? And the wordes of the men of Iudah were fearcer thē the wordes of the men of Israel.

CHAP. XX.

1 Sheba raiseth Israel against Dauid. 10 Ioab killeth Amasa traiterously. 22 The head of Sheba is deliuered to Ioab. 23 Dauids chief officers.

1 THen there was come [a] thither a wicked man (named Sheba ỹ sonne of Bichri, a man of Iemini) and he blewe the trumpet, and said, We haue no parte in [b] Dauid, nether haue we inheritance in the sonne [c] of Ishai: euery man to his tents, ô Israel.

2 So euery man of Israel went from Dauid and followed Sheba ỹ sonne of Bichri: but the mē of Iudah claue fast vnto their King, from [d] Iorden euen to Ierusalem.

3 When Dauid then came to his house to Ierusalem, the King toke the ten women his * concubines, that he had left behinde him to kepe the house, & put them in warde, and fed them, but lay no more with them: but they were enclosed vnto the day of their death, liuing in widowhode.

4 ¶ Then said the King to [e] Amasa, Assemble me the mē of Iudah within thre daies, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble Iudah, but he taried longer then the time which he had appointed him.

6 Then Dauid said to Abishai, Now shal Sheba the sonne of Bichri do vs more harme then did Absalom: take thou therefore thy [f] lords seruants and follow after him, lest he get him walled cities, & escape vs.

9 And he deliuered them vnto the hāds of the Gibeonites, which hāged them in the mountaine before the Lord: so they [n]dyed all seuen together, and they were slaine in ỹ time of harueſt: in the [g] firſt dayes, & in the beginning of braly harueſt.

10 Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah toke [h] sackloth & hanged it vp for her vpon ỹ rocke, from ỹ beginning of harueſt, vntil [i] water dropped vpon them from the heauen, and suffred nether the birdes of the aire to [n]light on them by day, nor beastes of the field by night.

11 ¶ And it was tolde Dauid, what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah the concubine of Saul had done.

12 And Dauid went and toke the bones of Saul and the bones of Ionathan his sonne from the citizens of Iabesh Gilead, ẅ had stollen them from the strete of Bethshan, where ỹ Philistims had *hanged them, when the Philistims had slaine Saul in Gilboa.

13 So he broght thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Ionathā his sonne, and thei gathered the bones of them ỹ were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and of Ionathā his sonne buryed they in the countrei of Beniamin in Zelah, in the graue of Kish his father: and when they had performed all that the King had commāded, God was then [k] appeased with the land.

15 ¶ Againe the Philistims had warre ẅ Israel: and Dauid went downe, and his seruants with him, and they foght against the Philistims, and Dauid fainted.

16 Then Ishi-benob which was of the sonnes of [l] Haraphah (the head of whose speare wayed thre hundreth [m] shekels of brasse) euē he being girded with a newe sworde, thoght to haue slaine Dauid.

18 ¶ And after this also there was a battel with the Philistims at [o] Gob, then Sibbechai the Hushathite slewe Saph, which was one of the sonnes of Haraphah.

19 ¶ And there was yet another battel in Gob with the Philistims, where Elhanah the sonne of Iaare-oregim, a Bethlehemite slewe [p] Goliath the Gittite: the staffe of whose speare was like a weauers beame.

20 Afterwarde there was also a battel in Gath, where was a man of a great stature, and had on euerie hand six fingers, and on euerie foote six toes, foure and twentie in nomber: who was also the sonne of Haraphah.

21 And when he reuiled Israel, Ionathan the sonne of *Shima the brother of Dauid slewe him.

22 These foure were borne to Haraphah in Gath, and dyed by the hand of Dauid and by the hands of his seruants.

1 AND Dauid spake the wordes of this [a] song vnto the Lord, what time the Lord had deliuered him out of the hands of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 Dauid causeth the people to be nombred. 10 He repenteth, and chuseth to fall into Gods hand. 15 Seuentie thousand perish with the pestilence.

1 AND the wrath of the Lord was [a] againe kindled against Israel, and [b] he moued Dauid against them, in that he said, Go, nomber Israel and Iudah.

2 For the King said to Ioab the captaine of the hoste, which was with him, Go spedeli now through all ý tribes of Israel from Dan euen to Beer-sheba and nomber ye the people, that I may knowe the [c] nomber of the people.

3 And Ioab said vnto the King, The Lord thy God increase the people an hundreth folde mo then they be, and ý the eyes of my lord the King maye se it: but why doeth my lord the King desire this thing?

4 Notwithstanding the Kings worde preuailed against Ioab & against ý captaines of the hoste: therefore Ioab & the captaines of the hoste went out from the presence of the King, to nomber the people of Israel.

5 ¶ And they passed ouer Iorden, and pitched in Aroer at the right side of the citie that is in the middes of the [n] valley of Gad and toward Iazer.

6 Then thei came to Gilead, and to [n] Tahtim-hodshi, so they came to Dan Iaan, & so about to Zidon,

7 And came to the fortereſſe of Tyrus and to all the cities of the Hiuites and of the Canaanites, and went toward the South of Iudah, euen to Beersheba.

8 So when they had gone about all the land, they returned to Ierusalem at the end of nine moneths and twentie dayes.

9 ¶ And Ioab deliuered the nomber and summe of the people vnto ý King: and there were in Israel [d] eight hundreth thousand strong men that drewe swordes, and the men of Iudah were [e] fiue hundreth thousand men.

10 Thē Dauids heart smote him, after ý he had nombred the people: and Dauid said vnto the Lord, I haue sinned exceedingly in that I haue done: therefore now, Lord, I beseche thee, take away the trespasse of thy seruant: for I haue done very foolishly.

11 ¶ And when Dauid was vp in ý morning, the worde of the Lord came vnto the Prophet Gad Dauids [f] Seer, saying, 12 Go, and say vnto Dauid, Thus sayth the Lord, I offre thee thre things, chose thee which of them I shal do vnto thee.

13 So Gad came to Dauid, and shewed him, and said vnto him, Wilt thou that [g] seuen yeres famine come vpon thee in thy land, or wilt thou flee thre moneths before thine enemies, they following thee, or that there be thre daies pestilence in thy land? now aduise thee, and se, what answer I shal giue to him that sent me.

14 ¶ And Dauid said vnto Gad, I am in a wonderful straite: let vs fall now into ý hand of the Lord, (for his mercies are great) and let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel, from the morning euen to the time appointed: and there dyed of the people from [h] Dan euen to Beer-sheba seuentie thousand men.

16 And when the Angel stretched out his hand vpon Ierusalem to destroy it, the Lord *repented of the euil, and said to the Angel that destroyed the people, It is sufficient, [i] holde now thine hand. And the Angel of the Lord was by the threshing place of Araunah the Iebusite.

17 And Dauid spake vnto the Lord (whe he sawe the Angel that smote the people) & said, Beholde, I haue sinned, yea, I haue done wickedly: but these shepe, what haue they [k] done? let thine hand, I praye thee, be against me & against my fathers house.

18 ¶ So Gad came the same day to Dauid, and said vnto him, Go vp, reare an altar vnto the Lord in the threshing floore of Araunah the Iebusite.

19 And Dauid (according to the saying of Gad) went vp, as the Lord had commanded.

20 And Araunah loked, and sawe the King and his seruants comming towarde him, and Araunah went out, and bowed him selfe before the King on his face to the grounde, 21 And [l] Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the King come to his seruant? Then Dauid answered, To bye the threshing floore of thee, for to buylde an altar vnto the Lord, that the plague may cease from the people.

22 Then Araunah said vnto Dauid, Let my lord the King take and offer what semeth him good in his eyes: beholde the oxen for the burnt offring, and charets, and the instruments of the oxen for wood.

23 All these things did Araunah [m] as a King giue vnto the King: & Araunah said vnto the King, The Lord thy God be fauorable vnto thee.

24 Then the King said vnto Araunah, Not so, but I wil bye it of thee at a price, & wil not offer burnt offring vnto the Lord my God of that which doeth cost me nothing. So Dauid boght the threshing floore, and the oxen for [n] fiftie shekels of siluer.

25 And Dauid buylt there an altar vnto the Lord, and offred burnt offrings and peace offrings, & the Lord was appeased toward the land, & the plague ceased from Israel.

THE FIRST BOKE OF the Kings.

THE ARGUMENT

BEcause the children of God shulde loke for no continual rest and quietnes in this worlde, the holy Gost seteth before our eyes in this boke the varietie and change of things, which came to the people of Israel from the death of Dauid, Salomon, and the rest of the Kings, vnto the death of Ahab, declaring how that florishing kingdomes, except they be preserued by Gods protection, (who then fauoreth them when his worde is truely set fourthe, vertue estemed, vice punished and concorde mainteined) fall to decay and come to naught: as appeareth by the diuiding of the kingdome vnder Roboham, and Ieroboham, which before were but all one people, and now by the iuste punishement of God were made two, whereof Iudah and Beniamin clawe to Roboham: and this was called the kingdome of Iudah, and the other ten tribes helde with Ieroboham, and this was called the kingdome of Israel. The King of Iudah had his throne in Ierusalem, and the King of Israel in Samaria, after it was buylte by Amri Ahabs father. And because our Sauiour Christ according to the flesh shulde come of the stocke of Dauid, the geneologie of the Kings of Iudah is here described, from Salomon to Ioram the sonne of Iosaphat, who reigned ouer Iudah in Ierusalem, as Ahab did ouer Israel in Samaria.

CHAP. I.

3 Abishag keepeth Dauid in his extreme age. 5 Adoniiah vsurpeth the kingdome. 30 Salomon is anointed King. 50 Adoniiah fleeth to the altar.

1 NOw when King Dauid was [a] olde, and strikē in yeres, they couered him w clothes, but no [b] heate came vnto him.

a He was about 70 yere olde, 2. Sam. 5, 4.
b For his natural heate was worne away w trauels.

2 Wherefore his seruants said vnto him, Let there be soght for my lord the King a yong virgin, and let her ‖ stand before the King, and cherish him: & let her lye in thy bosome, that my lord ỹ King may get heate.

‖ Or, serue him.

3 So they soght for a faire yong maid throughout all the coastes of Israel, and founde one Abishag [c] a Shunammite, and broght her to the King.

c Which citie was in the tribe of Issachar.

4 And the maid was exceding faire, & cherished the King, and ministred to him, but the King knewe her not.

5 ¶ Then Adoniiah the sonne of Haggith exalted him selfe, saying, I wil be King. And he gate him charets and horsemen, & [d] fifty men to runne before him.

d Read, 1. Sam. 15, 1.

6 And his father wolde not displease him from his [2] childehode to say, Why hast thou done so? And he was a very goodly man, & his mother beare him next after Absalom.

2) Ebr. daies.

7 And [2] he toke counsel of Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah, and of Abiathar the Priest: & they [e] helped forward Adoniiah.

2) Ebr. his wordes were with Ioab.
e They toke his part & followed him.

8 But Zadok the Priest, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and Nathan ỹ Prophet, & Shimei, & Rei, & the men of might w were with Dauid, were not with Adoniiah.

9 Then Adoniiah sacrificed shepe & oxen, and fat cattel by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by ‖ Enrogel, and called all his brethren the Kings sonnes, & all the men of Iudah the Kings seruants,

‖ Or the, fountaine.

10 But Nathan ỹ Prophet, & Benaiah, and the [f] mighty men, and Salomon his brother he called not.

f As the Cherethites & Pelethites.

11 Wherefore Nathan spake vnto Bathsheba the mother of Salomon, saying, Hast thou not heard, that Adoniiah the sonne * of Haggith doeth reigne, and Dauid our lord knoweth it not?

* 2. Sam. 3, 4.

12 Now therefore come, & I wil now giue thee counsel, how to saue thine owne [g] life, and the life of thy sonne Salomon.

g For Adoniiah wil destroy thee and thy sonne, if he reigne.

13 Go, and get thee in vnto King Dauid, & say vnto him, dideſt not thou, my lord, ô King, sweare vnto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Salomon thy sonne shal reigne after me, and he shal sit vpon my throne? why is then Adoniiah King?

14 Beholde, while ỹ yet talkest there w the King, I also wil come in after thee, & [h] confirme thy wordes.

h By declaring suche things, as may further the same.

15 ¶ So Bath-sheba went in vnto the King into the chamber, & the King was very olde, and Abishag the Shunammite ministred vnto the King.

16 And Bath-sheba bowed and made obeisance vnto the King. And the King said, What is thy matter?

17 And she answered him, My lord, thou swarest by the Lord thy God vnto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Salomon thy sonne shal reigne after me, and he shal sit vpon my throne.

i The King being worne w age, cold not attend to the affaires of ỹ realme, & also Adoniiah had many flatterers which kept it from ỹ King.

18 And beholde, now is Adoniiah King, & now, my lord, ô King, thou knowest [i] it not.

not.

19 And he hathe offred many oxen, and fat cattel, and shepe, and hathe called all the sonnes of the King, & Abiathar ý Priest, & Ioab the captaine of the hoste: but Salomon thy seruant hathe he not bidden.

20 And thou, my lord, ô King, knowest ý the eyes of all Israel are on thee, that thou shuldest tel them, who shulde sit on the throne of my lord ý King after him.

21 For els when my lord the King shal slepe with his fathers, I and my sonne Salomon shalbe[k] reputed" vile.

k And so put to death as wicked transgressers. " Ebr. sinners.

22 And lo, while she yet talked with the King, Nathan also the Prophet came in.

23 And they tolde the King saying, Beholde, Nathan the Prophet. And when he was come in to ý King, he made obeisance before the King vpon his face[l] to the grounde.

l Acknowleging him to be ý true & worthy King appointed of God as ý figure of his Christ.

24 And Nathan said, My lord, ô King, hast thou said, Adoniiah shal reigne after me, and he shal sit vpon my throne?

25 For he is gone downe this day, & hathe slaine many oxen, and fat cattel, and shepe, and hathe called all ý Kings sonnes, & ý captaines of the hoste, & Abiathar the Priest: and beholde, they eat & drinke before him, and say, " God saue King Adoniiah.

" Ebr. let the King Adoniiah liue.

26 But me thy seruant, and Zadok the Priest and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and thy seruant Salomon hathe he not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the King, & thou hast not shewed it vnto thy [m] seruant, who shulde sit on ý throne of my lord the King after him?

m Meaning, that he ought in suche affaires enterprise nothing except he had consulted with the Lord.

28 ¶ The King Dauid answered, & said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came into ý Kings presence, and stoode before the King.

29 And the King sware, saying, As ý Lord liueth, who hathe redemed my soule out of all aduersitie, 30 That as I[n] sware vnto thee by ý Lord God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Salomon thy sonne shal reigne after me, and he shal sit vpon my throne in my place, so wil I certeinly do this day.

n Moued by the Spirit of God so to do, because he fore sawe ý Salomon shulde be the figure of Christ.

31 Then Bath-sheba bowed her face to the earth, & did reuerence vnto ý King, & said, God saue my lord King Dauid for euer.

32 ¶ And King Dauid said, Call me Zadok the Priest, and Nathā the Prophet, and Benaiah ý sonne of Iehoiada. And they came before the King.

33 Then the King said vnto them, Take with you the[o] seruants of your lord, and cause Salomon my sonne to ride vpon mine owne mule, & cary him downe to Gihon.

o Meaning, the Kings seruants & suche as were of his garde.

34 And let Zadok the Priest and Nathā ý Prophet anoint him there King ouer Israel, and blowe ye the trumpet, and say, God saue King Salomon.

35 Thē come vp after him, that he may come and sit vpō my throne: and he shal be King in my steade: for I haue " appointed him to be prince ouer Israel and ouer Iudah.

" Ebr. cōmanded.

36 Then Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada answered the King, & said, So be it, & the Lord God of my lord the King" ratifie it.

" Ebr. say so.

37 As the Lord hathe bene with my lord ý King, so be he with Salomon, & exalt his throne aboue the throne of my lord King Dauid.

38 So Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and the Cherethites & the Pelethites went downe, and caused Salomon to ride vpon King Dauids mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39 And Zadok the Priest toke an horne of [p] oyle out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Salomon: and thei blewe the trumpet, and all the people said, God saue King Salomon.

p Where with they accustomed to anoint ý Priestes & ý holy instruments. Exod. 30, 23.

40 And all ý people came vp after him, and the people piped w pipes & reioyced with great ioye, so ý the earth" rang with the founde of them.

" Ebr. brake.

41 ¶ And Adoniiah and all the gestes ý were with him, heard it: (and they had made an end of eating) and when Ioab heard the soūde of the trumpet, he said, What meaneth this noise & vprore in ý citie?

42 And as he yet spake, beholde, Ionathan the sonne of Abiathar the Priest came: & Adoniiah said, Come in: for ý art "a worthy man, and bringest[q] good tidings.

" Ebr. a man of power.

43 And Ionathan answered, and said to Adoniiah, Verely our lord King Dauid hathe made Salomon King.

q He praised Nathā thinking to haue heard comfortable newes, but God wroght things contrary to his expectation, and so did beat downe his pride.

44 And the King hathe sent with him Zadok the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they haue caused him to ride vpon the Kings mule.

45 And Zadok the Priest, and Nathan ý Prophet haue anointed him King in Gihon: and thei are gone vp from thence with ioye, and the citie is moued: this is the noise that ye haue heard.

46 And Salomon also sitteth on the throne of the kingdome.

47 And moreouer ý Kings seruants came [r] to blesse our lord King Dauid, saying, God make the name of Salomon more famous thē thy name, & exalt his throne aboue thy throne: therefore the King worshiped vpon the [s] bed.

r To salute him & to pray & praise God for him.

s He gaue God thankes for the good successe.

48 And thus said the King also, Blessed be be the Lord God of Israel, who hathe made one to sit on my throne this day, euen in my sight.

49 Then all the gestes that were with Adoniiah, were afraied, and rose vp, and went euery man his waye.

50 ¶ And Adoniiah fearing the presence of Salomon, arose and went, and toke holde on the hornes of the [e] altar.

[e] Which Dauid his father had buylt in ỹ floore of Araunah.

51 And one tolde Salomon, saying, Beholde, Adoniiah doeth feare king Salomon: for lo, he hathe caught holde on the hornes of the altar, saying, Let King Salomon sweare vnto me this day, that he wil not slaye his seruant with the sworde.

52 Then Salomon said, If he wil shewe him selfe a worthy man there shal not an heere of him fall to the earth, but if wickednes be found in him, he shal dye.

53 Then King Salomon sent, and they brought him from the altar, and he came and did obeisance vnto King Salomon. And Salomon said vnto him, Go to thine house.

CHAP. II.

1 Dauid exhorteth Salomon, & giueth charge as concerning Ioab, Barzillai, & Shimei. 10 The death of Dauid. 17 Adoniiah asketh Abishag to wife. 25 He is slayne. 35 Zadok was placed in Abiathars roume.

1 THen the dayes of Dauid drewe nere that he shulde dye, and he charged Salomon his sonne, saying,

2 I go the [a] waie of all the earth: be strong therefore, and shewe thy selfe a man,

[a] I am ready to dye, as all men must.

3 And take hede to the [b] charge of the Lord thy God, to walke in his waies, & kepe his statutes, & his commandemẽts, & his iudgements, and his testimonies, as it is written in the Lawe of Moses, ỹ thou maiest * [*] prosper in all that ỹ doest, and in euery thing whereunto ỹ turneste thee,

Deut. 29, 9. Iosh. 1, 7

[*] Or, do wisely.

4 That the Lord may confirme his worde which he spake vnto me, saying, If thy sonnes take hede to their way, that thei walke before me in [c] trueth, with all their hearts, and with all their soules, * [] thou shalt not (said he) want one of thy posteritie vpon the throne of Israel.

5 Thou knoweste also what Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captaines of the hostes of Israel, vnto * Abner the sonne of Ner, and vnto * Amasa the sonne of Iether: whome he slewe, and [d] shed blood of battel in peace, and [e] put the blood of warre vpon his girdle that was about his loynes, & in his shooes that were on his feete.

[d] He shed his blood in time of peace as if there had bene warre.

[e] He put ỹ blody sworde into his sheathe.

6 Do therefore according to thy wisdome, and let thou not his hoare head go downe to the graue in peace.

7 But shewe kindenes vnto the sonnes of * Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among them that eat at thy table: [f] for so they came to me when I fled fro Absalom thy brother.

2. Sam. 19, 31

[f] That is, they delt mercifully with me.

8 ¶ And beholde, with thee * is Shimei the sonne of Gera the sonne of Iemini, of Bahurim, which cursed me with an horrible curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came downe to meete me at Iorden, and I sware to him by the Lord, saying: * I wil not slaye thee with the sworde.

2. Sam. 16, 5

2. Sam. 19, 23

9 But thou shalt not count him innocent: for thou art a wise mã, & knoweste what thou oghteste to do vnto him, therefore thou shalt cause his hoare head to go downe to the graue with [g] blood.

[g] Let him be punish w death. Act. 2, 39. and 13, 36

10 So * Dauid slept with his fathers, and was buryed in the citie of Dauid.

2. Sam. 5, 4

11 And the daies which Dauid * reigned vpon Israel, were fourtie yeres: seuen yeres reigned he in Hebron, and thirty & thre yeres reigned he in Ierusalem.

12 ¶ * Then sate Salomon vpon the throne of Dauid his father, and his kingdome was stablished mightely.

2. Chron. 29, 23

13 And Adoniiah the sonne of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Salomon: and she said, [h] Commest thou peacebly? And he said, Yea.

[h] For she feared lest he wolde worke treason againſt ỹ King.

14 He said moreouer, I haue a sute vnto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 Then he said, Thou knoweste that the kingdome was mine, and that all Israel set [i] their faces on me, that I shulde reigne: howbeit the kingdome is turned away, and is my brothers: for it came to him by the Lord.

[i] In signe of their fauour & consent.

16 Now therefore I aske thee one requeſt, [*] refuse me not. And she said vnto him, Say on.

[*] Ebr. cause not my face to turne away

17 And he said, Speake, I pray thee, vnto Salomon the King (for he wil not say thee naye) that he giue me Abishag ỹ Shunamite to wife.

18 And Bath-sheba said, Wel, I wil speake for thee vnto the King.

19 ¶ Bath-sheba therefore went vnto King Salomon, to speake vnto him for Adoniiah: and the King rose to meete her, and [k] bowed him selfe vnto her, and sate downe on his throne: and he caused a seat to be set for the Kings mother, and she sate at his right hand.

[k] In token of reuerence, and ỹ others by his exãple might haue her in greter honour.

20 Then she said, I desire a smale requeſt of thee, say me not naye. Then ỹ King said vnto her, Aske on, my mother: for I wil not say thee naye.

21 She said then, Let Abishag the Shu-nammite be giuen to Adoniiah thy brother to wife.

22 But King Salomon answered and said vnto his mother, And why doest thou aske Abishag the Shunammite for Adoniiah? aske for him the [l] kingdome also: for he is mine elder brother, and hathe for him bothe Abiathar the Priest, & Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah.

23 Then King Salomon sware by ý Lord, saying, God do so to me & more also, if Adoniiah hathe not spoken this worde against his owne life.

24 Now therefore as the Lord liueth, who hathe established me, and set me on the throne of Dauid my father, who also hathe made me an house, as he *promised, Adoniiah shal surely dye this day.

25 And King Salomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, and he [n] smote him that he dyed.

26 ¶ Then the King said vnto Abiathar the Priest, Go to Anathoth vnto thine owne [o] fields: for thou art [p] worthy of death: but I wil not this day kil thee, because thou [m] bareste the Arke of the Lord God before Dauid my father, & because thou hast suffred in all, where in my father hathe bene afflicted.

27 So Salomon cast out Abiathar from being Priest vnto the Lord, that he might * fulfil the wordes of the Lord, which he spake against the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Ioab: (for Ioab had [n] turned after Adoniiah, but he turned not after Absalom) and Ioab fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, & caught holde on the hornes of the altar.

29 And it was tolde King Salomon, that Ioab was fled vnto the Tabernacle of the Lord, and beholde, he is by the [o] altar. Then Salomon sent Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, saying, Go, fall vpō him.

30 And Benaiah came to the Tabernacle of the Lord, & said vnto him, Thus saith the King, Come out. And he said, Naye, but I wil dye here. Then Benaiah broght the King worde againe, saying, Thus said Ioab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the King said vnto him, Do as he hathe said, and [p] smite him, and burye him, that thou maiest take away the blood, which Ioab shed causeles, from me and from the house of my father.

32 And the Lord shal bring his blood vpon his owne head: for he smote two men more righteous and better then he, & slewe them with the sworde, and my father Dauid knewe not to wit, *Abner the sonne of Ner, captaine of the hoste of Israel, and * Amasa the sonne of Iether captaine of the hoste of Iudah.

33 Their blood shal therefore returne vpon the [q] head of Ioab, and on the head of his sede for euer: but vpon Dauid, & vpon his sede, and vpon his house, and vpon his throne shal there be peace for euer from the Lord.

34 So Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada went vp, and smote him, and slewe him, and he was buryed in his owne house in the wildernes.

35 And the King put Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada in his roume ouer the hoste: and the King set Zadok the [r] Priest in the roume of Abiathar.

36 ¶ Afterwarde the King sent, and called Shimei, and said vnto him, Buylde thee an house in Ierusalem, and dwel there, and departe not thence anie whether.

37 For that day that thou goest out, and passest ouer the riuer of Kidron, knowe assuredly, that thou shalt dye the death: thy blood shalbe vpon thine owne head.

38 And Shimei said vnto the King, The thing is good: as my lord the King hathe said, so wil thy seruant do. So Shimei dwelt in Ierusalem many dayes.

39 And after thre yeres two of the [s] seruants of Shimei fled away vnto Achish sonne of Maachah King of Gath: and thei tolde Shimei, saying, Beholde, thy seruants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose, and sadled his asse, and went to Gath to Achish, to seke his seruants: and [t] Shimei went, & broght his seruants from Gath.

41 And it was tolde Salomon, that Shimei had gone from Ierusalem to Gath, & was come againe.

42 And the King sent and called Shimei, and said vnto him, Did I not make thee to sweare by the Lord, & protested vnto thee, saying, That day that thou goest out, and walkest anie whether knowe assuredly that thou shalt dye the death? And thou saidest vnto me, The thing is good, that I haue heard.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the othe of the Lord, & the commandement wherewith I charged thee?

44 The King said also to Shimei, [v] Thou knowest all the wickednes whereunto thine heart is priuie, that thou didest to Dauid my father: the Lord therefore shal bring thy wickednes vpon thine owne head.

45 And let King Salomon be blessed, & the throne of Dauid stablished before the Lord for euer.

46 So the King commanded Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada: who went out & smote him that he dyed. And the kingdome

2.Chro.1,1

1 SAlomon * then made affinitie with Pharaoh King of Egypt, and toke Pharaohs daughter, and broght her into the a citie of Dauid, vntil he had made an end of buylding his owne house, and the house of the Lord, and the wall of Ieruſalem round about.

Chap.15,5

15 And when Salomon awoke, beholde, it was i a dreame, and he came to Ieruſalem, and ſtode before the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, and offred burnt offrings and made peace offrings and made a feaſt to all his ſeruants.

17 And ỹ one woman ſaid, Oh my lord, I and this woman dwel in one houſe, and I was deliuered of a childe with her in the houſe.

18 And the third day after that I was deliuered, this woman was deliuered alſo: and we were in the houſe together: no ſtranger was with vs in the houſe, ſaue we twaine.

19 And this womans ſonne dyed in the night: for ſhe ouer lay him.

20 And ſhe roſe at midnight, and l toke my ſonne from my ſide, while thine handmaid ſlept, and lay ed him in her boſome, and layed her dead ſonne in my boſome.

21 And when I roſe in the morning to giue my ſonne ſucke, beholde, he was dead: and when I had wel conſidered him in the morning, beholde, it was not my ſonne, whome I had borne.

22 Then the other woman ſaid, Nay, but my ſonne liueth, and thy ſonne is dead: againe ſhe ſaid, No, but thy ſonne is dead, and mine aliue: thus they ſpake before the King.

23 Then ſaid the King, She ſayth, this ỹ liueth is my ſonne, & the dead is thy ſonne: and the other ſaith, Nave, but ỹ dead is thy ſonne, and the liuing is my ſonne.

24 Then the King ſaid, m Bring me a ſworde, and they broght out a ſworde before the King.

25 And the King ſaid, deuide ye the liuing childe in twaine, and giue the one halfe to the one, and the other halfe to the other.

n Her motherly affection herein appeareth ỹ ſhe had rather endure ỹ rigour of the lawe, thẽ ſe her childe cruelly ſlaine.

26 Then ſpake the woman, whoſe the liuing childe was, vnto the King, for her compaſſion was kindled toward her ſonne, and ſhe ſaid, Oh my lord, giue her the liuing childe, and n ſlay him not: but the other said, Let it be nether mine nor thine, but deuide it.

27 Then the King answered, & said, Giue her the liuing childe, and slay him not: this is his mother.
28 And all Israel heard the iudgement, which the King had iudged, and they feared the King: for they sawe that the wisdome of God was in him to do iustice.

7 ¶ And when [c] Hiram heard the wordes of Salomon, he reioyced greatly, and ſaid, Bleſſed be the Lord this day, which hathe giuen vnto Dauid a wiſe ſonne ouer this mightie people.
8 And Hiram ſent to Salomon, ſaying, I haue conſidered the things, for the ẅ thou ſenteſt vnto me, & wil accompliſh all thy deſire, concerning ſ cedar trees and firre trees.

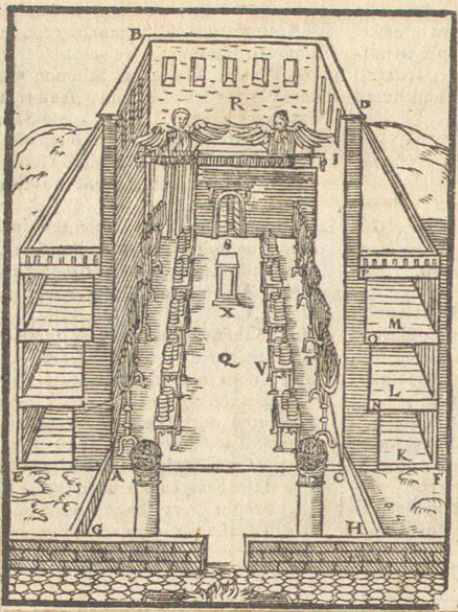
THE TEMPLE VNCOVERED.



The cause why we vncouered and set open the Temple, without setting forthe the wall that is before it, is, that the ordre of those things that are within, might be sene more liuely.

A B. The length of the Temple of threscore cubites.

A C. The breadth of twentie cubites within, & not measuring the thickenes of the walles. This also was the length of the porche without the Temple.

C D. The height of thirtie cubites.

E F. The chambers of the Priests, which compassed about the Temple on thre sides, South, West and North, and were of thre heights.

G H. The length of the porche, ten cubites.

I The windowes of the Temple.

K The first chamber was fiue cubites broad.

L. The seconde six.

M. The third seuen.

NOT. The rests or stayes of the walle, which bare vp the postes that did separate chāber from chāber. On the sowthe side there was a staires by the which they wēt vp to the chambers, but the same can not be sene in this figure by reasone that the perspectiue will not be drawen to it. When as the. 10. verse sayeth that he did buyld a chambre aboue the house, being in height .5. cubites, he doth meane that the chambers about the Temple was fiue cubites high. Q. The holy place. R. 7 And when the house was buylt, it was buylt of stone persit, before it was broght, so that there was nether hammer, nor axe, nor any toole of yron heard in the house, while it was in buylding.

8 The dore of the middle[a] chambre was in the right side of the house, & men went vp with winding steires into the middlemost, and out of the middlemost into the third.

9 So he buylt the[f] house and finished it, & cieled the house being vawted with cieling of cedar trees.

10 And he buylt the galleries vpon all ỹ wall of the house of fiue cubites height, and they were ioyned to the house with beames of cedar.

11 And the worde of the Lord came to Salomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou buyldest, if thou wilt walke in mine ordinances, and execute my iudgements, and kepe all my commandements, to walke in them, then wil I performe vnto thee my promes, [g] which I promised to Dauid thy father. 2. Sam. 7. 13

13 And I [h] wil dwel among the children of Israel, and wil not forsake my people Israel.

14 So Salomon buylt the house and finished it,

16 And he buylt twentie cubites in the sides of the house with bordes of cedre, from the floore to the walles, and he prepared a place within it for the oracle, euen the moste holy place.

19 ¶ Also he prepared the place of the oracle in the middes of the [k] house within, to set the Arke of the couenant of the Lord there.

20 And the place of the oracle within was twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites broad, and twentie cubites hie, and he couered it with pure golde, and couered the altar with cedre.

21 So Salomon couered the house within with pure golde: and he [o] shut the place of the oracle with chaines of golde: & couered it with golde.

22 And he ouerlaied the house with golde [l] vntil all the house was made perfit. Also he couered the whole altar, ý was before the oracle, with golde.

G The two rowes, which compassed the vessel about, and were garnished with bulles heades, wherein were pipes to auoyde the water, 2. Chr. 4. 3.

24 And vnder the brim of it were knoppes like wilde cucumers compassing it rounde about, ten in one cubite, compasing the sea * rounde about: and the two rowes of knoppes were cast, when it was molten.

2. Chr. 4. 3.

25 It stode on twelue bulles, thre loking towarde the North, and thre towarde the West, and thre towarde the South, & thre towarde the East: and the sea stode aboue vpon them, & all their hinder partes were inwarde.

" Or, a spanne.

26 It was " an hand breadth thicke, and the brim thereof was like the worke of the brim of a cup with floures of lillies: it conteined two thousand P Baths.

27 ¶ And he made ten bases of brasse, one base was foure cubites long, and foure cubites broade, and thre cubites hie.

28 ¶ And the worke of the bases was on this maner, They had borders, and the borders were betwene the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were betwene the ledges, were lyons, bulles and Cherubims: and vpon the ledges there was a base aboue: and beneth the lyons, and bulles were addiciõs made of thinne worke.

30 And euery base had foure brasen wheles, and plates of brasse: and the fours corners had "vnder setters: vnder the caldron were vnder setters molten at the side of euery addicion.

31 And ¶ the mouth of it was within the chapiter and aboue to measure by the cubite: for the mouth thereof was rounde made like a base, & it was a cubite & halfe a cubite: & also vpon ỳ mouth thereof were grauen workes, whose borders were foure square, & not rounde.

¶ The mouth of ỳ great base or frame entred into the chapiter, or piller ỳ bare vp the caldron.

32 And vnder the borders were foure wheles, and the axeltrees of the wheles ioyned to the base: and the height of a whele was a cubite and halfe a cubite.

33 And the facion of the wheles was like the facion of a charet whele, their axeltrees, and their naues and their " felloes, & their spokes were all molten.

" Or, rings.

34 And foure vndersetters were vpon the foure corners of one base: & the vndersetters thereof were of the base it selfe.

35 And in the toppe of the base was a rounde [r] compasse of halfe a cubite hie te hie rounde about: and vpon the toppe of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 And vpon the tables of ỹ ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof he did graue Cherubims, lyons and palme-trees, on the side of euery one, and addicions rounde about.

37 Thus made he the ten bases, They had all one casting, one measure, and one syse.

ſ To kepe waters for the vse of ỹ sacrifices.

38 Then made he ſ ten caldrons of brasse, one caldron conteined fourtie Baths: and euery caldron was foure cubites, one caldron was vpon one base throughout the ten bases.

39 And he set the bases, fiue on the right side of the house, & fiue on the left side of the house. And he set the sea on the right side of the t house Eastwarde towarde the South.

t To wit, of ỹ Temple or Sanctuarie.

40 ¶ And Hiram made caldrons, and besomes and basens, & Hiram finished all the worke that he made to King Salomon for the house of the Lord:

41 To wit, two pillers and two bowles of the chapiters that were on the toppe of the two pillers, and two grates to couer the two bowles of the chapiters which were vpon the toppe of the pillers, 42 And foure hundreth pomegranates for the two grates, euen two rowes of pomegranates for euerie grate to couer the two bowles of the chapiters, that were vpon the pillers.

43 And the ten bases, & ten caldrons vpon the bases,

C B Foure cubites broade.
A D Three cubites hight.
E The imbosement and figures of lions, bulles, Cherubims.
F The border of workemanship folding to and fro.
G The foure wheles, which had a cubite and an halfe of height.
H The foure stayes or vpholds, which were vpon the base whereupon the caldron stode.
I The caldron.

44 And the sea, & twelue bulles vnder that sea,

45 And pottes, and besoms and basens: & all these vessels, which v Hiram made to King Salomon for the house of the Lord, were of shining brasse.

v By this name also Hiram the King of Tyrus was called.

46 In the plaine of Iorden did the King cast them in u cley betwene Succoh & Zarthan.

u Or, thicke earth.

47 And Salomon left to weigh all ỹ vessels becausse of the exceding abundance, nether colde the weight of the brasse be counted.

48 So Salomon made all the vessels that perteined vnto the house of the Lord, ỹ x golden altar, and the golden table, whereon the shewbread was, x This was done according to the forme ỹ the Lord prescribed vnto Moses in Exodus.

49 And the candelsticks, fiue at the right side, and fiue at the left, before the oracle of pure golde, and the floures, and the lampes, and the snoffers of golde.

50 And the bowles, y and the hookes, and the basens, & the spoones, & the ashpannes of pure golde, and the hinges of golde for the dores of the house within, euen for the most holy place, and for the dores of the house, to wit, of the Temple.

y Some take this for some instrument of musike.

51 So was finished all the worke that King Salomon made for the house of the Lord, and Salomon brought in the things which * Dauid his father had dedicated: the siluer, and the golde and the vessels, and layed them among the treasures of the house of the Lord.

4 The arke is borne into the Temple. 10 A cloude filleth the Temple. 15 The King blesseth the people.

2.Cor.5,2. 1 THen *King Salomon assembled the Elders of Israel, euen all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel vnto " him in Ierusalem, for to [a] bring vp the Arke of the couenant of the Lord from the citie of Dauid, which is Zion.

" Ebr. Salomon.

a For Dauid broght it from Obed-edom & placed it in § Tabernacle w he had made for it, 2.Sam. 6,17.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled vnto King Salomon at the feast in the moneth of [b] Ethanim, which is the seuenth moneth.

b Conteining part of September and parte of October, in § which moneth they held thre solemne feasts, Nomb.29,1.

3 And all the Elders of Israel came & § Priests toke the Arke.

4 They bare the Arke of the Lord, and they bare the Tabernacle of the Congregacion, & all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle: those did the Priests & Leuites bring vp.

5 And King Salomon and all the Congregacion of Israel, that were assembled vnto him, were with him before the Arke, offring shepe & beeues, which colde not be tolde, nor nombred for multitude.

c That is the Kohathites, Nom.4,5. 6 So the [c] Priests broght the Arke of the couenant of the Lord vnto his place, into the oracle of the house, into the moste holy place, euen vnder the wings of the Cherubims.

7 For the Cherubims stretched out their wings ouer the place of the Arke, and the Cherubims couered the Arke, & the barres thereof aboue.

d They drewe them onely out so farre as they might be sene: for they might not pul thē altogether out, Exod 25,15.

8 And they [d] drew out the barres, that the ends of the barres might appeare out of the Sanctuarie before the oracle, but they were not sene without: and there they are vnto this day.

e For it is like that § enemies, when they had § Arke in their hands, toke away the rod of Aaron and the pot with Man. Exod.40, 34.

9 Nothing was in the Arke [e] saue the two tables of stone which Moses had put there at Horeb, where the Lord made a couenant with the children of Israel whē he broght them out of the land of Egypt.

10 And when the Priests were come out of the Sanctuarie, the * cloude filled the house of the Lord, 11 So that the Priests colde not stand to minister, because of the cloude: for the glorie of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord.

2.Chro.6,1. 12 Then spake Salomon, The Lord *said, that he wolde dwel in the darcke cloude.

f He spake according to the tenor of Gods promes, which was condicionally, that they shulde serue him aright.

13 I haue buylt thee an house to dwel in, an habitacion for thee to abide in for [f] euer.

14 ¶ And the King turned his face, & blessed all the Congregacion of Israel: for all the Congregacion of Israel stode there.

15 And he said, Blessed be the Lord, God of Israel, who spake with his mouth vnto Dauid my father, and hathe with his hand fulfilled it, saying, 16 Since the day that I broght my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no citie of all the tribes of Israel, to buylde an house that my Name might be there: but I haue chosen *Dauid to be ouer my people Israel. 2.Sam.7,11.

17 And it was in the heart of Dauid my father to buyld an house to the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

18 And the Lord said vnto Dauid my father, Where as it was in thine heart to buylde an house vnto my Name, thou dideſt wel, that thou wast so minded:

19 Neuertheles thou shalt not buylde § house, but thy sonne, that shal come out of thy loynes, he shal buylde the house vnto my Name.

20 And the Lord hathe made " good his worde that he spake: and I am risen vp in the roume of Dauid my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and haue buylt the house for the Name of the Lord God of Israel. " Ebr. confirmed.

21 And I haue prepared therein a place for the Arke, wherein is the [g] couenant of the Lord which he made with our fathers, when he broght them out of the land of Egypt.

g The two tables wherein § articles of the couenant were writen.

22 ¶ Then Salomon stode before * the altar of the Lord in the sight of all the Congregacion of Israel, and stretched out his hands towarde heauen, 2.Chron.6,13.

23 And said, *O Lord God of Israel, there is no god like thee in heauen aboue, or in the earth beneth, thou that kepest couenant & mercy with thy seruants that walke before thee with [h] all their heart, 2.Mac.2,8.

h Vnfaynedly and without all hypocrisie.

24 Thou that hast kept with thy seruant Dauid my father, that thou hast promised him: for thou spakest with thy mouth & hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as appeareth this day.

25 Therefore now, Lord God of Israel, kepe with thy seruant Dauid my father that thou hast promised him, saying, * Thou shalt not want a man in my sight to sit vpon the throne of Israel: so that thy childrē take hede to their way, that they walke before me, as thou hast walked in my sight. Chap.2,4.

26 And now, ô God of Israel, I pray thee, let thy worde be verified, which thou spakest vnto thy seruant Dauid my father.

27 [i] Is it true in dede that God wil dwel on the earth? beholde, the heauens, & the heauens of heauens are not able to containe thee: how muche more vnable is this house that I haue buylt.

28 But haue thou respect vnto the prayer of thy seruant, and to his supplicacion, ô Lord, my God, to heare the crye & prayer which thy seruant prayeth before thee this day:

29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house, night and day, euen towarde the place whereof thou hast said, *My name shal be there: that thou mayest hearken vnto the prayer which thy seruant prayeth in this place.

30 Heare thou therefore the supplicacion of thy seruant and of thy people Israel, which pray in this place, and heare thou [l] in the place of thine habitacion, euen in heauen, and when thou hearest, haue mercy.

31 ¶ When a man shal trespasse against his neighbour, and [k] he lay vpon him an othe to cause him to sweare, and [l] the swearer shal come before thine altar in this house,

32 Then heare thou in heauen, and [l] do & iudge thy seruants, that thou condemne the wicked to bring his way vpon his head, & iustifie the righteous, to giue him according to his righteousnes.

33 ¶ When thy people Israel shalbe ouerthrowen before the enemie, becausе they haue sinned against thee, and turne againe to thee, and [m] confesse thy Name and pray and make supplicacion vnto thee in this house, 34 Then heare thou in heauen, and be merciful vnto the sinne of thy people Israel, and bring them againe vnto the land, which thou gauest vnto their fathers.

35 ¶ When heauen shalbe [n] shut vp, & there shalbe no raine becausе they haue sinned against thee, and shal pray in this place, and confesse thy Name, and turne from their sinne, when thou doest afflict them, 36 Then heare thou in heauen, & pardone the sinne of thy seruants and of thy people Israel (when thou hast taught them the good way where in they may walke) and giue raine vpon the land that thou hast giuen to thy people to inherit.

37 ¶ When there shalbe famine in the land, when there shalbe pestilence, when there shalbe blasting mildewe, greshopper or caterpiller, when their enemie shal besiege them in the [o] cities of their land, or anie plague or anie sickenes,

38 Then what prayers, and supplicaciō soeuer shalbe made of anie man or of all thy people Israel, when euerie one shal knowe the plague in his owne [p] heart, & stretch forthe his hands in this house,

39 Heare thou then in heauen, in thy dwelling place, and be merciful, and do, and giue euerie man according to all his wayes, as thou knowest his heart (for thou onely knowest the hearts of all the children of men)

40 That they may feare thee as long as they liue in the land, which thou gauest vnto our fathers.

41 Moreouer as touching the [q] stranger that is not of thy people Israel, who shal come out of a farre countrey for thy Names sake,

42 (When they shal heare of thy great Name, and of thy mighty hand, and of thy stretched out arme) and shal come & pray in this house, 43 Heare thou in heauen thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth for vnto thee: that all the people of the earth may knowe thy Name, & feare thee, as do thy people Israel: and that they may knowe, ỹ thy [r] Name is called vpon in this house ẅ I haue buylt.

44 ¶ When thy people shal go out to battel against their enemie by the way that thou shalt send them, and shal pray vnto the Lord towarde* the way of the citie which thou hast chosen, & towarde the house that I haue buylt for thy Name, 45 Heare thou then in heauen their prayer and their supplicacion, and [s] iudge their cause.

46 If they sinne against thee (*for there is no man that sinneth not) & thou be angry with them, & deliuer them vnto the enemies, so that they carie thē away prisoners vnto the land of the enemies, ether farre or nere,

47 Yet [t] if they turne againe vnto their heart in the land (to the which they be caryed away captiues) and returne and pray vnto thee [u] in the land of thē that caryed them away captiues, saying, We haue sinned, we haue transgressed, and done wickedly,

48 If they turne againe vnto thee with all their heart, and with all their soule [x] the land of their enemies, which led them away captiues, and pray vnto thee towarde [y] the way of their land, which thou gauest vnto their fathers, & towarde the citie which thou hast chosen, and the house, which I haue buylt for thy Name,

49 Then heare thou their prayer and their supplicacion in heauen thy dwelling place, and [z] iudge their cause,

50 And be merciful vnto thy people ỹ haue sinned against thee, & vnto all their iniquities (wherein they haue trāsgressed against thee) and cause that they d For his tribute towarde ý buylding.

e The common talent was about threscore poũde weight.

15 ¶ And this is the cause of the tribute why King Salomon raised tribute, to wit, to buylde the house of the Lord, & his owne house, and [f] Millo, and the wall of Ierusalem, & Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

f Millo was as ý towne house or place of assemblie which was open aboue.

16 Pharaoh King of Egypt had come vp, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, & slewe the Canaanites, that dwelt in the citie, and gaue it for a present vnto his daughter Salomons wife.

23 These were ý princes of the officers, that were ouer Salomons worke: [i] euen fiue hundreth and fiftie, and they ruled ý people that wroght in the worke.

24 ¶ And Pharaohs daughter came vp from the citie of Dauid vnto the house which Salomon had buylt for her: then did he buylde Millo.

25 And thrise a yere did Salomon offer burnt offrings and peace offrings vpon the altar which he buylt vnto the Lord: & he burnt incense vpon the altar, that was before the Lord, when he had finished the house.

26 ¶ Also King Salomon made a nauie of shippes in Ezeon-geber, which is beside Eloth, and the brincke of the red Sea, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent with the nauie his seruants, that were mariners, & had knowledge of the Sea, with the seruants of Salomon.

10 And ſhe gaue the King ſix ſcore talents of golde, and of ſwete odors exceding muche, and precious ſtones. There came no more ſuche abundance of ſwete odors, as the quene of Sheba gaue to King Salomon.

11 The nauie alſo of Hiram (that caried golde frō Ophir) broght likewiſe great plenty of * Almuggim trees from Ophir and precious ſtones.

12 And the King made of the Almuggim trees pillers for the houſe of ỹ Lord, & for the Kings palace, and made harpes & pſalteries for ſingers. There came no more ſuche Almuggim trees, nor were anie more ſene vnto this day.

13 And King Salomon gaue vnto ỹ quene of Sheba, whatſoeuer ſhe wolde aſke, beſides that, which Salomon gaue her " of his kinglie liberalitie: ſo ſhe returned & went to her owne countrey, both ſhe, and her ſeruants.

14 ¶ Alſo the weight of golde, that came to Salomon in one yere, was ſix hūdreth threſcore and ſix * talents of golde, 15 Beſides that he had of marchant men and of the marchandiſes of them that ſolde ſpices, and of all the Kings of Arabia, & of the princes of the [f] countrey.

16 And King Salomon made two hundreth targats of beaten golde, ſix hundreth ſhekels of golde went to a targat.

17 And thre hundreth ſhields of beaten golde, thre pounde of golde went to one ſhield: and the King put them in the *houſe of the wood of Lebanon.

18 ¶ Then the King made a great throne of yuerie, and couered it with the beſt golde.

19 And the throne had ſix ſteps, and the top of the throne was round behinde, & there were [g] ſtayes on ether ſide on ỹ place of the throne, and two lions ſtanding by the ſtayes.

20 And there ſtode twelue lions on the ſix ſteps on ether ſide: there was not the like made in any kingdome.

22 For the King had on the ſea the nauie of Tharſhiſh with the nauie of Hiram: once in thre yere came the nauie of [h] Tharſhiſh, & broght golde and ſiluer, yuerie, & apes and peacockes.

23 So King Salomon exceded all ỹ Kings of the earth bothe in riches and in wiſdome.

1 Salomon hathe a thouſand wiues & concubines, which bring him to idolatrie. 14 His God raiſeth vp aduerſaries againſt him 43 He dyeth.

1 BVt King Salomon loued * many [a] outlandiſh women: bothe the daughter of Pharaoh, & the women of Moab, Ammon, Edom, Zidon and Heth, a Which were Idolaters.

2 Of the nacions, whereof the Lord had ſaid vnto the children of Iſrael, * Go not ye into them, nor let them come in to you: for ſurely they wil turne your hearts after their gods, to thē, I ſay, did Salomon ioyne in loue.

Exod. 34,16

3 And he had ſeuen hundreth wiues, that were [a] princeſſes, and thre hūdreth [b] cōcubines, and his wiues turned away his heart.

a Or, quenes.

b To whome appertained no dowry.

4 For when Salomon was olde, his wiues turned his heart after other gods, ſo ỹ his heart was not [c] perfit with the Lord his God as was the heart of Dauid his father.

c He ſerued not God w a pure heart.

5 For Salomon followed * Aſhtaroth the god of the Zidonians, & [d] Milcom the abominacion of the Ammonites.

Iud. 2,13

d Who was alſo called Molech ver. 7. read. 2. King. 23, 10.

6 So Salomon wroght wickednes in the ſight of the Lord, but continued not to followe the Lord, as did Dauid his father.

7 Then did Salomon buylde an hie place for Chemoſh the [e] abomination of Moab, in the mountaine that is ouer againſt Ieruſalem, and vnto Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon.

e Thus ỹ Scripture termeth, whatſoeuer mā doeth reuerence & ſerue as God.

8 And ſo did he for all his outelandiſh wiues, w burnt incenſe and offred vnto their gods.

9 Therefore the Lord was angri with Salomon, becauſe he had turned his heart from the Lord God of Iſrael, * which had appeared vnto him twiſe,

Chap. 3, 5. & 9, 2

10 And had giuen him a * charge concerning this thing, that he ſhulde not followe other gods: but he kept not ỹ, which the Lord had commanded him.

Chap. 6, 12

11 Wherefore the Lord ſaid vnto Salomon, Forasmuch eas [f] this is done of thee, & thou haſt not kept my couenāt, and my ſtatutes (which I commanded thee) * I wil ſurely rend the kingdome from thee, and wil giue it to thy ſeruāt.

f That thou haſt forſaken me and worſhiped idoles.

Chap. 12, 15

12 Notwithſtanding in thy daies I wil not do it becauſe of Dauid thy father, but I wil rend it out of the hand of thy ſonne.

13 Howbeit I wil not rend all the kingdome, but wil giue one [g] tribe to thy ſonne, becauſe of Dauid my ſeruant, & becauſe of Ieruſalem, which I haue choſen.

g Becauſe ỹ tribes of Iudah & Beniamin had their poſſeſsiōs mixed, thei are here taken as one tribe.

14 ¶ Then the Lord ſtirred vp an aduerſarie vnto Salomon, euen Hadad the Edomite, of the Kings [h] ſeede, which was in Edom.

h Of ỹ King of Edoms ſtocke.

15 *For when Dauid was in Edom, & Ioab the captaine of the hoſte had ſmittē all the males in Edom, & was gone vp to bury the [i] ſlaine, i Of the Edomites.

16 (For ſix moneths did Ioab remaine there, and all Iſrael, til he had deſtroyed all the males in Edom)

17 Then this Hadad [k] fled and certeine other Edomites of his fathers ſeruants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a litle childe.

k Thus God reſerued this idolater to be a ſcouge to puniſhe his peoples ſinnes.

18 And they aroſe out of Midian, & came to Paran, and toke men with them out of Paran, & came to Egypt vnto Pharaoh King of Egypt, which gaue him an houſe, & appointed him victailes and gaue him land.

19 So Hadad [l] founde great fauour in the ſight of Pharaoh, & he gaue him to wife the ſiſter of his owne wife, euen the ſiſter of Tahpenes the quene.

l God broght hī to honour ỹ his power might be more able to cō paſſe his enterpriſes againſt Salomons houſe.

20 And the ſiſter of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his ſonne, whome Tahpenes wayned in Pharaohs houſe: & Genubath was in Pharaohs houſe among the ſonnes of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt, that Dauid ſlept with his fathers, and that Ioab the captaine of the hoſte was dead, Hadad ſaid to Pharaoh, Let me departe, that I may go to mine owne countrey.

22 But Pharaoh ſaid vnto him, What haſt thou lacked with me, that thou woldeſt thus go to thine owne countrey? And he anſwered, Nothing, but in any wiſe let me go.

2. Sam. 1, 3

23 ¶ * And God ſtirred him vp another aduerſarie, Rezō the ſonne of Eliadah, which [m] fled from his lord Hadadezer King of Zobah.

m When Dauid had diſcomfited Hadadezer & his armie.

24 And he gathered men vnto him, and had bene captaine ouer the companie, when Dauid ſlewe them. And they went to Damaſcus, and dwelt there, [n] and thei made him King in Damaſcus.

n To wit, ỹ mē whome he had gathered vnto him.

25 Therefore was he an aduerſarie to Iſrael all the dayes of Salomon: beſides the euil that Hadad did, he alſo abhorred Iſrael, and reigned ouer Aram.

2. Chro. 13, 6

26 ¶ * And Ieroboam the ſonne of Nebat an Ephrathite of Zereda Salomons ſeruant (whoſe mother was ealled Zeruah a widowe) lift vp his hand againſt the King.

27 And this was the cauſe that he lift vp his hand againſt the King, When Salomon buylt Millo, he repared the broken places of the citie of Dauid his father.

28 And this man Ieroboam was a man of strength & courage, & Salomon seing that the yong man was mete for the worke, he made him [o] ouerseer of all the laboure of the house of Ioseph.

o He was ouerseer of Salomōs workes for ỹ tribe of Ephraim & Manasseh.

29 And at that time, when Ieroboam wēt out of Ierusalē, the Prophet Ahiiah the Shilonite foūde him in the way, hauing a newe garment on him, and thei two were alone in the field.

30 Then Ahiiah caught the newe garment that was on him, and [p] rent it in twelue pieces, p By these visible signes ỹ prophetes wolde more depely printe their message into their hearts to whome thei were sent.

31 And said to Ieroboā, Take vnto thee ten pieces: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Beholde, I wil rent the kingdome out of the hands of Salomon, and wil giue ten tribes to thee.

32 But he shal haue one tribe for my seruant Dauids sake, & for Ierusalem the citie, which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, 33 Because thei haue forsaken me, & haue worshiped Ashtaroth the god of the Zidonians, & Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the God of the Ammonites, & haue not walked in my wayes (to [n] do right in mine eyes, & my statutes, and my lawes) as did Dauid his father.

[n] Or, to do that that pleaseth me.

34 But I wil not take the whole kingdome out of his hand: for I wil make him prince all his life long, for Dauid my seruants sake, whome I haue chosen, & who kept my commandements and my statutes.

Chap. 12, 15

35 *But I wil take the kingdome out of his sonnes hand, and wil giue it vnto thee, euen the ten tribes.

36 And vnto his sonne wil I giue one tribe, that Dauid my seruant maye haue a [q] light alwaie before me in Ierusalem ỹ citie, which I haue chosen me, to put my Name there.

q He hathe respect vnto the Messiah, w̄ shulde be the bright starre that shulde shine through all ỹ worlde.

37 And I wil take thee, and thou shalt reigne [r] euen as thine heart desireth, & shalt be King ouer Israel.

[r] Ebr. in all ỹ thy soule.

38 And if thou hearken vnto all that I commande thee, and wilt walke in my waies, & do right in my sight, to kepe my statutes & my commandements, as Dauid my seruant did, then wil I be w̄ thee, and buylde thee a sure house, as I buylt vnto Dauid, & wil giue Israel vnto thee.

39 And I wil for [s] this afflict the seede of Dauid, [t] but not for euer.

s For this idolatrie ỹ Salomon hathe cōmitted.

t For ỹ whole spiritual kingdome was restored in Messiah.

40 ¶ Salomon soght therefore to kil Ieroboam, & Ieroboam arose, and fled into Egypt vnto Shishak King of Egypt, and was in Egypt vntil the death of Salomon.

41 And the rest of the wordes of Salomon, & all that he did, and his wisdome, are thei not writen in the [u] boke of the actes of Salomon?

u Which boke, as is thoght, was lost in their captiuitie.

42 The time that Salomō reigned in Ierusalem ouer all Israel, was fourtie yere.

43 And Salomon slept with his fathers & was buryed in the citie of Dauid his father: & Rehoboam his sonne reigned in his steade.

5 And he said vnto them, Departe yet for thre dayes, thē come againe to me. And the people departed.

6 And King Rehoboam toke counsel w̄ the olde men that [w] had stande before Salomon his father, while he yet liued, & said, What counsel giue ye, that I may make an answer to this people?

[w] Or, had bene of his ancient counsellers.

7 And thei spake vnto him, saying, If ỹ be a [b] seruant vnto this people this day, and serue them, & answer them, & speake kinde wordes to them, thei wil be thy seruants for euer.

b Thei shewed him ỹ there was no way to winne the peoples hearts, but to grante the their iuste petition, 8 But he forsoke the counsel that the olde men had giuen him, & asked counsel of the yong men, ỹ had bene brought vp with him, and waited on him.

9 And he said vnto them, [c] What counsel giue ye, ỹ we may answer this people, which haue spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke, which thy father did put vpon vs, lighter?

c There is no thīg harder for them, ỹ are in autoritie, then to bridel their affections, & followe good cōsel.

10 Then the yong mē that were brought vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou say vnto this people, that haue spoken vnto thee, and said, Thy father hathe made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter vnto vs: euen thus shalt thou say vnto them, My [d] least parte shalbe bigger then my fathers loynes.

Or, litle finger

d I am muche more able to kepe you in subiection then my father was.

11 Now where as my father did burden you you with a grieuous yoke, I wil yet make your yoke heauier: my father hathe chastised you with rods, but I wil correct you with scourges.

12 ¶ Then Ieroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as ý King had [c] appointed, saying, Come to me againe the third day.

13 And the King answered the people sharpely, & left the olde mens counsel that thei gaue him, 14 And spake to thē after the counsel of the yong men, saying, My father made your yoke grieuous, & I wil make your yoke more grieuous: my father hathe chastised you with rods, but I wil correct you with scourges.

15 And the King hearkened not vnto the people: for [d] it was the ordinance of the Lord, ý he might performe his saying, which the Lord had spoken by *Ahiiah the Shilonite vnto Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat.

16 So when all Israel sawe that ý King regarded them not, the people answered the King thus, saying, What porciō haue we in [f] Dauid? we haue none inheritance in the sonne of Ishai. To your tēts, ô Israel: now se to thine owne house, Dauid. So Israel departed vnto their tents.

17 Howbeit ouer the children of Israel, which dwelt in the cities of Iudah, did Rehoboam reigne stil.

18 Now the King Rehoboam sent Adoram the receiuer of the tribute, and all Israel stoned him to death: then King Rehoboam "made spede to get him vp to his charet, to flee to Ierusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house [g] of Dauid vnto this day.

20 ¶ And when all Israel had heard that Ieroboam was come againe, they sent & called him vnto the assemblie, & made him King ouer all Israel: none followed the house of Dauid, but the tribe of Iudah *onely.

21 And when Rehoboam was come to Ierusalem, he [h] gathered all the house of Iudah with the tribe of Beniamin an hundreth and four score thousand of chosen mē (which were good warriours) to fight against the house of Israel, & to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon.

22 *But the worde of God came vnto Shemaiah the [i] man of God, saying,

23 Speake vnto Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon King of Iudah, and vnto all ý house of Iudah and Beniamin, and the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus sayth the [k] Lord, Ye shal not go vp, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: returne euerie man to his house: for this thing is done by me. They obeied therefore ý worde of the Lord & returned, & departed, according to the worde of the Lord.

25 ¶ Then Ieroboam buylt Shechem in mount Ephraim, & dwelt therein, and went from thence, and buylt Penuel.

26 And Ieroboam thoght in his heart, Now shal the kingdome returne to the house of Dauid.

27 If this people go vp and do sacrifice in the house of the Lord [l] at Ierusalem, then shal the heart of this people turne againe vnto their lord, euen to Rehoboam King of Iudah: so shal they kil me and go againe to Rehoboam King of Iudah.

28 Whereupon the King toke counsel, & made two calues of golde, and said vnto them, [m] It is to muche for you to go vp to Ierusalem: beholde, ô Israel, thy gods, which broght thee vp out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in Beth-el, & the other set he in Dan.

30 And this thing turned to sinne: for the people went (because of the one) euen to Dan.

31 Also he made an [n] house of hye places, and made Priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sonnes of Leui.

32 And Ieroboam made a feast the [o] fiftenth day of the eight moneth, lyke vnto the feast ý is in Iudah, and offred on ý altar. So did he in Beth-el & offered vnto the calues ý he had made: & he placed in Beth-el the Priests of the hie places, which he had made.

33 And he offred vpon the altar, which he had made in Beth-el, the fiftenth day of the eight moneth (euen in ý moneth which he had forged of his owne heart) & made a solemne feast vnto the children of Israel: & he went vp to the altar, to burne incense.

3 And he gaue a signe the same time, saying, This is the [c] signe, that the Lord hathe spoken, Beholde, that altar shal rent, and the asshes that are vpon it, shal [a] fal out.

4 And when the King had heard the saying of the man of God, which he had cryed against the altar in Beth-el, Ieroboam stretched out his hand from ỹ altar, saying [d] Lay holde on him: but his hand which he put forthe against him, dryed vp, & he colde not pull it in againe to him.

5 The altar also claue asundre, and the asshes fel out from the altar, according to the signe, which the man of God had giuen by the [”] commandement of the Lord.

6 Then the King answered, and said vnto the man of God, [e] I beseche thee, pray vnto the Lord thy God, and make intercession for me, that mine hand may be restored vnto me. And the man of God besoght the Lord, and the Kings hand was restored, and became as it was afore.

7 Then the King said vnto the man of God, Come home with me, that thou maist [n] dine, and I wil giue thee a reward.

8 But the man of God said vnto ỹ King, If thou woldest giue me halfe thine house, I wolde not go in with thee, nether wolde I eat bread nor drinke water in this place.

9 For so [o] was it charged me by the worde of the Lord, saying, [f] Eat no bread nor drinke water, nor turne againe by the same way that thou camest:

10 So he went another way & returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

11 ¶ And an olde Prophet dwelt in Beth-el & his sonnes came: & tolde him all ỹ workes, that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el, & ỹ wordes which he had spoken vnto the King, tolde they their father.

12 And there father said vnto thē, What way went he? and his sonnes [”] shewed him what way the man of God went, ẅ came from Iudah.

13 And he said vnto his sonnes, Sadle me the asse. Who sadled him the asse, & he rode thereon, 14 And went after the man of God, and founde him sitting vnder an oke: & he said vnto him, Art thou the man of God ỹ camest frō Iudah? And he said, [”] Yea.

15 Then he said vnto him, [g] Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 But he answered, I may not returne ẅ thee, nor go in ẅ thee, nether wil I eat bread nor drinke water with thee in this place.

17 For it was charged me by the worde of the Lord, saying, Thou shalt eat no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne againe to go by the way that thou wentest.

18 And he said vnto him, I am a Prophet also as thou art, & an [h] Angel spake vnto me by ỹ worde of the Lord, saying, Bring him againe with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drinke water: but he lied vnto him.

19 So he went again with him, & did eat bread in his house, and dranke water.

20 And as they sate at the table, the worde of the Lord came vnto the Prophet, that brought him againe.

21 And he cryed vnto the man of God ỹ came from Iudah, saying, Thus saith ỹ Lord, [i] Because thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lord, and hast not kept the commandement which the Lord thy God commanded thee, 22 But camest backe againe, and hast eaten bread & dronke water in the place (whereof he did say vnto thee, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drinke anie water) thy carkeis shal not come vnto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 ¶ And when he had eaten bread and dronke, he sadled him the asse, to wit, to the Prophet whome he had brought againe.

24 And when he was gone, [k] a lyon met him by the way, and slewe him, & his bodie was cast in the way, & the asse stode thereby: the lyon stode by the corps also.

25 And beholde, men that passed by, sawe the carkeis cast in the way, and the lyon standing by the corps: & they came & tolde it in the towne where the olde Prophet dwelt.

26 And when the Prophet, that brought him backe againe from the way, heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who hathe bene disobedient vnto the commandement of the Lord: therefore ỹ Lord hathe deliuered him vnto the lyon, which hathe rent him and slaine him, according to the worde of ỹ Lord, which he spake vnto him.

27 ¶ And he spake to his sonnes, saying, Sadle me the asse. And they sadled him.

28 And he went & founde his body cast in the way, & the asse and the lyon stode by the corps: & the lyon had [l] not eaten the body, nor torne the asse.

29 And the Prophet toke vp the body of the man of God, and layed it vpon ỹ asse, & broght it againe, & ỹ olde Prophet came to the citie, to lament & bury him.

30 And he layed his body in his [m] owne graue, & they lamented ouer him, saying, Alas, my brother.

[”] Ebr. I am.

g This he did of a simple minde, thinking it his dutie to declare friendship to a prophet.

h His faute is here double: first in that ỹ he suffreth not ỹ prophete to obey Gods expresse cōmandemēt: & next ỹ he faineth to haue a reuelacion to ỹ contrary.

i God wolde reprone his folý by hī, who was the occasion to bring him into error.

k By this fearful exāple, God setteth forthe, how dangerous a thing it is for men to behaue thē selues coldely, or deceitfully in their charge whereunto God hathe called them.

l To declare ỹ this was onely ỹ iudgement of God: for if ỹ lyō had done it for hūgre, he wolde also haue deuoured ỹ body.

m Which he had prepared for hī selfe.

ke to his sonnes, saying, When I am dead, bury ye me also in the sepulchre, wherein the man of God is buryed: laye my bones beside his bones.

32 For that thing which he cryed by the worde of the Lord against the altar that is in Beth-el, and against all ý houses of the hie places, which are in the cities of Samaria, shal surely come to passe.

n So the wicked profit not by Gods threatnīgs but go backewarde & become worse, 2. Tim. 3, 13.

33 Howbeit after this, Ieroboam [n] conuerted not from his wicked way, but turned againe, and made of the lowest of the people Priests of the hie places. Who wolde, might " consecrate him selfe, & be of the Priests of the hie places.

" Ebr. fil his hand.

34 And this thing turned to sinne vnto the house of Ieroboam, euen to roote it out, and destroy it from the face of the earth.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Ieroboam sendeth his wife disguised to Ahiiah the Prophet, who declareth vnto him the destruction of his house. 22 Iudah is punished by Shishak.

1 AT that time Abiiah the sonne of Ieroboam fel sicke.

2 And Ieroboam said vnto his wife, Vp, I pray thee, [a] & disguise thy selfe, that they knowe not that thou art the wife of Ieroboam, and go to Shiloh: for there is Ahiiah the Prophet, which tolde me * that I shulde be King ouer this people,

4 And Ieroboams wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahiiah: but Ahiiah colde not se, for his " sight was decayed for his age.

5 Then the Lord said vnto Ahiiah, Beholde, the wife of Ieroboam cometh to aske a thing of thee for her sonne, for he is sicke: thus and thus shalt thou say vnto her: for when she cometh in, she shal feine her selfe to be [c] another.

c Then ý wife of Ieroboam.

6 Therefore when Ahiiah heard the sounde of her fete as she came in at the dore, he said, Come in, thou [d] wife of Ieroboam: why feinest thou thus thy selfe to be another? I am sent to thee with heauy tidings, d For God oft times discloseth vnto his ý craft & subtiltie of ý wicked.

7 Go, tel Ieroboam, Thus saith ý Lord God of Israel, Forasmuche as I haue exalted [e] thee from among the people, and haue made thee prince ouer my people Israel, e Which was but a seruant.

8 And haue rent the kingdome away frō the house of Dauid, & haue giuen it thee, and thou hast not bene as my seruant Dauid, which kept my commandements, and followed me whith all his heart, and did onely that which was right in mines eyes:

9 But hast done euil aboue all that were before thee (for thou hast gone & made thee other gods, and [f] moltē images, to prouoke me, & hast cast me behinde thy backe)

f To wit, twe calues.

10 Therefore beholde, I wil bring euil vpon the house of Ieroboam, and wil cut of from Ieroboam him that * [g] pisseth against the wal, aswel him that [h] is shut vp, as him that is left in Israel, and wil swepe away the remnant of ý house of Ieroboam, as a man swepeth away doung, til it be all gone.

11 The dogs shal eat him of Ieroboams stocke that dyeth in the citie, & the foules of the aire shal eat him that dyeth in the field: [i] for the Lord hathe said it.

i They shal lacke ý honour of buryal in token of Gods malediction.

12 Vp therefore & get thee to thine house: for when thy feete entre into the citie, the childe shal dye.

13 And all Israel shal mourne for him, and bury him: for he onely of Ieroboā shal come to the graue, because in him there is founde [k] some goodnes towarde ý Lord God of Israel in the house of Ieroboam.

k In ý middes of the wicked God hath some, on whome he doeth bestowe his mercies.

14 Moreouer, the Lord shal stir him vp a King ouer Israel, which shal destroy ý house of Ieroboam in that day: [l] what? yea, euen now.

l The Lord wil beginne to destroy in our of hand.

15 For the Lord shal smite Israel, as whē a rede is shaken in the water, and he shal wede Israel out of this good land, which he gaue to their fathers, & shal scattre them beyonde the [m] Riuer, because they haue made them groues, prouoking the Lord to angre.

m Meaning Euphrates.

16 And he shal giue Israel vp, because of the sinnes of Ieroboam, who did sinne, & [n] made Israel to sinne.

n The people shal not be excused, when they do euil at ý cōmandement of their gouernours.

17 ¶ And Ieroboams wife arose, & departed, and came to the Tirzah, and when she came to the threshold of the house, the yong man dyed, 18 And they buryed him, & all Israel, lamented him, according to the worde of the Lord, which he spake by the hand of his seruant Ahiiah the Prophet.

19 And the rest of Ieroboams actes, how he warred, & how he reigned, beholde, they are writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

20 And the dayes which Ieroboam reigned, were two & twentie yere: and he [o] slept with his fathers, & Nadab his sonne reigned in his steade.

o The Lord smote him that he dyed, 2. Chro. 13, 20.

21 ¶ Also Rehoboam the Sonne of Salomon reigned in Iudah. Rehoboam was one & fourtie yere olde, when he begā to reigne, and reigned seuentene[p] yere in Ierusalem the citie, which the Lord did chuse out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his Name there: & his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonite.

22 And Iudah wroght wickednes in the sight of the Lord, and they prouoked him more with their sinnes, which they had committed, [n] then all that which their fathers had done.

23 For they also made them hie places, and images, and groues on euery hye hil, and vnder euerie grene tre.

24 There were also Sodomites [q] in the land, they did according to all ý abominacions of the nacions, which the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

25 ¶ And in the fift yere of King Rehoboam, Shishak King of Egypt came vp against Ierusalem, 26 And toke the treasures of ý house of ý Lord, & the treasures of ý kings house, and toke away all: also he caried away all the shields of golde * which Salomon had made.

27 And King Rehoboam made for thē brasen shields, and committed them vnto the hands of the chief of the garde, which waited at the dore of the Kings house.

28 And when the King went into the house of the Lord, the garde bare thē, & broght them againe in to the garde chamber.

29 And the reste of the actes of Rehoboam, & all that he did, are they not writen in [r] the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah?

30 And there was warre betwene Rehoboam & Ieroboam [s] continually.

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, & was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid: his mothers name was Naamah an [t] Ammonite. And Abiiam his sonne reigned in his steade.

1 AND in the eightene yere of King * Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, reigned Abiiam ouer Iudah.

2 Three yere reigned he in Ierusalem, & his mothers name was Maachah the daughter of [a] Abishalom.

3 And he walked in all the sinnes of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfit with the Lord his God as the heart of Dauid his father.

4 But for Dauids sake did the Lord his God giue him a [b] light in Ierusalem, & set vp his sonne after him, and established Ierusalem,

5 Because Dauid did that ý was right in the sight of the Lord, & turned from nothing that he commanded him, all ý dayes of his life, * saue onely in the matter of Vriah the Hittite.

6 And there was warre betwene Rehoboam and Ieroboam as long as he liued.

7 The rest also of the actes of Abiiam, & all that he did, are they not writen in the * boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah? there was also warre betwene Abiiam, & Ieroboam.

8 And Abiiam slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in the citie of Dauid: & Asa his sonne reigned in his steade.

9 ¶ * And in the twentie yere of Ieroboam King of Israel reigned Asa ouer Iudah.

10 He reigned in Ierusalem one & fourtie yere, & his [c] mothers name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom.

11 And Asa did right in the eyes of the Lord, as did Dauid his father.

12 And he toke away the Sodomites out of the land, & put away all the idoles that his fathers had made.

13 And he [d] put downe Maachah his mother also from her estate, because she had made an idole in a groue: & Asa destroyed her idoles, & burnt them by ý broke Kidron.

14 But they put not downe the hie places. Neuertheles Asas heart was [e] vpright with the Lord all his dayes.

15 Also he broght in the holy vessels of his father, & the things that he had dedicate vnto the house of the Lord, siluer, & golde, and vessels.

16 ¶ And there was warre betwene Asa & Baasha King of Israel all their dayes.

17 Then Baasha King of Israel went vp against Iudah, and buylt [f] Ramah, so ý he wolde let none go out or in to Asa King of Iudah.

18 Then Asa toke all the siluer and the gold that was left in the treasures of ý house of the Lord, and the treasures of the Kings house, and deliuered them into the hands of his seruants, and King Asa sent them to * Ben-hadad the sonne of Tabrimon, the sonne of Hezion King of [h] Aram that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

19 There is a couenant betwene me and thee, & betwene my father and thy father: beholde, I haue sent vnto thee a present of siluer, & golde: come, breake thy couenant with Baasha King of Israel, that he may [g] departe from me.

22 Then King Asa [a] assembled all Iudah, [b] none excepted. & they toke the stones of Ramah, & the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had buylt and King Asa buylt with them Geba of Beniamin & Mizpah.

25 And Nadab the sonne of Ieroboam began to reigne ouer Israel the seconde yere of Asa King of Iudah, and reigned ouer Israel two yere.

26 And he did euil in the sight of the Lord, walking in the way of his father, & in his sinne wherewith he made Israel to sinne.

27 And Baasha the sonne of Ahiiah of the house of Issachar conspired against him, & Baasha slewe him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistims: for Nadab & all Israel laied siege to Gibbethon.

1 Of Baasha, 6 Elah. 9 Zimri, 16 Omri. 31 Achab marieth Iezebel. 34 Iericho is buylt againe.

1 THen the worde of the Lord came to Iehu the sonne of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

2 [a] Forasmuche as I exalted thee out of ỹ dust, & made thee captaine ouer my people Israel, and thou hast walked in the way of Ieroboam, & hast made my people Israel to sinne, to prouoke me & their sinnes,

3 Beholde, I wil take away the posteritie of Baasha, and ỹ posteritie of his house, & wil make [b] thine house like the * house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat.

4 * He ỹ dyeth of Baashas stocke in the citie, him shal the dogs eat: and ỹ man of him which dyeth in the fields, shal the foules of the ayre eat.

5 And the rest of the actes of Baasha & what he did, & his [n] power, are they not writen in the boke of the * Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

6 So Baasha slept with his fathers, & was buryed in Tirzah, & Elah his sonne reigned in his steade.

7 And [c] also by the hand of Iehu the sonne of the Hanani the Prophet came the worde of the Lord to Baasha, & to his house, that he shulde be like the house of Ieroboam, euen for all the wickednes that he did in the sight of the Lord, in prouoking him with the worke of his hands, and because he killed [d] him.

8 ¶ In the six and twentie yere of Asa King of Iudah began Elah the sonne of Baasha to reigne ouer Israel in Tirzah, & reigned two yere.

9 And his seruant Zimri, captaine of halfe his charets, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah drinking, til he was dronken in the house of [e] Arza stuarde of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Zimri came & smote him & killed him in the seuen and twenty yere of Asa King of Iudah, & reigned in his steade.

11 ¶ And when he was King, and sate on his throne, he slewe all the house of Baasha, not leauing thereof one to pisse against a wal, nether of his kinsfolkes nor of his friends.

12 So did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the worde of the Lord which he spake against Baasha by the hand of Iehu the [f] Prophet, 13 For all the sinnes of Baasha, and sinnes of Elah his sonne, which they sinned & made Israel to sinne, and prouoked the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

14 And the reſt of the actes of Elah, and all that he did, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſrael?

15 ¶ In the ſeuen and twentie yere of Aſa King of Iudah did Zimri reigne ſeuen dayes in Tirzah, and the people was then in the hoſte [g] beſieging Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philiſtims.

16 And the people of the hoſte heard ſay, Zimri hathe conſpired, & hathe alſo ſlaine the King. Wherefore all Iſrael made Omri the captaine of the hoſte King ouer Iſrael that ſame day, euen in the hoſte.

17 Then Omri went vp from Gibbethon, and all Iſrael with him, and they beſieged [h] Tirzah.

18 And when Zimri ſawe, that the citie was taken, he went into the palace of ỹ Kings houſe, and [i] burnt him ſelfe & the Kings houſe with fire, & ſo dyed, 19 For his ſinnes which he ſinned, in doing that which is euil in the ſight of ỹ Lord, in walking in the way of Ieroboam, & in his ſinnes which he did, cauſing Iſrael to ſinne.

20 And the reſt of the actes of Zimri, & his treaſon that he wroght, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſrael?

21 Then were the people of Iſrael deuided into two partes: for [l] halfe the people followed Tibni the ſonne of Ginah to make him King, & the other halfe followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri, preuailed againſt the people that followed Tibni the ſonne of Ginah: ſo Tibni dyed, and Omri reigned.

23 In the one and thirtie yere of Aſa King of Iudah began Omri to reigne ouer Iſrael, & reigned twelue yere. Six yere reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he boght the mountaine [m] Samaria of one Shemer for two talents of ſiluer, and buylt in the mountaine, and called the name of the citie, which he buylt, after the name of Shemer, lord of the mountaine Samaria.

25 But Omri did euil in the eyes of the Lord, and did [k] worſe then all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the wayes of Ieroboam the ſonne of Nebat, & in his ſinnes wherewith he made Iſrael to ſinne in prouoking the Lord God of Iſrael with their vanities.

27 And the reſt of the actes of Omri, that he did, and his ſtrength that he ſhewed, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſrael?

28 And Omri ſlept with his fathers, and was buryed in [l] Samaria. & Ahab his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

29 Now Ahab the ſonne of Omri began to reigne ouer Iſrael, in the eight and thirtie yere of Aſa King of Iudah: and Ahab the ſonne of Omri reigned ouer Iſrael in Samaria two and twentie yere.

30 And Ahab the ſonne of Omri did worſe in the ſight of the Lord then all that were before him.

31 For was it a light thig for him to walke in the ſinnes of Ieroboam the ſonne of Nebat, except he toke Iezebel alſo the daughter of Eth-baal King of ỹ Zidonians to [m] wife, and went and ſerued Baal, and worſhiped him?

32 Alſo he reared vp an altar to Baal in the houſe of Baal, which he had buylt in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a groue, and Ahab proceeded, and did prouoke the Lord God of Iſrael more then all the Kings of Iſrael that were before him.

34 In his dayes did Hiel the Bethelite buylde [n] Iericho: he laied the fundaciõ thereof in Abiram his eldeſt ſonne, and ſet vp the gates thereof in his yongeſt ſonne Segub, according to the worde of the Lord which he ſpake" by Ioſhua the ſunne of Nun.

23 And Eliah toke the childe, & brought him downe out of the chamber into the house, and deliuered him vnto his mother, & Eliah said, Beholde, thy sone liueth.

4 For when Iezebel destroyed the Prophetes of the Lord, Obadiah toke an hundreth Prophetes, & hid thē, by fiftie in a caue, & fed them with bread & water.

5 And Ahab said vnto Obadiah, Go into the land, vnto all the fountaines of water, & vnto all the riuers, if so be that we may finde grasse to saue the horses & the mules aliue, lest we depriue the land of the beastes.

6 And so thei deuided the land betwene thē to walke through it. Ahab wēt one way by him selfe, & Obadiah went another way by him selfe.

7 ¶ And as Obadiah was in the way, beholde, Eliiah [c] met him: and he knewe him, & fel on his face, & said, Art not ỹ my lord Eliiah?

8 And he answered him, Yea, go tel thy lord, Beholde: Eliiah is here.

9 And he said, What haue I sinned, that thou wold est deliuer thy seruant into ỹ hand of Ahab, to slaye me:

10 As the Lord thy God liueth, there is no nacion or kingdome, whether my lord hathe not sent to seke thee: & whē thei said, He is not here, he toke an othe of the kingdome & nacion, if thei had not founde thee.

11 And now thou saist, Go, tel thy lord, Beholde, Eliiah is here.

12 And when I am gone from thee, the Spirit of the Lord shal cary thee into some place that I do not knowe: so whē I come & tel Ahab, if he can not finde thee, then wil he kil me: but I thy seruant [d] feare the Lord from my youth, 13 Was it not tolde my lord, what I did when Iezebel slewe the Prophetes of the Lord, how I hidde an hundreth men of the Lords Prophetes by fifties in a caue, & fed them with bread & water?

14 And now thou saiest, Go, tel thy Lord, Beholde, Eliiah is here, ỹ he may slaye me.

15 And

---

[e] All this was to strēgthen the faith of Eliah to ỹ intent that he shulde loke vpō nothing wordely, but onely trust on Gods prouidence.

[f] Ebr. two.

[f] For there is no hope of any more sustenance.

[g] God receiueth no benefite for ỹ vse of his, but he promiseth a moste ample recompense for ỹ sam:.

[h] That is, til he had raine & foode on the earth.

[i] Or, that he dyed.

[k] God wolde trye whether she had learned by his merciful prouidence to make him her onely staye & comforte.

[l] He was afraide, lest Gods Name shuld haue bene blaspheamed & his ministers contēned, except he shulde haue continued his mercies, as he had begonne them, specially while he there remained.

[l] So hard a thing it is to depend on God, except we be cōfirmed by miracles.

[a] After ỹ he departed frō ỹ riuer Cherith.

[b] God had begonne to worke his feare in his heart, but had not yet brought him to ỹ knowledge, which also requisit of the godly: that is to professe his Name openly.

[c] God pitieth oft time ỹ wicked for ỹ godly es sake & causeth Eliah to meete with Obadiah, that ỹ benefite might be knowē to be grāted for Gods childrens sake.

[d] I am not of ỹ wicked persecuters ỹ ỹ shuldest procure vnto me suche displeasure, but serue God & fauour his children.

15 And Eliiah ſaid, As the Lord of hoſtes liueth, before whome I ſtand, I wil ſurely ſhewe [e] my ſelfe vnto him this day.

e By my preſence I wil declare ỹ ỹ haſt tolde hi the trueth.

16 ¶ So Obadiah went to mete Ahab, & tolde him: and Ahab went to mete Eliiah.

17 And whē Ahab ſawe Eliiah, Ahab ſaid vnto him, Art thou he that troubleth Iſrael?

18 And he anſwered, I haue not troubled Iſrael, but [f] thou, & thy fathers houſe, in that ye haue forſaken the commandements of the Lord, & thou haſt followed Baalim.

f The true miniſters of God ought not onely not to ſuffer ỹ trueth to be vniuſtely ſlandered, but to reproue boldly ỹ wicked ſlanderers without reſpect of perſone.

19 Now therefore ſend, and gather to me all Iſrael vnto mount Carmel, and the prophetes of Baal foure hundreth and fiftie, and the prophetes of the groues foure hundreth, which eat at Iezebels table.

20 ¶ So Ahab ſent vnto all the children of Iſrael, & gathered the prophetes together.

21 And Eliiah came vnto all the people, & ſaid, How long [g] halt ye betwene two opinions? If the Lord be God, followe him: but if Baal be he, then go after him. And the people anſwered him not a worde.

g Be conſtāt in religiō, & make it not as a thing indifferēt whether ye followe God or Baal, or whether ye ſerue God wholly or in parte.

22 Then ſaid Eliiah vnto the people, I onely remaine a Prophet of ỹ Lord: but Baals prophetes are foure hundreth & fiftie men.

23 Let thē therefore giue vs two bullocks & let them chuſe the one, & cut him in pieces, & laye him on the wood, but put no fyre vnder, & I wil prepare the other bullocke, & laye him on the wood, and wil put no fyre vnder.

24 Then call ye on the name of your god, and I wil call on the Name of the Lord: and then the God that anſwereth [h] by fyre, let him be God. And all the people anſwered, and ſaid, It is wel ſpoken.

h By ſending downe fire fro heauen to burne the ſacrifice.

25 And Eliiah ſaid vnto the prophetes of Baal, Chuſe you a bullocke, & prepare him firſt, (for ye are many) & call on the name of your gods, but put no fyre vnder.

26 So thei toke the one bullocke, ỹ was giuen them, & thei prepared it, and called on the name of Baal, from morning to noone, ſaying, O Baal heare vs: but there was no voyce, nor anie to anſwer: & thei [i] leapt vpon the altar ỹ was made.

i As men rauiſhed with ſome ſtrange ſpirit

27 And at noone Eliiah mocked them, & ſaid, Crye loud: for he is a [k] god: ether he talketh or purſueth his enemies, or is in his iourney, or it may be that he ſleepeth, & muſt be [l] awaked.

k You eſteme him as a god

l He mocketh their beaſtly madnes, whiche ỹ by anie inſtāce or ſute the dead & vile idoles can helpe their worſhippers in their neceſſities.

28 And they cryed loude, & cut them ſelues as their maner was, with knyues, & lancets, til the blood guſhed out vpon them.

29 And when mydday was paſſed, & thei had prophecied vntil the offring of the euening ſacrifice, there was nether voyce nor one to anſwer, nor anie that regarded.

30 And Eliiah ſaid vnto all the people, Come to me. And all the people came to him. And he repaired the altar of the Lord that was broken downe.

31 And Eliiah toke twelue ſtones, according to the nomber of the tribes of the ſonnes of Iaakob, (vnto whome ỹ worde of ỹ Lord came, ſaying, * Iſrael ſhalbe thy name.)

Gen. 32. 28. 2 King. 17, 34

32 And with the ſtones he buylt an altar in the Name of the Lord: & he made a ditche rounde about the altar, as greate as wolde conteine two " meaſures of ſede.

" Ebr Sates. Which ſome thinke cōteine about thre pottels & a third parte a piece.

33 And he put ỹ wood in order, & hewed the bullocke in pieces, & layed him on the wood, 34 And ſaid, Fil foure barels with water, & powre it on the burnt offring & on ỹ wood. Againe he ſaid, Do ſo againe. And thei did ſo the ſeconde time. And he ſaid Do it the third time. And thei did it the third time.

35 And the water ran rounde about the altar: & [m] he filled the ditche with water alſo.

m Hereby he declareth ỹ excellēt power of God, who cōtrary to nature cold make ỹ fyre burne euen in ỹ water, to ỹ intent thei ſhulde haue none occaſion to doute, ỹ he is the onelie God.

36 And whē they ſhulde offer the euening ſacrifice, Eliiah the Prophet came, and ſaid, Lord God of Abraham, Izhak and of Iſrael, let it be knowen this day, that thou art the God of Iſrael, and that I am thy ſeruant, and that I haue done all theſe things at thy commandement.

37 Heare me, ô Lord, heare me, & let this people knowe that thou art the Lord God, & that ỹ haſt turned their heart againe [n] at the laſt.

n Though God ſuffer his to runne in blindenes & error for a time, yet at the length he calleth them home to hi by ſome notorious ſigne & worke.

38 Then the fyre of the Lord fel, & conſumed the burnt offring, & the wood, & the ſtones, & the duſt, & licked vp the water that was in the ditche.

39 And when all the people ſawe it, they fell on their faces, & ſaid, The Lord is God the Lord is God.

40 And Eliiah ſaid vnto them, Take the prophetes of Baal, let [o] not a man of thē eſcape. And they toke them and Eliiah brogt them to the broke Kiſhon, and ſlewe them there.

o He cōmanded them ỹ as they were truely perſuaded to cōfeſſe ỹ onely God: ſo they wolde ſerue hi with all their power and deſtroye ỹ idolaters his enemies.

41 ¶ And Eliiah ſaid vnto Ahab, Get thee vp, eat, & drinke, for there is a ſoūde of muche raine.

42 So Ahab went vp to eat & to drinke, & Eliiah went vp to the top of Carmel: & he crouched vnto the earth, and put his face betwene his knees,

43 And ſaid to his ſeruant, Go vp now & loke towarde the way of ỹ Sea. And he went vp, & loked, & ſaid, There is nothing. Againe he ſaid, Go againe

ſeuen

seuen times.
44 And at the seuenth time he said, Beholde there ariseth a litle cloude out of the sea like a mans hand. Then he said, Vp, & say vnto Ahab, Make readie thy charet & get thee downe, that the raine stay thee not.
45 And [a] in the meane while the heauen was blacke with cloudes & winde, and there was a great raine. Then Ahab wēt vp & came to Izreel.
46 And the hand of the Lord was on Eliiah, & he girded vp his loynes, & ran [q] before Ahab til he came to Izreel.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Eliiah fleing from Iezebel, is nourished by the Angel of God. 15 He is commanded to anoint Hazael, Iehu, and Elisha.

1 NOw Ahab tolde Iezebel all that Eliiah had done, and how he had slayne all ỹ [a] prophetes with the sworde.
2 Then Iezebel sent a messenger vnto Eliiah, saying, [b] The gods do so to me & more also, if I make not thy life like one of their liues by to morowe this time.
3 ¶ When he sawe that, he arose, and wēt [c] for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which is in Iudah, and left his seruant there.
4 But he went a daies iourney into ỹ wildernes, & came and sate downe vnder a iuniper tree, & desired ỹ he might dye, & said, It is now ynough: O Lord, [c] take my soule, for I am no better, then my fathers.
5 And as he laie & slept vnder the iuniper tree, beholde now, an Angel touched him, & said vnto him, Vp, & eat.
6 And whē he loked about, beholde there was a cake bake on the coles, and a pot of water at his head: so he did eat & drinke, and returned and slept.
7 And the Angel of the Lord came againe the seconde time, & touched him, and said, Vp, & eat: for [d] thou hast a great iourney.
8 ¶ Then he arose, & did eat & drinke, & walked in ỹ strength of that meat fourtie daies & fourtie nights, vnto Horeb the mount of God.
9 And there he entred into a caue, and lodged there: & beholde, the Lord spake to him, & said vnto him, What doest thou here, Eliiah?
10 And he answered, I haue [e] bene very ielous for the Lord God of hostes: for ỹ children of Israel haue forsaken thy couenant, broken downe thine altars, & slayne thy Prophetes with the sworde, * & I onely am left, & thei seke my life to take it away.
11 And he said, Come out, & stand vpon the mount before ỹ Lord. And beholde, the Lord went by, & a mightie strong winde rent the mountaines, & brake the rockes before the Lord: but the Lord was [f] not in the winde: & after the winde came an earthquake: but the Lord was not in the earthquake:
12 And after ỹ earthquake came fyre: but the Lord was not in the fyre: & after ỹ fyre came a stil and soft voyce.
13 And when Eliiah heard it, he couered his face with his mantel, & went out, & stode in the entring in of the caue: and beholde, there came a voyce vnto him, & said, What doest thou here, Eliiah?
14 And he answered, I haue bene very ielous for the Lord God of hostes, [g] because the children of Israel haue forsaken thy couenant, cast downe thine altars & slayne thy Prophetes with the sworde, & I onely am left, & they seke my life to take it away.
15 And the Lord said vnto him, Go, returne by the wildernes vnto Damascus, & when thou commest there, anoynt Hazael King ouer [g] Aram.
16 And Iehu the sonne of Nimshi shalt thou anoint King ouer Israel: & Elisha the sonne of Shaphat of Abel Meholah shalt thou anoint to be Prophet in thy roume.
17 And * him that escapeth frō the sworde of Hazael, shal Iehu slaye: & him ỹ escapeth from the sworde of Iehu, shal Elisha slay.
18 Yet wil * I leaue seuen thousand in Israel, euen [h] all the knees that haue not bowed vnto Baal & euerie mouthe that hathe not kissed him.
19 ¶ So he departed thence, & founde Elisha the sonne of Shaphat who was plowing with twelue yoke of oxen before him, & was with the twelft: and Eliiah went towards him, & cast his mantel vpon him.
20 And he left the oxen, & ran after Eliiah, and said, [i] Let me, I pray thee, kisse my father and my mother, & then I wil followe thee. Who answered him, Go, returne: for what haue I done to thee?
21 And when he went backe againe frō him, he toke a couple of oxen, and slewe them, and sod their flesh with the [k] instruments of the oxen, & gaue vnto ỹ people, & they did eat: then he arose and went after Eliiah, and ministred vnto him.

1 THen Ben-hadad the King of [a]Arā assembled all his armie, & two and thirtie [a] Kings with him, with horses, & charets, and went vp, & besieged [b] Samaria and foght against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab King of Israel into the citie.

3 And said vnto him, Thus sayeth Ben-hadad, Thy siluer & thy golde his mine: also thy women, & thy faire childrē are mine.

4 And the King of Israel answered, and said, My lord King, according to thy saying, [b] I am thine, and all that I haue.

5 And when the messengers came againe they said, Thus commandeth Ben-hadad, and sayth, When I shal send vnto thee, and commande, thou shalt deliuer me thy siluer & thy golde, & thy womē, & thy children, 6 [c] Or els I wil send my seruants vnto thee by to morow this time: & they shal searche thine house, & ẏ houses of thy seruants: and what soeuer is pleasant in thine eyes, they shal take it in their hands, & bring it away.

7 Then the King of Israel sent for all the Elders of the land, and said, Take hede, I pray you, and se how he seketh mischief: for he sent vnto me for my wiues, & for my children, & for my siluer, & for my golde, and I denyed him not.

8 And all the Elders, and all the people said to him, Hearken [d] not vnto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore he said vnto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tel my lord the King, All that thou didest send for to thy seruant at the first time, that I wil do, but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, & brought him an answer.

10 And Bē-hadad sent vnto him, & said, The gods do so to me & more also, if ẏ [e] dust of Samaria be ynough to all the people that followe me, for euerie man an handful.

11 And the King of Israel answered, and said, Tel him, Let not him that girdeth his harnes, boast him selfe, as he ẏ [f] putteth it of.

12 And when he heard that tidings, as he was ẇ the Kings drinking in the pauilions, he said vnto his seruants, Bring forthe [g] your engines, & they set them against the citie.

13 ¶ And beholde, there came a Prophet vnto Ahab King of Israel, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Hast thou sene all this great multitude? beholde, I wil deliuer it into thine hand this day, that ẏ maiest knowe, [g] that I am the Lord.

14 And Ahab said, By whome? And he said, Thus saith the Lord, By the seruants of the princes of the prouinces. He said againe, Who shal ordre the battel? And answered, Thou.

15 ¶ Then he nombred the seruants of ẏ princes of the prouinces, and they were two hundreth, two and thirtie: & after them he nombred the whole people of all the children of Israel, euen seuen thousande.

16 And they went out at noone: but Ben-hadad did drinke til he was drōken in the tents, bothe he & the Kings: for two & thirtie Kings helped him.

17 So the [h] seruants of the princes of the prouinces went out first: & Ben-hadad sent out, and they shewed him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them aliue: or whether they become out to fight, take thē yet aliue.

19 So they came out of the citie, to wit, the seruants of the princes of the prouinces, & the hoste which followed thē.

20 And they slewe euerie one his [i] enemie: & the [j] Aramites fled, and Israel pursued them: but Ben-hadad the King of Aram escaped on an horse with his [i] horsemen.

21 And ẏ King of Israel went out & smote the horses & charets, & with a great slaughter slewe he the Aramites,

22 (For there had come a Prophet to ẏ King of Israel, and had said vnto him, Go, be of good courage, & consider, and take hede what thou doest: for when ẏ yere is gone about, the King of Aram wil come vp against thee.)

23 ¶ Then the seruants of the King of Aram said vnto him, Their [k] gods are gods of the mountaines, and therefore they ouercame vs: but let vs fight against them in the plaine, & douteles we shal ouercome them.

24 And this do, Take the Kings away, euerie one out of his place, & place captaines for them.

25 And nomber thy selfe an armie, like the armie that thou hast lost, with suche horses, & suche charets, & we wil fight against them in the plaine, & douteles we shal ouercome them: & he hearkened vnto their voyce, and did so.

26 And after the yere was gone about, Ben-hadad nombred the Aramites, & went vp to Aphek to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were nōbred, & were all [l] assembled & went against thē, & the children of Israel pitched before thē like two litle flockes of kiddes: but the Aramites filled the countrey.

28 And there came a man of God, and spake vnto the King of Israel, saying, Thus sayeth the Lord, Because the Aramites

29 And they pitched one ouer against ſ other seuen dayes, & in the seuēth day ſ battel was ioyned: & the children of Israel slewe of the Aramites an hundreth thousand fote men in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphek into ſ citie: & there fel a wall vpon seuen & twentie thousand men that were left: & Behadad fled into the citie, & came into [n] a secret chamber.

31 ¶ And his seruātes said vnto him, Behold now, we haue heard say that the Kings of the house of Israel are merciful Kings: we pray thee, let vs put sackecloth about our [n] loynes, & ropes about our heades, & go out to the King of Israel: it may be that he wil saue thy life.

n In signe of submission, & ſ we haue deserued death, if he wil punishe vs which rigour.

32 Then they girded sackecloth about their loynes, & put ropes about their heades, & came to the King of Israel, & said, Thy seruant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me liue: and he said, Is he yet aliue? he is my brother.

n Or, & caught it of him.

33 Now the men toke diligent hede, [n] if they colde catche anie thing of him, & made haste, & said, Thy brother [o] Ben-hadad. And he said, Go, bring him. So Ben-hadad came out vnto him, and he caused him to come vp vnto ſ charet.

o He is aliue.

34 And Ben-hadad said vnto him, The cities, which my father toke frō thy father, I wil restore, and thou shalt make stretes for thee in [p] Damascus, as my father did in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I wil let thee go with this couenant. So he made a couenant with him, and let him go.

p Thou shalt appoint in my chief citie what ſ wilt, & I wil obey thee.

35 ¶ Then a certeine man of the [o] children of the Prophetes said vnto his neighbour by the commandement of ſ Lord, [q] Smite me, I pray thee. But the man refused to smite him.

o Or, of the disciples.

36 Then said he vnto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, behold, assone as thou art departed frō me, a lyon shal [r] slay thee. So when he was departed from him, a lyon found him and slewe him.

q By this exterual signe he wolde more liuely touche ſ Kings heart.

r Because ſ hast grangreſſed the commandement of the Lord.

37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the mā smote him, and in smiting wounded him.

38 So the Prophet departed, and waited for the King by the way, and disguysed him selfe with ashes vpon his face.

39 And when the King came by, he cryed vnto the King, and said, [r] Thy seruant went into the middes of the battel: and beholde, there went away a mā, whome another man broght vnto me, & said, Kepe this man: if he be lost, and want, thy life shal go for his, or els thou shalt paye a talent of siluer.

r By this parable he maketh Ahab cōdēne him selfe, who made a couenant with Gods enemie, & let him escape, whome God had appointed to be slaine.

40 And as thy seruant had here & there to do, he was gone: and the King of Israel said vnto him, So shal thy iudgement be: thou hast giuen sentence.

41 And he hasted, and toke the ashes away from his face: & the King of Israel knewe hī that he was of the Prophetes:

42 And he said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, * Becausē thou hast let go out of thine hands a man whome I appointed to dye, thy life shal go for his life, & thy people for his people.

1 Iezebel commandeth to kil Naboth, for the Vineyard, that he refuſed to ſel to Ahab. 19 Eliiah reproueth Ahab, and he repenteth.

1 [t] After these things Naboth the Izreelite had a vineyarde in Izreel, hard by the palace of Ahab King of Samaria.

t Or, at this time.

2 And Ahab spake vnto Naboth, saying, [u] Giue me thy vineyarde, ſ I may make me a garden of herbes thereof, because it is nere by mine house: & I wil giue thee for it a better vineyarde then it is: or if it please thee, I wil giue thee the worthe of it in money.

u Thogh Ahab ſ tyrannie be cōdēned by ſ holy Spirit, yet he was not so rigorous ſ he wolde take frō another man his right without ful recompence.

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The Lord kepe me from giuing the inheritance of my fathers vnto thee.

4 Then Ahab came into his house heauy & in displeasure, becausē of ſ worde ẅ Naboth the Izreelite had spoken vnto him. for he had said, I wil not giue thee the inheritance of my fathers, & he lay [x] vpon his bed, & turned his face, and wolde eat no bread.

x Thus the wicked cōsider not what is iust and lawful, but fret inwardely, whē they can not haue their inordinate appetites satisfied.

5 Then Iezebel his wife came to him & said vnto him, Why is thy spirit so sad that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said vnto her, Because I spake vnto Naboth the Izreelite, & said vnto him, Giue me thy vineyarde for money or if it please thee, I wil giue thee another vineyarde for it: but he answered, I wil not giue thee my vineyarde.

7 Then Iezebel his wife said vnto him, [y] Doest thou now gouerne the kingdome of Israel? vp, eat bread, & ” be of good chere, I wil giue thee the vineyard of Naboth the Izreelite.

y As though she said, Thou knowest not what it is to reigne. Cōmande, & intreat not.

10 And set two wicked men before him, & let them witnes against him, saying, Thou dideſt blaſpheme God and the King: then cary him out, & ſtone him that he may dye.

11 And the [e] men of his citie, euen the Elders & gouernours, which dwelt in his citie, did as Iezebel had ſent vnto thē: as it was writen in the letters, which ſhe had ſent vnto them.

12 They proclaimed a faſt, & ſet Naboth among the chief of the people, 13 And there came two wicked men, & ſate before him: & the wicked men witneſſed againſt Naboth in the preſence of ỹ people, ſaying, Naboth did [*] blaſpheme God & the King. Then they caryed him away out of the citie, & ſtoned him with ſtones, that he dyed.

14 Then they ſent to Iezebel, ſaying, Naboth is ſtoned & is dead.

15 ¶ And when Iezebel heard that Naboth was ſtoned and was dead, Iezebel ſaid to Ahab, [f] Vp, & take poſſeſſion of the vineyard of Naboth the Izreelite, which he refuſed to giue thee for mo ney: for Naboth is not aliue, but is dead.

16 And when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he roſe to go downe to the vineyard of Naboth the Izreelite, to take poſſeſſion of it.

17 ¶ And the worde of the Lord came vnto Eliiah the Tiſhbite, ſaying,

18 Ariſe, go downe to mete Ahab King of Iſrael, which is in Samaria: lo, he is in the vineyarde of Naboth, whether he is gone downe to take poſſeſſion of it, 19 Therefore ſhalt thou ſay vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, [g] Haſt thou killed, & alſo gotten poſſeſſion? And thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto him, ſaying, Thus ſaith the Lord, [h] In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, ſhal dogs licke euen thy blood alſo.

20 And Ahab ſaid to Eliiah, Haſt thou foūde me, ô mine enemie? And he anſwered, I haue founde thee: for thou haſt ſolde thy ſelfe to worke wickednes in the ſight of the Lord.

21 * Beholde, I wil bring euil vpon thee, & wil take away thy poſteritie, & wil cut of frō Ahab him ỹ * piſſeth againſt ỹ wall, aſwel him that is * ſhut vp, as him that is left in Iſrael, 23 And alſo of Iezebel ſpake the Lord, ſaying, * The dogs ſhal eat Iezebel, by [k] the wal of Izreel.

24 The dogs ſhal eat him of Ahabs ſtocke that dyeth in the citie: and him that dyeth in the fields, ſhal the foules of the ayre eat.

25 But there was none like Ahab, who did [l] ſell him ſelfe, to worke wickednes in the ſight of the Lord: whome Iezebel his wife prouoked.

26 For he did exceding abominably in following idoles according to all that the Ammorites did, whome the Lord caſt out before the children of Iſrael.

27 Now when Ahab heard thoſe wordes, he rent his clothes, and put ſackecloth vpon [m] him and faſted, and lay in ſackecloth and went [n] ſoftely.

28 And the worde of the Lord came to Eliiah the Tiſhbite, ſaying, 29 Seeſt thou how Ahab is humbled before me? becauſe he ſubmitteth him ſelfe before me, I wil not bring that euil in his dayes, but in his [o] ſonnes dayes wil I bring euil vpon his houſe.

h I hate him: for he doeth not prophecie good vnto me, but euil. And Iehoshaphat said, Let not the King say so.
9 Then the King of Israel called an i Eunuche, & said, Call quickely Michaiah the sonne of Imlah.
10 And the King of Israel & Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah sate either of them on his throne in their k apparel in the voyde place at the entring in of the gate of Samaria, & all the Prophetes prophecied before them.
11 And Zidkiiah the sonne of Chenaanah made him l hornes of yron, and said, Thus saieth the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Aramites, vntil thou hast consumed them.
12 And all the Prophetes prophecied so, saying, Go vp to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shal deliuer it into the Kings hand.
13 ¶ And the messenger that was gone to call Michaiah spake vnto him, saying, Beholde now, the wordes of the Prophetes declare good vnto the King with "one accorde: let thy worde therefore, I pray thee, be like the worde of one of them, & speake thou good.
14 And Michaiah said, As the Lord liueth, whatsoeuer the Lord sayth vnto me, that wil I speake.
15 ¶ So he came to the King, and the King said vnto him, Michaiah, shal we go against Ramoth Gilead to battel, or shal we leaue of? And he answered him n Go vp, & prosper: & the Lord shal deliuer it into the hand of the King.
16 And the King said vnto him, How oft shal I charge thee, that thou tel me nothing but that which is true in the Name of the Lord, 17 Then he said, I sawe all Israel scatred vpon the mountaines, as shepe that had no shepherd. And the Lord said, o These haue no master, let euery man returne vnto his house in peace.
18 (And the King of Israel saied vnto Iehoshaphat, Did I not tel thee, that he wolde prophecie no good vnto me, but euil?)
19 Againe he said, Heare thou therefore the worde of the Lord. I sawe the Lord sit on his throne, & all the p hoste of heauen stode about him on his right hand & on his left hand, 20 And the Lord said, Who shal q entise Ahab that he may go & fall at Ramoth Gilead? And one said on this maner, & another said on that maner.
21 Then there came forthe a spirit, and stode before the Lord, and said, I wil entise him. And the Lord said vnto him, Where with?
22 And he said, I wil go out, & be a r false spirit in the mouthe of all his prophetes. Then he said, Thou shalt entise him, & shalt also preuaile: go forthe, & do so.
23 Now therefore beholde, the Lord hathe put a lying spirit in the mouthe of all these thy prophetes, & the Lord hathe appointed euil against thee.
24 Then Zidkiiah the sonne of Chenaanah came nere & smote Michaiah on the cheke, and said, * s When went the Spirit of the Lord from me, to speake vnto thee?
25 And Michaiah said, Beholde, thou shalt se in that day, when thou shalt go from chamber to chamber to hide thee.
26 And the King of Israel said, Take Michaiah, & cary him vnto Amon the gouernour of the citie, & vnto Ioash the Kings sonne, 27 And say, thus saith the King, Put this man in the prison house, & fede him with t bread of affliction, & with water of affliction, vntil I returne in peace.
28 And Michaiah said, If thou returne in peace, the Lord hathe not spoken by me. And he said, v Hearken all ye people.
29 So the King of Israel & Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah went vp to Ramoth Gilead.
30 And the King of Israel said to Iehoshaphat, I wil change mine apparel, and wil entre into the battel, but put thou on thine apparel. And the King of Israel changed him selfe, & went into the battel.
31 And the King of Aram cõmanded his two & thirtie captaines ouer his charrets, saying, Fight nether with smal, nor great, saue onely against the King of Israel.
32 And when the captaines of the charets sawe Iehoshaphat, they said, Surely it is the King of Israel, & they turned to fight against him: and Iehoshaphat x cryed.

34 Then a certeine mã drue a bowe "mightely & smote the King of Israel betwene the ioyntes" of his brigadine. Wherefore he said vnto his charet man, Turne thine hand and cary me out of the hoste: for I am "hurt.
35 And the battel encreased that day, & the y King stode stil in his charet against the Aramites, & dyed at euen: & the blood ran out of the wounde into the middes of the charet.
36 And there wēt a proclamatiō through out the z hoste about the going downe of the sunne, saying, Euery mā to his citie, and euery man to his owne countrei.

THE SECONDE BOKE of the Kings.

THE ARGVMENT.

THis seconde boke conteineth the actes of the Kings of Iudah and Israel: to wit, of Israel, from the death of Ahab vnto the last King Hoshea, who was imprisonned by the King of Assyria, & his citie Samaria taken, & the ten tribes by the iuste plague of God for their idolatrie & disobedience to God led into captiuitie. And also of Iudah, from the reigne of Iehoram sonne of Iehoshaphat vnto Zedechia who for contemning the Lords commandement by his Prophetes, & neglecting his sundry admonitions, by famine & other meanes, was taken by his enemies, sawe his sonnes moste cruelly slaine before his face, & his owne eyes put out, as the Lord had declared to him before by his Prophet Ieremie: and also by the iuste vengeance of God for contempt of his worde Ierusalem was destroyed, the Temple burnt, and he & all his people were led away captiues into Babylon. In this boke are notable examples of Gods fauour towardes those rulers and people which obey his Prophetes and imbrace his worde: & contrary wise of his plagues towardes those commune weales which neglect his ministers and do not obey his commandements.

CHAP. I.

2 Ahaziah by a fall falleth sicke & consulteth with Baalzebub. 3 He is reproued by Eliiah. 10 The captaines ouer fiftie were sent to Eliiah, whereof two were burnt ẅ fire from heauen by his prayer. 17 Ahaziah dyeth, & Ieheram his brother succedeth him.

1 THen Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab:
2 And [a] Ahaziah fel through the latesse widowe in his vppet chāber which was in Samaria, a So ỹ he was punished for his idolatrie after two sortes: for the Moabites, ẅ were wonte to pay him tribute rebelled, ond he feldowne at a grate ẅ was vpon his house to giue light beneathe.

ria: so he was sicke: then he sent messengers, to whome he said, Go, & enquire of b Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, if I shal recouer of this my disease.

3 Then the Angel of the Lord said to Eliiah the Tishbite, Arise, & go vp to mete the messengers of the King of Samaria, and saye vnto them, c Is it not because there is no God in Israel, ỹ ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

4 Wherefore thus sayth ỹ Lord, Thou shalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone vp, but shalt dye the death. So Eliiah departed.

5 And the messẽgers returned vnto him, to whome he said, Why are ye now returned?

6 And they answered him, There came a man and met vs, and said vnto vs, Go, and returne vnto ỹ King ẅ sent you, and say vnto him, Thus sayth ỹ Lord, d Is it not because there is no God in Israel, ỹ thou sendest to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? Therefore thou shalt not come downe from the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but shalt dye the death.

7 And he said vnto them, What maner of man was he which came and met you, and tolde you these wordes?

8 And they said vnto him, He was an e heerie man, and girded with a girdle of lether about his loynes. Then said he, It is Eliiah the Tishbite.

9 Therefore the King sent vnto him a captaine ouer fiftie with his fifty men, who went vp vnto him: for beholde, he sate on the toppe f of a mountaine, & he said vnto him, O man of God, the King hathe commanded that thou come downe.

10 But Eliiah answered, & said to the captaine ouer the fiftie, If that I be a man of God, let fyre come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fyftie. g So fyre came downe from the heauen and deuoured him and his fiftie.

11 Againe also he sent vnto him another captaine ouer fiftie, with his fifty. Who spake, and said vnto him, h O man of God, thus the King commãdeth, Come downe quickly.

12 But Eliiah answered & said vnto thẽ, i If I be a mã of God, let fyre come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fiftie. So fyre came downe from the heauen, and deuoured him and his fiftie.

13 ¶ Yet againe he sent ỹ third captaine ouer fifty with his fifty. And the third captaine ouer fifty went vp & came, & fel on his knees before Eliiah, & besought him, & said vnto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my k life and the life of these thy fifty seruantes be l precious in thy sight.

14 Beholde, there came fyre downe from the heauen and deuoured the two former captaines ouer fifty with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the Angel of the Lord said vnto Eliiah, Go downe ẅ him, be m not afrayd of his presence. So he arose, and went downe with him vnto the King.

16 And he said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Because thou hast sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub the God of Ekron (was it not because there was no God in Israel to inquire of his worde) therefore thou shalt not come downe of the bed, on which thou art gone vp, but shalt dye the death.

17 So he dyed according to the worde of the Lord ẅ Eliiah had spokẽ. And n Iehoram began to reigne in his steade, in the seconde yere of Iehoram the sonne of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, because he had no sonne.

18 Concerning ỹ rest of ỹ actes of Ahaziah, that he did, are thei not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of ỹ Kings of Israel?

CHAP. II.

1 Eliiah deuideth the waters with his cloke. 11 He is taken vp into heauen. 13 Elisha taketh his cloke & deuideth Iorden. 20 The bitter and venemous waters are healed. 23 The children that mocke Elisha, are rent in pieces with beares.

1 AND when the Lord wolde take vp Eliiah into heauen by a whirle wind, Eliiah went with Elisha from a Gilgal.

2 Then Eliiah said to Elisha, Tary here, I pray thee: for the Lord hathe sent me to Beth-el. But Elisha said, As the Lord liueth, & as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. So they came downe to Beth-el.

3 And the b childrẽ of the Prophetes that were at Beth-el, came out to Elisha, and said vnto him, Knoweſt thou that the Lord wil take thy master from c thine head this day? And he said, Yea, I d knowe it: holde ye your peace.

4 Againe Eliiah said vnto him, Elisha, tary here, I pray thee: for the Lord hathe sent me to Iericho. But he said, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. So thei came to Iericho.

5 And ỹ children of the Prophetes that were at e Iericho, came to Elisha, & said vnto him, Knoweſt thou, that the Lord wil take thy master frõ thine head

6 Moreouer Eliiah said vnto him, Tary, I pray thee, here: for the Lord hathe sent me to Iorden. But he said, As the Lord liueth, & as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. So they went bothe together.

7 And fiftie men of the sonnes of the Prophetes went and stode on the other side afarre of, and thei two stode by Iorden.

8 ¶ Then Eliiah toke his cloke, and wrapt it together, and smote the [f] waters, and they were deuided hether and thether, & thei twaine went ouer on the drye land.

9 Now when thei were passed ouer, Eliiah said vnto Elisha, Aske what I shal do for thee before I be taken from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, Let thy Spirit [g] be double vpon me.

10 And he said, Thou hast asked an hard thing: yet if thou se me when I am taken from thee, thou shalt haue it so: & if not, it shal not be.

11 And as thei wēt walking and talking, beholde, there appeared a charet of fyre, and horses of fyre, and did separate thē twaine. *So Eliiah went vp by a whyrlewinde into [h] heauen.

12 And Elisha sawe it, and he cryed, My father, my father, ỹ charet of Israel, and the horsemen thereof: & he sawe him no more: and he toke his owne clothes, & rent them in two pieces.

13 ¶ He toke vp also the cloke of Eliiah that fel frō him, and returned, and stode by the banke of Iorden.

14 After, he toke ỹ cloke of Eliiah, that fel from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the Lord God of Eliiah, and he him selfe? Againe also he smote the waters, and thei were separated this waye and that waye: and Elisha went ouer.

15 And when the childrē of the Prophetes, which were at Iericho, sawe him on the otherside, they said, [i] The Spirit of Eliiah doeth rest on Elisha: and they came to mete him, & fel to the grounde before him,

16 And said vnto him, Beholde now, there be with thy seruants fiftie strong mē: let them go, we pray thee, and seke thy [k] master, if so be the Spirit of the Lord hathe taken him vp, and cast him vpō some mountaine, or into some valley. But he said, [l] Ye shal not send.

17 Yet they were instant vpon him, til he was ashamed: wherefore he said, Send. So thei sent fiftie men, which soght thre daies, but founde him not.

18 Therefore thei returned to him, (for he taried at Iericho) and he said vnto them, Did not I say vnto you, Go not?

19 ¶ And the men of the citie said vnto Elisha, Beholde, we pray thee: the situacion of this citie is pleasant, as thou, my lord, seest, but the water is noght, & the grounde [o] baren.

20 Then he said, Bring me a newe cruse, & put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went vnto the spring of the waters, and cast there [m] the salt, and said, Thus saith the Lord, I haue healed this water: death shal no more come thereof, nether barennes to the grounde.

22 So the waters were healed vntil this day, according to the worde of Elisha which he had spoken.

23 ¶ And he went vp from thence vnto Bethel. And as he was going vp ỹ waye, litle children came out of the citie, and mocked him, and said vnto him, Come vp, thou balde head, come vp, thou balde head.

24 And he turned backe & loked on thē, and [n] cursed them in the Name of the Lord. And two beares came out of the forest, and tare in pieces two and fourtie children of them.

25 So he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

1 The reigne of Iehoram. 6 He and Iehoshaphat go to warre against Moab which rebelled. 13 Elisha reproueth him, 17 And giueth their hoste water. 24 The Moabites are ouercome. 27 Thier King sacrificeth his sonne.

1 NOw Iehoram the sonne of Ahab began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria the [a] eighteenth yere of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, & reigned twelue yeres.

2 And he wroght euil in the sight of the Lord, but not like his father nor like his mother: for he toke away the image of Baal that his father had made.

3 Neuertheles, he cleaued vnto [b] ỹ sinnes of Ieroboam, the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, & departed not therefrom.

4 ¶ Then [c] Mesha King of Moab had store of shepe, and rendred vnto the King of Israel an hundreth thousand lambes, & an hundreth thousand rams with the woll.

5 But when Ahab was deade, the King of Moab rebelled against the King of Israel.

6 Therefore King Iehoram went out of Samaria the same season, and nombred all Israel,

7 And went, and sent to Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, saying, The King of Moab c This was done after ỹ Dauid had made the Moabites tributaries to his successers.

Moab hathe rebelled against me: wilt thou go w me to battel against Moab? And he answered, I wil go vp: for [d] I am, as thou art, my people, as thy people, and mine horses as thine horses.

8 Then said he, What way shal we go vp? And he answered, The way of the wildernes of Edom.

9 ¶So went the King of Israel & ỹ King of Iudah, and the [e] King of Edom, and when they had compassed the way seuen daies, thei had no water for the hoste, nor for the cattel that [”] followed them.

10 Therefore the King of Israel said, Alas, that the Lord hathe called these thre Kings, to giue them into the hand of Moab.

11 But Iehoshaphat said, Is there not here a Prophet of the Lord, that we may inquire of the Lord by him? And one of the King of Israels seruants answered, & said, Here is Elisha the sone of Shaphat, which [f] powred water on the hands of Eliah.

12 Then Iehoshaphat said, [g] The worde of the Lord is with him. Therefore the King of Israel, and Iehoshaphat, and the King of Edom went downe to him.

13 And Elisha said vnto the King of Israel, [h] What haue I to do w thee? Get thee to the Prophetes of thy father and to the Prophetes of thy mother. And the King of Israel said vnto him, [i] Naye: for the Lord hathe called these thre Kings, to giue them into the hand of Moab.

14 Then Elisha said, As the Lord of hostes liueth, in whose sight I stand, if it were not, that I regarde the presence of Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah, I wolde [k] not haue loked towarde thee, nor sene thee.

15 But now bring me a minstrel. And when the minstrel [l] played, the hand of the Lord came vpon him.

16 And he said, Thus saith the Lord, Make this valley ful of dyches.

17 For thus saith the Lord, Ye shal nether se winde nor se raine, yet the valley shal be filled with water, that ye may drinke, bothe ye and your cattel, and your beastes.

18 But this is a [m] small thing in the sight of the Lord: for he wil giue Moab into your hand.

19 And ye shal smite euerie strong towne and euerie chief citie, and shal fel euerie fayre tre, and shal stop all the fountaines of water, and [n] marre euerie good field with stones.

20 And in the morning when ỹ meat offring was offred, beholde, there came water by the way of Edom: and the countrey was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the Kings were come vp to fight against them, thei gathered all that was able [”] to put on harnes, and vpwarde, and stode in their border.

22 And thei rose early in the morning when the sunne arose vpon the water, & ỹ Moabites sawe the water ouer against them, as red as blood.

23 And thei said, [o] This is blood: the Kings are surely slayne, and one hathe smiten another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoile.

24 And when thei came to the hoste of Israel, the Israelites arose vp, and smote the Moabites, so that thei fled before them, but they [p] inuaded them, and smote Moab.

25 And they destroyed the cities: and on all the good field euerie man cast his stone, & filled them, & thei stopte all the fountaines of water, and felled all the good trees: onely in [q] Kir-haraseth left they the stones therof: how beit thei went about it with slings, and smote it.

26 And when the King of Moab sawe that the battel was to sore for him, he toke with him seuen hundreth men that drewe the sworde to breake through vnto the King of Edom: but thei colde not.

27 Then he toke his eldest sonne, that shulde haue reigned in his steade, & [r] offred him for a burnt offring vpon the wal: so that Israel was sore grieued, and thei departed from him, and returned to their countrey.

8 ¶ And on a time Elisha came to Shunen, & there a woman of great estimation constrained him to eat bread: and as he passed by, he turned in thether to eat bread.

9 And she said vnto her husband, Beholde, I knowe now, that this is an holie man of God that passeth by vs continually.

10 Let vs make [h] him a litle chamber, I pray thee, with walles, and set vs set him there a bed and a table & a stole, and a candlesticke, that he may turne in thether when he commeth to vs.

12 And said to Gehazi his seruant, Call this Shunammite: and when he called her, she stode before him.

13 Then he said vnto him, Say vnto her now, Beholde, thou hast had all this great care for vs, [i] what shalwe do for thee? Is there anie thing to be spoken for thee to the King or to the captaine of the hoste? And she answered, I [k] dwel among mine owne people.

14 Againe he said, What is then to be done for her? Then Gehazi answered, In dede she hathe [l] no sonne, and her husband is olde.

15 Then said he, Call her. And he called her, and she stode in the dore.

16 And he said, *At this time appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a sonne. And she said, Oh my lord, thou man of God, do not lye vnto thine handmaid.

17 So the woman conceiued, and bare a sonne at that same seasō, according to the time of life, that Elisha had said vnto her.

18 ¶ And when the childe was growen, it fel on a day, that he went out to his father, [m] to the reapers.

19 And he said to his father, [m] Mine head, mine head. Who said to his seruant, Beare him to his mother.

20 And he toke him and broght him to his mother, & he sate on her knees til noone, and dyed.

21 Then she went vp, and layed him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the dore vpon him, and went out.

22 ¶ Then she called to her husbād, and said, Sēd with me, I pray thee, one of the yong men & one of the asses: for I wil haste to the man of God, and come againe.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is nether [n] newe moone nor Sabbath day. And she answered, [o] All shalbe wel.

24 Then she sadled an asse, and said to her seruant, Dryue, and go forwarde: stay not for me to get vp, except I bid thee.

25 ¶ So she went, & came vnto the mā of God to mount Carmel. And when the man of God saw her [p] ouer against him, he said to Gehazi his seruant, Beholde, the Shunammite.

26 Runne now, I say, to mete her, and say vnto her, Art thou in helthe? is thine husband in helthe? & is the childe in helthe? And she answered, We are in helthe.

27 And when she came to ỹ man of God vnto the mountaine, she [q] caught him by his fete: and Gehazi wēt to her, to thrust her away: but the man of God said, Let her alone: for her soule is [r] vexed within her, and the Lord hathe hid it frō me, and hathe not tolde it me.

28 Then she said, Did I desire a sonne of my lord? did I not say? Disceiue me not.

29 Then he said to Gehazi, Girde thy loynes, and take my staffe in thine hād, and go thy way: [s] if thou mete anie, salute him not: and if anie salute thee, answer him not: and lay my staffe vpon the face of the childe.

30 And the mother of the childe said, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. Therefore he arose, and followed her.

31 But Gehazi was gone before them, & had layed the staffe vpon ỹ face of the childe, but he nether spake nor heard: wherefore he returned to mete him and tolde him, saying, The childe is not waken.

32 ¶ Then came Elisha into ỹ house, and beholde, the childe was dead, and layed vpon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and shut ỹ dore vpon them twaine, and prayed vnto the Lord.

34 After he went vp, and [t] lay vpō the childe, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes vpon his eyes, and his hāds vpon his hands, and stretched him selfe vpon him, & the flesh of the childe waxed warme.

CHAP. V.

1 Naamā the Syrian is healed of his leprosie. 16 Elisha refuseth his giftes. 27 Gehazi is striken with leprosie, because he toke money, & raiment of Naaman.

1 NOw was there one Naaman captaine of the hoste of the King of Aram, a great man, and honorable in the sight of his lord, because that by him ỹ Lord had [a] deliuered the Aramites. He also was a mightie man and valiant, but a lepre.

2 And the Aramites had gone out by bādes, & had taken a litle maid of ỹ lād of Israel, and she [”] serued Naamās wife.

3 And she said vnto her mastres, Wolde God my lord were with the [b] Prophet that is in Samaria: he wolde soone deliuer him of his leprosie.

4 And [c] he went in, and tolde his lord, saying, Thus and thus saith the maid ỹ is of the land of Israel.

5 And the King of Aram said, Go thy way thether, and I wil send a letter vnto the King of Israel. And he departed, and [d] toke [”] with him ten talents of siluer, and six thousand peces of golde, and ten change of raiments,

6 And brogt the letter to the King of Israel to this effect, Now when this letter is come vnto thee, vnderstand, that I haue sent thee Naaman my seruant, that thou mayest heale him of his leprosie.

7 And when the King of Israel had red the letter, he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kil and to giue life, that he doeth send to me, that I shulde heale a man from his leprosie? wherefore consider, I pray you, and se how he seketh a quarel against me.

8 But when Elisha the man of God had heard that the King of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent vnto the King, saying, [e] Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shal knowe, that there is a Prophete in Israel.

9 ¶ Then Naaman came with his horses, & with his charets, and stode at the dore of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger vnto him, saying, Go and wash thee in Iorden seuen times, and thy flesh shal come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.

11 But Naaman was [f] wroth & wēt away, and said, Beholde, I thoght with my selfe, He wil surely come out, and stand, and call on the Name of the Lord his God, & put his hand on the place, and heale the leprosie.

12 Are not Abanah and Pharpar, riuers of Damascus, better then all the waters of Israel? may I not wash me in thē, and be cleansed? So he turned, and departed in displeasure.

13 But his seruants came, and spake vnto him, and said, [f] Father, if the Prophet had commanded thee a great thing, woldest thou not haue done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be cleane?

14 Then went he downe, and * washed him selfe seuen times in Iorden, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came againe like vnto the flesh of a litle childe, and he was cleane.

25 ¶ Then he went in, and stode before his master. And Elisha said vnto him, Whence commest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy seruant went no whether.

n Was not I present with thee in spirit?

26 But he said vnto him, [n] Went not mine heart with ther when the man turned againe frō his charet to mete thee? Is this a time to take money, and to receiue garments, [o] and oliues, and vineyardes, and shepe, and oxen, and men seruants, and maid seruants?

CHAP. VI.

6 Elisha maketh yron to swimme aboue the water. 8 He discloseth the King of Syrias counsel to the King of Israel. 13 Who sending certaine to take him, were kept fast in Samaria. 24 Samaria is besieged and endureth extreme famine.

1 AND the children of the Prophetes said vnto Elisha, Beholde, we pray thee, the place where we dwel with thee, is to litle for vs.

2 Let vs now go to Iorden, that we may take thence euerie man a [a] beame, and make vs a place to dwel in. And he answered, Go.

a Or a piece of wood &c to buylde with.

3 And one said, vouchsafe, I pray thee, to go with thy seruants. And he answered, I wil go.

4 So he went with them, and when they came to Iorden, they cut downe wood.

5 And as one was felling of a tre, the [b] yron fel into the water: then he cryed, & said, Alas master, it was but borowed.

b Or, the axe head.

6 And the man of God said, Where fel it? And he shewed him the place. Then he cut downe a piece of wood, and cast in thether, and he caused y yron to [b] swime.

b God wroght this miraculously to confirme the autoritie of Elisha, to whome he had giue suche abūdance of his Spirit.

7 Then he said, Take it vp to thee. And he stretched out his hand, and toke it.

8 Thē the King of Aram warred against Israel and toke counsel with his seruāts, and said, In [c] suche and suche a place shal be my campe.

c Meaning, y he wolde lie in ambushe & take y Israelites at vnwares.

9 Therefore the man of God sent vnto the King of Israel, saying, Beware thou go not ouer to suche a place: for there the Aramites are come downe.

10 So the King of Israel sent to the place which the man of God tolde him, & warned him of, and [d] saued him selfe from thence, not once, nor twise.

d The wicked cōspire nothing so craftely, but God can reueile it to his seruāts & cause their counsel to be disclosed.

11 And the heart of the King of Arā was troubled for this thing: therefore he called his seruants and said vnto them, Wil ye not shewe me, w of vs bewraieth our counsel to the King of Israel?

12 Then one of his seruants said, None, my lord, ô King, but Elisha the Prophet y is in Israel, telleth the King of Israel, euen y wordes that thou speakest in thy [e] priuie chamber.

e There is nothing so secret y thou canst go about, but he knoweth it, & discouereth it vnto his King.

13 And he said, Go, and espie where he is, y I may send and fetch him. And one tolde him, saying, Beholde, he is in Dothan.

14 ¶ So he sent thether horses, and charets, and a [f] mightie hoste: and they came by night, and compassed the citie.

f Thogh it had bene nothing in mans iudgemēt to haue taken Elisha, yet the wicked euer doute & thinke thei are neuer able to prepare power ynough thogh it be but against one, or a fewe.

15 And when the seruant of the man of God arose early to go out, beholde, an hoste hoste cõpassed the citie with horses and charets. Then his seruãt said vnto him, Alas master, how shal we do?

g For he was assured of Gods helpe, & ỹ millions of Angels camped about the godlie to deliuer them.

16 And he answered, [g] Feare not: for they that be with vs, are mo then they that be with them.

h That he may beholde how thou hast prepared an armie to rescue vs.

17 Then Elisha prayed, & said, Lord, I beseche thee, open his eyes, [h] that he maie see. And ỹ Lord opened ỹ eyes of the seruant, & he loked, & beholde, the mountaine was ful of horses & charets of fyre round about Elisha.

i Meaning, the Syrians his enemies, ẅ came downe, thinking them selues sure of him.

18 So [i] they came downe to him, but Elisha prayed vnto the Lord, & said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindenes. And he smote them with blindenes, according to the worde of Elisha.

19 And Elisha said vnto them, This is not the way, neither is this the citie: followe me, and I wil lead you to the man whome ye seke. But he [k] led them to Samaria.

k Thus he did being led by the Spirit of God & not because he sought his owne reuengance, but onely to set forth the glorie of God.

20 And when they were come to Samaria, Elisha said, Lord, open their eyes ỹ they may se. And ỹ Lord opened their eyes, and they sawe, and beholde, they were in the middes of Samaria.

l The wicked vse reuerent & graue wordes towardes the seruãts of God, when they thinke to haue anie commoditie by them, though in their heart they can not abyde them.

21 And the King of Israel said vnto Elisha when he sawe them, [l] My father, shal I smite them, shal I smite them?

22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: doest thou not smite them ỹ thou hast take with thy sworde, & with thy bowe? but set bread and water before them, ỹ they may eat and drinke and go to their master.

m For this gentle intreatie & the miracle wroght by the Prophet, did more preuaile, for cõmune quietnes, then if they had bene ouercome in battel: for they returned no more at ỹ time to fight against Israel, or in that Kings dayes.

23 And he made great preparcion for them: & when they had eaten & dronken, he sent them away: and they went to their master. So the bands of Aram came [m] nomore into the land of Israel.

n The Ebrewes write, that they burned it in ỹ siege for lacke of wood.

o Meaning anie kinde of vitaile, as corne and wine, &c.

24 But afterwarde Ben-hadad King of Aram gathered all his hoste, and went vp, & besieged Samaria.

25 So there was a great famine in Samaria: for lo, they besieged it vntil an asses head was at foure score pieces of siluer, and ỹ fourth parte of a kab of doones [n] doung at fiue pieces of siluer.

26 And as the King of Israel was going vpon ỹ wall, there cryed a woman vnto him, saying, Helpe, my lord, o King.

27 And he said, Seing the Lord doeth not succour thee, how shulde I helpe thee with the [o] barne, or with the wine presse?

28 Also ỹ King said vnto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said vnto me, Giue thy sonne, ỹ we may eat him to day, and we wil eat my sonne tomorowe.

Deut. 26. 57.

29 *So we sod my sonne, and did eat him: and I said to her the day after, Giue thy sonne, that we may eat him, but she hathe hid her sonne.

30 And when the King had heard the wordes of the woman, he rent his clothes, (and as he went vpon the wall, the people loked, and beholde, he had sackecloth [p] within vpon his flesh)

q Thus hypocrites, whe they sele Gods iudgements, thinke to please him with outward ceremonies, whome in prosperitie they wil not knowe.

31 And he said, God do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the sonne of Shaphat shal stãd on him this day.

r Meaning, Iehoram, Achabs sonne who killed the prophetes & caused Naboth to be stoned.

32 (Now Elisha sate in his house, and the Elders sate with him.) And the King sent a man before him: but before the messenger came to him he said to ỹ Elders, Se ye not how this [q] murtherers sonne hathe sent to take away mine head? take hede when the messenger commeth, & shut ỹ dore, and handle him roughly at the dore: is not the sound of his masters fete behind him?

s So ỹ wicked fall into a rage & desperation, if they finde not sodeine remedy against their afflictios.

33 While he yet talked with them, beholde the messenger came downe vnto him, & said, Beholde, this euil commeth of the Lord: [r] shulde I attend on ỹ Lord any longer?

CHAP. VII.

1 Elisha prophecieth plẽtie of vitaile and other things to Samaria. 6 The Syrians runne away, and haue no mã following thẽ. 17 The prince that wolde not beleue the worde of Elisha is troden to death.

1 THen Elisha said, Heare ye ỹ worde of ỹ Lord: thus saith the Lord, [a] Tomorowe this time a measure of fine floure shalbe solde for a shekel, and two measures of barly for a shekel in ỹ gate of Samaria.

a The godlie are euer assured of Gods helpe in their necessities, but ỹ times and houres are onely reueled by Gods Spirit.

2 Then a prince, on whose hand ỹ King [b] leaned, answered the man of God, and said, Though the Lord wolde make [c] windowes in the heauen, coulde this thing come to passe? And he said, Beholde, thou shalt se it with thine eyes, but ỹ shalt not [d] eat thereof.

b To whome ỹ King gaue ỹ charge & ouersight of things, as verse. 17.

c He mocketh at ỹ prophetes wordes, saying ỹ if God rained downe corne from heauen ỹ this colde not come to passe.

d Thy infidelitie shalbe punished herein, whe thou shalt se this miracle & yet not be partaker thereof.

3 Now there were foure leprouse men at the [e] entring in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here vntil we dye?

e For it was cõmanded in the Lawe ỹ they shulde dwel apart & not among there brethre, Leui. 13. 46

4 If we say, We wil entre into the citie, ỹ famine is in the citie, & we shal dye there: and if we sit here, we dye also. Now therefore come, and let vs fall into the campe of the Aramites: if thei saue our liues, we shal liue: & if they kil vs, we are but dead.

f Thus God nedeth no great preparation to destroy ỹ wicked, though they be neuer so many for he can scatter them with a smale noise or shaking of a leafe.

5 So they rose vp in the twilight, to go to the campe of the Aramites: and when thei were come to the vtmoste parte of the campe of the Aramites, lo, there was no man there.

6 For the Lord had caused the campe of ỹ Aramites to heare a [f] noise of charets & a noise of horses, & a noise of a great armie, so ỹ they said one to another, Beholde, the King of Israel hathe hired against vs the Kings of the Hittites, & the Kings of the Egyptians to come vpon vs.

7 Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, & left their tētes & their horses, & their asses, euen the campe as it was, and fled for their liues.

g The wicked nede no greater enemie the their owne conscience to pursue them.

8 And when these lepers came to the vtmost part of the campe, they entred into one tēt, and did eat and drincke, and caried thence siluer and golde, and raiment, and went and hid it: after they returned, and entred into another tent, & caried thence also, and went, and hid it.

9 Then said one to another, We do not wel: this day is a day of good tidings, and we holde our peace. if we tary til day light, some[n] mischief wil come vpon vs. Now therefore come, let vs go, and tel the Kings housholde.

n Or, we shalbe punished for our faute.

10 So they came, & called vnto ỹ porters of the citie, & tolde them, saying, We came to the campe of the Aramites, & lo, there was no man there, nether voyce of man, but horses tyed and asses tyed: and the tentes are as they were.

11 And the porters cryed and declared to the Kings house within.

12 Then the King arose in the night, and said vnto his seruants, [h] I wil shewe you now, what the Aramites haue done vnto vs. They knowe that we are afflamished, therefore they are gone out of the campe to hide them selues in the field, saying, When thei come out of ỹ citie, we shal catche them aliue, and get into the citie.

h He mistrusted ỹ prophetes wordes, & therefore colde beleue nothing, as thei ẅ are more politike then godlie euer cast more perils then nedeth.

13 And one of his seruants answered, and said, Let men take now fiue of the horses that remaine, & are left in the citie, (beholde, they are euen as all the [i] multitude of Israel that are left therein: beholde, I say, they are as the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) & we wil send to se.

i There are no more left, but thei, or the rest are consumed ẅ the famine as ỹ rest of ỹ people.

14 So they toke [n] two charets of horses, and the King sent after the hoste of the Aramites, saying, Go and se.

n Or, two horses of the charet, which were accustomed to draw in the charet.

15 And they went after them vnto Iorden, and lo, all the way was ful of clothes and vessels which the Aramites had cast from them in their haste: & ỹ messengers returned, and tolde the King.

16 Then the people went out and spoiled the campe of the Aramites: so a measure of fine floure was at a shekel, and two measures of barly at a shekel [k] according to the worde of the Lord.

k Which he spake by the mouthe of Elisha. vers. 1.

17 And the King gaue the prince (on whose hand he leaned) the charge of the gate, & the people [l] trode vpon him in ỹ gate, and he dyed, as the man of God had said, which spake it, when the King came downe to him.

l As the people preased out of ỹ gate to runne to ỹ Syrians tētes where they had heard was meat, & great spoile left.

18 And it came to passe, as the man of God had spoken to the King, saying, Two measures of barly at a shekel and a measure of fine floure shalbe at a shekel, tomorowe about this time in ỹ gate of Samaria.

19 But the prince had answered ỹ man of God, and said, Though ỹ Lord wolde make windowes in the heauen, colde it come so to passe? And he said, Beholde, ỹ shalt se it with thine eies, but thou shalt not eat thereof.

20 And so it came vnto him: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Elisha prophecieth vnto the Shunammite the dearth of seuen yere. 12 He prophecieth to Hazael that he shalbe King of Syria. 15 He reigneth after Benhadad. 16 Iehoram reigneth ouer Iudah. 20 Edom falleth from Iudah. Ohoziah succedeth Iehoram.

1 THen spake Elisha vnto the womā, *whose sonne he had restored to life, saying, Vp, and go, thou, and thine house, and soiourne where thou [a] canst soiourne: for the Lord hathe called for a famine, & it commeth also vpon the land seuen yeres.

Chap. 4. 35.

a Where thou canst finde a cōmodious place to dwel, where as is plentie.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God, and went bothe she & her housholde and soiourned in the land of the Philistims seuen yeres.

3 ¶ And at the seuen yeres end, the woman returned out of ỹ land of ỹ Philistims and went out [b] to call vpon ỹ King for her house and for her land.

b That is to cōplaine on the ẅ had taken her possessios whiles she was absent.

4 And the King talked with Gehazi the seruant of the man of God, saying, Tel me, I praye thee, all the great actes, ỹ Elisha hathe done.

5 And as he tolde [c] the King, how he had restored one dead to life, beholde, the woman, whose sonne he had raised to life, called vpon the King for her house & for her land. Then Gehazi said, My lord, ô King, this is the woman, and this is her sonne, whome Elisha restored to life.

c Gods wonderful prouidence appeareth in this ỹ he caused ỹ King to be desirous to heare of him, whome before he contemned, & also hereby prepared an entrance to the poore widowes sute.

6 And when the King asked the woman, she tolde him: so the King appointed her an Eunuche, saying, Restore thou all ỹ are hers, and all the [d] fruites of her landes since the day she left the land, euen vntil this time.

d The King caused ỹ to be iustely restored ẅ was wrongfully holden from her.

7 ¶ Then Elisha came to Damascus, & Benhadad the King of Aram was sicke. & one tolde him, saying, The man of God is come hether.

8 And the King said vnto Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go mete ỹ man of God, that thou maiest inquire of the Lord by him, saying, Shal I recouer of this disease?

9 ¶ So Hazael wēt to mete him, and toke the the present in his hand, and of euerie [e] good thing of Damascus, euen the burden of fourty camels, and came and stoode before him, and said, Thy sonne Ben-hadad King of Aram hathe sent me to thee, saying, Shal I recouer of this disease?

10 And Elisha said to him, Go, & say vnto him, Thou shalt [f] recouer: howbeit ý Lord hathe shewed me, that he shal surely dye.

11 And he loked vpon him stedfastely til Hazael was ashamed, and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael said, Why wepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I knowe the euil that thou shalt do vnto the children of Israel: for their strong cities shalt thou set on fyre, and their yong men shalt thou slay with the sworde, and shalt dashe their infants against the stones, & rent in pieces their women with childe.

13 Thē Hazael said, What [g] is thy seruāt a dog, that I shulde do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The Lord hathe shewed me, that thou shalt be King of Aram.

14 ¶So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, Who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He tolde me that thou shuldest recouer.

15 And on the morow he toke a thicke cloth and dipt it in water, and [h] spread it on his face, and he dyed: & Hazael reigned in his steade.

16 ¶*Now in the fifte yere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab [i] ing of Israel, and of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, [i] Iehoram the sonne of Iehoshaphat King of Iudah began [k] to reigne.

17 He was two and thirtie yere olde, when he began to reigne: and he reigned eight yere in Ierusalem.

18 And he walked in the wayes of the Kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the [l] daughter of Ahab was his wife, and he did euil in the sight of the Lord.

19 Yet the Lord wolde not destroy Iudah, for Dauid his seruants sake, * as he had promised him to giue him a light & to his children for euer.

20 ¶ In those dayes Edom [m] rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah, & made a King ouer them selues.

21 Therefore Ioram went to Zair, and all his charets with him & he arose by night, and smote the Edomites which were about him with the captaines of the charets, and the people fled into their tentes.

22 So Edom rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah vnto this day, then [n] Libnah rebelled at that same time.

23 Concerning the rest of the actes of Ioram and all that he did, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah?

24 And Ioram slept with his fathers, & was buryed with his fathers in the citie of Dauid. And *Ahaziah his sonne reigned in his steade.

25 ¶In the twelft yere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab King of Israel did Ahaziah the sonne of Iehoram King of Iudah begin to reigne.

26 [o] Two and twentie yere olde was Ahaziah when he began to reigne, & he reigned one yere in Ierusalem, & his mothers name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri King of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did euil in the sight of the Lord, like the house of Ahab: for he was the sonne in laxe of the house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Ioram the sonne of Ahab to warre against Hazael King of Aram in [p] Ramoth Gilead, and the Aramites smote Ioram.

29 And King Ioram returned to be healed in [q] Izreel of the wounds which the Aramites had giuē him at Ramah, when he foght against Hazael King of Aram. And Ahaziah the sonne of Iehoram King of Iudah went doxne to se Ioram the sonne of Ahab in Izreel, because he was sicke.

CHAP. IX.

6 Iehu is made King of Israel. 24 And killeth Iehoram the King thereof, 27 And Ahaziah, otherwise called Ochozias, the King of Iudah, 33 And causeth Iezebel to be cast downe out of a window, and the dogs did eat her.

1 THen Elisha the Prophet called one of the children of the Prophetes, and said vnto him, *[a] Girde thy loynes and take this boxe of oyle in thine hand, and get thee to Ramoth Gilead.

2 And when thou commest thether, loke where is Iehu the sonne of Iehoshaphat, the sonne of Nimshi, and go, and make him arise vp from among his brethren, & lead him [b] to a secret chamber:

3 Then take the boxe of oyle, and powre it on his head, & say, Thus sayeth the Lord, I haue anointed thee for King ouer Israel: then open the dore, and flee without anye tarying.

4 So the seruant of the Prophet gate him to Ramoth Gilead.

5 And when he came in beholde, [c] captaines of the armie were sitting. And he said, I haue a message to thee, ô captaine.

7 And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may auenge the blood of my seruants the Prophetes, & the blood of all the seruants of ỹ Lord * of the hand of Iezebel

8 For the whole house of Ahab shalbe destroyed: and *I wil cut of from Ahab, him that maketh water against the wall, aswel him that is shut vp, as him that is left in Israel.

9 And I wil make the house of Ahab like the house * of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, & like the house * of Baasha the sonne of Ahiiah.

10 And the dogs shal eat Iezebel in the field of Izreel, and there shalbe none to burye her. And he opened the dore, and fled.

11 ¶ Then Iehu came out to the [c] seruants of his lord. And one said vnto him, Is all wel? wherefore came this [d] mad fellowe to thee? And he said vnto them, Ye knowe the man, and what his talke was.

12 And they said, It is false, tel vs it now. Then he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I haue anointed thee for King ouer Israel.

13 Then they made haste, and toke euerie man his garment, and put it vnder him on the top of the staires, and blewe the trumpet, saying, Iehu is King.

14 So Iehu the sonne of Iehoshaphat the sonne of Nimshi conspired against Ioram (Now Iorã kept Ramoth Gilead, he & all Israel becausse of Hazael King of Aram.

15 And *King Ioram returned to be healed in Izreel of the woundes, which the Aramites had giuen him, when he foght with Hazael King of Aram) and Iehu said, If it be your mindes, let no man departe and escape out of the citie, to go & tel in Izreel.

16 So Iehu gate vp into a charet, and went to Izreel: for Ioram laye there, and [e] Ahaziah King of Iudah was come downe to se Ioram.

17 And the watcheman that stode in the towre in Izreel, spyed the companie of Iehu as he came, and said, I se a compagnie. And Iehoram said, Take a horseman and send to mete them, that he may say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horsebacke to mete him, and said, Thus saith the King, Is it peace? And Iehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? [f] turne behinde me. And the watcheman tolde, saying, The messenger came to them, but he commeth not againe.

19 Then he sent out another on horsebacke, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the King, Is it peace? And Iehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turne behinde me.

20 And the watcheman tolde, saying, He came to them also but commeth not againe, and the marching is like the marching of Iehu the sonne of Nimshi: for he marcheth [f] furiously.

21 ¶ Then Iehoram said, Make readie: and his charet was made readie. And Iehoram King of Israel and Ahaziah King of Iudah went out ether of them in his charet against Iehu, and met him in the field of Naboth the Izreelite.

22 And when Iehoram sawe Iehu, he said, Is it peace, Iehu? And he answered, What [g] peace? the whoreredomes of thy mother Iezebel, and her witchcraftes are yet in great nomber.

23 Then Iehoram turned his hand, & fled, and said to Ahaziah, O Ahaziah, there is treason.

24 But Iehu toke a bowe in his hãd, and smote Iehoram betwene the shulders, that the arrowe went through his heart: and he fel downe in his charet.

25 Then said Iehu to Bidkar, a captaine, Take, & cast him in some place of the field of Naboth ỹ Izreelite: for I remember that when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the Lord [h] layed this burden vpon him.

26 *Surely I haue sene yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his [h] sonnes, said the Lord, and I wil render it thee in this field, saith the Lord: now therefore take and cast him in ỹ field, according to the worde of the Lord.

27 But when Ahaziah the King of Iudah sawe this, he fled by the way of the garden house: and Iehu pursued after him, & said, Smite him also in the charet: & they smote him in the going vp to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to [i] Megiddo, and there dyed.

28 And his seruãts caryed him in a charet to Ierusalem, & buryed him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the citie of Dauid.

29 ¶ And in the [k] eleuenth yere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab, began Ahaziah to reigne ouer Iudah.

30 And when Iehu was come to Izreel, Iezebel heard of it, and peinted her face, and tyred her head, [l] & loked out at a window, 31 And as Iehu entred at the gate, she said, Had [m] Zimri peace, which slewe his master?

Iehu causeth the seuentie sonnes of Ahab to be slayne, 13 And after that fourty and two of Ahaziahs brethren. 25 He killeth also all the priests of Baal. 35 After his death his sonne reigneth in his steade.

1 AHab had now seuentie [a] sonnes in Samaria. And Iehu wrote letters, & sent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Izreel, & to the Elders, and to the bringers vp of Ahabs childrē, to this effect,

2 Now when this letter commeth to you, (for ye haue with you your masters sonnes, ye haue with you bothe charets and horses, and a defensed citie, and armour)

3 Consider therefore which 'of your masters sonnes is best and moste mete, & [b] set him on his fathers throne, and fight for your masters house.

4 But they were excedingly afrayed, & said, Beholde, two Kings colde not stād before him, how shal we then stand?

5 And he that was gouernour of Ahabs house, and he that ruled the citie, and the Elders, and the bringers vp of the childrē sent to Iehu, saying, We are thy seruants, and wil do all that thou shalt byd vs: we wil make no King: do what semeth good to thee.

6 ¶ Then he wrote another letter to them, saying. If ye be mine, & wil obey my voice, [c] take the heades of the men that are your masters sonnes, and come to me to Izreel by tomorowe this time. (Now ỹ Kings sonnes, euen seuenty persones were with the great men of the citie, which broght them vp)

7 And whē the letter came to them, they toke the Kings sonnes, and slewe the seuenty persones, and laied their heades in baskets, and sent them vnto him to Izreel.

8 ¶ Then there came a messenger & tolde him, saying, They haue broght the heades of the Kings sonnes. And he said, Let them lay them on two heapes at the entring in of the gate vntil ỹ morning.

9 And when it was day, he went out, & stode & said to all the people, Ye be [d] righteous: beholde, I conspired against my master, & slewe him: but who slewe all these?

10 Knowe now that there shal fall vnto the earth nothing of the worde of the Lord, which the Lord spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the Lord hathe broght to passe the things that he spake [p] by his seruant * Eliiah.

11 So Iehu slewe all that remayned of the house of Ahab in Izreel, and all that were great with him, and his familiars and his [e] priests, so that he let none of his remaine.

12 And he arose, and departed and came to Samaria. And as Iehu was in the waye by an house where the shepherdes did shere, 13 He mette with the brethren of Ahaziah King of Iudah and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah, & go downe to salute the childrē of the King and the children of the quene.

14 And he said, Take them aliue. And they toke them aliue, & slewe them at the well beside the house where ỹ shepe are shorne, euen two and fourtie mē, and he [f] left not one of them.

15 ¶ And when he was departed thence, he met with Iehonadab ỹ sonne of Rechab comming to mete him, and he [g] blessed him, and said to him, Is thine heart vpright, as mine heart is toward thine? And Iehonadab answered, Yea, douteles. Then giue me thine hand. And when he had giuen him his hād, he toke him vp to him into the charet.

16 And he said, Come with me, and se ỹ zeale that I haue for the Lord: so they made him ryde in his charet.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slewe all that remained vnto Ahab in Samaria, til he had destroyed him, according to the worde of the Lord, which he spake to Eliiah.

18 Then Iehu assembled all the people, and said vnto them, Ahab serued [h] Baal a litle, but Iehu shal serue him muche more.

19 Now therefore call vnto me all the propheres of Baal, all his seruants, and all his priests, and let not a man be lacking: for I haue a great sacrifice for Baal:

a The Scripture vseth to call them sonnes ẅ are ether children, or nephewes.

b He wrote this to proue them whether they wolde take his parte or no.

c God as a iuste iudge punisheth ỹ wicked children of wicked parents vnto ỹ thirde & fourth generacion.

d Ye can not iustely condēne me for ỹ Kings death, seing ye haue done the like to his posteritie: for the Lord cōmanded me, and moued you to execute this his iudgement.

[p] Ebr. by the hand of. 1. King. 21, 29.

e Meaning, ẅ were the idolatrous priests.

f Thus Gods vengeance is vpon them that haue any parte or familiaritie with ỹ wicked.

g For he feared God and lamented the wickednes of those times: therefore Iehu was glad to ioyne with him: of Rechab read Iere. 35, 2.

* Or, praised God for him.

whoſoeuer is lacking, he ſhal not liue. But Iehu did it by a ſubtiltie to deſtroye the ſeruants of Baal.

*Ebr. ſacrifice.

20 And Iehu ſaid, *Proclame a ſolemne aſſemblie for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 So Iehu ſent vnto all Iſrael, and all the ſeruants of Baal came, and there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the houſe of Baal, & the houſe of Baal was ful from end to end.

22 Then he ſaid vnto him that had the charge of the veſtrie, Bring forthe veſtements for all the ſeruats of Baal. And he brought them out veſtements.

23 And when Iehu wēt, & Iehonadab the ſonne of Rechab into the houſe of Baal, he ſaid vnto the ſeruants of Baal, Searche diligently, and loke, leſt there be here with you any of the i ſeruants of the Lord, but the ſeruants of Baal onely.

i Thus God wolde haue his ſeruants preſerued, and idolaters deſtroyed: as in his lawe he giueth expreſſe comandement, Deut 13.

24 And when they went in to make ſacrifice & burnt offring, Iehu appointed foureſcore men without, and ſaid, If anie of the mē whome I haue brought into your hands, eſcape, *his ſoule ſhal be for his ſoule.

*Or, he ſhal dye for him.

25 And when he had made an end of the burnt offring, Iehu ſaid to the garde, and to the captaines, Go in, ſlaye them, Let not a man come out. And they ſmote them with the edge of the ſworde. And the garde, and the captaines caſt them out, & went vnto the k citie, where was the temple of Baal.

k Which citie was nere to Samaria.

26 And they brought out the images of the temple of Baal, and burnt them.

27 And they deſtroyed ỹ image of Baal, and threwe downe the houſe of Baal, and made a iakes of it vnto this day.

28 So Iehu deſtroyed Baal out of Iſrael.

29 But from the ſinnes of Ieroboam the ſonne of Nebat which made Iſrael to ſinne, Iehu departed not from them, nether from the golden calues that were in Beth-el and that were in Dan.

30 ¶ And the Lord ſaid vnto Iehu, Becauſe thou haſt diligently executed that which was right in mine eyes, and haſt done vnto the houſe of Ahab according to all things that were in mine heart, therefore ſhal thy l ſonnes vnto the fourte generacion ſit on the throne of Iſrael.

l Thus God approueth & rewardeth his zeale, in executing Gods iudgement, albeit his wickednes was afterward puniſhed.

31 But Iehu regarded not to walke in the lawe of the Lord God of Iſrael with all his heart: for he departed not from the ſinnes of Ieroboam, which made Iſrael to ſinne.

*Or, to cut thē of.

32 In thoſe dayes the Lord began to *lothe Iſrael, and Hazael ſmote thē in all the coaſtes of Iſrael, 34 Concerning the reſt of the actes of Iehu, and all that he did, and all his valiant dedes, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iſrael?

35 And Iehu ſlept with his fathers, and they buryed him in Samaria, and Iehoahaz his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

36 And the time that Iehu reigned ouer Iſrael in Samaria is eight and twentie yeres.

k To wit, Iehoiada.

11 And the garde stode, euerie man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side, about the altar & about the house, round about the King.

CHAP. XII.

6 Iehoash maketh prouision for the repairing of the Temple. 16 He stayeth the King of Syria by a present from comming against Ierusalem. 20 He his killed by two of his seruants.

1 IN * the seuenth yere of Iehu, Iehoash began to reigne, and reigned fourty yeres in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

* 1. Chro. 14, 1.

2 And Iehoash did that which was good in the sight of the Lord all his time that a Iehoiada the Priest taught him.

a So long as rulers giue care to the true ministers of God, they prosper.

3 But b the hie places were not taken away: for the people offred yet and burnt incense in the hie places.

b So hard a thing it is for them, that are in autoritie to be broght to the perfit obedience of God:

4 ¶ And Iehoash said to the Priests, All the siluer of dedicate things that be broght to the house of ȳ Lord, that is, the money of them that are vnder the c counte, the money that euerie man is set at, and all the money that one offreth willingly, and bringeth into the house of the Lord.

c That is, the money of redēption, Exo. 30, 12: also the money which the Priest valued ȳ vowes at, Leui. 27, 2, & their free liberalitie.

5 Let the Priests take it to them, euerie man of his acquaintance: and they shal repaire the broken d places of ȳ house, whereseuer anie decaye is found.

d For the Temple which was buylt an hundreth fiftie & fiue yeres before, had many things decaied in it, bothe by ȳ negligence of ȳ Kings his predecessors, and also by the wickednes of the idolaters.

6 ¶ Yet in the three and twentieth yere of King Iehoash the Priests had not mended that which was decayed in ȳ Temple.

7 Then King Iehoash called for Iehoiada the Priest, and the other Priests, and said vnto them, Why repaire ye not the ruines of the Temple? now therefore receiue no more money of your acquaintance, excepte ye deliuer it to repaire the ruines of the Temple.

e He taketh from them the ordering of the money because of their negligence.

8 So the Priests consented to receiue no more money of the people, nether to repaire the decayed places of ȳ Temple.

9 Then Iehoiada the Priest toke a chest & bored an hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the f right side, as euerie man commeth into the Temple of the Lord. And the Priests that kept the g dore, put there in all the money ȳ was broght into the house of the Lord.

f That is, on ȳ Southside.

g Or, vessel.

10 And when they sawe there was muche money in the chest, the Kings secretary came vp & the hie Priest, and put it vp after, that they had tolde the money ȳ was founde in the house of the Lord,

11 And they gaue the money made redy into the hands of them, h that vndertoke the worke, and that had the ouersight of the house of the Lord and they payed it out to the carpēters and buylders that wroght vpon the house of the Lord, h For the King had appointed other which were mete for that purpose. Chap. 22, 5.

12 And to the masons and hewers of stone, and to bye tymber and hewed stostone, to repaire that was decayed in the house of ỹ Lord, and for all that which was layed out for the reparacion of the temple.

h For these mē had onely the charge of ỹ reparacion of the Temple, and ỹ rest of ỹ money was broght to ỹ King, who caused these afterwarde to be made, 2. Chron. 24, 14.

13 How beit there was hnot made for the house of the Lord bowles of siluer, instruments of musike, basons, trumpets, nor anie vessels of golde, or vessels of siluer of the money that was broght into the house of the Lord.

14 But they gaue it to the workemen, ŵ repaired therewith the house of the Lord.

15 Moreouer, they rekened not with the men, into whose hands they deliuered that money to be bestowed on workmē: for they dealt faithfully.

16 The money of the trespasse offring and the money of the sinne offrings was not broght into the house of the Lord: for it was the Priests.

17 ¶ Then came vp Hazael King of Aram, and fought against Gath and toke it, and Hazael set his face to go vp to Ierusalem.

i After ỹ death of Iehoiada Ioash fel to idolatrie therefore God reiecteth him, and stirreth vp his enemie against him, whome he pacified with the treasures of the Tẽple: for God wolde not be serued ŵ those gifts, seing the Kings heart was wicked.

18 And Iehoash King of Iudah toke all the ihallowed things that Iehoshaphat, & Iehoram, and Ahaziah his fathers Kings of Iudah had dedicate, and that he him selfe had dedicated, and all the golde that was founde in the treasures of the house of the Lord and in ỹ Kings house, and sent it to Hazael King of Aram, and he departed from Ierusalem.

19 Concerning the rest of the actes of Ioash and all that he did, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah?

k Because he had put Zacharie the sonne of Iehoiada to death, 2. Chro. 24, 25.

20 ¶ And his seruants arose and wroght treason, and kslewe Ioash in the house of lMillo, when he came downe to Silla:

Iehoahaz the sonne of Iehu is deliuered into the hands of the Syrians. 5 He prayeth vnto God and his deliuered. 9 Ioash his sonne reigneth in his steade. 24 Hazael dyeth. 26 Elisha dyeth.

1 IN the thre and twētieth yere of Ioash the sonne of Ahaziah King of Iudah, Iehoahaz the sonne of Iehu bega to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, and he reigned seuentene yere.

2 And he did euil in the sight of ỹ Lord, and followed the sinnes of Ieroboam ỹ sonne of Nebat, ŵ made Israel to asinne, and departed not therefrom.

a By worshiping ỹ calues, which Ieroboam did erect in Israel.

3 And the Lord was angry with Israel, and deliuered them into the hand of Hazael King of Aram, and into ỹ hand of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael, all b*his* dayes.

b While Iehoahaz liued.

4 And Iehoahaz besoght the Lord, and ỹ Lord heard him for he sawe the trouble of Israel, wherewith the King of Aram troubled them.

5 (And the Lord gaue Israel cdeliuerer, so that they came out from vnder the subiection of the Aramites. And ỹ children of Israel ddwelt in their tentes as "before time.

c To wit, Ioash the sonne of Iehoahaz.

d Safely and without diger.

"Ebr. as yesterday and before yesterday.

6 Neuertheles they departed not from the sinnes of the house of ỹ made Israel sinne, but walked in them: euen the egroue also remained stil in Samaria)

e Wherein they did cōmit their idolatrie, & ŵ the Lord had commanded to be destroyed, Deut. 16, 20.

7 For he had left of the people to Iehoahaz but fiftie horsemē, and ten charets, & ten thousand fotemen, because the King fof Aram had destroyed them, and made them like dust beaten to poudre.

f That is, Hazael and Benhadad his sonne, as vers. 3. read of Hazael Cha. 8, 12.

8 Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehoahaz and all that he did, and his valiant dedes, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

9 And Iehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in Samaria, and Ioash his sonne reigned in his steade.

g His chief purpose is to describe ỹ kigdome of Iudah & how God performed his promes made to the house of Dauid but by ỹ way he sheweth how Israel was afflicted and punished for their great idolatrie, who thogh they had now degenerat, yet God bothe by seding the sundry Prophetes and diuers punishmēts did call the vnto him againe.

10 ¶ In the seuen and thirtieth yere of Ioash King gof Iudah began Iehoash the sonne of Iehoahaz to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixtene yere, 11 And did euil in the sight of the Lord: for he departed not from all the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat that made Israel to sinne, but he walked therein.

h Thus they vsed to call the Prophetes and seruāts of God by whome God blessed his people, as chap. 2, 12. meaning that by their prayers they did more prosper their countrey, then by force of armes.

12 Cōcerning the rest of ỹ actes of Ioash and all that he did, and his valiant dedes, and how he fought against Amaziah King of Iudah, are they not writen in the boke of the Chronicles of the King of Israel.

13 And Ioash slept with his fathers, & Ieroboam sate vpō his seat: & Ioash was buryed in Samaria among the Kings of Israel.

14 ¶ When Elisha fel sicke of his sickne, whereof he dyed, Ioash the King of Israel came downe vnto him, and wept vpon his face, & said, h O my father, my father, the charet of Israel, & the horsemen of the same.

15 Then Elisha said vnto him, Take a boxe and arowes. And he toke vnto him boxe and arowes.

16 And he said to the King of Israel, Put thine hand vpon the bow. And he put his hād vpon it. And Elisha put his hāds vpon the Kings hands,

17 And said, Open the windowe i Eastwarde. And when he had opened it, Elisha liſha ſaid, Shote. And he ſhot. And he ſaid, Beholde the arowe of the Lords deliuerance & the arowe of deliuerance againſt Aram: for thou ſhalt ſmite the Aramites in Aphek, til thou haſt conſumed them.

18 Againe he ſaid, Take the arowes. And he toke them. And he ſaid vnto the King of Iſrael, Smite the ground. And he ſmote thrise, and ceaſed.

19 Then the man of God was [k]angry w[h] him, and ſaid, Thou ſhuldeſt haue ſmiten fiue or ſix times, ſo thou ſhuldeſt haue ſmiten Aram, til thou hadeſt conſumed it, where now thou ſhalt ſmite Aram but thrise.

20 ¶ So Eliſha dyed, & they buryed him. And certeine bands of the Moabites came into the land that yere.

21 And as they were burying a man, beholde, they ſawe the ſouldiers: therefore they caſt the man into the ſepulchre of Eliſha. And when the man was downe, & touched the bones of Eliſha, * he [l]reuiued & ſtode vpon his fete.

22 ¶ But Hazael King of Aram vexed Iſrael all the daies of Iehoahaz.

23 Therefore the Lord had mercie on them, and pitied them, and had reſpect vnto them becauſe of his couenant with Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob, and wolde not deſtroy them, nether caſt he thē from him as [m]yet.

24 So Hazael the King of Aram dyed: and Ben-hadad his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.

25 Therefore Iehoaſh ỹ ſonne of Iehoahaz returned, and toke out of the hād of Benhadad the ſonne of Hazael ỹ cities which he had taken away by warre out of the hand of Iehoahaz his father: for thre times did Ioaſh beat him, and reſtored the cities vnto Iſrael.

k Becauſe he ſemed contēt to haue victorie againſt the enemies of God for twiſe or thriſe, and had not a zeale to ouer come them continually and to deſtroy them vtterly.

Eccleſ. 48, 14.

l By this miracle God confirmed the autoritie of Eliſha whoſe doctrine in his life they contemned, that at th's ſight they might returne & imbrace the ſame doctrine.

m That is, vntil their ſinnes were come to a ful meaſure, & there was no more hope of amendment.

CHAP. XIIII.

Amaziah the King of Iudah putteth to death them that ſlewe his father, 7 And after ſmiteth Edom. 15 Ioaſh dyeth, and Ieroboam his ſonne ſuccedeth him. And after him reigneth Zachariah.

1 THe ſeconde yere of Ioaſh ſonne of Iehoahaz King of Iſrael reigned *Amaziah the ſonne of Ioaſh King of Iudah.

2 He was fiue and twētie yere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned nine and twentie yere in Ieruſalem, & his mothers name was Iehoadan of Ieruſalem.

3 And he did [a] vprightly in the ſight of the Lord, yet not like Dauid his father, but did according to all that Ioaſh his father had done.

4 Notwithſtanding the hie places were not taken away: for as yet the people did ſacrifice & burnt incenſe in the hie places.

5 ¶ And when the kingdome was cōfirmed in his hand, *he ſlewe his ſeruants which had killed the King his father.

6 But the children of thoſe that did ſlay him, he [b] ſlewe not, according vnto that that is writen in the boke of the Lawe of Moſes, wherein the Lord commanded, ſaying, * The fathers ſhal not be put to death for the children, nor the childrē put to death for the fathers but euerie man ſhal be put to death for his owne ſinne.

7 He ſlewe alſo of [c] Edom in the valley of ſalt ten thouſand, and toke [d] the citie of Sela by warre, & called the name thereof Iokthеel vnto this day.

8 ¶ Then Amaziah ſent meſſengers to Iehoaſh the ſonne of Iehoahaz, ſonne of Iehu King of Iſrael, ſaying, Come, [d] let vs ſe one another in the face.

9 Then Iehoaſh the King of Iſrael ſent to Amaziah King of Iudah, ſaying, The thiſtle that is in Lebanon, ſent to the [e] cedre that is in Lebanon, ſaying, Giue thy daughter to my ſonne to wife: and the wilde beaſt that was in Lebanon, went and trode downe the thiſtle.

10 Becauſe thou haſt ſmiten Edom, thine heart hathe made thee proude: [f] brag of glorie, & tarye at home, why doeſt thou prouoke to thine hurt, that thou ſhuldeſt fall, and Iudah with thee.

11 But Amaziah wolde not heare: therefore Iehoaſh King of Iſrael went vp: and he & Amaziah King of Iudah ſawe one another in the face at Beth-ſhemeſh ẅ is in Iudah.

12 And Iudah was put to the worſe before Iſrael, and they fled euerie man to their tentes.
